

period of more than two years, the appropriate ATF officer shall institute proceedings for the revocation or suspension of such permit, in accordance with the procedure set forth in part 200 of this chapter, which part is made applicable to such proceedings.

§ 1.51 Annulment.

Whenever the appropriate ATF officer has reason to believe that any basic permit was procured through fraud, or misrepresentation or concealment of material fact, the appropriate ATF officer shall institute proceedings for the annulment of such permit in accordance with the procedure set forth in part 200 of this chapter, which part is made applicable to such proceedings.

§ 1.52 Disposition of stocks of alcoholic beverages upon revocation, annulment, or automatic termination of basic permit.

In the event of the revocation or annulment of a basic permit, pursuant to part 200 of this chapter, or in the event such permit is automatically terminated by operation of law (27 U.S.C. 204(g) and §1.44 of this part), the appropriate ATF officer may authorize the orderly disposition of stocks of distilled spirits, wines, or malt beverages then held by the permittee or former permittee upon such conditions as may be considered proper.

MISCELLANEOUS

§ 1.55 Recalling permits for correction.

Whenever it shall be discovered that any basic permit has been issued authorizing acts, or combinations of acts, which may not properly, under the law and regulations, as of now or hereafter in force, be authorized, or that any material mistake has occurred in the issuance thereof, the holder of such permit shall forthwith surrender the same for correction or amendment upon demand of the appropriate ATF officer.

§ 1.56 Oaths and affirmations.

A document must be verified by an oath or affirmation taken before a person authorized by the laws of the United States or by State or local law to administer oaths or affirmations in the jurisdiction where the document is executed when required by:

- (a) Regulation; or
- (b) An appropriate ATF officer.
