6 SEC. 102. MODIFICATION OF FUNCTIONS OF THE CENTRAL 7 INTELLIGENCE AGENCY TO INCLUDE MAN-
8 AGEMENT OF THE INTELLIGENCE COMMU-
9 NITY.

10 (a) MODIFICATION OF FUNCTIONS.—Section 102A of 11 the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 403–1) is 12 amended by striking all after the heading and inserting
13 the following:

14 “(a) ESTABLISHMENT.—There is a Central Intel-
15 ligence Agency.

16 “(b) FUNCTION.—The function of the Agency shall 17 be to assist the Director of Central Intelligence in carrying 18 out the duties, responsibilities, and authorities of the Di-
19 rector of Central Intelligence under this Act.

20 “(c) RESPONSIBILITIES.—The Director of Central 21 Intelligence shall—

22 “(1) collect, coordinate, and direct the collection
23 of intelligence and intelligence-related information 24 through human sources, technical means, and by 25 other appropriate or supplementary methods, except

1 that the Agency may not exercise police, subpoena,
2 or law enforcement powers within the United States,
3 except as otherwise permitted by law or as directed 4 by the President;

5 “(2)(A) provide overall coordination and direc-
6 tion to the intelligence community for the collection
7 of national intelligence through human sources, tech-
8 nical means, and by other appropriate or supple-
9 mentary methods, that are undertaken by elements 10 of the intelligence community authorized to under-11 take such collection; and,

12 “(B) in coordination with other agencies of the 13 Government which are authorized to undertake such 14 collection, coordinate and direct such elements so 15 that the most effective use is made of resources and 16 that the risks to the United States involved in such 17 collection are taken into consideration;

18 “(3) provide overall coordination and direction 19 to the intelligence community to ensure that all ele-
20 ments of the intelligence community correlate, evalu-21 ate, exploit, and, as appropriate, disseminate in a 22 timely manner all national intelligence collected by 23 the intelligence community—

24 “(A) to the President and to other ele-
25 ments of the intelligence community;

1 “(B) to the national security and homeland
2 security components of the United States gov-3 ernment; and

4 “(C) to other national level policymakers
5 and to military commanders;

6 “(4) coordinate and direct the performance by 7 elements of the intelligence community of such addi-
8 tional services as are of common concern to the ele-9 ments of the intelligence community to ensure that 10 the most effective use is made of resources, and to 11 undertake the performance of such services centrally 12 when the Director of Central Intelligence determines 13 efficiencies can be accomplished thereby; and 14 “(5) perform, coordinate, and direct such other 15 functions, duties, and activities related to intel-

16 ligence affecting the national security and the home-
17 land security as the President or the National Secu-18 rity Council may direct.”.

19 (b) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—Subsection (d) of 20 section 103 of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 21 U.S.C. 403–3) is repealed.

25 ligence.

1 “(2) Except in time of war, one of the individ-
2 uals serving in the positions specified in paragraph 3 (1)(B) should be either—

4 “(A) a commissioned officer of the Armed 5 Forces, whether in active or retired status; or

6 “(B) have, through training or experience,
7 an understanding of military intelligence activi-
8 ties and requirements.

9 “(3) If one of the positions specified in para-10 graph (1)(B) is filled by a commissioned officer of 11 the Armed Forces, such officer—

12 “(A) shall not be subject to supervision or 13 control by the Secretary of Defense or by any 14 officer or employee of the Department of De-15 fense;

16 “(B) shall not exercise, by reason of the 17 officer’s status as a commissioned officer, any 18 supervision or control with respect to any of the 19 military or civilian personnel of the Department
20 of Defense except as otherwise authorized by 21 law; and

22 “(C) shall not be counted against the num-
23 bers and percentages of commissioned officers
24 of the rank and grade of such officer authorized 25 for the military department of that officer.”.

- 1 (2) Subsection (d) of such section is amended—
2 (A) by striking paragraphs (2) and (3);
3 (B) in paragraph (1)—
4 (i) by striking “(A)” after “(1)”; and 19 and consent of the Senate.

20 “(b) CHIEF LEGAL OFFICER.—The General Counsel
21 is the chief legal officer of the intelligence community.

22 “(c) DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES.—The General
23 Counsel of the Intelligence Community shall—

24 “(1) assist the Director of Central Intelligence
25 in carrying out the Director’s responsibilities to en-
26 sure that the intelligence community is well orga-

1 nized and that the elements of the intelligence com-
2 munity—

3 “(A) are operating as authorized by law;

4 “(B) are operating in compliance with any 5 directives, policies, standards, and guidelines
6 issued by the Director of Central Intelligence; 7 and

8 “(C) have all authorities necessary to pro-
9 vide timely and relevant intelligence information
10 to the President, other policymakers, and mili-
11 tary commanders;

12 “(2) serve as the chief legal officer of the intel-
13 ligence community;

14 “(3) coordinate the legal programs of the var-
15 ious elements of the intelligence community;

16 “(4) coordinate with the Department of Justice
17 to ensure that the activities of the intelligence com-18 munity are consistent with the obligations of the 19 Constitution and laws, regulations, and executive or-20 ders of the United States;

21 “(5) recommend to the Director of Central In-22 telligence directives, policies, and standards relating 23 to the activities of the intelligence community;

24 “(6) review on an annual basis, in coordination
25 with appropriate Associate and Assistant Directors

1 of Central Intelligence, as well as with the heads of 2 each element of the intelligence community, the legal 3 authorities of each element to determine if changes
4 or modifications to those authorities are required;
5 and

6 “(7) carry out such other duties as the Director
7 of Central Intelligence may specify.

