FEDERAL AGENCIES CAN SIGN UP AND BEGIN SUBMITTING CONGRESSIONALLY MANDATED REPORTS THIS MONTH

WASHINGTON – The U.S. Government Publishing Office (GPO) has moved to the next phase of accepting submissions of congressionally mandated reports (CMR) from Federal agencies during the month of October. Agencies can now sign up for a submission portal account. Beginning on October 16th, agencies can start submitting their reports to GPO through their portal accounts.

To begin the process, authorized agency personnel should go to the Congressionally Mandated Reports Submission Portal: <https://ask.gpo.gov/s/CMR>

“Our GPO teammates made great progress in developing the systems for Federal agencies to comply with the new law and to begin the process of making these reports available to the public,” said GPO Director Hugh Nathaniel Halpern. “Having a one-stop location on GovInfo will provide the American people an invaluable opportunity to see information which was often not publicly available.”

Agencies are now required by law to submit congressionally mandated reports to GPO. The reports will be published and made available to the public on GPO’s online system, GovInfo (<https://www.govinfo.gov/>), beginning December 2023. When fully deployed, this will be the first time congressionally mandated reports will be accessible to the public in one place. Under this new requirement, agencies will continue their current practice of submitting printed, signed copies of mandated reports directly to Congress and committees and subcommittees.

All resources related to congressionally mandated reports for Federal agencies can be found at <https://www.gpo.gov/congressionally-mandated-reports>.
