PREFACE

The authority and rules of the standing committees of the Senate, as well as of its permanent select and special committees, are collected and published each Congress by the Committee on Rules and Administration in a publication titled Authority and Rules of Senate Committees. The Rules Committee has published such a volume for the 105th Congress. Taken together, these volumes provide a convenient historical record of the evolution of rules of the Senate's permanent committees.

From time to time, the Senate establishes a temporary committee, often denominated a select or special committee, to carry out a particular investigatory task or study function, or assigns a standing committee the responsibility to perform such a task. A number of these inquiries have been of great contemporary and historical significance, such as the Committee on Presidential Campaign Activities chaired by Senator Sam Ervin of North Carolina that the Senate established in 1973 to investigate the Watergate affair.

The authority and rules of the Senate's special investigatory committees have never been collected and published together so that they may be readily examined in relation to each other. It is the purpose of this volume to bring together in convenient form all of the authorities and rules governing the Senate's special investigatory committees since the creation of the Watergate committee twenty-five years ago.

In addition to the Watergate Committee, this volume compiles the authorities and rules of the committee chaired by Senator Frank Church of Idaho that examined the United States government's intelligence activities and agencies in 1975, the committee that investigated the Iran/Contra affair jointly with a select House committee in 1987, and the committee that investigated POW/MIA issues in 1991–92, as well as those of other investigatory committees since 1970. This volume also includes a resolution of authority and rules for an investigatory matter handled not by a committee, but by a temporary counsel.

Review of the authority and rules of the Senate's special investigatory committees over the past two decades illuminates the Senate's handling of a number of issues relating to special investigatory assignments. First, the Senate has faced the question whether to create a new ad hoc committee to conduct an investigation or to assign the additional task to an existing committee. Often, as in the Watergate, Iran/Contra, and POW/MIA matters, the Senate has determined to create a free-standing select committee.

On other occasions, the Senate has created a special subcommittee of an existing permanent Senate committee to conduct a specific investigation. For example, a special subcommittee of the Committee on the Judiciary was established to investigate the relationship between President Jimmy Carter's brother, Billy, and the Libyan government, an investigation into conditions and programs affecting American Indians was assigned to a special investigatory subcommittee of the Select Committee on Indian Affairs, and a subcommittee of the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs was created to look into the Department of Housing and Urban Development's administration of a housing program. On still other occasions, such as for initial hearings into aspects of the Whitewater matter, the Senate has specially constituted an existing standing committee, in that case the Banking Committee, for purposes of a particular investigatory mandate. In 1997, the regularly constituted Committee on Governmental Affairs was assigned to conduct a special investigation of illegal or improper activities in the 1996 election campaigns. Finally, the Senate has delegated the task of investigating the source of the leaks to a specially appointed counsel, not to a committee, as in the case of leaks during Justice Clarence Thomas' confirmation proceedings.

In the case of both the Billy Carter and the Whitewater investigations, the special constitution of a subcommittee of the Judiciary Committee and the Banking Committee, respectively, enabled the Senate to supplement the committees' regular membership with representation from other committees that shared jurisdictional interest with the primary committees. Thus, for the Billy Carter matter, representatives of the Foreign Relations Committee were appointed to the special Judiciary subcommittee, and, for the Whitewater investigation, a representative of the Judiciary Committee was designated to serve on the Banking Committee.

Most commonly, each of these committees or subcommittees was created through an independent resolution of the Senate to perform a particular responsibility over a limited period of time. On one occasion, however, to conduct the Billy Carter inquiry, the Senate established a special subcommittee of the Judiciary Committee through a unanimous consent agreement of the Senate, rather than by formal resolution. In another case, in place of any special authorization from the Senate, a subcommittee of a standing committee, the Foreign Relations Committee, promulgated special guidelines for its conduct, utilizing its permanent authorities, of a special inquiry into allegations of an "October Surprise" in relations with the Iranian government in 1980.

One question presented by the creation of a special investigatory committee or subcommittee is the size of the committee. Special investigatory committees are usually kept fairly small to facilitate a concentrated, sustained focus. Sometimes, however, the importance of a matter or the existence of a number of standing committees with overlapping jurisdictional claims militates for a larger committee. Membership on the committees included in this volume have ranged from three members for the Special Investigations Committee into Indian matters to twenty members for the Whitewater investigation. Most committees, though, have been constituted with between seven and twelve members. Membership on select committees is usually divided to reflect the party split within the Senate, although, for particular committees, such as the Ab-scam and POW committees, membership was evenly divided between the parties.

Finally, when the Senate has created special investigatory committees, it has determined whether to delegate special investigatory tools. Among the most important investigatory techniques that may be delegated is the authority to conduct staff depositions, that is, to compel sworn testimony from witnesses under examination by staff, without any Senators being present. Most of the select committees included in this volume were given deposition authority, although the Foreign Relations Committee (which, as a standing committee, does not have specific authority to compel attendance at depositions) did not obtain from the Senate special deposition authority for use during its October Surprise inquiry.

Another investigative tool given to some select investigative committees is the power, available to all committees under federal law, to confer use immunity on witnesses and thereby to compel testimony over an invocation of the constitutional privilege against self-incrimination. The Senate has typically supplemented the immunity authority available to all committees with specific authority for investigative committees to immunize witnesses, although in the Whitewater investigation the Senate acted to withhold immunization authority from the Banking Committee.

This volume collects the resolutions and other orders that have created the Senate's special investigative entities over the past twenty-five years, marked their jurisdictional mandates, and delineated their investigative tools. Like standing committees, each specially created select investigatory committee has then adopted rules of procedure to carry out its responsibilities and govern its proceedings. Subcommittees of existing standing committees adopted special rules to govern special investigatory proceedings in the cases of the Billy Carter and Indian investigations. However, the Banking Committee, the Foreign Relations Committee, and the Governmental Affairs Committee did not adopt special rules for the Whitewater, HUD, October Surprise, and campaign finance investigations. Instead, the regular rules of the standing committees were applied in those investigations. Where special rules of procedure were promulgated, the rules are collected and reprinted here.

In addition to the authority and rules of investigative committees, this volume contains the authority and rules for a commission created to study the procedures that the Senate uses to investigate complaints of ethical misconduct within the Senate.

It is our hope that this compilation will prove helpful both to individuals researching the history of Senate committee investigations and to those involved in working with future investigations by congressional committees. Readers should be aware that many of the investigatory committees covered in this document included in their final reports, or in appendices to their reports or hearings, further information about the processes and tools they utilized in conducting their inquiries. The committees' reports and hearings were published as Senate documents and are, accordingly, a useful further source of information about the operation of the Senate's investigatory committees. It should be noted that this volume does not endeavor to reprint the committees' final reports, many of which are voluminous. However, to facilitate further research, citations for the hearings and reports of each of the investigative committees are set forth in a bibliographic appendix at the end of this volume.

A. AUTHORITY AND RULES OF SENATE SPECIAL INVESTIGATORY COMMITTEES

1. SELECT COMMITTEE ON PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN ACTIVITIES

[WATERGATE]

S. Res. 60, 93d Cong. (1973)

[119 Cong. Rec. 3849–51 (1973)]

Resolved,

SECTION 1. (a) That there is hereby established a select committee of the Senate, which may be called, for convenience of expression, the Select Committee on Presidential Campaign Activities, to conduct an investigation and study of the extent, if any, to which illegal, improper, or unethical activities were engaged in by any persons, acting either individually or in combination with others, in the presidential election of 1972, or in any related campaign or canvass conducted by or in behalf of any person seeking nomination or election as the candidate of any political party for the office of President of the United States in such election, and to determine whether in its judgment any occurrences which may be revealed by the investigation and study indicate the necessity or desirability of the enactment of new congressional legislation to safeguard the electoral process by which the President of the United States is chosen.

(b) The select committee created by this resolution shall consist of seven Members of the Senate, four of whom shall be appointed by the President of the Senate from the majority Members of the Senate upon the recommendation of the majority leader of the Senate, and three of whom shall be appointed by the President of the Senate from the minority Members of the Senate upon the recommendation of the minority leader of the Senate. For the purposes of paragraph 6 of rule XXV of the Standing Rules of the Senate, service of a Senator as a member, chairman, or vice chairman of the select committee shall not be taken into account.

(c) The select committee shall select a chairman and vice chairman from among its members, and adopt rules of procedure to govern its proceedings. The vice chairman shall preside over meetings of the select committee during the absence of the chairman, and discharge such other responsibilities as may be assigned to him by the select committee or the chairman. Vacancies in the membership of the select committee shall not affect the authority of the remaining members to execute the functions of the select committee and shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments to it are made.

(d) A majority of the members of the select committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but the select committee may fix a lesser number as a quorum for the purpose of taking testimony or depositions.

SEC. 2. That the select committee is authorized and directed to do everything necessary or appropriate to make the investigation and study specified in section 1 (a). Without abridging or limiting in any way the authority conferred upon the select committee by the preceding sentence, the Senate further expressly authorizes and directs the select committee to make a complete investigation and study of the activities of any and all persons or groups of persons or organizations of any kind which have any tendency to reveal the full facts in respect to the following matters or questions:

(1) The breaking, entering, and bugging of the headquarters or offices of the Democratic National Committee in the Watergate Building in Washington, District of Columbia;

things of value to the participants in such activities or their families for their activities, or for concealing the truth in respect to them or any of the persons having any connection with them or their activities, and, if so, the source of the moneys used in such payments, and the identities and motives of the persons planning such activities or employing the participants in them;

(6) Whether any persons participating in any of the activities mentioned in subdivision (1), (2), (3), (4), or (5) of this section have been induced by bribery, coercion, threats, or any other means whatsoever to plead guilty to the charges preferred against them in the District Court of the District of Columbia or to conceal or fail to reveal any knowledge of any of the activities mentioned in subdivision (1), (2), (3), (4), or (5) of this section, and, if so, the identities of the persons inducing them to do such things, and the identities of any other persons or any committees or organizations for whom they acted;

(7) Any efforts to disrupt, hinder, impede, or sabotage in any way any campaign, canvass, or activity conducted by or in behalf of any person seeking nomination or election as the candidate of any political party for the office of President of the United States in 1972 by infiltrating any political committee or organization or headquarters or offices or home or whereabouts of the person seeking such nomination or election or of any person aiding him in so doing, or by bugging or eavesdropping or wiretapping the conversations, communications, plans, headquarters, offices, home, or whereabouts of the person seeking such nomination or election or of any other person assisting him in so doing, or by exercising surveillance over the person seeking such nomination or election or of any person assisting him in so doing, or by reporting to any other person or to any political committee or organization any information obtained by such infiltration, eavesdropping, bugging, wiretapping, or surveillance;

(8) Whether any person, acting individually or in combination with others, or political committee or organization induced any of the activities mentioned in subdivision (7) of this section or paid any of the participants in any such activities for their services, and, if so, the identities of such persons, or committee, or organization, and the source of the funds used by them to procure or finance such activities;

(10) The planning of any of the activities mentioned in subdivision (7), (8), or (9) of this section, the employing of the participants in such activities, and the source of any moneys or things of value which may have been given or promised to the participants in such activities for their services, and the identities of any persons or committees or organizations which may have been involved in any way in the planning, procuring, and financing of such activities.

(11) Any transactions or circumstances relating to the source, the control, the transmission, the transfer, the deposit, the storage, the concealment, the expenditure, or use in the United States or in any other country, of any moneys or other things of value collected or received for actual or pretended use in the presidential election of 1972 or in any related campaign or canvass or activities preceding or accompanying such election by any person, group of persons, committee, or organization of any kind acting or professing to act in behalf of any national political party or in support of or in opposition to any person seeking nomination or election to the office of President of the United States in 1972;

(14) Whether any books, checks, canceled checks, communications, correspondence, documents, papers, physical evidence, records, recordings, tapes, or materials relating to any of the matters or questions the select committee is authorized and directed to investigate and study have been concealed, suppressed, or destroyed by any persons acting individually or in combination with others, and, if so, the identities and motives of any such persons or groups of persons;

(15) Any other activities, circumstances, materials, or transactions having a tendency to prove or disprove that persons acting either individually or in combination with others, en-

S. Res. 194, 93d Cong. (1973)

SECTION 1. By S. Res. 60, Ninety-third Congress, first session (1973), section 3(a)(5), the Select Committee on Presidential Campaign Activities was and is empowered to issue subpoenas for documents, tapes, and other material to any officer of the executive branch of the United States Government. In view of the fact that the President of the United States is, as recognized by S. Res. 60, an officer of the United States, and was a candidate for the office of President in 1972 and is therefore a person whose activities the select committee is authorized by S. Res. 60 to investigate, it is the sense of the Senate that the select committee's issuance on July 23, 1973, of two subpoenas duces tecum to the President for the production of tapes and other materials was and is fully authorized by S. Res. 60. Moreover, the Senate hereby approves and ratifies the committee's issuance of these subpoenas.

SEC. 2. On August 9, 1973, the select committee and its members instituted suit against the President of the United States in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia to achieve compliance with the two subpoenas referenced in section 1 above, and since that time, in both the district court and the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit, have actively pursued this litigation. It is the sense of the Senate that the initiation and pursuit of this litigation by the select committee and its members was and is fully authorized by applicable custom and law, including the provisions of S. Res. 262, Seventieth Congress, First Session (1928). In view of the entirely discretionary provisions of section 3(a)(6) of S. Res. 60, it is further the sense of the Senate that the initiation of this lawsuit did not require the prior approval of the Senate. Moreover, the Senate hereby approves and ratifies the actions of the select committee in instituting and pursuing the aforesaid litigation.

SEC. 3. The select committee and its members, by issuing subpoenas to the President and instituting and pursuing litigation to achieve compliance with those subpoenas, were and are acting to determine the extent of possible illegal, improper, or unethical conduct in connection with the Presidential campaign and election of 1972 by officers or employees of the executive branch of the United States Government or other persons. It is the sense of the Senate that, in so doing, the select committee and its members were and are engaged in the furtherance of valid legislative purposes, to wit, a determination of the need for and scope of corrective legislation to safeguard the processes by which the President of the United States is elected and, in that connection, the informing of the public of the extent of illegal, improper, or unethical activities that occurred in connection with the Presidential campaign and election of 1972 and the involvement of officers or employees of the executive branch or others therein. It is further the sense of the Senate that the materials sought by the committee's subpoenas are of vital importance in determining the extent of such involvement and in determining the need for and scope of corrective legislation.

S. Res. 327, 93d Cong. (1974)

[120 Cong. Rec. 15917 (1974)]

Resolved, That section 5 of S. Res. 60, which was adopted February 7, 1973, is hereby amended to read as follows: “The select committee shall make a final report of the results of the investigation and study conducted by it pursuant to this resolution, together with its findings and such legislative proposals as it deems necessary or desirable, to the Senate at the earliest practicable date, but no later than June 30, 1974. The select committee may also submit to the Senate such interim reports as it considers appropriate. After submission of its final report, the select committee shall have three calendar months to close its affairs, and on the expiration of such three calendar months shall cease to exist: Provided, however, That in case the judicial action brought by the select committee against the President to obtain specified taped recordings of conversations in which the President and his former aide, John W. Dean, participated is not fully adjudicated before the expiration of such three calendar months, the select committee shall continue in existence thereafter until thirty days subsequent to the occurrence of one of these alternative events, namely, the judicial action is finally adjudicated adversely to the select committee, or the specified taped recordings are actually received by the select committee pursuant to the final adjudication of such judicial action or otherwise. In case the last event occurs, the select committee is empowered to report to the Senate an addendum to its final report setting forth findings and legislative recommendations based on what the taped recordings disclose.”

