Subpart B—Temporary Licenses

§ 3.40 Temporary licensing of applicants for associated person, floor broker or floor trader registration.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations and pursuant to the terms and conditions of this subpart, the National Futures Association may grant a temporary license to any applicant for registration as an associated person, floor broker (which, if the applicant has not been registered as a floor broker within the preceding sixty days shall permit such applicant to act in the capacity of a floor trader only) or floor trader upon the contemporaneous filing with the National Futures Association of:

(a) A Form 8-R, properly completed in accordance with the instructions thereto;

(b) The fingerprints of the applicant on a fingerprint card provided by the National Futures Association for that purpose; and

(c) If the applicant is applying for registration as an associated person, the sponsor's certification required by § 3.12(c) of this part, and if the applicant is applying for registration as a floor broker or floor trader, evidence that the applicant has been granted trading privileges by a contract market that has filed with the National Futures Association a certification signed by its chief operating officer with respect to the review of an applicant's employment, credit and other history in connection with the granting of trading privileges.

(d) The failure of an applicant or the applicant's sponsor to respond to a written request by the Commission or the National Futures Association for clarification of any information set forth in the application of the applicant or for the resubmission of fingerprints in accordance with such request will be deemed to constitute a withdrawal of the applicant's registration application and shall result in the immediate termination of the applicant's temporary license.
