(c) Purchase of a primary residence means acquisition of the residence through the exchange of cash or other property or through the total construction of the new residence. Construction of an addition to or the renovation of a residence does not constitute "purchase" of a primary residence.

(d) Related purchase costs are any costs that are incurred directly as a result of the purchase or construction of a residence and which can be added to the basis of the residence for Federal tax purposes. However, "points" or loan origination fees charged for a loan, whether or not treated as part of the basis, will not be considered a purchase cost.

(e) The documentation required for a loan under this section is as follows:

(1) For all purchases except for construction, a copy of a home purchase contract or a settlement sheet or estimated settlement sheet;

(2) For construction, a home construction contract. If a single home construction contract is unavailable, additional contracts, building permits, receipts, assessments, or other documentation that demonstrates the construction of an entire primary residence and expenses in the amount of the loan may be accepted.

(f) The documentation provided under this subparagraph must bear a date that is no more than 24 months preceding the date of application.