RULES OF PROCEDURE FOR THE
SELECT COMMITTEE ON
PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN
ACTIVITIES

[119 Cong. Rec. 5783 (1973)]

1. Preliminary investigations may be initiated by the committee staff with the approval of the Chairman or at his direction.

2. Committee hearings or meetings shall be conducted by the Chairman or member designated by the Chairman.

3. The Chairman shall give each member written notice of the subject of and scope of any hearings 24 hours prior to the time such hearing is to begin within the District of Columbia; otherwise 48 hours prior thereto. No hearings shall then be held if any member objects unless upon the subsequent approval of the majority of the committee.

4. The Chairman shall have authority to call meetings of the committee which authority he may delegate to any other member. Members shall have at least 24 hours notice of any meeting of the committee within the District of Columbia; otherwise 48 hours prior thereto.

Should a majority of the members request the Chairman in writing to call a meeting of the committee and should the Chairman fail to call such meeting within 10 days thereafter, such majority may call a meeting by filing a written notice with the Clerk who shall promptly notify each member of the committee in writing. If the Chairman is not present at any such meeting, and has not designated another member to conduct the meeting, the ranking majority member present shall preside.

5. A quorum for the transaction of committee business shall consist of a majority of the committee members. Unless otherwise specified in these rules, decisions of the committee shall be by a majority of votes cast. For the purpose of hearing witnesses, taking testimony, and receiving evidence, a quorum will consist of one Senator.

6. No person shall be allowed to be present during a hearing or meeting held in executive session except members and employees of the committee, the witness and his counsel, stenographers, or interpreters of the committee. Other persons whose presence is re-requested or consented to by the majority of the members of the committee present may be admitted to such sessions.

7. It shall be the duty of the Clerk and staff director to keep or cause to be kept a record of all committee proceedings, including the record of votes on any matter on which a record vote is taken and of all quorum calls together with all motions, points of order, parliamentary inquiries, rulings of the chair and appeals therefrom. The record shall show those members present at each meeting. Such record shall be available to any member of the committee upon request.

8. A vote by any member of the committee with respect to any measure or matter being considered by the committee may be cast by proxy providing the proxy authorization is in writing to the Chairman, designating the person who is to execute the proxy authorization, and is limited to a specific measure or matter and any amendments pertaining thereto. Proxies shall not be considered for the establishment of a quorum.

9. Subpenas for attendance of witnesses and the production of memoranda, documents, and records may be issued by the Chairman or any other member designated by him, and may be served by any person designated by such Chairman or member. Authorization for the issuance of a subpoena shall be given by the Chairman or Vice Chairman of the committee, or both, or by the majority of the members of the committee present at a meeting, if either the Chairman or Vice Chairman or both requests that the authorization for the issuance of any particular subpoena or subpoenas be decided by the committee.

10. Each subpoena shall be accompanied by a copy of the Senate resolution authorizing the investigation with respect to which the witness is summoned to testify or to produce papers.

11. Witnesses shall be subpoenaed at a reasonably sufficient time in advance of any hearing in order to give the witness an opportunity to prepare for the hearing, employ counsel should he so desire, and/or produce documents, books, records, memoranda, and papers called for by a subpoena duces tecum. The committee shall determine, in each particular instance, what period of time constitutes reasonable notice; however in no case shall it be less than 24 hours.

12. Except when publication is authorized by the Chairman, no member of the committee or staff shall make public the name of any witness subpoenaed before the committee or release any information to the public relating to a witness under subpoena or the issuance of a subpoena prior to the time and date set for his appearance.

13. All witnesses appearing before the committee, pursuant to subpoena, shall be furnished a printed copy of the rules of procedure of the committee.

14. All witnesses at public or executive investigative hearings shall give all testimony under oath or affirmation which shall be administered by the Chairman or a member of the committee.

15. The time and order of interrogation of witnesses appearing before the committee shall be controlled by the Chairman. Interrogation of witnesses at committee hearings shall be conducted by committee members and authorized committee staff personnel only.

16. Any objection raised by a witness or his counsel to procedures or to the admissibility of testimony and evidence shall be ruled upon by the Chairman or presiding member and such rulings shall be the rulings of the committee, unless a disagreement thereon is expressed by a majority of the committee present. In the case of a tie, the rule of the Chair will prevail.

17. Any witness desiring to make a prepared or written statement for the records of the proceedings shall file a copy of such statement with the counsel of the committee 24 hours in advance of the hearings at which the statement is to be presented, unless the Chairman waives the requirement. All such statements or portions thereof so received which are relevant and germane to the subject of investigation may, at the conclusion of the testimony of the witness and with the approval of a majority of the committee members be inserted in the official transcript of the proceedings.

18. A witness may make a statement, which shall be brief and relevant to the subject matter of his examination, at the beginning and conclusion of his testimony. Each such statement shall not exceed three minutes unless an extension of time is authorized by the Chairman. However, statements which take the form of personal attacks by the witness upon the motives of the committee, the personal character of any members of the Congress or of the committee staff, and intemperate statements, are not deemed to be relevant or germane, shall not be made, and may be stricken from the record of the proceedings.

19. All witnesses at public or executive hearings shall have the right to be accompanied by counsel. Any witness who desires counsel but who is unable to secure counsel may inform the committee at least 24 hours in advance of his appearance of his inability to retain counsel and the committee will endeavor to secure voluntary counsel for the witness. However, failure to secure counsel will not excuse the witness from appearing.

20. Counsel retained by any witness and accompanying such witness shall be permitted to be present during the testimony of such witness at any public or executive hearing. The sole and exclusive prerogative of the counsel shall be to advise such witness while he is testifying of his legal rights and constitutional rights. Provided, however, that any Government officer or employee being interrogated by the staff or testifying before the committee and electing to have his personal counsel present shall not be permitted to select such counsel from the employees or officers of any Government agency.

21. A witness shall not be excused from testifying in the event his counsel is not present or is ejected for contumacy or disorderly conduct; nor shall counsel for the witness coach the witness, answer for the witness, or put words in the witness' mouth. The failure of any witness to secure counsel shall not excuse such witness from attendance in response to subpoena.

22. At the conclusion of the interrogation of his client, counsel shall be permitted to make such reasonable and pertinent requests upon the committee, including the testimony of other witnesses or presentation of other evidence, as he shall deem necessary to protect his client's rights. These requests shall be ruled upon by the committee members present.

23. Counsel for witnesses shall conduct himself in a professional, ethical, and proper manner. His failure to do so shall, upon a finding to that effect by a majority of the committee members present, subject such counsel to disciplinary action which may include warning, censure, removal of counsel from the hearing room, or a recommendation of contempt proceedings.

24. There shall be no direct or cross-examination by counsel appearing for a witness. However, the counsel may submit in writing any questions he wishes propounded to his client or to any other witness. With the consent of the majority of the members present, such question or questions shall be put to the witness by the Chairman, by another member or by counsel of the committee either in the original form or in modified language. The decision of the committee as to the admissibility of questions submitted by counsel for a witness, as well as their form, shall be final.

25. Any person who is the subject of an investigation in public hearings may submit to the Chairman questions in writing for the cross-examination of the witnesses. Their formulation and admissibility shall be decided by the committee in accordance with rule 25.

26. Any person whose name is mentioned or who is specifically identified, and who believes that testimony or other evidence presented at a public hearing, or comment made by the committee member or counsel, tends to defame him or otherwise adversely affect his reputation, may (a) request to appear personally before the committee to testify on his own behalf, or, in the alternative; (b) file a sworn statement of facts relevant to the testimony, or other evidence or comment complained of. Such request and such statement shall be submitted to the committee for its consideration and action.

27. No testimony taken or material presented in an executive session, or any summary or excerpt thereof shall be made available to other than the committee members and committee staff and no such material or testimony shall be made public or presented at a public hearing, either in whole or in part, unless authorized by a majority of the committee members or as otherwise provided for in these rules.

28. No evidence or testimony, or any summary or excerpt thereof given in executive session which the committee determines may tend to defame, degrade, or incriminate any person shall be released, or presented at a public hearing unless such person shall have been afforded the opportunity to testify or file a statement in rebuttal, and any pertinent evidence or testimony given by such person, or on his behalf, is made a part of the transcript, summary, or excerpt prior to the public release of such portion of the testimony.

29. A complete and accurate stenographic record shall be made of all testimony at all public and executive committee hearings.

30. A witness shall, upon request, be given a reasonable opportunity before any transcript is made public to inspect in the office of the committee the transcript of his testimony to determine whether it was correctly transcribed and may be accompanied by his counsel during such inspection. If the witness so desires, the committee will furnish him a copy of his testimony, at no expense to the witness.

31. Any corrections in the transcription of the testimony of the witness which the witness desires to make shall be submitted in writing to the committee within 5 days of the taking of his testimony. However, changes shall only be made for the purpose of making minor grammatical corrections and editing, and not for the purpose of changing the substance of the testimony. Any questions arising with respect to such editing shall be decided by the Chairman.

32. A copy of the testimony given in public session or that part of the testimony given by the witness in executive session and subsequently quoted or made part of the record in a public session shall be made available to any witness at his expense, if he so requests. Any witness shall be given a reasonable opportunity to inspect any such public testimony in the committee office.

33. Whenever the Chairman so permits, any committee hearing that is open to the public may be covered, in whole or in part, by television broadcast, radio broadcast, and still photography, or by any other media coverage, provided that such coverage is orderly and unobtrusive.

34. The coverage of any hearing of the committee by television, radio, or still photography shall be under the direct supervision of the Chairman, who may for good cause terminate such media coverage in whole or in part, or take such other action as the circumstances may warrant.

35. A witness may request, on grounds of distraction, harassment, or physical discomfort, that during his testimony, television, motion picture, and other cameras and lights shall not be directed at him, such requests to be ruled on by the committee members present at the hearing.

36. No recommendation that a witness be cited for contempt of Congress shall be forwarded to the Senate unless and until the committee has, upon notice to all its members, met and considered the alleged contempt and by a majority of the committee voted that such recommendation be made.

37. All staff members shall be confirmed by a majority of the committee. After confirmation, the Chairman shall certify staff appointments to the financial clerk of the Senate, in writing.

38. The Chairman shall have the authority to utilize the services, information, facilities, and personnel of the departments and establishments of the Government, and to procure the temporary or intermittent services of experts or consultants or organizations thereof to make studies or assist or advise the committee with respect to any matter under investigation.

39. In preparing for or conducting the investigation and study authorized and directed by the resolution creating this committee the committee is empowered to exercise the powers conferred upon committees of the Senate by sections 6002 and 6005 of title 18 of the United States Code or any other act of Congress regulating the granting of immunity to witnesses.

40. All information developed by or made known to any member of the committee staff shall be deemed to be confidential. No member of the committee staff shall communicate to any person, other than a member of the committee or another member of the committee staff, any substantive information with respect to any substantive matter related to the activities of the committee. All communications with the press and other persons not on the committee or committee staff in respect to confidential substantive matters shall be by members of the committee only. Official releases of information to the press on behalf of the committee shall be made only with the express consent of the Chairman and Vice Chairman.

41. These rules may be modified, amended, or repealed by a decision of the committee, provided that a notice in writing of the proposed change has been given to each member at least 48 hours prior to the respective action.

GUIDELINES
SELECT COMMITTEE ON
PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN
ACTIVITIES

STATEMENT OF

SAM J. ERVIN, JR., CHAIRMAN

HOWARD H. BAKER, JR., VICE CHAIRMAN

On Monday, April 16, 1973, the Select Committee on Presidential Campaign Activities met and unanimously adopted guidelines regarding testimony and appearances of prospective witnesses before the Select Committee. The text follows.

In investigating the matters mentioned in S. Res. 60, the Senate Select Committee on Presidential Campaign Activities will observe its standing rules, its previously established procedures for staff interviews of prospective witnesses, and these guidelines:

1. The committee will receive oral and documentary evidence relevant to the matters S. Res. 60 authorizes it to investigate and matters bearing on the credibility of the witnesses who testify before it.

2. All witnesses shall testify before the committee on oath or affirmation in hearings which shall be open to the public and the news media. This guideline shall not abridge, however, the power of the committee to take the testimony of a particular witness on oath or affirmation in an executive meeting if the committee would otherwise be unable to ascertain whether the witness knows anything relevant to the matters the committee is authorized to investigate.

3. All still and motion picture photography will be completed before a witness actually testifies, and no such photography shall occur while the witness is testifying. Television coverage of a witness and his testimony shall be permitted, however, under the provisions of the Standing Rules of the Committee.

4. In taking the testimony of a witness, the committee will endeavor to do two things: First, to minimize inconvenience to the witness and disruption of his affairs; and, second, to afford the witness a fair opportunity to give his testimony without undue interruption. To achieve the first of these objectives, the committee will honor the request of the witness to the extent feasible for advance notice of the time and place appointed for taking his testimony, complete the taking of his testimony with as much dispatch as circumstances permit, and release the witness from further attendance on the committee as soon as circumstances allow, subject, however, to the power of the committee to recall him for further testimony in the event the committee deems such action advisable. To afford the witness a fair opportunity to present his testimony, the committee will permit the witness to make an opening statement not exceeding 20 minutes, which shall not be interrupted by questioning, and a closing statement summarizing his testimony, not exceeding 5 minutes, which will not be interrupted by questioning: Provided, however, questions suggested by the closing statement may be propounded after such statement is made.

5. The committee respects and recognizes the right of a prospective witness who is interviewed by the staff of the committee in advance of a public hearing as well as the right of a witness who appears before the committee to be accompanied by a lawyer of his own choosing to advise him concerning his constitutional and legal rights as a witness.

6. If the lawyer who accompanies a witness before the committee advises the witness to claim a privilege against giving any testimony sought by the committee, the committee shall have the discretionary power to permit the lawyer to present his views on the matter for the information of the committee, and the committee shall thereupon rule on the validity of the claim or its application to the particular circumstances involved and require the witness to give the testimony sought in the event its ruling on the claim is adverse to the witness. Neither the witness nor any other officer or person shall be permitted to claim a privilege against the witness testifying prior to the appearance of the witness before the committee, and the committee shall not rule in respect to the claim until the question by which the testimony is sought is put to the witness.

7. The committee believes that it may be necessary for it to obtain the testimony of some White House aides if the committee is to be able to ascertain the complete truth in respect to the matters it is authorized to investigate by S. Res. 60. To this end, the committee will invite such White House aides as it has reason to believe have knowledge or information relevant to the matters it is authorized to investigate to appear before the committee and give testimony on oath or affirmation in open hearings respecting such matters. In this connection, the committee will extend to such aides the considerations set forth in detail in guideline No. 4 and the right to counsel set forth in detail in guidelines Nos. 5 and 6. In addition to these considerations and rights, the committee will permit the White House to have its own counsel present when any White House aide appears before the committee as a witness, and permit such counsel to invoke any claim that a privilege available to the President forbids a White House aide to give the testimony sought by the committee, and the committee shall thereupon rule on validity of such claim or its application to the particular testimony sought in the manner and with the effect set forth in guideline No. 6 in respect to a claim of privilege invoked by a witness or his counsel. The committee will not subpoena a White House aide to appear before it or its staff unless such aide fails to make timely response to an invitation to appear.

