WILLIAM J. CLINTON.

THE WHITE HOUSE, September 27, 1999.

President's Periodic Report on the National Emergency with respect to National Union for the Total Independence of Angola (UNITA)

I hereby report to the Congress on the developments since my last report of April 5, 1999, concerning the national emergency with respect to Angola that was declared in Executive Order 12865 of September 26, 1993. This report is submitted pursuant to section 401(c) of the National Emergencies Act, 50 U.S.C. 1641(c), and section 204(c) of the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, 50 U.S.C. 1703(c).

On September 26, 1993, I declared a national emergency with respect to the National Union for the Total Independence of Angola ("UNITA"), invoking the authority, inter alia, of the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.) and the United Nations Participation Act of 1945 (22 U.S.C. 287c). Consistent with United Nations Security Council Resolution ("UNSCR") 864, dated September 15, 1993, the order prohibited the sale or supply by United States persons or from the United States, or using U.S.-registered vessels or aircraft, of arms and related matériel of all types, including weapons and ammunition, military vehicles, equipment and spare parts, and petroleum and petroleum products to the territory of Angola other than through designated points of entry. The order also prohibited such sale or supply to UNITA. U.S. persons are prohibited from activities which promote or are calculated to promote such sales or supplies, or from attempted violations, or from evasion or avoidance or transactions that have the purpose of evasion or avoidance, of the stated prohibitions. The order authorized the Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State, to take such actions, including the promulgation of rules and regulations, as might be necessary to carry out the purposes of the order.

1. On December 10, 1993, the Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC") issued the UNITA (Angola) Sanctions Regulations (the "Regulations") (58 Fed. Reg. 64904) to implement Executive Order 12865.

On August 28, 1997, the United Nations Security Council adopted UNSCR 1127, expressing its grave concern at the serious difficulties in the peace process, demanding that the Government of Angola and in particular UNITA comply fully and completely with those obligations, and imposing additional sanctions against UNITA. Subsequently, the Security Council adopted UNSCR 1130 postponing the effective date of measures specified by UNSCR 1127 until 12:01 a.m. EST, October 30, 1997, at which time they went into effect.

On December 12, 1997, I issued Executive Order 13069 to implement in the United States the provisions of UNSCRs 1127 and 1130 (62 Fed. Reg. 65989, December 16, 1997), placing additional sanctions on UNITA, taking into account the provisions of United Nations Security Council Resolutions 1127 of August 28, 1997, and 1130 of September 29, 1997. Effective 12:01 a.m. EST on December 15, 1997, Executive Order 13069 closed all UNITA offices in the United States and prohibited various aircraft-related transactions. Specifically, section 2(a) of Executive Order 13069 prohibits the sale, supply, or making available in any form by United States persons, or from the United States or using U.S.-registered vessels or aircraft, of aircraft or aircraft components, regardless of their origin, to the territory of Angola, other than through designated points of entry, or to UNITA. Section 2(b) prohibits the insurance, engineering, or servicing of UNITA aircraft by United States persons or from the United States. Section 2(c) prohibits the granting of take-off, landing, or overflight permission to any aircraft on flights or continuations of flights to or from the territory of Angola other than to or from designated places in Angola. Section 2(d) prohibits the provision of engineering and maintenance servicing, the certification of airworthiness, the payment of new insurance claims against existing insurance contracts, and the provision, renewal, or making available of direct insurance by a United States person or from the United States with respect to any aircraft registered in Angola, except designated aircraft, and with respect to any aircraft that has entered the territory of Angola other than through designated points of entry.

On August 18, 1998, I issued Executive Order 13098 (63 Fed. Reg. 44771, August 20, 1998), placing further sanctions on UNITA, taking into account the provisions of United Nations Security Council Resolutions 1173 of June 12, 1998, and 1176 of June 24, 1998. These additional sanctions went into effect at 12:01 a.m. EDT on August 19, 1998. Section 1 of Executive Order 13098 blocks all property and interests in property of UNITA, designated senior UNITA officials, and designated adult members of their immediate families if the property or property interests are in the United States, hereafter come within the United States, or are or hereafter come within the possession or control of United States persons. Section 2 of Executive Order 13098 prohibits the importation into the United States of all diamonds exported from Angola that are not controlled through the Certificate of Origin regime of the Angolan Government of Unity and National Reconciliation (the "GURN"). Section 2 also prohibits the sale or supply by United States persons or from the United States or using U.S.-registered vessels or aircraft of equipment used in mining, and of motorized vehicles, watercraft, or spare parts for motorized vehicles or watercraft, regardless of origin, to the territory of Angola other than through a designated point of entry. Finally, section 2 prohibits the sale or supply by U.S. persons or from the United States or using U.S.-registered vessels or aircraft of mining services or ground or waterborne transportation services, regardless of their origin, to persons in designated areas of Angola to which the GURN's State administration has not been extended.

2. On August 12, 1999, OFAC amended the Regulations to implement Executive Orders 13069 and 13098 and to make technical and conforming changes (64 Fed. Reg. 43924, August 12, 1999). Since the amendments are extensive, Part 590 was reissued in its entirety. Additional prohibitions were added to the Regulations to reflect the new sanctions imposed in Executive Orders 13069 and 13098, and certain existing prohibitions were renumbered. A copy of the Regulations is attached to this report.

