1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Silk Road Strategy
3 Act of 1997”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress makes the following findings:

6 (1) The ancient Silk Road, once the economic 7 lifeline of Central Asia and the South Caucasus, tra-
8 versed much of the territory now within the coun-
9 tries of Armenia, Azerbaijan, Georgia, Kazakstan, 10 Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, and 11 Uzbekistan.

12 (2) Economic interdependence spurred mutual
13 cooperation among the peoples along the Silk Road
14 and restoration of the historic relationships and eco-
15 nomic ties between those peoples is an important ele-16 ment of ensuring their sovereignty as well as the 17 success of democratic and market reforms.

18 (3) The development of strong political and eco-
19 nomic ties between countries of the South Caucasus
20 and Central Asia and the West will foster stability
21 in the region.

22 (4) The development of open market economies 23 and open democratic systems in the countries of the 24 South Caucasus and Central Asia will provide posi-
25 tive incentives for international private investment,

1 increased trade, and other forms of commercial
2 interactions with the rest of the world.

3 (5) The Caspian Sea Basin, overlapping the 4 territory of the countries of the South Caucasus and 5 Central Asia, contains proven oil and gas reserves
6 that may exceed $4,000,000,000,000 in value.

7 (6) The region of the South Caucasus and Cen-
8 tral Asia will produce oil and gas in sufficient quan-
9 tities to reduce the dependence of the United States
10 on energy from the volatile Persian Gulf region.

11 (7) United States foreign policy and inter-12 national assistance should be narrowly targeted to 13 support the economic and political independence of 14 the countries of the South Caucasus and Central 15 Asia.

16 SEC. 3. POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES.

17 It shall be the policy of the United States in the coun-
18 tries of the South Caucasus and Central Asia—

19 (1) to promote and strengthen independence,
20 sovereignty, and democratic government;

21 (2) to assist actively in the resolution of re-
22 gional conflicts;

23 (3) to promote friendly relations and economic 24 cooperation;

1 (4) to help promote market-oriented principles
2 and practices;

3 (5) to assist in the development of the infra-
4 structure necessary for communications, transpor-
5 tation, and energy and trade on an East-West axis 6 in order to build strong international relations and 7 commerce between those countries and the stable, 8 democratic, and market-oriented countries of the 9 Euro-Atlantic Community; and

10 (6) to support United States business interests
11 and investments in the region.

12 SEC. 4. UNITED STATES EFFORTS TO RESOLVE CONFLICTS
13 IN GEORGIA, AZERBAIJAN, AND TAJIKISTAN.

14 It is the sense of Congress that the President should 15 use all diplomatic means practicable, including the engage-16 ment of senior United States Government officials, to 17 press for an equitable, fair, and permanent resolution to 18 the conflicts in Georgia and Azerbaijan and the civil war
19 in Tajikistan.