8. The committee may require the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, or any of his assistants or deputies, or any available law enforcement officer to eject from a meeting of the committee any person who willfully disrupts the meeting or willfully impedes the committee in the performance of its functions under S. Res. 60.

9. Whenever the committee takes testimony through the agency of less than the majority of the members of the committee, as authorized by its standing rules, the member or members of the committee taking the testimony shall be vested with the powers set forth in these guidelines and shall be deemed to act as the committee in exercising such powers.

2. SELECT COMMITTEE TO STUDY GOVERNMENTAL OPERATIONS WITH RESPECT TO INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

[CHURCH COMMITTEE]

[Journal of the Senate, 94th Cong., 1st Sess., 51-53, Jan. 27, 1975]

ESTABLISHMENT OF SELECT COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE FEDERAL INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

Resolved, To establish a select committee of the Senate to conduct an investigation and study of governmental operations with respect to intelligence activities and of the extent, if any, to which illegal, improper, of unethical activities were engaged in by any agency of the Federal Government or by any persons, acting individually or in combination with others, with respect to any intelligence activity carried out by or on behalf of the Federal Government; be it further

(5) The extent to which the operation of domestic intelligence or counterintelligence activities and the operation of any other activities within the United States by the Central Intelligence Agency conforms to the legislative charter of that Agency and the intent of the Congress.

(6) The past and present interpretation by the Director of Central Intelligence of the responsibility to protect intelligence sources and methods as it relates to the provision in section 102(d)(3) of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 403(d)(3)) that “. . . that the agency shall have no police, subpena, law enforcement powers, or internal security functions.

(7) Nature and extent of executive branch oversight of all United States intelligence activities.

(8) The need for specific legislative authority to govern the operations of any intelligence agencies of the Federal Government now existing without that explicit statutory authority, including but not limited to agencies such as the Defense Intelligence Agency and the National Security Agency.

The nature and extent to which Federal agencies cooperate and exchange intelligence information and the adequacy of any regulations or statutes which govern such cooperation and exchange of intelligence information.

(9) The extent to which United States intelligence agencies are governed by Executive orders, rules, or regulations either published or secret and the extent to which those Executive orders, rules, or regulations interpret, expand, or are in conflict with specific legislative authority.

(10) The violation or suspected violation of any State or Federal statute by any intelligence agency or by any person by or on behalf of any intelligence agency of the Federal Government including but not limited to surreptitious entries, surveillance, wire-taps, or eavesdropping, illegal opening of the United States mail, or the monitoring of the United States mail.

(11) The need for improved, strengthened, or consolidated oversight of United States intelligence activities by the Congress.

(12) Whether any of the existing laws of the United States are inadequate, either in their provisions or manner of enforcement, to safeguard the rights of American citizens, to improve executive and legislative control of intelligence and related activities, and to resolve uncertainties as to the authority of the United States intelligence and related agencies.

(13) Whether there is unnecessary duplication of expenditure and effort in the collection and processing of intelligence information by United States agencies.

(14) The extent and necessity of overt and covert intelligence activities in the United States and abroad.

(15) Such other related matters as the committee deems necessary in order to carry out its responsibilities under section (a).

SEC. 3. (a) To enable the select committee to make the investigation and study authorized and directed by this resolution, the Senate hereby empowers the select committee as an agency of the Senate (1) to employ and fix the compensation of such clerical, investigatory, legal, technical, and other assistants as it deems necessary or appropriate, but it may not exceed the normal Senate salary schedules; (2) to sit and act at any time or place during sessions, recesses, and adjournment periods of the Senate; (3) to hold hearings for taking testimony on oath or to receive documentary or physical evidence relating to the matters and questions it is authorized to investigate or study; (4) to require by subpoena or otherwise the attendance as witnesses of any person who the select committee believes [have] knowledge or information concerning any of the matters or questions it is authorized to investigate and study; (5) to require by subpoena or order any department, agency, officer, or employee of the executive branch of the United States Government, or any private person, firm, or corporation, to produce for its consideration or for use as evidence in its investigation and study any books, checks, canceled checks, correspondence, communications, document, papers, physical evidence, records, recordings, tapes, or materials relating to any of the matters or questions it is authorized to investigate and study which they or any of them may have in their custody or under their control; (6) to make to the Senate any recommendations it deems appropriate in respect to the willful failure or refusal of any person to answer questions or give testimony in his character as a witness during his appearance before it or in respect to the willful failure or refusal of any officer or employee of the executive branch of the United States Government or any person, firm, or corporation to produce before the committee any books, checks, canceled checks, correspondence, communications, document, financial records, papers, physical evidence, records, recordings, tapes, or materials in obedience to any subpoena or order; (7) to take depositions and other testimony on oath anywhere within the United States or in any other country; (8) to procure the temporary or intermittent services of individual consultants, or organizations thereof, in the same manner and under the same conditions as a standing committee of the Senate may procure such services under section 202(i) of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946; (9) to use on a reimbursable basis, with the prior consent of the Committee on Rules and Administration, the services of personnel of any such department or agency; (10) to use on a reimbursable basis or otherwise with the prior consent of the chairman of any subcommittee of any committee of the Senate, the facilities or services of any members of the staffs of such other Senate committees or any subcommittees of such other Senate committees whenever the select committee or its chairman deems that such action is necessary or appropriate to enable the select committee to make the investigation and study authorized and directed by this resolution; (11) to have direct access through the agency of any members of the select committee or any of its investigatory or legal assistants designated by it or its chairman or the ranking minority member of any data, evidence, information, report, analysis, or document or papers, relating to any of the matters or questions which it is authorized and directed to investigate and study in the custody or under the control of any department, agency, officer, or employee of the executive branch of the United States Government, including any department, agency, officer, or employee of the United States Government having the power under the laws of the United States to investigate any alleged criminal activities or to prosecute persons charged with crimes against the United States and any department, agency, officer, or employee of the United States Government having the authority to conduct intelligence or surveillance within or outside the United States, without regard to the jurisdiction or authority of any other Senate committee, which will aid the select committee to prepare for or conduct the investigation and study authorized and directed by this resolution; and (12) to expend to the extent it determines necessary or appropriate any moneys made available to it by the Senate to perform the duties and exercise the powers conferred upon it by this resolution and to make the investigation and study it is authorized by this resolution to make.

(b) Subpenas may be issued by the select committee acting through the chairman or any other member designated by him, and may be served by any person designated by such chairman or other member anywhere within the borders of the United States. The chairman of the select committee, or any other member thereof, is hereby authorized to administer oaths to any witnesses appearing before the committee.

(c) In preparing for or conducting the investigation and study authorized and directed by this resolution, the select committee shall be empowered to exercise the powers conferred upon committees of the Senate by section 6002 of title 18, United States Code, or any other Act of Congress regulating the granting of immunity to witnesses.

SEC. 4. The select committee shall have authority to recommend the enactment of any new legislation or the amendment of any existing statute which it considers necessary or desirable to strengthen or clarify the national security, intelligence, or surveillance activities of the United States and to protect the rights of United States citizens with regard to those activities.

SEC. 5. The select committee shall make a final report of the results of the investigation and study conducted by it pursuant to this resolution, together with its findings and its recommendations as to new congressional legislation it deems necessary or desirable, to the Senate at the earliest practicable date, but no later than September 1, 1975. The select committee may also submit to the Senate such interim reports as it considers appropriate. After submission of its final report, the select committee shall have three calendar months to close its affairs, and on the expiration of such three calendar months shall cease to exist.

SEC. 6. The expenses of the select committee through September 1, 1975, under this resolution shall not exceed $750,000 of which amount not to exceed $100,000 shall be available for the procurement of the services of individual consultants or organizations thereof. Such expenses shall be paid from the contingent fund of the Senate upon vouchers approved by the chairman of the select committee.

SEC. . The select committee shall institute and carry out such rules and procedures as it may deem necessary to prevent (1) the disclosure, outside the select committee, of any information relating to the activities of the Central Intelligence Agency or any other department or agency of the Federal Government engaged in intelligence activities, obtained by the select committee during the course of its study and investigation, not authorized by the select committee to be disclosed, and (2) the disclosure, outside the select committee, of any information which would adversely affect the intelligence activities of the Central Intelligence Agency in foreign countries or the intelligence activities in foreign countries of any other department or agency of the Federal Government.

SEC. . As a condition for employment as described in section 3 of this Resolution, each person shall agree not to accept any honorarium, royalty or other payment for a speaking engagement, magazine article, book, or other endeavor connected with the investigation and study undertaken by this committee.

The Committee shall take such action as it deems appropriate.

3. JUDICIARY SUBCOMMITTEE INVESTIGATING ACTIVITIES
RELATING TO INDIVIDUALS REPRESENTING INTERESTS OF FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS

[BILLY CARTER INVESTIGATION]

[126 Cong. Rec. 19544–46 (1980)]

UNANIMOUS-CONSENT AGREEMENT—INVESTIGATION OF ACTIVITIES RE-LATING TO INDIVIDUALS REPRESENTING INTERESTS OF FOREIGN GOV-ERNMENTS

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD. Mr. President, meetings have occurred on yesterday and today with the distinguished minority leader, the distinguished minority whip, Senators THURMOND and DOLE from the minority, the distinguished majority whip, Senator BAYH, Senator RIBICOFF, Senator BAUCUS, Senator PELL, and myself, in my office to discuss the investigation of activities relating to individuals representing the interests of foreign governments.

Several discussions took place and the following unanimous-consent request represents the unanimous agreement that was reached after those discussions terminated in the final meeting earlier today.

The distinguished minority leader is here to speak for himself. I am sure that he discussed with other Senators on his side of the aisle the understanding that was reached, and I have done the same on my side of the aisle.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that a committee of the Judiciary Committee, consisting of four Democrats and three Republicans, to be selected by the acting chairman (Mr. BAYH), who has been designated acting chairman by the chairman of the Judiciary Committee (Mr. KENNEDY), and ranking member of the Judiciary Committee, be established immediately for the purpose of conducting an investigation of activities relating to individuals representing the interests of foreign governments, which subcommittee shall submit to the Senate not later than October 4, 1980, a final or interim report.

Provided further, that two members of the Foreign Relations Committee, one each to be designated by the majority and minority leaders, shall serve as members of the aforementioned subcommittee, with the same powers, authority, and prerogatives of all other members of that subcommittee;

Provided further, that service on this subcommittee shall not be considered a violation of Senate rule XXV, subsections 4(b)(1) and 4(e)(2);

Provided further, that subpoenas shall be issued by the subcommittee upon the cosignature of its chairman and vice chairman, or upon the signature of either of them at the direction of the subcommittee;

Provided further, that the Senate legal counsel and deputy counsel be authorized and directed to work with and under the jurisdiction and authority of the subcommittee chairman and ranking member;

Provided further, that the extent and scope of the investigation shall be determined by the subcommittee.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. President, reserving the right to object, and I will not object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Tennessee.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. President, the majority leader, of course, correctly describes the negotiations that have been undertaken in the course of the last 2 days and which culminated in the meeting conducted an hour or so ago in his office.

Mr. President, I wish to join with the majority leader in asking unanimous consent for the action directed in this request.

Mr. President, further on reservation, I would like to thank the majority leader for his time and patience and his consideration of the elements of this agreement, which were deemed to be especially significant to those of us in the minority who were concerned with the quality of the investigation that is about to occur.

I personally had hoped for and would have preferred a select committee, a select committee appointed by the majority and minority leaders, comprised of equal representation of both parties, and drawn from the Senate as a whole.

But I recognize the circumstances that have suggested this arrangement and I believe this is the best arrangement that can be achieved at this time. I fully support it.

It should be noted, Mr. President, as I have noted in previous meetings leading to this point, that nothing in this resolution deprives me, or any other Member of the Senate, from later introducing a resolution calling for the creation of a select committee, nor does it abrogate nor supersede the jurisdictional responsibility or opportunity of any other committee. But this is a good beginning. This is a good way to commence.

This, I believe, is a good faith effort by both sides to create a forum for a fair, depoliticized, impartial inquiry of the most sensitive nature into a matter of great importance to the Senate and to the country.

Having arrived now at a satisfactory arrangement for that undertaking, I wish, on this reservation, to pledge to the majority leader, to the Senate, and to the country, there, so far as we are concerned on our side of the aisle, from this moment forward there will be no element of partisan politics involved; that this will be the most judicious, the fairest, the most impartial inquiry that is possible. We recognize and acknowledge not only the sensitivity of this issue, but also our responsibility to the Senate and to the country, which far transcends any temporary political advantage.

Mr. President, we recognize that the lives, the fortunes, and the good names of men and women are being dealt with in this inquiry, and we are sensitive to that requirement. We wish no one ill.

Now, Mr. President, I thank the majority leader for his cooperation. I believe it is especially important that we broaden the inquiry to include representatives of the Foreign Relations Committee. If this unanimous-consent request is granted—and I hope it will be—I will designate one member from our side of the Foreign Relations Committee to participate.

I am especially pleased that the senior Republican on this committee, who will be chosen from the Judiciary Committee, will be designated as the vice chairman. I believe it is important that we will have coauthority between the chairman and the vice chairman to issue subpoenas. I approve of the provision which states that if the chairman and the vice chairman cannot agree on the issue of subpoena, either of them may sign the subpoena on order of the subcommittee itself.

It is my understanding, although I do not see it in the request, that this subcommittee will make its report to the Senate. Maybe I overlooked that.

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD. It is in there.

Mr. BAKER. It will make its report to the Senate, which I believe is an important aspect.

I am especially pleased that, on the suggestion of the majority leader, the Senate legal counsel and the deputy legal counsel will be involved in these proceedings. That is a good employment of their resources and talents.

Altogether, Mr. President, I believe the Senate has acted wisely and well in a difficult and sensitive political situation, and I offer my congratulations to the majority leader for his efforts in this respect.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none, and it is so ordered.

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD. Mr. President, I thank the distinguished minority leader for his cooperation in arriving at the unanimous-consent agreement.

I thank all the other Senators whose names I have mentioned previously and, of course, I thank those whose advice and concurrence were sought, but whose names I have not mentioned, for their cooperation.

I also express my appreciation to the distinguished minority leader for the statement he has just made. I wish to say, on my own behalf, Mr. President, that this is a matter that is not going to go away. It is a matter that, in my judgment, requires the investigation which has been ordered by this consent agreement.

I believe that the Judiciary Committee, having primary jurisdiction over the matter, and certainly jurisdiction over any criminal activities that may have occurred, is the appropriate committee to conduct the investigation, with the added proviso that the Foreign Relations Committee, which has jurisdiction over the Foreign Relations Committee, which has jurisdiction over the Foreign Agents Registration Act, is appropriately represented by the unanimous-consent agreement.

I have every confidence that the acting chairman of the Judiciary Committee, Mr. BAYH, who has been asked by me to serve as chairman of the subcommittee, and the Democrats whom he will select from that committee, as well as the ranking member, Mr. THURMOND, and the Republican members whom he will select, and the two members of the Foreign Relations Committee who will be selected by Mr. BAKER and me, will discharge their duties in a responsible, honorable, admirable, and dutiful way.

It will be the responsibility of this subcommittee to act fairly and to act thoroughly and to follow leads wherever they may go. I have every confidence that they will be able to do that.

I appreciate the statement of the distinguished minority leader—if I did not misunderstand him—that this will not be a partisan matter, and I agree that it should not be a partisan matter. I am just as concerned about this matter as is any other Member of the Senate, on either side of the aisle, and just as concerned that there be an investigation; that it be fair; that it be thorough; that it be impartial, and that it be conducted on a nonpartisan basis rather than on a partisan basis.