8 “(d) TRANSFER.—There shall be transferred to the 9 Office of the General Counsel established under this sec-
10 tion the Office of the General Counsel of the Central Intel-11 ligence Agency established by section 20 of the Central 12 Intelligence Agency Act of 1949 (50 U.S.C. 403t). The 13 personnel, assets, liabilities, contracts, property, records,
14 and unexpended balances of appropriations, authoriza-
15 tions, allocations, and other funds employed, held, used,
16 arising from, or available to such Office of General Coun-
17 sel are hereby transferred to the Office established pursu-18 ant to this section.”.

19 (b) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of sections
20 for that Act is amended by inserting after the item relat-
21 ing to section 102A the following new item:

“Sec. 102B. General Counsel of the Intelligence Community.”.

22 (c) CONFORMING REPEAL.—Section 20 of the Cen-23 tral Intelligence Agency Act of 1949 (50 U.S.C. 403t) is 24 repealed.

1 SEC. 106. INSPECTOR GENERAL OF THE INTELLIGENCE
2 COMMUNITY.

3 (a) ESTABLISHMENT.—Title I of the National Secu-4 rity Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 402 et seq.), as amended by 5 section 105(a), is further amended by inserting after sec-
6 tion 102B the following new section:

7 “INSPECTOR GENERAL OF THE INTELLIGENCE
8 COMMUNITY

9 “SEC. 102C. (a) PURPOSE; ESTABLISHMENT.—In 10 order to—

11 “(1) create an objective and effective office, ap-12 propriately accountable to Congress, to initiate and 13 conduct independently inspections, investigations, 14 and audits relating to programs and operations of 15 the intelligence community;

16 “(2) provide leadership and recommend policies
17 designed to promote economy, efficiency, and effec-18 tiveness in the administration of such programs and 19 operations, and detect fraud and abuse in such pro-20 grams and operations;

21 “(3) provide a means for keeping the Director 22 fully and currently informed about problems and de-
23 ficiencies relating to the administration of such pro-24 grams and operations, and the necessity for and the 25 progress of corrective actions; and

1 “(4) in the manner prescribed by this section,
2 ensure that the Senate Select Committee on Intel-
3 ligence and the House Permanent Select Committee
4 on Intelligence (hereafter in this section referred to 5 collectively as the ‘intelligence committees’) are kept 6 similarly informed of significant problems and defi-
7 ciencies as well as the necessity for and the progress
8 of corrective actions,
9 there is hereby established in the Office of the Director
10 of Central Intelligence an Office of Inspector General
11 (hereafter in this section referred to as the ‘Office’).

12 “(b) APPOINTMENT; SUPERVISION; REMOVAL.—(1)
13 There shall be at the head of the Office an Inspector Gen-14 eral who shall be appointed by the President, by and with 15 the advice and consent of the Senate. This appointment 16 shall be made without regard to political affiliation and 17 shall be solely on the basis of integrity, compliance with 18 the security standards of the Central Intelligence Agency, 19 and prior experience in the field of foreign intelligence.
20 Such appointment shall also be made on the basis of dem-
21 onstrated ability in accounting, financial analysis, law, 22 management analysis, public administration, or auditing.

23 “(2) The Inspector General shall report to the Direc-
24 tor of Central Intelligence directly, or through the Deputy

1 Director of Central Intelligence, and be under the general
2 supervision of the Director.

3 “(3) The Director may prohibit the Inspector General 4 from initiating, carrying out, or completing any audit, in-5 spection, or investigation if the Director determines that 6 such prohibition is necessary to protect vital national secu-
7 rity interests of the United States.

8 “(4) If the Director exercises any power under para-
9 graph (3), the Director shall submit an appropriately clas-10 sified statement of the reasons for the exercise of such 11 power within seven days to the intelligence committees.
12 The Director shall advise the Inspector General at the 13 time such report is submitted, and, to the extent con-14 sistent with the protection of intelligence sources and 15 methods, provide the Inspector General with a copy of any 16 such report. In such cases, the Inspector General may sub-17 mit such comments to the intelligence committees that the 18 Inspector General considers appropriate.

