FOREWORD

This document is a compilation of the constitutional provisions, federal and state laws, and rules of the two major political parties governing the nomination and election of the President and Vice President of the United States. It lists the states holding presidential preference primaries and the dates of such primaries; it also describes the manner of selecting delegates to the national conventions, the dates such selections are to be made, and the number of delegates to be selected. Two surveys of the rules of the major political parties and of the election laws of the fifty states and the District of Columbia are included relating to the selection of delegates to the national nominating conventions and to the nomination and election of electors of the President and Vice President. Abstracts of the laws relating to minor and new parties and independent candidates are also included in the surveys.

The information contained here is based on the federal and state laws in effect as of October 1, 1999. There have been many changes in the election laws of the states since the 1992 presidential election. Various state laws referred to in this document may have been amended subsequent to publication; similarly, political party constitutions, rules and delegates selection plans may also have been amended. Every effort has been made to provide the latest statutes, party rules and delegate selection plans.

The analysis of election laws and party rules was prepared by L. Paige Whitaker, Jack Maskell, Margaret M. Lee, Robert B. Burdette, John Contrubis, T.J. Halstead, Jon Skimabukuro, legislative attorneys, and paralegal Gloria P. Sugars, coordinator, of the American Law Division, Congressional Research Service, Library of Congress for the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration, under the supervision of Ellen M. Lazarus Deputy Assistant Director, and Richard C. Ehkle, Assistant Director of the American Law Division.

PART I. FEDERAL CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS AND LAWS GOVERNING THE ELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

A. United States Constitution

ARTICLE II—THE PRESIDENT

Section 1. The executive Power shall be vested in a President of the United States of America. He shall hold his Office during the Term of four Years, and, together with the Vice-President, chosen for the same Term, be elected, as follows: Each State shall appoint, in such Manner as the Legislature thereof may direct, a Number of Electors, equal to the whole Number of Senators and Representatives to which the State may be entitled in the Congress; but no Senator or Representative, or Person holding an Office of Trust or Profit under the United States, shall be appointed an Elector.

The Congress may determine the Time of choosing the Electors, and the Day on which they shall give their Votes; which Day shall be the same throughout the United States. No person except a natural born Citizen, or a Citizen of the United States, at the time of the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the Office of President; neither shall any Person be eligible to that Office who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty-five Years, and been fourteen Years a Resident within the United States.

AMENDMENT XII—PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS

The electors shall meet in their respective States and vote by ballot for President and Vice President, one of whom, at least, shall not be an inhabitant of the same State with themselves; they shall name in their ballots the person voted for as President, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as Vice President, and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as President, and of all persons voted for as Vice President, and of the number of votes for each, which lists they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the President of the Senate;—The President of the Senate shall, in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates and the votes shall then be counted;—The person having the greatest number of votes for President, shall be the President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of Electors appointed; and if no person have such majority; then from the persons having the highest numbers not exceeding three on the list of those voted for as President, the House of Representatives shall choose immediately, by ballot, the President. But in choosing the President, the votes shall be taken by States, the representation from each State having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the States, and a majority of all the States shall be necessary to a choice. And if the House of Representatives shall not choose a President whenever the right of choice shall devolve upon them, before the fourth day of March next following, then the Vice President shall act as President, as in the case of the death or other constitutional disability of the President. The person having the greatest number of votes as Vice President, shall be the Vice President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of Electors appointed, and if no person have a majority, then from the two highest numbers on the list, the Senate shall choose the Vice President; a quorum for the purpose shall consist of two-thirds of the whole number of Senators, and a majority of the whole number shall be necessary to a choice. But no person constitutionally ineligible to the office of President shall be eligible to that of Vice President of the United States.

AMENDMENT XX—COMMENCEMENT OF THE TERMS OF THE PRESIDENT, VICE PRESIDENT, AND MEMBERS OF CONGRESS

Section 1. The terms of the President and Vice President shall end at noon on the 20th day of January, and the terms of Senators and Representatives at noon on the 3d day of January, of the years in which such terms would have ended if this article had not been ratified; and the terms of their successors shall then begin.

Section 2. The Congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall begin at noon on the 3d day of January, and unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

Section 3. If, at the time fixed for the beginning of the term of the President, the President elect shall have died, the Vice President elect shall become President. If a President shall not have been chosen before the time fixed for the beginning of his term, or if the President elect shall have failed to qualify, then the Vice President elect shall act as President until a President shall have qualified; and the Congress may by law provide for the case wherein neither a President elect nor a Vice President elect shall have qualified, declaring who shall then act as President, or the manner in which one who is to act shall be selected, and such person shall act accordingly until a President or Vice President shall have qualified.

Section 4. The Congress may by law provide for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the House of Representatives may choose a President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them, and for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the Senate may choose a Vice President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them.

Section 5. Sections 1 and 2 shall take effect on the 15th day of October following the ratification of this article.

Section 6. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission.

AMENDMENT XXII—LIMITATION ON PRESIDENTIAL TERMS

Section 1. No person shall be elected to the office of the President more than twice, and no person who has held the office of President or acted as President, for more than two years of a term to which some other person was elected President shall be elected to the office of the President more than once. But this Article shall not apply to any person holding the office of President when this Article was proposed by the Congress, and shall not prevent any person who may be holding the office of President, or acting as President, during the term within which this Article becomes operative from holding the office of President or acting as President during the remainder of such term.

AMENDMENT XXIII—PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS FOR DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Section 1. The District constituting the seat of Government of the United States shall appoint in such manner as the Congress may direct:

A number of electors of President and Vice President equal to the whole number of Senators and Representatives in Congress to which the District would be entitled if it were a State, but in no event more than the least populous State; they shall be in addition to those appointed by the States, but they shall be considered, for the purposes of the election of President and Vice President, to be electors appointed by a State; and they shall meet in the District and perform such duties as provided by the twelfth article of amendment.

Section 2. The Congress shall have the power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

AMENDMENT XXIV—BAN ON POLL TAX

Section 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote in any primary or other election for President or Vice President, for electors for President or Vice President, or for Senator or Representative in Congress, shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any State by reason of failure to pay any poll tax or other tax.

Section 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

AMENDMENT XXV—SUCCESSION TO PRESIDENCY AND VICE PRESIDENCY: INABILITY OF PRESIDENT

Section 3. Whenever the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that he is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, and until he transmits to them a written declaration to the contrary, such powers and duties shall be discharged by the Vice President as Acting President.

Section 4. Whenever the Vice President and a majority of either the principal officers of the executive departments or of such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice President shall immediately assume the powers and duties of the office as Acting President. Thereafter, when the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that no inability exists, he shall resume the powers and duties of his office unless the Vice President and a majority of either the principal officers of the executive department or of such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit within four days to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office. Thereupon Congress shall decide the issue, assembling within forty-eight hours for that purpose if not in session. If the Congress, within twenty-one days after receipt of the latter written declaration, or, if Congress is not in session, within twenty-one days after Congress is required to assemble, determines by two-thirds vote of both Houses that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice President shall continue to discharge the same as Acting President; otherwise, the President shall resume the powers and duties of his office.

3 U.S.C. § 15. Counting Electoral Votes in Congress.

Congress shall be in session on the sixth day of January succeeding every meeting of the electors. The Senate and House of Representatives shall meet in the Hall of the House of Representatives at the hour of 1 o'clock in the afternoon on that day, and the President of the Senate shall be their presiding officer. Two tellers shall be previously appointed on the part of the Senate and two on the part of the House of Representatives, to whom shall be handed, as they are opened by the President of the Senate, all the certificates and papers purporting to be certificates of the electoral votes, which certificates and papers shall be opened, presented, and acted upon in the alphabetical order of the States, beginning with the letter A; and said tellers, having then read the same in the presence and hearing of the two Houses, shall make a list of the votes as they shall appear from the said certificates; and the votes having been ascertained and counted according to the rules of this subchapter provided, the result of the same shall be delivered to the President of the Senate, who shall thereupon announce the State of the vote, which announcement shall be deemed a sufficient declaration of the persons, if any, elected President and Vice President of the United States, and, together with a list of the votes, be entered on the Journals of the two Houses. Upon such reading of any such certificate or paper, the President of the Senate shall call for objections, if any. Every objection shall be made in writing, and shall state clearly and concisely, and without argument, the ground thereof, and shall be signed by at least one Senator and one Member of the House of Representatives before the same shall be received. When all objections so made to any vote or paper from a State shall have been received and read, the Senate shall thereupon withdraw, and such objections shall be submitted to the Senate for its decision; and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall, in like manner, submit such objections to the House of Representatives for its decision; and no electoral vote or votes from any State which shall have been regularly given by electors, whose appointment has been lawfully certified to according to section 6 of this title from which but one return has been received shall be rejected, but the two Houses concurrently may reject the vote or votes when they agree that such vote or votes have not been so regularly given by electors whose appointment has been so certified. If more than one return or paper purporting to be a return from a State shall have been received by the President of the Senate, those votes, and those only, shall be counted which shall have been regularly given by the electors who are shown by the determination mentioned in section 5 of this title to have been appointed, if the determination in said section provided for shall have been made, or by such successors or substitutes, in case of a vacancy in the board of electors so ascertained, as have been appointed to fill such vacancy in the mode provided by the laws of the State; but in case there shall arise the question which of two or more of such State authorities determining what electors have been appointed, as mentioned in section 5 of this title, is the lawful tribunal of such State, the votes regularly given of those electors, and those only, of such State shall be counted whose title as electors the two Houses, acting separately, shall concurrently decide is supported by the decision of such State so authorized by its law; and in such case of more than one return or paper purporting to be a return from a State, if there shall have been no such determination of the question in the State aforesaid, then those votes, and those only, shall be counted which the two Houses shall concurrently decide were cast by lawful electors appointed in accordance with the laws of the State, unless the two Houses, acting separately, shall concurrently decide such votes not to be the lawful votes of the legally appointed electors of such State. But if the two Houses shall disagree in respect of the counting of such votes, then, and in that case, the votes of the electors whose appointment shall have been certified by the executive of the State, under the seal thereof, shall be counted. When the two Houses have voted, they shall immediately again meet, and the presiding officer shall then announce the decision of the questions submitted. No votes or papers from any other State shall be acted upon until the objections previously made to the votes or papers from any State shall have been finally disposed of. (June 25, 1948, ch. 644, 62 Stat. 675.)

3 U.S.C. § 16. Same; Seats for Officers and Members of Two Houses in Joint Meeting.

At such joint meeting of the two Houses seats shall be provided as follows: For the President of the Senate the Speaker's chair; for the Speaker, immediately upon his left; the Senators, in the body of the Hall upon the right of the presiding officer; for the Representatives in the body of the Hall not provided for the Senators; for the tellers, Secretary of the Senate, and Clerk of the House of Representatives, at the Clerk's desk; for the other officers of the two Houses, in front of the Clerk's desk and upon each side of the Speaker's platform. Such joint meeting shall not be dissolved until the count of electoral votes shall be completed and the result declared; and no recess shall be taken unless a question shall have arisen in regard to counting any such votes, or otherwise under this subchapter, in which case it shall be competent for either House, acting separately, in the manner hereinbefore provided, to direct a recess of such House not beyond the next calendar day, Sunday excepted at the hour of 10'clock in the forenoon. C. Voting Rights Act Amendments of 1970—Residence Requirements (Title 42, United States Code)

CHAPTER 20.—ELECTIVE FRANCHISE

In 1970 Congress enacted the Voting Rights Act Amendments of 1970 (Pub.L. 91-285, 84 Stat. 314), which provided in title II, section 202 for the abolition of durational residency requirements for voting in presidential elections and required the States to provide for absentee registration and voting in presidential elections:

42 U.S.C § 1973aa-1. Residence Requirements for Voting.(a) Congressional findings.

The Congress hereby finds that the imposition and application of the durational residency requirement as a precondition to voting for the offices of President and Vice President, and the lack of sufficient opportunities for absentee registration and absentee balloting in presidential elections—

- (1) denies or abridges the inherent constitutional right of citizens to vote for their President and Vice President;
- (2) denies or abridges the inherent constitutional right of citizens to enjoy their free movement across State lines;
- (3) denies or abridges the privileges and immunities guaranteed to the citizens of each State under article IV, section 2, clause 1, of the Constitution;
- (4) in some instances has the impermissible purpose or effect of denying citizens the right to vote for such officers because of the way they may vote;
- (5) has the effect of denying to citizens the equality of civil rights, and due process and equal protection of the law that are guaranteed to them under the fourteenth amendment; and
- (6) does not bear a reasonable relationship to any compelling State interest in the conduct of presidential elections.

(b) Congressional declaration: durational residency requirement, abolishment; absentee registration and balloting standards, establishment.

Upon the basis of these findings, Congress declares that in order to secure and protect the above-stated rights of citizens under the Constitution, to enable citizens to better obtain the enjoyment of such rights, and to enforce the guarantees of the fourteenth amendment, it is necessary (1) to completely abolish the durational residency requirement as a precondition to voting for President and Vice President, and (2) to establish nationwide, uniform standards relative to absentee registration and absentee balloting in presidential elections.

(c) Prohibition of denial of rights to vote because of durational residency requirement or absentee balloting.

No citizen of the United States who is otherwise qualified to vote in any election for President and Vice President shall be denied the right to vote for electors for President and Vice President, or for President and Vice President, in such election because of the failure of such citizen to comply with any durational residency requirement of such State or political subdivision; nor shall any citizen of the United States be denied the right to vote for electors for President and Vice President, or for President and Vice President, in such election because of the failure of such citizen to be physically present in such State or political subdivision at the time of such election, if such citizen shall have complied with the requirements prescribed by the law of such State or political subdivision providing for the casting of absentee ballots in such election.

(d) Registration: time for application; absentee balloting; time of application and return of ballots.

For the purposes of this section, each State shall provide by law for the registration or other means of qualification of all duly qualified residents of such State who apply, not later than thirty days immediately prior to any presidential election, for registration or qualification to vote for the choice of electors for President and Vice President in such election; and each State shall provide by law for the casting of absentee ballots for the choice of electors for President and Vice President, or for President and Vice President, by all duly qualified residents of such State who may be absent from their election district or unit in such State on the day such election is held and who have applied therefor not later than seven days immediately prior to such election and have returned such ballots to the appropriate election official of such State not later than the time of closing of the polls in such State on the day of such election.

(e) Change of residence; voting in person or by absentee ballot in State of prior residence.

If any citizen of the United States who is otherwise qualified to vote in any State or political subdivision in any election for President and Vice President has begun residence in such State or political subdivision after the thirtieth day next preceding such election and, for that reason, does not satisfy the registration requirements of such State or political subdivision he shall be allowed to vote for the choice of electors for President and Vice President, or for President and Vice President, in such election, (1) in person in the State or political subdivision in which he resided immediately prior to his removal if he had satisfied, as of the date of his change of residence, the requirements to vote in that State or political subdivision, or (2) by absentee ballot in the State or political subdivision in which he resided immediately prior to his removal if he satisfies, but his nonresident status and the reason for his absence, the requirements for absentee voting in that State or political subdivision.

(f) Absentee registration requirement.

No citizen of the United States who is otherwise qualified to vote by absentee ballot in any State or political subdivision in any election for President and Vice President shall be denied the right to vote for the choice of electors for President and Vice President, or for President and Vice President, in such election because of any requirement of registration that does not include a provision for absentee registration.

(g) State or local adoption of less restrictive voting practices.

Nothing in this section shall prevent any State or political subdivision from adopting less restrictive voting practices than those that are prescribed herein.

(h) Definition of "State".

The term "State" as used in this section includes each of the several States and the District of Columbia.

(i) False registration, and other fraudulent acts and conspiracies: application of penalty for false information in registering or voting.

The provisions of section 1973i(c) of this title shall apply to false registration, and other fraudulent acts and conspiracies, committed under this section.

2 U.S.C. § 437g. Enforcement.

(a) Administrative and judicial practice and procedure.

(1) Any person who believes a violation of this Act or of chapter 95 or chapter 96 of title 26, has occurred, may file a complaint with the Commission. Such complaint shall be in writing, signed and sworn to by the person filing such complaint, shall be notarized, and shall be made under penalty of perjury and subject to the provisions of section 1001 of title 18, United States Code. Within 5 days after receipt of a complaint, the Commission shall notify, in writing, any person alleged in the complaint to have committed such a violation. Before the Commission conducts any vote on the complaint, other than a vote to dismiss, any person so notified shall have the opportunity to demonstrate in writing to the Commission within 15 days after notification that no action should be taken against such person on the basis of the complaint. The Commission may not conduct any investigation or take any other action under this section solely on the basis of a complaint of a person whose identity is not disclosed to the Commission.

(2) If the Commission, upon receiving a complaint under paragraph (1) or on the basis of information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, determines, by an affirmative vote of 4 of its members, that it has reason to believe that a person has committed, or is about to commit, a violation of this Act of chapter 95 or chapter 96 of title 26, the Commission shall, through its chairman or vice chairman, notify the person of the alleged violation. Such notification shall set forth the factual basis for such alleged violation. The Commission shall make an investigation of such alleged violation, which may include a field investigation or audit, in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(3) The general counsel of the Commission shall notify the respondent of any recommendation to the Commission by the general counsel to proceed to a vote on probable cause pursuant to paragraph (4)(A)(i). With such notification, the general counsel shall include a brief stating the position of the general counsel on the legal and factual issues of the case. Within 15 days of receipt of such brief, respondent may submit a brief stating the position of such respondent on the legal and factual issues of the case, and replying to the brief of general counsel. Such briefs shall be filed with the Secretary of the Commission and shall be considered by the Commission before proceeding under paragraph (4).

(4)(A)(i) Except as provided in clause (ii), if the Commission determines, by an affirmative vote of 4 of its members, that there is probable cause to believe that any person has committed, or is about to commit, a violation of this Act or of chapter 95 or chapter 96 of title 26, the Commission shall attempt, for a period of at least 30 days, to correct or prevent such violation by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and persuasion, and to enter into a conciliation agreement with any person involved. Such attempt by the Commission to correct or prevent such violation may continue for a period of not more than 90 days. The Commission may not enter into a conciliation agreement under this clause except pursuant to an affirmative vote of 4 of its members. A conciliation agreement, unless violated, is a complete bar to any further action by the Commission, including the bringing of a civil proceeding under paragraph (6)(A).

(ii) If any determination of the Commission under clause (i) occurs during the 45-day period immediately preceding any election, then the Commission shall attempt, for a period of at least 15 days, to correct or prevent the violation involved by the methods specified in clause (i).

(B)(i) No action by the Commission or any person, and no information derived, in connection with any conciliation attempt by the Commission under subparagraph (A) may be made public by the Commission without the written consent of the respondent and the Commission.

(ii) If a conciliation agreement is agreed upon by the Commission and the respondent, the Commission shall make public any conciliation agreement signed by both the Commission and the respondent. If the Commission makes a determination that a person has not violated this Act or chapter 95 or chapter 96 of title 26 the Commission shall make public such determination.

(5)(A) If the Commission believes that a violation of this Act or of chapter 95 or chapter 96 of title 26 has been committed, a conciliation agreement entered into by the Commission under paragraph (4)(A) may include a requirement that the person involved in such conciliation agreement shall pay a civil penalty which does not exceed the greater of $5,000 or an amount equal to any contribution or expenditure involved in such violation.

(B) If the Commission believes that a knowing and willful violation of this Act or of chapter 95 or chapter 96 of title 26 has been committed, a conciliation agreement entered into by the Commission under paragraph (4)(A) may require that the person involved in such conciliation agreement shall pay a civil penalty which does not exceed the greater of $10,000 or an amount equal to 200 percent of any contribution or expenditure involved in such violation.

(C) If the Commission by an affirmative vote of 4 of its members, determines that there is probable cause to believe that a knowing and willful violation of this Act which is subject to subsection (d) of this section, or a knowing and willful violation of chapter 95 or chapter 96, has occurred or is about to occur, it may refer such apparent violation to the Attorney General of the United States without regard to any limitations set forth in paragraph (4)(A).

(D) In any case in which a person has entered into a conciliation agreement with the Commission under paragraph (4)(A), the Commission may institute a civil action for relief under paragraph (6)(A) if it believes that the person has violated any provision of such conciliation agreement. For the Commission to obtain relief in any civil action, the Commission need only establish that the person has violated, in whole or in part, any requirement of such conciliation agreement.

(6)(A) If the Commission is unable to correct or prevent any violation of this Act or of chapter 95 or chapter 96 of title 26, by the methods specified in paragraph (4)(A), the Commission may, upon an affirmative vote of 4 of its members, institute a civil action for relief, including a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or any other appropriate order (including an order for a civil penalty which does not exceed the greater of $5,000 or an amount equal to any contribution or expenditure involved in such violation) in the district court of the United States for the district in which the person against whom such action is brought is found, resides, or transacts business.

(B) In any civil action instituted by the Commission under subparagraph (A), the court may grant a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other order, including a civil penalty which does not exceed the greater of $5,000 or an amount equal to any contribution or expenditure involved in such violation, or is about to commit (if the relief sought is a permanent or temporary injunction or a restraining order), a violation of this Act or chapter 95 or chapter 96 of title 26.

(C) In any civil action for relief instituted by the Commission under subparagraph (A), if the court determines that the Commission has established that the person involved in such civil action has committed a knowing and willful violation of this Act or of chapter 95 or chapter 96 of title 26, the court may impose a civil penalty which does not exceed the greater of $10,000 or an amount equal to 200 percent of any contribution or expenditure involved in such violation.

(7) In any action brought under paragraph (5) or (6), subpoenas for witnesses who are required to attend a United States district court may run into any other district.

(8)(A) Any party aggrieved by an order of the Commission dismissing a complaint filed by such party under paragraph (1), or by a failure of the Commission to act on such complaint during the 120-day period beginning on the date the complaint is filed, may file a petition with the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

(B) Any petition under subparagraph (A) shall be filed, in the case of a dismissal of a complaint by the Commission, within 60 days after the date of the dismissal.

(C) In any proceeding under this paragraph the court may declare that the dismissal of the complaint or the failure to act is contrary to law, and may direct the Commission to conform with such declaration within 30 days, failing which the complainant may bring, in the name of such complainant, a civil action to remedy the violation involved in the original complaint.

(9) Any judgment of a district court under this subsection may be appealed to the court of appeals, and the judgment of the court of appeals affirming or setting aside, in whole or in part, any such order of the district court shall be final, subject to review by the Supreme Court of the United States upon certiorari or certification as provided in section 1254 of title 28, United States Code.

(10) [Repealed]

(11) If the Commission determines after an investigation that any person has violated an order of the court entered in a proceeding brought under paragraph (6), it may petition the court for an order to hold such person in civil contempt, but if it believes the violation to be knowing and willful it may petition the court for an order to hold such person in criminal contempt.

(12)(A) Any notification or investigation made under this section shall not be made public by the Commission or by any person without the written consent of the person receiving such notification or the person with respect to whom such investigation is made.

(B) Any member or employee of the Commission, or any other person, who violates the provisions of subparagraph (A) shall be fined not more than $2,000. Any such member, employee, or other person who knowingly and willfully violates the provisions of subparagraph (A) shall be fined not more than $5,000.

(b) Notice to persons not filing reports prior to institution of enforcement action; publication of identity of persons and unfiled reports.

Before taking any action under subsection (a) of this section against any person who has failed to file a report required under section 434(a)(2)(A)(iii) of this title for the calendar quarter immediately preceding the election involved, or in accordance with section 434(a)(2)(A)(i), the Commission shall notify the person of such failure to file the required reports. If a satisfactory response is not received within 4 business days after the date of notification, the Commission shall, pursuant to section 438(a)(7) of this title, publish before the election the name of the person and the report or reports such person has failed to file.

(c) Reports by Attorney General of apparent violation.

Whenever the Commission refers an apparent violation to the Attorney General, the Attorney General shall report to the Commission any action taken by the Attorney General regarding the apparent violation. Each report shall be transmitted within 60 days after the date the Commission refers an apparent violation, and every 30 days thereafter until the final disposition of the apparent violation.

(d) Penalties; defenses; mitigation of offenses.

(1)(A) Any person who knowingly and willfully commits a violation of any provision of this Act which involves the making, receiving, or reporting of any contribution or expenditure aggregating $2,000 or more during a calendar year shall be fined, or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. The amount of this fine shall not exceed the greater of $25,000 or 300 percent of any contribution or expenditure involved in such violation.

(B) In the case of a knowing and willful violation of section 441b(b)(3), the penalties set forth in this subsection shall apply to a violation involving an amount aggregating $250 or more during a calendar year. Such violation of section 441b(b)(3) may incorporate a violation of section 441c(b), 441f or 441g of this title.

(C) In the case of a knowing and willful violation of section 441h of this title, the penalties set forth in this subsection shall apply without regard to whether the making, receiving, or reporting of a contribution or expenditure of $1,000 or more is involved.

(2) In any criminal action brought for a violation of any provision of this Act or of chapter 95 or chapter 96 of title 26, any defendant may evidence their lack of knowledge or intent to commit the alleged violation by introducing as evidence a conciliation agreement entered into between the defendant and the Commission under subsection (a)(4)(A) which specifically deals with the act or failure to act constituting such violation and which is still in effect.

(3) In any criminal action brought for a violation of any provision of this Act or chapter 95 or chapter 96 of title 26, the court before which such action is brought shall take into account, in weighing the seriousness of the violation and in considering the appropriateness of the penalty to be imposed if the defendant is found guilty, whether—

(A) the specific act or failure to act which constitutes the violation for which the action was brought is the subject of a conciliation agreement entered into between the defendant and the Commission under subparagraph (a)(4)(A);

(B) the conciliation agreement is in effect; and

(C) the defendant is, with respect to the violation involved, in compliance with the conciliation agreement.

2 U.S.C. § 438. Administrative Provisions.

(a) Duties of Commission.

The Commission shall—

- (1) prescribe forms necessary to implement this Act;
- (2) prepare, publish, and furnish to all persons required to file reports and statements under this Act a manual recommending uniform methods of bookkeeping and reporting;
- (3) develop a filing, coding, and cross-indexing system consistent with the purposes of this Act;
- (4) within 48 hours after the time of the receipt by the Commission of reports and statements filed with it, make them available for public inspection, and copying, at the expense of the person requesting such copying, except that any information copied from such reports or statements may not be sold or used by any person for the purpose of soliciting contributions or for commercial purposes, other than using the name and address of any political committee to solicit contributions from such committee. A political committee may submit 10 pseudonyms on each report filed in order to protect against the illegal use of names and addresses of contributors, provided such committee attaches a list of such pseudonyms to the appropriate report. The Secretary or the Commission shall exclude these lists from the public record;
- (5) keep such designations, reports, and statements for a period of 10 years from the date of receipt, except that designations, reports, and statements that relate solely to candidates for the House of Representatives shall be kept for 5 years from the date of their receipt;

(6)(A) compile and maintain a cumulative index of designations, reports, and statements filed under this Act, which index shall be published at regular intervals and made available for purchase directly or by mail;

(B) compile, maintain, and revise a separate cumulative index of reports and statements filed by multi-candidate committees, including in such index a list of multi-candidate committees; and

(C) compile and maintain a list of multi-candidate committees, which shall be revised and made available monthly;

(7) prepare and publish periodically lists of authorized committees which fail to file reports as required by this Act;

(8) prescribe rules, regulations, and forms to carry out the provisions of this Act, in accordance with the provisions of subsection (d) of this section;

(9) transmit to the President and to each House of the Congress no later than June 1 of each year, a report which states in detail the activities of the Commission in carrying out its duties under this Act, and any recommendations for any legislative or other action the Commission considers appropriate; and

(10) serve as a national clearinghouse for the compilation of information and review of procedures with respect to the administration of Federal elections. The Commission may enter into contracts for the purpose of conducting studies under this paragraph. Reports or studies made under this paragraph shall be available to the public upon the payment of the cost thereof, except that copies shall be made available without cost, upon request, to agencies and branches of the Federal Government.

(b) Audits and field investigations.

The Commission may conduct audits and field investigations of any political committee required to file a report under section 434 of this title. All audits and field investigations concerning the verification for, and receipt and use of, any payments received by a candidate or committee under chapter 95 or chapter 96 of title 26 shall be given priority. Prior to conducting any audit under this subsection, the Commission shall perform an internal review of reports filed by selected committees to determine if the reports filed by a particular committee meet the threshold requirements for substantial compliance with the Act. Such thresholds for compliance shall be established by the Commission. The Commission may, upon an affirmative vote of 4 of its members, conduct an audit and field investigation of any committee which does meet the threshold commenced within 30 days of such vote, except that any audit of an authorized committee of a candidate, under the provisions of this subsection, shall be commenced within 6 months of the election for which such committee is authorized.

(c) Statutory provisions applicable to forms and information-gathering activities.

Any forms prescribed by the Commission under subsection (a)(1) of this section, and any information-gathering activities of the Commission under this Act, shall not be subject to the provisions of section 3512 of title 44, United States Code.

(d) Rules, regulations, or forms; issuance, procedures applicable, etc.

(1) Before prescribing any rule, regulation, or form under this section or any other provision of this Act, the Commission shall transmit a statement with respect to such rule, regulation, or form to the Senate and the House of Representatives, in accordance with this subsection. Such statement shall set forth the proposed rule, regulation, or form, and shall contain a detailed explanation and justification of it.

(2) If either House of the Congress does not disapprove by resolution any proposed rule or regulation submitted by the Commission under this section within 30 legislative days after the date of the receipt of such proposed rule or regulation or within 10 legislative days after the date of receipt of such proposed form, the Commission may prescribe such rule, regulation, or form.

(3) For purposes of this subsection, the term “legislative day” means, with respect to statements transmitted to the Senate, any calendar day on which the Senate is in session, and with respect to statements transmitted to the House of Representatives, any calendar day on which the House of Representatives is in session.

(4) For purposes of this subsection, the terms “rule” and “regulation” mean a provision or series of interrelated provisions stating a single, separable rule of law.

(5)(A) A motion to discharge a committee of the Senate from the consideration of a resolution relating to any such rule, regulation, or form or a motion to proceed to the consideration of such a resolution, is highly privileged and shall be decided without debate.

(B) Whenever a committee of the House of Representatives reports any resolution relating to any such form, rule or regulation, it is at any time thereafter in order (even though a previous motion to the same effect has been disagreed to) to move to proceed to the consideration of the resolution. The motion is highly privileged and is not debatable. An amendment to the motion is not in order, and is not in order to move to reconsider the vote by which the motion is agreed to or disagreed with.

(e) Scope of protection for good faith reliance upon rules or regulations.

2 U.S.C. § 441a. Limitations on Contributions and Expenditures.

(a) Dollar limits on contributions.

(1) No person shall make contributions—

(A) to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election for Federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1,000;

(B) to the political committees established and maintained by a national political party, which are not the authorized political committees of any candidate, in any calendar year, which, in the aggregate, exceed $20,000; or

(C) to any other political committee in any calendar year which, in the aggregate, exceed $5,000.

(2) No multicandidate political committee shall make contributions—

(A) to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election for Federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $5,000;

(B) to the political committees established and maintained by a national political party, which are not the authorized political committees of any candidate, in any calendar year, which, in the aggregate, exceed $15,000; or

(C) to any other political committee in any calendar year which, in the aggregate, exceed $5,000.

(3) No individual shall make contributions aggregating more than $25,000 in any calendar year. For purposes of this paragraph, any contribution made to a candidate in a year other than the calendar year in which the election is held with respect to which such contribution is made, is considered to be made during the calendar year in which such election is held.

(4) The limitations on contributions contained in paragraphs (1) and (2) do not apply to transfers between and among political committees which are national, State, direct, or local committees (including any subordinate committee thereof) of the same political party. For purposes of paragraph (2), the term “multicandidate political committee” means a political committee which has been registered under section 433 of this title for a period of not less than 6 months, which has received contributions from more than 50 persons, and except for any State political party organization, has made contributions to 5 or more candidates for Federal office.

(5) For purposes of the limitations provided by paragraph (1) and paragraph (2), all contributions made by political committees established or financed or maintained or controlled by any corporation, labor organization, or any other person, including any patent, subsidiary, branch, division, department, or local unit of such corporation, labor organization, or any other person, or by any group of such persons, shall be considered to have been made by a single political committee, except that (A) nothing in this sentence shall limit transfers between political committees of funds raised through joint fund raising efforts; (B) for purposes of the limitations provided by paragraph (1) and paragraph (2) all contributions made by a single political committee established or financed or maintained or controlled by a national committee of a political party and by a single political committee established or financed or maintained or controlled by the State committee of a political party shall not be considered to have been made by a single political committee; and (C) nothing in this section shall limit the transfer of funds between the principal campaign committee of a candidate seeking nomination or election to a Federal office and the principal campaign committee of that candidate for nomination or election to another Federal office if (i) such transfer is not made when the candidate is actively seeking nomination or election to both such offices; (ii) the limitations contained in this Act on contributions by persons are not exceeded by such transfer; and (iii) the candidate has not elected to receive any funds under chapter 95 or chapter 96 of title 26. In any case in which a corporation and any of its subsidiaries, branches, divisions, departments, or local units, or a labor organization and any of its subsidiaries, branches, divisions, departments, or local units establish or finance or maintain or control more than one separate segregated fund for purposes of the limitations provided by paragraph (1) and paragraph (2).

(6) The limitations on contributions to a candidate imposed by paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection shall apply separately with respect to each election, except that all elections held in any calendar year for office of President of the United States (except a general election for such office) shall be considered to be one election.

(7) For the purposes of this subsection—

(A) contributions to a named candidate made to any political committee authorized by such candidate to accept contributions on his behalf shall be considered to be contributions made to such candidate;

(B)(i) expenditures made by any person in cooperation, consultation, or concert, with, or at the request or suggestion of, a candidate, his authorized political committees, or their agents, shall be considered to be a contribution to such candidate;

(ii) the financing by any person of the dissemination, distribution, or republication, in whole or in part, of any broadcast or any written, graphic, or other form of campaign materials prepared by the candidate, his campaign committees, or their authorized agents shall be considered to be an expenditure for purposes of this paragraph; and

(C) contributions made to or for the benefit of any candidate nominated by a political party for election to the office of Vice President of the United States shall be considered to be contributions made to or for the benefit of the candidate of such party for election to the office of President of the United States.

(8) For purposes of the limitations imposed by this section, all contributions made by a person, either directly or indirectly, on behalf of a particular candidate, including contributions which are in any way earmarked or otherwise directed through an intermediary or conduit to such candidate, shall be treated as contributions from such person to such candidate. The intermediary or conduit shall report the original source and the intended recipient of such contribution to the Commission and to the intended recipient.

(b) Dollar limits on expenditures by candidates for office of President of the United States.

(1) No candidate for the office of President of the United States who is eligible under section 9003 of title 26 (relating to condition for eligibility for payments) or under section 9033 of title 26 (relating to eligibility for payments) to receive payments from the Secretary of the Treasury may make expenditures in excess of—

(A) $10,000,000, in the case of a campaign for nomination for election to such office, except that the aggregate of expenditures under this subparagraph in any one State shall not exceed the greater of 16 cents multiplied by the voting age population of the State (as certified under subsection (e) of this section), or $200,000; or

(B) $20,000,000 in the case of a campaign for election to such office.

(2) For purposes of this subsection—

(A) expenditures made by or on behalf of any candidate nominated by a political party for election to the office of Vice President of the United States shall be considered to be expenditures made by or on behalf of the candidate of such party for election to the office of President of the United States; and

(B) an expenditure is made on behalf of a candidate, including a vice presidential candidate, if it is made by—

(i) an authorized committee or any other agent of the candidate for purposes of making any expenditure; or

(ii) any person authorized or requested by the candidate, an authorized committee of the candidate, or an agent of the candidate, to make the expenditure.

(1) At the beginning of each calendar year (commencing in 1976), as there become available necessary data from the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the Department of Labor, the Secretary of Labor shall certify to the Commission and publish in the Federal Register the percent difference between the price index for the 12 months preceding the beginning of such calendar year and the price index for the base period. Each limitation established by subsection (b) of this section and subsection (d) of this section shall be increased by such percent difference. Each amount so increased shall be the amount in effect for such calendar year.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1)—

(A) the term “price index” means the average over a calendar year of the Consumer Price Index (all items—United States city average) published monthly by the Bureau of Labor Statistics; and

(B) the term “base period” means the calendar year 1974.

(d) Expenditures by national committee, State committee, or subordinate committee of State committee in connection with general election campaign of candidates for Federal office.

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law with respect to limitations on expenditures or limitations on contributions, the national committee of a political party and a State committee of a political party, including any subordinate committee of a State committee may make expenditures in connection with the general election campaign of candidates for Federal office, subject to the limitations contained in paragraphs (2) and (3) of this subsection.

(2) The national committee of a political party may not make any expenditure in connection with the general election campaign of any candidate for President of the United States who is affiliated with such party which exceeds an amount equal to 2 cents multiplied by the voting age population of the United States (as certified under subsection (e) of this section). Any expenditure under this paragraph shall be in addition to any expenditure by a national committee of a political party serving as the principal campaign committee of a candidate for the office of President of the United States.

(3) The national committee of a political party, or a State committee of a political party, including any subordinate committee of a State committee, may not make any expenditure in connection with the general election campaign of a candidate for Federal office in a State who is affiliated with such party which exceeds—

(A) in the case of a candidate for election to the office of Senator, or of Representative from a State which is entitled to only one Representative, the greater of—

(i) 2 cents multiplied by the voting age population of the State (as certified under subsection (e) of this section); or

(ii) $20,000; and

(B) in the case of a candidate for election to the office of Representative, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner in any other State, $10,000.

(e) Certification and publication of estimated voting age population.

During the first week of January 1975, and every subsequent year, the Secretary of Commerce shall certify to the Commission and publish in the Federal Register an estimate of the voting age population of the United States, of each State, and of each congressional district as of the first day of July next preceding the date of certification. The “voting age population” means resident population, 18 years of age or older.

(f) Prohibited contributions and expenditures.

No candidate or political committee shall knowingly accept any contribution or make any expenditure in violation of the provisions of this section. No officer or employee of a political committee shall knowingly accept a contribution made for the benefit or use of a candidate, or knowingly make any expenditure on behalf of a candidate, in violation of any limitation imposed on contributions and expenditures under this section.

(g) Attribution of multi-state expenditures to candidate's expenditures limitation in each State.

The Commission shall prescribe rules under which any expenditure by a candidate for presidential nominations for use in 2 or more States shall be attributed to such candidate's expenditure limitation in each such State, based on the voting age population in such State which can reasonably be expected to be influenced by such expenditure.

(h) Senatorial candidates.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, amounts totaling not more than $17,500 may be contributed to a candidate for nomination for election, or for election, to the United States Senate during the year in which an election is held in which he is such a candidate, by the Republican or Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, or the national committee of a political party, or any combination of such committees.

2 U.S.C. §441b. Contributions or Expenditures by National Banks, Corporations, or Labor Organizations.

(a) It is unlawful for any national bank, or any corporation organized by authority of any law of Congress, to make a contribution or expenditure in connection with any election to any political office, or in connection with any primary election or political convention or caucus held to select candidates for any political office, or for any corporation whatever, or any labor organization, to make a contribution or expenditure in connection with any election at which Presidential and vice presidential electors or a Senator or Representative in, or a Delegate or Resident Commissioner to, Congress are to be voted for, or in connection with any primary election or political convention or caucus held to select candidates for any of the foregoing offices, or for any candidate, political committee, or other person knowingly to accept or receive any contribution prohibited by this section, or any officer or any director of any corporation or any national bank or any officer of any labor organization to consent to any contribution or expenditure by the corporation, national bank, or labor organization, as the case may be, prohibited by this section.

(2) For purposes of this section and section 79(h) of title 15, the term "contribution or expenditure" shall include any direct or indirect payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift of money, or any services, or anything of value (except a loan of money by a national or State bank made in accordance with the applicable banking laws and regulations and in the ordinary course of business) to any candidate, campaign committee, or political party or organization, in connection with any election to any of the offices referred to in this section, but shall not include (A) communications by a corporation to its stockholders and executive or administrative personnel and their families or by a labor organization to its members and their families on any subject; (B) non-partisan registration and get-out-the-vote campaigns by a corporation aimed at its stockholders and executive or administrative personnel and their families, or by a labor organization aimed at its members and their families; and (C) the establishment, administration, and solicitation of contributions to a separate segregated fund to be utilized for political purposes by a corporation, labor organization, membership organization, cooperative, or corporation without capital stock.

(3) It shall be unlawful—

(A) for such a fund to make a contribution or expenditure by utilizing money or anything of value secured by physical force, job discrimination, financial reprisals, or the threat of force, job discrimination, or financial reprisal; or by dues, fees, or other moneys required as a condition of membership in a labor organization or as a condition of employment, or by moneys obtained in any commercial transaction;

(B) For any person soliciting an employee for a contribution to such a fund to fail to inform such employee of the political purposes of such fund at the time of such solicitation; and

(C) for any person soliciting an employee for a contribution to such a fund to fail to inform such employee, at the time of such solicitation, of his right to refuse to so contribute without any reprisal.