Section 590.202 of the Regulations has been amended to implement section 1 of Executive Order 13069, requiring the closure of all UNITA offices located in the United States. On December 31, 1997, OFAC had issued an order to the Center for Democracy in Angola ("CEDA" or "CDA") to immediately close its offices in the United States as required by Executive Order 13069. CEDA responded that it had closed its only U.S. office, located in Washington, D.C., in compliance with Executive Order 13069.

Section 590.203 of the Regulations has been amended to implement the aircraft-related prohibitions contained in section 2 of Executive Order 13069 that are within the Treasury

Department's jurisdiction. Thus, section 590.203 prohibits the sale, supply, or making available in any form by United States persons, or from the United States or using U.S.-registered vessels or aircraft, of aircraft or aircraft components, regardless of origin, to the territory of Angola, other than through a point of entry designated in new appendix B, or to UNITA. Section 590.203 also prohibits the insurance, engineering, or servicing by United States persons or from the United States of any aircraft owned or controlled by UNITA. Finally, section 590.203 prohibits the provision or making available of engineering and maintenance servicing, the payment of new claims against existing insurance contracts, and the provision, renewal, or making available of direct insurance by United States persons or from the United States with respect to aircraft registered in Angola other than aircraft designated in new appendix C, or with respect to any aircraft that have entered the territory of Angola other than through a point of entry designated in new appendix B. (Provisions in section 2 of Executive Order 13069 relating to the granting of take off, landing, and overflight permission to certain aircraft and the certification of airworthiness for certain aircraft are not addressed by this final rule, but instead are implemented by the Department of Transportation.)

Section 590.204 of the Regulations, implementing section 2(b) of Executive Order 13098, prohibits the sale or supply by United States persons, or from the United States or using U.S.-registered vessels or aircraft, of equipment used in mining, regardless of origin, to the territory of Angola other than through a point of entry designated in new appendix B. Section 590.205 of the Regulations, implementing section 2(c) of Executive Order 13098, imposes the same prohibition with respect to motorized vehicles, watercraft, or spare parts for motorized vehicles or watercraft. Section 590.206 of the Regulations, implementing section 2(d) of Executive Order 13098, prohibits the sale or supply by United States persons, or from the United States or using U.S.-registered vessels or aircraft, of mining services or ground or waterborne transportation services, regardless of origin, to persons in areas of Angola to which the GURN's State administration has not been extended, as designated in new appendix D.

Section 590.207 of the Regulations, implementing section 1 of Executive Order 13098, blocks all property and interests in property that are in the United States, that hereafter come within the United States, or that are or hereafter come within the possession or control of U.S. persons, including their overseas branches, of UNITA and those senior UNITA officials or adult members of their immediate families designated by the Secretary of the Treasury or the Secretary's delegate. As defined in section 590.314 of the Regulations, UNITA includes all persons owned or controlled by, or acting for on behalf of, UNITA. Sections 590.209 and 590.210 of the Regulations detail the effect of transfers of blocked property in violation of the Regulations and the required holding of blocked property in interest-bearing accounts and investment and reinvestment.

Section 590.208 of the Regulations, implementing section 2(a) of Executive Order 13098, prohibits the direct or indirect importation into the United States of all diamonds exported from Angola after August 18, 1998, unless those diamonds are controlled through the Certificate of Origin regime of the GURN.

Various new definitions were added to the Regulations, several existing definitions were revised, and all of the definitions have been placed in alphabetical order and renumbered accordingly. Due to the substantial increase in regulated commodities that are not normally controlled for export as dual-use items, OFAC has decided to discontinue use of the Commerce Control List as the primary reference for defining the broad categories of commodities now regulated by the Regulations and to reference instead the relevant chapters, headings, and subheadings of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States ("HTS"). Thus, the term "aircraft or aircraft components" is defined in section 590.301 of the Regulations by reference to the relevant chapter of the HTS. Similarly, the terms "diamonds," "equipment used in mining," and "motorized vehicles, watercraft, or spare parts for motorized vehicles or watercraft" are defined in sections 590.305, 590.308, and 590.313 respectively by reference to the relevant HTS subheadings. For consistency, the existing definitions for "arms and related materiel" and "petroleum and petroleum products," now located at sections 590.302 and 590.316 respectively, have been modified by replacing the references to the Commerce Control List with references to the relevant chapters of the HTS. (However, in appendix A to part 590, which lists various arms and related materiel, references to Commerce Control List categories have been retained and updated as an additional guide for exporters.) The terms "controlled through the Certificate of Origin regime of the Angolan Government of Unity and National Reconciliation" and "mining services or ground or waterborne transportation services" are defined in sections 590.304 and 590.312 respectively, and numerous definitions are added to clarify the scope of the blocking ordered in section 590.207 of the Regulations. To implement the definition of "UNITA" in Executive Orders 13069 and 13098, the definition of the term "National Union for the Total Independence of Angola," or "UNITA," located at section 590.314, is expanded to include "the Center for Democracy in Angola (CEDA)," the successor to the Free Angola Information Services, Inc. Finally, the definition of "effective date" in section 590.306 is amended to include the effective dates of all new prohibitions contained in the Regulations.

Subpart D of the Regulations has been amended to include interpretive sections relating to blocked property and interests in property and the new import and export restrictions. The existing interpretive sections concerning transshipments through the United States and transshipments through third countries are revised to include the commodities and services covered by the new prohibitions.

