

112TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 1483

To ensure that persons who form corporations in the United States disclose the beneficial owners of those corporations, in order to prevent wrongdoers from exploiting United States corporations in ways that threaten homeland security, to assist law enforcement in detecting, preventing, and punishing terrorism, money laundering, and other misconduct involving United States corporations, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

AUGUST 2, 2011

Mr. LEVIN (for himself and Mr. GRASSLEY) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs

A BILL

To ensure that persons who form corporations in the United States disclose the beneficial owners of those corporations, in order to prevent wrongdoers from exploiting United States corporations in ways that threaten homeland security, to assist law enforcement in detecting, preventing, and punishing terrorism, money laundering, and other misconduct involving United States corporations, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Incorporation Trans-
3 parency and Law Enforcement Assistance Act”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress finds the following:

6 (1) Nearly 2,000,000 corporations and limited
7 liability companies are being formed under the laws
8 of the States each year.

9 (2) Very few States obtain meaningful informa-
10 tion about the beneficial owners of the corporations 11 and limited liability companies formed under their 12 laws.

13 (3) A person forming a corporation or limited
14 liability company within the United States typically 15 provides less information to the State of incorpora-
16 tion than is needed to obtain a bank account or driv-
17 er’s license and typically does not name a single ben-
18 efiticial owner.

19 (4) Terrorists and other criminals have ex-
20 ploited the weaknesses in State formation proce-
21 dures to conceal their identities when forming cor-
22 porations or limited liability companies in the United 23 States, and have then used the newly created enti-
24 ties to support terrorist organizations, drug traf-
25 ficking organizations, and international organized 26 crime groups, as well as commit misconduct affect-

1 ing interstate and international commerce such as 2 trafficking in illicit drugs, illegal arms trafficking,
3 money laundering, tax evasion, Internet-based fraud,
4 securities fraud, financial fraud, intellectual property
5 crimes, and acts of foreign corruption.

6 (5) Among those who have abused State incor-
7 poration procedures, Victor Bout, a Russian arms
8 dealer now in United States custody on terrorism-re-
9 lated charges, used at least 12 companies incor-
10 porated in Texas, Florida, and Delaware to carry 11 out his activities, and has been indicted, in part, for 12 conspiring to sell weapons to a terrorist organization
13 trying to kill citizens of the United States and Fed-
14 eral officers and employees.

15 (6) Law enforcement efforts to investigate cor-
16 porations and limited liability companies suspected
17 of wrongdoing that threatens homeland security
18 have been impeded by the lack of available beneficial
19 ownership information, as documented in reports
20 and testimony by officials from the Department of 21 Homeland Security, the Department of Justice, the 22 Financial Crimes Enforcement Network of the De-
23 partment of the Treasury, the Internal Revenue
24 Service, the Government Accountability Office, and 25 others.

1 (7) In July 2006, a leading international anti-
2 money laundering and anti-terrorist financing orga-
3 nization, the Financial Action Task Force on Money
4 Laundering (in this section referred to as the 5 “FATF”), of which the United States is a member,
6 issued a report that criticized the United States for 7 failing to comply with a FATF standard on the need
8 to collect beneficial ownership information and urged
9 the United States to correct this deficiency by July 10 2008.

11 (8) In response to the FATF report and to 12 strengthen measures to protect homeland security,
13 Federal officials have repeatedly urged the States to 14 improve their formation practices by obtaining bene-
15 ficial ownership information for the corporations and
16 limited liability companies formed under the laws of 17 such States. But the States continue to form mil-
18 lions of corporations with hidden owners.

19 (9) Many States have established automated
20 procedures that allow a person to form a new cor-
21 poration or limited liability company within the 22 State within 24 hours of filing an online application,
23 without any prior review of the application by a
24 State official. In exchange for a substantial fee, 2

1 States will form a corporation within 1 hour of a re-
2 quest.

3 (10) Dozens of Internet Web sites highlight the 4 anonymity of beneficial owners allowed under the 5 formation practices of some States, point to those 6 practices as a reason to incorporate in those States,
7 and list those States together with offshore jurisdic-
8 tions as preferred locations for the formation of new 9 corporations, essentially providing an open invitation
10 to terrorists and other wrongdoers to form entities
11 within the United States.

12 (11) In contrast to practices in the United 13 States, all 27 countries in the European Union are 14 already required to have formation agents identify 15 the beneficial owners of the corporations formed by 16 those agents under the laws of those countries.

17 (12) To protect homeland security, reduce the 18 vulnerability of the United States to wrongdoing by 19 United States corporations and limited liability com-
20 panies with hidden owners, protect interstate and 21 international commerce from terrorists and other 22 criminals misusing United States corporations and 23 limited liability companies, strengthen law enforce-
24 ment investigations of suspect corporations and lim-
25 ited liability companies, set minimum standards for

1 and level the playing field among State formation
 2 practices, and bring the United States into compli-
 3 ance with international anti-money laundering and 4 anti-terrorist financing standards, Federal legisla-
 5 tion is needed to require the States to obtain bene-
 6 ficial ownership information for the corporations and
 7 limited liability companies formed under the laws of 8 such States.

9 SEC. 3. TRANSPARENT INCORPORATION PRACTICES.

10 (a) TRANSPARENT INCORPORATION PRACTICES.—

1 transfers the corporation or limited liabil-
2 ity company to another person; and