A solicitation under this subparagraph may be made only by mail addressed to stockholders, executive or administrative personnel, or employees at their residence and shall be so designed that the corporation, labor organization, or separate segregated fund conducting such solicitation cannot determine who makes a contribution of $50 or less as a result of such solicitation and who does not make such a contribution.

(C) This paragraph shall not prevent a membership organization, cooperative, or corporation without capital stock, or a separate segregated fund established by a membership organization, cooperative, or corporation without capital stock, from soliciting contributions to such a fund from members of such organization, cooperative, or corporation without capital stock.

(D) This paragraph shall not prevent a trade association or a separate segregated fund established by a trade association from soliciting contributions from the stockholders and executive or administrative personnel of the member corporations of such trade association and the families of such stockholders or personnel to the extent that such solicitation of such stockholders and personnel, and their families, has been separately and specifically approved by the member corporation involved, and such member corporation does not approve any such solicitation by more than one trade association in any calendar year.

(5) Notwithstanding any other law, any method of soliciting voluntary contributions or of facilitating the making of voluntary contributions to a separate segregated fund established by a corporation, permitted by law to corporations with regard to stockholders and executive or administrative personnel, shall also be permitted to labor organizations with regard to their members.

(6) Any corporation, including its subsidiaries, branches, divisions, and affiliates, that utilizes a method of soliciting voluntary contributions or facilitating the making of voluntary contributions, shall make available such method, on written request and at a cost sufficient only to reimburse the corporation for the expenses incurred thereby, to a labor organization representing any members working for such corporation, its subsidiaries, branches, divisions, and affiliates.

(7) For purposes of this section, the term "executive or administrative personnel" means individuals employed by a corporation who are paid on a salary, rather than hourly, basis and who have policy-making managerial, professional, or supervisory responsibilities.

(a) Within thirty days of assuming the position of an officer or employee described in subsection (f), an individual shall file a report containing the information described in section 102(b) [5 U.S.C. App. § 102(b)] unless the individual has left another position described in subsection (f) within thirty days prior to assuming such new position or has already filed a report under this title [5 U.S.C. App. §§ 101 et seq.] with respect to nomination for the new position or as a candidate for the position.

(b)(1) Within five days of the transmittal by the President to the Senate of the nomination of an individual (other than an individual nominated for appointment to a position as a Foreign Service Officer or a grade or rank in the uniformed services for which the pay grade prescribed by section 201 of title 37, United States Code, is O-6 or below) to a position, appointment to which requires the advice and consent of the Senate, such individual shall file a report containing the information described in section 102(b) [5 U.S.C. App. § 102(b)]. Such individual shall, not later than the date of the first hearing to consider the nomination of such individual, make current the report filed pursuant to this paragraph by filing the information required by section 102(a)(1)(A) [5 U.S.C. App. § 102(a)(1)(A)] with respect to income and honoraria received as of the date which occurs five days before the date of such hearing. (2) An individual whom the President or the President-elect has publicly announced he intends to nominate to a position may file the report required by paragraph (1) at any time after that public announcement, but not later than is required under the first sentence of such paragraph.

App. § 102(b)]. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, in any calendar year in which an individual continues to be a candidate for any office but all elections for such office relating to such candidacy were held in prior calendar years, such individual need not file a report unless he becomes a candidate for another vacancy in that office or another office during that year.

(d) Any individual who is an officer or employee described in subsection (f) during any calendar year and performs the duties of his position or office for a period in excess of sixty days in that calendar year shall file on or before May 15 of the succeeding year a report containing the information described in section 102(a) [5 U.S.C. - (5) any employee not described in paragraph (3) who is in a position in the executive branch which is excepted from the competitive service by reason of being of a confidential or policymaking character, except that the Director of the Office of Government Ethics may, by regulation, exclude from the application of this paragraph any individual, or group of individuals, who are in such positions, but only in cases in which the Director determines such exclusion would not affect adversely the integrity of the Government or the public's confidence in the integrity of the Government;
- (6) the Postmaster General, the Deputy Postmaster General, each Governor of the Board of Governors of the United States Postal Service and each officer or employee of the United States Postal Service or Postal Rate Commission who occupies a position for which the rate of basic pay is equal to or greater than 120 percent of the minimum rate of basic pay payable for GS-15 of the General Schedule;
- (7) the Director of the Office of Government Ethics and each designated agency ethics official;

(8) any civilian employee not described in paragraph (3), employed in the Executive Office of the President (other than a special government employee) who holds a commission of appointment from the President;

(10) an officer or employee of the Congress as defined under section 109(13) [5 U.S.C. App. § 109(13)];

(11) a judicial officer as defined under section 109(10) [5 U.S.C. App. § 109(10)]; and

(12) a judicial employee as defined under section 109(8) [5 U.S.C. App. § 109(8)].

(g)(1) Reasonable extensions of time for filing any report may be granted under procedures prescribed by the supervising ethics office for each branch, but the total of such extensions shall not exceed ninety days.

(2)(A) In the case of an individual who is serving in the Armed Forces, or serving in support of the Armed Forces in an area while that area is designated by the President by Executive order as a combat zone for purposes of section 112 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the date for the filing of any report shall be extended so that the date is 180 days after the later of—

(i) the last day of the individual's service in such area during such designated period; or

(ii) the last day of the individual's hospitalization as a result of injury received or disease contracted while serving in such area.

(B) The Office of Government Ethics, in consultation with the Secretary of Defense, may prescribe procedures under this paragraph.

(h) The provisions of subsections (a), (b), and (e) shall not apply to an individual who, as determined by the designated agency ethics official or Secretary concerned (or in the case of a Presidential appointee under subsection (b), the Director of the Office of Government Ethics), the congressional ethics committees, or the Judicial Conference, is not reasonably expected to perform the duties of his office or position for more than sixty days in a calendar year, except that if such individual performs the duties of his office or position for more than sixty days in a calendar year—

(1) the report required by subsections (a) and (b) shall be filed within fifteen days of the sixtieth day, and

(2) the report required by subsection (e) shall be filed as provided in such subsection.

(i) The supervising ethics office for each branch may grant a publicly available request for a waiver of any reporting requirement under this section for an individual who is expected to perform or has performed the duties of his office or position less than one hundred and thirty days in a calendar year, but only if the supervising ethics office determines that—

(1) such individual is not a full-time employee of the Government,

(2) such individual is able to provide services specially needed by the Government,

(3) it is unlikely that the individual's outside employment or financial interests will create a conflict of interest, and

(4) public financial disclosure by such individual is not necessary in the circumstances.

(2)(A) The identity of the source, a brief description, and the value of all gifts aggregating more than the minimal value as established by section 7342(a)(5) of title 5, United States Code, or $250, whichever is greater, received from any source other than a relative of the reporting individual during the preceding calendar year, except that any food, lodging, or entertainment received as personal hospitality of an individual need not be reported, and any gift with a fair market value of $100 or less, as adjusted at the same time and by the same percentage as the minimal value is adjusted, need not be aggregated for purposes of this subparagraph.

(B) The identity of the source and a brief description (including a travel itinerary, dates, and nature of expenses provided) of reimbursements received from any source aggregating more than the minimal value as established by section 7342(a)(5) of title 5, United States Code, or $250, whichever is greater and received during the preceding calendar year.

(B) any loan secured by a personal motor vehicle, household furniture, or appliances, which loan does not exceed the purchase price of the item which secures it.

With respect to revolving charge accounts, only those with an outstanding liability which exceeds $10,000 as of the close of the preceding calendar year need be reported under this paragraph.

(5) Except as provided in this paragraph, a brief description, the date, and category of value of any purchase, sale or exchange during the preceding calendar year which exceeds $1,000—

(A) in real property, other than property used solely as a personal residence of the reporting individual or his spouse; or
(B) in stocks, bonds, commodities futures, and other forms of securities.

Reporting is not required under this paragraph of any transaction solely by and between the reporting individual, his spouse, or dependent children.

(6)(A) The identity of all positions held on or before the date of filing during the current calendar year (and, for the first report filed by an individual, during the two-year period preceding such calendar year) as an officer, director, trustee, partner, proprietor, representative, employee, or consultant of any corporation, company, firm, partnership, or other business enterprise, any nonprofit organization, any labor organization, or any educational or other institution other than the United States. This subparagraph shall not require the reporting of positions held in any religious, social, fraternal, or political entity and positions solely of an honorary nature.

(B) If any person, other than the United States Government, paid a nonelected reporting individual compensation in excess of $5,000 in any of the two calendar years prior to the calendar year during which the individual files his first report under this title [5 U.S.C. App. § 101 et seq.], the individual shall include in the report—

- (i) the identity of each source of such compensation; and
- (ii) a brief description of the nature of the duties performed or services rendered by the reporting individual for each such source.

The preceding sentence shall not require any individual to include in such report any information which is considered confidential as a result of a privileged relationship, established by law, between such individual and any person nor shall it require an individual to report any information with respect to any person for whom services were provided by any firm or association of which such individual was a member, partner, or employee unless such individual was directly involved in the provision of such services.

(7) A description of the date, parties to, and terms of any agreement or arrangement with respect to (A) future employment; (B) a leave of absence during the period of the reporting individual's Government service; (C) continuation of payments by a former employer other than the United States Government; and (D) continuing participation in an employee welfare or benefit plan maintained by a former employer.

(8) The category of the total cash value of any interest of the reporting individual in a qualified blind trust, unless the trust instrument was executed prior to July 24, 1995 and precludes the beneficiary from receiving information on the total cash value of any interest in the qualified blind trust. (b)(1) Each report filed pursuant to subsections (a), (b), and (c) of section 101 [5 U.S.C. App. § 101 (a)–(c)] shall include a full and complete statement with respect to the information required by—

(A) paragraph (1) of subsection (a) for the year of filing and preceding calendar year,

(B) paragraphs (3) and (4) of subsection (a) as of the date specified in the report but which is less than thirty-one days before the filing date, and

(C) paragraphs (6) and (7) of subsection (a) as of the filing date but for periods described in such paragraphs.

(2)(A) In lieu of filling out one or more schedules of a financial disclosure form, an individual may supply the required information in an alternative format, pursuant to either rules adopted by the supervising ethics office for the branch in which such individual serves or pursuant to a specific written determination by such office for a reporting individual.

(B) In lieu of indicating the category of amount or value of any item contained in any report filed under this title [5 U.S.C. App. § 101 et seq.], a reporting individual may indicate the exact dollar amount of such item.

(c) In the case of any individual described in section 101(e) [5 U.S.C. App. § 101(e)], any reference to the preceding calendar year shall be considered also to include that part of the calendar year of filing up to the date of the termination of employment.

(d)(1) The categories for reporting the amount or value of the items covered in paragraphs (3), (4), (5), and (8) of subsection (a) are as follows:

- (A) not more than $15,000;

- (H) greater than $5,000,000 but not more than $25,000,000;
- (I) greater than $25,000,000 but not more than $50,000,000; and
- (J) greater than $50,000,000.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (3) of subsection (a) if the current value of an interest in real property (or an interest in a real estate partnership) is not ascertainable without an appraisal, an individual may list (A) the date of purchase and the purchase price of the interest in the real property, or (B) the assessed value of the real property of tax purposes, adjusted to reflect the market value of the property used for the assessment if the assessed value is computed at less than 100 percent of such market value, but such individual shall include in his report a full and complete description of the method used to determine such assessed value, instead of specifying a category of value pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subsection. If the current value of any other item required to be reported under paragraph (3) of subsection (a) is not ascertainable without an appraisal, such individual may list the book value of a corporation whose stock is not publicly traded, the net worth of a business partnership, the equity value of an individually owned business, or with respect to other holdings, any recognized indication of value, but such individual shall include in his report a full and complete description of the method used in determining such value. In lieu of any value referred to in the preceding sentence, an individual may list the assessed value of the item for tax purposes, adjusted to reflect the market value of the item used for the assessment if the assessed value is computed at less than 100 percent of such market value, but a full and complete description of the method used in determining such assessed value shall be included in the report.

(e)(1) Except as provided in the last sentence of this paragraph, each report required by section 101 [5 U.S.C. App. § 101] shall also contain information listed in paragraphs (1) through (5) of subsection (a) of this section respecting the spouse or dependent child of the reporting individual as follows:

(A) The source of items of earned income earned by a spouse from any person which exceed $1,000 and the source and amount of any honoraria received by a spouse, except that, with respect to earned income (other than honoraria), if the spouse is self-employed in business or a profession, only the nature of such business or profession need be reported.

(B) All information required to be reported in subsection (a)(1)(B) with respect to income derived by a spouse or dependent child from any asset held by the spouse or dependent child and reported pursuant to subsection (a)(3).

(C) In the case of any gifts received by a spouse or dependent child which are not received totally independent of the relationship of the spouse or dependent child to the reporting individual, the identity of the source and a brief description of gifts of transportation, lodging, food, or entertainment and a brief description and the value of other gifts.

(D) In the case of any reimbursements received by a spouse or dependent child which are not received totally independent of the relationship of the spouse or dependent child to the reporting individual, the identify of the source and a brief description of each such reimbursement.

(E) In the case of items described in paragraphs (3) through (5) of subsection (a), all information required to be reported under these paragraphs other than items (i) which the reporting individual certifies represent the spouse's or dependent child's sole financial interest or responsibility and which the reporting individual has no knowledge of, (ii) which are not in any way, past or present, derived from the income, assets, or activities of the reporting individual, and (iii) from which the reporting individual neither derives, nor expects to derive, any financial or economic benefit.

(F) For purposes of this section, categories with amounts or values greater than $1,000,000 set forth in sections 102(a)(1)(B) and 102(d)(1) shall apply to the income, assets, or liabilities of spouses and dependent children only if the income, assets, or liabilities are held jointly with the reporting individual. All other income, assets, or liabilities of the spouse or dependent children required to be reported under this section in an amount or value greater than $1,000,000 shall be categorized only as an amount or value greater than $1,000,000.

Reports required by subsections (a), (b), and (c) of section 101 [5 U.S.C. App. § 101 (a)–(c)] shall, with respect to the spouse and dependent child of the reporting individual, only contain information listed in paragraphs (1), (3), and (4) of subsection (a), as specified in this paragraph.

(2) No report shall be required with respect to a spouse living separate and apart from the reporting individual with the intention of terminating the marriage or providing for permanent separation; or with respect to any income or obligations of an individual arising from the dissolution of his marriage or the permanent separation from his spouse.

(f)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), each reporting individual shall report the information required to be reported pursuant to subsections (a), (b), and (c) of this section with respect to the holdings of and the income from a trust or other financial arrangement from which income is received by, or with respect in which a beneficial interest in principal or income is held by, such individual, his spouse, or any dependent child.

(2) A reporting individual need not report the holdings of or the source of income from any of the holdings of—

(A) any qualified blind trust (as defined in paragraph (3));

(B) a trust—

(i) which was not created directly by such individual, his spouse, or any dependent child, and

(ii) the holdings or sources of income of which such individual, his spouse, and any dependent child have no knowledge of; or

(C) an entity described under the provisions of paragraph (8), but such individual shall report the category of the amount of income received by him, his spouse, or any dependent child from the trust or other entity under subsection (a)(1)(B) of this section.

(3) For purposes of this subsection, the term “qualified blind trust” includes any trust in which a reporting individual, his spouse, or any minor or dependent child has a beneficial interest in the principal or income, and which meets the following requirements:

(A)(i) The trustee of the trust and any other entity designated in the trust instrument to perform fiduciary duties is a financial institution, an attorney, a certified public accountant, a broker, or an investment advisor who—

(I) is independent of and not associated with any interested party so that the trustee or other person cannot be controlled or influenced in the administration of the trust by any interested party; and

(II) is not and has not been an employee of or affiliated with any interested party and is not a partner of, or involved in any joint venture or other investment with, any interested party; and

(III) is not a relative of any interested party.

(ii) Any officer or employee of a trustee or other entity who is involved in the management or control of the trust—

(I) is independent of and not associated with any interested party so that such officer or employee cannot be controlled or influenced in the administration of the trust by any interested party;

(II) is not a partner of, or involved in any joint venture or other investment with, any interested party; and

(III) is not a relative of any interested party.

(B) Any asset transferred to the trust by an interested party is free of any restriction with respect to its transfer or sale unless such restriction is expressly approved by the supervising ethics office of the reporting individual.

(C) The trust instrument which establishes the trust provides that—

(i) except to the extent provided in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, the trustee in the exercise of his authority and discretion to manage and control the assets of the trust shall not consult or notify any interested party;

(ii) the trust shall not contain any asset the holding of which by an interested party is prohibited by any law or regulation;

(iii) the trustee shall promptly notify the reporting individual and his supervising ethics office when the holdings of any particular asset transferred to the trust by any interested party are disposed of or when the value of such holding is less than $1,000;

(iv) the trust tax return shall be prepared by the trustee or his designee, and such return and any information relating thereto (other than the trust income summarized in appropriate categories necessary to complete an interested party's tax return), shall not be disclosed to any interested party;

(v) an interested party shall not receive any report on the holdings and sources of income of the trust, except a report at the end of each calendar quarter with respect to the total cash value of the interest of the interested party in the trust or the net income or loss of the trust or any reports necessary to enable the interested party to complete an individual tax return required by law or to provide the information required by subsection (a)(1) of this section, but such report shall not identify any asset or holding;

(vi) except for communications which solely consist of requests for distributions of cash or other unspecified assets of the trust, there shall be no direct or indirect communication between the trustee and an interested party with respect to the trust unless such communication is in writing and unless it relates only (I) to the general financial interest and needs of the interested party (including, but not limited to, an interest in maximizing income or long-term capital gain), (II) to the notification of the trustee of a law or regulation subsequently applicable to the reporting individual which prohibits the interested party from holding an asset, which notification directs that the asset not be held by the trust, or (III) to directions to the trustee to sell all of an asset initially placed in the trust by an interested party which in the determination of the reporting individual creates a conflict of interest or the appearance thereof due to the subsequent assumption of duties by the reporting individual (but nothing herein shall require any such direction); and

(vii) the interested parties shall make no effort to obtain information with respect to the holdings of the trust, including obtaining a copy of any trust tax return filed or any information relating thereto except as otherwise provided in this subsection.

(D) The proposed trust instrument and the proposed trustee is approved by the reporting individual's supervising ethics office.

(E) For purposes of this subsection, "interested party" means a reporting individual, his spouse, and any minor or dependent child; "broker" has the meaning set forth in section 3(a)(4) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78c(a)(4)); and "investment adviser" includes any investment adviser who, as determined under regulations prescribed by the supervising ethics office, is generally involved in his role as such an adviser in the management or control of trusts.

(F) Any trust qualified by a supervising ethics office before the effective date of title II of the Ethics Reform Act of 1989 shall continue to be governed by the law and regulations in effect immediately before such effective date.

(4)(A) An asset placed in a trust by an interested party shall be considered a financial interest of the reporting individual, for the purposes of any applicable conflict of interest statutes, regulations, or rules of the Federal Government (including section 208 of title 18, United States Code), until such time as the reporting individual is notified by the trustee that such asset has been disposed of, or has a value of less than $1,000.

(B)(i) The provisions of subparagraph (A) shall not apply with respect to a trust created for the benefit of a reporting individual, or the spouse, dependent child, or minor child of such a person, if the supervising ethics office for such reporting individual finds that—

(I) the assets placed in the trust consist of a well-diversified portfolio of readily marketable securities;

(II) none of the assets consist of securities of entities having substantial activities in the area of the reporting individual's primary area of responsibility;

(III) the trust instrument prohibits the trustee, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (3)(C) (iii) and (iv) of this subsection, from making public or informing any interested party of the sale of any securities;

(IV) the trustee is given power of attorney, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (3)(C)(v) of this subsection, to prepare on behalf of any interested party the personal income tax returns and similar returns which may contain information relating to the trust; and

(V) except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, the trust instrument provides (or in the case of a trust established prior to the effective date of this Act which by its term does not permit amendment, the trustee, the reporting individual, and any other interested party agree in writing) that the trust shall be administered in accordance with the requirements of this subsection and the trustee of such trust meets the requirements of paragraph (3)(A).

(ii) In any instance covered by subparagraph (B) in which the reporting individual is an individual whose nomination is being considered by a congressional committee, the reporting individual shall inform the congressional committee considering his nomination before or during the period of such individual's confirmation hearing of his intention to comply with this paragraph.

(5)(A) The reporting individual shall, within thirty days after a qualified blind trust is approved by his supervising ethics office, file with such office a copy of—

(i) the executed trust instrument of such trust (other than those provisions which relate to the testamentary disposition of the trust assets), and

(ii) a list of the assets which were transferred to such trust, including the category of value of each asset as determined under subsection (d) of this section.

This subparagraph shall not apply with respect to a trust meeting the requirements for being considered a qualified blind trust under paragraph (7) of this subsection.

(B) The reporting individual shall, within thirty days of transferring an asset (other than cash) to a previously established qualified blind trust, notify his supervising ethics office of the identity of each such asset and the category of value of each asset as determined under subsection (d) of this section.

(C) Within thirty days of the dissolution of a qualified blind trust, a reporting individual shall—

(i) notify his supervising ethics office of such dissolution, and

(ii) file with such office a copy of a list of the assets of the trust at the time of such dissolution and the category of value under subsection (d) of this section of each such asset. (D) Documents filed under subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) of this paragraph and the lists provided by the trustee of assets placed in the trust by an interested party which have been sold shall be made available to the public in the same manner as a report is made available under section 105 [5 U.S.C. App. §105] and the provisions of that section shall apply with respect to such documents and lists.

(E) A copy of each written communication with respect to the trust under paragraph (3)(C)(vi) shall be filed by the person initiating the communication with the reporting individual's supervising ethics office within five days of the date of the communication.

(6)(A) A trustee of a qualified blind trust shall not knowingly and willfully, or negligently, (i) disclose any information to an interested party with respect to such trust that may not be disclosed under paragraph (3) of this subsection; (ii) acquire any holding the ownership of which is prohibited by the trust instrument; (iii) solicit advice from any interested party with respect to such trust, which solicitation is prohibited by paragraph (3) of this subsection or the trust agreement; or (iv) fail to file any document required by this subsection.

(B) A reporting individual shall not knowingly and willfully, or negligently, (i) solicit or receive any information with respect to a qualified blind trust of which he is an interested party that may not be disclosed under paragraph (3)(C) of this subsection or (ii) fail to file any document required by this subsection.

(C) the supervising ethics office determines that approval of the trust arrangement as a qualified blind trust is in the particular case appropriate to assure compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

(8) A reporting individual shall not be required to report the financial interests held by a widely held investment fund (whether such fund is a mutual fund, regulated investment company, pension or deferred compensation plan, or other investment fund), if—the Board shall make and certify to the appropriate Federal agency an order requiring that agency to withhold from its loans or grants to the State or local agency to which notice was given an amount equal to 2 years' pay at the rate the officer or employee was receiving at the time of the violation. When the State or local agency to which appointment within 18 months after removal has been made is one that receives loans or grants from a Federal agency, the Board order shall direct that the withholding be made from that State or local agency.

(b) Notice of the order shall be sent by registered or certified mail to the State or local agency from which the amount is ordered to be withheld. After the order becomes final, the Federal agency to which the order is certified shall withhold the amount in accordance with the terms of the order. Except as provided by section 1508 of this title, a determination or order of the Board becomes final at the end of 30 days after mailing the notice of the determination or order.

(c) The Board may not require an amount to be withheld from a loan or grant pledged by a State or local agency as security for its bonds or notes if the withholding of that amount would jeopardize the payment of the principal or interest on the bonds or notes.

5 U.S.C. § 1507. Subpenas and Depositions.

(a) The Merit Systems Protection Board may require by subpoena the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence relating to any matter before it as a result of this chapter. Any member of the Board may sign subpoenas, and members of the Board and its examiners when authorized by the Board may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and receive evidence. The attendance of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence may be required from any place in the United States at the designated place of hearing. In case of disobedience to a subpoena, the Board may invoke the aid of a court of the United States in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence. In case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to a person, the United States District Court within whose jurisdiction the inquiry is carried on may issue an order requiring him to appear before the Board, or to produce documentary evidence if so ordered, or to give evidence concerning the matter in question; and any failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

(b) The Board may order testimony to be taken by deposition at any stage of a proceeding or investigation before it as a result of this chapter. Depositions may be taken before an individual designated by the Board and having the power to administer oaths. Testimony shall be reduced to writing by the individual taking the deposition, or under his direction, and shall be subscribed by the deponent. Any person may be compelled to appear and depose and to produce documentary evidence before the Board as provided by this section.

(c) A person may not be excused from attending and testifying or from producing documentary evidence or in obedience to a subpoena on the ground that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he is compelled to testify, or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, before the Board in obedience to a subpoena issued by it. A person so testifying is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

5 U.S.C. § 1508. Judicial Review.

A party aggrieved by a determination or order of the Merit Systems Protection Board under section 1504, 1505, or 1506 of this title may, within 30 days after the mailing of notice of the determination or order, institute proceedings for review thereof by filing a petition in the United States District Court for the district in which the State or local officer or employee resides. The institution of the proceedings does not operate as a stay of the determination or order unless—

- (1) the court specifically orders a stay; and
- (2) the officer or employee is suspended from his office or employment while the proceedings are pending.

A copy of the petition shall immediately be served on the Board and thereupon the Board shall certify and file in the court a transcript of the record on which the determination or order was made. The court shall review the entire record including questions of fact and questions of law. If application is made to the court for leave to adduce additional evidence, and it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that the additional evidence may materially affect the result of the proceedings and that there were reasonable grounds for failure to adduce this evidence in the hearing before the Board the court may direct that the additional evidence be taken before the Board in the manner and on the terms and conditions fixed by the court. The Board may modify its findings of fact or its determination or order in view of the additional evidence and shall file with the court the modified findings, determination, or order; and the modified findings of fact, if supported by substantial evidence, are conclusive. The court shall affirm the determination or order, or the modified determination or order, if the court determines that it is in accordance with the law. If the court determines that the determination or order or the modified determination or order, is not in accordance with law, the court shall remand the proceeding to the Board with directions either to make a determination or order determined by the court to be lawful or to take such further proceedings as, in the opinion of the court, the law requires. The judgment and decree of the court are final, subject to review by the appropriate United States Court of Appeals as in other cases, and the judgment and decree of the court of appeals are final, subject to review by the Supreme Court of the United States on certiorari or certification as provided by section 1254 of title 28. If a provision of this section is held to be invalid as applied to a party by a determination or order of the Board, the determination or order becomes final and effective as to that party as if the provision had not been enacted.

26 U.S.C. § 9002. Definitions.

For purposes of this chapter—

(1) The term “authorized committee” means, with respect to the candidates of a political party for President and Vice President of the United States, any political committee which is authorized in writing by such candidates to incur expenses to further the election of such candidates. Such authorization shall be addressed to the chairman of such political committee, and a copy of such authorization shall be filed by such candidates with the Commission. Any withdrawal of any authorization shall also be in writing and shall be addressed and filed in the same manner as the authorization.

(2) The term “candidate” means, with respect to any presidential election, an individual who (A) has been nominated for election to the office of President of the United States or the office of Vice President of the United States by a major party, or (B) has qualified to have his name on the election ballot (or to have the names of electors pledged to him on the election ballot) as the candidate of a political party for election to either such office in 10 or more States. For purposes of paragraphs (6) and (7) of this section and purposes of section 9004(a)(2), the term “candidate” means, with respect to any preceding presidential election, an individual who received popular votes for the office of President in such election. The term “candidate” shall not include any individual who has ceased actively to seek election to the office of President of the United States or to the office of Vice President of the United States, in more than one State.

(7) The term “minor party” means, with respect to any presidential election, a political party whose candidate for the office of President in the preceding presidential election received, as the candidate of such party, 5 percent or more but less than 25 percent of the total number of popular votes received by all candidates for such office.

(8) The term “new party” means, with respect to any presidential election, a political party which is neither a major party nor a minor party.

(9) The term “political committee” means any committee, association, or organization (whether or not incorporated) which accepts contributions or makes expenditures for the purpose of influencing, or attempting to influence, the nomination or election of one or more individuals to Federal, State, or local elective public office.

(10) The term “presidential election” means the election of presidential and vice-presidential electors.

(C) neither the incurring nor payment of which constitutes a violation of any law of the United States or of the State in which such expense is incurred or paid.

An expense shall be considered as incurred by a candidate or an authorized committee if it is incurred by a person authorized by such candidate or such committee, as the case may be, to incur such expense on behalf of such candidate or such committee. If an authorized committee of the candidates of a political party for President and Vice President of the United States also incurs expenses to further the election of one or more other individuals to Federal, State, or local elective public office, expenses incurred by such committee which are not specifically to further the election of such other individual or individuals shall be considered as incurred to further the election of such candidates for President and Vice President in such proportion as the Commission prescribes by rules or regulations.

26 U.S.C. § 9003. Condition for Eligibility for Payments.

(a) In general.

In order to be eligible to receive any payments under section 9006, the candidates of a political party in a presidential election shall, in writing—

- (1) agree to obtain and furnish to the Commission such evidence as it may request of the qualified campaign expenses of such candidates,

- (3) agree to an audit and examination by the Commission under section 9007 and to pay any amounts required to be paid under such section.

(b) Major parties.

In order to be eligible to receive any payments under section 9006, the candidates of a major party in a presidential election shall certify to the Commission, under penalty or perjury, that—

- (1) such candidates and their authorized committees will not incur qualified campaign expenses in excess of the aggregate payments to which they will be entitled under section 9004, and
- (2) no contributions to defray qualified campaign expenses have been or will be accepted by such candidates or any of their authorized committees except to the extent necessary to make up any deficiency in payments received out of the fund on account of the application of section 9006(d), and no contributions to defray expenses which would be qualified campaign expenses but for subparagraph (C) of section 9002(11) have been or will be accepted by such candidates or any of their authorized committees.

Such certification shall be made within such time prior to the day of the presidential election as the Commission shall prescribe by rules or regulations.

thorized committees certified to under paragraph (1) exceed the aggregate payments received by such candidates out of the fund pursuant to section 9006.

Such certification shall be made within such time prior to the day of the presidential election as the Commission shall prescribe by rules or regulations.

(d) Withdrawal by candidate.

In any case in which an individual ceases to be a candidate as a result of the operation of the last sentence of section 9002(2), such individual—

(1) shall no longer be eligible to receive any payments under section 9006, except that such individual shall be eligible to receive payments under such section to defray qualified campaign expenses incurred while actively seeking election to the office of President of the United States or to the office of Vice President of the United States in more than one State; and 26 U.S.C. § 9004. Entitlement of Eligible Candidates to Payments.

(a) In general.

Subject to the provisions of this chapter—

(1) The eligible candidates of each major party in a presidential election shall be entitled to equal payments under section 9006 in an amount which, in the aggregate, shall not exceed the expenditure limitations applicable to such candidates under section 320(b)(1)(B) of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971.

(2)(A) The eligible candidates of a minor party in a presidential election shall be entitled to payments under section 9006 equal in the aggregate to an amount which bears the same ratio to the amount under paragraph (1) for a major party as the number of popular votes received by the candidate for President of the minority party, as such candidate, in the preceding presidential election bears to the average number of popular votes received by the candidates for President of the major parties in the preceding presidential election.

(B) If the candidate of one or more political parties (not including a major party) for the office of President was a candidate for such office in the preceding presidential election and received 5 percent or more but less than 25 percent of the total number of popular votes received by all candidates for such office, such candidate and his running mate for the office of Vice President, upon compliance with the provisions of section 9003 (a) and (c), shall be treated as eligible candidates entitled to payments under section 9006 in an amount computed as provided in subparagraph (A) by taking into account all the popular votes received by such candidate for the office of President in the preceding presidential election. If eligible candidates of a minor party are entitled to payments under this subparagraph, such entitlement shall be reduced by the amount of the entitlement allowed under subparagraph (A).

(3) The eligible candidates of a minor party or a new party in a presidential election whose candidate for President in such election receives, as such candidate, 5 percent or more of the total number of popular votes cast for the office of President in such election shall be entitled to payments under section 9006 equal in the aggregate to an amount which bears the same ratio to the amount allowed under paragraph (1) for a major party as the number of popular votes received by such candidate in such election bears to the average number of popular votes received in such election by the candidates for President of the major parties. In the case of eligible candidates entitled to payments under paragraph (2), the amount allowable under this paragraph shall be limited to the amount, if any, by which the entitlement under the preceding sentence exceeds the amount of the entitlement under paragraph (2).

(b) Limitations.

The aggregate payments to which the eligible candidates of a political party shall be entitled under subsections (a)(2) and (3) with respect to a presidential election shall not exceed an amount equal to the lower of—

(1) the amount of qualified campaign expenses incurred by such eligible candidates and their authorized committees, reduced by the amount of contributions to defray qualified campaign expenses received and expended or retained by such eligible candidates and such committees, or

(2) the aggregate payments to which the eligible candidates of a major party are entitled under subsection (a)(1), reduced by the amount of contributions described in paragraph (1) of this subsection.

(c) Restriction.

The eligible candidates of a political party shall be entitled to payments under subsection (a) only—

(1) to defray qualified campaign expenses incurred by such eligible candidates or their authorized committees, or
(2) to repay loans the proceeds of which were used to defray such qualified campaign expenses, or otherwise to restore funds (other than contributions to defray qualified campaign expenses received and expended by such candidates or such committees) used to defray such qualified campaign expenses.

(d) Expenditures from personal funds.

In order to be eligible to receive any payment under section 9006, the candidate of a major, minor, or new party in an election for the office of President shall certify to the Commission, under penalty of perjury, that such candidate will not knowingly make expenditures from his personal funds, or the personal funds of his immediate family, in connection with his campaign for election to the office of President in excess of, in the aggregate, $50,000. For purposes of this subsection, expenditures from personal funds made by a candidate of a major, minor, or new party for the office of Vice President shall be considered to be expenditures by the candidate of such party for the office of President.

For purposes of subsection (d), the term “immediate family” means a candidate’s spouse, and any child, parent, grandparent, brother, half-brother, sister, or half-sister of the candidate, and the spouses of such persons.

26 U.S.C. § 9005. Certification by Commission.

(a) Initial certifications.

(a) Not later than 10 days after the candidates of a political party for President and Vice President of the United States have met all applicable conditions for eligibility to receive payments under this chapter set forth in section 9003, the Commission shall certify to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment to such eligible candidates under section 9006 payment in full of amounts to which such candidates are entitled under section 9004.

(b) Finality of certifications and determinations.

Initial certifications by the Commission under subsection (a), and all determinations made by it under this chapter, shall be final and conclusive, except to the extent that they are subject to examination and audit by the Commission under section 9007 and judicial review under section 9011.

26 U.S.C. § 9006. Payments to Eligible Candidates.

There is hereby established on the books of the Treasury of the United States a special fund to be known as the "Presidential Election Campaign Fund". The Secretary of the Treasury shall, from time to time, transfer to the fund an amount not in excess of the sum of the amounts designated (subsequent to the previous presidential election) to the fund by individuals under section 6096. There is appropriated to the fund for each fiscal year, out of amounts in the general fund of the treasury not otherwise appropriated, an amount equal to the amounts so designated during each fiscal year, which shall remain available to the fund without fiscal year limitation.

(b) Payments from the fund.

Upon receipt of a certification from the Commission under section 9005 for payment to the eligible candidates of a political party, the Secretary of the Treasury shall pay to such candidates out of the fund the amount certified by the Commission. Amounts paid to any such candidates shall be under the control of such candidates.

(c) Insufficient amounts in fund.

If at the time of a certification by the Commission under section 9005 for payment to the eligible candidates of a political party, the Secretary determines that the moneys in the fund are not, or may not be, sufficient to satisfy the full entitlements of the eligible candidates of all political parties, he shall withhold from such payment such amount as he determines to be necessary to assure that the eligible candidates of each political party will receive their pro rata share of their full entitlement. Amounts withheld by reason of the preceding sentence shall be paid when the Secretary determines that there are sufficient moneys in the fund to pay such amounts, or portions thereof, to all eligible candidates from whom amounts have been withheld, but, if there are not sufficient moneys in the fund to satisfy the full entitlement of the eligible candidates of all political parties, the amounts so withheld shall be paid in such manner that the eligible candidates of each political party receive their pro rata share of their full entitlement. In any case in which the Secretary determines that there are insufficient moneys in the fund to make payments under subsection (b), section 9008(b)(3), and section 9037(b), moneys shall not be made available from any other source for the purpose of making such payments.

(Added Pub.L. 92-178, Title VIII, § 801, Dec. 10, 1971, 85 Stat. 567, and amended Pub.L. 93-53, § 6(b), July 1, 1973, 87 Stat. 138; Pub.L. 93-443, Title IV, §§ 403(a), 404(c)(8), Oct. 15, 1975, 88 Stat. 1291, 1292; Pub.L. 94-283, Title III, § 302, May 11, 1976, 90 Stat. 498; Pub.L. 94-455, Title XIX, § 1906(b)(13) (A), (B), Oct. 4, 1976, 90 Stat. 1834.)

26 U.S.C. § 9007. Examinations and Audits; Repayments.

(a) Examinations and audits.

After each presidential election, the Commission shall conduct a thorough examination and audit of the qualified cam-campaign expenses of the candidates of each political party for President and Vice President.

(1) If the Commission determines that any portion of the payments made to the eligible candidates of a political party under section 9006 was in excess of the aggregate payments to which candidates were entitled under section 9004, it shall so notify such candidates, and such candidates shall pay to the Secretary of the Treasury an amount equal to such portion.

(2) If the Commission determines that the eligible candidates of a political party and their authorized committees incurred qualified campaign expenses in excess of the aggregate payments to which the eligible candidates of a major party were entitled under section 9004, it shall notify such candidates of the amount of such excess and such candidates shall pay to the Secretary of the Treasury an amount equal to such amount.

(3) If the Commission determines that the eligible candidates of a major party or any authorized committee of such candidates accepted contributions (other than contributions to make up deficiencies in payments out of the fund on account of the application of section 9006(c) to defray qualified campaign expenses (other than qualified campaign expenses with respect to which payment is required under paragraph (2))), it shall notify such candidates of the amount of the contributions so accepted, and such candidates shall pay to the Secretary of the Treasury an amount equal to such amount.

(4) If the Commission determines that any amount of any payment made to the eligible candidates of a political party under section 9006 was used for any purpose other than—

(A) to defray the qualified campaign expenses with respect to which such payment was made, or

(B) to repay loans the proceeds of which were used, or otherwise to restore funds (other than contributions to defray qualified campaign expenses which were received and expended) which were used, to defray such qualified campaign expenses, it shall notify such candidates of the amount so used, and such candidates shall pay to the Secretary of the Treasury an amount equal to such amount.

(5) No payment shall be required from the eligible candidates of a political party under this subsection to the extent that such payment, when added to other payments required from such candidates under this subsection, exceeds the amount of payments received by such candidates under section 9006.

(c) Notification.

No notification shall be made by the Commission under subsection (b) with respect to a presidential election more than 3 years after the day of such election.

(d) Deposit of repayments.

All payments received by the Secretary of the Treasury under subsection (b) shall be deposited by him in the general fund of the Treasury.

26 U.S.C. § 9008. Payments for Presidential Nominating Conventions.

(a) Establishment of accounts.

The Secretary shall maintain in the fund, in addition to any account which he maintains under section 9006(a), a separate account for the national committee of each major party and minor party. The Secretary shall deposit in each such account an amount equal to the amount which each such committee may receive under subsection (b). Such deposits shall be drawn from amounts designated by individuals under section 6096 and shall be made before any transfer is made to any account for any eligible candidate under section 9006(a).

(b) Entitlement to payments from the fund.

(1) Major parties.—Subject to the provisions of this section, the national committee of a major party shall be entitled to payments under paragraph (3), with respect to any presidential nominating convention, in amounts which, in the aggregate, shall not exceed $4,000,000.

(2) Minor parties.—Subject to the provisions of this section, the national committee of a minor party shall be entitled to payments under paragraph (3), with respect to any presidential nominating convention, in amounts which, in the aggregate, shall not exceed an amount which bears the same ratio to the amount the national committee of a major party is entitled to receive under paragraph (1) as the number of popular votes received by the candidate for President of the minor party, as such candidate, in the preceding presidential election bears to the average number of popular votes received by the candidates for President of the United States of the major parties in the preceding presidential election.

(3) Payments.—Upon receipt of certification from the Commission under subsection (g), the Secretary shall make payments from the appropriate account maintained under subsection (a) to the national committee of a major party or minor party which elects to receive its entitlement under this subsection. Such payments shall be available for use by such committee in accordance with the provisions of subsection (c).

(4) Limitation.—Payments to the national committee of a major party or minor party under this subsection from the account designated for such committee shall be limited to the amounts in such account at the time of payment.

(5) Adjustment of entitlements.—The entitlements established by this subsection shall be adjusted in the same manner as expenditure limitations established by section 315(b) and section 315(d) of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 are adjusted pursuant to the provisions of section 315(c) of such Act.

(c) Use of funds.—No part of any payment made under subsection (b) shall be used to defray the expenses of any candidate or delegate who is participating in any presidential nominating convention. Such payments shall be used only—

- (1) to defray expenses incurred with respect to a presidential nominating convention (including the payment of deposits) by or on behalf of the national committee receiving such payments; or
- (2) to repay loans the proceeds of which were used to defray such expenses, or otherwise to restore funds (other than contributions to defray such expenses received by such committee) used to defray such expenses.

