A BILL

To affirm that the United States may not engage in torture or cruel, inhuman, or degrading treatment or punishment, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Promoting Responsible 5 Interrogation Standards Enforcement Act of 2004” or 6 “PRISE Act of 2004”.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress makes the following findings:

3 (1) After World War II, the United States and 4 its allies created a new international legal order
5 based on respect for human rights. One of its funda-
6 mental tenets was a universal prohibition on torture
7 and ill treatment.

8 (2) On June 26, 2003, the International Day in 9 Support of Victims of Torture, President George W.
10 Bush stated, “The United States is committed to 11 the world-wide elimination of torture and we are 12 leading this fight by example. I call on all govern-
13 ments to join with the United States and the com-
14 munity of law-abiding nations in prohibiting, inves-15 tigating, and prosecuting all acts of torture and in 16 undertaking to prevent other cruel and unusual pun-17 ishment.”.

18 (3) The United States is a party to the Geneva
19 Conventions, which prohibit torture, cruel treatment,
20 or outrages upon personal dignity, in particular,
21 humiliating and degrading treatment, during armed 22 conflict.

23 (4) The United States is a party to 2 treaties
24 that prohibit torture and cruel, inhuman, or degrad-
25 ing treatment or punishment, as follows:

1           (A) The International Covenant on Civil 2           and Political Rights, done at New York on De-3           cember 16, 1966.

4           (B) The Convention against Torture and 5           Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment
6           or Punishment, done at New York on December 7           10, 1984.

8           (5) The United States filed reservations to the 9           treaties described in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of 10          paragraph (4) stating that the United States con-
11          siders itself bound to prevent “cruel, inhuman or de-12          grading treatment or punishment” to the extent that 13          phrase means the cruel, unusual, and inhumane
14          treatment or punishment prohibited by the 5th 15          amendment, 8th amendment, or 14th amendment to 16          the Constitution.

17          (6) Army Regulation 190–8 entitled “Enemy
18          Prisoners of War, Retained Personnel, Civilian In-19          ternees and Other Detainees” provides that “Inhu-
20          mane treatment is a serious and punishable violation 21          under international law and the Uniform Code of 22          Military Justice (UCMJ). . . . All prisoners will re-
23          ceive humane treatment without regard to race, na-
24          tionality, religion, political opinion, sex, or other cri-
25          teria. The following acts are prohibited: murder, tor-

1        ture, corporal punishment, mutilation, the taking of 2        hostages, sensory deprivation, collective punish-3        ments, execution without trial by proper authority, 4        and all cruel and degrading treatment. . . . All per-5        sons will be respected as human beings. They will be 6        protected against all acts of violence to include rape,
7        forced prostitution, assault and theft, insults, public
8        curiosity, bodily injury, and reprisals of any kind.
9        . . . This list is not exclusive.”

10            (7) The Field Manual on Intelligence Interroga-
11            tion of the Department of the Army states that 12            “acts of violence or intimidation, including physical 13            or mental torture, threats, insults, or exposure to in-14            humane treatment as a means of or an aid to inter-
15            rogation” are “illegal”. Such Manual defines “infliec-16            tion of pain through . . . bondage (other than legiti-17            mate use of restraints to prevent escape)”, “forcing 18            an individual to stand, sit, or kneel in abnormal po-
19            sitions for prolonged periods of time”, “food depriva-
20            tion”, and “any form of beating” as “physical tor-21            ture”, defines “abnormal sleep deprivation” as 22            “mental torture”, and prohibits the use of such tac-
23            tics under any circumstances.

24            (8) The Field Manual on Intelligence Interroga-
25            tion of the Department of the Army states that

1       “Use of torture and other illegal methods is a poor
2       technique that yields unreliable results, may damage 3       subsequent collection efforts, and can induce the 4       source to say what he thinks the interrogator wants 5       to hear. Revelation of use of torture by U.S. per-6       sonnel will bring discredit upon the U.S. and its 7       armed forces while undermining domestic and inter-
8       national support for the war effort. It may also place
9       U.S. and allied personnel in enemy hands at a great-10      er risk of abuse by their captors.”.

11 SEC. 3. HUMANE TREATMENT OF DETAINEES.

12       (a) PROHIBITION ON TORTURE OR CRUEL, INHU-
13      MAN, OR DEGRADING TREATMENT OR PUNISHMENT.—(1)
14      No person in the custody or under the physical control
15      of the United States shall be subject to torture or cruel, 16      inhuman, or degrading treatment or punishment that is 17      prohibited by the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the 18      United States.

19       (2) Nothing in this section shall affect the status of 20      any person under the Geneva Conventions or whether any 21      person is entitled to the protections of the Geneva Conven-22      tions.

23       (b) RULES, REGULATIONS, AND GUIDELINES.—(1)
24      Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment 25      of this Act, the Secretary of Defense shall prescribe the

1 rules, regulations, or guidelines necessary to ensure com-
2 pliance with the prohibition in subsection (a)(1) by the 3 members of the Armed Forces and by any person pro-
4 viding services to the Department of Defense on a contract
5 basis.

6 (2) The Secretary shall submit to the congressional 7 defense committees the rules, regulations, or guidelines 8 prescribed under paragraph (1), and any modifications to 9 such rules, regulations, or guidelines—

10 (A) not later than 30 days after the effective
11 date of such rules, regulations, guidelines, or modi-12 fications; and

13 (B) in a manner and form that will protect the 14 national security interests of the United States.

15 (c) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—(1) The Secretary of 16 Defense shall submit, on a timely basis and not less than 17 twice each year, a report to Congress on the circumstances 18 surrounding any investigation of a possible violation of the 19 prohibition in subsection (a)(1) by a member of the Armed 20 Forces or by a person providing services to the Depart-
21 ment of Defense on a contract basis.

22 (2) A report required under paragraph (1) shall be 23 submitted in a manner and form that—

24 (A) will protect the national security interests 25 of the United States; and

1 (B) will not prejudice any prosecution of an in-2 dividual involved in, or responsible for, a violation of 3 the prohibition in subsection (a)(1).
