SENATE COMMITTEE VOTES FAVORABLY ON PUBLIC PRINTER NOMINATION

WASHINGTON—The U.S. Senate Rules and Administration Committee voted favorably on the nomination of Public Printer William J. “Bill” Boarman out of committee and to the full Senate for consideration. President Barack Obama renominated Public Printer Boarman in January. The President appointed Boarman on December 29, 2010, during a recess of the Senate. Boarman has been serving as the Chief Executive Officer of the U.S. Government Printing Office (GPO) since January 3, 2011. He is the 26th Public Printer of the United States.

Committee vote at 33:50:
