Public Law 93-172

AN ACT

November 30, 1973 [H. R. 10937]

To extend the life of the June 5, 1972, grand jury of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) notwithstanding rule 6(g) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, or any other law, rule, or regulation, the term of the grand jury of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia which was impaneled on June 5, 1972, is extended to June 4, 1974. If the United States District Court for the District of Columbia determines that the business of the grand jury will not be completed by that date, that court is authorized to extend its term for an additional six months. U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia. Grand jury of June 5, 1972, extension. 18 USC app.

(b) If the United States District Court for the District of Columbia fails to extend the term of the grand jury beyond the statutory extension period ending June 4, 1974, the Chief Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit may extend its term for an additional six months on application by the grand jury upon the affirmative vote of a majority of its members that it has not completed its business. Upon the making of such an application by the grand jury, its term shall continue until the Chief Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit enters an appropriate order. In no event shall the term of the grand jury extend beyond December 4, 1974. Expiration date.

Approved November 30, 1973.