Subpart E of the Regulations has been amended to include several general licenses and to indicate that OFAC will consider granting specific licenses for transactions for medical and humanitarian purposes otherwise prohibited under sections 590.203 through 590.208 of the Regulations. Subpart F of the Regulations has been amended to reflect the relocation of sections relating to OFAC records and reports to subpart C of 31 CFR part 501. Technical and conforming changes were made to subpart G of the Regulations, relating to penalties. Subpart H of the Regulations has been amended to reflect the relocation of sections containing license application procedures and procedures relating to amendments, modifications, or revocations of licenses, administrative decisions, rulemaking, and requests for documents to subpart D of 31 CFR part 501.

Five new appendices were added to the Regulations. Appendix B to part 590 contains the list of points of entry in the territory of Angola designated for the purposes of the exceptions to certain prohibitions in sections 590.201, 590.203, 590.204, and 590.205. Appendix C to part 590 contains the list of designated aircraft to which certain prohibitions contained in section 590.203 do not apply. Appendix D to part 590 lists those areas to which the GURN's State administration has not been extended for purposes of the prohibition in section 590.206. Appendices E and F to part 590 are non-exhaustive lists of the items considered to be equipment used in mining, motorized vehicles, watercraft, and spare parts for motorized vehicles and watercraft, which are subject to the prohibitions in sections 590.204 and 590.205.

On June 25, 1999, pursuant to Executive Order 13098, OFAC amended Appendix A to 31 CFR chapter V, which contains the names of blocked persons, specially designated nationals, specially designated terrorists, foreign terrorist organizations, and specially designated narcotics traffickers designated pursuant to the various sanctions programs administered by OFAC. The amendment adds to Appendix A the names of 10 individuals who have been determined to be senior officials of UNITA (64 Fed. Reg. 34991, June 30, 1999). A copy of the amendment is attached to this report. All property and interests in property of these individuals that are in the United States, that come within the United States, or that come within control of U.S. persons are blocked. All transactions by U.S. persons or within the United States in property or interests in property of these individuals are prohibited unless licensed by OFAC.

3. OFAC has worked closely with the U.S. financial and exporting communities to assure a heightened awareness of the sanctions against UNITA, through the dissemination of publications, seminars, and a variety of media, including via the Internet, Fax-on-Demand, special fliers, and computer bulletin board information initiated by OFAC and posted through the U.S. Department of Commerce and the U.S. Government Printing Office. There have been no license applications under the program since my last report. On October 1, 1998, OFAC issued an order to a U.S. Internet provider which resulted in the termination of a site posted on the World Wide Web by UNITA.

4. The expenses incurred by the Federal Government in the six-month period from March 26 through September 25, 1999 that are directly attributable to the exercise of powers and authorities conferred by the declaration of a national emergency with respect to UNITA are estimated at about $200,000, most of which represent wage and salary costs for Federal personnel. Personnel costs were largely centered in the Department of the Treasury (particularly in the Office of Foreign Assets Control, the U.S. Customs Service, the Office of the Under Secretary for Enforcement, and the Office of the General Counsel) and the Departments of State (particularly the Office of Southern African Affairs) and Commerce.

I will continue to report periodically to the Congress on significant developments, pursuant to 50 U.S.C. 1703(c).

Background

Appendix A to 31 CFR chapter V contains the names of blocked persons, specially designated nationals, specially designated terrorists, foreign terrorist organizations, and specially designated narcotics traffickers designated pursuant to the various economic sanctions programs administered by the Office of Foreign Assets Control. Pursuant to Executive Order 13098 of August 18, 1998, "Blocking Property of UNITA and Prohibiting Certain Transactions with respect to UNITA" (E.O. 13098, 63 FR 44771, 3 CFR, 1998 Comp., p. 206—the "Order"), and the UNITA (Angola) Sanctions Regulations (31 CFR part 590—the "Regulations"), the following 10 individuals are added to appendix A as persons who have been determined to be senior officials of UNITA (hereinafter "blocked persons"). All real and personal property in which the blocked persons have any interest, including but not limited to all accounts that are or come within the United States or that are or come within the possession or control of U.S. persons, including their overseas branches, are blocked. All transactions by U.S. persons or within the United States in property or interests in property of blocked persons are prohibited unless licensed by the Office of Foreign Assets Control.

Designations of foreign persons blocked pursuant to the Order are effective upon the date of determination by the Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control, acting under authority delegated by the Secretary of the Treasury. Public notice of blocking is effective upon the date of filing with the Federal Register, or upon prior actual notice.

Because the Order and Regulations involve a foreign affairs function, Executive Order 12866 and the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 553), requiring notice of proposed rulemaking, opportunity for public participation, and delay in effective date, are inapplicable. Because no notice of proposed rulemaking is required for this rule, the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601-612) does not apply.

