To cite the regulations in this volume use title, part and section number. Thus, 41 CFR 300–1.1 refers to title 41, part 300–1, section 1.
Explanation

The Code of Federal Regulations is a codification of the general and permanent rules published in the Federal Register by the Executive departments and agencies of the Federal Government. The Code is divided into 50 titles which represent broad areas subject to Federal regulation. Each title is divided into chapters which usually bear the name of the issuing agency. Each chapter is further subdivided into parts covering specific regulatory areas.

Each volume of the Code is revised at least once each calendar year and issued on a quarterly basis approximately as follows:

- Title 1 through Title 16 ........................................................... as of January 1
- Title 17 through Title 27 ............................................................ as of April 1
- Title 28 through Title 41 ............................................................ as of July 1
- Title 42 through Title 50 ............................................................ as of October 1

The appropriate revision date is printed on the cover of each volume.

LEGAL STATUS

The contents of the Federal Register are required to be judicially noticed (44 U.S.C. 1507). The Code of Federal Regulations is prima facie evidence of the text of the original documents (44 U.S.C. 1510).

HOW TO USE THE CODE OF FEDERAL REGULATIONS

The Code of Federal Regulations is kept up to date by the individual issues of the Federal Register. These two publications must be used together to determine the latest version of any given rule.

To determine whether a Code volume has been amended since its revision date (in this case, July 1, 2001, consult the “List of CFR Sections Affected (LSA),” which is issued monthly, and the “Cumulative List of Parts Affected,” which appears in the Reader Aids section of the daily Federal Register. These two lists will identify the Federal Register page number of the latest amendment of any given rule.

EFFECTIVE AND EXPIRATION DATES

Each volume of the Code contains amendments published in the Federal Register since the last revision of that volume of the Code. Source citations for the regulations are referred to by volume number and page number of the Federal Register and date of publication. Publication dates and effective dates are usually not the same and care must be exercised by the user in determining the actual effective date. In instances where the effective date is beyond the cutoff date for the Code a note has been inserted to reflect the future effective date. In those instances where a regulation published in the Federal Register states a date certain for expiration, an appropriate note will be inserted following the text.

OMB CONTROL NUMBERS

The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 (Pub. L. 96–511) requires Federal agencies to display an OMB control number with their information collection request.
Many agencies have begun publishing numerous OMB control numbers as amendments to existing regulations in the CFR. These OMB numbers are placed as close as possible to the applicable recordkeeping or reporting requirements.

OBSOLETE PROVISIONS

Provisions that become obsolete before the revision date stated on the cover of each volume are not carried. Code users may find the text of provisions in effect on a given date in the past by using the appropriate numerical list of sections affected. For the period before January 1, 1986, consult either the List of CFR Sections Affected, 1949–1963, 1964–1972, or 1973–1985, published in seven separate volumes. For the period beginning January 1, 1986, a “List of CFR Sections Affected” is published at the end of each CFR volume.

CFR INDEXES AND TABULAR GUIDES

A subject index to the Code of Federal Regulations is contained in a separate volume, revised annually as of January 1, entitled CFR INDEX AND FINDING AIDS. This volume contains the Parallel Table of Statutory Authorities and Agency Rules (Table I). A list of CFR titles, chapters, and parts and an alphabetical list of agencies publishing in the CFR are also included in this volume.

An index to the text of “Title 3—The President” is carried within that volume.

The Federal Register Index is issued monthly in cumulative form. This index is based on a consolidation of the “Contents” entries in the daily Federal Register.

A List of CFR Sections Affected (LSA) is published monthly, keyed to the revision dates of the 50 CFR titles.

REPUBLICATION OF MATERIAL

There are no restrictions on the republication of material appearing in the Code of Federal Regulations.

INQUIRIES

For a legal interpretation or explanation of any regulation in this volume, contact the issuing agency. The issuing agency’s name appears at the top of odd-numbered pages.

For inquiries concerning CFR reference assistance, call 202-523-5227 or write to the Director, Office of the Federal Register, National Archives and Records Administration, Washington, DC 20408 or e-mail info@fedreg.nara.gov.

SALES

The Government Printing Office (GPO) processes all sales and distribution of the CFR. For payment by credit card, call 202-512-1800, M–F 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. e.s.t. or fax your order to 202-512-2250, 24 hours a day. THIS TITLE

As of July 1, 1985, the text of subtitle A is no longer published in the Code of Federal Regulations. For an explanation of the status of subtitle A, see 41 CFR chapters 1—100 (page 3).

Other government-wide procurement regulations relating to public contracts appear in chapters 50 through 100, subtitle B.

The Federal property management regulations in chapter 101 of subtitle C are government-wide property management regulations issued by the General Services Administration. In the remaining chapters of subtitle C are the implementing and supplementing property management regulations issued by individual Government agencies. Those regulations which implement chapter 101 are numerically keyed to it.

