

General Accounting Office

§ 28.133

(e) There may be no administrative appeal from an order of the Board under paragraph (d) of this section. An employee subject to a final decision ordering disciplinary action under this section may obtain judicial review of the order in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit in accordance with 31 U.S.C. 755.

§ 28.133 Stay proceedings.

(a) The General counsel may request the issuance of an ex parte stay, not to exceed 30 days in duration, of any proposed personnel action that, in the General Counsel's judgment, may constitute a prohibited personnel practice. Any such request shall be in writing and shall specify, among other things, the nature of the action to be stayed and the basis for the General Counsel's belief that a prohibited personnel practice may be involved. The General Counsel shall serve a copy of the request on the GAO. Within three business days of its filing, the request shall be granted by the Board member designated by the Board Chair to entertain it unless, in the opinion of that member, the request either fails to satisfy the requirements of this paragraph or, on its face, conclusively establishes the absence of a prohibited personnel practice.

(b) The General Counsel may request either a further temporary stay or a permanent stay of the proposed personnel action. Such a request shall be filed and served so as to be received by the Board and the agency no less than 10 days before the expiration of any ex parte stay issued under paragraph (a) of this section. The agency's response to the request shall be filed and served so as to be received by the Board and the General Counsel no less than three days before the expiration of the ex parte stay issued under paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) A stay request under paragraph (b) of this section will be considered and decided by the Board member who issued the ex parte stay under paragraph (a) of this section, unless the Board Chair determines that it should be considered and decided by the Board en banc.

(d) Upon initial consideration of a stay request under paragraph (b) of this section, the Board or the designated member thereof may:

(1) grant or deny the requested stay, in whole or in part, on the basis of the written submissions of the respective parties without additional briefing, oral argument, or the receipt of any documentary evidence or testimony;

(2) require further briefing of the issues presented by the request and/or call for oral argument; or

(3) conduct a hearing at which documentary evidence and testimony is received. If necessary, the ex parte stay issued under paragraph (a) of this section may be extended sua sponte for a period not to exceed 30 days to enable the Board or the designated member thereof a reasonable opportunity to decide the matter.

(e) In acting upon a stay request under paragraph (b) of this section, the Board or the designated member thereof shall consider and balance such established equitable factors as:

(1) The likelihood that the personnel action sought to be stayed involves a prohibited personnel practice; and

(2) The nature and extent of the injury that the employee and the agency likely will suffer if the requested stay is or is not issued. If a further temporary stay is granted based on a claim that the General Counsel requires additional time to conclude an investigation of the employee's complaint, the duration of that further stay shall not exceed the amount of time necessary to complete the investigation in the exercise of a high degree of diligence.

(f) Any order issued by a member of the Board granting or denying, in whole or in part, a stay request under paragraph (b) shall be subject to review by the Board en banc on the filing and service of a notice of appeal, accompanied by a supporting brief, within 10 days of the service of that order. Responsive briefs shall be filed and served within 10 days of service of the appeal.

(g) A motion to vacate a stay order may be filed at any time. A stay order issued by the Board en banc may not be vacated by a single Board member.