As the distinguished minority leader has said, there are people whose names, whose reputations, whose lives, and whose honor may be involved. So I feel it the duty of the Senate to proceed forthwith.

I can understand the preference of the majority leader for a select committee; but, as he has indicated, I believe there are circumstances which, in my judgment, dictate that the procedure that has been agreed upon is the better one under the circumstances.

The Judiciary Committee is staffed and has the authority to employ additional staff. The Senate legal counsel, who I appointed, and the Senate deputy legal counsel, who was appointed by Mr. BAKER, both of whom received the formal approval of the Senate, are very able men and are being authorized and directed by the agreement to assist the chairman and the ranking member of the subcommittee which is being created by the consent agreement. This will enable the investigation to proceed immediately. There should be no delay.

I believe that the agreement that was reached with respect to the issuance of subpoenas gives to both the majority and the minority the right to subpoena witnesses, but with the cosignature each of the other. I feel that, in all respects, this is a very appropriate way to proceed.

It has been required that the subcommittee report to the Senate, and that is very appropriate; that at least an interim report be submitted by October 4, which will be either the sine die adjournment of the Senate or will be adjournment of the Senate over until after the election.

Having said that, Mr. President, I again feel indebted to the minority leader and the Members on his side of the aisle, to my own Members, especially Mr. BAYH, who will be taking on this onerous task, and to the others whose names were mentioned.

I think that about does it.

Mr. BAYH. Mr. President, I think the Senate owes the distinguished majority leader a debt of gratitude for the time and effort he expended in putting together the framework on which the special subcommittee of the Judicial Committee will undertake this very important task.

I express my deep appreciation to him for the tremendous role he played in this.

I think we also owe to the minority leader a debt of gratitude because he was willing to display a significant willingness of give and take that was necessary to put this together in a harmonious fashion.

This is a thankless task. It is an important task. It is one that I trust the subcommittee will in fact exercise in a manner in which the entire Senate can take some degree of pride.

We want this committee to act expeditiously, thoroughly, and fairly, and we shall endeavor to do just that.

Again, I am indebted to the distinguished majority leader for the critical catalytic role he played in putting this together in a way that I think the hearings that are conducted by this committee will as much as is humanly possible search the truth and follow the tracks of these activities wherever they may lead and let the chips fall where they may.

I am confident that the Senator from South Carolina and I will be able to structure a committee in such a way that we will put on our quasi-judicial robes and we will take off the partisan remnants that occasionally adorn us every 2 years or 4 years and pursue truth. We will avoid the temptation to resort to witch hunting or playing petty expedient politics.

Let us see what the facts are and then the Senate itself, the Government of this country and more importantly, the people of this country can decide for themselves what the proper course of action should be.

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD. Mr. President, I thank the distinguished Senator from Indiana (Mr. BAYH) and again I say that I have asked him to serve as chairman of the subcommittee and I have done it with the utmost confidence in his integrity and dedication to purpose.

Mr. THURMOND. Mr. President, I wish to commend the able majority leader and the able minority leader in reaching agreement as to the membership to be composed of this Subcommittee on Investigation.

It was suggested that we have a select committee of the Senate. I, like the distinguished minority leader, would have preferred that. But since that was not the decision, as the ranking member of the Judiciary Committee, who I presume now will be the vice chairman of this subcommittee, I just wish to say that it shall certainly be my intention to see that this investigation is conducted in a fair, impartial, and honest manner.

No investigation is worth anything unless it is conducted in such a manner. We are not entering upon this investigation as partisans. We are not entering upon this investigation as Democrats or Republicans. We shall enter upon this investigation with one purpose in mind, and that is to seek the truth.

We shall go after the facts, regardless of where they lead to, regardless of who it affects. It may affect individuals. It may affect people in the Government. Or it may affect other individuals in one way or another.

But this investigation from the standpoint of the vice chairman will certainly be conducted in a way that we hope will meet the approval of the American people and to do that it must be done in a fair, just, impartial, and honest manner.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I know it is customary during these moments when the Senate is embarking upon an investigation to praise the participants who were part of putting the endeavor together. But I wish to say that I, as one who somewhat participated, probably more observed these deliberations in the last 24 hours, was very impressed with the fact that we are starting off with the right foot. The right tone is being set.

No one knows precisely where this investigation is going to go. No one knows precisely what evidence will be uncovered, and no one knows probably in any way where this investigation will lead.

But I must say I am very impressed and very proud that the participants, particularly the minority leader and the majority leader, started off on the right foot with the right tone in the spirit of bipartisanship.

There were times when the negotiations almost broke down. There were times when emotions perhaps got a little higher than they ordinarily are. But with perseverance in the effort and more important, in my judgment, because the majority leader and minority leader and those who participated above all wanted the investigation to proceed properly, we overcame those differences as small as they might be and in the end we reached agreement as to how we might proceed.

Mr. President, I must say that I think that speaks well not only for our institution, our body—and I commend the minority leader and majority leader very highly—but it also speaks well for the professional manner in which this investigation will be undertaken.

5.2 All witnesses at public or executive hearings who testify to matters of fact shall be sworn, unless a majority of members of the subcommittee provide otherwise.

5.3 Subcommittee interrogation shall be conducted by members of the subcommittee and by such staff personnel as are authorized by the presiding member.

5.4 Counsel retained by any witness and accompanying such witness shall be permitted to be present during the testimony of such witness at any public or executive hearing, and to advise such witness while he is testifying, of his legal rights; provided, however, that in the case of any witness who is a government officer or employee, or officer or employee of a corporation or association, the presiding member may rule that selection of counsel from the government or the corporation or association, creates a conflict of interest, and that the witness shall be represented by personal counsel not from the government or corporation or association.

5.5 A witness who is unable to obtain counsel may inform the subcommittee of such fact, and if, consistent with the notice given under section 5.1 hereof the subcommittee is so informed at least 24 hours prior to the witness's appearance, the subcommittee shall then endeavor to obtain voluntary counsel for the witness. Such counsel shall be subject solely to the control of the witness and not the subcommittee. Failure to obtain counsel will not excuse the witness from appearing and testifying.

5.6 Counsel shall conduct themselves in an ethical and professional manner. Failure to do so shall, upon a finding to that effect by a majority of the members present, subject such counsel to disciplinary action, which may include warning, censure, or removal and if counsel is removed, the provisions of Rule 5.5 hereof for a witness who is unable to obtain counsel shall apply.

5.7 Any witness desiring to make an introductory statement in executive or public hearings shall file a copy of such statement with the Chairman or clerk of the subcommittee 48 hours in advance of the hearings at which the statement is to be presented unless the presiding member waive[s] this requirement. The subcommittee shall determine whether such statement may be read or placed in the record of the hearing.

5.8 A witness may request, on grounds of distraction, harassment, personal safety, or physical discomfort, that during his testimony, television, motion picture, and other cameras and lights shall not be directed at him. Such requests shall be ruled on by the subcommittee members present at the hearing.

5.9 An accurate stenographic record shall be kept of the testimony of all witnesses in executive and public hearings. The record of his own testimony whether in public or executive session shall be made available for inspection by witness or his counsel under committee supervision; a copy of any testimony given in public session or that part of the testimony given by the witness in executive session and subsequently quoted or made part of the record in a public session shall be made available to any witness at his expense if he so requests.

5.10 Any person who is the subject of an investigation in public hearings may submit to the Chairman of the subcommittee questions in writing for the cross-examination of [any] other witness called by the subcommittee. With the consent of a majority of the members of the subcommittee present and voting, these questions, or paraphrased versions of them, shall be put to the witness by the Chairman, by a member of the subcommittee, or by staff of the subcommittee.

5.11 Any person whose name is mentioned or who is specifically identified, and who believes that testimony or other evidence presented at a public hearing, or comment made by a subcommittee member or staff, tends to defame him or otherwise adversely affect his reputation, may (a) request to appear personally before the subcommittee to testify in his own behalf, or, in the alternative, (b) file a sworn statement of facts relevant to the testimony or other evidence or comment complained of. Such request and such statement shall be submitted to the subcommittee for its consideration and action.

If a person requests to appear personally before the subcommittee pursuant to alternative (a) referred to herein, said request shall be considered untimely if it is not received by the Chairman of the subcommittee or its counsel in writing on or before fifteen days subsequent to the day on which said person's name was mentioned or otherwise specifically identified during a public hearing held before the subcommittee, unless the Chairman and the Vice Chairman waive this requirement.

If a person requests the filing of his sworn statement pursuant to alternative (b) referred to herein, the subcommittee may condition the filing of said sworn statement upon said person agreeing to appear personally before the subcommittee and to testify concerning the matters contained in his sworn statement, as well as any other matters related to the subject of the investigation before the subcommittee.

Rule 6. Depositions on Notice:

6.1 Notices for the taking of depositions shall be authorized by the Chairman and the Vice Chairman or by a staff officer designated by them. Such notices shall specify a time and place for examination, and may specify that the examination shall be in private.

6.2 The subcommittee shall not initiate procedures leading to criminal or civil enforcement proceedings in the event a witness fails to appear at a deposition unless the deposition notice was accompanied by a subcommittee subpoena.

6.3 Witnesses may be accompanied at a deposition by counsel to advise them of their rights, subject to the provisions of Rules 5.4, 5.5, and 5.6 hereof.

6.4 Witnesses shall be examined upon an oath administered by an individual authorized by local law to administer oaths. Questions shall be propounded orally by committee staff. Objections by the witness as to the form of questions shall be noted for the record. If a witness objects to a question and refuses to testify, on the basis of relevance or privilege, the committee staff may proceed with the deposition, or may, at that time or at a subsequent time, seek a ruling by telephone or otherwise on the objection from a member of the subcommittee. If the member overrules the objection, he may refer the matter to the subcommittee or he may order and direct the witness to answer the question, but the subcommittee shall not initiate procedures leading to civil or criminal enforcement unless the witness refuses to testify after he has been ordered and directed to answer by a member of the subcommittee.

6.5 The committee staff shall see that the testimony is either transcribed or electronically recorded, or both. If a witness's testimony is transcribed, he shall be furnished with a copy of it for review. No later than five days thereafter, the staff shall enter the changes, if any, requested by the witness, with a statement of the witness's reasons for the changes, and the witness shall sign the transcript. The individual administering the oath shall then certify on the transcript that the witness was duly sworn in his presence, the transcriber shall certify that the transcript is a true record of the testimony, and the transcript shall then be filed, together with any electronic record, with the clerk of the subcommittee.

Rule 7. Examinations on Commission:

7.1 Commissions for the examination of witnesses shall be authorized and issued by the Chairman. Such commissions shall name a commissioner, who shall be authorized to appoint a time and place for examination, and to determine whether the examination shall be in public or in private.

7.2 The subcommittee shall not initiate procedures leading to criminal or civil enforcement proceedings in the event a witness fails to appear at an examination on commission unless the witness has received a subcommittee subpoena. The commission may name the witness or witnesses to be examined, or if the witnesses cannot be determined at the time of issuance of the commission, it may authorize the commissioner to name subsequently the witness or witnesses to be examined. In the event that such a commission is issued with witnesses to be named subsequently, the commissioner may be issued properly authorized subpoenas without witnesses' names. The commissioner will subsequently insert the names upon receiving telephonic authorization from the Chairman and Vice Chairman or members designated by them to insert the names and serve the subpoenas.

7.3 Witnesses may be accompanied at an examination upon commission by counsel to advise them of their rights, subject to the provisions of Rules 5.4, 5.5, and 5.6 hereof.

7.4 Witnesses shall be examined upon an oath administered by an individual authorized by local law to administer oaths. Questions shall be propounded orally by the commissioner or by committee staff. Objections by the witness as to the form of questions shall be noted for the record. If a witness objects to a question and refuses to testify, the provisions of Rule 6.4 hereof shall apply.

7.5 The commissioner shall see that the testimony is transcribed or electronically recorded, or both, and then reviewed, subscribed, certified, and filed, as provided by Rule 6.5 hereof.

Rule 8. Procedures for Handling of Classified or Sensitive Materials:

8.1 Subcommittee staff offices shall operate under strict security precautions. The Chairman shall request the Staff Director of the Select Senate Committee on Intelligence and the Senate Sergeant at Arms to provide assistance necessary to insure strict security.

8.2 Sensitive or classified documents and materials shall be segregated in a secure storage area. They may be examined only at secure reading facilities. Copying, duplicating, or removal from the subcommittee staff offices of such documents and other materials is prohibited except as is necessary for use in, or preparation for, interviews or subcommittee meetings, including the taking of testimony at hearings, examinations, and depositions.

8.3 The members of the Subcommittee shall at all times have access to all papers and other material received from any source subject to the security provisions of S. Res. 400. The Chairman shall designate a staff officer responsible for the maintenance, under appropriate security procedures, of a registry which will number and identify all classified or sensitive papers and other materials in the possession of the subcommittee, and such registry shall be available to any member of the subcommittee.

8.4 Access to categories of classified information supplied to the subcommittee shall be limited to members, and to staff members with a need-to-know, designated by the Chairman and Vice Chairman.

8.5 No testimony taken including the names of witnesses testifying, or material presented at an executive session, or classified papers and other materials received by the staff or its consultants while in the employ of the committee shall be made public, in whole or in part or by way of summary, or disclosed to any person outside the committee unless authorized by a majority vote of the entire subcommittee, or after the termination of the subcommittee, in such manner as may be determined by the Senate.

Rule 9. Staff:

9.1 For purposes of interrogation of witnesses and security of information, under Rules 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 officers and employees of the Office of Senate Legal Counsel shall be deemed subcommittee staff.

9.2 The staff of the subcommittee shall not discuss either the substance or procedure of the work of the subcommittee with anyone other than a member of the subcommittee or other subcommittee personnel. Upon termination of employment by the subcommittee, each member of the staff, or consultant, shall surrender all classified and other material relating to the work of the subcommittee which came into his possession while in the employ of the subcommittee.

9.3 The employment of any member of the staff or consultant who fails to conform to any of these Rules shall be immediately terminated. In the event of a serious unjustified release of information obstructing the progress of the investigation the subcommittee may vote to refer the matter to the Department of Justice.

Rule 10. Detailees and Consultants:

10.1 The Chairman shall have the authority to utilize the services, information, facilities, and personnel of the departments and agencies of the government.

10.2 The Chairman shall have the authority to procure the temporary or intermittent services of experts or consultants or organizations thereof to make studies or assist or advise the subcommittee with respect to any matter under investigation. Government personnel detailed to the subcommittee, and consultants, may be deemed subcommittee staff for purposes of Rules 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 if the Chairman so designates in writing.

Rule 11. Changes in Rules:

These Rules may be modified, amended, or repealed by the subcommittee, provided that a notice in writing of the proposed changes has been given to each member at least 48 hours prior to the meeting at which action thereon is to be taken. The changes shall become effective immediately upon publication of the changed rule or rules in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD.