For the reasons set forth in the preamble, and under the authority of 3 U.S.C. 301; 22 U.S.C. 287c; 31 U.S.C. 321(b); 50 U.S.C. 1601-1651, 1701-1706; Pub. L. 101-410, 104 Stat. 890 (28 U.S.C. 2461 note); E.O. 12865, 58 FR 51005, 3 CFR, 1993 Comp., p.636; E.O. 13069, 62 FR 65989, 3 CFR, 1997 Comp., p. 232; E.O. 13098, 63 FR 44771, 3 CFR, 1998 Comp., p. 206, appendix A to chapter V of 31 CFR is amended as set forth below:

Background

On September 26, 1993, in view of United Nations Security Council Resolution No. 864 of September 15, 1993, President Clinton issued E.O. 12865, 58 FR 51005, 3 CFR, 1993 Comp., p.636, declaring a national emergency with respect to UNITA's actions in Angola and placing sanctions on UNITA. Executive Order 12865 prohibits the sale or supply by United States persons, or from the United States or using U.S.-registered vessels or aircraft, of arms, arms-related materiel of all types, petroleum, and petroleum products, regardless of their origin, to the territory of Angola, other than through designated points of entry, or to UNITA. Executive Order 12865 also prohibits any activity by U.S. persons or in the United States that promotes or is calculated to promote such prohibited sale or supply. On December 10, 1993, the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the Department of the Treasury ("OFAC") implemented Executive Order 12865 by promulgating the UNITA (Angola) Sanctions Regulations, 31 CFR Part 590 (the "Regulations").

On December 12, 1997, President Clinton issued Executive Order 13069, 62 FR 65989, 3 CFR, 1997 Comp., p.232, placing additional sanctions on UNITA, taking into account the provisions of United Nations Security Council Resolutions 1127 of August 28, 1997, and 1130 of September 29, 1997. Effective 12:01 a.m. EST on December 15, 1997, Executive Order 13069 closes all UNITA offices in the United States and prohibits various aircraft-related transactions. Specifically, section 2(a) of Executive Order 13069 prohibits the sale, supply, or making available in any form by United States persons, or from the United States or using U.S.-registered vessels or aircraft, of aircraft or aircraft components, regardless of their origin, to the territory of Angola, other than through designated points of entry, or to UNITA. Section 2(b) prohibits the insurance, engineering, or servicing of UNITA aircraft by United States persons or from the United States. Section 2(c) prohibits the granting of takeoff, landing, or overflight permission to any aircraft on flights or continuations of flights to or from the territory of Angola other than to or from designated places in Angola. Section 2(d) prohibits the provision of engineering and maintenance servicing, the certification of airworthiness, the payment of new insurance claims against existing insurance contracts, and the provision, renewal, or making available of direct insurance by a United States person or from the United States with respect to any aircraft registered in Angola, except designated aircraft, and with respect to any aircraft that have entered the territory of Angola other than through designated points of entry.

On August 18, 1998, President Clinton issued Executive Order 13098, 63 FR 44771, 3 CFR, 1998 Comp., p.206, placing further sanctions on UNITA, taking into account the provisions of United Nations Security Council Resolutions 1173 of June 12, 1998, and 1176 of June 24, 1998. These additional sanctions went into effect at 12:01 a.m. EDT on August 19, 1998. Section 1 of Executive Order 13098 blocks all property and interests in property of UNITA, designated senior UNITA officials, and designated adult members of their immediate families if the property or property interests are in the United States, hereafter come within the United States, or are or hereafter come within the possession or control of United States persons. Section 2 prohibits the importation into the United States of all diamonds exported from Angola that are not controlled through the Certificate of Origin regime of the Angolan Government of Unity and National Reconciliation (the "GURN"). Section 2 also prohibits the sale or supply by United States persons, or from the United States or using U.S.-registered vessels or aircraft, of equipment used in mining and of motorized vehicles, watercraft, or spare parts for motorized vehicles or watercraft, regardless of their origin, to the territory of Angola other than through designated points of entry. Finally, section 2 prohibits the sale or supply by U.S. persons, or from the United States or using U.S.-registered vessels or aircraft, of mining services or ground or waterborne transportation services, regardless of their origin, to persons in designated areas of Angola to which the GURN's State administration has not been extended.

Accordingly, to implement Executive Orders 13069 and 13098, and to make technical and conforming changes, OFAC is amending the Regulations. Since the amendments are extensive, part 590 is being reissued in its entirety.

New prohibitions are added to the Regulations to reflect the new sanctions imposed in Executive Orders 13069 and 13098, and certain existing prohibitions are renumbered. The text of existing § 590.202 has been replaced by new language implementing section 1 of Executive Order 13069, requiring the closure of all UNITA offices located in the United States. The text of existing § 590.203 has been moved to new § 590.211 and replaced by new language implementing the aircraft-related prohibitions contained in section 2 of Executive Order 13069 that are within the Treasury Department's jurisdiction. Thus, § 590.203 now prohibits the sale, supply, or making available in any form by United States persons, or from the United States or using U.S.-registered vessels or aircraft, of aircraft or aircraft components, regardless of origin, to the territory of Angola, other than through a point of entry designated in new appendix B to part 590, or to UNITA. Section 590.203 also prohibits the insuring, engineering, or servicing by United States persons or from the United States of any aircraft owned or controlled by UNITA. Finally, § 590.203 prohibits the provision or making available of engineering and maintenance servicing, the payment of new claims against insurance contracts in existence as of December 15, 1997, and the provision, renewal, or making available of direct insurance by United States persons or from the United States after December 14, 1997, with respect to aircraft registered in Angola, other than aircraft designated in new appendix C to part 590, or with respect to any aircraft that have entered the territory of Angola other than through a point of entry designated in new appendix B to part

590. (Provisions in section 2 of Executive Order 13069 relating to the granting of takeoff, landing, and overflight permission to certain aircraft and the certification of airworthiness for certain aircraft are not addressed by this final rule, but instead are implemented by the Department of Transportation.)