19 “(5) In accordance with section 535 of title 28, 20 United States Code, the Inspector General shall report to 21 the Attorney General any information, allegation, or com-
22 plaint received by the Inspector General relating to viola-23 tions of Federal criminal law that involve a program or 24 operation of the Agency and the intelligence community, 25 consistent with such guidelines as may be issued by the

1 Attorney General pursuant to subsection (b)(2) of such 2 section. A copy of all such reports shall be furnished to 3 the Director.

4 “(6) The Inspector General may be removed from of-5 fice only by the President. The President shall imme-6 diately communicate in writing to the intelligence commit-
7 tees the reasons for any such removal.

8 “(c) DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES.—(1) The In-9 spector General is the Inspector General of the Intel-
10 ligence Community. The Inspector General shall coordi-
11 nate with the Inspectors General of each element of the 12 intelligence community in carrying out duties under this 13 Act.

14 “(2) It shall be the duty and responsibility of the In-15 spector General appointed under this section—

16 “(A) to provide policy direction for, and to plan, 17 conduct, supervise, and coordinate independently, 18 the inspections, investigations, and audits relating to 19 the programs and operations of the Agency and the 20 intelligence community to ensure they are conducted 21 efficiently and in accordance with applicable law and 22 regulations;

23 “(B) to keep the Director fully and currently 24 informed concerning violations of law and regula-25 tions, fraud and other serious problems, abuses and

1 deficiencies that may occur in such programs and 2 operations, and to report the progress made in im-
3 plementing corrective action;

4 “(C) to take due regard for the protection of in-5 telligence sources and methods in the preparation of 6 all reports issued by the Office, and, to the extent
7 consistent with the purpose and objective of such re-8 ports, take such measures as may be appropriate to 9 minimize the disclosure of intelligence sources and 10 methods described in such reports; and

11 “(D) in the execution of his responsibilities, to 12 comply with generally accepted government auditing 13 standards.

14 “(d) SEMIANNUAL REPORTS; IMMEDIATE REPORTS
15 OF SERIOUS OR FLAGRANT PROBLEMS; REPORTS OF 16 FUNCTIONAL PROBLEMS; REPORTS TO CONGRESS ON UR-
17 GENT CONCERNS.—(1) The Inspector General shall, not 18 later than January 31 and July 31 of each year, prepare 19 and submit to the Director of Central Intelligence a classi-20 fied semiannual report summarizing the activities of the 21 Office during the immediately preceding six-month periods
22 ending December 31 (of the preceding year) and June 30, 23 respectively. Not later than the dates each year provided 24 for the transmittal of such reports in section 507 of the 25 National Security Act of 1947, the Director shall transmit

1 such reports to the intelligence committees with any com-
2 ments he may deem appropriate. Such reports shall, at 3 a minimum, include a list of the title or subject of each
4 inspection, investigation, or audit conducted during the re-5 porting period and—

6 “(A) a description of significant problems,
7 abuses, and deficiencies relating to the administra-
8 tion of programs and operations of the Agency and 9 the intelligence community identified by the Office
10 during the reporting period;

11 “(B) a description of the recommendations for 12 corrective action made by the Office during the re-
13 porting period with respect to significant problems,
14 abuses, or deficiencies identified in subparagraph
15 (A);

16 “(C) a statement of whether corrective action
17 has been completed on each significant recommenda-18 tion described in previous semiannual reports, and,
19 in a case where corrective action has been com-
20 pleted, a description of such corrective action;

21 “(D) a certification that the Inspector General
22 has had full and direct access to all information rel-
23 evant to the performance of his functions;

1 “(E) a description of the exercise of the sub-2 poena authority under subsection (e)(5) by the In-3 spector General during the reporting period; and

4 “(F) such recommendations as the Inspector 5 General may wish to make concerning legislation to 6 promote economy and efficiency in the administra-
7 tion of programs and operations undertaken by the 8 Agency and the intelligence community, and to de-
9 tect and eliminate fraud and abuse in such programs
10 and operations.

11 “(2) The Inspector General shall report immediately 12 to the Director whenever he becomes aware of particularly 13 serious or flagrant problems, abuses, or deficiencies relat-14 ing to the administration of programs or operations. The 15 Director shall transmit such report to the intelligence com-16 mittees within seven calendar days, together with any 17 comments he considers appropriate.