4. SELECT COMMITTEE TO STUDY LAW ENFORCEMENT UNDERCOVER ACTIVITIES OF COMPONENTS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[ABSCAM INVESTIGATION]

S. Res. 350, 97th Cong. (1982)

[128 Cong. Rec. 5518–19 (1982)]

Whereas, law enforcement undercover activities by components of the Department of Justice may fulfill a useful and beneficial purpose in the investigation and prosecution of crimes against the United States;

Whereas, allegations have been raised of improprieties in the formulation and conduct of the so-called Abscam undercover operation by components of the Department of Justice;

Whereas, these allegations specifically include the allegation that in the Abscam operation attempts were made to create improper conduct on the part of certain persons (including Members of Congress), including instances where no adequate basis may have existed for suspecting the person of prior improper activity or a predisposition to commit such activity;

Whereas, these allegations respecting investigative techniques further include questions of possible prosecutorial misconduct in connection with the Abscam operation;

Whereas, these allegations may further indicate a pattern of illegal or improper targeting and investigative techniques utilized by components of the Department of Justice in law enforcement undercover operations; and

Whereas, a thorough and independent investigation by the Senate of the United States is necessary to determine the facts with respect to targeting and investigative techniques utilized in connection with law enforcement undercover operations carried out by components of the Department of Justice generally and in connection with the Abscam operation specifically; Now therefore be it

Resolved, That it is the purpose of this resolution to establish a select committee of the Senate to conduct an investigation and study of the activities of components of the Department of Justice in connection with their law enforcement undercover operations or of any persons, acting individually or in combination with others, in connection with such operations, and to recommend such legislation as the committee deems necessary or desirable.

SEC. 2. The vice chairman shall not assume the functions of Acting Chairman in the absence of the Chairman, but shall preside over meetings of the select committee during the absence of the chairman, and shall discharge such other responsibilities as may be assigned to him by the select committee or the chairman. Vacancies in the membership of the select committee shall not affect the authority of the remaining members to execute the functions of the select committee and shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments to it are made.

(d) A majority of the members of the select committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but the select committee may affix a lesser number as a quorum for the purpose of taking testimony before the select committee.

(e) In the event that a tie vote occurs, the pending matter then being voted upon shall be determined in accordance with the vote of the chairman.

Without restricting in any way the authority conferred upon the select committee by the preceding sentence, the Senate further expressly authorizes and directs the select committee to make a complete investigation and study of the activities of components of the Department of Justice or of any or all persons who may have information bearing upon the jurisdiction of the select committee, with respect to the following matters:

(11) The need for specific legislation to govern such law enforcement undercover activities.

(12) The possible violation of any state or United States statute or constitutional provision, or the possible violation of any rule or regulation by any component of the Department of Justice, in connection with such law enforcement undercover activities, and the extent to which innocent persons may have been harmed by such possible violations.

(15) The effectiveness of, and need for further Executive Branch procedures to investigate allegations made concerning illegal, improper or unethical conduct in connection with such law enforcement undercover activities.

(16) Such other related matters as the select committee deems necessary in order to carry out its responsibilities under Section 2.

(b) Subpoenas may be authorized and issued by the select committee acting through the chairman or any other member designated by him; and may be served by any persons designated by such chairman or other member anywhere within the borders of the United States. The chairman of the select committee, or any other member thereof, is hereby authorized to administer oaths to any witnesses appearing before the committee.

(c) In preparing for or conducting the investigation and study authorized and directed by this resolution, the select committee shall be empowered to exercise the powers conferred upon committees of the Senate by section 6002 of title 18, United States Code, or any other Act of Congress regulating the granting of immunity to witnesses.

The select committee may also submit to the Senate such interim reports as it considers appropriate. After submission of its final report, the select committee shall have until January 15, 1983, to close its affairs, and on such date shall cease to exist.

SEC. 7. The expenses of the select committee through December 15, 1982, shall not exceed $250,000. Such expenses shall be paid from the contingent fund of the Senate upon vouchers approved by the chairman of the select committee.

RULES OF THE SELECT COMMITTEE TO STUDY LAW ENFORCEMENT UNDERCOVER ACTIVITIES OF COMPONENTS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[128 Cong. Rec. 6992–93 (1982)]

RULE 1. CONVENING OF MEETINGS AND HEARINGS

1.1 Meetings. The committee shall hold its regular meetings every Wednesday when the Senate is in session. The chairman may call additional meetings or cancel regular meetings. The members of the committee may call special meetings as provided in Senate Rule XXVI(3).

1.2 Notice. The committee shall make public announcement of the date, place, and subject matter of any hearing at least one week before its commencement. A hearing may be called on shortened notice if the chairman, with the concurrence of the vice chairman, determines that there is good cause to begin such hearing at an earlier date.

1.3 Presiding officer. The chairman shall preside when present. If the chairman is not present at any meeting or hearing, the vice chairman shall preside. The chairman may designate any member of the committee to preside over the conduct of a meeting or hearing in the absence of the chairman or vice chairman.

RULE 2. CLOSED SESSIONS AND CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS

2.1 Procedure. All meetings and hearings shall be open to the public unless closed. To close a meeting or hearing or portion thereof, a motion shall be made and seconded to go into closed session to discuss whether the meeting or hearing will concern the matters enumerated in Rule 2.3. Immediately after such discussion the committee shall return to open session and the meeting or hearing may then be closed by a record vote, including proxy votes, in open session of a majority of the members of the committee.

2.2 Witness request. Any witness called for a hearing may submit a written request to the chairman no later than twenty-four hours in advance for his examination to be in closed or open session. The chairman shall inform the committee of any such request, and the committee shall take such action pursuant to Rule 2.1 as it deems appropriate.

2.3 Closed session subjects. A meeting or hearing or portion thereof may be closed if the matters to be discussed concern: (1) national security; (2) committee staff personnel or internal staff management or procedure; (3) matters tending to reflect adversely on the character or reputation or to invade the privacy of any individuals; (4) matters which will disclose the identity of any informer or undercover law enforcement agent or will disclose any information relating to the investigation or prosecution of a criminal offense that is required to be kept secret in the interests of effective law enforcement; or (5) other matters enumerated in Senate Rule XXVI(5)(b).

2.4 Broadcasting.

(a) Control. Any meeting or hearing open to the public may be covered by television, radio, or still photography. Such coverage must be conducted in an orderly and unobtrusive manner, and the presiding officer may for good cause terminate such coverage in whole or in part, or take such other action to control it as the circumstances may warrant.

(b) Request. A witness may request of the presiding officer on grounds of distraction, harassment, personal safety, or physical discomfort, that during his testimony cameras, media microphones, and lights shall not be directed at him, and the presiding officer may take such action as he deems appropriate in response to the request.

RULE 3. QUORUMS AND VOTING

3.1 Reporting. Five members shall constitute a quorum for reporting a matter or recommendation to the Senate. A quorum must be physically present at the time of the final vote on reporting.

3.2 Other committee business. Three members shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of any committee business other than a final vote on reporting, providing a member of the minority is present. One member shall constitute a quorum for hearing testimony.

3.3 Proxies. Proxies shall be in writing, and shall be filed with the chief clerk by the absent member or by a member present at the meeting. Proxies shall contain sufficient reference to the pending matter to show that the absent member has been informed of it and has affirmatively requested that he be recorded as voting on it. Proxies shall not be counted towards a quorum.

3.4 Polling.

(a) Subjects. The committee may poll only (1) internal committee matters including the committee's staff records, and budget; (2) authorization for steps in the investigation, including the authorization and issuance of subpoenas, applications for immunity orders, and requests for documents from agencies; (3) other committee business, not including a final vote on reporting to the Senate, which has been designated for polling at a meeting.

(b) Procedure. The chairman shall circulate polling sheets to each member specifying the matter being polled and the time limit for completion of the poll. If any member so requests, the matter shall be held for meeting rather than being polled. The chief clerk shall keep a record of polls; if the chairman, with the approval of a majority of the members, determines that the polled matter is in one of the areas enumerated in Rule 2.3, the record of the poll shall be confidential. Any member may move at the committee meeting following a poll for a vote on the polled decision.

RULE 4. SUBPOENAS

4.1 Authorization. Subpoenas may be authorized by the committee or by the chairman, and may be issued by the chairman or by any other member designated by him. The chief clerk shall keep a log, and a file, of all subpoenas issued by the committee.

4.2 Return. A subpoena duces tecum or order to an agency for documents may be issued whose return shall occur at a time and place other than that of a scheduled hearing. When a return on such a subpoena or order is incomplete or accompanied by an objection, the chairman may convene a meeting or hearing on shortened notice to determine the adequacy of the return and to rule on the objection, or may refer the issues raised by the return for decision by poll of the committee. At a meeting or hearing on such a return, one member shall constitute a quorum.

RULE 5. HEARINGS

5.1 Notice. Witnesses called before the committee shall be given at least 48 hours notice absent a determination by the chairman of extraordinary circumstances, and all witnesses called shall be furnished with a copy of Senate Resolution 350 and of these rules.

5.2 Oath. All witnesses who testify to matters of fact shall be sworn unless the committee votes to waive the oath. The chairman, or any member, shall administer the oath.

5.3 Statement. Any witness desiring to make an introductory statement shall file 3 copies of such statement with the chairman or clerk of the committee 48 hours in advance of his appearance, unless the chairman and vice chairman determine that there is good cause for a witness's failure to do so. A witness may be required to summarize his or her prepared statement if it exceeds ten minutes.

5.4 Counsel.

(a) Presence. A witness's counsel shall be permitted to be present during his testimony at any public or closed hearing or deposition or staff interview to advise such witness of his rights; provided, however, that in the case of any witness who is an officer or employee of the government, or of a corporation or association, the chairman or the committee may rule that representation by counsel from the government, corporation, or association or by counsel representing other witnesses, creates a conflict of interest, and that the witness shall be represented by personal counsel not from the government, corporation or association or not representing other witnesses.

(b) Indigence. A witness who is unable for economic reasons to obtain counsel may inform the committee at least 48 hours prior to the witness's appearance, and it will endeavor to obtain volunteer counsel for the witness. Such counsel shall be subject solely to the control of the witness and not the committee. Failure to obtain counsel will not excuse the witness from appearing and testifying.

(c) Conduct. Counsel shall conduct themselves in an ethical and professional manner. Failure to do so shall, upon a finding to that effect by a majority of the members present, subject such counsel to disciplinary action, which may include warning, censure, or ejection. If counsel is disciplined, the provisions of Rule 5.4(b) for a witness who is unable to obtain new counsel shall apply.

5.5 Transcript. An accurate electronic or stenographic record shall be kept of the testimony of all witnesses in closed and public hearings. Upon his request and at his expense, a copy of or access to a copy of a witness's testimony in public or closed session shall be provided to the witness. Upon inspecting his transcript, within a time limit set by the committee clerk a witness may request changes in the transcript to correct errors of transcription, grammatical errors, and obvious errors of fact; the chairman or a staff officer designated by him shall rule on such requests.

5.6 Impugned persons. Any person who believes that evidence presented, or comment made by a member or staff, at a public hearing or at a closed hearing concerning which there have been public reports, tends to impugn his character or adversely affect his reputation may:

(a) file a sworn statement of facts relevant to the evidence or comment, which shall be placed in the hearing record;

(b) request the opportunity to appear personally before the committee to testify in his own behalf; or

(c) submit questions in writing which he requests be used for the cross-examination or [of] witnesses called by the committee. The chairman shall inform the committee of such requests for appearance or cross-examination. If the chairman or designated member overrules the objection, he may refer the matter to the committee or he may order and direct the witness to answer the question, but the committee shall not initiate procedures leading to civil or criminal enforcement unless the witness refuses to testify after he has been so ordered and directed to answer.

6.4 Filing. The committee staff shall see that the testimony is transcribed or electronically recorded. The individual administering the oath shall certify on the transcript that the witness was duly sworn in his presence, the transcriber shall certify that the transcript is a true record of the testimony, and the transcript shall then be filed with the committee clerk. Committee staff may stipulate with the witness to changes in his procedure. Objections to errors in his procedure which might be cured if promptly presented are waived unless timely objection thereto is made.

6.5 Examination of records. The committee or the chairman may authorize the staff to inspect locations or systems of records on behalf of the committee.

RULE 7. PROCEDURES FOR HANDLING OF SENSITIVE OR CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS

7.1 Security. Committee offices shall operate under strict security precautions. The chairman may request the Senate Sergeant at Arms to provide assistance necessary to insure strict security.

No testimony taken including the names of witnesses testifying, or material presented, in depositions or at closed hearings, and no confidential materials or information, shall be made public, in whole or in part or by way of summary, or disclosed to anyone outside the committee and individuals designated on members' staffs, unless authorized by the committee or the chairman. Allegations concerning unauthorized disclosure may be resolved by the committee or may be referred by a majority vote of the committee to the Select Committee on Ethics. The employment of any member of the staff who fails to conform to these rules may be immediately terminated.

1.2 Notice. The committee shall publicly announce the date, place, and subject matter of any hearing at least one week before its commencement. To close all or part of a hearing or meeting, or a series of hearings or meetings for a period of no more than 14 days, the committee shall vote in open session by a record vote, including proxy votes, of a majority of the members of the committee. If discussion is necessary, a motion shall be made and seconded to go into closed session to discuss whether the meeting or hearing will concern the matters enumerated in Rule 2.2 Immediately after such discussion the committee shall return to open session and the meeting or hearing may then be closed by a record vote.

(a) Control. Any meeting or hearing open to the public may be covered by television, radio, or still photography. Coverage must be conducted in an orderly and unobtrusive manner, and the presiding officer may for good cause terminate coverage in whole or in part or take other action to promote orderly proceedings.

(b) Request. A witness may request of the presiding officer on grounds of distraction, harassment, personal safety, or physical discomfort that during his or her testimony cameras, media microphones, and lights shall not be directed at the witness, and the presiding officer may take such action as he deems appropriate.

RULE 3. QUORUMS AND VOTING

3.1 Reporting. Six members shall constitute a quorum for reporting a matter or recommendation to the Senate.

3.2 Other Business. Six members, or four members providing that a member of the majority is present, shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of other business.

3.3 Testimony. One member shall constitute a quorum for hearing testimony.

3.4 Proxies. Proxies shall be in writing, and shall be filed with the chief clerk by the absent member or by a member present at the meeting. Proxies shall contain sufficient reference to the pending matter to show that the absent member has been informed of it and has affirmatively requested that he be recorded as voting on it. Proxies shall not be counted towards a quorum.

3.5 Polling.

(a) Subjects. The committee may poll only (1) internal committee matters including the committee's staff, records, and budget; (2) authorization for steps in the investigation, including the authorization and issuance of subpoenas and deposition notices, applications for immunity orders, and requests for documents; (3) other committee business, not including a vote on reporting to the Senate, that the committee at a meeting has designated for polling at a subsequent time.

The chief clerk shall keep a record of polls; if the chairman, with the approval of a majority of the members, determines that the polled matter is in one of the areas enumerated in Rule 2.3, the record of the poll shall be confidential.

RULE 4. SUBPOENAS

4.2 Return. A subpoena duces tecum or order for documents may be issued whose return shall occur at a deposition or at another time and place other than at a hearing. When a return on such a subpoena or order is incomplete or accompanied by an objection, the chairman may convene a meeting or hearing on shortened notice to determine the adequacy of the return and to rule on the objection or may refer the issues raised by the return for decision by poll of the committee. At a meeting or hearing on such a return, one member shall constitute a quorum.

RULE 5. HEARINGS

5.1 Notice. Witnesses shall be given at least 48 hours notice, unless the chairman determines that extraordinary circumstances warrant shorter notice, and all witnesses shall be furnished with a copy of Senate Resolution 23 and of these rules.