(d) Limitation of expenditures.

(1) Major parties.—Except as provided by paragraph (3), the national committee of a major party may not make expenditures with respect to a presidential nominating convention which, in the aggregate, exceed the amount of payments to which such committee is entitled under subsection (b)(1).

(2) Minor parties.—Except as provided by paragraph (3), the national committee of a minor party may not make expenditures with respect to a presidential nominating convention which, in the aggregate, exceed the amount of the entitlement of the national committee of a major party under subsection (b)(1).

(3) Exception.—The Commission may authorize the national committee of a major party or minor party to make expenditures which, in the aggregate, exceed the limitation established by paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of this subsection. Such authorization shall be based on a determination by the Commission that, due to extraordinary and unforeseen circumstances, such expenditures are necessary to assure the effective operation of the presidential nominating convention by such committee.

(4) Provision of legal or accounting services.—For purposes of this section, the payment, by any person other than the national committee of a political party (unless the person paying for such services is a person other than the regular employer of the individual rendering such services) of compensation to any individual for legal or accounting services rendered to or on behalf of the national committee of a political party shall not be treated as an expenditure made by or on behalf of such committee with respect to its limitations on presidential nominating convention expenses.

(g) Certification by Commission.

Any major party or minor party may file a statement with the Commission in such form and manner and at such times as it may require, designating the national committee of such party. Such statement shall include the information required by section 303(b) of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, together with such additional information as the Commission may require. Upon receipt of a statement filed under the preceding sentences, the Commission promptly shall verify such statement according to such procedures and criteria as it may establish and shall certify to the Secretary for payment in full to any such committee of amounts to which such committee may be entitled under subsection (b). Such certifications shall be subject to an examination and audit which the Commission shall conduct no later than December 31 of the calendar year in which the presidential nominating convention involved is held.

- (2) the amounts certified by it under section 9005 for payment to the eligible candidates of each political party;
- (3) the amount of payments, if any, required from such candidates under section 9007, and the reasons for each payment required; and

(2) If either such House does not, through appropriate action, disapprove the proposed rule or regulation set forth in such statement no later than 30 legislative days after receipt of such statement, then the Commission may prescribe such rule or regulation. Whenever a committee of the House of Representatives reports any resolution relating to any such rule or regulation, it is at any time thereafter in order (even though a previous motion to the same effect has been disagreed to) to move to proceed to the consideration of the resolution. The motion is highly privileged and is not debatable. And amendment to the motion is not in order, and it is not in order to move to reconsider the vote by which the motion is agreed to or disagreed to. The Commission may not prescribe any rule or regulation which is disapproved by either such House under this paragraph.

(3) For purposes of this subsection, the term "legislative days" does not include any calendar day on which both Houses of the Congress are not in session.

(4) For purposes of this subsection, the term "rule or regulation" means a provision or series of interrelated provisions stating a single separable rule of law.

After each matching payment period, the Commission shall conduct a thorough examination and audit of the qualified campaign expenses of every candidate and his authorized committees who received payments under section 9037.

(b) Repayments.

(1) If the Commission determines that any portion of the payments made to a candidate from the matching payment account was in excess of the aggregate amount of payments to which such candidate was entitled under section 9034, it shall notify the candidate, and the candidate shall pay to the Secretary an amount equal to the amount of excess payments.

(2) If the Commission determines that any amount of any payment made to a candidate from the matching payment account was used for any purpose other than—

(A) to defray the qualified campaign expenses with respect to which such payment was made, or

(B) to repay loans the proceeds of which were used, or otherwise to restore funds (other than contributions to defray qualified campaign expenses which were received and expended) which were used, to defray qualified campaign expenses, it shall notify such candidate of the amount so used, and the candidate shall pay to the Secretary an amount equal to such amount.

(3) Amounts received by a candidate from the matching payment account may be retained for the liquidation of all obligations to pay qualified campaign expenses incurred for a period not exceeding 6 months after the end of the matching payment period. After all obligations have been liquidated, that portion of any unexpended balance remaining in the candidate's accounts which bears the same ratio to the total unexpended balance as the total amount received from the matching payment account bears to the total of all deposits made into the candidate's accounts shall be promptly repaid to the matching payment account.

No notification shall be made by the Commission under subsection (b) with respect to a matching payment period more than 3 years after the end of such period.

(d) Deposit of repayments.

All payments received by the Secretary under subsection (b) shall be deposited by him in the matching payment account. (Added Pub.L. 93-443, title IV, § 408(c), Oct. 15, 1974, 88 Stat. 1300, and amended Pub.L. 94-455, title XIX, § 1906(b)(13)(A), Oct. 4, 1976, 90 Stat. 1834.)

26 U.S.C. § 9039. Reports to Congress; Regulations.

The Commission shall, as soon as practicable after each matching payment period, submit a full report to the Senate and House of Representatives setting forth—

(1) the qualified campaign expenses (shown in such detail as the Commission determines necessary) incurred by the candidates of each political party and their authorized committees,

(2) the amounts certified by it under section 9036 for payment to each eligible candidate, and

(3) the amount of payments, if any, required from candidates under section 9038, and the reasons for each payment required.

Each report submitted pursuant to this section shall be printed as a Senate document.

The Commission is authorized to prescribe rules and regulations in accordance with the provisions of subsection (c), to conduct examinations and audits (in addition to the examinations and audits required by section 9038(a)), to conduct investigations, and to require the keeping and submission of any books, records, and information, which it determines to be necessary to carry out its responsibilities under this chapter.

(c) Review of regulations.

(1) The Commission, before prescribing any rule or regulation under subsection (b), shall transmit a statement with respect to such rule or regulation to the Senate and to the House of Representatives, in accordance with the provisions of this subsection. Such statement shall set forth the proposed rule or regulation and shall contain a detailed explanation and justification of such rule or regulation.

(2) If either House does not, through appropriate action, disapprove the proposed rule or regulation set forth in such statement no later than 30 legislative days after receipt of such statement, then the Commission may prescribe such rule or regulation. Whenever a committee of the House of Representatives reports any resolution relating to any such rule or regulation, it is at any time thereafter in order (even though a previous motion to the same effect has been disagreed to) to move to proceed to the consideration of the resolution. The motion is highly privileged and is not debatable. An amendment to the motion is not in order, and it is not in order to move to reconsider the vote by which the motion is agreed to or disagreed to. The Commission may not prescribe any rule or regulation which is disapproved by either House under this paragraph.

(3) For purposes of this subsection, the term "legislative days" does not include any calendar day on which both Houses of the Congress are not in session.

(4) For purposes of this subsection, the term "rule or regulation" means a provision or series of interrelated provisions stating a single separable rule of law.

(Added Pub.L. 93-443, title IV, §408(c), Oct. 15, 1974, 88 Stat. 1301, and amended Pub.L. 94-283, title III, §304(b), May 11, 1976, 90 Stat. 499.)

service, and whose compensation it may fix without regard to the provisions of chapter 51 and subchapter III of chapter 53 of such title.

(b) Recovery of certain payments.

The Commission is authorized, through attorneys and counsel described in subsection (a), to institute actions in the district courts of the United States to seek recovery of any amounts determined to be payable to the Secretary as a result of an examination and audit made pursuant to section 9038.

(c) Injunctive relief.

The Commission is authorized, through attorneys and counsel described in subsection (a), to petition the courts of the United States for such injunctive relief as is appropriate to implement any provision of this chapter.

(d) Appeal.

The Commission is authorized on behalf of the United States to appeal from, and to petition the Supreme Court for certiorari to review, judgments or decrees entered with respect to actions in which it appears pursuant to the authority provided in this section.

(Added Pub.L. 93-443, title IV, § 408(c), Oct. 15, 1974, 88 Stat. 1302, and amended Pub.L. 94-455, title XIX, § 1906(b)(13)(A), Oct. 4, 1976, 90 Stat. 1834.)

B. Background of the National Nominating Conventions, Presidential Primaries, and the Selection of Delegates *

The United States Constitution does not authorize the establishment of political parties nor does it prohibit their establishment. The Founding Fathers did not have a favorable attitude toward political parties and even saw them as possible threats to state government.¹ When the new government was being formed, two competing parties developed, one of which favored the adoption of the Constitution and the other of which was against the adoption of the Constitution. The Federalist Party favored a strong central government and was comprised of merchants, shippers, and financiers, among others. The other party was comprised of members who were anti-federalist who opposed a strong central government and sought to preserve the sovereignty of the states.²

The Constitution does not provide for any formal nominating procedures for candidates for President and Vice President outside of those provisions relating to the Electoral College.³ With the advent of political parties, the inadequacies of the Electoral College system of electing a President and Vice President became manifest, especially in regard to the nominating process.⁴

In the first presidential election in 1789, there were no formal nominations, and the Electoral College method for choosing a President and Vice President was used. In the presidential election of 1792, there was no attempt to challenge President Washington, although a political party by the name of the Democratic-Republicans unsuccessfully presented a challenge to Vice President Adams.⁵ The presidential election of 1796 was the first time that the congressional caucus was used as a nominating method. The congressional caucus system was used for nominating presidential candidates as there was a need for limiting the number of party candidates and for unifying the elections of a political party.⁶ The caucus system of nominating presidential candidates had some serious limitations: (1) the nominating process did not include non-congressional persons; (2) state influence was limited according to the number of its congressmen and even to the party affiliations of the congressmen; and (3) Congress was a dominant force in presidential matters since the President would likely be more responsive to the Congressmen who nominated him than to the people.⁷

Later state-based legislative systems of nominating Presidents, which were used in the 1828 presidential election of Andrew Jackson, eventually eliminated the congressional caucus method of nomination. By 1840, the major political parties began holding national conventions with delegates selected from the various states to nominate their candidates for President and Vice President. The national conventions provided for broader electoral participation in the presidential nominating process than the congressional caucus or state-based legislative systems. However, even the national conventions had their drawbacks. The delegate selection procedures varied from state to state; state party bosses and political machines often controlled the selection of delegates to the national nominating conventions.⁸

In 1968, the major political parties began to reform and democratize the delegate selection procedures to provide for greater participation by all voters affiliated with them, including such groups as blacks, youth, women, and minorities. In the Democratic Party, the McGovern-Fraser Commission was established and was mandated to draft a delegate plan that would be an "open" system of delegate selection to insure every Democrat "a full, meaningful and timely" opportunity to participate, beginning with the 1972 Convention. The 1968 Republican National Convention established the Delegates and Organization Committee to make recommendations to achieve the broadest possible participation in the Party's affairs. The 1972 Republican Convention adopted five of the ten recommendations made by the Committee and incorporated them into the 1976 delegate selection rules. In both the Democratic and Republican parties, the state parties still exercise much power in the delegate selection procedures; however, the impetus that has been taken by the national parties for broader participation has provided for more due process in the selection and seating of national nominating convention delegates.⁹

In October, 1975, the Democratic National Committee (DNC) established a committee to study the problem of the presidential primaries and to review delegate selection rules of the Democratic Party.¹⁰ The Commission was chaired by Michigan State Chairman, Morley Winograd, and became known as the Winograd Commission. It was composed of fifty-eight members. Among some of the major recommendations were the following: (1) shortening the delegate selection period from six months to three months (from the second Tuesday in March to the second Tuesday in June); (2) increasing the size of state delegations by ten percent to accommodate state party and elected officials; and (3) limiting participation in the delegate selection process to Democrats only by disallowing open, cross-over primaries whereby voters could participate in the Democratic delegate selection process without declaring their party affiliation.¹¹

In 1982, the DNC established another commission to review the delegate selection process to the Democratic national nominating convention. The commission has become known as the Hunt Commission, named after its chairman, North Carolina Governor, James B. Hunt, Jr. The Hunt Commission made the following recommendations which were substantially adopted by the DNC: (1) shortening the presidential preference primary and caucus season; (2) eliminating the bound delegate rule so as to allow delegates who are pledged to a candidate in all good conscience to reflect the sentiments of those who elected them; and (3) increasing the participation of elected officials, especially Members of Congress.¹²

Thus, from 1972 to 1988, the Democratic Party amended its delegate selection rules to provide participation by grassroots Democrats and by minorities and by women. Such rules were the products of: (1) the McGovern-Fraser Commission in 1972, (2) the Mikulski Commission in 1976, (3) the Winograd Commission in 1980, (4) the Hunt Commission in 1984, and (5) the Fowler Commission in 1988.¹³

Part of the reform of the presidential nominating process has centered around presidential preference primaries. In the early part of the twentieth century, the movement toward democratization of the presidential nominating process provided the impetus for many states to adopt presidential primaries. The Progressives desired to open up the presidential nominating process through the use of presidential primaries in order to help end the boss-dominated conventions and to aid in the selection of candidates who would be more responsive to the electorate.¹⁴

In 1904, Florida enacted the first primary law and authorized political parties to choose all or some of their national convention delegates in the primary. In 1905, the State of Wisconsin adopted a presidential primary that required political parties to choose their national convention delegates in the primary. By 1916, twenty-six States had adopted presidential primary laws. This number dwindled over the next half century so that by 1968, only sixteen States and the District of Columbia had presidential primaries.¹⁵

Presidential preference primaries may be classified according to four different types of primaries: delegates selection only; advisory presidential preference; binding, winner-take-all presidential preference; and proportional representation presidential preference. In the delegate selection primary, the names of the presidential candidates do not appear separately on the ballot, but rather the names of the delegates appear on the ballot listed individually or by slate and usually identified by presidential preference. In an advisory presidential preference primary, the vote for the presidential candidate is generally advisory only and is used for the sole purpose of securing an expression of sentiment and will of party voters as preferring a certain presidential candidate. In a binding, winner-take-all presidential preference primary, the results of the presidential preference primary generally bind the delegation to the national convention to the primary winner. A "loophole" primary is a primary that provides for winner-take-all by congressional district. In a proportional representation presidential preference primary, the results of the primary are used to allocate national convention delegates to presidential candidates based on the proportion of the vote they receive.¹⁶

The type of presidential preference primary may be determined by the primary election laws of the particular state or it may be determined by the party rules of each political party if the election laws so provide. In many states, the Democrats and the Republicans hold different types of presidential preference primaries in the selection of delegates to their respective national nominating conventions. Presidential primaries are as varied as delegate selection procedures due to differences in state statutes, party constitutions, party rules and regulations, party by-laws, and delegate selection plans.

Many states elect all or part of their national nominating convention delegates by state and congressional district caucuses and/or conventions. In many states, the caucus/convention process of selecting delegates begins with local precinct caucuses which are held to select delegates to county conventions or district conventions. In turn, county conventions or district conventions select delegates to congressional district conventions and to the state convention. Then the delegates to the national nominating conventions are selected by the congressional district conventions and the state convention according to state statutes and state party rules. This delegate selection process varies from state to state due to differences in state party rules, state statutes, state party delegate selection plans, and the national party rules governing the selection of delegates; accordingly, these rules, plans, and statutes should be examined in order to determine the exact manner of selecting such delegates in any particular state.¹⁷

C. Significant Court Decisions Affecting Delegate Selection Procedures and the Convention System¹

Due to the freedom of association provided by the First Amendment, political parties have traditionally enjoyed great freedom in their efforts to advance their political goals. As the Supreme Court stated in the 1958 case of NAACP v. Alabama ex rel. Patterson,²:

It is beyond debate that freedom to engage in association for the advancement of beliefs and ideas is an inseparable aspect of the "liberty" assured by the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment, which embraces freedom of speech * * * Of course, it is immaterial whether the beliefs sought to be advanced by association pertain to political, economic, religious, or cultural matters, and state action which may have the effect of curtailing the freedom to associate is subject to the closest scrutiny.³

In recent years, however, a conflict has developed between this freedom of political parties and the freedom of each individual to participate equally in the political process. The Third Circuit summarized this conflict in Redfern v. Delaware Republican State Committee.⁴

This appeal involves, but unfortunately does not resolve, the conflict between two constitutionally protected interests; the right of freedom of association for the achievement of desired political ends—protected by the first amendment—and the right to have one's vote in an election for public office given equal weight with that of other voters—protected by the equal protection clause of the fourteenth amendment.⁵

As a result of this conflict, there have been several challenges to party rules by those claiming that delegate apportionment guidelines, under certain circumstances, violate the "one person, one vote" equal protection standard established by the Supreme Court in the landmark case of Baker v. Carr.⁶

For example, in Ripon Society v. National Republican Party,⁷ the District of Columbia Circuit addressed this issue, holding that the particular nature and goals of a political party were such as to make permissible some deviation from the one person, one vote standard.⁸ In this case, the Ripon Society, an organization associated with the National Republican Party, and party members from several states who claimed to be underrepresented under the formula for apportionment of delegates to the 1976 Republican National Convention, brought suit challenging this formula. The challenge was primarily directed to that part of the formula which apportioned 607 delegates, representing 27 percent of the total of approximately 2,242 delegates to the Convention, on the basis of a Republican vote in the 1972 Presidential election and on the basis of Republican victories in the 1972 and 1974 senatorial, gubernatorial, and congressional elections. Plaintiffs claimed that this formula unfairly discriminated against party members residing in states which had not fashioned such Republican victories, denying them their constitutional right of equal representation under the "one-person, one-vote" doctrine.⁹ The lower court had found that the use of the uniform victory bonuses was improper and enjoined their use in the apportionment of delegates to the 1976 convention.¹⁰ On a rehearing en banc, however, the Court of Appeals reversed their earlier decision and ruled in favor of the proposed allocation formula.

After reviewing pertinent precedents, the Ripon court concluded:

The Supreme Court inquiry into these matters has led it to the conclusion that where the assembly exercises formal governmental powers one person, one vote is ordinarily required. A similar inquiry in other contexts may well reveal that the public and private interests in making decisions through some other scheme of representation outweigh the interests served by numerically equal apportionment.¹¹

Questions have also arisen as to the power of the individual states to legislate with regard to delegate selection procedures. In Cousins v. Wigoda,¹² the Supreme Court held that the states do not have a constitutionally mandated role in the task of selecting presidential and vice-presidential candidates.¹³ Under this ruling, party rules would preempt and supersede state laws governing selection and apportionment of party delegates in case of any conflict.

The Cousins case arose when, on March 21, 1972, pursuant to the Illinois Code, Illinois voters elected their State's delegation to the 1972 Democratic National Convention. The petitioners ("Cousins delegates") challenged the seating of 59 of these delegates from the Chicago districts ("Wigoda delegates") before the National Democratic Party's Credentials Committee, claiming that the composition of this group violated various guidelines which had been promulgated by the party and included in the call of the convention. The party's hearing officer found violations of party guidelines covering minority group participation, women and youth participation, existence of party rules, adequate notice of party affairs, timing of party affairs, and slate making. The Credentials Committee then adopted the hearing officer's recommendation that the Wigoda delegates be unseated and the Cousins delegates, who had been chosen previously at private caucuses and some of whom had been unsuccessful in the March primary, be seated in their place. Two days before the convention opened, the Wigoda delegates obtained an injunction from the Circuit Court of Cook County enjoining the Cousins delegates from participating in the convention. After the convention adopted the Credential Committee's recommendation to seat the Cousins delegates, however, they took their seats and participated fully in convention proceedings. As a result, there was action to adjudge the Cousins delegates in contempt of the injunction, which action was stayed pending the Supreme Court's decision.¹⁴ The Illinois Appellate Court affirmed the injunction,¹⁵ holding that the Illinois Election Code exclusively governs the right to sit as a delegate representing Illinois at the national nominating convention.

The Supreme Court reversed the Illinois Appellate Court's decision, holding that Illinois' interest in protecting the integrity of its electoral process cannot be considered compelling in the context of the selection of delegates for the national nominating convention.¹⁶ Citing Kusper v. Pontikes,¹⁷ the Court recognized that a person's right to associate with the political party of his or her choice is an integral part of the freedom of association granted under the First and Fourteenth Amendments. Moreover, the competing state interest in protecting the integrity of its electoral process is not compelling because suffrage was already exercised at the primary election to elect delegates to the party convention in order for such delegates to "perform a task of supreme importance to every citizen of the Nation regardless of their State of residence."¹⁸ Hence, the Court concluded that "[c]onsideration of the special function of delegates to such a Convention militates persuasively against the conclusion that the asserted interest constitutes a compelling state interest."¹⁹

Notably, the Supreme Court in Cousins v. Wigoda stressed that its opinion did not resolve any related constitutional questions, specifically enumerating the following three areas as excluded from the scope of the decision:

(1) whether the decisions of a national political party in the area of delegate selection constitute State or governmental action, and, if so, whether or to what extent principles of the political question doctrine counsel against judicial intervention * * *

(2) whether national political parties are subject to the principles of the reapportionment decisions, or other constitutional restraints, in their methods of delegate selection and allocation * * *

(3) whether or to what extent national political parties and their nominating conventions are regulable by, or only by, Congress * * *²⁰

The Supreme Court has also found that the rules of a national political party are entitled to the greatest, if not paramount, weight in determining eligibility to serve as delegate to a national party convention. For example, in Democratic Party of the United States v. Wisconsin ex rel. La Follette,²¹ the Court held that the state of Wisconsin could not constitutionally require that its delegates be seated at a national party's national nominating convention.²² The 1980 Charter of the Democratic Party provided that the delegates to the convention be chosen through procedures in which only members of the party could participate and the delegate selection rules provided that only those who wished to affiliate publicly with the Democratic Party could participate in the selection of delegates to the national convention. The election laws of Wisconsin, however, provided for an open primary, which allowed voters to vote in a party presidential primary without requiring a public declaration of party preference and without regard to party affiliation. The Democratic National Party indicated that the delegates who were bound to vote according to the results of the open primary would not be seated at the national convention. As a result, a suit was brought and the Wisconsin Supreme Court held that the open primary system of selecting delegates to the national convention was constitutional and binding upon the Democratic National Party and that the state's delegates could not be disqualified from being seated at the national nominating convention.²³

On appeal, the United States Supreme Court reversed, holding that it was permissible for a national political party to refuse to seat state delegates who were elected in an open primary in a procedure that was violative of the national party's rules.²⁴ According to the Court, the states do not have a constitutionally mandated role in regulating and governing the task of the national conventions to nominate presidential and vice presidential candidates and in determining the qualifications and eligibility of delegates to the national conventions of political parties, no primacy is to be accorded to a state's election laws over a national party's rules.²⁵

State law or party rule, to a national nominating convention or to a State, district, or local convention, caucus or primary that is held to select delegates to a national nominating convention.

(2) Delegate committee. A delegate committee is a group of persons that receives contributions or makes expenditures for the sole purpose of influencing the selection of one or more delegates to a national nominating convention. The term “delegate committee” includes a group of delegates, a group of individuals seeking selection as delegates and a group of individuals supporting delegates. E. Guide to the 2000 Delegate Selection Rules and the Call for the 2000 Democratic Convention*

This Guide was prepared to aid state Democratic parties with developing their Delegate Selection Plans for the 2000 Democratic National Convention. Provisions of the 2000 Delegate Selection Rules (“Rules”) and the Call for the 2000 Convention (“Call”) are explained in simple language.

The explanations given below, also indicate how and where state Plans should reflect the necessary language. This information should assist state parties in writing their Plans to comply with the Rules, the Call, and the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee Regulations (“Regs.”) To help illustrate exactly how a rule or regulation is reflected in a fully-written Plan, references to any corresponding rules, regulations and the Model Plan are also included below.

The interpretations of the rules as presented in this Guide are for informational purposes only and should not be used in place of the rules.

2000 DELEGATE SELECTION RULES

These rules were adopted by the Democratic National Committee (“DNC”) on May 9, 1998. They provide certain standards that states must use as guidelines in the process of selecting delegates to the Convention. Within this framework for ensuring the process is conducted in a fair and open manner, a state party is allowed to devise its own particular system for choosing delegates and alternates.

Rule 1. Publication and Submission of State Party Rules

A. State parties shall adopt Affirmative Action and Delegate Selection Plans which contain explicit rules and procedures governing all aspects of the delegate selection process. These rules shall include, but are not limited to:

- (1) Appointment of delegates and alternates at all levels;
- (2) Timing of primary/caucuses/conventions;
- (3) Procedures for electing delegates and alternates at all levels;
- (4) Procedures providing for equal division in each state’s convention delegation;
- (5) Procedures providing for the selection of the chair of the delegation;
- (6) Particulars concerning the scheduling of delegate selection meetings including methods by which each meeting or event will be publicized;
- (7) Affirmative Action Plans in detail including affirmative action obligations of presidential candidates;
- (8) All petition requirements and filing deadlines for delegates and alternate candidates and for presidential candidates;
- (9) Procedures for ascertaining delegate/alternate preference at all stages;
- (10) Procedures for presidential candidates right of approval;
- (11) Method of awarding delegates and alternates to presidential candidates;
- (12) Methods and timetable for the selection of permanent standing committee members;
- (13) Methods and timetable for the selection of temporary standing committee members;
- (14) Procedures for challenges of the delegate selection and affirmative action processes;
- (15) Methods and timetable for the selection of convention pages; and
- (16) Other appropriate provisions from these Rules, the Call and the Regulations.

B. The following items are to be routinely included at an appropriate place in each state plan:

- (1) Eligibility requirements for participation in the delegate selection process in conformance with Rule 2 [Rule 2];
- (2) Prohibition of cost and fees [Rule 2.D.];
- (3) Prohibition of participation by those participating in another party’s process [Rule 2.E.];

- (4) One-meeting limitation for first-stage participants [Rule 3.E.];
- (5) “Six basic elements” of an open party [Rule 4.];
- (6) Non-discrimination principles [Rule 5.];
- (7) Requirement that all steps take place within calendar year of convention [Rule 10.B.];
- (8) Required identification of preference of candidates for delegate and alternate [Rule 11.A.];
- (9) Protection against coerced vote [Rule 11.I.];
- (10) Quorum requirements [Rule 14.];
- (11) Proxy voting rules, if any [Rule 15.];
- (12) Unit rule prohibition [Rule 16.A.];
- (13) Slate making limitations [Rule 16.B.]; and
- (14) Succession of alternate to delegate statue and filling of vacancies in delegate positions [Rule 17.].

C. Each state party shall provide for a thirty (30) day¹ period of public comment to solicit opinion on the state’s Affirmative Action Plan and Delegate Selection Plan prior to adoption. All written public comments submitted to the state Democratic Committee shall be submitted along with the plans to the Rules and Bylaws Committee of the Democratic National Committee (“DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee”).

D. State Delegate Selection and Affirmative Action Plans shall be submitted to the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee for approval on or before May 1, 1999.

E. The DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee shall act on the proposed plans as soon as practicable, but in no case later than September 16, 1999. Its decision shall be final and binding.

F. Implementation of state Affirmative Action Plans shall begin no later than September 16, 1999.

G. State Delegate Selection Plans shall specify the methods and timetable to be followed in selecting permanent and temporary members of standing committees of the national convention. These provisions shall be in conformity with the rules to be contained in the Call for the 2000 Convention.

H. The Democratic National Committee (“DNC”) and the state parties shall publish and make available at no cost their rules, the 2000 National Delegate Selection Rules, and a clear and concise explanation of how Democratic voters can participate in the delegate selection process. The DNC shall prepare and provide at no cost to state parties a clear and concise explanation of the 2000 Delegate Selection Rules. This shall be done no later than October 1 of the calendar year immediately preceding the calendar year of the national convention.

Rule 2. Participation

A. Participation in the delegate selection process shall be open to all voters who wish to participate as Democrats. Implementation of this administrative matter shall be delegated to the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee.

¹Unless otherwise explicitly specified, reference in these Rules to “day” or “days” means “calendar days.” If the last day of a period falls on a Saturday, Sunday or a federally recognized holiday, the time period shall be extended to the next business day.

B. Nothing in these rules shall be interpreted to encourage or permit states with party registration and enrollment, or states that limit participation to Democrats only, to amend their systems to open participation to members of other parties.

C. State parties shall take all feasible steps to encourage non-affiliated and new voters to register or enroll, to provide simple procedures through which they may do so and to eliminate excessively long waiting periods for voters wishing to register or to change their party enrollment status. In all caucuses or conventions conducted pursuant to these rules, all Democrats who comply with Rule 2.A. shall be allowed to participate.

D. At no stage of the delegate selection process shall any person be required, directly or indirectly, to pay a cost or fee as a condition for participating in the delegate selection process. Voluntary contributions to the Party may be made, but under no circumstances shall a contribution be mandatory for participation.

E. No person shall participate or vote in the nominating process for a Democratic presidential candidate who also participates in the nominating processes of any other party for the corresponding elections.

Rule 3. Scheduling of Delegate Selection Meetings

A. All official Party meetings and events related to the national convention delegate selection process, including caucuses, conventions, committee meetings, filing dates, and Party enrollment periods, shall be scheduled for dates, times and public places which would be most likely to encourage the participation of all Democrats, and must begin and end at reasonable hours.

B. All such meetings or events which are the first meeting or event in the delegate selection process shall be scheduled at times and dates which are uniform throughout the state, except where it is established by the state party and approved by the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee that such uniform times and dates would significantly reduce participation in the delegate selection process.

C. The times, dates, places and rules for the conduct of all caucuses, conventions, meetings and other events involved in the delegate selection process shall be effectively publicized by the Party organization, official, candidate or member calling the same.

D. Concise statements in advance of all meetings and events concerning the relationship between the business to be conducted and the delegate selection process shall be effectively publicized by the Party organization, official, candidate or member calling the same.

E. No person shall participate in more than one meeting which is the first meeting in the delegate selection process.

Rule 4. An Open Party

A. The Democratic National Committee reaffirms its commitment to the 1964 resolution, and requires the national and state parties to incorporate the Six Basic Elements, as updated, into their Party rules and to take appropriate steps to secure their implementation.

B. The 1964 Democratic National Convention adopted a resolution which conditioned the seating of delegates at future conventions on the assurances that discrimination in any state party affairs on the ground of race, color, creed or national origin did not occur. The 1968 Convention adopted the 1964 Convention resolution for inclusion in the Call for the 1972 Convention. In 1966, the Special Equal Rights Committee which had been created in 1964, adopted six anti-discrimination standards—designated as the Six Basic Elements, which, as updated, are as follows:

(1) All public meetings at all levels of the Democratic Party in each state should be open to all members of the Democratic Party regardless of race, sex, age, color, creed, national origin, religion, ethnic identity, sexual orientation, economic status or physical disability (hereinafter collectively referred to as “status”).

(2) No test for membership in, nor any oaths of loyalty to, the Democratic Party in any state should be required or used which has the effect of requiring prospective or current members of the Democratic Party to acquiesce in, condone or support discrimination based on “status.”

(3) The time and place for all public meetings of the Democratic Party on all levels should be publicized fully and in such manner as to assure timely notice to all interested persons. Such meetings must be held in places accessible to all Party members and large enough to accommodate all interested persons.

(4) The Democratic Party, on all levels, should support the broadest possible registration without discrimination based on “status.”

(5) The Democratic Party in each state should publicize fully and in such a manner as to assure notice to all interested parties a full description of the legal and practical procedures for selection of Democratic Party officers and representatives on all levels. Publication of these procedures should be done in such fashion that all prospective and current members of each state Democratic Party will be fully and adequately informed of the pertinent procedures in time to participate in each selection procedure at all levels of the Democratic Party organization.

(6) The Democratic Party in each state should publicize fully and in such a manner as to assure notice to all interested parties a complete description of the legal and practical qualifications of all positions as officers and representatives of the state Democratic Party. Such publication should be done in timely fashion so that all prospective candidates or applicants for any elected or appointed position within each state Democratic Party will have full and adequate opportunity to compete for office.

C. These provisions demonstrate the intention of the Democratic Party to ensure a full opportunity for all “status” (as defined in Rule 4.B.(1)) members to participate in the delegate selection process.

Rule 5. Non-Discrimination

A. In order that the Democratic Party at all levels be an open Party which includes rather than excludes people from participation, a program of effective affirmative action is hereby adopted.

B. Discrimination on the basis of "status" in the conduct of Democratic Party affairs is prohibited.

C. In order to continue the Democratic Party's ongoing efforts to include groups historically under-represented in the Democratic Party's affairs, by virtue of race/ethnicity, age, sexual orientation or disability, each state party shall develop and submit party outreach programs, including recruitment, education and training, in order to achieve full participation by such groups and diversity in the delegate selection process and at all levels of Party affairs.

Rule 6. Affirmative Action

A. In order to encourage full participation by all Democrats in the delegate selection process and in all Party affairs, the national and state Democratic Parties shall adopt and implement affirmative action programs with specific goals and timetables for African Americans, Hispanics, Native Americans, Asian/Pacific Americans and women.

(1) The goal of such affirmative action shall be to encourage participation in the delegate selection process and in Party organizations at all levels by the aforementioned groups as indicated by their presence in the Democratic electorate.

(2) This goal shall not be accomplished either directly or indirectly by the Party's imposition of mandatory quotas at any level of the delegate selection process or in any other Party affairs.

(3) In the selection of each state's at-large delegation, priority of consideration shall be given to African Americans, Hispanics, Native Americans, Asian/Pacific Americans and women, if such priority of consideration is needed to fulfill the affirmative action goals outlined in the state's Delegate Selection Plan. Such remedial action is necessary in order to overcome the effects of past discrimination. Use of the at-large delegation to fulfill the plan's affirmative action goals does not obviate the need for the state party to conduct outreach activities such as recruitment, education and training. Priority of consideration shall also be given to other groups as described in Rule 5.(C), which are under-represented in Democratic Party affairs, in order to assist in the achievement of full participation by these groups.

B. Performance under an approved Affirmative Action Plan and composition of the convention delegation shall be considered relevant evidence in the challenge to any state delegation. If a state party has adopted and implemented an approved affirmative action program, the state party shall not be subject to challenge based solely on delegation composition or primary results.

C. State Delegate Selection Plans shall provide for equal division between delegate men and delegate women and alternate men and alternate women within the state's entire convention delegation. For purposes of this rule, the entire delegation includes all pledged delegates and alternates and unpledged delegates (including unpledged party leaders and elected official delegates and unpledged all-on delegates).

(1) State Delegate Selection Plans shall, as far as mathematically practicable, also provide the equal division between district-level delegate men and delegate women and district-level alternate men and alternate women.

(2) The DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee shall have continuing jurisdiction to ensure compliance with this equal division requirement. No at-large delegate or alternate from a state shall be placed on the temporary roll of the 2000 Democratic National Convention unless the Rules and Bylaws Committee has certified to the Secretary of the Democratic National Committee that such state's delegation complies with this equal division rule. It shall be the duty of the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee to determine such compliance as soon as practicable following the certification of the state's at-large delegates and alternates.

(3) Notwithstanding sub-paragraph A.(2) above, equal division at any level of delegate or committee positions between delegate men and delegate women or committeemen and committeewomen shall not constitute a violation of any provision thereof.

D. For purposes of providing adequate notice of the delegate selection process under Rule 3, the times, dates, places and rules for the conduct of all caucuses, conventions, meetings and other events involved in the delegate selection process shall be effectively publicized, bilingually where necessary, to encourage the participation of minority groups.

E. State Democratic Parties shall ensure that district lines used in the delegate selection process are not gerrymandered to discriminate against African Americans, Hispanics, Native Americans, Asian/Pacific Americans and women.

F. Each state Affirmative Action Plan shall provide for the appointment of a representative state Affirmative Action Committee by March 1, 1999.

G. Each state affirmative action program shall include outreach provisions to encourage the participation and representation of persons of low and moderate income, and a specific plan to help defray expenses of those delegates otherwise unable to participate in the national convention.

H. State parties in their Delegate Selection Plans shall impose reasonable specific affirmative action obligations upon candidates consistent with the delegate selection system employed by the state.

(1) State parties shall require presidential candidates to submit statements that specify which steps such candidates will take to encourage full participation in their delegate selection process, including, but not limited to, procedures by which persons may file as candidates for delegate or alternate.

(2) State parties shall require presidential candidates to submit demographic information with respect to candidates for delegate and alternate pledged to them.

I. Presidential candidates (including uncommitted status) shall use their best efforts to ensure that their respective delegations within a state's delegation shall achieve the affirmative action goals established by the state's Delegate Selection Plan and that the respective delegations of each presidential candidate within the state's delegation shall be equally divided between men and women.

Rule 7. National Convention Delegate Apportionment

A. Apportionment of district-level delegates within states shall be based on one of the following:

(1) A formula giving equal weight to total population and to the average of the vote for the Democratic candidates in the two most recent presidential elections;

(2) A formula giving equal weight to the vote for the Democratic candidates in the most recent presidential and gubernatorial elections;

(3) A formula giving equal weight to the average of the vote for the Democratic candidates in the two most recent presidential elections and to Democratic Party registration or enrollment as of January 1, 2000; or

(4) A formula giving one-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) weight to each of the formulas in items (1), (2), and (3).

B. Apportionment for each body selecting delegates to state, district, and county conventions shall be based upon population and/or some measure of Democratic strength.

C. The Call for the 2000 Convention shall state the base delegation for each delegation. Seventy-five percent (75%) of each state's base delegation shall be elected at the congressional district level or lower. Twenty-five percent (25%) of each state's base delegation shall be elected at large. Delegates so elected shall hereafter be termed "district-level" and "at-large" delegates, respectively. Each State Democratic Chair shall certify all delegates in writing to the Secretary of the DNC.

D. In those states with more than one congressional district, after the election of district-level delegates and prior to the selection of at-large delegates, each State Democratic Chair shall certify pledged party leader and elected official delegates equal to 15% of the state's base delegation selected pursuant to Rule 8.

E. In states with one congressional district, the election of district-level and at-large delegates and alternates may take place at the same meeting, provided that affirmative action and fair reflection guidelines are met and the Democratic Chair of each such state shall make the certifications required by subsection 7.D.

Rule 8. Unpledged and Pledged Party Leader and Elected Official Delegates

A. The procedure to be used for certifying unpledged party leader and elected official delegates is as follows:

Not later than March 1, 2000, the Secretary of the Democratic National Committee shall officially confirm to each State Democratic Chair the names of the following unpledged delegates who legally reside in their respective state and who shall be recognized as part of their state's delegation:

(1) The individuals recognized as members of the DNC (as set forth in Article Three, Sections 2 and 3 of the Charter of the Democratic Party of the United States); and,

(2) The Democratic President and the Democratic Vice President of the United States, if applicable; and,

(3) All Democratic members of the United States House of Representatives and all Democratic members of the United States Senate; and,

(4) The Democratic Governor,² if applicable; and,

(5) All former Democratic Presidents, all former Democratic Vice Presidents, all former Democratic Leaders of the U.S. Senate, all former Democratic Speakers of the U.S. House of Representatives and Democratic Minority Leaders, as applicable, and all former Chairs of the Democratic National Committee.

B. Following the selection of district-level delegates, and prior to the selection of pledged party leader and elected official delegates, unpledged add-on delegates shall be selected according to the following procedures:

(1) Unpledged add-on delegates may be selected by either the same selecting body which will select the state's party leader and elected official delegates, or by the same selecting body which will select the state's at-large delegates and alternates.

(2) The equal division and affirmative action provisions of Rule 9.A. apply to the selection of unpledged add-on delegates.

(3) The list from which the selecting body chooses the unpledged add-on delegates shall contain the same minimum number of names for every such add-on position to be filled as the minimum number of names required by the state's delegate selection plan to remain on the list of bona fide supporters for each at-large and pledged party leader and elected official delegate pursuant to Rule 11.E.(2).

(4) Unpledged add-on delegates are not entitled to alternates, and neither shall the delegation be entitled to a replacement, except in the case of death.

(5) Unpledged add-on delegates may be selected whether or not they previously filed a statement of candidacy for a delegate position or submitted a pledge of support for a presidential candidate.

C. Following the selection of unpledged add-on delegates under 8.B., pledged party leader and elected official delegates are to be selected subject to the following procedures:

(1) Persons shall be considered for pledged party leader and elected official delegates and alternates according to the following priority: big city mayors and state-wide elected officials to be given equal consideration; state legislative leaders, and state legislators, and other state, county and local elected officials and party leaders.

(2) These slots shall be allocated on the same basis as the state's at-large delegates.

(3) If persons eligible for pledged party leader and elected official delegate positions have not made known their presidential preference under the procedures established by the state pursuant to Rule 11 for candidates for district-level and at-large delegate positions, their preferences shall be ascertained through alternative procedures established by the state party, which shall require a signed pledge of support for a presidential candidate. Such an alternative system shall have a final deadline for submitting a pledge of support after the selection of all district-level delegates has been completed and must provide an opportunity for disapproval by the presidential candidate or the candidate's authorized representative.

D. A state's party leader and elected official delegates may be chosen by a state convention³ or by a committee consisting of a quorum of district-level delegates. They may also be chosen by the State Party Committee, as recognized by the Democratic National Committee, but only if the state's Delegate Selection Plan is in full compliance with these rules, and provided:

- (1) Membership on the State Party Committee is apportioned on the basis of population and/or some measure of Democratic strength;
- (2) Members of the State Party Committee have been elected through open processes in conformity with the basic procedural guarantees utilized for delegate selection;
- (3) Such delegates are elected at a public meeting subsequent to the election of district-level delegates;
- (4) Members of the State Party Committee exercising such authority shall have been elected no earlier than the date of the previous presidential election; and
- (5) Membership of the State Party Committee complies with the equal division requirements of Article 9, Section 16 of the Charter of the Democratic Party of the United States.

