

(e) The Board of Parole of the District of Columbia will continue to have jurisdiction over District of Columbia Code offenders who have been released to parole or mandatory release supervision, including the authority to return such offenders to prison upon an order of revocation. The jurisdiction and authority of the Board over such offenders will be transferred to the U.S. Parole Commission by August 5, 2000, pursuant to Section 11231(a)(2) of the Act.

(f) When the D.C. Board of Parole has issued a warrant for a parolee who has been confined in a federal prison to serve a new U.S. or D.C. Code sentence, the U.S. Parole Commission shall have jurisdiction to revoke parole and to determine the disposition of such warrant. (D.C. Code 24-209.)

§ 2.71 Application for parole.

(a) A prisoner (including a committed youth offender) desiring to apply for parole shall execute an application form as prescribed by the Commission. Such forms shall be available at each institution and shall be provided to a prisoner who is eligible for parole consideration. The Commission may then conduct an initial hearing or grant an effective date of parole on the record. A prisoner who receives an initial hearing need not apply for subsequent hearings.

(b) To the extent practicable, the initial hearing for an eligible prisoner who has applied for parole shall be held at least 180 days prior to an adult prisoner's date of eligibility for parole, and at least 120 days from the date a youth offender has been admitted to the institution that is responsible for developing his rehabilitative program.

(c) A prisoner may knowingly and intelligently waive any parole consideration on a form provided for that purpose. A prisoner who declines either to apply for or waive parole consideration shall be deemed to have waived parole consideration.

(d) A prisoner who waives parole consideration may later apply for parole and be heard during the next visit of the Commission to the institution at which the prisoner is confined, provided that the prisoner has applied for parole at least 60 days prior to the first day of the month in which such visit of the Commission occurs. In no event, however, shall such prisoner be heard at an earlier date than that set forth in paragraph (b) of this section.

§ 2.72 Hearing procedure.

(a) Each eligible prisoner who has applied for parole shall appear in person for a hearing before an examiner of the Commission. The examiner shall review with the prisoner the guidelines at § 2.80, and shall discuss with the prisoner such information as the examiner deems relevant, including the prisoner's offense behavior, criminal history, institutional record, health status, release plans, and community support. If the examiner determines that the available file material is not adequate for this purpose the examiner may order the hearing to be postponed to the next docket so that the missing information can be requested.

(b) Parole hearings may be held in District of Columbia facilities (including District of Columbia contract facilities) and federal facilities (including federal contract facilities).

(c) A prisoner appearing for a parole hearing in a District of Columbia facility shall not be accompanied by counsel, any relative or friend, or any other person (except a staff member of that facility). A prisoner appearing for a parole hearing in a federal facility may have a representative pursuant to § 2.13(b) of this part.

(d) Rehearing disclosure of file material will be available to prisoners and their representatives only in the case of prisoners confined in federal facilities, and pursuant to § 2.55 of this part.

(e) A victim of a crime of violence, as defined in D.C. Code 23-103a(a)(3), or a victim of any other crime, or a representative from the immediate family of a victim if the victim has died, shall have the right

(1) To be present at the parole hearings of each offender who committed the crime, and

(2) To testify and/or offer a written or recorded statement as to whether or not parole should be granted, including information and reasons in support of such statement. A written statement