5.2 Oath. All witnesses who testify to matters of fact shall be sworn unless the committee authorizes waiver of an oath.

5.3 Statement. Any witness desiring to make an introductory statement shall file 20 copies of the statement with the chairman or chief clerk 48 hours in advance of the appearance, unless the chairman determines that there is good cause for a witness's failure to do so. 5.4 Counsel.

(a) Presence. A witness's counsel shall be permitted to be present during the witness's testimony at any public or closed hearing or deposition or staff interview to advise the witness of his or her rights; provided, however, that in the case of any witness who is an officer or employee of the government, or of a corporation or association, the chairman or the committee may rule that representation by counsel from the government, corporation, or association or by counsel representing other witnesses, creates a conflict of interest, and that the witness shall be represented by personal counsel not from the government, corporation, or association or not representing other witnesses.

(b) Inability to Obtain Counsel. A witness who is unable for indigence or other reason to obtain counsel shall inform the committee at least 48 hours prior to the witness's appearance, and the committee will endeavor to obtain volunteer counsel for the witness. Failure to obtain counsel will not excuse the witness from appearing and testifying.

(c) Conduct. Counsel shall behave in an ethical and professional manner. Failure to do so shall, upon a finding to that effect by a majority of the members present, subject counsel to disciplinary action, which may include warning, censure, or ejection.

5.5 Transcript. An accurate electronic or stenographic record shall be kept of all testimony in closed and public hearings. At a witness's request and expense, access to a copy of a witness's testimony in public or closed session shall be provided to the witness. Upon inspecting the transcript, within a time limit set by the chief clerk, a witness may in writing request changes in the transcript to correct errors of transcription, grammatical errors, and obvious errors of fact; the chairman or a staff officer designated by him shall rule on such requests.

5.6 Impugned Persons. Any person who believes that evidence presented, or comment made by a member or staff, at a public hearing or at a closed hearing concerning which there have been public reports, tends to impugn his or her character or adversely affect his or her reputation may:

(a) file a sworn statement of the facts relevant to the evidence or comment, which shall be placed in the hearing record;

(b) request the opportunity to appear personally before the committee to testify in his or her own behalf; or

(c) request that submitted written questions be used for the cross-examination of witnesses called by the committee. The chairman shall inform the committee of requests for appearance or cross-examination. If the committee so decides, the requested questions, or paraphrased versions or portions of them, shall be put to the other witnesses by a member or by staff.

5.7 Additional Witnesses. Any three members of the committee shall be entitled, upon a timely request made to the chairman, to call additional witnesses or to require the production of documents during at least one day of hearing.

RULE 6. DEPOSITIONS, EXAMINATION OF RECORDS, AND INTERROGATORIES

6.1 Deposition Notices. Notices for the taking of depositions shall be authorized and issued by the chairman or by a staff member designated by him. Such notices shall specify a time and place for examination, and the name of the staff member or members who will take the deposition. Unless otherwise specified, the deposition shall be in private. The committee shall not initiate procedures leading to criminal or civil enforcement proceedings for a witness's failure to appear unless the deposition notice was accompanied by a subpoena authorized by the committee or the chairman.

6.2 Counsel at Depositions. Witnesses may be accompanied at a deposition by counsel to advise them of their rights, subject to the provisions of Rule 5.4.

6.3 Deposition Procedure. Witnesses at depositions shall be examined upon oath administered by a member or an individual authorized by local law to administer oaths. If a witness objects to a question and refuses to testify on the basis of relevance or privilege, the committee staff may proceed with the deposition, or may, at that time or at a subsequent time, seek a ruling by telephone or otherwise on the objection from the chairman of the committee or a member designated by him. If the chairman or designated member overrules the objection, he may refer the matter to the committee or he may order and direct the witness to answer the questions, but the committee shall not initiate procedures leading to civil or criminal enforcement unless the witness refuses to testify after having been ordered and directed to answer.

6.4 Filing of Depositions. The committee staff shall see that deposition testimony is transcribed or electronically recorded. If it is transcribed, the witness shall be furnished with a copy, or access to a copy, for review. No later than five days thereafter, if a copy is provided, the witness shall return it with his or her signature, and the staff may enter the changes, if any, requested by the witness in accordance with Rule 5.5. If the witness fails to return a signed copy the staff shall note on the transcript the date a copy was provided and the failure to return it. The individual administering the oath shall certify on the transcript that the witness was duly sworn in his or her presence, the transcriber shall certify that the transcript is a true record of the testimony, and the transcript shall then be filed with the chief clerk. Committee staff may stipulate with the witness to changes in this procedure. Objections to errors in this procedure that might be cured if promptly presented are waived unless timely objection is made.

6.5 Examination of Records. The committee or the chairman may authorize the staff to inspect locations or systems of records on behalf of the committee.

6.6 Written Interrogatories. Written interrogatories may be authorized and issued by the chairman or by any member designated by the chairman and shall specify a date for filing an answer with the chief clerk. Written interrogatories shall be answered under oath.

RULE 7. PROCEDURES FOR HANDLING OF SENSITIVE OR CLASSIFIED MATERIALS

7.1 Security. Committee offices shall operate under strict security precautions. The chairman may request the Senate Sergeant at Arms to provide assistance necessary to ensure strict security.

7.2 Sensitive or Classified Materials. Sensitive or classified materials shall be segregated in a secure storage area. The committee shall adopt security regulations governing the handling of sensitive or classified materials. The chairman may enter into agreements to obtain materials and information under assurances concerning confidentiality. Each member of the committee shall be notified of such agreements.

7.3 Access. Staff access to classified materials shall be limited to staff members with appropriate security clearances and a need to know. The committee shall adopt internal guidelines governing staff access to particular categories of classified materials, which shall be applied by the chairman and vice chairman. Staff access to sensitive materials may be limited by the chairman and vice chairman.

7.4 Nondisclosure. No member of the committee or its staff shall disclose, in whole or in part or by way of summary, to any person outside the committee and its staff, for any purpose or in connection with any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, any testimony taken, including the names of witnesses testifying, or material presented, in depositions or at closed hearings, or any confidential materials or information, unless authorized by the committee or the chairman, and, for classified materials or information, pursuant to the provisions of section 8 of Senate Resolution 400 of the 94th Congress.

7.5 Nondisclosure Agreement. All members of the committee staff shall agree in writing, as a condition of employment, to abide by the conditions of the nondisclosure agreement promulgated by the committee pursuant to section 6(a)(2) of Senate Resolution 23.

7.6 Violations. Allegations concerning unauthorized disclosure may be addressed by the committee or may be referred by a majority vote of the committee to the Select Committee on Ethics. Any member of the staff who fails to conform to the provisions of Rule 7 shall be subject to disciplinary sanction, including termination of employment.

7.7 Applicability of Rules. For purposes of Rules 6 and 7, committee staff include the employees of the committee, staff designated by the members, with the approval of the chairman, to work on committee business, the officers and employees of the Office of Senate Legal Counsel who are requested by the chairman to work on committee business, and detailees and consultants to the committee.

RULE 8. DETAILEES AND CONSULTANTS

The chairman shall have authority to use on a reimbursable basis, with the prior consent of the Committee on Rules and Administration, the services of personnel of any department or agency of the United States and shall have authority to procure the temporary or intermittent services of individual consultants or organizations.

RULE 9. EFFECTIVE CHANGES IN RULES

9.1 These rules shall become effective upon publication in the Congressional Record. These rules may be modified, amended, or repealed by the committee, provided that all members are present or provide proxies or if a notice in writing of the proposed changes has been given to each member at least 48 hours prior to the meeting at which action thereon is to be taken. The changes shall become effective immediately upon publication of the changed rule or rules in the Congressional Record, or immediately upon approval of the changes if so resolved by the committee so long as any witnesses who may be affected by the change in rules are provided with them.

RULE 10. JOINT HEARINGS

10.1 The Committee may conduct hearings jointly with the House Select Committee to Investigate Covert Arms Transactions with Iran.

10.2 Rules 3.2, 3.5, 5, 6.1–6.10, and 6.12 of the House Select Committee, to the extent that they are inconsistent with the rules of this Committee, shall govern hearings conducted jointly by the two Committees, when such hearings are held in facilities provided by the House.

DIAN AFFAIRS

[135 Cong. Rec. 6738 (1989), amended 135 Cong. Rec. 7343-44, 7700 (1989)]

RULE 1. CONVENING OF MEETINGS AND HEARINGS

1.1 MEETINGS. The committee shall meet at the call of the chairman. The members of the committee may call special meetings as provided in Senate Rule XXVI, except that actions of only two members of the committee shall be required to call special meetings.

1.2 NOTICE. The committee shall make public announcement of the date, place, and subject matter of any hearing at least one week before its commencement, except that a hearing may be called on shortened notice if the chairman determines that there is good cause to begin such hearing at an earlier date.

1.3 PRESIDING OFFICERS. The chairman shall preside when present. If the chairman is not present at any meeting or hearing, the co-chairman shall preside. Any member of the committee designated by the chairman may preside at a hearing.

RULE 2. CLOSED SESSIONS

2.1 PROCEDURE. All meetings and hearings shall be open to the public unless closed. To close all or part of a hearing or meeting, or a series of hearings or meetings for a period of no more than 14 days, the committee shall vote in open session by a record vote, including proxy votes, of a majority of the members of the committee. If discussion in closed session is necessary, a motion shall be made and seconded to go into closed session to discuss whether the meeting or hearing will concern the matters enumerated in Rule 2.2. Immediately after such discussion the committee shall return to open session and the meeting or hearing may then be closed by a record vote.

2.2 CLOSED SESSION SUBJECTS. A meeting or hearing may be closed if the matters to be discussed concern: (1) national security or the confidential conduct of foreign relations; (2) committee staff personnel or internal staff management or procedure; (3) matters tending to reflect adversely on the character or reputation; or to invade the privacy, of any individuals; (4) matters that will disclose the identity of any informer or undercover law enforcement agent or will disclose any information relating to the investigation or prosecution of a criminal offense that is required to be kept secret in the interests of effective law enforcement; or (5) matters that will disclose information relating to the trade secrets of financial or commercial information that must be kept confidential by reason of law or in order to prevent competitive injury; or (6) matters required to be kept confidential under other provisions of law or regulations.

2.3 WITNESS REQUEST. Any witness called to testify at a hearing may submit to the chairman, no later than 24 hours in advance of a hearing, a written request to be examined in closed or open session. The chairman shall inform the committee of the request, and the committee shall take such action pursuant to Rule 2.1 as it seems appropriate.

2.4 BROADCASTING.

(a) CONTROL. Any meeting or hearing open to the public may be covered by television, radio, or still photography. Coverage must be conducted in an orderly and unobtrusive manner, and the presiding officer may for good cause terminate coverage in whole or in part or take other action to promote orderly proceedings.

(b) REQUEST. A witness may request of the presiding officer on grounds of distraction, harassment, personal safety, or physical discomfort that during his or her testimony cameras, media microphones, and lights shall not be directed at the witness, and the presiding officer may take such action as he deems appropriate.

RULE 3. QUORUMS AND VOTING

3.1 REPORTING AND OTHER BUSINESS. Two members shall constitute a quorum for reporting a matter or recommendation to the Senate or for the conduct of other business.

3.2 TESTIMONY. One member shall constitute a quorum for hearing testimony.

3.3 PROXIES. Proxies shall be in writing, and shall be filed with the chief clerk by the absent member or by a member present at the meeting. Proxies shall contain sufficient reference to the pending matter to show that the absent member has been informed of it and has affirmatively requested that he be recorded as voting on it. Proxies shall not be counted towards a quorum.

3.4 POLLING.

(a) SUBJECTS. The committee may poll only (1) internal committee matters including the committee's staff, records, and budget; (2) authorization for steps in the investigation, including the authorization and issuance of subpoenas and deposition notice, requests for applications for immunity orders, and requests for documents; (3) other committee business, not including a vote on reporting to the Senate, that the committee at a meeting has designated for polling at a subsequent time.

(b) PROCEDURE. At the direction of the committee or the chairman, as provided in Rule 3.4(a), polling sheets shall be circulated to each member specifying the matter being polled and the time limit for completion of the poll. If any member so requests, the matter shall be held for consideration at a meeting. The chief clerk shall keep a record of polls, including a written or oral disposition of polled matters. If the chairman, with the approval of a majority of the members, determines that the polled matter is in one of the areas enumerate[d] in Rule 2.2, the record of the poll shall be confidential.

RULE 4. SUBPOENAS

4.1 AUTHORIZATION. Subpoenas may be authorized by the Committee, the Chairman or Co-Chairman, and may be issued by the Chairman, Co-Chairman, or any member of the Committee designated by the Chairman or Co-Chairman. The Chief Clerk shall keep a log and a file of all subpoenas that have been issued.

4.2 RETURN. A subpoena duces tecum or order for documents may be issued whose return shall occur at a deposition or at another time and place other than at a hearing. When a return on such a subpoena or order is incomplete or accompanied by an objection, the chairman may convene a meeting or hearing on shortened notice to determine the adequacy of the return and to rule on the objection or may refer the issues raised by the return for decision by poll of the committee. At a meeting hearing on such a return, one member shall constitute a quorum.

RULE 5. HEARINGS

5.1 NOTICE. Witnesses shall be given at least 48 hours notice, unless the chairman determines that extraordinary circumstances warrant shorter notice, and all witnesses shall be furnished with a copy of Senate Resolution 66, 101st Congress (1989) as amended, and of these rules.

5.2 OATH. All witnesses who testify to matters of fact shall be sworn unless the committee authorizes waiver of oath. The chairman or any member shall administer oaths to witnesses at hearings.

5.3 STATEMENT. Any witness desiring to make an introductory statement shall file 10 copies of the statement with the chairman or chief clerk 48 hours in advance of the appearance, unless the chairman determines that there is good cause for a witness's failure to do so. A witness may be required to summarize a prepared statement if it exceeds 5 minutes.

Unless the Committee determines otherwise, a witness who appears before the committee under a grant of immunity shall not be permitted to make a statement or testify except to respond directly to questions posed by committee members or committee staff.

5.4 COUNSEL.

(a) PRESENCE. A witness's counsel shall be permitted to be present during the witness's testimony at any public or closed hearings or deposition of staff interview to advise the witness of his or her rights; provided, however, that in the case of any witness who is an officer or employee of the government, or of a corporation or association, the chairman or the committee may rule that representation by counsel from the government, corporation, or association or by counsel representing other witnesses, creates a conflict of interest, and that the witness shall be represented by personal counsel not from the government, corporation, or association or not representing other witnesses.

(b) INABILITY TO OBTAIN COUNSEL. A witness who is unable for indigence or other reason to obtain counsel shall inform the committee at least 48 hours prior to the witness's appearance, and the committee will endeavor to obtain volunteer counsel for the witness. Failure to obtain counsel will not excuse the witness from appearing and testifying.

(c) CONDUCT. Counsel shall behave in an ethical and professional manner. Failure to do so shall, upon a finding to that effect by a majority of the members present, subject counsel to disciplinary action, which may include warning, censure, or ejection.

5.5 TRANSCRIPT. An accurate electronic or stenographic record shall be kept to all testimony in closed and public hearings. At a witness's request and expense access to a copy of a witness's testimony in public or closed session shall be provided to the witness. Upon inspecting the transcript, within a time limit set by the chief clerk, a witness may in writing request changes in the transcript to correct errors of transcription, grammatical error, and obvious errors of fact, the chairman or a staff officer designated by him shall rule on such requests.