Section 590.204 of the Regulations, implementing section 2(b) of Executive Order 13098, prohibits the sale or supply by United States persons, or from the United States or using U.S.-registered vessels or aircraft, of equipment used in mining, regardless of origin, to the territory of Angola other than through a point of entry designated in new appendix B to part 590. Section 590.205 of the Regulations, implementing section 2(c) of Executive Order 13098, imposes the same prohibition with respect to motorized vehicles, watercraft, and spare parts for motorized vehicles or watercraft. Section 590.206 of the Regulations, implementing section 2(d) of Executive Order 13098, prohibits the sale or supply by United States persons, or from the United States or using U.S.-registered vessels or aircraft, of mining services or ground or waterborne transportation services, regardless of origin, to persons in areas of Angola to which the GURN's State administration has not been extended, as designated in new appendix D to part 590.

Section 590.207 of the Regulations, implementing section 1 of Executive Order 13098, blocks all property and interests in property that are in the United States, that hereafter come within the United States, or that are or hereafter come within the possession or control of U.S. persons, including their overseas branches, of UNITA and those senior UNITA officials or adult members of their immediate families designated by the Secretary of the Treasury or the Secretary's delegate. As defined in § 590.314 of the Regulations, UNITA includes all persons owned or controlled by or acting for or on behalf of UNITA. Section 590.209 and 590.210 of the Regulations detail the effect of transfers of blocked property in violation of the Regulations and the required holding of blocked property in interest-bearing accounts.

Section 590.208 of the Regulations, implementing section 2(a) of Executive Order 13098, prohibits the direct or indirect importation into the United States of all diamonds exported from Angola after August 18, 1998, unless those diamonds are controlled through the Certificate of Origin regime of the GURN.

Various new definitions are added to the Regulations, several existing definitions are revised, and all of the definitions are placed in alphabetical order and renumbered accordingly. Due to the substantial increase in regulated commodities that are not normally controlled for export as dual-use items, OFAC has decided to discontinue use of the Commerce Control List as the primary reference for defining the broad categories of commodities now regulated by the Regulations and to reference instead the relevant chapters, headings, and subheadings of Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States ("HTS"). Thus, the term "aircraft or aircraft components" is defined in § 590.301 of the Regulations by reference to the relevant chapter of the HTS. Similarly, the terms "diamonds," "equipment used in mining," and "motorized vehicles, watercraft, or spare parts for motorized vehicles or watercraft" are defined in §§ 590.305, 590.308, and 590.313 respectively by reference to the relevant HTS subheadings. For consistency, the existing definitions for "arms and related materiel" and "petroleum and petroleum products," now located at §§ 590.302 and 590.316 respectively, have been modified by replacing the references to the Commerce Control List with references to the relevant chapters of the HTS. (However, in appendix A to part 590, which lists various arms and related materiel, references to Commerce Control List categories have been retained and updated as an additional guide for exporters.) The terms "controlled through the Certificate of Origin regime of the Angolan Government of Unity and National Reconciliation" and "mining services or ground or waterborne transportation services" are defined in §§ 590.304 and 590.312 respectively, and numerous definitions are added to clarify the scope of the blocking ordered in § 590.207 of the Regulations. To implement the definition of "UNITA" in Executive Orders 13069 and 13098, the definition of the term "National Union for the Total Independence of Angola," or "UNITA," located at § 590.314, is expanded to include "the Center for Democracy in Angola (CEDA)," the successor to the Free Angola Information Services, Inc. Finally, the definition of "effective date" in § 590.305 is amended to include the effective dates of all new prohibitions contained in the Regulations.

Subpart D of the Regulations is amended to include interpretive sections relating to blocked property and interests in property and the new import and export restrictions. The existing interpretive sections concerning transshipments through the United States and transshipments through third countries are revised to include the commodities and services covered by the new prohibitions.

Subpart E of the Regulations is amended to include several general licenses and to indicate that OFAC will consider granting specific licenses for transactions for medical and humanitarian purposes otherwise prohibited under §§ 590.203 through 590.208 of the Regulations. Subpart F of the Regulations is amended to reflect the relocation of sections relating to OFAC records and reports to subpart C of 31 CFR part 501. Technical and conforming changes are made to subpart G of the Regulations, relating to penalties. Subpart H of the Regulations is amended to reflect the relocation of sections containing license application procedures and procedures relating to amendments, modifications, or revocations of licenses; administrative decisions; rulemaking; and requests for documents pursuant to the Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts (5 U.S.C. 552 and 552a) to subpart D of 31 CFR part 501. Subpart I of the Regulations is amended to include a Paperwork Reduction Act notice.

Five new appendices are added to the Regulations. Appendix B to part 590 contains the list of points of entry in the territory of Angola designated for the purposes of the exceptions to certain prohibitions in §§ 590.201, 590.203, 590.204, and 590.205. The list of these points of entry currently contained in § 590.201(b) is removed and transferred to new appendix B to part 590. This amendment will allow both the existing and new sections to refer to the same list of designated points of entry without unneeded repetition. Appendix C to part 590 contains the list of designated aircraft to which certain prohibitions contained in § 590.203 do not apply. Appendix D to part 590 lists those areas to which the GURN's State administration has not been extended for purposes of the prohibition in § 590.206. Appendices E and F to part 590 are non-exhaustive lists of the items considered to be equipment used in mining, motorized vehicles, watercraft, and spare parts for motorized vehicles and watercraft, which are subject to the prohibitions in §§ 590.204 and 590.205.

