

Office of the Secretary of the Treasury

§ 1.20

provide orally information contained in records of the Department which are determined to be available to the public. If the obtaining of such information requires search of the records, a written request and the payment of the fee for record search set forth in §1.6 will be required.

(b) Information with respect to activities of the Department not a matter of record shall not be disclosed if the information involves matters exempt from disclosure under 5 U.S.C. 552 or the regulations in this part, or if the disclosure of such information would give the person requesting the information advantages not accorded to other citizens;

§1.11 Testimony or the production of records in a court or other proceeding.

(a) Treasury Department officers and employees are prohibited from testifying or otherwise furnishing information obtained as a result of their official capacities or in connection with the transaction of public business, in compliance with a subpoena or other order or demand of any court or other authority without the prior approval of an officer authorized to determine the availability of records under these regulations.

(b) Treasury Department officers and employees are prohibited from furnishing any record in compliance with subpoenas duces tecum or other order or demand of any court or other authority, without the prior approval of an officer authorized to determine the availability of records under the regulations in this part.

(c) In court cases in which the United States or the Treasury Department is not a party, where the giving of testimony is desired, an affidavit by the litigant or the litigant's attorney, setting forth the information with respect to which the testimony of such officer or employee is desired, must be submitted before permission to testify will be granted. Permission to testify will, in all cases, be limited to the information set forth in the affidavit or to such portions thereof as may be deemed proper.

(d) Where approval to testify or to furnish records in compliance with a subpoena, order or demand is not given the person to whom it is directed shall, if possible, appear in court or before the other authority and respectfully state his inability to comply in full with the subpoena, order or demand, relying for his action upon this section.

§1.12 Regulations not applicable to official request.

The regulations in this part shall not be applicable to official requests of other governmental agencies or officers thereof acting in their official capacities, unless it appears that granting a particular request would be in violation of law or inimical to the public interest. Cases of doubt should be referred for decision to the supervisory official designated in §1.8.

Subpart C—Privacy Act

§1.20 Purpose and scope of regulations.

The regulations in this subpart are issued to implement the provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a). The regulations apply to all records which are contained in systems of records maintained by the Department of the Treasury and which are retrieved by an individual's name or personal identifier. They do not relate to those personnel records of Government employees, which are under the jurisdiction of the Office of Personnel Management to the extent such records are subject to regulations issued by such OPM. The regulations apply to all components of the Department of the Treasury. Any reference in this subpart to the Department or its officials, employees, or records shall be deemed to refer also to the components or their officials, employees, or records. The regulations set forth the requirements applicable to Department of the Treasury employees maintaining, collecting, using or disseminating records pertaining to individuals. They also set forth the procedures by which individuals may request notification of whether the Department of the Treasury maintains or has disclosed a record pertaining to them or may seek access to such records maintained in any nonexempt system of records, request correction of such records, appeal any initial adverse determination of any request for amendment, or may seek an accounting of disclosures of such records. For the convenience of interested persons, the components of the Department of the Treasury may reprint these regulations in their entirety (less any appendices not applicable to the component in question) in those titles of the Code of Federal Regulations which normally contain regulations applicable to such components. In connection with such republication, and at other appropriate times, components may issue supplementary regulations applicable only to the component in question, which are consistent with these regulations. In the event of any actual or apparent inconsistency, these Departmental regulations shall govern. Persons interested in the records of a particular component should, therefore, also consult the Code of Federal Regulations for any rules or regulations promulgated specifically with respect to that component (see Appendices to this subpart for cross references). The head of each component is hereby also authorized to substitute other appropriate officials for those designated and correct addresses specified in the appendix to this subpart applicable to the component. The components of the Department of the Treasury for the purposes of this subpart are:

(a) The Departmental Offices, which includes the offices of:

(1) The Secretary of the Treasury, including immediate staff;

(2) The Deputy Secretary of the Treasury, including immediate staff;

(3) The Under Secretary of the Treasury for Finance, including immediate staff;

(4) The Fiscal Assistant Secretary, including immediate staff;

(5) The Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for Economic Policy and all other offices reporting to such official, including immediate staff;

(6) The General Counsel and also the Legal Division, except legal counsel to the components listed in paragraphs (a)(9) and (b) through (l) of this section;

(7) The Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for International Affairs and all offices reporting to such official, including immediate staff;

(8) The Treasurer of the United States, including immediate staff;

31 CFR Subtitle A (7-1-98 Edition)

(9) The Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for Tax Policy, including immediate staff and all offices reporting to such official;

(10) The Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for Management, and all offices reporting to such official, including immediate staff;

(11) The Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for Domestic Finance and all offices reporting to such official, including immediate staff;

(12) The Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for Legislative Affairs, including immediate staff;

(13) The Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for Public Affairs and Public Liaison, including immediate staff;

(14) The Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for Enforcement and all offices reporting to such official, including immediate staff;

(15) The Special Assistant to the Secretary (National Security), including immediate staff;

(16) The Inspector General and all offices reporting to such official, including immediate office.

(b) The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms;

(c) The Office of the Comptroller of the Currency;

(d) The United States Customs Service;

(e) The Bureau of Engraving and Printing;

(f) The Federal Law Enforcement Training Center;

(g) The Financial Management Service;

(h) The Internal Revenue Service;

(i) The United States Mint;

(j) The Bureau of the Public Debt;

(k) The United States Savings Bond Division;

(l) The United States Secret Service;

(m) The Office of Thrift Supervision.

For purposes of this subpart, the office of the legal counsel for the components listed in paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), and (j) of this section are to be considered a part of such component. Any office, which is now in existence or may hereafter be established, which is not specifically listed or known to be a component of any of those listed above, shall be deemed a part of the Departmental Offices for the purpose of these regulations.