18 “(3) In the event that—

19 “(A) the Inspector General is unable to resolve 20 any differences with the Director affecting the exe-
21 cution of the Inspector General’s duties or respon-22 sibilities;

23 “(B) an investigation, inspection, or audit car-24 ried out by the Inspector General should focus on

1 any current or former Agency or other intelligence 2 community official who—

3 “(i) holds or held a position in the Agency
4 or another element of the intelligence commu-
5 nity that is subject to appointment by the 6 President, by and with the advise and consent 7 of the Senate, including such a position held on 8 an acting basis; or

9 “(ii) holds or held the position in the 10 Agency or another element of the intelligence 11 community, including such a position held on 12 an acting basis, that is appointed by the Direc-
13 tor of Central Intelligence;

14 “(C) a matter requires a report by the Inspec-
15 tor General to the Department of Justice on possible 16 criminal conduct by a current or former Agency or 17 other intelligence community official described or re-
18 ferred to in subparagraph (B);

19 “(D) the Inspector General receives notice from 20 the Department of Justice declining or approving 21 prosecution of possible criminal conduct of any of 22 the officials described in subparagraph (B); or

23 “(E) the Inspector General, after exhausting all 24 possible alternatives, is unable to obtain significant

1 documentary information in the course of an inves-
2 tigation, inspection, or audit,
3 the Inspector General shall immediately notify and submit 4 a report on such matter to the intelligence committees.

5 “(4) Pursuant to Title V, the Director shall submit 6 to the intelligence committees any report or findings and 7 recommendations of an inspection, investigation, or audit 8 conducted by the office which has been requested by the 9 Chairman or Ranking Minority Member of either com-10 mittee.

11 “(5)(A) An employee of the Agency or any other ele-12 ment of the intelligence community, or of a contractor to 13 the Agency or any other element of the intelligence com-
14 munity, who intends to report to Congress a complaint
15 or information with respect to an urgent concern may re-
16 port such complaint or information to the Inspector Gen-17 eral.

18 “(B) Not later than the end of the 14-calendar day
19 period beginning on the date of receipt from an employee
20 of a complaint or information under subparagraph (A), 21 the Inspector General shall determine whether the com-22 plaint or information appears credible. Upon making such 23 a determination, the Inspector General shall transmit to 24 the Director notice of that determination, together with 25 the complaint or information.

1 “(C) Upon receipt of a transmittal from the Inspector 2 General under subparagraph (B), the Director shall, with-3 in 7 calendar days of such receipt, forward such trans-4 mittal to the intelligence committees, together with any 5 comments the Director considers appropriate.

6 “(D)(i) If the Inspector General does not find cred-
7 ible under subparagraph (B) a complaint or information
8 submitted under subparagraph (A), or does not transmit
9 the complaint or information to the Director in accurate 10 form under subparagraph (B), the employee (subject to 11 clause (ii)) may submit the complaint or information to 12 Congress by contacting either or both of the intelligence 13 committees directly.

14 “(ii) The employee may contact the intelligence com-
15 mittees directly as described in clause (i) only if the em-
16 ployee—

17 “(I) before making such a contact, furnishes to 18 the Director, through the Inspector General, a state-19 ment of the employee’s complaint or information and 20 notice of the employee’s intent to contact the intel-21 ligence committees directly; and

22 “(II) obtains and follows from the Director, 23 through the Inspector General, direction on how to 24 contact the intelligence committees in accordance 25 with appropriate security practices.

1 “(iii) A member or employee of one of the intelligence 2 committees who receives a complaint or information under 3 clause (i) does so in that member or employee’s official 4 capacity as a member or employee of that committee.

5 “(E) The Inspector General shall notify an employee
6 who reports a complaint or information to the Inspector 7 General under this paragraph of each action taken under 8 this paragraph with respect to the complaint or informa-
9 tion. Such notice shall be provided not later than 3 days 10 after any such action is taken.

11 “(F) An action taken by the Director or the Inspector
12 General under this paragraph shall not be subject to judi-13 cial review.

14 “(G) In this paragraph:

15 “(i) The term ‘urgent concern’ means any of 16 the following:

17 “(I) A serious or flagrant problem, abuse,
18 violation of law or Executive order, or defi-
19 ciency relating to the funding, administration,
20 or operations of an intelligence activity involv-
21 ing classified information, but does not include
22 differences of opinions concerning public policy
23 matters.

24 “(II) A false statement to Congress, or a
25 willful withholding from Congress, on an issue

1 of material fact relating to the funding, admin-
2 istration, or operation of an intelligence activ-3 ity.

4 “(III) An action, including a personnel ac-5 tion described in section 2302(a)(2)(A) of title 6 5, United States Code, constituting reprisal or 7 threat of reprisal prohibited under subsection
8 (e)(3)(B) in response to an employee’s report-
9 ing an urgent concern in accordance with this 10 paragraph.

11 “(ii) The term ‘intelligence committees’ means 12 the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of 13 the House of Representatives and the Select Com-
14 mittee on Intelligence of the Senate.

15 “(e) AUTHORITIES OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL.—
16 (1) The Inspector General shall have direct and prompt 17 access to the Director when necessary for any purpose per-18 taining to the performance of his duties.

19 “(2) The Inspector General shall have access to any 20 employee or any employee of a contractor of the Agency 21 or any other element of the intelligence community whose 22 testimony is needed for the performance of his duties. In 23 addition, he shall have direct access to all records, reports, 24 audits, reviews, documents, papers, recommendations, or 25 other material which relate to the programs and oper-

1 ations with respect to which the Inspector General has re-2 sponsibilities under this section. Failure on the part of any 3 employee or contractor to cooperate with the Inspector 4 General shall be grounds for appropriate administrative 5 actions by the Director, to include loss of employment or 6 the termination of an existing contractual relationship.

