CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of Congress that Members of Congress should follow the examples of self-sacrifice and devotion to character displayed by Jacob Chestnut and John Gibson of the United States Capitol Police.

Whereas Jacob Chestnut and John Gibson of the United States Capitol Police laid down their lives for their country and all of us;

Whereas beyond the devotion of Jacob Chestnut and John Gibson to duty, honor, and country was their commitment to respect;

Whereas Jacob Chestnut and John Gibson were simple, humble, private men who deeply moved this nation simply by doing their jobs;

Whereas the focus on their exemplary personal character could not have come at a time of greater need as many in our country seem more and more dedicated to self-indulgence; and

Whereas the Members of Congress have an unparalleled opportunity to be urgently needed role models of respect and dignity with no loss of personal principles: Now, therefore, be it

1        Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
 2 concurring), That Members of Congress should follow the
 3 example of Jacob Chestnut and John Gibson by living lives
 4 of love, respect, and integrity every day at all times, in-
 5 cluding on the floor of the Senate and House of Represent-
 6 atives, and should deserve the title “Honorable” by setting
 7 an example so that Jacob Chestnut and John Gibson did
 8 not die in vain.