The Federal Travel Regulation System in chapters 300-304 of subtitle F is issued by the General Services Administration.

Title 41 is composed of four volumes. The chapters in these volumes are arranged as follows: Chapters 1—100, chapter 101, chapters 102—200, and chapter 201 to End. These volumes represent all current regulations codified under this title of the CFR as of July 1, 2001.

Redesignation tables appear in the finding aids section of the volumes containing chapter 101 and chapters 102 to 200.
Would you like to know...

if any changes have been made to the Code of Federal Regulations or what documents have been published in the Federal Register without reading the Federal Register every day? If so, you may wish to subscribe to the LSA (List of CFR Sections Affected), the Federal Register Index, or both.

LSA
The LSA (List of CFR Sections Affected) is designed to lead users of the Code of Federal Regulations to amendatory actions published in the Federal Register. The LSA is issued monthly in cumulative form. Entries indicate the nature of the changes—such as revised, removed, or corrected. $31 per year.

Federal Register Index
The index, covering the contents of the daily Federal Register, is issued monthly in cumulative form. Entries are carried primarily under the names of the issuing agencies. Significant subjects are carried as cross-references. $28 per year.

A finding aid is included in each publication which lists Federal Register page numbers with the date of publication in the Federal Register.

SUBCHAPTER A—INTRODUCTION

PART 300–1—THE FEDERAL TRAVEL REGULATION (FTR)

Sec.
300–1.1 What is the FTR?
300–1.2 What is the purpose of the FTR?

SOURCE: 63 FR 15951, Apr. 1, 1998, unless otherwise noted.

§ 300–1.1 What is the FTR?
The FTR is the regulation contained in 41 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Chapters 300 through 304, which implements statutory requirements and Executive branch policies for travel by Federal civilian employees and others authorized to travel at Government expense.

§ 300–1.2 What is the purpose of the FTR?
There are two principal purposes:
a) To interpret statutory and other policy requirements in a manner that balances the need to assure that official travel is conducted in a responsible manner with the need to minimize administrative costs;
b) To communicate the resulting policies in a clear manner to Federal agencies and employees.

PART 300–2—HOW TO USE THE FTR

Subpart A—General

§ 300–2.1 What formats exist in the FTR?
The FTR is written in two formats—the question & answer format and the title and narrative format.

Subpart B—Question & Answer Format

§ 300–2.20 What is the purpose of the question & answer format?
The Q&A format is an effective way to engage the reader and to break the information into manageable pieces.

§ 300–2.21 How is the rule expressed in the question and answer format?
The rule is expressed in both the question and answer.

§ 300–2.22 Who is subject to the FTR?
Employees and agencies. Since the user may be an employee or an agency, portions of the FTR have been separated into employee and agency sections. However, while the employee provisions are addressed to the employee, the rules expressed in those provisions apply to the agency as well. The following lists the relevant employee and agency sections of the FTR:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>For</th>
<th>The employee provisions are contained in</th>
<th>And the agency provisions are contained in</th>

<td>Subchapter D</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Chapter 303</td>
<td>N/A</td>
<td>Subparis A, B, C, D, E and F</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

§ 300–2.23 How is the user addressed in the FTR?
The FTR asks questions in the first person, as the user would. It then answers the questions in the second and third person. In the employee sections, the employee is addressed in the singular, and in the agency sections, the agency is addressed in the plural. The following describes how employee and agency are addressed in both sections:

<table>

Subpart C—Title and Narrative Format

§ 300-2.70 How is the rule expressed in the title and narrative format?

The rule is in the narrative. The title serves only as a tool to determine the subject of the rule.

PART 300-3—GLOSSARY OF TERMS

§ 300-3.1 What do the following terms mean?

Actual expense—Payment of authorized actual expenses incurred, up to the limit prescribed by the Administrator of GSA or agency, as appropriate. Entitlement to reimbursement is contingent upon entitlement to per diem, and is subject to the same definitions and rules governing per diem.

Approved accommodation—Any place of public lodging that is listed on the national master list of approved accommodations. The national master list of all approved accommodations is compiled, periodically updated, and published in the Federal Register by FEMA. Additionally, the approved accommodation list is available on the U.S. Fire Administration’s Internet site at http://www.usfa.fema.gov/hotel/index.htm.

Automated-Teller-Machine (ATM) services—Government contractor-provided ATM services that allow cash withdrawals from participating ATMs to be charged to a Government contractor-issued charge card.

Common carrier—Private-sector supplier of air, rail or bus transportation.

Conference—A meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium or event that involves attendee travel. The term “conference” also applies to training activities that are considered to be conferences under 5 CFR 410.404.