E. Except as provided in 8.A. above, no person shall serve as an automatic delegate at any level of the delegate selection process by virtue of holding a public or party office.

Rule 9. Selection of At-Large Delegates

A. The selection of at-large delegates shall be used, if necessary, to achieve the equal division of positions between men and women and the representation goals established in the state's party's Affirmative Action Plan. Such goals apply to the state's entire delegation considered as a whole. For purposes of this rule, the entire delegation includes all unpledged as well as all pledged delegates. Delegates and alternates shall each, as a group, be equally divided and, to the extent possible, each as a group shall reflect the representation goals established in the state's Affirmative Action Plan.

B. A state's at-large delegates and alternates shall be selected by one of the bodies, subject to the same conditions specified in Rule 8.D. above, provided, however, the State Party Committee may choose such delegates and alternates only if the state's Delegate Selection Plan is in full compliance with these rules.

C. At-large delegates and alternates (including pledged party leader and elected official delegates, which shall include those to be allocated to uncommitted status) in primary states shall be allocated according to the state-wide primary vote or, in states holding no state-wide primary, according to the division of preferences among convention and caucus participants. In non-primary states which do not hold state conventions authorized to elect delegates, at-large delegates shall be apportioned according to the division of preference among district-level delegates at the time of district-level selection. If a presidential entitled to an allocation under this rule is no longer a candidate at the time at-large delegates are selected, his/her allocation shall be proportionately divided among the other preferences entitled to an allocation.

Rule 10. Timing of the Delegate Selection Process

A. No meetings, caucuses, conventions or primaries which constitute the first determining stage in the presidential nomination process (the date of the primary in primary states, and the date of the first tier caucus in caucus states) may be held prior to the first Tuesday in March or after the second Tuesday in June in the calendar year of the national convention. Provided, however, that the Iowa precinct caucuses may be held no earlier than 15 days before the first Tuesday in March; that the New Hampshire primary may be held no earlier than 7 days before the first Tuesday in March; that the Maine first tier caucuses may be held no earlier than 2 days before the first Tuesday in March. In no instance may a state which scheduled delegate selection procedures on or between the first Tuesday in March and the second Tuesday in June 1984 move out of compliance with the provisions of this rule.

B. All steps in the delegate selection process, including the filing of presidential candidates, must take place within the calendar year of the Democratic National Convention (except as otherwise provided in these rules).

Rule 11. Presidential Preference

A. All candidate for delegate and alternate in caucuses, conventions, committees and on primary ballots shall be identified as a presidential preference on uncommitted status at all levels of a process which determine presidential preference.

B. All persons wishing to be elected to a district-level or at-large delegate position must file a statement of candidacy designating the presidential or uncommitted preference of the delegate candidate and a signed pledge of support for the presidential candidate (including uncommitted status) the person favors, if may, with the state party by a date certain as specified in the state's Delegate Selection Plan. Persons wishing to be elected as pledged party leader and elected official delegates shall comply with Rule 8.C.(3).

C. All candidates considered for district-level alternate positions must meet the same requirements as candidates for district-level delegate positions, except that the state may allow candidates who were to chosen at the delegate level to be considered at the alternate level.

D. Prior to the selection of national convention delegates and alternates, the same party shall convey to the presidential candidates, or that candidate's authorized representative(s), a list of all persons who have filed for delegate or alternate positions pledged to that presidential candidate. All such delegate and alternate candidates shall be considered bona fide supporters of the presidential candidate whom they have pledged to support, unless the presidential candidate, or that candidate's authorized representative(s), signifies otherwise in writing to the state party by a date certain as specified in that state's Delegate Selection Plan.

(1) Presidential candidates shall certify in writing to the Democratic State Chair the name(s) of their authorized representative(s) by a date certain.

(2) In state where delegates are voted upon on the ballot, the date by which the presidential candidate, or that candidate's authorized representative(s), signifies approval or disapproval of the list of delegate and alternate candidates in writing to the state party as required by Rule 11.D., must allow sufficient time to ensure that names removed from the list do not appear on the ballot.

E. National convention delegate and alternate candidates removed from the list of bona fide supporters by a presidential candidate, or that candidate's authorized representative(s), may not be elected as a delegated or alternate at that level of pledged to that presidential candidate (including uncommitted status).

(1) Presidential candidates may not remove any candidate for a district-level delegate or alternate position from the list of bona fide supporters unless, at a minimum, three (3) names remain for every such position to which the presidential candidate is entitled. Provided, however, that in states where individual district-level delegates and alternates are voted upon on the ballot, the presidential candidate, or that candidate's authorized representative(s), may approve a number of delegate candidates or alternate candidates equal to or greater than the number of delegates or alternates allocated to the district.

(2) Presidential candidates (including uncommitted status), in consultation with the state party, may remove any candidate for at-large and pledged party leader and elected official delegate or alternate position from the list of bona fide supporters as long as, at a minimum, one (1) name remains for every national convention delegate or alternate position to which the presidential candidate is entitled, except that a state may provide in its delegate selection plan, if the plan is approved by the Rules and Bylaws Committee, that presidential candidates (including uncommitted status), may remove any candidate for an at-large and party leader and elected official delegate or alternate position from the list of bona fide supporters as long as, at a minimum, two (2) names remain in for every position to which the presidential candidate is entitled.

F. State parties shall ensure that state Delegate Selection Plans provide fair and adequate time for persons to file for delegate or alternate positions, and for presidential candidates, or their authorized representative(s), to review the list of persons who have filed, and to remove from that list persons not confirmed by the presidential candidate or his/her representatives(s) as bona fide supporters of the presidential candidate.

G. Except in states where individual delegates and alternates are selected on the ballot, district-level national convention delegates and alternates pledged to a presidential candidate (including uncommitted status) shall be selected or nominated by a caucus of persons from the unit electing the delegates and alternates who sign statements of support for that presidential candidate. Uncommitted delegates and alternates shall be elected by the uncommitted caucus from the appropriate unit.

H. A district-level delegate and alternate candidate may run for election only within the district in which he or she is registered to vote. For purposes of these rules, all delegates and alternates must be bona fide Democrats who have the interests, welfare and success of the Democratic Party of the United States at heart, who subscribe to the substance, intent and principles of the Charter and the Bylaws of the Democratic Party of the United States, and who will participate in the Convention in good faith.

I. No delegate at any level of the delegate selection process shall be mandated by law or Party rule to vote contrary to that person's presidential choice as expressed at the time the delegate is elected.

J. Delegates elected to the national convention pledged to a presidential candidate shall in all good conscience reflect the sentiments of those who elected them.

K. (1) Based on the right of the Democratic Party to freely assemble and to determine the criteria for its candidates, it is determined that all candidates for the Democratic nomination for President or Vice President shall:

(a) be registered to vote, and shall have been registered to vote in the last election for the office of President and Vice President; and

(b) have demonstrated a commitment to the goals and objectives of the Democratic Party as determined by the National Chair and will participate in the Convention in good faith.

(2) It is further determined that these requirements are in addition to the requirements set forth by the United States Constitution and any law of the United States.

Rule 12. Fair Reflection of Presidential Preferences

A. Delegates shall be allocated in a fashion that fairly reflects the expressed presidential preference or uncommitted status of the primary voters or, if there is no binding primary, the convention and/or caucus participants.

B. States shall allocate district-level delegates and alternates in proportion to the percentage of the primary or caucus vote won in that district by each preference, except that preference falling below a 15% threshold shall not be awarded any delegates. Subject to section F. of this rule, no state shall have a threshold above or below 15%. States which use a caucus/convention system, shall specify in their Delegate Selection Plans the caucus level at which such percentages shall be determined.

C. A presidential candidate or his/her authorized representatives(s) should act in good faith to slate delegate and alternate candidates, however, in any event, if a presidential candidate (including uncommitted status) has qualified to receive delegates and alternates but has failed to slate a sufficient number of delegate and alternate candidates then additional delegates and alternates for that preference will be selected in a special post-primary procedure. The State Party will administer special post-primary procedures according to rules approved by the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee and such procedures should be set forth in the state's delegate selection plan, where applicable.

D. District-level delegates and alternates shall be allocated according to the following procedures:

Step 1: Tabulate the percentage of the vote that each presidential preference (including uncommitted status) receives in the congressional district to three decimals.

Step 2: Retabulate the percentage of the vote to three decimals, received by each presidential preference excluding the votes of presidential preferences whose percentage in Step 1 falls below 15%.

Step 3: Multiply the number of delegates to be allocated by the percentage received by each presidential preference.

Step 4: Delegates shall be allocated to each presidential preference based on the whole numbers which result from the multiplication in Step 3.

Step 5: Remaining delegates, if any, shall be awarded in order of the highest fractional remainders in Step 3.

E. At-large and pledged party leader and elected official delegate and alternate positions shall be allocated to presidential preferences by reference to primary or convention votes or to the division of preference among district-level delegates or alternates, as the case may be, as specified in Rule 9.C., except that a preference falling below a threshold of 15% shall not be awarded any delegates or alternates at this level. Such delegates and alternates in primary states shall be allocated to presidential preference (including uncommitted status) according to the statewide primary vote.

F. In all situations where no preference reaches the applicable threshold, the threshold shall be the percentage of the vote received at each level of the delegate selections process by the front-runner minus 10 percent.

G. Under no circumstances shall the use of single-delegate districts be permitted.

H. For the purpose of fairly reflecting the division of preferences, the non-binding advisory presidential preference portion of primaries shall not be considered a step in the delegate selection process.

Rule 13. Petition Requirements and Filing Deadlines

A. If a state requires the filing of petitions with the signatures of registered/enrolled voters as the sole method to place a presidential candidate's name on the primary ballot in connection with the Democratic presidential nominating process, such number of valid signatures shall not exceed 5,000.

B. If a state requires the payment of a fee in order to place a presidential candidate's name on the ballot in connection with the Democratic presidential nominating process, such fee shall not exceed $2,500.

C. If a state requires the filing of a petition with the signatures of registered/enrolled voters in order to have a delegate/alternate candidate gain access to the primary ballot in connection with the Democratic presidential nominating process, the number of valid signatures shall not exceed either one half of one percent (.5%) of the registered/enrolled Democrats in such district or one half of one percent (.5%) of the total votes in such district for all Democratic presidential candidates (including uncommitted) during the immediately preceding presidential nominating process, whichever is lower, but in no event shall the number of valid signatures required to exceed 1,000.

D. Subject to the prior sections of this rule, the number of valid signatures required of a presidential candidate to file a petition to gain access to the primary ballot, and the number of valid signatures required of a delegate/alternate candidate to gain access to the primary ballot, and the fees required to be paid to the state by a presidential candidate and by a delegate/alternate candidate to gain access to the primary ballot, in connection with the Democratic presidential nominating process, shall not exceed those in effect in the particular state as of January 1, 1994.

E. No deadline for the filing of petitions for participation in the presidential nomination process by a presidential candidate shall be less than 30 days in advance of the primary or caucus nor more than 75 days in advance of the primary caucus.

F. No candidate for delegate or alternate shall be required to file a statement of candidacy or a pledge of support as required by Rule 11.B. prior to 30 days before such delegate or alternate candidate is to be selected or elected in a primary, caucus or pre-primary caucus; provided, however, that in states holding a presidential primary where individual district-level delegates or alternates are to be voted upon on the ballot, no candidate for delegate or alternate shall be required to submit or file a statement of candidacy or a pledge of support prior to 90 days before the date on which they are to be voted upon.

G. No candidate for at-large or pledged party leader and elected official delegate or alternate shall be required to file a statement of candidacy or a pledge of support required by Rule 11.B. prior to 30 days before the date when the delegate or alternate is to be selected or voted upon.

H. No state's delegate selection rules may require the filing of district-level delegate or alternate candidates pledged to a presidential candidate or uncommitted status as a condition of access by a presidential candidate to the primary ballot for voting upon presidential preference.

Rule 14. Quorum Requirements

No less than forty percent (40%) of the members of any Party body above the first level of the delegate selection process shall constitute a quorum for any business pertaining to the selection of convention delegates.

Rule 15. Proxy Voting

To ensure full participation in the delegate selection process, state party rules may, at their discretion, provide for proxy voting. Such rules shall allow an accredited participant in a caucus, convention or committee meeting, after having appeared at such meeting and having established credentials, to register the non-transferable proxy with another duly accredited participant at that meeting (except where an accredited alternate is present and eligible to serve as a replacement). No such rule shall allow a person to hold more than three (3) proxies at a time.

Rule 16. Unit Rule and Slate-Making

A. The unit rule, or any rule or practice whereby all members of a Party unit or delegation may be required to cast their votes in accordance with the will of a majority of the body, shall not be used at any stage of the delegate selection process.

B. Any individual or group of Democrats may sponsor or endorse a slate of candidates for convention delegates. But no slate may, by virtue of such endorsement, receive a preferential place on a delegate selection ballot or be publicly identified on the ballot as the official Democratic Party organization slate, and all slates must meet identical qualifying requirements for appearing on a ballot at all levels of the delegate selection process.

Rule 17. Alternates and Vacancies

A. Alternate delegates shall be selected by primary, convention or committee processes subject to the same National Party Rules applicable to the selection of delegates, except that the provisions of Rules 8.A. and 8.B. shall not apply to the election of alternates. Each State Democratic Chair shall certify all alternates in writing to the Secretary of the DNC.

B. If a given presidential preference is entitled to one or more delegate positions in a state but would not otherwise be entitled to an alternate position, that preference shall be allotted one at-large alternate position.

C. The proportions of alternates elected at the district level, and at-large, and as pledged party leader and elected official alternates, may be the same as the proportions of delegates elected in those categories.

D. Each state Delegate Selection Plan shall specifically provide how and under what conditions an alternate is to replace or act in lieu of (collectively referred to as "replace" or "replaces") a delegate.

(1) Delegate Selection Plans may specify one or any combination of the following alternatives for permanent and temporary replacements;

- (a) The delegate chooses the alternate;
- (b) The delegation chooses the alternate;
- (c) The alternate who receives the highest number of votes;

(d) Such other process as protects the interests of presidential candidates, delegates and alternates.

(2) A permanent replacement occurs when a delegate resigns or dies prior to and during the National Convention and the alternate replaces the delegate for the remainder of the National Convention. Any alternate who permanently replaces a delegate shall be certified in writing to the Secretary of the DNC by the State Democratic Chair. He/She shall be of the same presidential preference (including uncommitted status) and sex of the delegate he/she replaces, and to the extent possible shall be from the same political subdivision within the state as the delegate; except in the case where the presidential candidate has only one alternate, in which case, that alternate shall become the certified delegate.

(3) A temporary replacement occurs when a delegate is to be absent for a limited period of time during the convention and an alternate temporarily acts in the delegate's place. Any alternate who temporarily replaces a delegate must be of the same presidential preference (including uncommitted status) as the delegate he/she replaces, and to the extent possible shall be of the same sex and from the same political subdivision within the state as the delegate.

E. Delegates elected under the provisions of Rules 8.A. and 8.B. shall not be entitled to name a replacement under Rule 17.D., nor shall the state be entitled to a replacement except in case of death.

F. A vacant alternate position shall be filled by the delegation. The replacement shall be of the same presidential preference (or uncommitted status), of the same sex and, to the extent possible, from the same political subdivision as the alternate being replaced. Each replacement of a vacant alternate position shall be certified in writing to the Secretary of the DNC by the State Democratic Chair.

Rule 18. DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee

A. The DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee will assist in the administration enforce affirmative action and delegate selection requirements for the national and state Democratic Parties.

B. The DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee shall implement the Delegate Selection Rules in a manner consistent with these rules.

C. The DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee will provide state parties with a model Delegate Selection and Affirmative Action Plan.

D. The DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee shall:

(1) review Affirmative Action and Delegate Selection Plans submitted by state parties and approve or recommend changes in such plans;

(2) conduct periodic evaluations and provide technical assistance to state parties on affirmative action and delegate selection implementation;

(3) hear and recommend solutions to affirmative action complaints unresolved by appropriate state party bodies.

E. The DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee shall retain jurisdiction over the approval of amendments to state Delegate Selection Plans and state delegation compliance with equal division requirements, even after the Convention Credentials Committee assumes jurisdiction over challenges to the credentials of delegates.

F. No later than December 15, 1998, the DNC Rules and By-laws Committee shall send to state parties its regulations adopted pursuant to these rules and a check list.

G. The DNC shall allocate sufficient financial resources and staff to implement this rule.

Rule 19. Challenges

A. Jurisdictional Challenges. Any challenges to a state party organization in respect to its status as the body entitled to sponsor a delegation from that state must be presented to the DNC at any time up to thirty (30) days prior to the initiation of the state's delegate selection process. Such a challenge must be brought by at least fifteen (15) Democrats from the state.

B. Submission, Non-Implementation and Violation Challenges. Failure to submit or implement an approved affirmative action program by the deadline specified in these rules shall constitute grounds for a challenge with the burden of proof on the challenged party.

(1) At any time up to thirty (30) days prior to the initiation of the state's delegate selection process, any group of not less than fifteen (15) Democrats in that state can challenge the affirmative action program on the basis of non-implementation of a specific requirement of a state plan, which challenge shall include reasonable documentation of alleged violations. (In such challenges, the challenging party shall have the burden of proof, but the challenged party shall present its case first.)

(a) In the absence of any such challenge, the implementation of any such program shall be presumptively in compliance.

(b) If challenged and upheld, the compliance of such implementation programs shall be conclusive but not as to compliance of no-compliance that may occur after the date of the challenge.

(2) Challenges regarding alleged violation of an approved Delegate Selection Plan shall first be brought to the appropriate state Democratic Party body for a decision to be rendered within twenty-one (21) days. After due notice, any aggrieved party shall have the rights to appeal to the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee within ten (10) days following the decision of the state body according to procedures established by DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee.

(3) The DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee shall either certify compliance, certify non-compliance or require corrective action after which compliance or non-compliance shall be certified.

C. (1) Violation of timing.

In the event the Delegate Selection Plan of a state party provides or permits a meeting, caucus, convention or primary which constitutes the first determining stage in the presidential nominating process to be held prior to or after the dates for the state as provided in Rule 10 of these rules, or in the event a state holds such a meeting, caucus, convention or primary prior to or after such dates, the number of district-level delegates allocated to the state pursuant to the Call for the National Convention shall be reduced by twenty-five (25%) percent, and the number of district-level alternates shall also be reduced by twenty-five (25%) percent. In addition, none of the members of the Democratic National Committee from that state shall be permitted to vote as members of the state's delegation, except that the Rules and Bylaws Committee may exempt a DNC member(s) from this provision, if it finds the DNC member(s) took provable positive steps pursuant to Rule 20.B. to help the state plan achieve compliance with the applicable rule. In determining the actual number of delegates or a alternates by which the state's delegation district-level delegates and alternates are to be reduced, any fraction below .5 shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number, and any fraction of .5 or greater shall be rounded up to the next nearest whole number.

(2) Violation of proportional representation. In the event the Delegate Selection Plan of a state party provides or permits the pledged delegates or alternates to be allocated to presidential preference (including uncommitted status) other than as provided under Rule 12 of these rules, or in the event a state party, in fact, allocates its pledged delegates or alternates to presidential preference (including uncommitted status) other than as provided under Rule 12 of these rules, the delegation of the state shall be reduced by the same amount and as provided in section C.(1) of this rule.

(3) Violation of the threshold. In the event the Delegates Selection Plan of a state party provides or permits a threshold other than fifteen (15%) percent as set forth in Rule 12 of these rules, or in the event a state party in fact permits the implementation of a threshold other than fifteen (15%) percent as provided in Rule 12 of these rules, the delegation of the state shall be reduced by the same amount and as provided in section C.(1) of this rule.

(4) Upon a determination of the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee that a state is in violation as set forth in subsections (1), (2) or (3) of section C. of this rule, the reductions required under those subsections shall become effective automatically and immediately and without further action of the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee, the Executive Committee on the DNC, the DNC or the Credentials Committee of the Democratic National Convention.

(5) Nothing in the preceding subsections of this rule shall be construed to prevent the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee from imposing additional sanctions, including, without limitation, those specified in subsection (6) of this section C., against a state party and against the delegation from the state which is subject to the provisions of any of subsections (1) through (3) of this section C., including, without limitation, establishing a committee to propose and implement a process which will result in the selection of a delegation from the affected state which shall (i) be broadly representative, (ii) reflect the state's division of presidential preference and uncommitted status and (iii) involve as broad participation as is practicable under the circumstances.

(6) Nothing in these rules shall prevent the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee from imposing sanctions the Committee deems appropriate with respect to a state which the Committee determines has failed or refused to comply with these rules, where the failure or refusal of the state party is not subject to subsections (1), (2) or (3) of this section C. Possible sanctions include, but are not limited to: reduction of the state's delegation; pursuant to Rule 20.C., recommending the establishment of a committee to propose and implement a process which will result in the selection of a delegation from the affected state which shall (i) be broadly representative, (ii) reflect the state's division of presidential preference and uncommitted status and (iii) involve as broad participation as is practicable under the circumstances; reducing, in part or in whole, the number of the state's temporary and permanent members to the Standing Committees; reducing, in part or in whole, the number of guests, VIP and other passes/tickets to the National Convention and related functions; assignment of location of the state's delegates and alternates in the Convention hall; and assignment of the state's housing and other convention related facilities.

(7) In the event a state shall become subject to subsections (1), (2) or (3) of section C. of this rule as a result of state law but the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee, after an investigation, including hearings if necessary, determines the state party and the other relevant Democratic party leaders and elected officials took all provable, positive steps and acted in good faith to achieve legislative changes to bring the state law into compliance with the pertinent provisions of these rules and determines that the state party and the other relevant Democratic party leaders and elected officials took all provable, positive steps and acted in good faith in attempting to prevent legislative changes which resulted in state law that fails to comply with the pertinent provisions of these rules, the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee may determine that the state's delegation shall not be reduced. The state party shall have the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that it and the other relevant Democratic party leaders and elected officials took all provable, positive steps and acted in good faith to achieve legislative changes to bring the state law into compliance with the pertinent provisions of these rules and that it and the other relevant Democratic party leaders and elected officials took all provable, positive steps and acted in good faith in attempting to prevent the legislative changes which resulted in state law that fails to comply with the pertinent provisions of these rules.

(8) A state party may provide in its Delegates Selection Plan the specific method and procedures by which it will reduce its delegation pursuant to this Rule 19 in the event the state party delegation becomes subject to this Rule 19 by which the delegation must be reduced by twenty five (25%) percent, which specific method and procedures shall be subject to the review and approval of the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee. In the event a state's Delegate Selection Plan does not provide for the specific method and procedures referred to in the immediately preceding sentence, or in the event the state's Delegate Selection Plan is either not approved by the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee or the specific method and procedures referred to in the first sentence of this subsection (8) are not approved by the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee, or in the event a state's Delegate Selection Plan specifies the method and procedures which have been approved by the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee, but the state party fails or refuses to implement those specific method and procedures, and in the event the state's delegation is required to be reduced pursuant to this Rule 19, then the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee shall, by lottery, or other appropriate method determined by the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee, determine which delegates and alternates shall not be a part of the state's delegation in order to achieve the reduction of the state's delegation pursuant to this Rule 19. Any reduction of district-level delegates under this provision shall be accomplished in a manner which complies with the requirement of proportional representation as provided for in Rule 12.

(9) Except as provided by subsection (7) of this section C., the fact that a state party took provable, positive steps as provided in Rule 20 of these rules shall not preclude the state's delegation from being subject to the sanctions set forth in subsection (1), (2) (3), (4) and (5) of this section C. D. Unresolved Challenges and Report to the Credentials Committee. The DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee shall report its activities, together with all challenges and complaints, to the Credentials Committee of the Democratic National Convention. In cases involving unresolved challenges which are appealed to the Credentials Committee, the burden of proof shall rest with the party presenting the challenge.

Rule 20. State Legislative Changes

A. Subject to Rule 19.C. of these Rules, wherever any part of any section contained in these rules conflicts with existing state laws, the state party shall take provable positive steps to achieve legislative changes to bring the state law into compliance with the provision of these rules.

B. Provable positive steps shall be taken in a timely fashion and shall include the drafting of corrective legislation; public endorsement by the state party of such legislation; efforts to educate the public on the need for such legislation; active support for the legislation by the state party lobbying state legislation, other public officials, Party officials and Party members; and encouraging consideration of the legislation by the appropriate legislative committees and bodies.

C. A state party may be required by a vote of the DNC Executive Committee upon a recommendation of the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee to adopt and implement an alternative Party-run delegate selection which does not conflict with these rules, regardless of any provable positive steps the state may have taken.

CALL

For the 2000 Democratic National Convention

Adopted by the Democratic National Committee at its meeting September 26, 1998.

To Whom It May Concern:

By authority of the Democratic National Committee, the National Convention of the Democratic Party is hereby scheduled to convene August 14, 2000, at the STAPLES Center in Los Angeles, California, at an hour to be announced, to select nominees for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States of America, to adopt and promulgate a platform and to take such other actions with respect to such other matters as the Convention may deem advisable.

Article I. Distribution of Delegate Votes

The distribution of votes, delegates and alternates to the 2000 Democratic National Convention shall be in accordance with the following:

A. The number of Convention votes for delegates to the Convention shall be as set forth in the compilation included in this resolution and determined as provided in paragraphs B, C, D, E, F, G, and H.¹

B. A base of 3,000 delegate votes is distributed among the 50 states and the District of Columbia according to a formula giving equal weight to the sum of vote for the Democratic candidates in the three (3) most recent presidential elections and to population by electoral vote. The formula is expressed mathematically as follows:

A = Allocation Factor.
SDV = State Democratic Vote.
SEV = State Electoral Vote.
TDV = Total Democratic Vote.

To determine the base delegation for each state and the District of Columbia, the allocation fractions as determined by the above formula are multiplied by 3,000. Fractions of .5 and above are rounded up to the next highest integer.

C. Fifteen percent (15%) of the base delegate votes determined pursuant to paragraphs B and D shall be added to the number of votes allocated for the purpose of representing pledged Party and Elected Official delegates. For purposes of this paragraph, the number of base delegate votes determined pursuant to paragraph B shall be the number determined thereunder after rounding. Fractions of .5 and above resulting from the multiplication required by this paragraph are rounded up the next highest integer.

D. American Samoa, Guam and Virgin Islands will each receive three (3) at-large delegate votes. Democrats Abroad will receive six (6) at-large and one (1) pledged Party and Elected Official delegate votes. Puerto Rico will receive forty-four (44) base delegate votes.

E. Unpledged votes shall be allocated to each delegation to accommodate the members of the Democratic National Committee for that state or territory in which they legally reside. The size of such a member's vote (i.e., whole or fractional) shall be the same size as that which he or she is allowed to cast at meetings of the Democratic National Committee. Additional unpledged delegates shall be allocated for other offices serving in positions created by the Democratic National Committee in accordance with Article 3, Section 1.(e) of the Charter of the Democratic Party of the United States.

F. Unpledged votes shall be allocated to provide the Democratic President, the Democratic Vice President, and all former Democratic Presidents, all former Democratic Vice Presidents, all former Democratic Leaders of the United States Senate, all former Democratic Speakers of the United States House of Representatives and Democratic Minority Leaders, as applicable, and all former Chairs of the Democratic National Committee.² Such delegates shall be seated with the state delegations from the state in which they have their voting residences.

G. Additional unpledged votes shall be added if needed to provide for the Democratic Governor³ (if any) from the state or territory and for the Democratic Members of the United States House of Representatives and Democratic United States Senators from that state or territory (if any).⁴

H. In addition to the delegates allocated to the delegations pursuant to paragraphs B, C, D, E, F and G, each state, territory or commonwealth shall select a number of unpledged add-on delegates equivalent to one (1) such delegate for every four (4) votes on the Democratic National Committee from that state, territory or commonwealth, pursuant to Rule 8.B. of the Delegate Selection Rules. Fractions of .5 and above are rounded up to the next highest integer.

I. Each state, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico may select a number of alternates equivalent to one (1) alternate for every six (6) Convention votes received by it pursuant to paragraphs B, C and D, provided however, that each such delegation shall have at least four (4) alternates. American Samoa, Democrats Abroad, Guam and the Virgin Islands shall each have one (1) alternate. Fractions of .5 and above are rounded up to the next highest integer. It is further provided that each state shall have the number of additional at-large alternates necessary to provide at least one alternate for each presidential candidate who is entitled to delegates from that state, if the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee determines that the number of alternates allocated to the state is not sufficient for each presidential candidate to have at least one alternate.

²Former Chairs of the Democratic National Committee shall include National Chairs and General Chairs.

³The Mayor of the District of Columbia, shall be treated as a Democratic Governor.

⁴The District of Columbia's Statehood Senators, if Democrats, shall be treated as Democratic United States Senators.

J. Members of the Democratic National Committee and delegates selected pursuant to paragraphs F, G and H will be ineligible to serve as delegates under any other category and may hold no more than one (1) vote. Democratic Governors, Democratic Members of the United States House of Representatives and Democratic United States Senators who are members of the Democratic National Committee shall serve as delegates by virtue of their membership on the National Committee.

Article II. Qualifications of State Delegations

A. Notice is hereby given that delegates, alternates and standing committee members to the Democratic National Convention shall be elected in accordance with the Charter and Bylaws of the Democratic Party of the United States, the Delegate Selection Rules for the 2000 Democratic National Convention, the Call for the 2000 Democratic National Convention, and the Regulations of the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee. The DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee shall have the final authority to regulate the delegate selection process, subject to the authority of the Convention Credentials Committee and the Democratic National Convention. It shall be the duty of the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee to administer the delegate selection process and ensure compliance with the rules, including equal division, and report to the Secretary of the Democratic National Committee those states which are in non-compliance. Only delegates and alternates selected under a delegated selection procedure approved by the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee and in accordance with the rules shall be placed on the Temporary Roll of the 2000 Democratic National Convention. Only standing committee members and convention pages chosen pursuant to a state delegate selection plan found in compliance with the rules by the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee shall be qualified to serve in their respective capacities.

B. It is understood that a State Democratic Party, in electing and certifying delegates and alternates to the Democratic National Convention, thereby undertakes to assure all Democratic voters in the state full, timely and equal opportunity to participate in the delegate selection process and in all Party affairs and to implement affirmative action programs toward that end, and that the delegates and alternates to the Convention shall be selected in accordance with the Delegate Selection Rules for the 2000 Democratic National Convention adopted by the Democratic National Committee on May 9, 1998, and that voters in the state will have the opportunity to cast their selection ballots for the Presidential and Vice Presidential nominees selected by said Convention, and for electors pledged formally and in good conscience to the election of these Presidential and Vice Presidential nominees, under the label and designation of the Democratic Party of the United States, and that the delegates it certified will not publicly support or campaign for any candidate for President or Vice President other than the nominees of the Democratic National Convention.

C. It is presumed that the delegates to the Democratic National Convention, when certified pursuant to the Call, are bona fide Democrats who are faithful to the interests, welfare and success of the Democratic Party of the United States, who subscribe to the substance, intent and principles of the Charter and the Bylaws of the Democratic Party of the United States, and who will participate in the Convention in good faith. Therefore, no additional assurances shall be required of delegates to the Democratic National Convention in the absence of a credentials contest or challenge.

Article IV. Certification Requirements

2. Unpledged Delegates:

In the event of a change or vacancy in a state's office of Governor following the official confirmation and prior to the commencement of the National Convention, the Secretary shall recognize only such changes as have been officially recognized by the Democratic Governors' Association.

b. In cases where a state's DNC membership changes following the Secretary's official confirmation, but prior to the commencement of the 2000 Democratic National Convention, acknowledgment by the Secretary of the certification of the new DNC member shall constitute verification of the corresponding change of unpledged delegates.

c. Delegates allocated pursuant to Articles I.F. and I.H. of this Call shall not be entitled to name a replacement, nor shall the state be entitled to a replacement.

D. Delegation Chair: Each delegation shall select one (1) person to serve as Delegation Chair. The State Chair shall certify the Delegation Chair. F. Certification Requirements: Each certification required herein will include full name, address and other information as required by the Secretary of the Democratic National Committee.

Article V. The 2000 Democratic National Convention Committee, Inc.

A. The Democratic National Committee, acting under its authority to plan, arrange, manage and conduct the Democratic National Convention, hereby ratifies the establishment and organization of the 2000 Democratic National Convention Committee, Inc. (the "DNCC") for the 2000 Democratic National Convention.

B. The DNCC shall exercise the authority of the Democratic National Committee and the Democratic National Convention in entering into contracts relating to all business and financial matters connected with the conduct of the 2000 Democratic National Convention.

C. The DNCC shall make every effort to exercise its authority in accordance with the following guidelines, subject to Rule 19.C. of the Delegate Selection Rules:

1. Contractors: The DNCC shall as a policy seek to engage the services of unionized firms, including those owned by minorities, women and people with disabilities.

2. Housing: The DNCC shall design and implement a fair and equitable system by which hotel facilities shall be allocated to eligible state delegations and to presidential candidates.

3. Delegate and Alternate Seating in Convention Hall: The DNCC shall design and implement a fair and equitable system by which the location of each eligible state delegation's seating in the Convention Hall shall be determined. Alternates shall be afforded preferential seating, as close to delegate seating as arrangements will permit. Members of Democratic National Convention Standing Committees who are not already delegates or alternates shall be afforded guest seating during the period their committee report is being considered. The DNCC will determine, based on space availability in the Convention Hall, whether such guest seating can be extended for periods when the committee's report is not being considered.

4. Delegates' and Alternates' Credentials: The state's delegate and alternate credentials shall be distributed to the Chair of the state delegation from the DNCC's credentials office.

5. Floor Access: Floor access shall be given to delegates, alternates replacing delegates, the highest ranking Democratic official in each state that does not have a Democratic Governor, each State Democratic Party's Executive Director, such number of representatives of the presidential candidates as may be deemed necessary by the DNCC, and such press personnel and other personnel as may be determined by the DNCC to be necessary for the proper functioning of the Convention and which does not compromise security and safety requirements.

6. Visitor's Seating: A contingent of seats for members-elect of the Democratic National Committee as certified by the state's Democratic Chair, guests and other observers shall be allocated for and shall be fairly apportioned to the states according to each state's relative delegate strength. The Delegation Chair and the State Democratic Chair shall each be given one half of the credentials for guest seats apportioned to the state pursuant to this paragraph. Presidential preference shall be taken into account in the distribution of guest credentials.

7. Communications:

a. Microphones: Each state shall be provided one (1) floor microphone which shall be located at the position of the Chair of the state delegation. Each delegate shall have access to the microphone.

b. Telephones: Adequate provisions shall be made for communication between the floor and the Chair of the Conventions so as to advise the Chair of the identify of any delegate seeking recognition to speak and the purpose for which recognition is sought. One (1) such telephone shall be installed for each state delegation.

General: No communication equipment other than that authorized by these guidelines or by the DNCC shall be permitted on the floor of the Convention.

8. Facilities for Presidential Candidates: The National Chairperson of the Democratic National Committee, in consultation with the General Chairperson of the Democratic National Committee, the Chief Executive Officer of the DNCC and representatives of the presidential candidates, shall design and implement a fair and equitable system whereby facilities in the Convention Hall and its immediate environs shall be fairly apportioned to presidential campaigns so as not to afford an undue advantage to any presidential candidate. The cost of such facilities shall be paid by the presidential campaigns.

9. Facilities for News Media and Press Seating: There shall be made available adequate facilities, as close to the Convention floor as conditions permit, for the pencil press, radio and television, including a limited number of camera positions commanding a full view of the proceedings. The cost of such facilities shall not be borne by the DNCC.

10. Security: Coordination for security within the Convention Hall, premises and surrounding area, shall be under the authority of the DNCC.

11. Financial Reports: The DNCC shall file with the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") all financial reports required by the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and applicable FEC regulations.

Article VI. Presidential Candidates

The term "presidential candidate" herein shall mean any person who, as determined by the National Chairperson of the Democratic National Committee, has accrued delegates in the nominating process and plans to seek the nomination, has established substantial support for his or her nomination as the Democratic candidate for the Office of the President of the United States, is a bona fide Democratic whose record of public service, accomplishment, public writings and/or public statements affirmatively demonstrates that he or she is faithful to the interests, welfare and success of the Democratic Party of the United States, and will participate in the Convention in good faith.

Article VII. Standing Committees on Platform, Rules, and Credentials of the 2000 Democratic National Convention

The Democratic National Committee, acting under its authority to issue the Call and establish the standing committees of the National Convention, hereby creates and organizes the Standing Committees on Platform, Rules, and Credentials of the 2000 Democratic National Convention. The jurisdiction and rules of procedure of each standing committee are set forth in this Call to the 2000 Democratic National Convention. Each standing committee may, by a majority of the members voting, adopt additional rules of procedure for the conduct of its business not inconsistent with this Call. The Democratic National Committee shall publish and make available all relevant requirements and deadlines for submitting proposals for consideration by the standing committees. Such information shall be distributed to the standing committee members and made available to the public as early as practicable before the committees meet.

A. Membership: Subject to Rule 19.C. of the delegate Selection Rules, each standing committee shall be composed of:

1. Base: A base of 161 members, casting 158 votes, allocated to the states and territories in accordance with the same distribution formula used to allocate delegates to the Democratic National Convention.⁶

2. PLEOs: 25 members, each casting one (1) vote who shall be Party Leaders and Elected Officials.

3. Delegate Status: Members of the standing committees need not be delegates or alternates to the Democratic National Convention.

4. Quorum: A majority of the total votes allocated to a standing committee shall constitute a quorum thereof for the purpose of transacting business. Such votes shall be present and represented by the standing committee members. Upon a point or order of no quorum, the Chair shall ascertain the presence or absence of a quorum by visual estimation and shall not proceed until a quorum is present, provided, however, that a roll call vote shall be had on the question of whether a quorum exists if the Chair is in doubt or upon demand of any member of the standing committee supported by:

a. twenty percent (20%) of the members of the committee as evidenced by a petition submitted to the Chair indicating support of the demand by not less than twenty percent (20%) of the members present, or b. by the rising in support of the demand by not less than twenty percent (20%) of the members present, except that a motion to adjourn may be offered and voted upon without a quorum present.

5. Proxies: As the standing committees are deliberative bodies of the National Convention, proxy voting by standing committee members shall not be permitted.

6. Subcommittees: Any subcommittee of the standing committees of the National Convention shall be composed only of members of standing committees, except that these subcommittees may be chaired by persons other than members of the committee.

B. Election:

1. The members of the standing committees allocated to the states and territories shall be elected by each state's National Convention delegates present at a meeting of which adequate notice of time and place shall be given and at which a quorum of the state's delegates shall be present. Such meeting shall be held in accordance with procedures approved by the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee and consistent with this Call. Such meeting shall take place within seven (7) days after the final selection of a state's delegation, but no such meeting shall be held after June 24, 2000.

2. The members of the standing committees allocated as Party Leaders and Elected Officials shall be elected by the Executive Committee of the Democratic National Committee during the calendar year of the National Convention upon nomination received from the National Chairperson of the Democratic National Committee, after consultation with the General Chairperson of the Democratic National Committee and State Chairs from those states from which members are contemplated to be nominated.

3. Each state's Democratic Chair shall certify in writing to the Secretary of the Democratic National Committee his or her state's standing committee members within three (3) days after their selection. The National Chairperson of the Democratic National Committee shall certify in writing to the Secretary of the Democratic National Committee the Party Leader and Elected Official standing committee members within three (3) days after their election. Certification of each person will include full name, address and other information as required by the Secretary of the Democratic National Committee.

4. No substitutions will be permitted in the case of standing committee members, except in the case of resignation or death. Substitutions must be made in accordance with the election procedures specified in Article VII.B., C., D., and E., and must be certified in writing to the Secretary of the Democratic National Committee, in accordance with procedures specified in Article VII.B.3.

5. Any challenge to the credentials of a standing committee member shall be considered and resolved by the affected standing committee in accordance with Appendix A of this Call. The DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee shall have jurisdiction over challenges brought before the 56th day preceding the date of commencement of the Democratic National Convention.

C. Presidential Preference:

1. The members of the standing committees allocated to the states and territories shall proportionately represent the presidential preference of all candidates (including uncommitted status) receiving the threshold percentage used in that state's delegation to calculate the at-large apportionment pursuant to Rule 12.E. of the Delegate Selection Rules, provided, however, that members of the standing committees from primary states shall be allocated to presidential candidates (including uncommitted status) based on the state-wide popular vote.

2. The presidential preference percentage of each candidate receiving the applicable percentage or more within the delegation shall be multiplied by the total number of standing committee positions allocated to that state or territorial delegation. If the result of such multiplication does not equal 0.455 or above, the presidential preference in question is not entitled to representation on the standing committee. If the result of such multiplication is 0.455 but less than 1.455, the presidential preference in question is entitled to one (1) position. Those preferences securing more than 1.455 but less than 2.455 are entitled to two (2) positions, etc.

