

Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA

§ 967.30

Group 3—West Coast-North Florida District: All the counties not embraced in Groups 1 and 2—two (2) members and their alternates.

*Group 4—*The producer or producers whose celery was handled by the handler who handled in the previous or current season, whichever is applicable, the second largest volume of celery—two (2) members and their alternates.

*Group 5—*The producer or producers whose celery was handled by the handler who handled in the previous or current season, whichever is applicable, the largest volume of celery—three (3) members and their alternates.

(e) Each producer is entitled to cast only one vote for each position in the group wherein he produced celery for market in the current season and possesses a Base Quantity. If a producer has so qualified in more than one group, he may elect the group in which he shall vote but he can vote for nominees in only one group. Any producer in Group 4 or Group 5 shall not be entitled to vote for nominees in other groups.

(f) The members of the committee selected by the Secretary pursuant to §967.32 shall nominate a public member and alternate member of the committee. The committee shall recommend rules for receiving names of persons to be considered for nomination to the public member and alternate positions. Rules shall also be recommended for establishing eligibility of persons nominated to the public member and alternate positions. The persons nominated for the public member and alternate positions shall be submitted by the incumbent committee to the Secretary by the July 1 of each year together with information deemed pertinent by the committee or as requested by the Secretary.

(g) The Secretary, upon recommendation of the committee, may reestablish groups and may reapportion committee membership among the various groups. In recommending such changes, the committee shall give consideration to: (1) Changes in the relative positions of existing groups with respect to celery production and shipments; (2) changes in the numbers of producers and handlers in each group; and (3) other relevant factors. A change in the establishment of groups or in apportionment of members among groups can become effective at any time, provided, the effective date is more than 30 days prior to the date on which nominations are held.

§967.28 Alternate members.

An alternate for a member shall act in the place of such member (a) in his absence, or (b) in the event of his death, removal, resignation, or disqualification, until a successor for his unexpired term has been selected and has qualified.

§967.29 Procedure.

(a) At an assembled meeting, all votes shall be cast in person, and a simple majority of committee members (including alternates acting for absent members) shall constitute a quorum. Decisions of the committee shall require the concurring vote of a majority of the members and alternates in attendance and entitled to vote.

(b) If both a member and his alternate are unable to attend a committee meeting, the committee may designate any other alternate present from the same group to serve in the place of the member.

(c) The committee may provide for meeting by telephone, telegraph, or any other means of communication. All votes shall be recorded in the minutes of each meeting so as to reflect how each member or alternate voted.