5.6 IMPUGNED PERSONS. No person shall be deemed to be impugned under this section if either prior or subsequent to said public hearing such person was afforded the opportunity under oath, whether by deposition, sworn statement or otherwise, to answer the substance of the evidence presented or comment made at the public hearing.

5.7 ADDITIONAL WITNESSES. The co-chairman of the committee shall be entitled, upon a timely request made to the chairman, to call additional witnesses or to require the production of documents during at least one day of hearing.

RULE 6. DEPOSITIONS AND EXAMINATION OF RECORDS

6.1 DEPOSITION NOTICES. Notices for the taking of depositions may be authorized by the Committee, the Chairman, Co-Chairman, or, in the event that a subpoena has been authorized pursuant to Rule 4, by the Chief Counsel. Such notices shall be issued by the Chairman, Co-Chairman, or the Chief Counsel. Such notices shall specify a time and place for examination, and the name of the staff member or members who will take the deposition. Unless otherwise specified, the deposition shall be in private. At the direction of the Chairman, Co-Chairman, or any member, a deposition may be taken by telephone. The Committee shall not initiate procedures leading to criminal or civil enforcement proceedings for a witness' failure to appear unless the party received a subpoena authorized pursuant to Rule 4.

6.2 COUNSEL AND DEPOSITION. Witnesses may be accompanied at a deposition by counsel to advise them of their rights, subject to the provisions of Rule 5.4.

6.3 DEPOSITION PROCEDURE. Witnesses at depositions shall be examined upon oath administered by an individual authorized by law to administer oaths, or any member who may be present and elect to administer the oath. Questions shall be propounded orally by staff members. Objections by the witness as to the form of questions shall be noted for the record. If a witness objects to a question and refuses to testify on the basis of relevance or privilege, the committee staff may proceed with the deposition, or may, at that time or at a subsequent time, seek a ruling by telephone or otherwise on the objection from the chairman of the committee or a member designated by him. The chairman or designated member may refer the matter to the committee or rule on the objection. If he overrules the objection, he may order and direct the witness to answer the questions. The committee shall not initiate procedures leading to civil or criminal enforcement unless the witness refuses to testify after having been ordered and directed to answer.

6.4 FILING OF DEPOSITIONS. The committee staff shall see that deposition testimony is transcribed or electronically recorded. If it is transcribed, the witness shall be furnished with a copy, or access to a copy, for review. No later than five days thereafter, if a copy is provided, the witness shall return it with his or her signature, and the staff may enter the changes, if any, requested by the witness in accordance with Rule 5.5. If the witness fails to return a signed copy the staff shall note on the transcript the date a copy was provided and the failure to return it. The individual administering the oath shall certify on the transcript that the witness was duly sworn in his or her presence, the transcriber shall certify that the transcript is a true record of the testimony, and the transcript shall then be filed with the chief clerk. Committee staff may stipulate with the witness to changes in this procedure. Objections to errors in this procedure that might be cured if promptly presented are waived unless timely objection is made.

6.5 EXAMINATION OF RECORDS. The committee or the chairman may authorize the staff to inspect locations or systems of records on behalf of the committee.

6.6 WRITTEN INTERROGATORIES AND REQUESTS FOR ADMISSIONS. Written interrogatories and requests for admission may be authorized and issued by the Chairman, or Co-Chairman, and shall specify a date for filing an answer with the chief clerk. Written interrogatories and requests for admissions shall be answered under oath.

RULE 7. SENSITIVE OR CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS

7.1 NONDISCLOSURE. No member of the committee or its staff shall disclose, in whole or in part or by way of summary, to any person outside the committee and its staff, for any purpose or in connection with any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, any testimony taken, including the names of witnesses testifying, or material presented, in closed depositions or at closed hearings, or any confidential materials or information, unless authorized by the committee or the chairman.

7.2 NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENT. All members of the committee staff shall agree in writing, as a condition of employment, to abide by the conditions of a nondisclosure agreement promulgated by the committee.

7.3 VIOLATIONS. Allegations concerning unauthorized disclosure may be addressed by the committee or may be referred by a majority vote of the committee to the Select Committee on Ethics. Any member of the staff who fails to conform to the provisions of Rule 7 shall be subject to disciplinary sanction, including termination of employment.

7.4 APPLICABILITY OF RULES. For purposes of Rules 6 and 7, committee staff include the employees of the committee, detailees and consultants to the committee, and the officers and employees of the Office of Senate Legal Counsel who are required by the chairman to work on committee business.

RULE 8. DETAILEES AND CONSULTANTS

The chairman shall have authority to use on a reimbursable basis, with the prior consent of the Committee on Rules and Administration, the services of personnel of any department or agency of the United States and shall have authority to procure the temporary or intermittent services of individual consultants or organizations.

RULE 9. EFFECTIVE CHANGES IN RULES

These rules shall become effective upon publication in the Congressional Record. These rules may be modified, amended, or repealed by the committee, provided that all members are present or provide proxies or if a notice in writing of the proposed changes has been given to each member at least 48 hours prior to the meeting at which action thereon is to be taken. The changes shall become effective immediately upon publication of the change rule or rules in the Congressional Record, or immediately upon approval of the changes if so resolved by the committee as long as any witnesses who may be affected by the change in rules are provided with them.

SEC. 3. The select committee may, for the purposes of accountability to the Senate, make such reports to the Senate with respect to matters within its jurisdiction as it shall deem advisable which shall be referred to the appropriate committee. RULES OF PROCEDURE OF THE SELECT COMMITTEE ON
POW/MIA AFFAIRS

[137 Cong. Rec. 27022–24 (1991)]

RULE 1. CONVENING OF MEETINGS AND HEARINGS

1.1 Definitions. As used in these rules, the term “meeting” includes a meeting to conduct a hearing. The term “hearing” is used to describe any meeting of the committee for the purpose of receiving testimony.

1.2 Calling of Meetings. The committee shall meet at the call of the chairman. The members of the committee may call special meetings as provided in Senate Rule XXVI(3).

1.3 Notice of Hearings. The committee shall publicly announce the date, place, and subject matter of any hearing at least one week before its commencement. A hearing may be called on shorter notice if the chairman, after consultation with the vice chairman, determines that there is a good cause to begin it at an earlier date.

1.4 Presiding Officer. The chairman shall preside when present. If the chairman is not present at any meeting, the vice chairman shall preside. The chairman may designate any member of the committee to preside in the absence of the chairman or vice chairman.

RULE 2. OPEN AND CLOSED SESSIONS AND MEDIA

2.1 Procedure. All meetings shall be open to the public unless closed. To close all or part of a meeting, or a series of meetings for a period of no more than 14 days, the committee shall vote in open session by a record vote, including proxy votes, of a majority of the members of the committee. If discussion is necessary, a motion shall be made and seconded to go into closed session to discuss whether the meeting will concern the matters enumerated in Rule 2.2. Immediately after such discussion the committee shall return to open session and the meeting may then be closed by a record vote.

2.2 Closed Session Subjects. A meeting may be closed if the matters to be discussed concern: (1) national security or the confidential conduct of foreign relations; (2) committee staff personnel or internal staff management or procedure; (3) matters tending to reflect adversely on the character or reputation, or to invade the privacy, of any individuals; (4) matters that will disclose the identity of any informer or undercover law enforcement agent or will disclose any information relating to the investigation or prosecution of a criminal offense that is required to be kept secret in the interests of effective law enforcement; or (5) other matters enumerated in Senate Rule XXVI(5)(b).

2.3 Representative of the President. The presiding officer at any closed meeting or hearing may permit any personal representative of the President, designated by the President to serve as a liaison to the committee, to attend the closed meeting.

2.4 Witness Request. Any witness may submit to the chairman, no later than 24 hours in advance of a hearing, a written request that he or she [be] examined in closed or open session. The chairman shall inform the committee of the request, and the committee shall take such action pursuant to Rule 2.1 as it deems appropriate.

2.5 Media. Any meeting open to the public may be covered by television, radio, or still photography. Coverage must be conducted in an orderly and unobtrusive manner. The presiding officer, in exercising his or her responsibility for the conduct of meetings, may order that the use of cameras, microphones, and lights adhere to standards which the select committee deems appropriate, taking into account the concerns of any witness. For good cause the presiding officer may terminate coverage in whole or in part or take other action to promote orderly proceedings or for the protection of witnesses.

RULE 3. QUORUMS AND VOTING

3.1 In General. A majority of members of the committee[] shall constitute a quorum for reporting to the Senate and for the transaction of other business.

3.2 Testimony. One member shall constitute a quorum for taking testimony.

3.3 Proxies. Proxies shall be in writing, and shall be filed with the chief clerk by the absent member or by a member present at the meeting. Proxies shall contain sufficient reference to the pending matter to show that the absent member has been informed of it and has affirmatively requested that he or she be recorded as voting on it. Proxies shall not be counted towards a quorum.

3.4 Polling.

(a) Subjects. The committee may poll only (1) internal committee matters including the committee's staff, records, and budget; (2) authorization for steps in any investigation within its jurisdiction, including the authorization and issuance of subpoenas, applications for immunity orders, and requests for documents; (3) other committee business, not including a vote on reporting to the Senate, that the committee at a meeting has designated for polling at a subsequent time.

(b) Procedure. At the direction of the committee or the chairman, the chief clerk shall distribute a polling form to each member specifying the matter being polled and the time limit for completion of the poll. If any member so requests, the matter shall be held for consideration at a meeting. If the chairman, with the approval of a majority of the members, determines that the polled matter is in one of the areas enumerated in Rule 2.2, the record of the poll shall be confidential. The chief clerk shall keep a record of polls, and shall notify the members of the committee of the results of each poll. In order for a proposition to be approved by poll, a majority of the members of the committee must have responded to the poll and a majority of those responding must have voted in the affirmative.

RULE 4. SUBPOENAS

4.1 Authorization. Subpoenas shall be authorized either by a majority of the committee or by the chairman with the consent of the vice chairman, and shall be issued by the chairman. Subpoenas may be served by any person designated by the chairman. The chief clerk shall keep a log, and a file, of all subpoenas.

4.2 Return. A subpoena duces tecum or order for records may be issued whose return shall occur at a time and place other than at a meeting. When a return on such a subpoena or order is incomplete or accompanied by an objection, the chairman, after consultation with the vice chairman, may convene a meeting, including a hearing on shortened notice, to determine the adequacy of the return and to rule on the objection, or may refer the issues raised by the return for decision by poll of the committee. At a hearing on such a return one member shall constitute a quorum.

RULE 5. HEARINGS

5.1 Notice. Witnesses shall be given at least 48 hours notice, unless the chairman, after consultation with the vice chairman, determines that extraordinary circumstances warrant shorter notice, and all witnesses shall be furnished with copies of Senate Resolution 82 (102d Congress, 1st Session), Senate Resolution 185 (102d Congress, 1st Session), and these rules.

5.2 Oath. All witnesses who testify to matters of fact shall be sworn unless the committee authorizes waiver of an oath. Any member of the committee may administer oaths to witnesses.

5.3 Statement. Any witness desiring to make an introductory statement shall file 40 copies of the statement with the chairman or chief clerk 48 hours in advance of the appearance unless the chairman determines that there is good cause to modify either of these requirements. A witness may be required to summarize a prepared statement if it exceeds ten minutes. Unless the committee determines otherwise, a witness who appears before the committee under a grant of immunity shall not be permitted to make an introductory or other statement and may be required to testify only in response to questions posed directly by committee members or committee staff.

5.4 Counsel.

(a) Presence. A witness' counsel shall be permitted to be present during the witness' testimony at any open hearing, closed hearing, or deposition, or at any staff interview of the witness, to advise the witness of his or her rights; provided, however, that in the case of any witness who is an officer or employee of the government, or of a corporation or association, the chairman or the committee may rule that representation by counsel from the government, corporation, or association or by counsel representing other witnesses, creates a conflict of interest, and that the witness shall be represented by personal counsel not from the government, corporation, or association or not representing other witnesses.

(b) Inability To Obtain Counsel. A witness who is unable for indigence or other reason to obtain counsel shall inform the committee at least 48 hours prior to the witness' appearance and the committee will endeavor to obtain volunteer counsel for the witness. Failure to obtain counsel will not excuse the witness from appearing and testifying.

(c) Conduct. Counsel shall behave in an ethical and professional manner. Failure to do so shall, upon a finding to that effect by a majority of the members present, subject counsel to disciplinary action, which may include warning, censure, or ejection.

5.5 Transcript. An accurate electronic or stenographic record shall be kept of all testimony in open and closed hearings. At a witness' request and expense, access to a copy of the transcription of a witness' testimony in open or closed session shall be provided to the witness. Upon inspecting the transcript, within a time limit set by the chief clerk, a witness may in writing request changes in the transcript to correct errors of transcription. A witness may also request that specified grammatical errors and obvious errors of fact be corrected for the purpose of any printed record of the witness' testimony. The chairman or a staff officer designated by the chairman shall rule on such requests.

5.6 Impugned Persons. Any person who believes that evidence presented, or comment made by a member or staff, at a public hearing or at a closed hearing concerning which there have been public reports, tends to impugn his or her character or adversely affect his or her reputation may:

(a) file a sworn statement of facts relevant to the evidence or comment, which shall be placed in the hearing record;

(b) request the opportunity to appear personally before the committee to testify in his or her own behalf; or

(c) request that submitted written questions be used for the cross-examination of witnesses called by the committee. The chairman shall inform the committee of requests for appearance or cross-examination. If the committee so decides, the requested questions, or paraphrased versions or portions of them, shall be put to the other witnesses by a member or by staff.

5.7 Additional Witnesses. Any four members of the committee shall be entitled, upon a timely request made to the chairman, to call additional witnesses or to require the production of documents during at least one day of hearing.

5.8 Objections. The presiding officer shall rule on any objections at a hearing, which ruling shall be the ruling of the committee unless a majority of the committee disagrees with the ruling. In the case of a tie, the vote of the chairman shall prevail.

RULE 6. DEPOSITIONS, EXAMINATION OF RECORDS, AND INTERROGATORIES

6.1 Authorization for Depositions. The chairman and the vice chairman, acting jointly, may authorize the taking of a deposition. The authorization shall specify a time and place for examination, and the name of the staff member or members who will take the deposition. Unless otherwise specified, the deposition shall be in private. The committee shall not initiate procedures leading to criminal or civil enforcement proceedings for a witness' failure to appear unless any notice of the deposition was accompanied by a subpoena authorized by the committee.

6.2 Counsel at Depositions. Witnesses may be accompanied at a deposition by counsel to advise them of their rights, subject to the provisions of Rule 5.4.

6.3 Deposition Procedures. Witnesses at depositions shall be examined upon oath administered by a committee member or an individual authorized by local law to administer oaths. Questions shall be propounded orally by staff members. Objections by the witness as to the form of questions shall be noted for the record. If a witness objects to a question and refuses to testify on the basis of relevance or privilege, the committee staff may proceed with the deposition, or may, at that time or at a subsequent time, seek a ruling by telephone or otherwise on the objection. The ruling may be sought from the chairman of the committee or, in the absence of the chairman, from the vice chairman, or, in the absence of both the chairman and the vice chairman, from any member designated by the chairman. The member from whom the ruling is sought may rule on the objection, and order the witness to answer the question if the objection is overruled, or may refer the matter to the committee for ruling. The committee shall not initiate procedures leading to civil or criminal enforcement unless the witness refuses to testify after having been ordered to answer.

