

Oct. 31, 1977
[H. Con. Res. 241]

“GIVE YOURSELF CREDIT: GUIDE TO CONSUMER CREDIT LAWS”

Printing of copies.

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring),
That there shall be reprinted for the use of the Subcommittee on Consumer Affairs of the Committee on Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs one hundred thousand copies of House Document No. 95-167 entitled “Give Yourself Credit: Guide to Consumer Credit Laws”.

Passed October 31, 1977.

Nov. 3, 1977
[H. Con. Res. 182]

“BLACK AMERICANS IN CONGRESS”

Whereas black Americans have been among this Nation’s leadership;
and
Whereas this Nation’s black leadership has received only limited recognition; and
Whereas the forty-five black Americans who have been elected to Congress over the past century brought with them an impressive array of professional, technical, and political skills; and
Whereas black Americans in the United States Congress have constituted a representative cross section of its total membership—in essence, a Congress in microcosm; and
Whereas black Americans who have served and are serving in the United States Congress are outstanding in their demonstrated ability as public servants and zealous in their constitutional pursuit of justice and equality of opportunity for all, without reference to race, creed or national origin; and
Whereas black Americans in the United States Congress have directed their energies toward promoting the public welfare by developing, introducing, supporting and enacting legislation designed to meet the needs of neglected persons; and
Whereas this corps of black Congresswomen and Congressmen inspires by its precept a deep and basic sense of racial pride and individual worth; and
Whereas the black Members of the House of Representatives conceived and launched the congressional Black Caucus to “promote the public welfare”, a function which it has, and continues to, faithfully discharge: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring),
That there be printed as a House document the pamphlet entitled “Black Americans in Congress”. Except as provided in section 2 of this concurrent resolution, the document shall be identical to the original pamphlet published pursuant to H. Con. Res. 682, adopted August 30, 1976.

SEC. 2. The material on the inside front cover of such original pamphlet shall be deleted and a copy of this concurrent resolution, excluding this section and sections 3 and 4, shall be printed in lieu thereof. The inside front cover of the document printed pursuant to this concurrent resolution shall be identical in format to the inside front cover of such original pamphlet. The inside back cover of such document shall contain a list of the cosponsors of this concurrent resolution and of any companion concurrent resolutions introduced by the sponsor of this concurrent resolution. In such listing, the party affiliation and the State of residence of each such cosponsor shall be indicated.

Printing as House document.

90 Stat. 3044.

SEC. 3. There shall be printed, in addition to the usual number of copies, one hundred and eighty-nine thousand two hundred copies, of which one hundred and seventy-six thousand eight hundred copies shall be for the use of the House of Representatives, and twelve thousand four hundred copies shall be for the use of the Senate.

Additional
copies.

SEC. 4. Copies of such document shall be prorated to each Senator and Representative in, or Delegate or Resident Commissioner to, the Congress for a period of sixty days, after which the unused balance shall revert to the respective Senate and House document rooms. During the sixty-day period beginning on the date the unused balance reverts to the respective document rooms, any Senator and Representative in, or Delegate or Resident Commissioner to, the Congress may draw on the unused balance of the House in which such individual serves for additional copies of the document, but the aggregate number of additional copies drawn during such period by any such individual may not exceed the individual's pro rata share of the unused balance. After that period, any such individual may draw on any unused balance of either House for additional copies of the document without limitation on the number of copies which may be so drawn.

Passed November 3, 1977.

---

“HOW OUR LAWS ARE MADE”

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That the brochure entitled “How Our Laws Are Made”, as set out in House Document Numbered 94-509 of the Ninety-fourth Congress, be printed as a House document, with a suitable paperback cover of a style, design, and color, to be selected by the chairman of the Committee on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives, with emendations, and with a foreword by the Honorable Peter W. Rodino, Junior; and that there be printed two hundred and forty-six thousand additional copies, of which twenty-five thousand shall be for the use of the Committee on the Judiciary and the balance prorated to the Members of the House of Representatives.

Nov. 3, 1977
[H. Con. Res. 190]

Printing as
House document.

SEC. 2. There shall be printed for the use of the Senate thirty-six thousand four hundred additional copies of the document specified in section 1 of this concurrent resolution.

Additional
copies.

Passed November 3, 1977.

---

“OUR FLAG”

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That there be printed as a House document a revised edition of “Our Flag”, revised under the direction of the Committee on House Administration.

Nov. 3, 1977
[H. Con. Res. 204]

Printing as
House document.

SEC. 2. In addition to the usual number of copies, there shall be printed two hundred fifty thousand two hundred and fifty additional copies, of which two hundred and twenty-four thousand five hundred copies shall be for the House of Representatives, and twenty-five thousand seven hundred and fifty copies shall be for the use of the Senate.

Additional
copies.

Passed November 3, 1977.