7 “(3) The Inspector General is authorized to receive 8 and investigate complaints or information from any person
9 concerning the existence of an activity constituting a viola-
10 tion of laws, rules, or regulations, or mismanagement, 11 gross waste of funds, abuse of authority, or a substantial 12 and specific danger to the public health and safety. Once 13 such complaint or information has been received from an 14 employee of the Agency or any other element of the intel-
15 ligence community—

16 “(A) the Inspector General shall not disclose 17 the identity of the employee without the consent of 18 the employee, unless the Inspector General deter-19 mines that such disclosure is unavoidable during the 20 course of the investigation or the disclosure is made
21 to an official of the Department of Justice respon-22 sible for determining whether a prosecution should 23 be undertaken; and

24 “(B) no action constituting a reprisal, or threat
25 of reprisal, for making such complaint may be taken

1 by any employee of the Agency or any other element
2 of the intelligence community in a position to take 3 such actions, unless the complaint was made or the 4 information was disclosed with the knowledge that it 5 was false or with willful disregard for its truth or 6 falsity.

7 “(4) The Inspector General shall have authority to 8 administer to or take from any person an oath, affirma-
9 tion, or affidavit, whenever necessary in the performance 10 of his duties, which oath affirmation, or affidavit when 11 administered or taken by or before an employee of the Of-12 fice designated by the Inspector General shall have the 13 same force and effect as if administered or taken by or 14 before an officer having a seal.

15 “(5)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the 16 Inspector General is authorized to require by subpoena the 17 production of all information, documents, reports, an-18 swers, records, accounts, papers, and other data and docu-
19 mentary evidence necessary in the performance of the du-20 ties and responsibilities of the Inspector General.

21 “(B) In the case of Government agencies, the Inspec-
22 tor General shall obtain information, documents, reports, 23 answers, records, accounts, papers, and other data and 24 evidence for the purpose specified in subparagraph (A)
25 using procedures other than by subpoenas.

1 “(C) The Inspector General may not issue a subpoena
2 for or on behalf of any other element or component of the 3 Agency or any other element of the intelligence commu-
4 nity.

5 “(D) In the case of contumacy or refusal to obey a 6 subpoena issued under this paragraph, the subpoena shall 7 be enforceable by order of any appropriate district court
8 of the United States.

9 “(6) The Inspector General shall be provided with ap-10 ppropriate and adequate office space at central and field
11 office locations, together with such equipment, office sup-
12 plies, maintenance services, and communications facilities 13 and services as may be necessary for the operation of such 14 offices.

15 “(7) Subject to applicable law and the policies of the 16 Director, the Inspector General shall select, appoint and 17 employ such officers and employees as may be necessary 18 to carry out his functions. In making such selections, the 19 Inspector General shall ensure that such officers and em-
20 ployees have the requisite training and experience to en-
21 able him to carry out his duties effectively. In this regard,
22 the Inspector General shall create within his organization
23 a career cadre of sufficient size to provide appropriate con-
24 tinuity and objectivity needed for the effective perform-25 ance of his duties.

1 “(8) Subject to the concurrence of the Director, the 2 Inspector General may request such information or assist-3 ance as may be necessary for carrying out his duties and 4 responsibilities from any Government agency. Upon re-5 quest of the Inspector General for such information or as-6 sistance, the head of the Government agency involved 7 shall, insofar as is practicable and not in contravention 8 of any existing statutory restriction or regulation of the 9 Government agency concerned, furnish to the Inspector
10 General, or to an authorized designee, such information 11 or assistance.

12 “(f) SEPARATE BUDGET ACCOUNT.—Beginning with 13 fiscal year 2006, and in accordance with procedures to be 14 issued by the Director of Central Intelligence in consulta-
15 tion with the intelligence committees, the Director of Cen-16 tral Intelligence shall include in the National Foreign In-17 telligence Program budget a separate account for the Of-18 fice of Inspector General established pursuant to this sec-19 tion.

20 “(g) TRANSFER.—There shall be transferred to the 21 Office the Office of Inspector General established under 22 section 17 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949
23 (50 U.S.C. 403q). The personnel, assets, liabilities, con-
24 tracts, property, records, and unexpended balances of ap-
25 propriations, authorizations, allocations, and other funds

1 employed, held, used, arising from, or available to such 2 Office of Inspector General are hereby transferred to the 3 Office established pursuant to this section.”.

4 (b) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of sections
5 for that Act, as amended by section 105(b), is further 6 amended by inserting after the item relating to section 7 102B the following new item:

“Sec. 102C. Inspector General of the Intelligence Community.”.

