§ 70.46 Miscellaneous.

The existence of any of the conditions set forth in § 70.35 constituting a basis for the rejection of an application for grading service.

IDENTIFYING AND MARKING PRODUCTS

§ 70.50 Approval of official identification and wording on labels.

Any label or packaging material which bears any official grade identification shall be used only in such a manner as the Administrator may prescribe, and such labeling or packaging materials, including the wording used on such materials, shall be approved in accordance with and conform with the provisions of this part 70 and the applicable provisions of §§ 381.115 through 381.141 of 9 CFR part 381. Poultry Products Inspection Regulations. Labeling requirements for ready-to-cook rabbits, except for the product name, shall be the same as for ready-to-cook poultry. For ready-to-cook rabbits the class name shall be shown on the label. The appropriate designation, "young," "mature," or "old," may be used as a prefix to the word "rabbit" in lieu of the class name.

§ 70.51 Marking graded products.

(a) Information required on grademark. Except as otherwise authorized by the Administrator, each grademark, which is to be used, shall include the letters "USDA" and the U.S. Grade of the product it identifies, such as "U.S. A Grade," and such information shall be printed with the shield in a dark color and the wording within the shield in a light color or the shield in a light color and the wording within the shield in a dark color, provided that such design is legible and conspicuous on the material upon which it is printed. In addition, a term, such as "Federal-State Graded," or "Government Graded," may be used adjacent to but not within the grademark.

(b) Form of official identification symbol and grademark. (1) The shield set forth in Figure 1, containing the letters "USDA" shall be the official identification symbol for purposes of this part, and when used, imitated, or simulated in any manner in connection with poultry or rabbits, shall be deemed
