

§ 967.44

(f) The committee may recommend and the Secretary may require that no handler shall transport or cause the transportation of celery by motor vehicle or by other means unless such shipment is accompanied by a copy of the inspection certificate issued thereon, or other document authorized by the committee to indicate that such inspection has been performed. Such certificate or document shall be surrendered to such authority as may be designated by the committee.

MARKETING RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

§967.44 Research and development.

The committee may, with the approval of the Secretary, establish or provide for the establishment of projects involving production research, marketing research and development projects, and marketing promotion including paid advertising, designed to assist, improve, or promote the marketing, distribution, and consumption or efficient production of celery. The expenses of such projects shall be paid by funds collected pursuant to §967.61 or §967.63. Upon conclusion of each program, but at least annually, the committee shall summarize and report on the program status and accomplishments to its members and the Secretary. A similar report to the committee shall be required of any contracting party on any paid advertising or major program. Also, for each advertising or major program the contracting party shall be required to maintain records of money received and expenditures and such shall be available to the committee and the Secretary. The committee shall, with the approval of the Secretary, establish criteria which will serve as a guide for it to determine what constitutes a major program.

EXPENSES AND ASSESSMENTS

§967.60 Expenses.

The committee may incur such expenses as the Secretary finds reasonable and likely to be incurred by it during each fiscal year for its maintenance and functioning, and for such other purposes as the Secretary determines appropriate under this part.

To assist the Secretary, the committee shall submit a budget of expenses and prospective revenue to him for each season, with explanations therefor, and recommendations as to the rate of assessment for such fiscal year.

§967.61 Assessment and requirements for payment.

Each first handler shall pay to the committee upon demand, his pro rata share of the expenses authorized by the Secretary for each marketing year. Each handler's pro rata share shall be the rate of assessment per unit fixed by the Secretary times the total assessable units of celery which he handles. At any time during or after a marketing year, the Secretary may increase the rate of assessment as necessary to cover authorized expenses. The payment of expenses and assessments for the maintenance and functioning of the committee may be required during periods when no regulations are in effect.

§967.62 Accounting.

At the end of a fiscal year, funds in excess of such year's expenses may be placed in an operating reserve not to exceed approximately one marketing year's operational expenses or such lower limits as the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish. Funds in such reserve shall be available for use by the committee for expenses authorized pursuant to §967.40. Funds in excess of those necessary to pay expenses and those placed in the operating reserve shall be refunded pro rata to handlers from whom such funds were collected.