8 (c) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—(1) The Inspector
9 General Act of 1978 (5 U.S.C. App.) is amended—

10 (A) in subsection (a)(1)(C) of section 8H, by 11 striking “or section 17 of the Central Intelligence
12 Agency Act of 1949” and inserting “or section 102C 13 of the National Security Act of 1947; and

14 (B) in section 8J, by striking “8F” and insert-15 ing “8H”.

16 (2) Section 17 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act
17 of 1949 (50 U.S.C. 403q) is repealed.

18 SEC. 107. EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE CENTRAL INTEL-
19 LIGENCE AGENCY.

20 Section 102 of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 21 U.S.C. 403–1), as amended by section 104(c), is amended 22 by adding at the end the following new subsection (f):

23 “(f) EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE CENTRAL IN-24 TELLIGENCE AGENCY.—The Executive Director of the 25 Central Intelligence Agency is the chief administrative of-

1 ficer of the Central Intelligence Agency. The Executive Di-
2 rector of the Central Intelligence Agency shall—

3 “(1) assist the Director of Central Intelligence
4 in the administration of the Central Intelligence 5 Agency and the intelligence community by ensuring 6 that appropriate administrative processes are in 7 place to assist the Director in the management of 8 the intelligence community;

9 “(2) coordinate with subordinate officers of the 10 Central Intelligence Agency and all elements of the 11 intelligence community to ensure that the Agency 12 and such elements are efficiently and effectively or-13 ganized;

14 “(3) assist the Director of Central Intelligence
15 in carrying out responsibilities of the Director as 16 head of the intelligence community;

17 “(4) recommend to the Director of Central In-
18 telligence policies, standards, and priorities with re-19 spect to the administration and management of the 20 Agency and the intelligence community; and

21 “(5) carry out such other duties as the Director
22 of Central Intelligence may specify.”.

7 (50 U.S.C. 403–1), as amended by section 106, is further
8 amended by adding at the end the following new sub-9 section (g):

10 “(g) ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTEL-11 LIGENCE FOR OPERATIONS.—The Associate Director of 12 Central Intelligence for Operations shall—

13 “(1) assist the Director of Central Intelligence
14 in carrying out the Director’s responsibilities to en-
15 sure that the intelligence community is well orga-
16 nized and coordinated so that the human intelligence 17 collection activities, the human intelligence enabling 18 capabilities, and the covert activities of the intel-19 ligence community are carried out as efficiently and 20 effectively as possible and are consistent with Ad-
21 ministration policies;

22 “(2) serve as the Director of Operations for the 23 Central Intelligence Agency;

24 “(3) monitor and review the activities of the 25 human intelligence and human intelligence enabling

1 elements of the intelligence community and coordi-
2 nate such activities across all such elements of the 3 intelligence community;

4 “(4) recommend to the Director of Central In-5 telligence priorities relating to such human intel-
6 ligence operations, human intelligence enabling capa-
7 bilities, and covert activities;

8 “(5) monitor and review the allocation of re-
9 sources being applied to human intelligence collec-10 tion, human intelligence enabling capabilities, and 11 covert activities in order to ensure—

12 “(A) a coordinated human intelligence col-
13 lection effort by the intelligence community;

14 “(B) that human intelligence enabling ca-
15 pabilities are sufficient for the needs and re-
16 quirements of the human intelligence collection 17 elements; and

18 “(C) appropriate foreign intelligence is 19 available to enhance the success of covert activi-
20 ties;

21 “(6) coordinate, as appropriate, with the Asso-
22 ciate and Assistant Directors of Central Intelligence
23 to ensure that such human intelligence operational 24 activity, the related human intelligence enabling ca-
25 pabilities, and any covert activities are being carried

1 out in a manner that enhances the intelligence com-
2 munity’s ability to provide policymakers and military 3 commanders with timely and relevant intelligence in-
4 formation;

5 “(7) produce on an annual basis, in coordina-
6 tion with the Undersecretary of Defense for Intel-
7 ligence, for approval by the Director of Central In-8 telligence, a strategy—

9 “(A) for developing, enhancing, and con-
10 ducting human intelligence collection activities;

11 “(B) for the continued improvement and 12 recapitalization of the intelligence community’s 13 human intelligence enabling capabilities of the 14 intelligence community; and

15 “(C) to ensure sufficient resources and ca-
16 pabilities exist throughout the intelligence com-
17 munity for the successful execution of any cov-18 ert activities that might be directed by the 19 President;

20 “(8) evaluate on an ongoing basis the imple-
21 mentation of the strategy described in paragraph (7)
22 and submit to the Director of Central Intelligence
23 periodic reports on such evaluation, including a dis-
24 cussion of any shortfalls in the implementation of

1 the strategy and recommendations for remedies for 2 such shortfalls;

3 “(9) coordinate with the Associate Director of 4 Central Intelligence for Resources the development
5 of budgets and resource allocation plans for the 6 human intelligence and human intelligence enabling 7 operational activities and covert activities of those 8 elements of the intelligence community engaged in 9 such activities;

10 “(10) ensure that the budgets and resource al-
11 location plans developed under paragraph (9) ad-
12 dress the objectives and priorities for the human in-13 telligence operational activities and covert activities 14 under the strategy described in paragraph (7); and

15 “(11) carry out such other duties as the Direc-
16 tor of Central Intelligence may specify.”.

