§70.1 Cutoff dates and effect on enumeration and data tabulation.

For the tabulation and publication of data from the 1990 Census of Population and Housing, the Bureau of the Census will recognize only those boundaries legally in effect on January 1, 1990 that have been reported officially to the Bureau of the Census no later than March 1, 1990. The Bureau of the Census enumerates respondents on the date of the decennial census as residing within the legal limits of municipalities, county subdivisions, counties, States, and equivalent areas as those limits exist on January 1, 1990.

§70.2 “Municipality” and “county subdivision” defined for census purposes.

For the purposes of this part, the Bureau of the Census defines “municipalities” and “county subdivisions” to include the areas identified as incorporated places (such as cities and villages) and minor civil divisions (such as townships and magisterial districts). A more complete description appears on pages A1 and A2 of 1980 Census of Population, Volume I, Chapter A.

§70.3 Effect of boundary changes occurring or reported after the cutoff dates.

The Bureau of the Census will not recognize changes in boundaries that become effective after January 1, 1990 in taking the 1990 Decennial Census; the Bureau of the Census will enumerate the residents of any area that are transferred to another jurisdiction after that date and report them for the 1990 census as residents of the area in which they resided on January 1, 1990. The Bureau of the Census will not recognize in the data tabulations prepared for the 1990 census changes occurring on or before January 1, 1990, but not submitted officially to the Bureau of the Census until after March 1, 1990 except as necessary to conduct decennial census operations.

15 CFR Ch. I (1-1-98 Edition)

§ 90.1 Scope and applicability.

These rules prescribe the administrative procedure available to States and units of local government to challenge the current estimates of population or per capita income developed by the Bureau of the Census.

§ 90.2 Policy of the Bureau of the Census.

It is the policy of the Bureau of the Census to provide the most accurate population and per capita income estimates possible given the constraints of time, money, and available statistical techniques. It is also the policy of the Bureau to provide States and units of local government the opportunity to challenge these estimates and to present probative evidence relating to the accuracy of the estimates.

§ 90.3 Definitions.

As used in this part (except where the context clearly indicates otherwise) the following definitions shall apply:

(a) Bureau means the Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce.

(b) Challenge means, in accordance with this part, the process of objecting to or calling into question the Bureau's population or per capita income estimates of a State or unit of local government by that State or unit of local government. A demand for adjustment to the General Revenue Sharing Act, Pub. L. 92-512, section 102(b), as amended (31 U.S.C. 1222(b)) does not constitute a challenge within the meaning of this part.

(c) Director means Director of the Bureau of the Census, or an individual designated by the Director to perform under this part.

(d) Estimate means a statistically derived intercensal population or per capita income figure prepared to update earlier census figures.

(e) State includes the District of Columbia.

(f) Unit of local government means the government of a county, municipality, township, place, or other minor civil division, which is a unit of general government below the State.