6.4 Deposition Transcripts. An accurate electronic or stenographic record shall be kept of all testimony at depositions. If a transcript is prepared, the witness shall be furnished with a copy, or access to a copy, for review. No later than five days thereafter, if a copy is provided, the witness shall return it with his or her signature, and the staff may enter or append to the transcript the changes, if any, requested by the witness in accordance with the procedures established by Rule 5.5. If the witness fails to return a signed copy the staff shall note on the transcript the date a copy was provided and the failure to return it. The individual administering the oath shall certify on the transcript that the witness was duly sworn in his or her presence, the transcriber shall certify that the transcript is a true record of the testimony, and the transcript shall then be filed with the chief clerk. Committee staff may stipulate with the witness to changes in this procedure. Objections to errors in this procedure that might be cured if promptly presented are waived unless timely objection is made.

6.5 Examination of Records. The committee or the chairman and vice chairman, acting jointly, may authorize the staff to inspect locations or systems of records on behalf of the committee.

6.6 Written Interrogatories. Written interrogatories may be authorized by the committee or the chairman and vice chairman, acting jointly, and issued by the chairman, or, in the absence of the chairman, by the vice chairman, or, in the absence of both the chairman and the vice chairman, by any member designated by the chairman, and shall specify a date for filing an answer with the chief clerk. Written interrogatories shall be answered under oath.

RULE 7. PROCEDURES FOR HANDLING OF CONFIDENTIAL OR CLASSIFIED MATERIALS

7.1 Security. Committee offices shall operate under strict security precautions. The chairman or vice chairman may request the Senate Sergeant at Arms and the Office of Senate Security to provide assistance necessary to ensure strict security.

7.2 Confidential or Classified Materials. Confidential or classified materials shall be segregated in a secure storage area under the supervision of the committee's security officer. The committee shall adopt security regulations, in consultation with the Office of Senate Security, governing the handling of confidential or classified materials. The chairman may enter into agreements to obtain materials and information under assurances concerning confidentiality. Each member of the committee shall be notified of such agreements.

7.3 Privacy Interests. Before disclosing publicly information that could adversely affect the privacy or other legitimate interests of any person, the committee shall carefully consider that person's interests, but the committee may disclose publicly any information for which it determines that the national interest in disclosure outweighs the privacy or other interests of the persons concerned.

7.4 Access. Staff access to classified materials shall be limited to staff members with appropriate security clearances and a need to know, as determined by the chairman and vice chairman, in consultation with the Director of Central Intelligence. The committee shall adopt internal guidelines governing staff access to particular categories of classified materials, which shall be applied by the chairman and vice chairman. Staff access to confidential materials may be limited by the chairman and vice chairman.

7.5 Nondisclosure. No member of the committee or its staff shall disclose, in whole or in part or by way of summary, to any person outside the committee and its staff, for any purpose or in connection with any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, any testimony taken, including the names of witnesses testifying, or material presented, in closed hearings, or any confidential materials or information, including the results of the committee's investigation and any proposed or otherwise non-public conclusions of the committee, unless authorized by the committee or the chairman.

7.6 Nondisclosure Agreement. All members of the committee staff shall agree in writing, as a condition of employment or agreement for the provision of services, to abide by the conditions of the nondisclosure agreement promulgated by the committee pursuant to section 5(a)(1) of Senate Resolution 82.

7.7 Violations. Allegations concerning unauthorized disclosure may be addressed by the committee or may be referred by a majority vote of the committee to the Select Committee on Ethics in accordance with section 8 of Senate Resolution 400 (94th Congress, 2d Session), as made applicable to this committee by Senate Resolution 185. Any member of the staff who fails to conform to the provisions of Rule 7 shall be subject to disciplinary sanction, including termination of employment or agreement for the provision of services.

7.8 Applicability of Rules. For purposes of Rule 7, committee staff include the employees of the committee, staff designated by the members, with the approval of the chairman, to work on committee business, other officers and employees of the Senate who are requested by the chairman to work on committee business, and detailees and consultants to the committee, including any person engaged to perform services for or at the request of the committee.

RULE 8. DETAILEES, CONSULTANTS, AND ASSISTANCE OF OTHER COMMITTEES

8.1 Detainees and Consultants. The chairman and vice chairman, acting jointly, shall have authority to use on a reimbursable or nonreimbursable basis, with the prior consent of the Committee on Rules and Administration, the services of personnel of any department or agency of the United States and shall have authority to procure the temporary or intermittent services of individual consultants or organizations.

8.2 Assistance of Other Committees. The chairman and vice chairman, acting jointly, may request the chairman of any Senate committee or subcommittee for consent to utilize the facilities of any such committee or the services of any members of its staff for the purpose of enabling this committee to perform its responsibilities under Senate Resolution 82 and Senate Resolution 185.

8.3 Scope of Authority. Detailees, consultants, and staff of other committees who provide services to the committee pursuant to Rule 8 shall be deemed to be staff of the committee for all purposes under these rules.

RULE 9. FOREIGN TRAVEL

No member of the committee or its staff shall travel abroad on committee business unless specifically authorized by the President pro tempore, Majority Leader, or Minority Leader of the Senate, in accordance with Senate Resolution 179 (95th Congress, 1st Session). All requests for authorization of such travel shall first be presented to the chairman and vice chairman for approval and shall state the extent, nature, and purpose of the proposed travel. When the foreign travel of a member of the staff not accompanying a member of the committee has been authorized, all members of the committee shall be advised, prior to the commencement of such travel, of its extent, nature, and purpose.

RULE 10. EFFECTIVENESS OF RULES AND RULE CHANGES

These rules shall become effective upon publication in the Congressional Record. These rules may be modified, amended, or repealed by the committee, provided that all members are present or provided proxies or if a notice in writing of the proposed changes has been given to each member at least 48 hours prior to the meeting at which action thereon is to be taken. The changes shall become effective immediately upon publication of the changed rule or rules in the Congressional Record.

1. JURISDICTION

The Committee has substantive jurisdiction over the matters in this investigation in accordance with Foreign Relations Rule 1(a)(15), relating to the protection of United States citizens abroad, and Foreign Relations Rule 1(a)(16), pertaining to relations of the United States with foreign nations generally. The Committee also has general oversight jurisdiction pursuant to Foreign Relations Rule 1(b). The subcommittee's proceedings in this investigation are governed by the rules of the full Committee.

2. INVESTIGATION GUIDELINES

The conduct of this investigation has been governed by the following Guiding Principles as adopted by Senator Sanford and Senator Jeffords in October 1991:

(a) Focus: The focus of the investigation will be upon any action taken prior to the 1980 elections by private citizens or Government officials to manipulate the timing of the release of the hostages.

(b) Investigation: The investigation will be conducted professionally and without fanfare. Public hearings or public discussions will not be conducted unless and until the subcommittee determines there is sufficient credible evidence to warrant same.

(c) Non-Partisan: We have agreed that all matters will be decided by the chairman and the ranking minority member. The special counsel has been selected in this manner as will be the rest of the staff.

In addition, the chairman and the ranking minority member of the subcommittee will periodically provide the chairman and the ranking minority member of the full committee a general description of the avenues of inquiry, the progress of the investigation and the types of individuals being investigated.

(f) Press: We will issue an initial press release to name the special counsel, thereafter there will be no public statements made about the content of the investigation until such time as the subcommittee has formally acted upon its findings.

(g) House of Representatives: We will cooperate with the House Task Force to reduce time and expenditures, but will not compromise the need for confidentiality, security or non-partisanship.

A member may be permitted further questions of the witness or panel of witnesses, either by using time that another member then present at the hearing has yielded for that purpose during the yielding member's turn, or by using time allotted after all members have been given an opportunity to question the witness or panel of witnesses. At all times, unless the chairman and the ranking member otherwise agree, the questioning shall alternate back and forth between members of the majority party and members of the minority party. If a witness objects to a question and refuses to answer on the basis of relevance or privilege, the special committee staff may proceed with the deposition, or may, at that time or at a subsequent time, seek a ruling on the objection from the chairman. If the chairman overrules the objection, the chairman may order and direct the witness to answer the question, but the special committee shall not initiate procedures leading to civil or criminal enforcement unless the witness refuses to answer after having been ordered and directed to answer.

RULES OF PROCEDURE OF THE OFFICE OF TEMPORARY SPECIAL INDEPENDENT COUNSEL (ESTABLISHED PURSU-ANT TO S. RES. 202, 102d CONG.)

[137 Cong. Rec. 36334–35 (1991)]

RULE 1. SUBPOENAS

1.1 Request. The special independent counsel shall submit to the President pro tempore written requests for the authorization of subpoenas for the attendance at deposition of any witness, or for the production of any correspondence, books, papers, documents, or other records, that may be relevant to the investigation authorized by Senate Resolution 202, 102d Congress.

1.2 Authorization. The President pro tempore shall have the power to authorize, in writing or by telephone, the issuance of subpoenas upon the written request of the special independent counsel. Whenever the President pro tempore exercises the power to authorize subpoenas by telephone, the authorization shall be contemporaneously memorialized in writing.

1.3 Issuance. Upon receipt of the written authorization, or written memorialization of the telephone authorization, for the issuance of a subpoena by the President pro tempore, the Secretary of the Senate shall issue the subpoena that is the subject of the authorization. The Secretary shall keep a log, and a file, of all subpoenas that have been issued.

1.4 Service. Subpoenas may be served by any person designated by the Secretary of the Senate. All subpoenas shall be accompanied by a copy of Senate Resolution 202, 102d Congress, and these rules. Criminal or civil enforcement proceedings for a witness's failure to appear at a deposition, to testify, or to produce records shall not be initiated unless a duly authorized subpoena was served upon the witness.

RULE 2. DEPOSITIONS

2.1 Designation. The special independent counsel shall designate in writing the counsel, whether one or more in number, who will examine witnesses at each deposition. For purposes of Rule 2.3–2.4, the term “special independent counsel” includes the special independent counsel and any counsel designated by the special independent counsel to examine witnesses pursuant to this rule.

2.2 Attendance.

(a) General Rule. Unless otherwise specified, the deposition shall be in private.

(b) Counsel.

(1) Presence. Subject to the provisions of Rule 2.2(b) (2)–(4), a witness's counsel shall be permitted to be present during the witness's testimony at any deposition to advise the witness of his or her rights.

(2) Conflicts. The chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Rules and Administration, acting jointly, or the full Committee if the chairman and ranking minority member refer the matter to it, may rule that representation of a witness who is an officer or employee of the government by counsel from the government, or of a witness who is an officer or employee of a corporation or association by counsel from the corporation or association, or of a witness by counsel representing other witnesses, creates a conflict of interest, and that the witness shall be represented by counsel not from the government, corporation, or association or not representing other witnesses.

(3) Inability to Obtain Counsel. A witness who is unable for indigence or other reason to obtain counsel may inform the Committee on Rules and Administration at least 48 hours prior to the scheduled return on the subpoena, and the Committee will endeavor to obtain volunteer counsel for the witness. Failure to obtain counsel will not excuse the witness from complying with the subpoena.

(4) Conduct. Counsel shall behave in an ethical and professional manner. Failure to do so shall, upon a finding to that effect by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Rules and Administration, acting jointly, or the full Committee if the chairman and ranking minority member refer the matter to it, subject counsel to disciplinary action, which may include warning, censure, or removal.

2.3 Procedures.

(a) Examination. Witnesses at depositions shall be examined upon oath administered by an individual authorized by federal or local law to administer oaths. Questions shall be propounded orally by special independent counsel.

(b) Objections. Objections by a witness as to the form of questions shall be noted for the record. If a witness objects to a question and refuses to testify, or objects to the production of records, on the basis of privilege or other ground, special independent counsel may proceed with the deposition, or may, at that time or at a subsequent time, seek a ruling by telephone or otherwise on the objection. The ruling may be sought from the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Rules and Administration. The chairman and ranking minority member, acting jointly, may rule on the objection, and order the witness to answer the question, or to produce the records, if the objection is overruled, or may refer the matter to the full Committee for a ruling. Procedures leading to civil or criminal enforcement shall not be initiated unless the witness has refused to testify, or to produce records, after having been ordered to comply.

2.4 Transcripts. An accurate electronic or stenographic record shall be kept of all testimony at depositions. If a transcript is prepared, the witness shall be furnished with a copy, or access to a copy, of the transcript for review. Upon inspecting the transcript, a witness may submit, in writing within five days, corrections to the transcript, with a statement of the reasons for the corrections, to correct errors of transcription, grammatical errors, or errors of fact. Within the same time limit, the witness shall, if a copy was provided, return the transcript, and the witness shall sign the transcript, including any changes submitted. Any corrections submitted by the witness shall be appended to the transcript. If the witness fails to sign a transcript, or to return a signed copy, the date that access to a copy, or a copy, was provided, and the failure to sign or to return it, shall be noted on the transcript. The individual who made the electronic or stenographic record shall certify on the transcript that the witness was duly sworn in his or her presence, the transcriber shall certify that the transcript is a true record of the testimony, and the transcript shall then be filed with the office of special independent counsel. The special independent counsel may stipulate with the witness to changes in this procedure. Objections to errors in this procedure that might be cured if promptly presented are waived unless timely objection is made.

RULE 3. RETURN OF DOCUMENTARY SUBPOENAS

Return on subpoenas for the production of correspondence, books, papers, documents, or other records, without testimony, may be required, at other than a deposition, at the special independent counsel's offices or other place specified in the subpoena. Rulings on objections to the production of records shall be obtained in accordance with Rule 2.3(b).

RULE 4. CONFIDENTIALITY

4.1 Security. The office of special independent counsel shall operate under strict security precautions in order to maintain the secrecy of all office records.

4.2 Nondisclosure. Except as necessary for the performance of his or her duties in connection with the investigation authorized by Senate Resolution 202, 102d Congress, and as authorized by that resolution and these rules, no personnel of the office of special independent counsel, as defined in Rule 4.5, shall disclose, in whole or in part or by way of summary, to any person, for any purpose or, unless authorized by the Senate, in connection with any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, any records or other confidential information of the office. As used in this rule, the term “records or other confidential information of the office” includes, but is not limited to, all testimony taken, including the names of witnesses testifying, and all exhibits or other materials presented or received, in depositions or otherwise, and also includes any proposed or otherwise nonpublic conclusions, views, memoranda, or report of the office of special independent counsel.

4.3 Nondisclosure Agreement. All personnel of the office of special independent counsel, as defined in Rule 4.5, shall agree in writing, as a condition of employment or agreement for the provision of services, to abide by Rule 4.2.

4.4 Violations. Any of the personnel of the office, as defined by Rule 4.5, who fails to conform to the provisions of Rule 4.2 shall be subject to disciplinary sanction, including termination of employment or agreement for the provision of services.

4.5 Definition of Office Personnel. For purposes of Rule 4, the term “personnel of the office of special independent counsel” includes the special independent counsel, any persons engaged to perform, or who perform, services on behalf of the office, the employees of the office, any detailees and consultants to the office, and any employees of the Senate who assist the office or are given access to any records of the office for reasons related to their official duties.

RULE 5. EFFECTIVENESS, PUBLICATION, AND AMENDMENT OF RULES

These rules shall be effective immediately upon adoption and shall be published in the Congressional Record. These rules may be modified, amended, or repealed by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Rules and Administration, acting jointly. Any changes in these rules shall be effective immediately upon adoption and shall be published in the Congressional Record.