17 SEC. 202. ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTEL-
18 LIGENCE FOR ANALYSIS.

19 (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 102A of the National Se-
20 curity Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 403–1), as amended by sec-21 tion 201, is further amended by adding at the end the 22 following subsection (h):

23 “(h) ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTEL-
24 LIGENCE FOR ANALYSIS.—The Associate Director of Cen-25 tral Intelligence for Analysis shall—

1 “(1) assist the Director of Central Intelligence
2 in carrying out the Director’s responsibilities to en-
3 sure that the intelligence community is well orga-
4 nized and the analytical activities of the intelligence
5 community are carried out as efficiently and effec-
6 tively as possible;

7 “(2) serve as the Director of Intelligence for the 8 Central Intelligence Agency;

9 “(3) ensure that the intelligence analysis pro-
10 duced by the elements of the intelligence community
11 remains independent and objective;

12 “(4) monitor the analytical activities of the ele-
13 ments of the intelligence community and coordinate 14 such activities across all such elements of the intel-
15 ligence community;

16 “(5) recommend to the Director of Central In-
17 telligence policies, standards, and priorities relating 18 to such analysis;

19 “(6) recommend to the Director of Central In-
20 telligence policies and standards by which analysts
21 throughout the intelligence community may have ac-
22 cess to source identifying information;

23 “(7) ensure that mechanisms exist to provide 24 competitive analysis in order to routinely challenge 25 analytical assessments;

1 “(8) direct competitive analysis of analytical 2 products;

3 “(9) monitor the allocation of resources for the 4 analysis of intelligence in order to identify unneces-
5 sary duplication in the analysis of intelligence;

6 “(10) produce on an annual basis, in coordina-
7 tion with the Undersecretary of Defense for Intel-
8 ligence, for approval by the Director of Central In-9 telligence, a strategy for—

10 “(A) developing and enhancing the intel-11 ligence community’s analytic capabilities, in-12 cluding competitive analysis, analytic tradecraft,

14 “(B) to ensure that sufficient analytic re-15 sources and capabilities exist throughout the in-16 telligence community;

17 “(11) evaluate on an ongoing basis the imple-
18 mentation of the strategy described in paragraph
19 (10) and submit to the Director of Central Intel-20 ligence periodic reports on such evaluation, including 21 a discussion of any shortfalls in the implementation
22 of the strategy and recommendations for remedies
23 for such shortfalls;

24 “(12) coordinate, as appropriate, with the Asso-
25 ciate and Assistant Directors of Central Intelligence

1 to ensure that analysis of intelligence is being car-
2 ried out in a manner that enhances the intelligence
3 community’s ability to provide the President, other 4 policymakers, and military commanders with timely
5 and relevant intelligence information;

6 “(13) coordinate with the Associate Director of
7 Central Intelligence for Resources the development
8 of budgets and resource allocation plans for the ana-9 lytical requirements of those elements of the intel-
10 ligence community that provide analytical products
11 for the intelligence community;

12 “(14) ensure that the budgets and resource al-
13 location plans developed under paragraph (13) ad-
14 dress the objectives and priorities for the analytical 15 needs of the intelligence community;

16 “(15) serve as the chairman of the National In-17 telligence Council; and

18 “(16) carry out such other duties as the Direc-
19 tor of Central Intelligence may specify.”.

20 (b) REQUIREMENT FOR ALTERNATIVE VIEWS IN ES-21 TIMATES OF THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE COUNCIL.—
22 Paragraph (2)(A) of section 103(b) of the National Secu-

6 efficiently and effectively as possible;

7 “(2) serve as the Chief Information Officer for 8 the intelligence community;

9 “(3) monitor and review the allocation of re-
10 sources for the development of an intelligence com-
11 munity enterprise architecture;

12 “(4) monitor and review the allocation of infor-
13 mation technology resources among the various ele-14 ments of the intelligence community in order to 15 identify unnecessary duplication in the development
16 of such enterprise architecture;

17 “(5) monitor and review the development of the 18 enterprise architectures of each element of the intel-
19 ligence community to ensure that such element’s en-
20 terprise architecture is compatible and interoperable 21 with the enterprise architecture of other elements of 22 the intelligence community and with the intelligence 23 community as a whole;

24 “(6) monitor and review the information shar-
25 ing programs of the elements of the intelligence

1 community and coordinate such activities across all
2 such elements of the intelligence community in order 3 to ensure the most efficient and effective means of 4 disseminating intelligence information to the other
5 elements of the intelligence community, the Presi-6 dent, other policymakers, military commanders, and 7 to State, local, and private sector users of such intel-
8 ligence;