3. Where the application of this formula results in the total allocation exceeding the total number of committee positions, the presidential candidate whose original figure of representation is farthest from its eventual rounded-off total shall be denied that one (1) additional position. Where the application of this formula results in the total allocation falling short of the total number of committee positions, the presidential candidate whose original figure of representation is closest to the next rounding level shall be allotted an additional committee position.

4. Standing committee positions allocated to a presidential candidate shall be proportionately allocated, to the extent practicable, to each of the three standing committees. When such allocation results in an unequal distribution of standing committee positions by candidate preference, a drawing shall be conducted to distribute the additional positions.

D. Presidential Candidate Right of Approval:

1. Each presidential candidate or that candidate's representative authorized pursuant to Rule 11.D.(1) of the 2000 Delegate Selection Rules shall be given adequate notice of the meeting of the state's delegation authorized to select standing committee members.

2. The delegation shall select the standing committee members submitted by the presidential candidates (including uncommitted status), and presidential candidates shall not be required to submit the name of more than one person for each slot awarded to such candidate for members of standing committees.

E. Division Between Men and Women:

1. The membership of each of the standing committees from a state or territory shall be as equally divided among men and women as possible under the state allocation; if the number is even, the membership shall be equally divided between men and women; if the number is odd, the variance between men and women may not exceed one (1), and the advantaged gender must not remain constant for the three standing committees. The DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee shall have continuing jurisdiction to ensure compliance with this equal division requirement. No standing committee members from a state shall be officially recognized unless the Rules and Bylaws Committee has certified to the Secretary of the Democratic National Committee that such state's standing committee delegation complies with this equal division rule. It is the duty of the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee to determine such compliance as soon as practicable following the certification of the state's standing committee members.

2. The Party Leaders and Elected Official membership of the standing committees elected by the Executive Committee of the Democratic National Committee shall be divided among men and women so that the variance between men and women does not exceed one (1), and the advantage gender must not remain constant for the three standing committees.

F. Chairs of Standing Committees:

1. The Chair of each Standing Committee shall be elected by the Executive Committee of the Democratic National Committee upon nomination of the National Chairperson of the Democratic National Committee, after consultation with the General Chairperson of the Democratic National Committee. Co-Chairs and Vice Chairs may also be elected in this manner.

(2) A statement as to whether the standing under Section 2:A. of the challenging parties is in dispute.

(3) A response to the challenge, separately admitting or denying each statement therein, or stating that the challenged party is without sufficient information to admit or deny. A response to a statement shall fairly meet its substance, admitting those parts that are true and denying those parts that are false.

(4) A plain, concise and specific statement of each and every affirmative defense to the alleged violations.

(5) A plain, concise and specific statement of any other reasons why the challenged party should prevail.

B. The answer shall be accompanied by the following documents:

(1) A plain, concise and specific statement that contains, by reference to each numbered paragraph of the challenging statement required by Section 4:C.(1), a response to each alleged violation or request for relief. A response to a proposition shall fairly meet its substance, admitting those parts that are true and denying those parts that are false. Whenever a proposition is denied in whole or in part, the proposition supported by the challenged party on that point shall be stated.

(2) A list of the name, address and telephone number of each witness who is likely to be called in opposition to the challenge.

(3) A list of documents likely to be offered in opposition to the challenge, together with copies of those documents.

C. Challenged parties may consolidate their answers.

6. Dismissal and Decision on the Pleadings

A. Dismissal:

(1) The Chair of the Credentials Committee shall dismiss any challenge, or part of a challenge, which does not fall within the jurisdiction of the Credentials Committee.

(2) If a state party has adopted and implemented an approved affirmative action program, the Chair shall dismiss any challenge, or part of the challenge, which is based solely on composition of the Convention delegation, except in the case of a challenge based upon the failure to achieve equal division.

(3) The Chair shall have authority to dismiss any challenge which is brought by persons lacking standing under Section 2:A., or which otherwise fails to comply substantially with the rules, or which is otherwise manifestly insufficient.

(4) Any dismissal shall be accompanied by a written opinion by the Chair.

B. Decision on the Pleadings. The Chair of the Credentials Committee shall have authority to make a decision on the pleadings where it is plain from the challenge and the answer, together with the documents accompanying those pleadings, that there is no genuine issue of material fact between the parties. Any decision on the pleadings shall be accompanied by a written opinion by the Chair.

C. Review of Dismissal or Decision on the Pleadings: Within five (5) calendar days after service of a notice of the entry of a dismissal under Section 6:A. or under Section 6:B., an aggrieved party may file a Petition for Review by the Credentials Committee stating the objections to the Chair's action, and may file a brief. Within five (5) calendar days after service of the petition, any other party may file a brief. Consideration of the challenge by the Credentials Committee shall proceed as in other cases, except that the challenge shall be given precedence on the committee's docket.

7. Decision of the State Party Body

A. The Chair of the Credentials Committee may defer, for such period as is appropriate, proceedings on a challenge in order to give time for the consideration of any challenge or other related matter under State Democratic Party procedures. The deferral period shall not be so long as to interfere with the processing and consideration of the challenge by the Credentials Committee if that should prove necessary.

B. The State Democratic Party body may take such action with respect to the challenge or other related matter as it is authorized to take under state law and state party rules.

C. After a decision by a state party body on a challenge or other related matter, any party to the challenge pending before the Credentials Committee may request the Committee to process the challenge and the Committee shall do so. The party making the request shall file any written decision or order made with respect to the challenge by the state party body. The decision of the state party body shall be given such weight as the Credentials Committee finds warranted in the circumstances.

D. Records of proceedings conducted by the state party body with respect to the challenge or other related matter, and other papers relating to the state party proceedings, shall be admissible in Credentials Committee proceedings on the challenge.

8. Hearing

A. With respect to any challenge or part of a challenge not dismissed or decided on the pleadings under Section 6:, an open and public hearing shall be held on the specific factual and legal matters in dispute. An electronic or stenographic recording or clerical notes shall be made of the proceedings at any such hearing.

B. The hearing shall be held in Washington, D.C. unless the Chair of the Credentials Committee determines that in the interest of justice it should be held elsewhere.

C. The hearing shall be conducted by a Hearing Officer appointed by the Chair of the Credentials Committee. The Hearing Officer shall be a Democrat, neutral in the context of the challenge, experienced in the law, known by reputation to be fair and shall not be involved in or identified with any presidential campaign or any group promoting or opposing credentials challenges. The Chair shall make a reasonable effort to secure the agreement of the parties to the Hearing Officer.

D. The Hearing Officer shall have all power necessary to conduct the hearing in such manner, consistent with these rules, as to secure the just, speedy and inexpensive determination of the challenge, including the right to require the parties to participate in a pre-hearing conference.

E. Prior to the commencement of the hearing, the Hearing Officer shall announce a ruling identifying, on the basis of the papers filed in the challenge and pre-hearing conference, the specific issues in dispute. The Hearing Officer shall have power to rule that on certain issues only documentary evidence shall be received. Any party objecting to a ruling under this paragraph may make a proffer of the evidence that would have been presented but for the ruling.

F. The Hearing Officer shall hear the evidence, dispose of procedural requests and similar matters and, to the extent possible, obtain stipulations of the parties as to the facts of the challenge.

G. A challenging party shall have the burden of proof by clear and convincing evidence on all factual issues necessary to the challenge, except that the burden of proof shall rest with the challenged party in the case of:

(1) any resolved challenges to a state's affirmative action program filed thirty (30) days or more prior to the initiation of the state's delegate selection process other than a challenge made on the basis of non-implementation of a specific requirement of a state plan; and

(2) any challenge for failure to submit and implement an approved affirmative action program by the deadline specified in the Delegate Selection Rules.

H. The Hearing Officer shall have authority to receive all competent evidence relevant to the specific matters in issue and to assign to it appropriate weight.

I. The Hearing Officer shall have authority to order for good cause, on application or sua sponte, that a party produce at the hearing designated evidence in the interest of justice. Where a party fails to produce such evidence, the Hearing Officer may make findings of fact adverse to the party on all issues to which the evidence would have been material.

J. Subject to any ruling under Section 8:E., each party shall have the right to present competent oral and documentary evidence relevant to the specific matters in issue and to conduct cross-examination.

K. The Hearing Officer may require parties to consolidate their challenge or defense for purposes of the hearing.

L. The Hearing Officer shall make and file a written report to the Credentials Committee, which shall include findings of fact, conclusions of law and a recommendation for disposition of the challenge. The reports shall be served on all parties to the challenge.

M. Any transcript or other papers in the record from any proceedings before the DNC Rules and Bylaws Committee shall be part of the record.

9. Consideration by the Credentials Committee

A. The Credentials Committee shall begin meeting at the call of the Chair in Washington, D.C., in Los Angeles, California, or elsewhere at the call of the Chair to hear challenges.

B. All meetings of the Credentials Committee shall be open to the public; provided that the Chair of the Committee shall exclude from the specific area where the committee is conducting its business all persons whose presence in that area is not required for the proper conduct of the business.

C. Request for hearing by Full Committee: Within two (2) days after service of the Hearing Officer's report, an aggrieved party may file a written Petition for Review by the Credentials Committee. The petition shall contain a plain, concise and specific statement of the reasons for appeal and the procedural and/or substantive errors claimed by the petitioner.

D. Briefs:

(1) Within three (3) calendar days after filing the Petition for Review, the petitioner for review may file a brief.

(2) Within three (3) calendar days after service of the petitioner's brief, a respondent may file a brief.

(3) Any party filing a brief shall file as many copies as there are members of the committee, plus ten (10) copies for the Chair and staff of the committee.

E. Argument:

(1) Each side of a challenge shall be entitled to present oral argument before the committee for a period determined by the Chair of the committee, generally not to exceed fifteen (15) minutes.

(2) The Chair of the committee may require parties to consolidate or separate their challenges or defense for purposes of oral argument.

(3) The Chair of the committee shall notify the parties of the time and place of oral argument.

F. Resolution:

(1) All proposed resolutions relating to the disposition of a credentials challenge shall be in writing and signed by the proponent and at least one (1) second. Proposed resolutions relating to the seating or unseating of delegates or alternates shall be seconded in writing by at least seven (7) members, no more than two (2) of whom may be members elected by the delegation from the same state as the proponent of the resolution.

(2) All proposed resolutions relating to the disposition of a credentials challenge shall be framed so as to be dispositive of the entire challenge and, to that end, shall be specific in stating the action recommended to be taken by the Convention.

(3) Following the submission of all proposed resolutions to the Chair, the resolution having the largest number of signed seconds shall become the pending order of business. Twenty (20) minutes of debate shall be allotted to each proposed resolution, equally divided between the proponents and the opponents. At the conclusion of the debate, the resolution shall be put to a vote. In the event the resolution is not adopted, the proposed resolution having the next largest number of signed seconds shall become the pending order of business, and so on until the challenge is disposed.

(4) No amendment to any proposed resolution shall be permitted, except with the consent of the proponent, and no resolution or propositions on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted in the form of such an amendment.

G. Presidential Preference of Delegation: Except where the issue is the expressed presidential preference of the level at which delegates to the National Convention are elected represented by the challenged delegates, any remedy for a violation shall fairly reflect the expressed presidential preference of that level.

H. Voting: A member of the Credentials Committee elected by a state delegation shall not vote on a challenge arising in that state. All matters shall be determined by a majority vote of those present and voting, a quorum of the full Committee being present. A quorum shall consist of members present in person representing a majority of the total number of committee votes entitled to be counted on the matter.

I. Proxies: Proxy voting shall be prohibited.

10. Committee Report

The Report of the Credentials Committee shall be distributed to all delegates, alternates and the public as soon as practicable after its adoption.

11. Minority Reports

Upon the request of members representing at least twenty percent (20%) of the total votes of the Credentials Committee, a minority report shall be prepared for distribution to all Convention delegates, alternates and the public part of the Committee's report. This minority report shall be distributed at the same time the Credentials Committee Report is distributed. No member elected to the committee by a state delegation may join in such request as to a proposed minority report relating to a credentials challenge to any delegate from his or her state. The committee staff assist in the preparation of such report.

12. Record

A. The official record of any proceeding under these rules shall be maintained in the office at the Democratic National Committee in Washington, D.C. and shall be open and available for public inspection and duplication at reasonable times.

B. All meetings of the full Credentials Committee shall be transcribed.

13. Interpretation and Waiver of Rules and Provision for Special Rules

A. These rules shall be interpreted and applied in the interests of justice and fairness to all parties, speed and economy. To serve these interests, and for good cause, on application or su a sponte, the Chair of the committee shall have the authority to waive any provision of these rules other than Sections 4:B. and 5:

B. In the case of any challenge filed on or after June 19, 2000, the 56th calendar day before the convention begins, the Chair may shorten the time periods specified in these rules for processing the challenge, including the time to file documents and conduct hearings, as the interests of justice and the orderly disposition of challenges dictate; provided, however, that in any event:

(1) The challenge and accompanying papers shall be filed not later than three (3) days after the occurrence of the violation alleged.

(2) The answer and accompanying papers shall be filed not later than three (3) days after service of the challenge.

Method for allocating delegates & alternates for the 2000 Democratic National Convention

The Democratic National Committee's method of allocating delegates and alternates to the states and territories is set forth in the Call for the 2000 Democratic National Convention. A brief overview of that system follows:

Pledged Delegates and Alternates

Approximately 82% of the delegates to the 2000 Democratic Convention are known as "pledged delegates" because they have pledged to support a specific presidential candidate. Within each state, these delegates are proportionately allocated among the presidential candidates based on the results of the state's Democratic presidential primary or caucus.

Allocation Base

A base of 3,000 pledged delegates is apportioned among the states and the District of Columbia. The delegates are proportionately distributed on the basis of Democratic voting strength and population. Democratic voting strength is determined by comparing a state's vote for the Democratic party's Presidential Nominee in the last three elections against the nationwide totals for those elections. A state's share of the population is based on its number of electoral votes (using the 1990 Census). These results are added together and multiplied by .5 to calculate an "Allocation Factor" for each state.

The specific formula the Democratic National Committee uses for allocating delegates is expressed as follows:

A = Allocation Factor.

SDV = State's Democratic Vote (for 1988, 1992, and 1996).

TDV = Total Democratic Vote (for 1988, 1992, and 1996).

SEV = State Electoral Vote.

For example:

$$\frac{1}{2} \left(\frac{349,237 + 505,823 + 475,171}{41,809,074 + 44,909,326 + 47,402,357} + \frac{6}{538} \right) = 0.010535$$

To ascertain each state's initial share of the 3,000 base number of pledged delegates, its Allocation Factor is multiplied by 3,000. (Fractions of .5 and above are rounded up to the next highest integer.) This number is used to calculate each state's allocation of District-level and At-Large delegates as described below. As the allocations are determined, the base may need to be adjusted to account for any rounding that may have occurred.

For example:

$$\text{Base Delegates} = 3,000 \times \text{Allocation Factor} = 3,000 \times 0.010535 = 31.606 = 32$$

District-Level and At-Large Delegates

Once the initial base allocation is calculated, the result is divided into two smaller categories. Most of a state's base delegates (75%) are allocated to be elected within a Congressional District or some smaller unit; these are known as "District-Level Delegates." The balance (25%) is allocated to be chosen on a state-wide basis; these are called "At-Large Delegates." (Fractions of .5 and above are rounded up to the next highest integer.)

For example:

$$\begin{aligned} \text{District-Level Delegates} &= 75\% \times 32 = 24 \\ \text{At-Large Delegates} &= 25\% \times 32 = 8 \end{aligned}$$

Party Leader and Elected Official Delegates

In addition to the base delegates (District-Level + At-Large), each state receives an additional 15% to provide delegate positions for Party Leaders and Elected Officials. (Fractions of .5 and above are rounded upon to the next highest integer.) Persons eligible for these positions include big city mayors, state wide elected officials, state legislative leaders and state legislators, and other state, county and local elected officials and Party leaders.

For example:

$$\text{Party Leader and Elected Official Delegates} = 15\% \times 32 = 5$$

Other U.S. Jurisdictions

Because the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and the territories do not vote in presidential elections, they do not have electoral votes and cannot be allocated delegates based on the formula outlined above. Instead, the Democratic Party has predetermined the allocation base for these jurisdictions as follows: Puerto Rico receives base of 44 delegates; American Samoa, Guam and the Virgin Islands each receive three At-Large delegate votes (cast by six delegates); and Democrats Abroad receives six At-Large and one Party and Elected Official delegate votes (cast by 14 delegates).

Alternates

In addition to delegates, each state also receives an allocation of alternates. An alternate serves in the place of a delegate, if a delegate cannot attend the convention, or is absent during part of the convention. Just like pledged delegates, alternates are pledged to presidential candidates and elected based on the result of the state's primary or caucus. Each state, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico is allotted one alternate for every six pledged delegate votes—with a minimum of four alternates for each delegation. Each territory gets one alternate, and Democrats Abroad gets two.

For example:

Alternates = One alternate for every six pledged delegate votes = $37 \div 6 = 6.17 = 6$

Unpledged Delegates

As opposed to the pledged delegates, about 18% of the delegates at the convention are “unpledged” (the press often refers to these delegates as the “Super Delegates”) and serve as delegates because of some prominent office they hold or have held. While unpledged delegates probably do have a presidential preference, this is not a factor in why they are delegates. Rather, they serve as delegates because the Democratic Party wants the important perspective they bring to the decision-making process at the National Convention. The following categories describe the individuals who are recognized as unpledged delegates:

DNC Members

Each of the approximately 450 elected members of the Democratic National Committee serve as unpledged delegates from their respective state or territory. (Members from the territories have $\frac{1}{4}$ vote each.)

Democratic Governors and Members of Congress.

Every Democratic Governor is recognized as an unpledged delegate. As well, each Democratic member of the U.S. Senate and of the U.S. House of Representatives is also recognized as an unpledged delegate. (For purposes of delegate allocation, the Party counts the District of Columbia’s Mayor as a Governor, and its “Statehood Senators” as U.S. Senators.)

Distinguished Party Leaders.

Several state delegations include individuals who serve as unpledged delegates because of an office they hold—President Clinton and Vice President Gore—or an office they once held. Specifically, this category includes former Democratic President and Vice President, former Democratic Leaders of the United States, former Democratic Speakers or Democratic Minority Leaders of the United States House of Representatives, and former National and General Chairs of the Democratic National Committee.

Add-on Unpledged Delegates.

Each state also has an opportunity to include one or a small number of “Add-on” unpledged delegates within its delegation. These positions are intended to be filled by prominent individuals whom the state’s Democrats want to include as part of the delegation to the National Convention. Again, as unpledged delegates, these individuals serve because of their stature, rather than their presidential preference. States receive one Add-on unpledged delegate position for every four Democratic National Committee members it elects.

Allocation

Except for the Add-on delegates as described above, the unpledged delegates are allocated to states and territories based on where an individual is registered to vote. Therefore, since these individuals might change, move, die or resign, state allocations of unpledged delegates are subject to change.

No Alternates

There are no unpledged alternates. Since unpledged delegates serve by virtue of holding of a specific office or status, they cannot be replaced. If one of these delegates is absent during the convention, his or her vote cannot be cast by someone else.

For more information, see also, the Democratic National Committee's 2000 Democratic National Convention Delegate/Alternate Allocation. This chart shows the current number of delegates and alternates each state will send to the 2000 Convention (subject to change as noted above).

The Republican National Committee shall issue the call for the next national convention to nominate candidates for President of the United States and Vice President of the United States prior to January 1 of the year in which the national convention is to be held. The Republican National Committee shall issue and promulgate the call in a manner consistent with these rules. The call shall include the text of the rules relating to the convening and the proceedings of the national convention.

Rule 31. Membership in Convention

The membership of the next national convention shall consist of:

(a) Delegates.

(1) Six (6) delegates at large from each of the fifty (50) states.

(2) Three (3) district delegates for each Representative in the United States House of representatives from each state.

(3) Four (4) delegates at large from American Samoa, fourteen (14) delegates at large from the District of Columbia, four (4) delegates at large from Guam, fourteen (14) delegates at large from Puerto Rico, and four (4) delegates at large from the Virgin Islands; provided, however, that if Puerto Rico shall become a state prior to the next national convention, the number of delegates from Puerto Rico shall be calculated in accordance with the same formula used for the other states.

(4) From each state having cast its electoral votes or a majority thereof, for the Republican nominee for President of the United States in the last preceding election; four and one-half (4½) delegates at large plus a number of the delegates at large equal to sixty percent (60%) of the number of electoral votes of that state; provided, however, that if Puerto Rico shall become a state prior to the next national convention, it shall be presumed that it would have cast its electoral votes, or a majority thereof, for the Republican nominee in the last preceding election. (In the computation of the number of delegates at large, any sum of the four and one-half (4½) plus the sixty percent (60%) representing a fraction shall be increased to the next whole number.) In addition, one (1) delegate at large shall be awarded to a state for any and each of the following public officials elected by such state in the year of the last preceding presidential election or at any subsequent election held prior to January 1 of the year in which the next national convention is held:

(i) A Republican governor, provided that no such additional delegate at large award to any state shall exceed one (1);

(ii) Membership in the Republican Party of at least one-half (½) of the Representatives representing a state in the United States House of Representatives; provided that no such additional delegate at large award to any state shall exceed one (1);

(iii) Membership in the Republican Party of a majority of the members of any chamber of a state legislature, if such chamber has been organized, and is presided over (if the presiding officer is elected by the chamber), by Republicans; or, if the membership in the Republican Party of the members of any chamber of a state legislature increases by twenty-five percent (25%) or more, so long as twenty-five percent (25%) or more, so long as twenty-five percent (25%) equals at least two (2) legislators; provided that no such additional delegate at large award to any state shall exceed one (1).

(iv) Membership in the Republican party of a majority of all chambers of a state legislature, if all such chambers are presided over (if the presiding officer is elected by the chamber), by a Republican; provided that no such additional delegate at large award to any state shall exceed one (1).

(5) In addition, one (1) delegate at large shall be awarded to a state for any and each Republican United States Senator elected by such state in the six (6) year period prior to January 1 of the year in which the next national convention is held; provided that no such additional delegate at large award to any state shall exceed two (2).

(6) In addition to the delegates as calculated above and in paragraph (9) below, any state party, including American Samoa, the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands, notwithstanding the definition of "state" or "states" as set forth in Rule No. 3, which holds a presidential primary, caucus, convention, or meeting for the purpose of voting for a presidential candidate and/or selecting delegates to the national convention during the time periods indicated below, shall be awarded additional delegates as follows:

(i) Any state party, including American Samoa, the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands, which holds a presidential primary, caucus, convention, or meeting for the purpose of voting for a presidential candidate and/or selecting delegates to the national convention on or between March 15 and April 14, inclusive, of the year in which the national convention is held shall be awarded additional delegates at large in an amount equal to five percent (5%) of such state's above-calculated delegate allocation total.

(ii) Any state party, including American Samoa, the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands, which holds a presidential primary, caucus, convention, or meeting for the purpose of voting for a presidential candidate and/or selecting delegates to the national convention on or between April 15 and May 14, inclusive, of the year in which the national convention is held shall be awarded additional delegates at large in an amount equal to seven and one-half percent (7.5%) of such state's above-calculated delegate allocation total.

(iii) Any state party including American Samoa, the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands, which holds a presidential primary, caucus, convention, or meeting for the purpose of voting for a presidential candidate and/or selecting delegates to the national convention on or between May 15 and the third Tuesday of June, inclusive, of the year in which the national convention is held shall be awarded additional delegates at large in an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of such state's above-calculated delegate allocation total.

(iv) In the computation of the number of delegates pursuant to Rule 31(a)(6), any sum representing a fraction shall be rounded to the nearest whole number.

(7) Within twenty (20) days following the deadline for filing the materials specified in Rule No. 32(d)(1), the Republican National Committee shall notify all state parties of the claims for additional delegates made by each state party pursuant to the provisions of Rule No. 31(a)(6).

(8) In addition, if the District of Columbia shall have cast its electoral votes, or a majority thereof, for the Republican nominee for President of the United States in the last preceding presidential election: four and one-half ($4\frac{1}{2}$) delegates at large plus the number of delegates at large equal to thirty percent (30%) of the fourteen (14) delegates at large allotted to the District of Columbia. (In the computation of the number of delegates at large, any sum of the four and one-half ($4\frac{1}{2}$) plus the thirty percent (30%) representing a fraction shall be increased to the next whole number.

(9) Any state which would receive fewer delegates under all provisions of this rule than it received to the 1972 Republican National Convention shall have its number of delegates increased to the same number of delegates it received to the 1972 Republican National Convention.

(b) Alternate Delegates.

One (1) alternate delegate for each delegate to the national convention.

(c) Excessive Claims.

Except as provided in Rule No. 32(d)(3), any state party may contest the number of delegates claimed by any other state party pursuant to Rule No. 31(a)(6)(i), (ii), or (iii), by filing a notice of contest with the secretary of the Republican National Committee.

(1) Such notice shall state the grounds of the contest and shall be filed no later than twenty (20) days after the receipt by the contesting state party of the notification sent to each state party by the Republican National Committee pursuant to Rule No. 31(a)(7).

(2) Within five (5) days, the secretary of the Republican National Committee shall notify the contested party that a notice of contest has been filed.

(3) No later than thirty days (30) after the filing of the contest, each party thereto shall file with the secretary of the Republican National Committee at least three (3) printed or typewritten copies of the statement of position in support of the party's claim regarding the total number of delegates claimed under Rule No. 31(a)(6)(i), (ii), or (iii), together with such affidavits or other evidence as desired. The secretary of the Republican National Committee, upon receiving the statement of position of a party, shall furnish the opposing party a copy of said statement of position. Each statement of position shall include a summary of not more than one thousand (1,000) words succinctly setting forth a synopsis of the statement of position and a specific statement of the points relied upon.

(4) On or before October 1 of the year before the year in which the national convention is held, the Committee on Contests shall hear and decide all contests presented to it. The issues decided by the Committee on Contests shall be the sole issues for appeal to the Executive Committee of the Republican National Committee.

(5) The parties shall have twenty (20) days following receipt of said decision to file a written notice of appeal to the Executive Committee of the Republican National Committee.

(6) On or before December 1 of the year before the year in which the national convention is held the Executive Committee of the Republican National Committee shall hear and decide all appeals presented.

(d) Any state party may set the date for any primary, caucus, convention, or meeting for the purpose of voting for a presidential candidate and/or selecting delegates to the national convention. To the extent a state party's rules are in conflict with its state laws with respect to this rule, the provisions of this rule and the state party's rules shall control. To the extent the provisions of the rule are inconsistent with the provisions of Rule No. 32, the provisions of this rule shall be controlling for all purposes.

Rule 32. Election of Delegates and Alternate Delegates

(a) Order of precedence.

Delegates at large and their alternate delegates and delegates from congressional districts and their alternative delegates to the national convention shall be elected in the following manner:

(1) In accordance with any applicable laws of a state, insofar as the same are not inconsistent with these rules; or

(2) To the extent not provided for in the applicable laws of a state, in accordance with any applicable Republican Party rules of a state, insofar as the same are not inconsistent with these rules; or

(3) By a combination of the methods set forth in paragraphs (a)(1) or (a)(2) of this rule; or

(4) To the extent not provided by state law or party rules, as set forth in paragraph (c) of this section.

(b) General.

In all elections of delegates or alternate delegates to the national convention, the following rules shall apply:

(1) In any jurisdiction in which Republican representation upon the board of judges or inspectors of elections for primary elections is denied by law, delegates and alternate delegates shall be elected as provided in paragraphs (a)(2) or (a)(4) of this section.

(2) In selecting delegates and alternate delegates to the national convention, no state law shall be observed which hinders, abridges, or denies to any citizen of the United States, eligible under the Constitution of the United States to hold the office of President of the United States or Vice President of the United States, the right or privilege of being a candidate under such law for the nomination for President of the United States or Vice President of the United States or which authorizes the election of a number of delegates or alternate delegates from any state to the national convention different from that fixed in these rules.

(3) Alternate delegates shall be elected to the national convention for each unit of representation equal in number to the number of delegates elected therein and shall be chosen in the same manner and at the same time as the delegates, and under the same rules; provided, however, that if the law of any state shall prescribe another method of choosing alternate delegates they may be chosen in accordance with the provisions of the law of the state in which the election occurs.

(4) Delegates and alternate delegates at large to the national convention when serving as delegates and alternate delegates shall be residents of a duly qualified voters in their respective states. All delegates and alternate delegates allocated as delegates and alternate delegates at large shall be elected at large in the several states; provided, however, that such allocation and method of election may be varied in any state to the extent, and only to the extent, necessary to avoid conflict with state law applicable to the selection of national convention delegates if such varying allocation and method of election were those pursuant to which delegates at large and alternate delegates at large were elected to the 1988 Republican National Convention from that state.

(5) Delegates and alternate delegates to the national convention representing congressional districts shall be residents of and qualified voters in said districts respectively when elected and when serving as delegates and alternate delegates. There shall be three (3) delegates and three (3) alternate delegates allocated to represent each Congressional district of the several states, who shall be elected by each such congressional district; provided, however, that such number of delegates and alternate delegates allocated to represent, and elected by, any congressional district of a state may be reduced or increased to the extent, and only to the extent, necessary to avoid conflict with state law applicable to the selection of national convention delegates if such varying allocation was that pursuant to which district delegates and alternate district delegates were elected to the 1988 Republican National Convention from the state.

(6) No delegate or alternate delegate to the national convention shall be required to pay an assessment or fee in excess of that provided by the law of the state in which his or her election occurs as a condition of serving as a delegate or alternate delegate to the national convention.

(7) There shall be no automatic delegates to the national convention who serve by virtue of party position or elective office.

(8) Delegates and alternate delegates to the national convention may be elected only in one of the following manners:

(i) by primary election;

(ii) by the Republican state committee, where specifically provided by state law;

(iii) by state and congressional district conventions;

(iv) by any method consistent with these rules by which delegates and alternate delegates were selected to the 1984 Republican National Convention in that state.

(9) No state law shall be observed which permits any person to participate in a primary delegate and alternate delegate selection process that also permits that person at the same primary to participate in the choosing of nominees of any other party for other elective office. Delegates and alternate delegates shall in that event be elected by congressional district or state conventions pursuant to paragraph (c) of this rule.

(10) No delegates or alternate delegates shall be selected pursuant to any Republican Party rule of a state or state law which materially changes the manner of selecting delegates or alternate delegates or the date upon which such state party holds a presidential primary, caucus, convention, or meeting for the purpose of voting for a presidential candidate and/or selecting delegates to the national convention if such changes were adopted or made effective after July 1 of the year before the year in which the national convention is to be held. Where it is not possible for a state party to certify the manner and the date upon which it holds a presidential primary, caucus, convention, or meeting for the purpose of voting for a presidential candidate and/or selecting delegates to the national convention in effect in that state on the date and in the manner provided in paragraph (d) of this rule, the process for holding the presidential primary, caucus, convention, or meeting for the purpose of voting for a presidential candidate and/or selecting delegates to the national convention shall be conducted in the same manner and held upon the same date as was used for the immediately next preceding national convention. If it is not possible to hold a presidential primary, caucus, convention, or meeting for the purpose of voting for a presidential candidate and/or selecting delegates to the national convention upon the same date as was used for the immediately next preceding national convention, then delegates or alternate delegates shall be selected by congressional district or state conventions pursuant to paragraph (c) of this rule.

(11) Except with respect to delegates and alternate delegates elected under paragraph (b)(8)(ii) of this rule and if consistent with paragraph (c)(5) of this rule:

(i) no presidential primary, caucus, convention, or other meeting may be held for the purpose of voting for a presidential candidate and/or selecting delegates or alternate delegates to the national convention, prior to the first Monday of February or after the third Tuesday of June in the year in which the national convention is held; and,

(ii) the selection process of choosing those who will select delegates or alternate delegates shall not begin before September 1 of the year before the year in which the national convention is to be held.

(12) The Republican National Committee may grant a waiver to a state party from certain provisions of this rule in the following instances:

(i) Notwithstanding the provisions of Rule No. 32(a), a state party may select its delegates and alternate delegates by rules inconsistent with Rule No. 32(a)(1), provided that those state party rules are not otherwise inconsistent with the Rules of the Republican Party, and provided that the Republican National Committee determines that the state law being waived hereunder is adverse to the best interests of the Republican Party in that state.

(ii) Where it is not possible for a state party to comply with the July 1 deadline delineated in paragraph (d) of this rule and not possible for a state party to hold its presidential primary, caucus, convention, or meeting for the purpose of voting for a presidential candidate and/or selecting delegates to the national convention as was used for the immediately next preceding national convention or to select delegates or alternate delegates by congressional district or state conventions pursuant to paragraph (c) of this rule, and the Republican National Committee determines that granting such waiver is in the best interests of the Republican Party.

(c) Conventions.

Wherever state law permits or the Republican Party rules of a state require the election of delegates and alternate delegates by convention or there is no applicable state law or Republican Party rule, delegates and alternate delegates to the national convention shall be elected by congressional district or state conventions pursuant to the following rules:

(1) Congressional district or state conventions shall be called by the Republican state committee.

(2) Delegates to Congressional district conventions may be elected in precinct caucuses, mass meetings, mass conventions, or county conventions in which only eligible voters in such precinct, county, or district, as the case may be, shall vote.

(3) Notices of the call for any such caucus, meeting, or convention shall be published in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the county, district, or state, as the case may be, not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the date of such caucus, meeting, or convention.

(4) Only persons eligible to vote who are deemed to be Republicans pursuant to state law or by party rules of a state shall participate in any Republican caucus, mass meeting, or mass convention held for the purpose of selecting delegates to county, district or state conventions and only such legal and qualified voters shall be elected as delegates to county, district, and state conventions; provided, however, that in addition to the qualifications provided herein, the governing Republican committee of each state shall have the authority to prescribe additional qualifications not inconsistent with law. Such additional qualifications shall be adopted and published in at least one (1) daily newspaper having a general circulation throughout the state, such publication to be at least ninety (90) days before such qualifications become effective.

(5) No delegates shall be deemed eligible to participate in any congressional district or state convention the purpose of which is to elect delegates to the national convention who are elected prior to the date of issuance of the call of such national convention.

(6) Congressional district conventions shall be composed of delegates who are persons eligible to vote and who are deemed to be Republicans pursuant to state law or party rules. State conventions shall be composed of delegates who are persons eligible to vote and who are deemed to be Republicans pursuant to state law or party rules in the respective districts which they represent in said state conventions. Such delegates shall be apportioned by the state Republican Party among counties, parishes, and cities of the state or district having regard to the Republican vote or the population therein.

(7) There shall be no proxies at any district or state convention (which shall not include meetings of a Republican state committee) held for the purpose of selecting delegates to the national convention. If alternate delegates to such selection convention are selected, the alternate delegate and no other shall vote in the absence of the delegate.

(d) Certification and filing by state committees.

(1) On or before July 1 of the year before the year in which the national convention is to be held, each Republican state committee shall adopt rules, procedures, policies, and instructive materials (prepared pursuant to Rule No. 34(a)) governing the selection of delegates and alternate delegates to the national convention to convene during the following year and shall certify and file with the secretary of the Republican National Committee true copies of the same and of all statutes governing the selection of such delegates and alternate delegates.

(2) Any state committee which fails to certify and file such rules, procedures, policies, and instructive materials on or before July 1 of the year before the year in which the national convention is held may not claim or be awarded any additional delegates as provided in Rule No. 31(a)(6).

(3) Any state committee which fails to certify and file such rules, procedures, policies, and instructive materials on or before July 1 of the year before the year in which the national convention is held may not contest the award of any additional delegates as provided in Rule No. 31(a)(6) to any other state.

Rule 33. Election of Excess Delegates and Alternate Delegates.

(a) No state shall elect a greater number of persons to act as delegates and alternate delegates than the actual number of delegates and alternate delegates respectively to which it is entitled under the call for the national convention. No unit of representation may elect any delegate or alternate delegate, with permission to cast a fractional vote.

(b) Where more than the authorized number of delegates from any state is certified and forwarded to the secretary of the Republican National Committee in the manner provided in rule 35, a contest shall be deemed to exist and the secretary shall notify the several claimants so reported and shall submit all such credentials and claims to the whole Republican National Committee for decision as to which claimants reported shall be placed upon the temporary roll of the national convention.

Rule 34. Participation.

(a) The Republican National Committee shall assist the states in their efforts to inform all citizens as to how they may participate in delegate selection procedures. The states, in cooperation with the Republican National Committee, shall prepare instructive material on delegate selection methods and make it available for distribution.

(b) Participation in a Republican primary, caucus, or any meeting or convention held for the purpose of selecting delegates and alternate delegates to a county, district, state, or national convention shall in no way be abridged for reasons of sex, race, religion, color, age, or national origin. The Republican National Committee and the Republican state committee or governing committee of each state shall take positive action to achieve the broadest possible participation by men and women, young people, minority and heritage groups, senior citizens, and all other citizens in the delegate selection process.

(c) Unless otherwise provided by the laws of the state in which the election occurs, in those states where delegates and alternate delegates are elected through the convention system of a combination of convention and primary systems, the precinct, ward, township, or county meetings shall be open meetings, and all citizens who are qualified shall be urged to participate.

(d) Each state shall endeavor to have equal representation of men and women in its delegation to the Republican National Convention.

(e) The provisions of these rules are not intended to be the basis of any kind of quota system.

(f) On or after January 1, 1997, no state law or party rule shall be observed that allows persons who have participated or are participating in the selection of any nominee of a party other than the Republican Party, including, but not limited to, through the use of a multi-party primary or similar type ballot, to participate in the selection of a nominee of the Republican Party for that general election. No person nominated in violation of this rule shall be recognized as the nominee of the Republican Party. If state law or state party rule provides for the selection of the nominee of the Republican Party in violation of this rule, the Republican nominee shall be selected by a convention convened and held under procedures not inconsistent with the provisions of Rule No. 32(c), unless a state party rule provides specifically to the contrary.

Rule 35. Certification of Election.

(a) All delegates and alternate delegates shall be elected not later than thirty-five (35) days before the date of the meeting of the national convention, unless otherwise provided by the laws of the state in which the election occurs.

(b) Election of delegates and alternate delegates shall be certified:

(1) in every case where they are elected by convention, by the chairman and secretary of such convention or by the chairman and secretary of the Republican state committee, and forwarded to the secretary of the Republican National Committee;

(2) in every case where they are elected by primary, by the canvassing board or officer created or designated by the law of the state in which the election occurs, to canvass the returns and issue certificates of election to delegates or alternate delegates to national conventions of political parties, and all certificates shall be forwarded by said duly elected delegates and alternate delegates in the manner herein provided; and

(3) in every case where they are elected by the Republican state committee, by the chairman and secretary of the Republican state committee, and forwarded to the secretary of the Republican National Committee.

(c) No later than thirty (30) days before the time set for the meeting of the national convention, the credentials of each delegate and alternate delegate shall be filed with the secretary of the Republican National Committee for use by the secretary in making up the temporary roll of the national convention, except in the case of delegates or alternate delegates elected at a time or times in accordance with the laws of the state in which the election occurs rendering impossible the filing of credentials within the time specified.

Rule 36. Contests: Resolution by States.

All contests arising in any state electing district delegates by district conventions shall be decided by its state convention, or, if the state convention shall not meet prior to the national convention, then by its state committee. Only contests affecting delegates elected at large shall be presented to the Republican National Committee; provided, however, if the contest regarding a district delegate arises out of the irregular or unlawful action of the state committee or state convention, the Republican National Committee may take jurisdiction thereof and hear and determine the same under the procedures provided in rules 38 and 39.

Rule 37. Temporary Roll.

(a) The names of the delegates and alternate delegates presenting certificates of election from the officials designated in rule 35 shall be placed upon the temporary roll of the national convention by the Republican National Committee.

(b) No person on the temporary roll of the national convention and whose right to be seated as a delegate or alternate delegate is being contested shall be entitled to vote in the national convention or in any committee thereof until by vote of the national convention the contest as to such person has been finally decided and such person has been permanently seated, except that any such person may be accorded the right to so vote, except in matters involving the credentials of that person, by an affirmative vote a majority of the members of the Republican National Committee or the Committee on Credentials.

Rule 38. Contest Filing.

(a) Notices of contests shall state the grounds of the contest and shall be filed, no later than thirty (30) days before the time set for the meeting of the national convention, with the secretary of the Republican National Committee and shall be sent simultaneously, by registered mail to the person or persons being contested, except in the case of delegates or alternate delegates elected at a time or times in accordance with applicable state law rendering impossible the filing of the notice of contest within the time above specified.

(b) Notices of contests may be filed only by a resident of the state whose delegation is challenged who was eligible to participate at any level in the delegate selection process of that state.

(c) Only contests that are timely filed under these rules shall be considered.

(d) For purposes of the rules relating to contests and credentials, the term "party" shall mean a person or persons who shall have filed a notice of contest pursuant to this rule 38, and the person or persons whose right to be seated as a delegate or alternate delegate is the subject of such notice of contest.

Rule 39. Contest Procedure.

(a) The Committee on Contests shall have the power to adopt procedural rules, not inconsistent with these rules, which shall govern the expeditious prosecution of contests before the Committee on Contests. When any deadline set out in this rule falls on a Sunday or legal holiday, such deadline shall be extended to the following day.

