GPO CONTRIBUTES TO TASK FORCE ON NEW AMERICANS IN ROLLING OUT INITIATIVES

MEDIA ADVISORY**

WHO:

Task Force Members:

William H. Turri, Acting Public Printer, U.S. Government Printing Office
Emilio Gonzalez, Director, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Department of Homeland Security
Anna Escobedo Cabral, U.S. Treasurer, Department of Treasury
Alfonso Aguilar, Office of Citizenship, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services
James Williams, Commissioner, Federal Acquisition Service, General Services Administration
Martha Newton, Director, Office of Refugee Resettlement, Department of Health and Human Services
Kathy Wills Wright, Deputy Director, USA Freedom Corps

WHAT:

In June 2006, President George W. Bush created the Task Force on New Americans that included Federal agencies working together in developing a series of initiatives to strengthen immigrant intergration efforts. These inter-agency projects aim to help immigrants to learn English, embrace the common core of American civic culture and fully become Americans. The Task Force on New Americans will highlight these programs and initiatives. The U.S. Government Printing Office (GPO) designed and produced several of the educational materials prepared for immigrants at various stages in their journey towards American citizenship: the Civics and Citizenship Toolkit and the website www.citizenshiptoolkit.gov.
