

§2.37

(4) Non-secure custody refers to custody with no significant physical restraint [e.g., walkaway from a work detail outside the security perimeter of an institution; failure to return to any institution from a pass or unescorted furlough; or escape by stealth from an institution with no physical perimeter barrier (usually a camp or community treatment center)].

(ii) Other new criminal behavior in a prison facility.

Severity rating in the new criminal behavior (from §2.20)	Guideline range
Category One .....	<=8 months.
Category Two .....	<=10 months.
Category Three .....	12-16 months.
Category Four .....	20-26 months.
Category Five .....	36-48 months.
Category Six .....	52-64 months.
Category Seven .....	64-92 months.
Category Eight .....	120+ months.

NOTE: Grade unlawful possession of a firearm or explosives in a prison facility, other than a community treatment center, as Category Six. Grade unlawful possession of a firearm in a community treatment center as Category Four. Grade unlawful possession of a dangerous weapon other than a firearm or explosives (e.g., a knife) in a prison facility or community treatment center as Category Three.

(3) New criminal behavior in the community (e.g., while on pass, furlough, work release, or on escape). In such cases, the guidelines applicable to re-parole violators under §2.21 shall be applied, using the new offense severity (from §2.20) and recalculated salient factor score (such score shall be recalculated as if the prisoner had been on parole at the time of the new criminal behavior). The time required pursuant to these guidelines shall be added to the time required by the original presumptive or effective date.

NOTE: Offenses committed in a prison or in a Community Treatment Center that are not limited to the confines of the prison or Community Treatment Center (e.g., mail fraud of a victim outside the prison) are graded as new criminal behavior in the community.

(b) The above are merely guidelines. Where the circumstances warrant, a decision outside the guidelines (above or below) may be rendered provided specific reasons are given. For example, a substantial period of good conduct since the last disciplinary infraction in cases not involving new criminal conduct may be treated as a mitigating circumstance.

§ 2.40 Conditions of release.

(a) The following conditions are attached to every grant of parole and are deemed necessary to provide adequate supervision and to protect the public welfare. They are printed on the certificates issued to each parolee and mandatory releasee:

(1) The parolee shall go directly to the district named in the certificate (unless released to the custody of other authorities). Within three days after his arrival, he shall report to his parole adviser, if he has one, and to the U.S. Probation Officer whose name appears on the certificate. If in any emergency the parolee is unable to get in touch with his parole adviser or his probation officer or his office, he shall communicate with the U.S. Parole Commission, Chevy Chase, Maryland 20815-7286.

(2) If the parolee is released to the custody of other authorities, and after release from the physical custody of

(3) The parolee shall not leave the limits fixed by his certificate of parole without written permission from the probation officer.

(4) The parolee shall notify his probation officer within two days of any change in his place of residence.

(5) The parolee shall make a complete and truthful written report (on a form provided for that purpose) to his probation officer between the first and third day of each month, and on the final day of parole. He shall also report to his probation officer, at other times as the probation officer directs, providing complete and truthful information.

(6) The parolee shall not violate any law, nor shall he associate with persons engaged in criminal activity. The parolee shall get in touch within two days with his probation officer or office if he is arrested or questioned by a law-enforcement officer.

(7) The parolee shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent for any law-enforcement agency.

(8) The parolee shall work regularly unless excused by his probation officer, and support his legal dependents, if any, to the best of his ability. He shall report within two days to his probation officer any changes in employment.

(9) The parolee shall not drink alcoholic beverages to excess. He shall not purchase, possess, use, or administer marijuana or narcotic or other habitforming drugs, unless prescribed or advised by a physician. The parolee shall not frequent places where such drugs are illegally sold, dispensed, used, or given away.

(10) The parolee shall not associate with persons who have a criminal record unless he has permission of his probation officer.