(b) No later than twenty-two (22) days before the convening of the national convention (or, in the case of delegates or alternate delegates elected at a time or times in accordance with applicable state law rendering impossible compliance with this requirement, within five (5) days after such election), each of the parties shall file with the secretary of the Republican National Committee at least three (3) printed or typewritten copies of the statement of position in support of the party's claim to sit as delegates or alternate delegates to the national convention together with such affidavits or other evidence as desired. The secretary of the Republican National Committee, upon receiving the statement of position of a party, shall furnish the opposing party a copy of said brief.

Each statement of position shall begin with a summary of not more than one thousand (1,000) words setting forth succinctly a synopsis of the statement of position and a specific statement of the points relied upon.

(c) The Committee on Contests shall promptly hear the matter; decide what issues are involved, either of law or fact, or both; and decide upon its recommendation for resolution of such issues; and, submit such issues and its recommendations for resolution to the Republican National Committee. The issues so submitted by the Committee on Contests shall be the sole issues passed upon and determined by the Republican National Committee unless the Republican National Committee shall, by a majority vote, extend or change the same.

If the Committee on Contests for any reason shall fail to state the issues either of law or fact, the Republican National Committee shall decide upon what issues the contest shall be tried, and the hearing shall be limited to such issues unless the Republican National Committee, by a majority vote, shall decide otherwise.

(d) The Committee on Contests shall make up a report of each contest filed, showing the grounds of contest; the statute and rule, if any, under which the contest is waged; and the contentions of each party thereto. The report shall conclude with a statement of the points of issue in the contest, both of fact and law, and a statement of the recommendation of the Committee on Contests as to resolution of such points of issue, and shall be signed by the chairman or his designee. When the Committee on Contests has prepared such report stating the issues of law and fact, a copy of the statement of such issues shall be submitted forthwith to a person in the convention city, whom the parties must appoint at the time of filing the contest to receive such statement, and a copy shall be served forthwith by the chairman of the Committee on Contests upon the parties by the most expeditious method available, providing for written evidence of receipt including, but no limited to, overnight delivery service.

(e) The parties shall have eight (8) days to file written objections to the Committee on Contests' statement of the issues of fact or law, or both, unless the Republican National Committee is called to act upon the contest sooner, in which case such objections shall be made before the meeting of the whole committee. If the parties reside in American Samoa, Guam, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands they shall be entitled to ten (10) days to file written objections.

The objections shall contain any additional statement of issues of either law or fact, or both, claimed by the party submitting the same to be involved in and necessary to be decided in the contest.

(f) When the Republican National Committee is called to pass upon any contest that may arise, the members of the Committee on Credentials shall also be notified of the time and place of such meeting and shall have the right to attend all hearings of all contests but without the right to participate in the discussion or the vote.

Rule 40. Convention Committee on Credentials.

(a) When the national convention shall have assembled, the secretary of the Republican National Committee shall deliver to the Committee on Credentials all credentials and other papers forwarded under rule 35(c).

(b) An appeal may be taken to the Committee on Credentials from any ruling of the Republican National Committee on any contest, by and only by a party to such contest in the proceedings, conducted pursuant to rules 38 and 39 provided, however, that notice of such appeal must be filed with the secretary of the Republican National Committee within twenty-four (24) hours after the decision, that such notice shall specify the grounds upon which the appeal is taken, and that only the grounds so specified shall be heard by the Committee on Credentials upon such appeal. No evidence other than that taken before the Republican National Committee shall be taken up by the Committee on Credentials unless it shall, by a majority vote of all of its members present and voting, so direct.

(c) No issue involving the status of one or more delegates or alternate delegates or any contest relating thereto may originate before the Committee on Credentials of the national convention. All contests must first be presented to the Committee on Contests of the Republican National Committee or to the whole Republican National Committee.

(d) No motion with respect to delegates or alternate delegates from more than one (1) state or territory shall be in order before the Committee on Credentials.

Delegate Selection Information.

Rule 31 of the Rules of the Republican Party, adopted by the 1996 Republican National Convention, sets forth the delegate allocation system for the 2000 Republican National Convention in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The present delegate allocation system was first developed at the 1972 Republican National Convention for use in determining the number of delegates each state would have at the 1976 convention. In the Rules adopted by the 1976 Convention, the formula for delegate allocation for the 1980 Convention remained unchanged except for Puerto Rico (whose delegate allocation was increased from eight to fourteen members). No changes were made in the formula by either the 1980 or 1984 Conventions. The 1988 Convention added a bonus for obtaining a majority of the members of a state legislative chamber, and included representation for American Samoa. No changes were made in the formula by the 1992 Convention. The 1996 Convention adopted bonus delegate awards for states that schedule their primaries or caucuses later in the year.

The delegate allocation for the 2000 Republican National Convention is calculated as follows:

Base

Each of the 50 states receives a base of six (6) delegates at large. American Samoa, Guam, and the Virgin Islands each receive a base of four (4) at large delegates, while the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico are allotted fourteen (14) delegates at large.

District Delegates

Each of the fifty states receives three (3) congressional district delegates for each representative it has in the United States House of Representatives, regardless of political affiliation. (Does not apply to American Samoa, the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.)

Bonus Delegates

Additional delegates at large (often referred to as bonus delegates) are awarded to the fifty states according to the following criteria:

1996 Presidential Nominee

Any state that cast its electoral votes for Bob Dole in the 1996 election receives additional delegates at large computed as follows:

Four and one half ($4\frac{1}{2}$) delegates plus a number of delegates equal to sixty percent (60%) of the number of electoral votes of the state (the sum of which is rounded up to the next whole number).

1994–1999 U.S. Senate

Each state electing a Republican U.S. Senator between 1996 and 1999, inclusive, receives one (1) additional delegate at large per elected Republican U.S. Senator. However, no state may receive more than two (2) additional delegates for Republican senatorial victories.

1996–1999 Governors

Each state electing a Republican governor between 1996 and 1999, inclusive, receives one (1) additional delegate at large, not to exceed (1) delegate.

1996–1999 U.S. House of Representatives

Each state is awarded one (1) additional delegate at large if, at any time between 1996–1999 inclusive, Republicans represented at least one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the state's U.S. House of Representatives delegation. However, no state may receive more than one (1) such delegate.

1996–1999 State Legislatures

Each state obtaining a Republican majority in any chamber of its state legislature, between 1996 and 1999, inclusive, or if the membership in the Republican Party of any chamber of a state legislature increases by twenty-five percent (25%) or more during that time (so long as 25% equals at least two members) received one (1) additional delegate at large, not to exceed one (1) delegate. In addition, if a state obtains a Republican majority in all chambers of a state legislature between 1996 and 1999, inclusive, such state receives one (1) additional delegate at large, not to exceed one (1) delegate.

Date of Primary/Caucus

Any state party, including for these purposes American Samoa, the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands, which holds a presidential primary, caucus, convention, or meeting (hereinafter, "event") for the purpose of voting for a presidential candidate and/or selecting national convention delegates during the following time periods in the year 2000, receives additional delegates as follows:

Any state party which holds its first presidential candidate voting event or national convention delegate selection event from March 15 to April 14, inclusive, receives additional delegates in an amount equal to five percent (5%) of that state's above-calculated delegate total.

Any state party which holds its first presidential candidate voting event or national convention delegate selection event from April 15 to May 14, inclusive, receives additional delegates in an amount equal to seven and one half percent (7.5%) of that state's above-calculated delegate total.

Any state party which holds its first presidential candidate voting event or national convention delegate selection event from May 15 to June 20, inclusive, receives additional delegates in an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of that state's above-calculated delegate total.

The sum of the date bonus delegates is rounded to the nearest whole number. Date bonus delegates were awarded based on materials submitted by the state Republican parties by the July 1, 1999 deadline provided for in Rule 32. Note. If a state party moved its event date into the prescribed date bonus period after the July 1, 1999 deadline, it did not qualify for date bonus delegates. Also, if a state party moved its event date within the prescribed date bonus period after the July 1, 1999 deadline, it did not qualify for additional date bonus delegates.

This information is intended to serve only as a summary of the delegate allocation system for the 2000 Republican National Convention. The Rules of the Republican Party and the Call for the 2000 Republican National Convention are the official and binding authority on delegate allocation.

PART III. SURVEY OF STATE LAWS, PARTY RULES, REGULATING THE SELECTION OF DELEGATES TO THE NATIONAL NOMINATING CONVENTIONS

A. Delegate Selection for the States

ALABAMA

Delegates to National Conventions:

Democratic: 63

Republican: 44

A. MANNER OF SELECTION

Political parties may provide for the selection of delegates to national conventions by the holding of a presidential preference primary or by popular election of the delegates or otherwise. In the event a presidential preference primary is called by the governing body of any party, notice of such action shall be given to the Secretary of State as part of the notice required by § 17-16A-6 of the Code of Alabama. Said notice shall prescribe the procedure for the listing of the names of presidential candidates on the primary ballot and for the selection of delegates pledged under party rules to vote for the respective presidential candidates. A presidential preference primary, when called, will appear in the first or top position on the primary ballot. When no presidential preference primary is to be utilized, delegates may be elected in the primary election in the same manner as other party officers; except that, subject to such rules and procedures as the respective political parties may adopt, any delegate candidate may be permitted to list opposite his or her name on the primary ballot the surname of the presidential candidate to whom he or she is pledged or the word "uncommitted." When delegates are to be so elected, the candidates for such position or positions shall appear in the first or top position on the primary ballot (§ 17-16-7, Code of Alabama).

When it shall be desired by the governing body of any political party to enter the primary election ordered to be held under the provisions of this chapter, said governing body for the State shall give public notice thereof by filing a copy of the resolution of such governing body with the Secretary of State of Alabama. Such notice may be given to the Secretary of State by the chairman of the county executive committee where the primary election affects only one county, and a copy of such notice shall be filed with the probate judge of such county (§ 17-16-13).

B. PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY

CALIFORNIA

Delegates to National Conventions:

Democratic: 434

Republican: 162

A. MANNER OF SELECTION

Delegates to national conventions of the political parties are selected at the Presidential primary. The Chair of the State party committee notifies the Secretary of State as to the number of delegates to represent the state in the convention. The Democratic, Republican, American Independent, and Peace and Freedom Parties have procedures and rules as to delegate selection codified in detail in the California Election Code, Division 6, §§ 6000–6849. The Secretary of State places the name of a candidate on the presidential primary ballot when he determines the candidate is generally advocated or recognized throughout the United States or California as actively seeking the nomination of the party. After notification, the Secretary of State may add names to the ballot, but may not take off names unless the candidate signs a timely affidavit of non-candidacy. An unselected candidate may be nominated by petition by a certain percentage of the registered voters of that party. Newly qualified political parties shall conduct their primary elections in accordance with procedures of any other political party that has a detailed statutory provision. (§ 5006 supp.)

A new political party will be qualified to participate in a primary election when (1) it received at least 2 percent of the vote for any of its candidates statewide in the preceding gubernatorial election; (2) when it appears to the Secretary of State that the party’s registration equals at least 1 percent of the entire vote of the State in the last gubernatorial election, or (3) by petition by at least 10 percent of the entire vote of the State in the last gubernatorial election. (Cal. Election Code, § 5100, Supp.)

B. PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY

A presidential preference primary will be held on the first Tuesday in March in any year evenly divisible by the number four. (March 7, 2000) (California Elections Code, § 1202, Supp.)

C. STATUTORY INSTRUCTIONS

Republicans:

Each delegate to the Republican National Convention shall use his best efforts at the convention for the party's presidential nominee candidate from California to whom the delegate has pledged support until such person is nominated for President, receives less than 10 percent of the votes for nomination, releases the delegate from his obligation, or until two convention nominating ballots have been taken. Thereafter, each delegate shall be free to vote as he chooses, and no rule may be adopted by a delegation requiring the delegation to vote as a body or causing the vote of any delegate to go uncounted or unreported (California Elections Code, § 6461(c)).

COLORADO

Delegates to National Conventions:

Democratic: 61

A. MANNER OF SELECTION

To the extent permitted by state and national political party rules, each party shall use the presidential primary election results to allocate delegate votes to presidential candidates for the presidential nominating convention of that party, Colorado Revised Statutes, 1-4-1204. Minor parties must set out in their constitution or bylaws a method for nominating candidates and selecting delegates to conventions. (Colorado Revised Statutes, § 1-4-1301, as added by 1998 Session Laws, ch. 95).

B. PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY

Colorado will hold a presidential primary election on the first Friday following the first Tuesday in March, (March 10, 2000), to ensure that Colorado joins with other western states in conducting a coordinated western presidential primary, (Colorado Revised Statutes, § 1-4-1202, as amended by Session Laws of Colorado, ch. 240, 1999).

Each major political party which is represented by a candidate entitled to participate in the Colorado presidential primary election pursuant to section 1-4-1203 is entitled to participate in the primary election and shall have a separate party ballot. At such presidential primary election, an elector may only vote for a candidate who represents the political party to which the elector had declared an affiliation. An unaffiliated registered elector may declare an affiliation to the election judges of the presidential primary election as provided in section 1-7-201. The presidential primary election of all political parties shall be held at the same time and at the same polling places and shall be conducted by the same election officials (§1-4-1202(2)).

Except as otherwise provided, all presidential primary elections shall be conducted in the same manner as other primary elections, and the election officers for primary elections shall have the same powers and shall perform the same duties as those provided by law for general elections (§1-4-1202(3)).

All expenses incurred in the preparation or conduct of the presidential primary election shall be paid out of the treasury of the county or state, as the case may be, in the same manner as for general elections (§1-4-1202(4)).

The secretary of state shall certify the names and party affiliations of the candidates to be placed on the presidential primary election ballots fifty days before such election is to be held. The only candidates whose names shall be placed on ballots for such elections shall be those candidates who:

(a) Are eligible to receive payments pursuant to the federal "Presidential Primary Matching Payment Account Act", 26 U.S.C. 9031 et seq., at the time candidates' names are to be certified by the secretary of state; and

(b) Are seeking the nomination for president of a political party whose nominee for president of the United States received at least twenty percent of the votes cast by qualified electors in Colorado at the last presidential election and (c) have submitted a candidate's statement and filing fee (§1-4-1203(1)).

The names of candidates appearing on any presidential primary ballot shall be in alphabetical order (§1-4-1203(2)).

The secretary of state shall tabulate the number of votes received by each candidate named on the presidential primary election ballot and shall calculate the percentage of votes received by each candidate as compared to the number of votes received by all candidates of the same political party (§1-4-1204(1)).

The secretary of state shall certify the results and percentages calculated pursuant to subsection (1) of this section to the state party chairman and national committee of each political party which had at least one candidate on the presidential primary election ballot. To the extent permitted by state and national political party rules, each such party shall use the election results to allocate delegate votes to presidential candidates for the presidential nominating convention of that party. Political parties need not allocate delegate votes to candidates who receive less than fifteen percent of the votes cast in the presidential primary election for that party unless required to do so pursuant to state or national party rules (§1-4-1204).

Minor political parties may nominate candidates by petition signed by at least ten thousand registered electors, submitted no later than May 1 of the election year for which the minor political party seeks to qualify. (§1-4-1302, as added by Session Laws of Colorado, ch. 95, 1998).

C. STATUTORY INSTRUCTIONS

Delegates shall be pledged or bound to vote for the candidate to which they have been allocated only to the extent allowed by the state and national party rules of that political party (§1-4-1204(2)).

CONNECTICUT

Delegates to National Conventions:

Democratic: 67

Republican: 25

A. MANNER OF SELECTION

National convention delegates and alternates are selected in accordance with party rules. Political parties may hold caucuses for the selection of delegates prior to the day of the presidential primary (Connecticut General Statutes annotated, §9-486). Not later than the 14th day before the day of the primary, the chairman of each party shall certify in writing to the Secretary the number of delegates to which such party is entitled pursuant to its rules. If such rules provide that such delegates are to be chosen from districts, the chairman shall also certify the number of delegates allocated to each district and the number to be selected at large, if any. If such rules prescribe a formula for the allocation of delegates to candidates based upon the percentages of the total votes cast for such candidates at the primary, the chairman shall also certify such formula and all information necessary for the application of such formula to the results of the primary. The chairman shall furnish to the Secretary, upon request, a written interpretation or explanation of any application of such formula (§9-473).

Allocation of Delegates:

If a party's chairman has certified a formula in accordance with the provisions of section 9-473, the Secretary shall calculate the number of delegates allocated to each of such party's candidates, pursuant to such formula, except as provided in section 9-484 (§9-483).

If a party's chairman did not certify a formula pursuant to section 9-473, or if the application of the formula so certified requires all delegates to be allocated to the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes notwithstanding such candidate's percentage of the total votes cast for all candidates, the Secretary shall determine the number of delegates to be so allocated to each candidate of each such party in accordance with the provisions of this section (§9-484(a)).

Such determination shall be made separately for delegates to be selected at large and delegates to be selected from each district. Any percentage required to be determined, in accordance with the provisions of this section, shall be rounded off to the nearest one-tenth of one percent. As used in this section, "minimum percentage" means the ratio, expressed as a percentage, that the number one bears to the total number of delegates to be selected, but in no event shall such percentage exceed twenty-five percent. (§9-484(b)).

The Secretary shall calculate the minimum percentage, as defined in subsection (b) of this section, using the number of delegates to be selected at large and, if applicable, the number of delegates to be selected from each district respectively. Except as provided in this subsection, a candidate's percentage of the total votes cast for all candidates in the State or in a district must equal or exceed such minimum percentage in order for such candidate to be allocated any at large delegates or any delegates from such district, as the case may be. The Secretary shall determine each candidate's percentage of the total votes cast for all candidates in the State and in each district. In the event two or more candidates have received a percentage of such total votes cast equal to or greater than the minimum percentage, the Secretary shall calculate an adjusted percentage, which shall be each such candidate's percentage of the total votes cast for all such candidates, excluding the votes cast for all other candidates. The Secretary shall then calculate the product of each such candidate's adjusted percentage and the total number of delegates to be selected, rounding off such product to the nearest integer. Such product shall be the number of delegates allocated to each such candidate except as hereinafter provided. (1) If the rounding off of such products to the nearest integers causes the sum of all delegates so allocated to be greater than the total number of delegates to be selected at large or from the district, then one delegate shall be subtracted from the number allocated to the candidate who received the greatest mathematical gain from such rounding off, and if necessary one delegate shall also be subtracted from the number allocated to the candidate who received the next greatest gain, and so on until the sum of all delegates allocated to candidates equals the total number of delegates to be so selected. (2) If the rounding off of such products to the nearest integers causes the sum of all delegates so allocated to be fewer than the total number of delegates to be selected at large or from the district, then one delegate shall be added to the number allocated to the candidate who suffered the greatest mathematical loss from such rounding off, and if necessary one delegate shall also be added to the number allocated to the candidate who suffered the next greatest such loss, and so on until the sum of all delegates allocated to candidates equals the total number of delegates to be so selected (§ 9-484(c)).

In the event one or no candidate has received a percentage of the total number of votes cast for all candidates equal to or greater than the minimum percentage, the Secretary shall calculate an adjusted percentage for each of the candidates receiving the greatest and second greatest number of votes cast for all candidates. The adjusted percentage shall be such candidate's percentage of the total number of votes cast for both such candidates, excluding the total number of votes cast for all other candidates. The Secretary shall determine the number of delegates allocated to each candidate by using the same procedure as prescribed in subsection (c) of this section (§ 9-484(d)).

Certification of Delegates; Release of Delegates:

Forthwith upon completion of the procedures prescribed by section 9-483 or 9-484, as the case may be, the Secretary shall certify to the chairman, each candidate and the national committee of the party, the number of such party's at large and district delegates allocated to each candidate in accordance with the provisions of said sections. Each party shall select a number of delegates, both at large and from each district, pursuant to its rules and in accordance with such certification, provided it shall select a number of delegates committed to support each candidate which is not less than the number so allocated to such candidate. If, prior to a party's selection of delegates, a candidate to whom one or more of such party's delegates are allocated files with the Secretary a written statement, by him signed, to the effect that he has released all Connecticut delegates allocated to him, delegates committed to such candidate shall not be selected by such party. Forthwith upon the selection of delegates, the chairman shall certify to the Secretary the name and address of each delegate, the district from which he was selected or that he was selected at large, and the name of the candidate to whom he is committed or that he is uncommitted, as the case may be. If, as a consequence of any such candidate's release of delegates, the number of delegates differs from the number so allocated in accordance with the Secretary's certification, the chairman shall include in his certification a statement to such effect and an accounting of the differences (§9-485(a)).

The Secretary shall forward a copy of such certification to the national committee of the party and to each candidate to whom at least one delegate is committed. If such certification indicates that the party has not complied with the provisions of this section in its selection of delegates, the Secretary shall so inform the chairman, each such candidate and the national committee of the party. If any such candidate files with the Secretary a written objection to any delegate committed to him according to the chairman's certification, the Secretary shall inform the chairman and the national committee of the party of such objection. Any dispute over the selection of delegates by a party shall be resolved in such manner as its rules may prescribe (§9-485(b)).

B. PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY

A presidential preference primary is to be held on the first Tuesday in March (March 7, 2000) (§9-464). The presidential primary is a closed type of primary. The name of a candidate shall be placed on the ballot at a primary of a party either: (a) by direction of the Secretary of State when he determines within the time specified that the candidacy of such person for such party's nomination for president is generally and seriously advocated or recognized according to reports in the national or state news media, unless such candidate files a request to omit his name; or (b) by petition to the Secretary of State (§9-465).

1. Candidate List:

The secretary shall, at ten o'clock a.m. on the seventy-fourth day preceding the day of the primary, publicly announce a list of candidates whose names are to be placed on the ballot of each party at such primary pursuant to subsection (a) of section 9-465. Forthwith upon announcing such list, said secretary shall notify each such candidate, by registered mail with return receipt requested, that his name will be included on the ballot unless he files with the Secretary, not later than four o'clock p.m. of the thirty-sixth day before the primary, a written request, signed by the candidate, to the following effect: "I request that my name be omitted from the ballot at Connecticut's forthcoming . . . (name of party) presidential preference primary". The name of any candidate who files a request as provided by this section, within the time specified, shall be omitted from the ballot, but no such withdrawal shall be honored if it is received later than the time specified by his section (§9-466)

2. Issuance of Petition:

On or after twelve o'clock noon of the seventy-fourth day preceding the day of the primary, any person seeking the nomination of a party for president, whose name is not included in the list of candidates announced by the Secretary pursuant to section 9-466, or any person advocating the nomination of such person, by such party, may obtain petition pages from the Secretary in the manner provided by this section. Such pages shall be in a form prescribed by the Secretary and shall conform, as nearly as may be, to the requirements for primary petition forms provided in section 9-410. Any person requesting the petition pages shall give to the Secretary, in writing, his name and address, the name and address of the candidate for whom the petition is to be circulated and the party holding the primary, and shall also file, or cause to be filed, with said Secretary a written statement, signed by such candidate, to the effect that he consents to the inclusion of his name on the primary ballot of such party. Upon completion of these requirements, the Secretary shall give to the person so requesting such petition pages a number of pages sufficient to contain at least two times the number of signatures required in accordance with the provisions of section 9-468. The Secretary shall also fill in on each petition page the name and address of the candidate, the words "nomination for president of the United States" as the designation of the office sought, and the name of the party conducting the primary (§9-467).

3. Candidate Petition for Ballot Inclusion:

Such petitions shall be circulated, filed with the registrars of voters, and verified by said registrars, as nearly as may be, in accordance with the provisions of sections 9-410 and 9-412. Each page of such a petition shall be filed with the registrar of voters of the party holding the primary in the town of voting residence of the signers thereof, not later than four o'clock p.m. of the forty-sixth day preceding the day of the primary; and such registrar shall verify the signatures on each such page and forward it to the secretary not later than four o'clock p.m. of the forty-second day preceding the day of the primary. If, prior to such last day for filing such pages with the registrar, such a petition was issued under section 9-467, the office or office facilities of each registrar of such party in each town shall open not later than one o'clock p.m.

and remain open until at least four o'clock p.m., and each such registrar or his deputy assistant registrar shall be present therein (§9-468). The Secretary shall complete tabulation of the signatures on each petition not later than the thirty-sixth day preceding the day of the primary. The secretary shall place on the ballot of each party at the primary the name of each candidate whose petition has been signed by a number of enrolled members of such party equal to at least one per cent of the total number of enrolled members of such party in the state, according to the most recent enrollment records on file in the office of the Secretary. No candidate who has filed a statement of consent pursuant to the provisions of section 9-467 and whose name is placed on the ballot pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be permitted to withdraw his name from such ballot (§9-469).

4. Order of Names on Ballot:

The Secretary shall determine by lot, in a public ceremony held on the thirty-fifth day preceding the day of the primary, the order in which the names of the candidates will appear on the ballot of each party at such primary; provided that the category "uncommitted" shall appear last on such ballots. Notwithstanding any provision of the general statutes to the contrary, no candidate shall be designated on the ballot as the party-endorsed candidate. The names of such candidates shall appear, in the order so determined by the Secretary, in the first vertical column of the voting machine. Such column shall be designated "Nomination for President of the United States"; provided if the number of candidates is such that there is an insufficient number of places in such column, the Secretary shall determine whether the names of the candidates shall also extend, in the order so determined, to the second and succeeding columns as may be necessary, or shall appear on the first and succeeding horizontal rows as may be necessary. Such columns or rows shall be designated as hereinabove provided. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the form of the ballot shall be prescribed by the Secretary and shall conform, as nearly as may be, to the provisions of section 9-437 (§9-470).

C. STATUTORY INSTRUCTIONS

The Secretary shall certify to the chairman, each candidate and the national committee of the party, the number of such party's at large and district delegates allocated to each candidate in accordance with the provisions of said sections. Each party shall select a number of delegates, both at large and from each district, pursuant to its rules and in accordance with such certification, provided it shall select a number of delegates committed to support each candidate which is not less than the number so allocated to such candidate. If, prior to a party's selection of delegates, a candidate to whom one or more of such party's delegates are allocated files with the Secretary a written statement, by him signed, to the effect that he has released all Connecticut delegates allocated to him, delegates committed to such candidate shall not be selected by such party. Forthwith upon the selection of delegates, the chairman shall certify to the Secretary the name and address of each delegate, the district from which he was selected or that he was selected at large, and the name of the candidate to whom he is committed or that he is uncommitted, as the case may be. If, as a consequence of any such candidate's release of delegates, the number of delegates differs from the number so allocated in accordance with the Secretary's certification, the chairman shall include in his certification a statement to such effect and an accounting of the differences.

The Secretary shall forward a copy of such certification to the national committee of the party and to each candidate to whom at least one delegate is committed. If such certification indicates that the party has not complied with the provisions of this section in its selection of delegates, the secretary shall so inform the chairman, each such candidate and the national committee of the party. If any such candidate files with the Secretary a written objection to any delegate committed to him according to the chairman's certification, the secretary shall inform the chairman and the national committee of the party of such objection. Any dispute over the selection of delegates by a party shall be resolved in such manner as its rules may prescribe.

If, subsequent to the primary, a candidate to whom one or more of such party's delegates are allocated either dies or files with the Secretary a written statement, by him signed, to the effect that he has released all Connecticut delegates committed to him, the commitment of any such delegate to the candidate shall be deemed to have been released (§ 9-485).

No person shall be listed on the ballot as a candidate for nomination for President in such primary unless there shall have been filed with the Board no later than 60 days before the date of such presidential primary election a petition on behalf of his or her candidacy signed by at least 1,000, or 1 percent, whichever is less, of the qualified electors of the District of Columbia who are registered under § 1-1311, and of the same political party as the nominee (§ 1-1306(b)(2)).

C. STATUTORY INSTRUCTIONS

The delegates and alternates, of each political party in the District of Columbia to the national convention of that party convened for the nomination of that party for President, elected at the presidential preference primary, shall only be obliged to vote for the candidate whom they have selected to represent in accordance with properly promulgated rules of the political party, on the first ballot cast at the convention for nominees for President, or until such time as such candidate to whom the delegates are committed withdrawn his candidacy, whichever first occurs (§ 1-1306(b)(5)).

A. MANNER OF SELECTION

The State of Florida shall hold a presidential preference primary for the selection of delegates on the second Tuesday in March, March 14, 2000 (Florida Statutes Annotated, § 103.101).

B. PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY

Each political party other than a minor political party shall, on the second Tuesday in March in each year the number of which is a multiple of 4 (March 14, 2000), elect one person to be the candidate for nomination of such party for President of the United States or select delegates to the national nominating convention, as provided by party rule (§103.101(1)). The Florida presidential primary is a closed type of primary. By December 31 of the year preceding the Florida presidential preference primary, each political party shall submit to the Secretary of State a list of its presidential candidates to be placed on the presidential preference primary ballot or candidates entitled to have delegates appear on the presidential preference primary ballot. The Secretary of State shall prepare and publish a list of the names of the presidential candidates submitted. The Secretary of State shall submit such list of names of presidential candidates to the selection committee on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January each year a presidential preference primary election is held. Each person designated as a presidential candidate shall have his name appear, or have his delegates' names appear, on the presidential preference primary ballot unless all committee members of the same political party as the candidate agree to delete such candidate's name from the ballot. The presidential candidate selection committee shall meet in Tallahassee on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January each year a presidential preference primary is held. The selection committee shall publicly announce and submit to the Department of State no later than 5 p.m. on the following day the names of presidential candidates who shall have their names appear, or who are entitled to have their delegates' names appear, on the presidential preference primary ballot. The Department of State shall immediately notify each presidential candidate designated by the committee. Such notification shall be in writing, by registered mail, with return receipt requested. Any presidential candidate whose name does not appear on the list submitted to the Secretary of State may request that the selection committee place his name on the ballot. Such request shall be made no later than the second Tuesday after the first Monday in January (§103.101(2)).

A candidate's name shall be printed on the presidential preference primary ballot unless he submits to the Department of State, prior to the second Tuesday after the first Monday in January, an affidavit stating that he is not now, and does not presently intend to become, a candidate for President at the upcoming nominating convention. If a candidate withdraws pursuant to this subsection, the Department of State shall notify the State executive committee that the candidate's name will not be placed on the ballot. The Department of State shall, no later than the third Tuesday after the first Monday in January, certify to each supervisor of elections the name of each candidate for political party nomination to be printed on the ballot (§103.101(3)).

The names of candidates for political party nominations for President of the United States shall be printed on official ballots for the presidential preference primary election and shall be marked, counted, canvassed, returned, and proclaimed in the same manner and under the same conditions, so far as they are applicable, as in the other State elections. If party rule requires the delegates' names to be printed on the official presidential preference primary ballot, the name of the president candidates for that political party may not be printed separately, but the ballot may reflect the presidential candidate to whom the delegate is pledged. If, however, a political party has only one presidential candidate, neither the name of the candidate nor the names of the candidate's delegates shall be printed on the ballot (§103.101(4)). The state executive committee of each party, by rule adopted at least 120 days prior to the presidential preference primary election, shall determine the number, and establish procedures to be followed in the selection, of delegates and delegate alternates from among each candidate's supporters. A copy of any rule adopted by the executive committee shall be filed with the Department of State within 7 days after its adoption and shall become a public record. The Department of State shall review the procedures and shall notify the State executive committee of each political party of any ballot limitations. The Department of State may promulgate rules for the orderly conduct of the presidential preference primary ballot. Delegates must qualify no later than the second Friday in January in the manner provided by party rule. All delegates shall be allocated as provided by party rule (§103.101 (5), (6), (7)).

A. MANNER OF SELECTION

There is no specific statutory provision regulating the election or selection of delegates to national conventions. The law does state, "each political party shall establish and maintain a State executive committee exercising statewide jurisdiction and control over party affairs, and a county executive committee in each county in which it holds a primary, exercising county-wide jurisdiction and control over party affairs. A party may establish and maintain such other committees as it may from time to time deem advisable. The membership of such committees shall be selected in the manner determined by the State executive committee. Each committee shall be presided over by a chairman and shall have a secretary and each other officers as deemed advisable. Georgia will have a presidential primary on March 7, 2000. The State executive committee of each political party or body shall determine the method and procedures by which delegates and delegate alternates to the national nominating conventions are selected, as well as adopt any other rule not inconsistent with this article. (Code of Georgia, §21-2-195).

B. PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY

A presidential preference primary shall be held in 1992 and every four years thereafter for each political party or body which has cast for its candidates for President and Vice President in the last presidential election more than 20 percent of the total vote cast for President and Vice President in the state, so that the electors may express their preference for one person to be the candidate for nomination by his party or body for the office of President of the United States; provided, however, that no elector shall vote in the primary of more than one political party or body in the same presidential preference primary. Such primary was held on April 3, 1992, and shall be held on the first Tuesday in March every four years thereafter (March 7, 2000). A State political party or body may by rule choose to elect any portion of its delegates to that party's or body's presidential nominating convention in the primary; and, if a State political party or body chooses to elect any portion of its delegates, such state political party or body shall establish the qualifying period for those candidates for delegate and delegate alternate positions which are to be elected in the primary and for any party officials to be elected in the primary and shall also establish the date on which State and county party executive committees shall certify to the Secretary of State or the superintendent, as the case may be, the names of any such candidates who are to be elected in the primary; provided, however, that such dates shall not be later than December 31, in the year preceding the year in which the presidential preference primary is to be held. (§21-2-191).

Not later than December 31 in the year preceding the year in which a presidential preference primary is to be held, the state executive committee of each party which is to conduct a presidential preference primary shall submit to the Secretary of State a list of the names of the candidates of such party to appear on the presidential preference primary ballot. Such lists shall be published by the Secretary of State in a newspaper of general circulation in the state during the first week of January in the year in which the presidential preference primary is to be held. (§21-2-193).

C. STATUTORY INSTRUCTIONS

Any person selected as a delegate or delegate alternate to such national convention shall file a qualification oath with the Secretary of State pledging support at the convention to the candidate of their political party or body for the office of President of the United States for whom they are selected to support. The oath shall state that the delegate or delegate alternate affirms to support such candidate until the candidate is either nominated by such convention, or receives less than thirty-five percent of the votes for nomination by such convention during any balloting, or until the candidate releases the delegates from such pledge. No delegate shall be required to vote for such candidate after two convention nominating ballots have been completed (§21-2-196).

IDAHO

Delegates to National Conventions:

Democratic: 23

Republican: 28

A. MANNER OF SELECTION

The Idaho election laws provide that each State convention shall write and adopt rules and regulations governing the conduct of their respective convention.

At their convention each political party may in the year of presidential elections elect delegates to the national convention in the manner prescribed by national party rules (Idaho Code, § 34-707).

Delegates are also elected at a presidential preference primary held on the fourth Tuesday in May of each presidential year, i.e., May 23, 2000 (§ 34-731). No later than ten (10) days prior to the presidential primary election, each candidate for nomination by a party for president, or a designated representative of such candidate, shall file with the Secretary of State a list of names and addresses of persons proposed by that candidate to be delegates to the national convention of the party of that candidate. The number of names set forth on such list of proposed delegates shall be equal to the number of delegates and alternates to the national party convention as are allotted to Idaho for that year by the national committee of that party. No person's name shall be placed on such a list of proposed delegates unless that person has attained the age of eighteen (18) years at the time said delegates' list is filed, is a citizen of the United States, is a qualified elector of the State of Idaho, and has resided in the State of Idaho for at least one (1) year next preceding filing of said list. The qualifications of each person, whose name appears on such list of proposed delegates, shall be verified by an affidavit of the candidate, or a representative of the candidate, and said affidavit shall be attached to said list so filed. The form of said affidavit shall be determined by the Secretary of State (§ 34-735).

Upon completion of the State canvass of the results of the presidential primary, the Secretary of State shall certify to the State chairman of each political party participating in the presidential primary the number of votes received by each candidate of that party and the number of votes for an uncommitted delegation received by that party (§ 34-736(1)). Each political party shall then select as many delegates and alternates to the national party convention as are allotted to it by the national committee of that party, according to the

Eighty percent of such delegates and eighty percent of such alternates to a national party convention shall be selected by a party at its state convention, or as the party rules otherwise provide, from among:

(a) the persons named on the lists of proposed delegates to the national conventions filed with the secretary of state by that party's respective candidates for nomination by the party for President of the United States; and

(b) the persons selected by that party at its state convention, or as the party rules otherwise provide, to comprise any uncommitted delegation (§ 34-736(3)).

The number of delegates and the number of alternatives selected by a party from a candidate's list of proposed delegates, or selected by that party to comprise any uncommitted delegation, shall bear the same proportion to eighty percent (80 percent) of the total number of delegates and alternates allotted to such party as the total vote received by each candidate or uncommitted delegation bears to the total combined vote cast in said primary election for all candidates and uncommitted delegation, if any, receiving more than five percent (5 percent) of the votes cast for that party. Upon determination of the number of delegates and alternates that shall be selected from each candidate's list of proposed delegates and that shall be selected to comprise an uncommitted delegation, if any, the party shall then select delegates and alternates to that party's national convention in that respective number from each such list and to comprise the uncommitted delegation, if any. The delegates and alternates comprising any such uncommitted delegation shall be selected as the party rules determine (§ 34-736(4)).

Twenty percent of the delegates and twenty percent of the alternates to a national party convention as are allotted to a party by the national committee of that party shall be selected as delegates and alternates to the national convention of that party as the party rules may determine (§ 34-736(5)). In the event a candidate in the presidential preference primary fails to file with the Secretary of State a list of proposed delegates to his party's national convention, or to the extent that such a list of proposed delegates provided by such candidate fails to name a sufficient number of persons qualified for the office of delegate, such number of delegates and alternates, as would be selected from said candidate's list of proposed delegates according to the election results, shall be selected by the party as delegates and alternates to that party's national convention, as the party rules may determine (§ 34-736(6)).

In calculating the apportionment of delegate votes in conjunction with the selection of delegates and alternates, as provided for in this section, such proportions of delegate votes shall be expressed as decimal-fractional votes or the nearest whole number of delegate votes as the rules of the particular national party or convention may provide (§ 34-736(8)).

There shall be no unit rule applied to or by the delegation of any party to that party's national convention. No party or delegation shall commit or instruct delegates and alternates selected from that party's candidates' lists of proposed delegates or selected as uncommitted delegates and alternates. Other delegates and alternates may be committed and/or instructed as the party rules may provide (§34-736(9)).

B. PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY

A presidential preference primary shall be held on the fourth Tuesday in May of each presidential year (May 23, 2000).

Each qualified elector shall have the opportunity to vote on the official presidential preference primary for one person to be the candidate for nomination by a party for president of the United States. The name of any candidate for a political party nomination for President of the United States shall be printed on the ballots only:

(a) if the Secretary of State shall have determined, in his sole discretion, that the person's candidacy is generally advocated or recognized in national news media throughout the United States. For the purpose of promoting the aspect of a regional primary in this regard, the Secretary of State may consult with the chief election officers of neighboring states which conduct a presidential primary election on the fourth Tuesday in May. The Secretary of State shall publish the names of such persons determined by him to be such candidates, together with their party affiliation, not less than sixty (60) days prior to the date of the presidential preference primary;

(b) if a petition for nomination meeting the requirements of subsection 3 of this section is filed with the Secretary of State by members of a political party to which the candidate belongs;

(c) the petition referred to in subsection (b) hereof shall:

(1) have attached thereto a sheet or sheets containing the signatures of at least a number of qualified electors equal to one percent of the number of votes cast in this State for presidential electors at the previous general election at which a President of the United States was elected;

(2) be filed with the Secretary of State not later than thirty (30) days prior to the date of the presidential preference primary;

(3) the format of the signature petition sheets shall be prescribed by the Secretary of State and shall be patterned after, but not limited to, such sheets as used for State initiative and referendum measures;

(4) the petitions and signatures so submitted shall be verified in the manner prescribed in section 34-1807, Idaho Code (§34-732).

The Secretary of State shall forthwith notify each person whom he has nominated and each such person nominated by petition in writing by registered mail that such person's name will be printed as a candidate on the Idaho presidential preference primary ballot. In the event the Secretary of State is informed of a candidate's death or incapacity, the Secretary of State may, in his sole discretion, remove the name of such nominated candidate from the ballot, but not later than thirty (30) days prior to said election. No declaration of candidacy or affidavit of candidacy shall be required of any candidate as a condition for printing the name of that candidate on the official ballot used in the presidential preference primary (§34-733). At a presidential preference primary, qualified electors may vote for candidates for nomination for President of the United States from among the candidates of one political party only. The elector shall be able to cast his ballot for one of the presidential candidates of his party, or for "none of the names shown." A vote of the latter kind shall express the preference for an uncommitted delegation from Idaho to the national convention of that elector's party (§34-734).

C. STATUTORY INSTRUCTIONS

There shall be no unit rule applied to or by the delegation of any party to the party's national convention. No party or delegation shall commit or instruct delegates and alternates selected from that party's candidates' lists of proposed delegates or selected as uncommitted delegates and alternates. Other delegates shall be committed and/or instructed as the party rules may provide (§34-736(9)).

