

§ 739.37 System of accounts.

Each warehouseman shall use for his warehouse a system of accounts, approved for the purpose by the Administrator, or his authorized representative, which shall show for each bag or lot of beans the name of the depositor, the weight of the beans, the number of bags in each lot, the grade when grade is required to be, or is ascertained, the location in the warehouse, the dates received for and delivered out of storage, the receipts issued and canceled, a separate record for each depositor; and such accounts shall include a detailed record of all moneys received and disbursed and of all effective insurance policies. In the case of beans the identity of which is to be preserved the tag number or stencil identification mark mentioned in § 739.33 shall be shown. Such records shall be retained by the warehouseman for a period of six years after December 31 of the year in which created, and for such longer period as may be necessary for the purposes of any litigation which the warehouseman knows to be pending, or as may be required by the Administrator in particular cases to carry out the purposes of the Act.

§ 739.38 Reports.

Each warehouseman shall, from time to time, make such reports as the Service may require, on forms prescribed and furnished for the purpose by the Service, concerning the condition, contents, operation, and business of the warehouse.

§ 739.39 Copies of reports to be kept.

Each warehouseman shall keep on file, as a part of the records of the warehouse, for a period of three years after December 31 of the year in which submitted, an exact copy of each report submitted by such warehouseman under the regulations in this part.

[29 FR 13369, Sept. 26, 1964, as amended at 47 FR 745, Jan. 7, 1982. Redesignated at 50 FR 1814, Jan. 14, 1985]

§ 739.40 Canceled receipts; auditing.

Each warehouseman, when requested by the Service, shall forward his canceled receipts for auditing to Washington or to such field offices of the Agricultural Marketing Service as may be designated from time to time. For the purpose of this section, only such portion as the Service may designate of each canceled receipt, numbered to correspond with the actual receipt number, need be submitted.

§ 739.41 Inspection and examination of warehouses.

Each warehouseman shall permit any officer or agent of the Department, authorized by the Secretary for the purpose, to enter and inspect or examine at any time any warehouse for the conduct of which such warehouseman holds a license, the office thereof, the books, records, papers, and accounts relating thereto, and the contents thereof, and shall furnish such officer or agent, when he so requests, the assistance necessary to enable him to make any inspection or examination under this section.

§ 739.42 Weighing apparatus; inspection.

The weighing apparatus used for ascertaining the weight stated in a receipt or certificate shall be subject to examination by an officer or agent of the Department employed for such purpose. If the Service shall disapprove such weighing apparatus, it shall not thereafter, unless such disapproval be withdrawn, be used in ascertaining the weight of any beans for the purposes of the act and the regulations in this part.
