§ 220.10 Eligibility requirements.

(a) To qualify as a designated employee eligible for rights under this part 220, an applicant must be a protected employee who is involuntarily placed on furlough or is terminated by a covered air carrier during the eligibility period.

(b) A protected employee shall not be deemed to be furloughed or terminated if such employee:

(1) Retired voluntarily;

(3) Retired due to a disability;

(4) Is on strike or is withholding services in support of other employees who have struck the covered air carrier;

(5) Is terminated for cause as defined in § 220.01;

(6) Resigned or voluntarily quit for any reason.

(c) A designated employee who is recalled by his former carrier is no longer eligible under this section to exercise the first-right-of-hire. Such a person may become a designated employee in the future due to a subsequent termination or furlough which occurs on or prior to the expiration of the eligibility period.

§ 220.11 Designated employees' rights.

(a) A designated employee shall have a first-right-of-hire in such employee's occupational specialty, regardless of age, with any covered air carrier hiring additional employees; Provided, however, That each designated employee must satisfy all qualifications or other requirements established by the hiring carrier (subject to the limitations contained in § 220.21) and must make a timely application in accordance with normal carrier procedures for any particular job vacancy.

(b) A designated employee hired by any covered air carrier pursuant to the provisions of the Act shall not be required, as a condition of employment, or in any other manner, to relinquish, waive, or forfeit any seniority or recall

Subpart C—Carriers' Responsibilities

§ 220.20 Duty to hire.

(a) Subject to § 220.24, a covered air carrier shall have the duty to hire a designated employee, regardless of age, who otherwise meets the qualification requirements established by such carrier before it hires any other applicant when such carrier is seeking to fill a vacancy in the designated employee's occupational specialty from outside its work force. As used herein "work force" shall include all present employees and any furloughed or terminated employees who, at the time of furlough or termination, possessed recall or seniority rights.

(b) Subject to the provisions of § 220.24, a covered air carrier shall not fill a vacancy, which would otherwise be available to a designated employee, by promoting or reassigning a seasonal or temporary employee, unless such seasonal or temporary employee is a designated employee.

(c) When considering applications from more than one designated employee for a particular vacancy, a covered air carrier shall be entitled to offer employment to any such designated employee in its absolute discretion.

§ 220.21 Criteria for employment.

(a) A covered air carrier shall be entitled to apply any prerequisites or qualifications determined by it for any vacancy, except that, solely with respect to the duty to hire created by the Act, a covered air carrier shall not be entitled to limit employment opportunities for designated employees on the basis of:

(1) Initial hiring age (provided that such prohibition shall not be applicable to retirement ages applicable to all of any class or craft of such air carrier's employees); or

(2) The existence of any seniority, recall rights or previous experience with any other air carrier; Provided, however, That covered air carriers shall be entitled to require prospective employees to disclose the existence of any such seniority or recall rights in making application for employment and to take the existence or nonexistence of such rights into account in selecting from among those qualified designated employees who have applied for a particular job vacancy.

(b) In filling job vacancies during the effective period, covered air carriers shall be entitled to require applicants to furnish evidence that they are designated employees.
