FIVE LIBRARIES PARTNER WITH GPO TO PRESERVE GOVERNMENT INFORMATION

WASHINGTON – Merrill Cazier Library at Utah State University has signed a Memorandum of Agreement with the U.S. Government Publishing Office (GPO) to become a Preservation Steward, and four other libraries are adding materials to their current Preservation Steward collections. To help libraries meet the needs of efficient Government document stewardship in the digital era, GPO has established Preservation Stewards to support continued public access to U.S. Government documents in print format. Preservation Stewards contribute significantly to the effort to preserve printed documents.

“GPO thanks these five libraries for their help in realizing GPO’s vision of an America Informed,” said GPO Director Hugh Nathaniel Halpern. “The preservation of these historical and modern Government materials in libraries across the Nation supports American democracy now and in the future.”
