S. RES. 232

To congratulate the Houston Rockets for winning the 1994 National Basketball Association Championship.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JUNE 23 (legislative day, JUNE 7), 1994

Mr. GRAMM (for himself and Mrs. HUTCHISON) submitted the following resolution; which was considered and agreed to

RESOLUTION

To congratulate the Houston Rockets for winning the 1994 National Basketball Association Championship.

Whereas the Houston Rockets began the 1993–94 season with a 15–0 start, tying an NBA record;

Whereas the Rockets finished the 1993–94 season with a 58–24 record, second best in the NBA, and won the Midwest Division for the second consecutive year;

Whereas second-year coach Rudy Tomjanovich and his assistants helped transform the Rockets from a solid playoff team into the NBA's best;

Whereas Hakeem Olajuwon was named the NBA's most valuable player for the regular season, defensive player of the year, and most valuable player of the NBA Finals;

Whereas the Rockets won a hard-fought seven game series with the New York Knicks in which each game was decided by less than ten points; and

Whereas the Rockets gave the city of Houston its first NBA Championship, a unique and special accomplishment in Houston sports history: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the Senate congratulates the Houston
2 Rockets for their outstanding heart, resolve, and deter-
3 mination in winning the 1994 National Basketball Asso-
4 ciation Championship.
