Subpart C—How Does the Secretary Make a Grant for Master's Level and Professional Study Fellowships?

§ 649.20 How does the Secretary evaluate an application?

(a) The Secretary evaluates an application for master's level and professional study fellowships on the basis of the criteria in § 649.21.

(b) The Secretary awards up to 100 points for these criteria.

(c) The maximum possible score for each criterion is indicated in parentheses.

(Authority: 20 U.S.C. 1134e)

§ 649.21 What selection criteria does the Secretary use?

The Secretary uses the following criteria to evaluate an application:

(a) Institution-wide criteria—(1) Institutional commitment. (15 points) The Secretary reviews each application to determine the overall strength of the applicant's commitment to meet the needs of the students who are members of the group or groups to which the institution proposes to give priority in accordance with § 649.3(b)(1), including consideration of—

(i) Evidence that the institution's social and academic environment is supportive of the academic success of students who are members of the priority group or groups;

(ii) The availability of other sources of financial aid and support for students who are members of the priority group or groups; and

(iii) The employment of women or individuals from minority groups or both, depending on the group or groups to which the institution proposes to give priority, among the administrators and faculty in the institution.

(2) Recruitment plan. (10 points)

(i) The Secretary reviews each application for information that describes the applicant's recruitment plan.

(ii) The Secretary looks for information that shows—

(A) The applicant's active and aggressive efforts, previous and current, to identify and attract students who are members of the group or groups to
