For the relief of Terence J. O'Donnell, Thomas P. Wilcox, and Clifford M. Springberg.

Terence J.
O'Donnell, and others.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Terence J. O'Donnell, the sum of $435.83; to Thomas P. Wilcox, the sum of $3,138.20; and to Clifford M. Springberg, the sum of $1,144.52. The payment of such sums shall be in full settlement of all claims of the said Terence J. O'Donnell, Thomas P. Wilcox, and Clifford M. Springberg against the United States growing out of the fire of May 30, 1962, at Skwentna, Alaska, which destroyed the Government-owned quarters inhabited by Mr. Wilcox and his family and temporarily inhabited by Messrs. O'Donnell and Springberg: Provided, That no part of the money appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved August 28, 1965.

[H. R. 5819]

For the relief of John Henry Taylor.

John Henry Taylor.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That John Henry Taylor, of Columbus, Georgia, is relieved of liability to pay to the United States the sum of $923.51, representing the amount of salary overpayment received by him from the Post Office Department in the periods of January 1, 1953, through November 30, 1957, and January 11, 1958, through September 15, 1962, due to administrative error in the certification of service for longevity credit and without fault on his part. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this section.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury shall pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to John Henry Taylor, of Columbus, Georgia, the sum certified to him by the Postmaster General as the aggregate of amounts paid to the United States by John Henry Taylor and amounts withheld by the United States from sums otherwise due him from the United States on account of the liability referred to in the first section of this Act. No part of the amount appropriated in this section shall be paid or delivered to or received