ILLINOIS

Delegates to National Conventions:
Democratic: 189
Republican: 74

A. MANNER OF SELECTION

Not less than 61 days before the date of the primary the State Board of Elections shall meet and shall examine all petitions filed under Article 7, in the office of the State Board of Elections. The State Board of Elections shall then certify to the county clerk of each county, the names of all candidates whose nomination papers or certificates of nomination have been filed with the board and direct the County Clerk to place upon the official ballot for the general primary election the names of such candidates in the same manner and in the same order as shown upon the certification.

Selection of delegates and alternate delegates.

Delegates and alternate delegates to national nominating conventions shall be chosen according to one of the following alternative methods of allocating delegates for election. The State central committee of each political party established pursuant to this Article 7 shall certify to the State Board of Elections, not less than 30 days prior to the first date for filing of petitions for election as delegate or alternate delegate to a national nominating convention, which of the following alternatives it wishes to be utilized in allocating the delegates and alternate delegates to which Illinois will be entitled at its national nominating convention. The State Board of Elections shall meet promptly and, not less than 20 days prior to the first date for filing of such petitions, shall publish and certify to the county clerk in each county the number of delegates or alternate delegates to be elected from each congressional district or from the State at large or State convention of a political party, as the case may be, according to the method chosen by each State central committee. If a

State central committee fails to certify to the State Board of Elections its choice of one of the following methods prior to the aforementioned meeting of the State Board of Elections, the State Board of Elections shall certify delegates for that political party pursuant to whichever of the alternates below was used by that political party in the most recent year in which delegates were selected, subject to any subsequent amendments.

Prior to the aforementioned meeting of the State Board of Elections at which the Board shall publish and certify to the county clerk the number of delegates or alternate delegates to be elected from each congressional district or the State at large or State convention, the Secretary of State shall ascertain from the call of the national convention of each political party the number of delegates and alternate delegates to which Illinois will be entitled at the respective national nominating conventions. The Secretary of State shall report the number of delegates and alternate delegates to which Illinois will be entitled at the respective national nominating conventions to the State Board of Elections convened as aforesaid to be utilized by the State Board of Elections in calculating the number of delegates and alternates to be elected from each congressional district in the State at large or State convention, as the case may be (§ 5/7-14.1).

Alternative A: The State Board of Elections shall allocate the number of delegates and alternate delegates to which the State is entitled among the congressional districts in the State.

(1) Of the number of delegates to which the State is entitled, 10, plus those remaining unallocated under paragraph 2, shall be delegates at large. The State central committee of the appropriate political party shall determine whether the delegates at large shall be elected in the primary from the State at large, selected by the State convention, or chosen by a combination of these two methods. If the State central committee determines that all or a specified number of the delegates at large shall be elected in the primary, the committee shall file with the Board a report of such determination at the same time it certifies the alternative it wishes to use in allocating its delegates.

(2) All delegates other than the delegates at large shall be elected from the congressional districts. Two delegates shall be allocated from this number to each district. After reserving 10 delegates to be delegates at large and allocating 2 delegates to each district, the Board shall allocate the remaining delegates to the congressional districts pursuant to the following formula:

(a) for each district, the number of remaining delegates shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the vote cast in the congressional district for the party's nominee in the last presidential election, and the denominator of which is the vote cast in the State for the party's nominee in the last presidential election;

(b) the Board shall first allocate to each district a number of delegates equal to the whole number in the product resulting from the multiplication procedure in subparagraph (a);

(c) the Board shall then allocate any remaining delegates, one to each district, in the order of largest fractional remainder in the product resulting from the multiplication procedure in subparagraph (1), omitting those districts for which the product is less than 1.875;

(d) the Board shall then allocate any remaining delegates, one to each district, in the order of the largest fractional remainder in the product resulting from the multiplication procedure in subparagraph (1), among those districts for which that product is at least one but less than 1.875.

(e) any delegates remaining unallocated shall be delegates at large and shall be selected as determined by the State central committee under paragraph (a) of this Alternative A.

(3) The alternative delegates at large shall be allocated in the same manner as the delegates at large. The alternative delegates other than the alternate delegates at large shall be allocated in the same manner as the delegates other than the delegates at large (§7-14.1)

Alternative B: The chairman of the State central committee shall file with the State Board of Elections a statement of the number of delegates and alternate delegates to which the State is entitled and the number of such delegates and alternate delegates to be elected from congressional districts. The State Board of Elections shall allocate such number of delegates and alternate delegates, as the case may be, among the congressional districts in the State for election from the congressional districts (§5/7-14.1). (See the formulae for determining the selection of delegates from each congressional district in section 15/7-14.1)

Statements to be filed by delegates and alternate delegates:

(A) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (C), a candidate for delegate or alternate delegate to a national nominating convention shall file with the State Board of Elections at the time of filing the statement of candidacy described in Section 7-10, a statement declaring the name of his preference for President of the United States or that he is uncommitted.

(B) The following procedure shall apply to candidates for delegate or alternate delegate to a national nominating convention of a political party whose State Central Committee uses Alternative B of Section 7-14.1. If more candidates for delegate or alternate delegate in a congressional district than have been allocated to that district file statements designating the same presidential candidate as their preference for President of the United States, the presidential candidate so designated or his authorized representative may, within 10 days after the last day for filing such statements, file an affidavit designating which of such candidates he wants to be listed on the ballot as being committed to the presidential candidate. Candidates for delegate or alternate delegate not designated on an affidavit by the presidential candidate shall be listed on the ballot as uncommitted. In no event may the designated person's filing of the affidavit leave fewer candidates listed on the ballot as being committed to him than the number of delegates or alternate delegates allocated to the district.

(C) The State central committee of a political party may choose to file a statement with the State Board of Elections not less than 30 days prior to the first day for filing the statement of candidacy described in Section 7–10, specifying that a candidate for delegate or alternate delegate shall not be required to file an official declaration statement pursuant to this Section.

If the State central committee of a political party specifies that any such official declaration statement is not required to be filed by the candidates for delegates and alternate delegates to the national nominating convention of any such political party, then no such declaration statement shall be required to be made (§ 5/7–10.3).

B. PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY

Illinois will hold a presidential preference primary on March 21, 2000. The presidential primary is an open type of primary. Any candidate for President of the United States may have his name printed upon the primary ballot of his political party by filing in the office of the State Board of Elections not more than 99 and not less than 92 days prior to the date of the March primary, in any year in which a presidential election is to be held, a petition signed by not less than 3,000 or more than 5,000 primary electors, members of and affiliated with the party of which he is a candidate, and no candidate for President of the United States who fails to comply with the provisions of this Article shall have his name printed upon a primary ballot (§ 5/7–11).

C. STATUTORY INSTRUCTIONS

Unless the rules or policies of a national political party otherwise provide, the vote for presidential candidate is advisory only, and shall be for the sole purpose of securing an expression of the sentiment and will of the party voters with respect to candidates for nomination for said office, and the vote of the State at large shall be taken and considered as advisory to the delegates and alternates at large to the national conventions of respective political parties; and the vote of the respective congressional districts shall be taken and considered as advisory to the delegates and alternates of said congressional districts to the national conventions of the respective political parties (§ 7–11).

(b) Delegates to a state convention shall be chosen at the primary election conducted by the political party on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May, 1998, and every two (2) years thereafter. If provided in the rules of the state committee of the political party, delegates may be elected from delegate districts in each county.

(c) Not later than noon, November 30, of the year preceding the year in which the state convention is to be conducted, the state chairman of a political party shall certify the following to the election division and to each county committee of the party:

- (1) The number of delegates to be elected in each county.

- (3) If a county is to elect delegates from districts, how many districts must be established in each county.
- (d) The county committee shall establish any delegate districts required to be established under subsection (c) and file descriptions setting forth the district boundaries with the county election board not later than noon December 31 of the year preceding the year the state convention is to be conducted. If the county committee does not timely file district descriptions under this subsection, the county election board shall establish districts not later than the first day that a declaration of candidacy may be filed under IC 3-8-2-4, and apportion the delegates to be elected from each district in accordance with subsection (c). A candidate for nomination for the office of President of the United States shall, no later than noon seventy four (74) days, and no earlier than one hundred four (104) days before the primary election held in the year in which a President is to be elected, file with the Election Division a request that the candidate's name be placed upon the ballot under the label of the political party whose nomination the candidate is seeking (§§3-8-3-1, 3-10-1-3). A request must be accompanied by a petition signed by at least five thousand (5,000) voters of the State, including at least five hundred (500) voters from each congressional district. Each petition must contain the following:

- (1) The signature of each petitioner.
- (2) The name of each petitioner legibly printed.
- (3) The residence mailing address of each petitioner (§3-8-3-2).

Such a petition must request that the candidate's name be placed on the ballot at the primary election. In order for the Secretary of State to consider a petition valid, the circuit court clerk or board of registration in the county where the petitioner is registered must certify each petitioner is a voter of the county. The certification must accompany and be part of the petition. If a county is part of more than one (1) congressional district, the certificate must indicate the number of petitioners from that county who reside in each congressional district (§3-8-3-3). Such a petition must be submitted to the circuit court clerk or board of registration during the period beginning January 1 of the year in which the primary election will be held and ending at noon ten days before the final date for filing a declaration of candidacy under IC 3-8-2-4 for the primary election (§3-8-3-4). Such a request or petition is not valid unless received in the office of the Election Division by noon Indianapolis time on the final day for filing a declaration of candidacy under IC 3-8-2-4 before a primary election (§3-8-3-5). Immediately after the deadline for filing, the Election Division shall certify and release to the public a list of the candidates for each political party. The Election Division shall also release to the public a list of all requests whose validity is questioned (§3-8-3-6).

C. STATUTORY INSTRUCTIONS

A. MANNER OF SELECTION

Delegates to the national conventions of the respective political parties are selected by custom by State and congressional district conventions comprised of delegates selected at county conventions, as set forth in the party rules.

Delegates to county conventions of political parties and party committee members shall be elected at precinct caucuses held not later than the fourth Monday in February of each even-numbered year. The date shall be at least eight days earlier than the scheduled date for any meeting, caucus or primary which constitutes the first determining stage of the presidential nominating process in any other State, territory or any other group which has the authority to select delegates in the presidential nomination. The State central committees of the political parties shall set the date for their caucuses. The county chairperson of each political party shall issue the call for the caucuses. The county chairperson shall file with the commissioner the meetingplace of each precinct caucus at least seven days prior to the date of holding the caucus.

If the required statement is not filed, the commissioner shall fix the number of delegates from each voting district (§43.90). The State convention is held either preceding or following the primary election at a time and place designated by the State central committee (§43.107). There is no specific statute governing selection of national convention delegates. It is stated that “the State central committee . . . may organize at pleasure for political work as is usual and customary with such committees” (§43.111).

Delegates shall be allocated among the presidential candidates according to the results of the presidential primary and according to the guidelines of the political parties (§1280.27(B), Supp.). Louisiana will have a presidential preference primary on the second Tuesday in March (§ 1280.21, Supp.) (March 14, 2000).

B. PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY

A statewide presidential preference primary election shall be held on the second Tuesday in March in 2000 (March 4, 2000) for the purpose of allowing the electors of each political party in the State which has forty thousand or more registered members to express their preference for a person to be the nominee of the party for President of the United States. Each elector voting in such election may vote only for a candidate who is affiliated with the same party as the elector. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Code to the contrary, in any statewide presidential preference primary election, at any precinct where the presidential preference issue or election of political party officials or both are the only matters on the ballot, the number of election commissioners required in such precinct shall be one commissioner-in-charge and two commissioners (§1280.21, Supp.).

Candidates for presidential nominee shall qualify in accordance with procedures established by the party. A nominating petition shall be submitted to the registrars of voters in the parishes where the signers reside not less than thirty days before the end of the qualifying period. The registrar for each parish shall endorse upon the nominating petitions, whether original or supplemental, the date and time of submission and shall promptly certify the nominating petitions, in the order received, by determining and certifying on each nominating petition which of the signers are registered to vote in the parish. A registrar may stop certifying the signatures on a nominating petition when the total number of the signers he has certified as having signed the petition timely and as being registered to vote equals 15% more than the number of registered voters required from the congressional district. A registrar's certification shall be conclusive as to number of qualified voters who timely signed a nominating petition, and evidence to the contrary shall not be admitted in an action objecting to the candidacy of a presidential candidate filing the nominating petition. (§1280.22, Supp.).

At least ninety days prior to a presidential preference primary election, the State governing body of each eligible political party shall establish procedures to be followed in the selection of individual delegates and alternatives to the convention of that party, including procedures for the selection of committed and uncommitted delegates. A. MANNER OF SELECTION

The allotment of delegates to all precincts in the State shall be made to ensure, as near as is practicable, equal apportionment based upon the total vote cast for the candidate of each political party for either President of the United States or Secretary of State; however, each precinct is to have at least one delegate (Michigan Compiled Laws Annotated, §168.623a(3)(4)).

The allocation of all delegates and alternates to a national convention shall be made by the State central committee of each party and shall be certified to the Secretary of State. A minimum of two-thirds of the State's delegates shall be allocated to congressional districts and at least two delegates shall be allocated to each district. All delegates shall be registered electors of the State. Delegates elected from congressional districts shall be registered electors of those districts. All national convention delegates shall be chosen according to procedures and any other qualifications, as may be established by the State central committee of that political party. Such procedures and qualifications may include, but are not necessarily limited to, guarantees that discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, age, national origin or economic status does not occur (§168.618, Supp.).

National convention delegates elected pursuant to law shall be elected on a basis that ensures that the proportion of the total national convention delegation that is uncommitted or is committed to each presidential candidate equals, as near as is practicable the proportion of the popular vote that was cast as uncommitted or for each respective presidential candidate of the particular political party's total popular vote. The determination of these proportions shall only include the votes cast as uncommitted, or for a particular presidential candidate, if the total vote cast as uncommitted, or for that particular presidential candidate, equals at least the percentage determined by state political party rule of the total vote cast for all presidential candidates or as uncommitted for that political party.

All the national convention delegates shall be bound to vote for the presidential candidate for whom they designated commitment, if any, when they were elected as national delegates, until the end of the second ballot at the national convention, until released from that commitment by the withdrawal of that presidential candidate from contention for the party's nomination or by written release of that presidential candidate to the chairman of the national convention, whichever is earliest.

If a vacancy occurs in the elected delegation, it shall be filled by an alternate selected by the caucus for the candidate to whom the original delegate was committed, and the alternate shall be required to meet the same qualifications of the delegate being replaced.

A person who is a delegate to a State or county convention of his or her political party only by virtue of being a member of the state legislature in such capacity shall not participate in the selecting of delegates to his or her political party's national convention. Neither this provision nor any other provision of law shall be understood to restrict the opportunity of any registered elector in the State, including all public officials, to be elected as a delegate to any county, district, state, or national convention of the elector's political party (§ 168.619, Supp.).

B. PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY

(1) A statewide presidential primary election shall be conducted under this act on the third Tuesday in March in each presidential election year (March 21, 2000). After the issuance of the list under subsection (1) and after receipt of names from the state chairperson of each political party under subsection (2), the secretary of state shall notify each potential presidential candidate on the lists of the provisions of this act relating to the presidential primary election (§168.613a, Supp.).

Except as provided in this section, the secretary of state shall cause to be printed on the ballots for the presidential primary under the appropriate political party heading the name of a presidential candidate notified by the secretary of state under section 614a who has filed with the secretary of state an affidavit indicating his or her party preference and willingness to have his or her name printed on that party's ballot. However, the total number of signatures required on a nominating petition under this subsection shall not exceed 1,000 times the total number of Congressional districts in this state. A signature on a nominating petition is not valid if obtained before November 1 of the year before the presidential election year in which the individual seeks nomination. The nominating petitions shall conform to the requirements of this act regarding nominating petitions which requirements are not inconsistent with this subsection. Under a section 2-2(a) plan, delegates and alternate delegates to a national party convention shall be elected from congressional districts, or partly from the state at-large and partly from such districts, as the rules of the state committee may provide. All such candidates for election as delegate and alternate delegate to a national party convention of any party shall be enrolled members of such party and all such candidates for election as district delegates and alternate district delegates must reside in the congressional district in which they are candidates. Under a section 3 plan, the rules of the state committee of a party may provide that the delegates and alternate delegates to a national convention or national party conference be elected by a combination of all of the following methods: (a) by votes cast at a primary election for candidates for the office of President of the United States in which the names of candidates for such office appear on the ballot; (b) by votes cast at a primary election for candidates for the positions of delegate and alternate delegate to a national convention in districts no larger than congressional districts; and (c) by the state committee or a committee of the state committee at a meeting or convention called for such purpose as the rules of the party may provide (McKinney's Consolidated Laws of New York Annotated: Election Law § 2-122, note, and ch. 137 of the Laws of 1999). Each candidate for President shall file a petition signed by at least 5,000 of the registered voters of the party in the State; however, such candidate shall not appear on the ballot. A designating petition for a delegate or alternate which sets forth the name of the presidential candidate supported by the delegate candidate shall be invalid if the presidential candidate to whom the delegate candidate is pledged either fails to file a valid petition or files a timely declination to such petition (§§ 2-122-A, 6-137).

Petitions and certificates shall be filed in the office of the Board of Elections of the county, except as follows: for an office or position to be voted for wholly within the city of New York, in the office of the Board of Elections of that city; for an office or position to be voted for in a district greater than one county, or portions of two or more counties, in the office of the State Board of Elections (§ 6-144).

District delegates and alternates to national party conventions and delegates, and alternates, if any, to such a state convention shall be elected at a primary. All delegates and alternates to a national party convention shall be enrolled members of such party. NORTH DAKOTA

Delegates to National Conventions:

Democratic: 22

Republican: 19

A. MANNER OF SELECTION

State party conventions are to be held in each presidential election year at a place and time designated by the State party committees (North Dakota Century Code Ann., §16.1-03-14). The State party convention is required to elect the requisite number of delegates and alternates to the national party convention (§16.1-03-14).

The candidate or candidates for endorsement or election shall be declared endorsed or elected pursuant to the rules of the party involved, and the chairman and secretary of the convention shall issue certificates of endorsement or election. If any delegate to the national convention is unable to attend that convention, he shall designate, in writing, one of the alternates to attend and represent and act for him. The names of the candidates nominated for presidential electors shall be certified by the chairman and secretary of the convention to the Secretary of State to be placed upon the general election ballot as provided by law (§16.1-03-14).

B. PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY

There are statutory provisions for a statewide presidential preference primary to be conducted concurrently with the statewide primary on the second Tuesday in June of every general election year (June 9, 1992) (§ 16.1-11-01). Presidential candidates, representing parties qualified to conduct a presidential preference primary, desiring to be on the presidential preference primary ballot shall file an affidavit, and either a certificate of endorsement signed by the chairman of the party's State committee, or a petition in the same form and with the same number of signatures as a candidate for State office. The certificate and affidavit, or petition and affidavit, must be filed with the Secretary of the State within the same time limits as State office candidates, and for the purposes of the presidential preference primary only, political parties may file certificates for more than one presidential candidate. The Secretary of State shall certify the names to the county auditors for ballot preparation (§ 16.1-11-07).

C. STATUTORY INSTRUCTIONS

The presidential preference primary shall be in addition to all other elections held on the date of the primary. Unless specifically forbidden by national party rules, the delegates selected by political parties shall be bound to cast their first ballots at the party national convention in such a manner that each candidate at the party's presidential preference primary receives a proportion of the total votes cast by the delegates equal to the proportion received by that candidate of the total votes cast for all candidates for President of that party at the primary. In computing the number of delegates a candidate may be entitled to on the first ballot, if party rules do not allow apportionment of a delegate and such an apportionment appears necessary because no candidate received more than five-tenths of a delegate, then that delegate must be assigned to the candidate receiving the highest number of votes in the primary election. If a candidate withdraws before the first ballot voting begins, delegates obligated to vote for that candidate on the first ballot would be released from that obligation (§ 16.1-11-04).

B. PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY

A presidential preferential primary for recognized political parties shall be held on the second Tuesday in March 2000 (March 14, 2000), and on the same weekday in each of the years thereafter in which the President and Vice President of the United States are to be elected (§ 20-101). A statement of candidacy must be accompanied by a petition supporting a candidate's filing signed by one percent (1%) of the registered voters in each congressional district eligible to vote for a candidate or one thousand (1,000) registered voters in each congressional district eligible to vote for a candidate, whichever is less, as reflected by the latest January 15 registration report; or by a cashier's check or certified check in the amount of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500.00). Said check shall be forfeited unless a candidate receives more than fifteen percent (15 percent) of the votes cast. The State Election Board shall cause the names of all candidates who have filed within the proper time to be printed on the official ballots. The ballots shall be prepared as provided for by law. Each candidate shall be awarded delegates by congressional districts proportionately, by the ratio of votes they received to the total vote cast in said congressional district; provided however, no delegates shall be awarded to any candidate receiving less than fifteen percent (15 percent) of the vote, and such votes shall be allocated among the other candidates in proportion to their total vote. If no candidate receives fifteen percent (15 percent) or more of the vote, then the candidate receiving the highest number of votes in that district shall be awarded all the delegates from that district. The candidate receiving the largest number of votes statewide shall be awarded all delegate votes authorized by the national committee of the political party which are selected as the at-large delegates at the State convention of said party. If the political parties involved in the primary elections will not accept the minimum threshold, or have a different method of allocating the votes of all candidates falling below such threshold, either as to the congressional districts or statewide vote, then these matters may be governed by the respective political parties involved. The State Election Board shall certify results according to the manner prescribed in the notice. In the event that such consent is not granted in writing by the presidential candidate, then the name of the delegate-candidate shall appear on the ballot as an uncommitted delegate-candidate. Each presidential candidate must consent for each district to at least one more and no more than twice the number of delegate-candidates being pledged to him than the number of delegates allocated to the district (§ 2-13-309).

Delegates elected from a congressional district shall be allocated among the presidential candidates and the uncommitted designation as proportionally as is mathematically possible to the number of votes received in the presidential preference selection within such congressional district. If the number of votes received by a presidential candidate in any congressional district is less than fifteen percent of the votes cast in such district, no delegates shall be allocated to such candidate and such votes of less than fifteen percent shall be considered as votes for the uncommitted designation (§ 2-13-313). Delegates-at-large and alternates shall be allocated among the presidential candidates or as uncommitted designation as proportionally as is mathematically possible to the proportion of the vote received by that candidate. If the total number of votes received by a presidential candidate in the State at large is less than fifteen percent of the votes cast, no delegate-at-large or alternates shall be allocated to such candidate and such votes of less than fifteen percent shall be considered as votes for the uncommitted designation (§ 2-13-314).

C. STATUTORY INSTRUCTIONS

The results of the preferential presidential primary shall be binding on the delegates to the national conventions as hereinafter provided. The delegates to the national conventions shall be bound by the results of the preferential presidential primary for the first two ballots and shall vote for the candidate whom they are pledged. The delegates shall thereafter be bound to support such candidate so long as he, not to exceed two ballots, has twenty percent of the total convention vote or until such time the candidate of their party releases them from the results of the presidential preference primary (§ 2-13-317).

TEXAS

A. MANNER OF SELECTION

The State of Texas will have a presidential preference primary on March 14, 2000. The results of the presidential preference primary will determine the allocation of most of the national convention delegates who are selected in a caucus process after the primary.

If a political party holding a primary election in a presidential election year desires to send delegates to a national presidential nominating convention of the party, the party shall select the delegates at a State convention convened on any day in June of the presidential election year. Before the date of the party's precinct conventions held under Chapter 174, the party's State executive committee shall choose the date, hour, and place for the State convention. The State convention shall consist of delegates selected at the party's county and senatorial district conventions held under Chapter 174. Before the date of the party's precinct conventions, the party's State chairman shall deliver written notice of the date, hour, and place for the State convention to:

- (1) the Secretary of State;
- (2) each county chair of the party; and
- (3) the temporary chair of each senatorial district convention of the party (§ 191.031, Supp.).

If a political party not holding a primary election in a presidential election year desires to send delegates to a national presidential nominating convention of the party, the party shall select the delegates at the State convention at which the party is authorized to make nominations for State offices (Vernon's Texas Codes Ann. (Election Code) § 191.032, Supp.).

B. PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY

The presidential preference primary shall be held on the second Tuesday in March in each presidential election year (March 14, 2000) (§ 41.007(c), Supp.). The presidential primary is an open primary. To be entitled to have its nominees for President and Vice President of the United States placed on the general election ballot in a particular presidential election year, a political party must hold a presidential primary election in this State if:

- (1) in the presidential election year, the party is required by this code to nominate its candidates for State and county offices by primary election;
- (2) a presidential primary election is authorized under national party rules; and
- (3) before January 1, of the presidential election year, the national party has determined that it will hold a national presidential nominating convention that year (§ 191.001, Supp.).

Candidates qualify to have their names on the presidential primary election ballot in the manner provided by party rule. If party rules provide for the filing of applications or signature petitions to qualify candidates for a place on the ballot, the filing deadline may not be later than the regular filing deadline for candidates in the general primary election. A signature on a candidate's petition is not valid unless it is that of a registered voter and is accompanied by the signer's residence address, including county, and voter registration number. A person may not sign petitions supporting more than one presidential candidate in the same primary, and, if a person does so, the person's signature is void as to all petitions he signs (§ 191.002, Supp.). The State chair of each political party holding a presidential primary election shall certify the name of each presidential candidate who qualifies for a place on the presidential primary election ballot and deliver the certification to the Secretary of State not later than the 57th day before presidential primary election day (§ 191.003, Supp.).

C. STATUTORY INSTRUCTIONS

Each political party holding a presidential primary election shall adopt a rule for allocating delegates based on the results of the presidential primary election. At least 75 percent of the total number of delegates who are to represent this State at the party's national presidential nominating convention, excluding delegates allocated among party and elected officials, shall be allocated in accordance with the rule among one or more of the candidates whose names appear on the presidential election ballot and, if applicable, the uncommitted status (§ 191.007, Supp.).

A major political party may, under national or state party rules, base the allocation of delegates from this state to the national nominating convention of that party in whole or in part on the participation in precinct caucuses and conventions conducted under the rules of that party. WEST VIRGINIA

Delegates to National Conventions:

Democratic: 42

Republican: 18

A. MANNER OF SELECTION

West Virginia will hold a presidential preference primary on May 9, 2000. The presidential primary is advisory only. Most of the delegates to the national nominating conventions are elected at the presidential primary in a separate election.

At the primary election, there shall be elected by the voters of each political party of the State, in accordance with a plan adopted by the State party, persons to be delegates to the national convention of the party to be held next after the date of such primary (West Virginia Code, § 3-5-2). The plan adopted by each political party of the State shall state the method, subject to compliance with their national party rules and not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, for the election of persons in each congressional district of the State as delegates to the national convention of the party, for the election or selection of persons in each congressional district of the State as alternate delegates to the national convention of the party and for the selection of all remaining delegates and alternate delegates allocated to the party in their national convention. Not less than 120 days before the primary election to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred ninety-two, and in every fourth year thereafter, the governing body of each political party of the State shall certify the plan adopted by the party under signature of the State party chairman and file with the Secretary of State. Any questions regarding whether such plan was rightfully adopted by the party shall be resolved by the party based upon party rules (§ 3-5-2).

(1) The voters of each political party shall elect in each congressional district the number of persons as delegates to the national convention of the party to which the district is entitled.

(2) If the rules of the national political party do not require the apportionment of delegates on the basis of their commitment for President, the persons receiving the highest number of votes as delegates in any congressional district to the number to which the district is entitled, shall be elected delegates. After the election of delegates in each congressional district to the number to which the district is entitled, the persons receiving the next highest votes in each congressional district and having qualified, as may be provided in the plan adopted by the party, shall be elected as alternate delegates to the number of alternate delegates to which the district is entitled.

(3) If the rules of the national political party require that the percentage of votes cast for the various presidential candidates determine the apportionment of committed candidates to be elected as delegates or alternates, regardless of whether such committed candidates received the highest number of votes, then the plan adopted by the political party of the state shall prescribe the number of delegates and alternates to be elected under such apportionment, the method by which the apportionment shall be made, and the method by which the secretary of state shall determine which delegates and alternates are elected. A committed candidate for delegate to national convention is one whose preference for a particular presidential candidate appears on the ballot.

(4) In the event the number of persons elected in the primary election in a congressional district is less than the number to which the district is entitled as delegates and alternate delegates to the national convention of the political party, the governing body of the political party of the state shall appoint persons from the congressional district to serve as delegates or alternate delegates to the national convention of the party unless the rules of the party otherwise provide.

(5) The number of persons which each of the congressional districts in the state are entitled to elect as delegates to the national convention of the political party shall be apportioned among the congressional districts in the same proportion to the total number of delegates to the party's national convention elected in all congressional districts in the state as the population of the congressional district bears to the total population of the state based upon the census of population taken by the bureau of the census of the United States department of commerce in the year one thousand nine hundred ninety, and in every tenth year thereafter (§ 3-5-2).

The official primary ballot at the primary election to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred ninety-two, and in every fourth year thereafter shall, following the names of all candidates for delegates to the national convention of the party, contain the words "For election in accordance with the plan adopted by the party and filed with the secretary of state." Unless and until a political party of the state has adopted and certified a plan for the election of delegates to the national convention of the party and filed the plan with the secretary of state, there shall be elected by the voters of the political party of the state at the primary election to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred ninety-two, and in each fourth year thereafter, the number of persons to which the party is entitled as delegates-at-large, and by the voters of each political party in each congressional district in the state the number of delegates to which the district is entitled. The persons receiving the highest number of votes in the state as delegates-at-large, to the number to which the state is entitled, shall be elected delegates. The persons receiving the highest number of votes as delegates in any congressional district, to the number to which the district is entitled, shall be elected delegates. Each delegate so elected shall then appoint an individual to serve as alternate delegate, and shall by registered letter notify the secretary of state of such appointment within forty days after the primary election (§ 3-5-2).

B. PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY

An advisory presidential preference primary is scheduled for May 9, 2000. In presidential election years, in addition to the candidates required to be nominated at the primary election, the qualified voters of each political party shall have the opportunity of voting for their choice among those aspiring to be the candidates of their respective parties for President of the United States. The names of such aspirants shall be printed on the official election ballot of their respective parties upon the filing with the Secretary of State of the certificate of announcement and the filing fee, and the ballot shall be marked and the vote shall be counted, canvassed and returned under the same conditions as to names, certificates and other matters, as the names and certificates of the party aspirants for the party nomination for the office of Governor (§ 3-5-3). A presidential candidate may have his name placed on the ballot by filing a fee equal to one percent of the President's annual salary ($4,000) with the Secretary of State between the second Monday in January and the first Saturday of February next preceding the primary election day (§§ 3-5-7, 3-5-8).

For candidates for delegate to a national convention, the certificate of announcement must include the name of the presidential candidate to be listed on the ballot as the preference of the candidate on the first convention ballot or, a statement that the candidate prefers to remain "uncommitted" (§ 3-5-7).

A primary for the expression of presidential preferences will be held on the first Tuesday in April (April 4, 2000) (Wisconsin Statutes Annotated, § 8.12 and § 5.02(21), Supp.).

B. PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY

Wisconsin has scheduled a presidential preference primary to be held on the first Tuesday in April (April 4, 2000). The presidential primary is an open primary. National convention delegates are selected by the major political parties after the primary in a caucus process.

There is a separate ballot for each recognized political party listing the names of all potential candidates of that party and affording, in addition, an opportunity to the voter to nominate another potential candidate by write-in vote or to vote for an uninstructed delegation to the party convention. The order of such presidential candidates shall be determined by lot by or under the supervision of the board. Each voter shall be given the ballots of all the parties participating in the presidential preference vote, but may vote on one ballot only (§ 5.60(8), Supp.). This is an open type of primary.

No later than 5 p.m. on the first Tuesday in January, or the next day if Tuesday is a holiday, in each year in which electors for President and Vice President are to be elected, the State chairperson of each recognized political party listed on the official ballot at the last gubernatorial election whose candidate for Governor received at least 10 percent of the total votes cast for that office may certify to the board that the party will participate in the presidential preference primary. For each party filing such a certification, the voters of this State shall at the spring election be given an opportunity to express their preference for the person to be the presidential candidate of that party (§ 8.12(1)(a)).

A candidate may also have his name placed on the ballot by filing a petition signed by not less than 1,000 nor more than 1,500 qualified electors from each congressional district with the board by the Friday following the last Tuesday in January (§ 8.12(1)(c)). No petition may be filed without the presidential candidate's written consent (§ 8.12(1)(c)).

A special committee shall place the names of all candidates whose candidacy is generally advocated or recognized in the national news media throughout the United States on the ballot, and may, in addition, place the names of other candidates on the ballot. The committee shall have sole discretion to determine that a candidacy is generally advocated or recognized in the national news media throughout the United States (§ 8.12(b)).

Candidates nominated by the committee are notified by the board and must file a disclaimer, stating without qualification that they are not now and do not intend to become candidates for the presidential nomination, by the second Thursday following the third Tuesday in February (§ 8.12(1)(d)).

B. Background of the Electoral College¹

The method of electing the President was the subject of considerable debate among the framers of the Constitution, who were divided over whether the President should be elected directly by the people or by the Congress. The adoption of the Electoral College plan was the product of compromise, whereby the President under Article II of the Constitution is elected neither directly by the people nor by the Congress, but is instead chosen by presidential electors appointed for the purpose. Article II, section 1, clause 2 provides that “each State shall appoint, in such Manner as the Legislature thereof may direct, a Number of Electors, equal to the whole Number of Senators and Representatives to which the State may be entitled in the Congress.”

The United States Supreme Court noted in McPherson v. Blacker,² that the Constitution does not provide for the appointment of electors by popular vote, nor that the electors voted for upon a general ticket, nor that the majority who vote can alone choose the electors. The Constitution recognizes that the people act through their representatives in the legislature and thus leaves it to the legislature to determine the method of appointing electors. The appointment and the mode of appointment of electors to the Electoral College belong exclusively to the States under the Constitution.³

Even though the States have discretion in choosing electors, the Supreme Court has recognized a Federal interest in protecting the integrity of the Electoral College process. The Court has upheld the power of Congress to protect voters in exercising their right freely so that the votes by which the President is elected shall be the free votes of the electors.⁴ Moreover, Congress' power to protect the choice of electors from fraud or corruption was sustained in Burroughs and Cannon v. United States.⁵ In Williams v. Rhodes,⁶ the Court struck down Ohio's election laws, which effectively limited access to the ballot to electors of the two major political parties. The Court found that State laws, enacted pursuant to Article II, §1 of the Constitution to regulate the selection of electors, must meet the requirements of the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment and that Ohio's laws relating to the election of presidential electors taken as a whole were invidiously discriminatory and violated the equal protection clause in that they gave the two major political parties a decided advantage over new political parties.⁷

Pursuant to the authority granted by Article II, §1, cl. 3 of the Constitution, Congress sets the date for the election of presidential electors. By statute Congress has set this date as the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, in every fourth year succeeding every election of a President and Vice President.⁸ The candidates nominated at the respective conventions for the offices of President and Vice President are usually, under state law, entitled to have their names placed on the general election ballot. This is a mere formality as the President and the Vice President are actually elected by electors under the Constitution. These electors are State officers who are nominated and elected according to State law and paid some form of compensation, usually only necessary traveling expenses, by the individual States.

The practice of the States differs as to the printing of names of presidential electors on the general election ballot. Some States print only the names of the electors on the ballot; other States print the names of both the electors and the presidential and vice presidential candidates on the ballot; and other States only print the names of the presidential and vice presidential candidates on the ballot. In most States where the names of the presidential and vice presidential candidates are printed on the ballot, the names are taken from the certificates of nomination required to be filed in nominating electors. A voter in casting his or her ballot for President and Vice President is actually voting for electors and not for the presidential and vice presidential candidates. Thus, the electors are "appointed" by the States under Article II, §1, cl. 2 of the Constitution, and by the Congress for the District of Columbia in accordance with the Twenty-third Amendment. Whichever slate of electors wins the highest plurality of votes in most States and the District of Columbia is elected and will later meet on the first Monday after the second Wednesday in December as an Electoral College and vote for President and Vice President.⁹

Except for two states, Maine and Nebraska, presidential and vice presidential candidates are allotted electors in the States and the District of Columbia by a winner-take-all method of election rather than a congressional district method or a proportional method of election of electors. The State of Maine, however, provides that the presidential electors of each congressional district shall cast their ballots for the candidates for President and Vice President who received the largest number of votes in each congressional district, and two at-large electors shall cast their ballots for Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates who received the largest number of votes in the State. Maine's four electoral votes consequently may be cast for different candidates.¹⁰ In 1991, the State of Nebraska enacted a new law providing that five electors be allotted by congressional district to each candidate receiving the greatest number of votes in a congressional district and two electors to the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes statewide.

ALASKA

Presidential Electors: 3

A. NOMINATION

(1) Major parties

The nomination of electors is by State party convention or in any other manner prescribed by the bylaws of the party. The chairman and secretary of the State convention or any other party official designated by the party bylaws shall certify a list of names of candidates for electors to the Lieutenant Governor, on or before September 1 in presidential election years (Alaska Statutes, §15.30.020).

(2) Party pledge

The party shall require from each candidate for election a pledge that as an elector he will vote for the candidates nominated by the party of which he is a candidate (§15.30.040).

On or before June 1 of each year in which the President and Vice President of the United States are to be elected, the Secretary of State shall send written notice to the State chairman of each qualified political party in New Mexico setting forth the method and requirements for nominating and electing presidential electors at the general election (New Mexico Statutes Annotated, § 1-15-1). Presidential electors shall not be nominated at the primary election (§ 1-15-2). Any qualified political party in New Mexico desiring to have candidates for President and Vice President on the general election ballot in a presidential election year shall, at a State party convention held in the year of the election, choose from the voters of the party the number of presidential electors required by law and no more. The presidential electors shall be nominated by the State convention according to the rules of that party on file with the Secretary of State. Upon the nomination of presidential electors, the chairman and secretary of the convention shall certify the names and addresses of the nominees not less than fifty-six days before the election to the Secretary of State (§ 1-15-3).

(2) Minor parties and new parties

To qualify as a political party in New Mexico, each political party through its governing body shall adopt rules and regulations providing for the organization and government of that party and shall file the rules and regulations with the Secretary of State. Such rules and regulations shall be adopted uniformly throughout the State by the county organizations of that party, where a county organization exists, and shall be filed with the county clerks. Each county political party organization may adopt such supplementary rules and regulations insofar as they do not conflict with the uniform State rules and regulations or do not abridge the lawful political rights of any person. Such supplementary rules shall be filed with the county clerk and the Secretary of State in the same manner as other rules are filed (§ 1-7-2). All political parties that appeared on the 1988 New Mexico general election ballot shall continue to be qualified political parties unless disqualified in accordance with this subsection. Beginning with the general election in 1990, a qualified political party shall cease to be qualified for the purposes of the Election Code if two successive general elections are held without at least one of the party's candidates on the ballot or if the total votes cast for the party's candidates for Governor or President of the United States, provided that the party has a candidate seeking election to either of these offices, in a general election do not equal at least one-half of one percent of the total votes cast for the office of Governor or President of the United States, as applicable. After giving notice by registered mail to the state chairman of the party at his last known address, the secretary of state shall remove all material dealing with the political party from his file of parties qualified in New Mexico (§ 1-7-2). To requalify, the party must again comply with the provisions of the election code dealing with filing requirements for political parties (§ 1-7-2).

- (b) a method for calling and conducting conventions;
- (c) a method for selection of delegates to conventions;
- (d) a method for selection of State central committee members, a State chairman and other party officers, and all other members of governing bodies of the party;

- (f) the powers and duties of party officers, committees and other governing bodies;
- (g) for the structure of the State and county party organizations;
- (h) that meetings to elect any party officers, including delegates, shall be held at a public place during the week specified by the State party chairman;
- (i) that notice of such meetings shall be published by the officers of the county party organization in a newspaper of general circulation at least 14 days prior to the meeting and the notice shall specify the time, date and place for holding the meeting; and
- (j) a method for amending the party rules and regulations (§ 1-7-3).

Each political party shall file its rules and regulations within thirty days after its organization and no later than the first Tuesday in April before any election in which it is authorized to participate (§ 1-7-4).

Upon the nomination of presidential electors, the chairman and secretary of the convention shall certify the names and addresses of the nominees not less than fifty-six days before the election to the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State shall record the nominees' names in his office as the presidential elector nominees of that party (§ 1-15-3).

Nomination as an independent candidate shall be made by filing a declaration of independent candidacy and a nominating petition signed by a number of voters equal to at least 3 percent of the total number of votes cast in the State for governor at the last preceding general election at which a governor was elected. The Secretary of State shall prescribe and furnish the form for the declaration of independent candidacy for the offices of President and Vice President (§§ 1-8-48 and 1-8-51(B)).

The names of the presidential elector nominees chosen at a State convention shall not be placed upon the general election ballot. The Secretary of State shall certify to the various county clerks for inclusion upon the general election ballot the names of the persons nominated by each political party for the offices of President and Vice President. The names of nominees for President and Vice President for each political party shall be printed together in pairs upon the general election ballot. A vote for any such pair of nominees shall be a vote for the electors of the political party by which such nominees were named. The presidential elector nominees of the party whose nominees for President and Vice President of the United States receive the highest number of votes at the general election shall be deemed the elected presidential electors. (§ 1-15-4).

