

except that if it appears to the examining immigration officer that any person in the United States being examined under this section is prima facie deportable from the United States, further action with respect to his examination shall be deferred and further proceedings conducted as provided in section 242 of the Act and part 242 of this chapter. When the foregoing inspection procedure is applied to any aircraft, persons examined and found admissible shall be placed aboard the aircraft, or kept at the airport separate and apart from the general public until they are permitted to board the aircraft. No other person shall be permitted to depart on such aircraft until and unless he is found to be admissible as provided in this section.

(b) In contiguous territory and adjacent islands. On and after December 24, 1952, in the case of any aircraft or vessel proceeding directly from a port or place in foreign contiguous territory or adjacent islands to a port of entry in the United States, the examination and inspection of passengers and crew required by the Act and final determination of admissibility may be made immediately prior to such departure at the port or place in foreign contiguous territory or adjacent islands and shall have the same effect under the act as though made at the destined port of entry in the United States.

§ 235.6 Referral to immigration judge.

(a) Notice. If, in accordance with the provisions of section 235(b) of the Act, the examining immigration officer detains an alien for further inquiry before an immigration judge, he shall immediately sign and deliver to the alien a Notice to Alien Detained for Hearing by an Immigration Judge (Form I-122). If an asylum officer denies an application for asylum or withholding of deportation filed by an alien who is an applicant for admission or has been paroled under § 212.5 of this chapter, this Notice may be signed and delivered to the alien by the supervisory asylum officer or by the Assistant Commissioner, Refugees, Asylum and Parole. If the alien is unable to read or understand the notice, it shall be read and explained to him by an employee of the Service, through an interpreter, if necessary, prior to such further inquiry. In addition, the alien shall be advised of his right to representation by counsel of his choice at no expense to the Government, and of the availability of free legal services programs qualified under part 292a of this chapter and organizations recognized pursuant to § 292.2 of this chapter, located in the district where the alien is being detained. He shall also be furnished with a list of such programs.

(b) Certification for mental condition; medical appeal. An alien certified under paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (5) of section 212(a) of the Act shall be advised by the examining immigration officer that he may appeal to a board of medical officers of the United States Public Health Service pursuant to section 234 of the Act. If such an appeal is taken, the district director shall arrange for the convening of the medical board.

§ 235.7 Referral of certain cases to district director.

If the examining immigration officer has reason to believe that the cause of an alien's excludability can readily be removed by the posting of a bond in accordance with section 213 of the Act, or by the exercise of section 211, section 212(d) (3) or (4), or section 212(c) of the Act, or by granting permission to reapply for admission after deportation or removal, he may in lieu of detaining the alien for hearing in accordance with section 235(b) and section 236 of the Act refer the alien's case to the district director within whose district the port is located for consideration of such action and defer further examination pending the district director's decision. Refusal of a district director to authorize admission under section 213, or to grant an application for the benefits of section 211, section 212(d) (3) or (4), or section 212(c), or to grant permission to reapply for admission after