Other technical amendments are also made.

Since the Regulations involve a foreign affairs function, the provisions of Executive Order 12866 and the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 553) (the "APA") requiring notice of proposed rulemaking, opportunity for public participation, and delay in effective date are inapplicable. Because no notice of proposed rulemaking is required for this rule, the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601-612) does not apply.

Paperwork Reduction Act

As authorized in the APA, the Regulations are being issued without prior notice and public comment. The collections of information related to the Regulations are contained in 31 CFR part 501 (the "Reporting and Procedures Regulations"). Pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3507), those collections of information have been approved by the Office of Management and Budget ("OMB") under control number 1505-0164. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless the collection of information displays a valid control number.

Note to paragraph (a) of § 590.207: Please refer to the appendices at the end of this chapter V for listings of senior officials of UNITA and adult members of their immediate families designated pursuant to this section. Section 501.807 of this chapter V sets forth the procedures to be followed by persons seeking administrative reconsideration of their designation or who wish to assert that the circumstances resulting in designation no longer apply.

(b) Unless otherwise authorized by this part or by a specific license expressly referring to this section, any dealing in any security (or evidence thereof) held within the possession or control of a U.S. person and either registered or inscribed in the name of or known to be held for the benefit of any person whose property is blocked pursuant to this section is prohibited. This prohibition includes but is not limited to the transfer (including the transfer on the books of any issuer or agent thereof), disposition, transportation, importation, exportation, or withdrawal of any such security or the endorsement or guaranty of signatures on any such security. This prohibition applies irrespective of the fact that at any time (either prior to, on, or subsequent to the effective date) the registered or inscribed owner of any such security may have or appears to have assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of the security.

(c) When a transaction results in the blocking of funds at a financial institution pursuant to this section and a party to the transaction believes the funds have been blocked due to mistaken identity, that party may seek to have such funds unblocked pursuant to the administrative procedures set forth in § 501.806 of this chapter.

§ 590.208 Prohibited importation of diamonds.

Except as otherwise authorized, the direct or indirect importation into the United States on or after 12:01 a.m. EDT on August 19, 1998, of all diamonds (as defined in § 590.305) exported from Angola that are not controlled through the Certificate of Origin regime of the Angolan Government of Unity and National Reconciliation (as defined in § 590.304) is prohibited.

§ 590.209 Effect of transfers violating the provisions of this part.

(a) Any transfer after the effective date that is in violation of any provision of this part or of any regulation, order, directive, ruling, instruction, or license issued pursuant to this part, and that involves any property or interest in property blocked pursuant to § 590.207(a) is null and void and shall not be the basis for the assertion or recognition of any interest in or right, remedy, power, or privilege with respect to such property or property interest.

(b) No transfer before the effective date shall be the basis for the assertion or recognition of any right, remedy, power, or privilege with respect to, or any interest in, any property or interest in property blocked pursuant to § 590.207(a), unless the person with whom such property is held or maintained, prior to that date, had written notice of the transfer or by any written evidence had recognized such transfer.

(c) Unless otherwise provided, an appropriate license or other authorization issued by or pursuant to the direction or authorization of the Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control before, during, or after a transfer shall validate such transfer or make it enforceable to the same extent that it would be valid or enforceable but for the provisions of the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, the United Nations Participation Act, this part, and any regulation, order, directive, ruling, instruction, or license issued pursuant to this part.

(d) Property transfers that otherwise would be null and void or unenforceable by virtue of the provisions of this section shall not be deemed to be null and void or unenforceable as to any person with whom such property was held or maintained (and as to such person only) in cases in which such person is able to establish to the satisfaction of the Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control each of the following:

(1) Such transfer did not represent a willful violation of the provisions of this part by the person with whom such property was held or maintained;

(2) The person with whom such property was held or maintained did not have reasonable cause to know or suspect, in view of all the facts and circumstances known or available to such person, that such transfer required a license issued pursuant to this part and was not so licensed, or if a license did purport to cover the transfer, that such license had been obtained by misrepresentation of a third party or withholding of material facts or was otherwise fraudulently obtained; and

(3) The person with whom such property was held or maintained filed with the Office of Foreign Assets Control a report setting forth in full the circumstances relating to such transfer promptly upon discovery that:

(i) Such transfer was in violation of the provisions of this part or any regulation, ruling, instruction, direction, or license issued pursuant to this part;

(ii) Such transfer was not licensed or authorized by the Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control; or

(iii) If a license did purport to cover the transfer, such license had been obtained by misrepresentation of a third party or withholding of material facts or was otherwise fraudulently obtained.

Note to paragraph (d) of § 590.209: The filing of a report in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d)(3) of this section shall not be deemed evidence that the terms of paragraphs (d)(1) and (d)(2) of this section have been satisfied.

(e) Unless licensed pursuant to this part, any attachment, judgment, decree, lien, execution, garnishment, or other judicial process is null and void with respect to any property in which on or since the effective date of § 590.207 there existed an interest of a person whose property is blocked pursuant to § 590.207(a).

(2) For purposes of this section, a rate is commercially reasonable if it is the rate currently offered to other depositors on deposits or instruments of comparable size and maturity.