9 “(7) recommend to the Director of Central In-
10 telligence policies, standards, and priorities relating 11 to information management technologies and infor-
12 mation sharing policies to be implemented through-13 out the intelligence community;

14 “(8) produce on an annual basis, in coordina-
15 tion with the Chief Information Officers of each ele-
16 ment of the intelligence community, a strategy for 17 the development and implementation of an enter-18 prise architecture within each element and across
19 the intelligence community;

20 “(9) evaluate on an ongoing basis the imple-
21 mentation of the strategy described in paragraph (8)
22 and submit to the Director of Central Intelligence
23 periodic reports on such evaluation, including a dis-
24 cussion of any shortfalls in the implementation of

1 the strategy and recommendations for remedies for
2 such shortfalls;

3 “(10) coordinate with the Secretary of Home-
4 land Security to ensure that the information sharing 5 programs, policies, and capabilities of the intel-
6 ligence community and the Department of Home-
7 land Security are designed to enhance the homeland
8 security of the United States and to reduce the vul-
9 nerability to terrorist attack;

10 “(11) coordinate with the Associate Director of 11 Central Intelligence for Resources the development
12 of budgets and resource allocation plans for the ele-
13 ments of the intelligence community with respect to 14 information management technologies and the imple-
15 mentation of the element’s enterprise architecture;

16 “(12) ensure that the budgets and resource al-
17 location plans developed under paragraph (11) ad-
18 dress the enterprise architecture and information 19 sharing objectives and priorities for the respective 20 elements of the intelligence community;

21 “(13) coordinate, as appropriate, with the Asso-
22 ciate and Assistant Directors of Central Intelligence
23 to ensure that information sharing activities and the 24 development of an intelligence community enterprise
25 architecture is being carried out in a manner that

1 enhances the intelligence community’s ability to pro-
2 vide the President, other policymakers, and military
3 commanders with timely and relevant intelligence in-
4 formation; and

5 “(14) carry out such other duties as the Direc-
6 tor of Central Intelligence may specify.”.

8 LIGENCE FOR LANGUAGE AND EDUCATION.

9 Section 102A of the National Security Act of 1947
10 (50 U.S.C. 403–1), as amended by section 203, is further
11 amended by adding at the end the following new sub-
12 section:

13 “(j) ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTEL-
14 LIGENCE FOR LANGUAGE AND EDUCATION.—The Asso-15 ciate Director of Central Intelligence for Language and 16 Education shall—

17 “(1) assist the Director of Central Intelligence
18 in carrying out the Director’s responsibilities to en-
19 sure that the intelligence community is well orga-
20 nized and the language training and educational re-21 sources, language capabilities, and cultural under-22 standing of the intelligence community are main-
23 tained at levels appropriate to the needs of the intel-
24 ligence community;

1 “(2) ensure that the language capabilities and 2 cultural understanding of the elements of the intel-
3 ligence community are sufficient to meet collection
4 and analytical requirements and that such require-
5 ments can be carried out as efficiently and effec-
6 tively as possible;

7 “(3) oversee requirements for foreign language 8 education and training for each of the elements of 9 the intelligence community;

10 “(4) recommend to the Director of Central In-
11 telligence policies, standards, and priorities relating 12 to such requirements;

13 “(5) produce on an annual basis, in coordina-
14 tion with the Chief Language Officers of each ele-
15 ment of the intelligence community, a strategy for 16 the development and implementation of language
17 education and training programs within each ele-
18 ment and across the intelligence community;

19 “(6) evaluate on an ongoing basis the imple-
20 mentation of the strategy described in paragraph (5)
21 and submit to the Director of Central Intelligence
22 periodic reports on such evaluation, including a dis-
23 cussion of any shortfalls in the implementation of 24 the strategy and recommendations for remedies for 25 such shortfalls;

1 “(7) coordinate with the Associate Director of
2 Central Intelligence for Resources the development
3 of budgets and resource allocation plans for the ele-
4 ments of the intelligence community as they relate 5 to language education and training programs;

6 “(8) monitor and review the allocation of re-
7 sources for foreign language education and training 8 in order to ensure the requirements of the intel-
9 ligence community with respect to foreign language
10 proficiency are met;

11 “(9) ensure that the budgets and resource allo-
12 cation plans developed under paragraph (7) address
13 the objectives and priorities for maintaining and en-14 hancing the intelligence community’s language and 15 education requirements under the strategy described 16 in paragraph (5);

17 “(10) coordinate, as appropriate, with the Asso-
18 ciate and Assistant Directors of Central Intelligence
19 to ensure that the language education and training
20 programs of the respective intelligence community
21 elements are being carried out in a manner that en-
22 hances the intelligence community’s ability to pro-
23 vide the President, other policymakers, and military
24 commanders with timely and relevant intelligence in-
25 formation; and

1 “(11) carry out such other duties as the Direc-
2 tor of Central Intelligence may specify.”.
