same position; a successor in that capacity; a supervisory official of either; or officials delegated such authority in writing by the Secretary of the Treasury or the Assistant Secretary (Management). Such officials may not downgrade or declassify information which is classified at a level exceeding their own designated classification authority. A listing of officials delegated such authority, in writing, shall be identified on TD F 71-01.11 (Report of Authorized Downgrading and Declassification Officials) and reported annually each October 15th to the Departmental Director of Security who shall maintain them on behalf of the Assistant Secretary (Management). Current listings of officials so designated shall be maintained by Treasury bureaus and offices within the Departmental Offices.

§ 2.15 Declassification policy [3.1].

In making determinations under section 3.1(a) of the Order, officials shall respect the intent of the Order to protect foreign government information and confidential foreign sources.

§ 2.16 Downgrading and declassification markings.

Whenever a change is made in the original classification or in the dates of downgrading or declassification of any classified information, it shall be promptly and conspicuously marked to indicate the change, the authority for the action, the date of the action, and the identity of the person taking the action. Earlier classification markings shall be cancelled or otherwise obliterated when practicable. See also § 2.7(h).

§ 2.17 Systematic review for declassification [3.3].

(a) Permanent Records. Systematic review is applicable only to those classified records and presidential papers or records that the Archivist of the United States, acting under the Federal Records Act, has determined to be of sufficient historical or other value to warrant permanent retention.

(b) Non-Permanent Classified Records. Non-permanent classified records shall be disposed of in accordance with schedules approved by the Administrator of General Services under the Records Disposal Act. These schedules shall provide for the continued retention of records subject to an ongoing mandatory declassification review request.

31 CFR Subtitle A (7-1-01 Edition)

(c) Systematic Declassification Review Guidelines [3.3(a)]. As appropriate, guidelines for systematic declassification review shall be issued by the Assistant Secretary (Management) in consultation with the Archivist of the United States, the Director of the Information Security Oversight Office and Department officials, to assist the Archivist in the conduct of systematic reviews. Such guidelines shall be reviewed and updated at least every five years unless earlier review is requested by the Archivist.

(d) Foreign Government Systematic Declassification Review Guidelines [3.3(a)]. As appropriate, guidelines for systematic declassification review of foreign government information shall be issued by the Assistant Secretary (Management) in consultation with the Archivist of the United States, the Director of the Information Security Oversight Office, Department officials and other agencies having declassification authority over the information. These guidelines shall be reviewed and updated every five years unless earlier review is requested by the Archivist.

(e) Special Procedures. The Department shall be bound by the special procedures for systematic review of classified cryptologic records and classified records pertaining to intelligence activities (including special activities), or intelligence sources or methods issued by the Secretary of Defense and the Director of Central Intelligence, respectively.

§ 2.18 Mandatory declassification review [3.4].

(a) Except as provided by section 3.4 (b) of the Order, all information classified by the Department under the Order or any predecessor Executive Order shall be subject to declassification review by the Department, if:

(1) The request is made by a United States citizen or permanent resident alien, a Federal agency, or a state or local government;