(3) Funds held or placed in a blocked account pursuant to this paragraph (b) may not be invested in instruments the maturity of which exceeds 180 days. If interest is credited to a separate blocked account or sub-account, the name of the account party on each account must be the same.

(c) Blocked funds held in instruments the maturity of which exceeds 180 days at the time the funds become subject to § 590.207(a) may continue to be held until maturity in the original instrument, provided any interest, earnings, or other proceeds derived therefrom are paid into a blocked interest-bearing account in accordance with paragraph (b) or (d) of this section.

(d) Blocked funds held in accounts or instruments outside the United States at the time the funds become subject to § 590.207(a) may continue to be held in the same type of accounts or instruments, provided the funds earn interest at rates that are commercially reasonable.

(e) This section does not create an affirmative obligation for the holder of blocked tangible property, such as chattels or real estate, or of other blocked property, such as debt or equity securities, to sell or liquidate such property at the time the property becomes subject to § 590.207(a).

However, the Office of Foreign Assets Control may issue licenses permitting or directing such sales in appropriate cases.

(f) Funds subject to this section may not be held, invested, or reinvested in a manner that provides immediate financial or economic benefit or access to persons whose property is blocked pursuant to § 590.207(a), nor may their holder cooperate in or facilitate the pledging or other attempted use as collateral of blocked funds or other assets.

§ 590.211 Evasions; attempts; conspiracies.

For provisions relating to licensing procedures, see part 501, subpart D of this chapter. Licensing actions taken pursuant to part 501 of this chapter with respect to the prohibitions contained in this part are considered actions taken pursuant to this part.

§ 590.502 Effect of license.

(a) No license contained in this part, or otherwise issued by or under the direction of the Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control pursuant to this part, authorizes or validates any transaction effected prior to the issuance of the license, unless the prior transaction is specifically authorized in such license.

(b) No regulation, ruling, instruction, or license authorizes any transaction prohibited by this part unless the regulation, ruling, instruction, or license is issued by the Office of Foreign Assets Control and specifically refers to this part. No regulation, ruling, instruction, or license referring to this part authorizes any transaction prohibited by any provision of this chapter unless the regulation, ruling, instruction, or license specifically refers to such provision.

(c) Any regulation, ruling, instruction, or license authorizing any transaction otherwise prohibited by this part has the effect of removing from the transaction a prohibition or prohibitions contained in this part, but only to the extent specifically stated by its terms. Unless the regulation, ruling, instruction, or license otherwise specifies, such an authorization does not create any right, duty, obligation, claim, or interest that would not otherwise exist under ordinary principles of law in or with respect to any property.

§ 590.503 Exclusion from licenses.

The Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control reserves the right to exclude any person, property, or transaction from the operation of any license or from the privileges conferred by any license. Any payment of funds or transfer of credit in which a person whose property is blocked pursuant to § 590.207(a) has any interest and that comes within the possession or control of a U.S. financial institution must be blocked in an account on the books of that financial institution. A transfer of funds or credit by a U.S. financial institution between blocked accounts in its branches or offices is authorized, provided that no transfer is made from an account within the United States to an account held outside the United States, and further provided that a transfer from a blocked account may only be made to another blocked account held in the same name.

Note to § 590.505: Please refer to part 501, subpart C of this chapter for mandatory reporting requirements regarding financial transfers. See also § 590.210 concerning the obligation to hold blocked funds in interest-bearing accounts.

Subpart G—Penalties

§ 590.701 Penalties.

(a) Attention is directed to section 206 of the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (the "Act") (50 U.S.C. 1705), which is applicable to violations of the provisions of any license, ruling, regulation, order, direction, or instruction issued by or pursuant to the direction or authorization of the Secretary of the Treasury pursuant to this part or otherwise under the Act. Section 206 of the Act, as adjusted by the Federal Civil Penalties Inflation Adjustment Act of 1990 (Pub. L. 101-410, as amended, 28 U.S.C. 2461 note), provides that:

(1) A civil penalty not to exceed $11,000 per violation may be imposed on any person who violates or attempts to violate any license, order, or regulation issued under the Act;

(2) Whoever willfully violates or willfully attempts to violate any license, order, or regulation issued under the Act, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than $50,000, and if a natural person, may also be imprisoned for not more than 10 years; and any officer, director, or agent of any corporation who knowingly participates in such violation may be punished by a like fine, imprisonment, or both.

(b) The criminal penalties provided in the Act are subject to increase pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3571.

(c) Attention is directed to section 5 of the United Nations Participation Act (22 U.S.C. 287c(b)), which provides that any person who willfully violates or evades or attempts to violate or evade any order, rule, or regulation issued by the President pursuant to the authority granted in that section, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than $10,000, or if a natural person, may also be imprisoned for not more than 10 years; and any officer, director, or agent of any corporation who knowingly participates in such a violation or evasion shall be punished by a similar fine, imprisonment, or both; and any property, funds, securities, papers, other articles or documents, vessels together with their tackle, apparel, furniture, equipment, vehicle, or aircraft concerned in such violation shall be forfeited to the United States. The penalties provided in the United Nations Participation Act are subject to increase pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3571.

(d) Attention is also directed to 18 U.S.C. 1001, which provides that whoever, in any matter within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the United States, knowingly and willfully falsifies, conceals, or covers up by any trick, scheme, or device a material fact, or makes any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or representation, or makes or uses any false writing or document knowing the same to contain any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or entry shall be fined under title 18, United States Code, or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

(e) Violations of this part may also be subject to relevant provisions of other applicable laws.