At such meeting the presidential electors shall organize by choosing a presiding officer and a secretary. If the full number of electors required by law are not present at such meeting for any reason, those presidential electors present shall, from a list of names nominated by the State chairman of that party, forthwith choose electors from the voters of the State party.

The presidential electors of the State shall meet at noon in the office of the Secretary of State on the day fixed by the laws of the United States for presidential electors to cast their ballots for President and Vice President and shall proceed to vote by ballot for President and Vice President of the United States and to certify the results of such election in accordance with Constitution and laws of the United States. The presidential elector chosen as secretary shall keep a journal of the proceedings and deposit the journal in the office of the Secretary of State, where it shall be kept on file. All presidential electors shall cast their ballots in the electoral college for the candidates of the political party which nominated them as presidential electors.

However, if designated or nominated for a public office other than a judicial office by a party of which he is not a duly enrolled member or if designated or nominated for a public office other than a judicial office by more than one party or independent body or by an independent body alone, the person shall, in a certificate signed and acknowledged by him, accept the designation or nomination as a candidate of each party or independent body other than that of the party of which he is an enrolled member; otherwise, the designation or nomination shall be null and void (§ 6-146).

(2) Minor and new parties

A minor party, or one which had failed to poll for its candidate for Governor or for presidential electors at least 10 percent of the entire vote cast for such officers at the last preceding general election, would have to reorganize in the same manner as is required to create a new party (§ 163–96). Any group may form a new party by filing a petition setting forth its intention to organize a new statewide party with the State Board of Elections on or before noon on June 1 preceding the general election, signed by registered and qualified voters equal in number to 2 percent of the total number of voters who voted in the most recent general election for Governor including at least 200 voters from each of four congressional districts (§ 163–96). Nominees of this group for State, congressional and national offices only for the first general election after its organization must be furnished to the Board by July 1 prior to the general election. Such nominations shall be made at a nominating convention (§ 163–98). Presidential electors are not to be nominated by primary election but are to be nominated by a State convention unless otherwise provided by the plan of organization of the political party (§ 163–1(c)).

(3) Independent candidates

Any qualified voter who seeks to have his name printed on the general election ballot as an unaffiliated candidate shall: If the office is a statewide office, file written petitions with the State Board of Elections supporting his candidacy for a specified office. These petitions must be filed with the State Board of Elections on or before 12 noon on the last Friday in June preceding the general election and must be signed by qualified voters of the State equal in number to 2 percent of the total number of registered voters in the State as reflected by the most recent statistical report issued by the State Board of Elections. Each petition shall be presented to the chairman of the board of elections of the county in which the signatures were obtained. The chairman shall examine the names on the petition and place a check mark on the petition by the name of each signer who is qualified and registered to vote in his county and shall attach to the petition his signed certificate. Said certificates shall state that the signatures on the petition have been checked against the registration records and shall indicate the number of signers to be qualified and registered to vote in his county. The chairman shall return each petition, together with the certificate required in this section, to the person who presented it to him for checking. Verification by the chairman of the county board of elections shall be completed within 2 weeks from the date such petitions are presented (§ 163–122).

B. NAMES ON GENERAL ELECTION BALLOTS

The names of candidates for electors of President and Vice President of any political party shall not be placed on the ballot but shall be filed with the Secretary of State. C. STATUTORY INSTRUCTIONS

The electors shall meet at the capitol in Raleigh at noon on the first Monday after the second Wednesday in December next after their election and give their votes on behalf of the State for President and Vice President (§ 163–210).

On or before the date fixed for the meeting of the electors, the Governor shall send by registered mail to the Archivist of the United States either three duplicate original certificates, or one original and two copies, under the great seal of the State setting forth the names of the persons chosen as presidential electors for this State and the number of votes cast for each. At the same time he shall deliver to the electors six duplicate-originals of the same certificate, each bearing the great seal of the State. At any time prior to receipt of the certificate of the Governor or within 48 hours thereafter, any person elected to the office of elector may resign by submitting his resignation, written and duly verified, to the Governor. Failure to so resign shall signify consent to serve and to cast his vote for the candidate of the political party which nominated such elector.

In case of the absence, ineligibility or resignation of any elector chosen, or if the proper number of electors shall for any cause be deficient, the first and second alternates nominated under G.S. 163-1(c) shall fill the first two vacancies. If they are absent, or there are more than two vacancies, those present at the required meeting shall forthwith elect from the citizens of the State a sufficient number of persons to fill the deficiency, and the persons chosen shall be deemed qualified electors to vote for President and Vice President of the United States (§ 163-210).

Any presidential elector having previously signified his consent to serve as such, who fails to attend and vote for the candidate of the political party which nominated such elector for President and Vice President of the United States at the time and place indicated above (except in case of sickness or other unavoidable accident) shall forfeit and pay to the State $500, to be recovered by the Attorney General in the Superior Court of Wake County. In addition to such forfeiture, refusal or failure to vote for the candidates of the political party which nominated such elector shall constitute a resignation from the office of elector, his vote shall not be recorded, and the remaining electors shall forthwith fill such vacancy as hereinbefore provided (§ 163-212).

Names of a party’s candidates for presidential electors shall be certified by the chairman and secretary of the convention to the Secretary of State within 5 days after the holding of the convention.

A political party is defined as any group of voters which, at the last preceding regular State election, polled for its candidate for Governor in the State or nominees for presidential electors at least 5 percent of the entire vote cast for such office or which filed with the Secretary of State, subsequent to any election in which it received less than 5 percent of such vote, a petition signed by qualified electors equal in number to at least 1 percent of the total vote for Governor or nominees for presidential electors at the last preceding election, declaring their intention of organizing a political party, the name of which shall be stated in the declaration, and of participating in the next succeeding primary election, held in even-numbered years, that occurs more than one hundred twenty days after the date of filing. No such group of electors shall assume a name or designation which is similar, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, to that of an existing political party as to confuse or mislead the voters at an election. If any political party fails to cast 5 percent of the total vote cast at an election for the office of Governor or President it shall cease to be a political party (§ 3517.01). When a petition is filed with the Secretary of State, the new party comes into legal existence on the date of filing. C. STATUTORY INSTRUCTIONS

The electors shall meet at the State capitol, organize, and discharge all the duties enjoined upon electors by the Constitution and laws of the United States (§ 3505.39).

The petition shall not be accepted for filing if it contains less than 100 percent of the required number of signatures. The Secretary of State by rule shall designate a statistical sampling technique to verify whether a petition contains the required number of signatures of electors. A petition shall not be rejected for the reason that it contains less than the required number of signatures unless two separate sampling processes both establish that the petition lacks the required number of signatures. The second sampling must contain a larger number of signatures than the first sampling. The Secretary of State may employ professional assistance to determine the sampling technique. Before circulating the petition, the chief sponsor of the petition shall file with the Secretary of State a signed copy of the prospective petition. The chief sponsor shall include with the prospective petition a statement declaring whether one or more persons will be paid money or other valuable consideration for obtaining signatures of electors on the petition. After the prospective petition is filed, the chief sponsor shall notify the filing officer not later than the 10th day after the chief sponsor first has knowledge or should have had knowledge that:

(a) Any person is being paid for obtaining signatures, when the statement included with the prospective petition declared that no such person would be paid.

In order to nominate candidates for any other office, a nominating convention shall obtain and submit to the filing officer the signatures of 25 persons who are registered to vote in the jurisdiction of the office for which the nominations are made (§ 29.24.030).

A certificate of nomination must be filed with the Secretary of State not later than, the last day for filing declarations of candidacy. The certificate must be in writing; contain the name, address, and office sought by each nominee; a sworn statement of consent to the nomination; be verified under oath by the presiding officer and secretary; be signed by a number of members of the convention at least equal to the number required to validate a convention and give their addresses; and contain proof of the notice of the convention call (§ 29.24.040).

B. NAMES ON GENERAL ELECTION BALLOTS

Names of the candidates for President and Vice President of the political parties and not the names of the electors are printed on the ballot. The votes cast for candidates for President and Vice President of each political party shall be counted for the candidates for presidential electors of such political party (§ 29.71.020).

C. STATUTORY INSTRUCTIONS

Electors are to meet at noon on the day fixed by Federal statute at the seat of government and fill any vacancy by plurality of voice votes and perform the duties required of them by the Constitution and laws of the United States (§ 29.71.040). Each political party is to require a pledge from those nominated for presidential elector that they will vote for the nominees of the party. Failure to vote for the nominees of the party subjects an elector to a $1,000 fine (§§ 29.71.020, 29.71.040).

WEST VIRGINIA

Presidential Electors: 5

A. NOMINATION

(1) Major parties

Candidates for presidential electors are nominated at State conventions of the respective political parties which are to be held during the months of June, July or August next preceding the general election at which presidential electors are to be elected (West Virginia Code, § 3-5-21). Nominations so made shall be certified to the Secretary of State by the chairman and secretary of the convention within 15 days after the close of the convention (§ 3-5-21).

The date and place of such conventions shall be designated by the State executive committee of the respective parties. Such committees shall also prescribe the number of delegates thereto, and shall apportion the delegates among the several counties of the State in proportion to the vote cast in the State for the party's candidate for Governor at the last preceding general election at which a Governor was elected (§ 3-5-21).

At least 60 days prior to the date fixed for a party's State convention, the chairman of the party's State executive committee shall send to the party's county executive committee in each county a copy of the resolutions fixing the time and place of holding the State convention and prescribing the number of delegates from each county to the convention (§ 3-5-21).

Within 10 days after receipt of the copy of such resolutions, the party executive committee of each county shall meet and, by resolution, shall apportion the delegates to the State convention among the several magisterial districts of the county, on a basis of the vote received in the county by the candidate for Governor at the last preceding general election at which a Governor was elected, but in such apportionment of county delegates, each magisterial district shall be entitled to at least one delegate to such State convention. The party's county executive committee shall call a meeting of the members of the political party in mass convention in the several magisterial districts of the county, which district meetings shall be held at least 30 days prior to the date fixed for the State convention, and at which meeting the members of the political party in each magisterial district shall elect the number of delegates to which such district is entitled in the State convention (§ 3-5-21). The delegates chosen and certified by and from the several magisterial districts in the State shall make up the State convention (§ 3-5-21).

(2) Minor parties

Any political party which polled less than ten percent of the total vote cast only for Governor at the general election immediately preceding may nominate candidates and select committees by party conventions, provided such nominations are made and the certificates thereof filed within the required time and in the required manner or by certificate in the same manner as groups of citizens may make nominations (§ 3-5-22). No delegate or person participating in the selection of delegates shall vote in any primary election held in that year.

(3) Independent candidates

Groups of citizens having no party organization may nominate candidates for public office otherwise than by conventions or primary elections. In such case, the candidate, jointly or severally, shall file a declaration with the Secretary of State if the office is to be filled by the voters of more than one county, or with the clerk of the circuit court of the county if the office is to be filled by the voters of one county or political subdivision thereof; such declaration to be filed at least thirty days prior to the required time of filing the nomination certificate: provided, that the deadline for filing the certificate for persons seeking ballot access as a candidate for the office of President or Vice President shall be filed not later than the first day of August preceding the general election. At the time of filing of such declaration each candidate shall pay the filing fee required by law, and if such declaration is not so filed or the filing fee so paid, the certificate shall not be received by the Secretary of State, or clerk of the circuit court, as the case may be (§ 3-5-23). A certificate of nomination, bearing signatures equal to not less than one percent of the entire vote cast at the last preceding general election in the State for the office sought, but in no event shall the number be less than 25, must be filed with the Secretary of State not later than one day before the primary (§§ 3-5-23, 3-5-24).

B. NAMES ON GENERAL ELECTION BALLOTS

The names of candidates for offices of presidential electors are omitted from the ballot. Names of candidates for offices of President and Vice President are printed on the ballots (§ 3-6-2, (d)(1)).

A vote for any of such candidates shall be a vote for the electors of the party by which such candidates were named, and whose names have been filed with the Secretary of State (§ 3-6-2).

C. STATUTORY INSTRUCTIONS

The electors shall meet in the office of the Governor at the capitol on the day appointed by the Congress of the United States and vote for the President and Vice President in the manner prescribed by the Constitution and laws of the United States (§ 3-1-14).

WISCONSIN

A. NOMINATION(1) *Major parties, minor parties

Candidates for presidential electors are nominated at State conventions of the respective political parties held on the first Tuesday in October. One presidential elector shall be nominated by a party from each congressional district and two electors shall be nominated from the State at large. The names of the nominees shall be certified immediately by the chairman of the State committee of each party to the chairman of the elections board (Wisconsin Statutes Annotated, § 8.18).

(2) Independent and write-in candidates

Nominations for presidential electors may be made by filing nomination papers with the election board not later than 5 p.m. on the second Tuesday in July (§ 8.20). Such papers shall list one presidential elector from each congressional district and 2 electors from the State at large, and the candidates for President and Vice President for whom they intend to vote if elected. They shall contain signatures of not less than 2,000 nor more than 4,000 qualified voters, plus the party or principle the candidates represent, if any, in 5 words or less. Papers shall not be circulated earlier than August 1 and filed not later than 5 p.m. on the first Tuesday in September (§ 8.20(3)-(8)).

Candidates for the offices of President or Vice President of the United States as write-in candidates shall file a list of presidential electors and a declaration of candidacy with the election board no later than 4:30 p.m. on the second Tuesday preceding the day of the general election to choose the President and Vice President of the United States. The list shall contain one presidential elector from each congressional district and two electors from the State at large and the names of the candidates for President and Vice President for whom they intend to vote, if elected. Compliance with this subsection may be waived by the election board but only if the results of the general election indicate that the write-in candidate for the office of President is eligible to receive the electoral votes of this State except for noncompliance with this subsection. In such event, the write-in candidate and that person's named presidential electors shall have until 4:30 p.m. on the Friday following the general election to comply with the filing requirements of this subsection (§ 8.185). If more than one list of presidential electors is filed with the Secretary of State by any write-in candidates for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States, the first list filed shall be considered the valid list, provided that this list meets the additional requirements of this section (§ 8.185).

B. NAMES ON GENERAL ELECTION BALLOTS

Names of the candidates for the office of President and Vice President and not the names of the electors are placed on the ballot. The vote counts as a vote for the electors (§§ 5.10, 8.25).

C. STATUTORY INSTRUCTIONS

The electors for President and Vice President shall meet at the state capitol following the presidential election at 12:00 noon the first Monday after the 2nd Wednesday in December. If there is a vacancy in the office of an elector due to death, refusal to act, failure to attend or other cause, the electors present shall immediately proceed to fill by ballot, by a plurality of votes, the electoral college vacancy. When all electors are present, or the vacancies filled, they shall perform their required duties under the constitution and laws of the United States. The presidential electors, when convened, shall vote by ballot for that person for President and that person for Vice President who are, respectively, the candidates of the political party which nominated them, the candidates whose names appeared on the nomination papers, or the candidate or candidates who filed their names, except that at least one of the persons for whom the electors vote may not be an inhabitant of this State. A presidential elector is not required to vote for a candidate who is deceased at the time of the meeting (§ 7.75).

WYOMING

Presidential Electors: 3

A. NOMINATION

(1) Major parties

Electors are nominated by the State convention of a political party nominating candidates for President and Vice President of the United States. Certificates of nomination should be filed within 30 days after the termination of the convention (Wyoming Statutes Annotated, §§ 22-19-102, 22-4-118). Party conventions are to be held on the first Saturday in May in even numbered years (§ 22-4-115, Supp.).

(2) Minor parties

A "minor political party" is one whose candidate for specified offices received between 2% and 10% of the total votes cast for the office (§ 22-1-102(a)(xviii)).

(3) Independent candidates

Independent candidates for President shall file the candidate's nominees for presidential electors not less than 70 days prior to the general election. (§ 22-19-102).

B. NAMES ON GENERAL ELECTION BALLOTS

The names of the electors need not appear on the ballot (§ 22-19-103). The names of candidates for President and Vice President are paired with a single voting block for each pair (§ 22-6-120).

C. STATUTORY INSTRUCTIONS

Electors are to meet at 12:00 noon on the Monday following the second Wednesday in December of presidential election years, and all electors shall vote for the candidates for the office (of President and Vice President of the United States) receiving the highest number of votes in the Wyoming general election (§§ 22-19-106; 22-19-108).

CANAL ZONE, GUAM, PUERTO RICO, VIRGIN ISLANDS

Presidential Electors: 0

The Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Guam, the Canal Zone, and the Virgin Islands do not participate in the actual election of the President and Vice President since they do not have U.S. Representatives and U.S. Senators in the U.S. Congress. Only the fifty States and the District of Columbia are entitled by the United States Constitution to choose the presidential electors who in turn cast votes for President and Vice President.

PART V. PRESIDENTIAL SUCCESSION DEATH OR DISABILITY OF A PRESIDENT AND DEATH OF A PRESIDENT-ELECT AND PRESIDENTIAL SUCCESSION

A. DEATH OR DISABILITY OF A PRESIDENT

1. Presidential Succession—Article II, § 1, Cl.6

Article II, Section 1, Clause 6 provides that:

In Case of the Removal of the President from Office, or of his Death, Resignation, or Inability to discharge the Powers and Duties of the said Office, the same shall devolve on the Vice President, and the Congress may by Law, provide for the Case of Removal, Death, Resignation or Inability, both of the President and Vice President, declaring what Officer shall then act as President, and such Officer shall act accordingly, until the Disability be removed, or a President shall be elected.”

It is not clear whether the Framers of the Constitution intended the Vice President to succeed to the presidency upon the death, resignation, or inability of the President to discharge his duties.¹ The debates of the Constitutional Convention of 1787 seem to indicate that the Vice President would remain as Vice President and would only exercise the powers and duties of the President until “a President shall be elected.”² However, the first application of this provision occurred in 1841 upon the death of President Harrison. Vice President Tyler took the presidential oath of office and delivered an inaugural address.³ After some initial reluctance, he decided that he was automatically the President and Congress did not successfully challenge this assumption.⁴ Thus a precedent was set, which has been followed and is now clarified by section one of the Twenty-fifth Amendment.⁵

In Merriam v. Clinch,⁶ a federal court, deciding whether the deputy of the collector of the customs may act for the collector in cases of occasional and necessary absence and whether the deputy is vested with all the prerequisites of the office in the event of the death or disability of the collector, noted by way of analogy that under Article 2, Section 6 of ¹The Twenty-fifth Amendment, section 1, which was ratified on Feb. 23, 1967, further clarified this provision making it clear that the Vice President would become President in the case of the death, resignation or removal from office of the President. See the Text of the Twenty-fifth Amendment in the Appendix infra.

³In his inaugural address John Tyler declared that he had been called to “the high office of President of this Confederacy.” See Schwartz, supra at p. 54.

⁴Congress convened within a few weeks after the inaugural address by John Tyler, and the usual resolutions were introduced to inform “the President” that Congress was in session; however, amendments were offered to substitute the term “Vice President,” but these were defeated. See Schwartz, supra at p. 54.

⁵The Twenty-fifth Amendment, section one provides: “In case of the removal of the President from office or of his death or resignation, the Vice President shall become President.” See the text of the Twenty-Fifth Amendment in the Appendix infra.

the Constitution, the powers and duties of the office of the President are devolved upon the Vice President and that all of the branches of the government under such circumstances have recognized the Vice President as holding the office of President and being entitled to its emoluments.⁷ This has been the only case where the issue of the succession of the Vice President has been discussed judicially.

Upon the ratification of the Twentieth Amendment on January 23, 1933 concerning the commencement of the terms of the President, Vice President and Members of Congress, the precedent of the Vice President becoming President was further established and clarified by the provision stating: "If, at a time fixed for the beginning of the term of the President, the President-elect shall have died, the Vice President-elect shall become President."⁸

2. The Succession Acts of 1792, 1886, and 1947

The Constitutional Convention of 1787 provided a partial solution to the succession problem when it created the post of Vice President and made him first in line in the event of the death or disability of the President. However, it was only during the late stages of the Convention that serious consideration was given to the possibility of vacancies in both the offices of President and Vice President⁹ and a clause was inserted in the proposed constitution authorizing the Congress to make further provisions by law on the subject.¹⁰ This power, which was vested in the Congress, has been acted upon in 1792, 1886, and 1947.

a. Act of 1792

The Second Congress passed the first succession act.¹¹ This law provided that the President pro tempore of the Senate would act as President in case of removal, death, resignation, or inability both of the President and Vice President. It also provided that if the office of the President pro tempore of the Senate was vacant, the Speaker of the House was to act as President "until the disability be removed or a president shall be elected."¹² The Act of 1792 further stated that if both of these offices were vacant, the Secretary of State was to inform the Executive of each of the states of this fact and give public notice that the electors of the President are to be appointed or chosen within 34 days preceding the first Wednesday in December.¹³ This plan of succession was to remain in effect for almost a hundred years until the 1886 Act. During this period, the death of President Taylor on July 9, 1850 and the succession of Millard Fillmore and the death of Vice President King in 1853 renewed Congress' interest in the subject of presidential succession. Many bills were introduced in Congress concerning presidential succession from 1853 to 1886 when the original act was amended. In 1856 the Senate Judiciary Committee considered the subject and issued a report on presidential succession.¹⁴

b. Act of 1886

The Presidential Succession Act of 1886 provided for succession by members of the Cabinet in order of the seniority of their departments, beginning with the Secretary of State, when a vacancy occurs in the offices of both President and Vice President.¹⁵ There was considerable concern about the succession line including officers of Congress, such as the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House, since before the Twentieth Amendment, the old Congress expired on March 3 of odd-numbered years and the new Congress did not convene until the following December¹⁶ unless it was called into special session. Thus, for 9 months—from March to December—there was the possibility that there would be no succession.

More events in the latter part of the 1800's furnished much of the impetus for enacting the Succession Act of 1886 such as (1) the death of President Cleveland's Vice President, Thomas A. Hendricks, in 1885; (2) the death of President Garfield in 1881; and (3) the impeachment of President Andrew Johnson in 1867. In such situations, if the Presidency and Vice Presidency became vacant between Congresses, there might neither be a President pro tempore of the Senate nor a Speaker of the House to serve.

c. Act of 1947, as amended (13 U.S.C. § 19, Vacancies In Offices Of Both President And Vice President)

The death of Franklin D. Roosevelt in April 1945 again raised questions about presidential succession. The Presidential Succession Act of 1947, as amended¹⁷ essentially reverts to the 1792 mode of succession providing that the first line of succession after the President and the Vice President is to be the Speaker of the House and then the President pro tempore of the Senate and then the Cabinet officers in the following order: (1) Secretary of State, (2) Secretary of the Treasury, (3) Secretary of Defense, (4) Attorney General, (5) Secretary of the Interior, (6) Secretary of Agriculture, (7) Secretary of Commerce, (8) Secretary of Labor, (9) Secretary of Health and Human Services, (10) Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, (11) Secretary of Transportation,

(12) Secretary of Energy, (13) Secretary of Education, and Secretary of Veterans Affairs.¹⁸

A constitutional question arose with the enactment of the 1947 Act, whether a Member of Congress is an officer within the meaning of Article II, Section 1, Clause 6 of the Constitution.¹⁹ Opponents of the Act contended that the Speaker of the House and the President pro tempore of the Senate were not officers of the United States but were rather state officers.²⁰ Proponents, however, argued that Members of Congress were such civil officers of the United States since the Supreme Court in *Lamar v. United States*²¹ held that a Member of Congress was an officer acting under the authority of the United States within the meaning of the impersonation statute. It was also noted that the fact that the succession act of 1792 designated the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House as successors to the Presidency represents a construction of Article II by the Second Congress that such Members were “officers” within the meaning of Article II.²²

3. The Twenty-Fifth Amendment—Presidential Inability

Since eight Vice Presidents have succeeded to the Presidency by virtue of the death of the incumbent President,²³ the Twenty-Fifth Amendment²⁴ was proposed by Congress and ratified by the states on February 23, 1967 so as (1) to clarify the fact that the Vice President is to become the President of the United States and not just to serve as an acting President; and (2) to establish procedures for determining the commencement and termination of presidential inability.²⁵

The Twenty-Fifth Amendment essentially clarifies the uncertainties of Article II, § 1, Clause 6. That provision failed to provide for the logistics of filling a vice presidential vacancy which has occurred 16 times for a total of 37 years during which the United States did not have a Vice President.²⁶ Clause 6 grouped the contingencies of a permanent nature, such as death, resignation, or removal from office, with inability which may be a contingency of a temporary nature.

¹⁸3 U.S.C. § 19. In 1979 an amendment was enacted (P.L. 96–88, Title V, § 508(a), 93 Stat. 692) which substituted “Secretary of Health and Human Services” for “Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare” and added “Secretary of Education.” In 1988, the Secretary of Veterans Affairs was added to the list of such officers eligible to act in the event of presidential and vice presidential vacancies (P.L. 100–527, § 13(a) 102 Stat. 2643).

¹⁹The text of U.S. Const., Art. II, § 1, Cl. 6 is set forth supra.

²⁰The opponents relied upon the Senate’s decision in 1798 in the Blount impeachment case which held that Senator Blount was not a “civil officer of the United States” within the meaning of the impeachment clause of Article II, § 1 of the Constitution.

²⁶H. Rept. No. 203, 89th Cong., 1st Sess. 10 (1965).

The clause did not define inability or commit the determination of inability to any individual or group. Moreover, the capacity in which the Vice President acted and his duties in the event of presidential incapacity were uncertain. The clause did not provide for any procedure for a recovered President to regain the prerogatives of office that he may have relinquished, and it failed to provide for any mechanism for determining whether a President had recovered from his inability.²⁷

The effect of the Twenty-Fifth Amendment first clarifies the historical practice by which a Vice President would become President upon the death of the President or upon the removal or resignation of the President. Second, the Amendment requires the President to nominate a person to be a Vice President whenever a vacancy occurs in that office subject, however, to confirmation by a majority vote of both Houses of Congress.

Third, the Amendment clarifies that the President may declare in writing his disability and that, upon such occurrence, the Vice President becomes acting President until the President declares in writing that he is able to resume his duties.

Fourth, the Amendment provides for a factual determination of whether or not an inability exists by having the Vice President and a majority of the principal officers or the executive departments, or such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House this written declaration that the President is unable to discharge his powers and duties. Upon such determination, the Vice President is to assume the powers and duties of the office as acting-President. The President would then be permitted to resume the powers and duties of the office upon his written declaration that no disability existed unless the Vice President and a majority of the principal officers of the executive department, or such other body as Congress may by law provide, submit a written declaration that he is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office. Then Congress shall decide the issue.²⁸

B. DEATH OF A PRESIDENT-ELECT

1. Death of a Presidential Candidate

Since, under the Constitution, the President and Vice President are not really elected until the Electoral College meets on the first Monday after the second Wednesday in December after the November general election,²⁹ the death of a candidate prior to the meeting of the Electoral College and after the November general election is neither provided for under the Constitution nor in Federal statutes. However, the rules of the major political parties do provide for the filling of such a vacancy by the parties' national committees.³⁰

²⁷ Id., 7–8.

²⁹ U.S. Const. Art. II, § 1, Twelfth Amendment; 3 U.S.C. § 7.

The political party is permitted to choose a new presidential candidate if its successful candidate should die between the November general election and the December meeting of the Electoral College. Since the slate of electors chosen in each state generally vote for and are often bound by party pledges, required by many state laws or state party rules, to vote for the candidates chosen by their own political party, the political party whose candidate won the most electors in the November election would probably select the next President, notwithstanding the "faithless elector" problem.

2. Death of a President-Elect and Vice-President Elect Before Inauguration

Once the Electoral College has met and the votes have been cast and transmitted sealed to the President of the Senate, the President-elect and Vice President-elect, if they have received a majority of the electoral votes, would be replaced due to any death in accordance with section 3 of the Twentieth Amendment which provides:

If, at the time fixed for the beginning of the term of the President, the President-elect shall have died, the Vice President-elect shall become President. If a President shall not have been chosen before the time fixed for the beginning of his term, or if the President-elect shall have failed to qualify, then the Vice President-elect shall act as President until a President shall have qualified; and the Congress may by law provide for the case wherein neither a President-elect nor a Vice President-elect shall have qualified, declaring who shall then act as President, or the manner in which one who is to act shall be selected, and such person shall act accordingly until a President or Vice President shall have qualified.

Thus, when a President-elect dies between the meeting of the Electoral College in December and inauguration day on January 20, the Vice President-elect becomes President-elect, and the resulting vacancy in the Vice Presidency is filled following Inauguration Day on January 20 under procedures established by Section 2 of the Twenty-Fifth Amendment, which allows the President to nominate a Vice President who would take office after a confirmation by a majority vote of both Houses of Congress.

If the Vice President-elect dies between the meeting of the Electoral College in December and Inauguration Day on January 20 the vacancy would likewise be filled after the inauguration of the President, in accordance with Section 2 of the Twenty-Fifth Amendment. If both the President-elect and the Vice President-elect were to die or fail to qualify, then the Speaker of the House would act as President in accordance with the provisions of the Presidential Succession Act of 1947, as amended.³¹ If a winning candidate were to die after the Electoral College met and cast the required majority of votes for him, and before the meeting of Congress to count the votes, the Congress would have no discretion and would be required to declare the actual votes at the time they were cast was valid and ergo declare that the deceased candidate had received a majority of the votes.

³⁰See, e.g., Rules 26 and 28 of the Republican Party and Article 3 of the Charter of the Democratic Party.

3. Death of Presidential and Vice Presidential Candidates Not Receiving a Majority of Electoral College Votes Before the House and Senate Meet to Select Them

When the candidates for President and Vice President do not receive the required majority of 270 Electoral College votes out of a total 538 Electoral votes, the House of Representatives is to choose a President from among the three persons having the highest number of Electoral College votes, and the Senate is to choose a Vice President from the two persons having the highest numbers of votes.³² Thus, if one of the top three presidential candidates were to die, the House could do no more than make its decision among the survivors. If one of the two vice presidential candidates were to die, the Senate would have to choose the survivor because it must choose between only those two vice presidential candidates having the greatest number of votes. Section 4 of the Twentieth Amendment has authorized Congress to change such a situation by law, but it has not yet done so. Section 4 provides as follows:

The Congress may by law provide for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the House of Representatives may choose a President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them, and for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the Senate may choose a Vice President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them.

Congress has not yet enacted legislation to meet this contingency. In case such an eventuality did occur in regard to any of the three candidates for President from whom the House would choose, or the two candidates for Vice President from whom the Senate would choose, the respective Houses would have no alternative but to select from the remaining candidates, in the absence of the necessary legislation.³³ Consequently, the political party, represented by a candidate who died, would be, in a sense, disfranchised.

4. Failure to Elect by Inauguration Day

Section 3 of the Twentieth Amendment provides that "if a President shall not have been chosen before the time fixed for the beginning of his term, or if the President-elect shall have failed to qualify, then the Vice President-elect shall act as President until a President shall have qualified." This provision primarily takes care of the situation where the election of the President is thrown into the House and the House has not selected a President by noon of January 20. In such an event, the Vice President-elect, whether he had been elected by the Electoral College or by the Senate, would become acting President until such time as the House made its selection. When the House does elect the President, then the Vice President, who was acting-President, would then become the Vice President.

³² U.S. Const. Twelfth Amendment.

If neither the House nor the Senate has respectively elected the President or the Vice President by noon of January 20, then the provision of Section 3 of the Twentieth Amendment would come into play. Pursuant to the Presidential Succession Act of 1947, as amended,³⁴ the Speaker of the House would resign as Speaker and as a Member of the House and be sworn in as acting-President at noon on January 20. He would continue in the office until either the House has elected a President or the Senate a Vice President.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That except in case of an election of a President and Vice President of the United States, prior to the ordinary period as herein after specified, electors shall be appointed in each state for the election of a President and Vice President of the United States, within thirty-four days preceding the first Wednesday in December, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, and within thirty-four days preceding the first Wednesday in December in every fourth year succeeding the last election, which electors shall be equal to the number of Senators and Representatives, to which the several states may by law be entitled at the time, when the President and Vice President, thus to be chosen, should come into office: Provided always, That where no apportionment of Representatives shall have been made after any enumeration, at the time of choosing electors, then the number of electors shall be according to the existing apportionment of Senators and Representatives.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the electors shall meet and give their votes on the said first Wednesday in December, at such place in each state as shall be directed, by the legislature thereof; and the electors in each state shall make and sign three certificates of all the votes by them given, and shall seal up the same certifying on each that a list of the votes of such state for President and Vice President is contained therein, and shall by writing under their hands, or under the hands of a majority of them, appoint a person to take charge of and deliver to the President of the Senate, at the seat of government, before the first Wednesday in January then next ensuing, one of the said certificates, and the said electors shall forthwith forward by the post-office to the President of the Senate, at the seat of government, one other of the said certificates and shall forthwith cause the other of the said certificates to be delivered to the judge of that district in which the said electors shall assemble.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the executive authority of each state shall cause three lists of the names of the electors of such state to be made and certified and to be delivered to the electors on or before the said first Wednesday in December, and the said electors shall annex one of the said lists to each of the lists of their votes.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That if a list of votes, from any state, shall not have been received at the seat of government on the said first Wednesday in January, that then the Secretary of State shall send a special messenger to the district judge in whose custody such list shall have been lodged,

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That Congress shall be in session on the second Wednesday in February, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, and on the second Wednesday in February succeeding every meeting of the electors, and the said certificates, or so many of them as shall have been received, shall then be opened, the votes counted, and the persons who shall fill the offices of President and Vice President ascertained and declared, agreeably to the constitution.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That in case there shall be no President of the Senate at the seat of government on the arrival of the persons entrusted with the lists of the votes of the electors, then such persons shall deliver the lists of votes in their custody into the office of the Secretary of State, to be safely kept and delivered over as soon as may be, to the President of the Senate.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the persons appointed by the electors to deliver the lists of votes to the President of the Senate, shall be allowed on the delivery of the said lists twenty-five cents for every mile of the estimated distance by the most usual road, from the place of meeting of the electors, to the seat of government of the United States.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That if any person appointed to deliver the votes of the electors to the President of the Senate, shall after accepting of his appointment neglect to perform the services required of him by this act, he shall forfeit the sum of one thousand dollars.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That in case of removal, death, resignation or inability both of the President and Vice President of the United States, the President of the Senate pro tempore, and in case there shall be no President of the Senate, then the Speaker of the House of Representatives, for the time being shall act as President of the United States until the disability be removed or a President shall be elected.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That whenever the offices of President and Vice President shall both become vacant, the Secretary of State shall forthwith cause a notification thereof to be made to the executive of every state, and shall also cause the same to be published in at least one of the newspapers printed in each state, specifying that electors of the President of the United States shall be appointed or chosen in the several states within thirty-four days preceding the first Wednesday in December then next ensuing: Provided, There shall be the space of two months between the date of such notification and the said first Wednesday in December, but if there shall not be the space of two months between the date of such notification and the first Wednesday in December; and if the term for which the President and Vice President last in office were elected shall not expire on the third day of March next ensuing, then the Secretary of State shall specify in the notification that the electors shall be appointed or chosen within thirty-four days preceding the first Wednesday in December in the year next ensuing, within which time the electors shall accordingly be appointed or chosen, and the electors shall meet and give their votes on the said first Wednesday in December, and the proceedings and duties of the said electors and others shall be pursuant to the directions prescribed in this act.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That the only evidence of a refusal to accept or of a resignation of the office of President or Vice President, shall be an instrument in writing declaring the same, and subscribed by the person refusing to accept or resigning, as the case may be, and delivered into the office of the Secretary of State.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the term of four years for which a President and Vice President shall be elected shall in all cases commence on the fourth day of March next succeeding the day on which the votes of the electors shall have been given.

APPROVED, March 1, 1792.

SEC. 2. That the preceding section shall only be held to describe and apply to such officers as shall have been appointed by the advice and consent of the Senate to the offices therein named, and such as are eligible to the office of President under the Constitution, and not under impeachment by the House of Representatives of the United States at the time the powers and duties of the office shall devolve upon them respectively.

SEC. 3. That sections one hundred and forty-six, one hundred and forty-seven, one hundred and forty-eight, one hundred and forty-nine, and one hundred and fifty of the Revised Statutes are hereby repealed.

3. Presidential Succession Act—Act of July 18, 1947, as Amended (3 U.S.C. § 19)

3 U.S.C. § 19. Vacancy in Offices of Both President and Vice President; Officers Eligible To Act.

(a)(1) If, by reason of death, resignation, removal from office, inability, or failure to qualify, there is neither a President nor Vice President to discharge the powers and duties of the office of President, then the Speaker of the House of Representative shall, upon his resignation as Speaker and as Representative in Congress, act as President.

(2) The same rule shall apply in the case of the death, resignation, removal from office, or inability of an individual acting as President under this subsection.

(b) If, at the time when under subsection (a) of this section a Speaker is to begin the discharge of the powers and duties of the office of President, there is no Speaker, or the Speaker fails to qualify as Acting President, then the President pro tempore of the Senate shall, upon his resignation as President pro tempore and as Senator, act as President.

(c) An individual acting as President under subsection (a) or subsection (b) of this section shall continue to act until the expiration of the then current Presidential term, except that—

(1) if his discharge of the powers and duties of the office is founded in whole or in part on the failure of both the President-elect and the Vice-President-elect to qualify, then he shall act only until a President or Vice President qualifies; and

(2) if his discharge of the powers and duties of the office is founded in whole or in part on the inability of the President or Vice President, then he shall act only until the removal of the disability of one of such individuals.

(d)(1) If, by reason of death, resignation, removal from office, inability, or failure to qualify, there is no President pro tempore to act as President under subsection (b) of this section, then the officer of the United States who is highest on the following list, and who is not under disability to discharge the powers and duties of the office of President shall act as President: Secretary of State, Secretary of the Treasury, Secretary of Defense, Attorney General, Secretary of the Interior, Secretary of Agriculture, Secretary of Commerce, Secretary of Labor, Secretary of Health and Human Services, Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, Secretary of Transportation, Secretary of Energy, Secretary of Education, Secretary of Veterans Affairs.

(2) An individual acting as President under this subsection shall continue so to do until the expiration of the then current Presidential term, but not after a qualified and prior-entitled individual is able to act, except that the removal of the disability of an individual higher on the list contained in paragraph (1) of this subsection or the ability to qualify on the part of an individual higher on such list shall not terminate his service.

(3) The taking of the oath of office by an individual specified in the list in paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be held to constitute his resignation from the office by virtue of the holding of which he qualifies to act as President.

(e) Subsections (a), (b), and (d) of this section shall apply only to such officers as are eligible to the office of President under the Constitution. Subsection (d) of this section shall apply only to officers appointed, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, prior to the time of the death, resignation, removal from office, inability, or failure to qualify, of the President pro tempore, and only to officers not under impeachment by the House of Representatives at the time the powers and duties of the office of President devolve upon them.

(f) During the period that any individual acts as President under this section, his compensation shall be at the rate then provided by law in the case of the President.

4. Twentieth Amendment: Commencement of the Terms of the President and Vice President

SECTION 1. The terms of the President and Vice President shall end at noon on the 20th day of January, and the terms of Senators and Representatives at noon on the 3d day of January, of the years in which such terms would have ended if this article had not been ratified; and the terms of their successors shall then begin.

SECTION 2. The Congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall begin at noon on the 3d day of January, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

SECTION 3. If, at the time fixed for the beginning of the term of the President, the President elect shall have died, the Vice President elect shall become President. If a President shall not have been chosen before the time fixed for the beginning of his term, or if the President elect shall have failed to qualify, then the Vice President elect shall act as President until a President shall have qualified; and the Congress may by law provide for the case wherein neither a President elect nor a Vice President elect shall have qualified, declaring who shall then act as President, or the manner in which one who is to act shall be selected, and such person shall act accordingly until a President or Vice President shall have qualified.

SECTION 4. The Congress may by law provide for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the House of Representatives may choose a President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them, and for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the Senate may choose a Vice President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them.

SECTION 5. Sections 1 and 2 shall take effect on the 15th day of October following the ratification of this article.

SECTION 6. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission.

5. Twenty-Fifth Amendment: Presidential Vacancy and Disability

SECTION 1. In case of the removal of the President from office or of his death or resignation, the Vice President shall become President.

SECTION 2. Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of the Vice President, the President shall nominate a Vice President who shall take office upon confirmation by a majority vote of both Houses of Congress.

SECTION 3. Whenever the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that he is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, and until he transmits to them a written declaration to the contrary, such powers and duties shall be discharged by the Vice President as Acting President.

SECTION 4. Whenever the Vice President and a majority of either the principal officers of the executive departments or of such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice President shall immediately assume the powers and duties of the office as Acting President. Thereafter, when the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that no inability exists, he shall resume the powers and duties of his office unless the Vice President and a majority of either the principal officers of the executive department or of such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit within four days to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office. Thereupon Congress shall decide the issue, assembling within forty-eight hours for that purpose if not in session. If the Congress, within twenty-one days after receipt of the latter written declaration, or, if Congress is not in session, within twenty-one days after Congress is required to assemble, determines by two-thirds vote of both Houses that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice President shall continue to discharge the same as Acting President; otherwise, the President shall resume the powers and duties of his office.
