§ 33.4 Notifying employees; agency responsibility.

§ 33.5 Designation of beneficiary.

(a) Designation Form. SF 1152, Designation of Beneficiary, Unpaid Compensation of Deceased Civilian Employee, is prescribed for use by employees in designating a beneficiary and in changing or revoking a previous designation. However, in the absence of the prescribed form, any designation, change, or cancellation of beneficiary witnessed and filed in accordance with the general requirements of this part shall be acceptable. Each agency subject to the provisions of the act will furnish the employee SF 1152 upon request therefor.

(b) Who may be designated. An employee may designate any person or persons as beneficiary. The term “person or persons” as used in this part includes a legal entity or the estate of the deceased employee.

(c) Executing and filing a designation of beneficiary form. The SF 1152 must be executed in duplicate by the employee and filed with the employing agency where the proper officer will sign it and insert the date of receipt in the space provided on each part, file the original, and return the duplicate to the employee. The designation will be filed in the particular office which authorizes payment of the employee’s compensation, or such other place as the head of the agency may direct.

(d) Effective period of a designation. A designation of beneficiary, properly executed and filed in the agency of employment, unless earlier changed or revoked in writing, will be effective as long as employment by the same agency continues and thereafter until the employee is transferred or reemployed by the same or another department or agency of the Government. Should an employee resign and be reemployed, or be transferred to another agency, and desire the unpaid compensation to be paid to a designated beneficiary, another designation of beneficiary form must be executed, as directed in paragraph (c) of this section. If an amount should become due from the agency from which the employee was separated, it will be the responsibility of such agency to ascertain, prior to payment, if the employee was reemployed and executed a designation of beneficiary in connection with such employment, and to pay the compensation to any person or persons so designated. A new designation of beneficiary is not required as to an employee whose agency or site function, records, equipment, and personnel are absorbed by another agency.

(e) Change or revocation of a designation. A designation of beneficiary previously made may be changed or revoked as of a later date by the execution and filing of another SF 1152 by the employee, as directed in paragraph (c) of this section. When a designation of beneficiary is changed or revoked, the employing agency should return the earlier designation to the employee.
