(a) The purpose of this rule is to comply with and implement title 5 U.S.C. 552a, sections (f) and (k), hereinafter identified as the Privacy Act. It establishes the procedures by which an individual may be notified whether a system of records contains information pertaining to the individual; defines times, places and requirements for identification of the individual requesting records, for disclosure of requested records where appropriate; special handling for medical and psychological records; for amendment of records; appeal of denials of requests for amendment; and provides a schedule of fees to be charged for making copies of requested records. In addition, this rule contains the exemptions promulgated by the Director, NSA, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(k), to exempt Agency systems of records from subsections (c)(3); (d); (e)(1); (e)(4)(G), (H), (I); and (f) of section 552a.

(b) The procedures established and exemptions claimed apply to systems of records for which notice has been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER pursuant to the Privacy Act. Requests from individuals for records pertaining to themselves will be processed in accordance with these procedures and consistent with the exemptions claimed. Requests for records which do not specify the statute pursuant to which they are made but which may be reasonably construed to be requests by an individual for records pertaining to that individual will also be processed in accordance with these procedures and consistent with exemptions claimed. To the extent appropriate, these procedures apply to records maintained by this Agency pursuant to system of records notices published by the Civil Service Commission. The primary category of records affected by a Commission notice is that maintained in conjunction with the CSC system identified as "CSC-Retirement Life Insurance and Health Benefits Records System." *Reasons—*This system of records is exempted from all subsections cited pursuant to exemption (k)(1) to protect from unauthorized disclosure classified information which may be contained in records and files making up the system.

(17) *System Identification and Name—*GNSA17, entitled “Employee Assistance Service (EAS) Case Record System”.

*Exemption—*Portions of this system which fall within 5 U.S.C. 552a (k)(1), (k)(2), (k)(4) and (k)(5) are exempt from the following provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552a, sections (c)(3), (d) (1)–(5), (e)(1), (e)(4) (G)–(I), and (f) (1)–(5).

*Authority—*5 U.S.C. 552a (k)(1), (k)(2), (k)(4), and (k)(5).

*Reasons—*This system of records is exempted from all subsections cited pursuant to exemption (k)(1) to protect from unauthorized disclosure classified information which may be contained in records and files making up the system.

This system of records is exempted from all subsections cited pursuant to exemption (k)(2) to the extent that individual records and files are related to investigations to enforce the provisions of Public Law 92-261 and consistent with the provisions of that statute with respect to individual access to such records. The purpose of the exemption is to protect the integrity of investigations conducted pursuant to Public Law 92-261.

This record system is exempted from all subsections pursuant to exemption (k)(4) to protect from unauthorized disclosure records maintained for statistical research or program evaluation. The exemption does not limit access to that portion of the records in the system which are not classified or otherwise protected from unauthorized disclosure.

This system of records is also exempted from all subsections cited pursuant to exemption (k)(5) to protect the identity of confidential sources of information constituting investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for federal civilian employment, federal contracts, or access to classified information. The exemption does not limit access to that portion of the records in the system which are not exempted or otherwise protected from unauthorized disclosure.

(18) System identification and name—GNSA18, NSA/CSS Operations Files.

Exemption—Portions of this record system may be exempted from subsections of 5 U.S.C. 552a (c)(3), (d)(1)–(5), (e)(4)(G)–(I), and (f)(1)–(5).

Authority—5 U.S.C. 552a(k) (1), (2) and (5).

Reasons—Subsection (c)(3) because there may be occasions when making an accounting available to the individual named in the record at his or her request, would reveal classified information. The release of accounting of disclosure would inform a subject that he or she is under investigation. This information would provide considerable advantage to the subject in providing him or her with knowledge concerning the nature of the investigation and the coordinated investigative efforts and techniques employed by the cooperating agencies.

Subsection (d) because granting access and/or subsequent amendment to the record would reveal classified information. It may also alert a subject to the fact that an investigation of that individual is taking place, and might weaken the on-going investigation, reveal investigatory techniques, and place confidential informants in jeopardy. NSA/CSS may refuse to confirm or deny the existence of a particular record because to do so would reveal classified information.

Subsection (e)(4)(G), (e)(4)(H), and (e)(4)(I). Although NSA/CSS has published procedures whereby an individual can be notified if a particular record system contains information about themselves; how to gain access to that information; and the source of the information, there may be occasions when confirming that a record exists, granting access, or giving out the source of the information would reveal classified information.

Subsection (f) because the agency's rules are inapplicable to those portions of the system that are exempt and would place the burden on the agency of either confirming or denying the existence of a record pertaining to a requesting individual. The confirming or denying might, in itself, provide an answer to that individual relating to an on-going criminal investigation. The conduct of a successful investigation leading to the indictment of a criminal offender precludes the applicability of established agency rules relating to verification of record, disclosure of the record to that individual, and record amendment procedures for this record system. Also, because this record system is exempt from the individual access provisions of subsection (d).
