GPO NAMED ONE OF AMERICA'S BEST EMPLOYERS FOR VETERANS

WASHINGTON – The U.S. Government Publishing Office (GPO) has been named to the Forbes list of America’s Best Employers for Veterans 2022. GPO has a long-standing history of employing veterans dating back to the Civil War and currently employs 640 veterans who make up 40 percent of the Agency’s workforce. For decades, the Agency has hosted an annual Veterans Day Program in recognition of the service and sacrifice of our GPO veteran teammates. This award comes after GPO was named one of the best employers in the Nation earlier this year.

“Veterans are part of the fabric of our Agency and its vision of an America Informed, starting during the Civil War to the present day,” said GPO Director Hugh Nathaniel Halpern.

“These men and women made tremendous sacrifices and continue to serve the Nation in the work we do for Congress, the White House, and Federal agencies. On behalf of all of us at GPO, I thank Forbes for this important recognition. Most of all, I thank our veterans for their service.”

Forbes and Statista selected GPO as part of the America’s Best Employers for Veterans 2022 through an independent survey of roughly 7,000 U.S. veterans working part-time or full-time for companies employing at least 1,000 people within the U.S.. The evaluation was based on direct and indirect recommendations from employees who were asked to rate their willingness to recommend their own employers to friends and family. Employee evaluations also included other employers in their respective industries that stood out either positively or negatively. Furthermore, participants were asked to give their opinion on a series of statements related to their own employer, including atmosphere and development, image, working conditions, salary and wage, workplace, diversity, and a set of topics related specifically to the interests of veterans in the workplace.