§ 590.702 Prepenalty notice.

(a) When required. If the Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control has reasonable cause to believe that there has occurred a violation of any provision of this part or a violation of the provisions of any license, ruling, regulation, order, direction, or instruction issued by or pursuant to the direction or authorization of the Secretary of the Treasury pursuant to this part or otherwise under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, and the Director determines that further proceedings are warranted, the Director shall issue to the person concerned a notice of intent to impose a monetary penalty. This prepenalty notice shall be issued whether or not another agency has taken any action with respect to this matter.

(b) Contents—(1) Facts of violation. The prepenalty notice shall describe the violation, specify the laws and regulations allegedly violated, and state the amount of the proposed monetary penalty.

(2) Right to respond. The prepenalty notice also shall inform the respondent of respondent's right to make a written presentation within 30 days of the date of mailing of the notice as to why a monetary penalty should not be imposed or why, if imposed, the monetary penalty should be in a lesser amount than proposed.

§ 590.703 Response to prepenalty notice; informal settlement.

(a) Deadline for response. The respondent shall have 30 days from the date of mailing of the prepenalty notice to make a written response to the Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control.

(b) Form and contents of response. The written response need not be in any particular form, but must contain information sufficient to indicate that it is in response to the prepenalty notice. It should contain responses to the allegations in the prepenalty notice and set forth the reasons why the respondent believes the penalty should not be imposed or why, if imposed, it should be in a lesser amount than proposed.

(c) Informal settlement. In addition or as an alternative to a written response to a prepenalty notice issued pursuant to this section, the respondent or respondent's representative may contact the Office of Foreign Assets Control as advised in the prepenalty notice to propose the settlement of allegations contained in the prepenalty notice and related matters. In the event of settlement at the prepenalty stage, the claim proposed in the prepenalty notice will be withdrawn, the respondent will not be required to take a written position on allegations contained in the prepenalty notice, and the Office of Foreign Assets Control will make no final determination as to whether a violation occurred. The amount accepted in settlement of allegations in a prepenalty notice may vary from the civil penalty that might finally be imposed in the event of a formal determination of violation. In the event no settlement is reached, the 30-day period specified in paragraph (a) of this section for written response to the prepenalty notice remains in effect unless additional time is granted by the Office of Foreign Assets Control.

§ 537.704 Penalty imposition or withdrawal.

(a) No violation. If, after considering any response to a prepenalty notice and any relevant facts, the Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control determines that there was no violation by the respondent named in the prepenalty notice, the Director promptly shall notify the respondent in writing of that determination and that no monetary penalty will be imposed.

(b) Violation. If, after considering any response to a prepenalty notice and any relevant facts, the Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control determines that there was a violation by the respondent named in the prepenalty notice, the Director promptly shall issue a written notice of the imposition of the monetary penalty to the respondent.

(1) The penalty notice shall inform the respondent that payment of the assessed penalty must be made within 30 days of the date of mailing of the penalty notice.

(2) The penalty notice shall inform the respondent of the requirement to furnish the respondent's taxpayer identification number pursuant to 31 U.S.C. 7701 and that such number will be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent penalty amount.

§ 537.705 Administrative collection; referral to United States Department of Justice.

In the event that the respondent does not pay a penalty imposed pursuant to this part or make payment arrangements acceptable to the Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control within 30 days of the date of mailing of a penalty notice, the matter may be referred for administrative collection measures by the Department of the Treasury or to the United States Department of Justice for appropriate action to recover the penalty in a civil suit in a Federal district court.

Subpart H—Procedures

§ 590.801 Procedures.

§ 590.802 Delegation by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Any action that the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to take pursuant to Executive Orders 12865 (3 CFR, 1993 Comp., p. 636), 13069 (3 CFR, 1997 Comp., p. 232), and 13098 (63 FR 44771, Aug. 20, 1998), and any further Executive orders relating to the national emergency declared with respect to UNITA in Executive Order 12865 may be taken by the Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control or by any other person to whom the Secretary of the Treasury has delegated authority so to act.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: EPA is amending the table of currently approved information collection request (ICR) control numbers issued by OMB for various regulations. The amendment updates the table to list those information collection requirements promulgated under the Final Regulations for Revisions to the Federal Test Procedure for Emissions From Motor Vehicles, which appeared in the Federal Register on October 22, 1996. 61 FR 54852; OMB approved the information collection requirements on August 27, 1997 (ICR 0783.36, OMB 2060-0104). The affected regulations are codified at 40 CFR part 86. EPA will continue to present OMB control numbers in a consolidated table format to be codified in 40 CFR part 9 of the Agency's regulations, and in each CFR volume containing EPA regulations. The table lists CFR citations with reporting, recordkeeping, or other information collection requirements, and the current OMB control numbers. This listing of the OMB control numbers and their subsequent codification in the CFR satisfies the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.) and OMB's implementing regulations at 5 CFR part 1320. By this action, EPA is also announcing that these sections, which contain information collection requirements, became effective when approved by OMB on August 27, 1997.

This ICR was previously subject to public notice and comment prior to OMB approval. Due to the technical nature of the table, EPA finds that further notice and comment is unnecessary. As a result, EPA finds that there is "good cause" under section 553(b)(B) of the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B), to amend this table without prior notice and comment.