Continental United States (CONUS)—The 48 contiguous States and the District of Columbia.

Contract carriers—U.S. certificated air carriers which are under contract with the government to furnish Federal employees and other persons authorized to travel at Government expense with passenger transportation service. This also includes GSA’s scheduled airline passenger service between selected U.S. cities/airports and between selected U.S. and international cities/airports at reduced fares.

Employee with a disability (also see Special Needs)—

(a) An employee who has a disability as defined in paragraph (b) of this definition and is otherwise generally covered under the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (29 U.S.C. 701–797b).

(b) “Disability,” with respect to an employee, means:

(1) Having a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities;

(2) Having a record of such an impairment;

(3) Being regarded as having such an impairment;

(4) Does not include an individual who is currently engaging in the illegal use of drugs, when the covered entity acts on the basis of such use.

(c) “Physical or mental impairment” means:

(1) Any physiological disorder or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss affecting one or more of the following body systems: neurological, musculoskeletal, special sense organ, respiratory (including speech organs), cardiovascular, reproductive, digestive, genitourinary, hemic and lymphatic, skin, and endocrine; or

(2) Any mental or psychological disorder (e.g., mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness and specific learning disabilities).

(3) The term “physical or mental impairment” includes, but is not limited to, such diseases and conditions as cerebral palsy, epilepsy, muscular dystrophy, multiple sclerosis, cancer, heart disease, diabetes, mental retardation, emotional illness, and orthopedic, visual, speech and hearing impairments.

(d) “Major life activities” means functions such as caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning and working.

(e) “Has a record of such an impairment” means the employee has a history of, or has been classified as having, a mental or physical impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities.

(f) “Is regarded as having such an impairment”: means the employee has:

(1) A physical or mental impairment that does not substantially limit major life activities but the impairment is treated by the agency as constituting such a limitation;

(2) A physical or mental impairment that substantially limits major life activities as a result of the attitudes of others toward such an impairment; or

(3) None of the impairments defined under “physical or mental impairment”, but is treated by the employing agency as having a substantially limiting impairment.

Family (see Immediate family)

Foreign air carrier—An air carrier who is not holding a certificate issued by the United States under 49 U.S.C. 41102.

Foreign area (see also non-foreign area)—Any area, including the Trust Territories of the Pacific Islands, situated both outside CONUS and the non-foreign areas.

Government aircraft—Any aircraft owned, leased, chartered or rented and operated by an executive agency.

Government contractor-issued individually billed charge card—A Government contractor-issued charge card used by authorized individuals to pay for official travel and transportation related expenses for which the contractor bills the employee.

Government-furnished automobile—An automobile (or “light truck,” as defined in 41 CFR 101–38 including vans and pickup trucks) that is:

(a) Owned by an agency,

(b) Assigned or dispatched to an agency from the GSA Interagency Fleet Management System, or

(c) Leased by the Government for a period of 60 days or longer from a commercial source.

Government Transportation Request (GTR) (Standard Form 1169)—A Government document used to procure common carrier transportation services. The document obligates the Government to pay for transportation services provided.

Immediate family—Any of the following named members of the employee’s household at the time he/she reports for duty at the new permanent duty station or performs other authorized travel involving family members:

(a) Spouse;

(b) Children of the employee or employee’s spouse who are unmarried and under 21 years of age or who, regardless of age, are physically or mentally incapable of self-support. (The term “children” shall include natural offspring; stepchildren; adopted children; grandchildren, legal minor wards or other dependent children who are under legal guardianship of the employee or employee’s spouse; and an unborn child(ren) born and moved after the employee’s effective date of transfer);

(c) Dependent parents (including step and legally adoptive parents) of the employee or employee’s spouse; and

(d) Dependent brothers and sisters (including step and legally adoptive brothers and sisters) of the employee or employee’s spouse who are unmarried and under 21 years of age or who, regardless of age, are physically or mentally incapable of self-support.

Interviewee—An individual who is being considered for employment by an agency. The individual may currently be a Government employee.

Invitational travel—Authorized travel of individuals either not employed or employed (under 5 U.S.C. 5703) intermittently in the Government service as consultants or experts and paid on a daily when-actually-employed basis and for individuals serving without pay or at $1 a year when they are acting in a capacity that is directly related to, or in connection with, official activities of the Government. Travel allowances authorized for such persons are the same as those normally authorized for employees in connection with TDY.

Lodgings-plus per diem system—The method of computing per diem allowances for official travel in which the per diem allowance for each travel day is established on the basis of the actual amount the traveler pays for lodging, plus an allowance for meals and incidental expenses (M&IE), the total of which does not exceed the applicable maximum per diem rate for the location concerned.

Mandatory mobility agreement—Agreement requiring employee relocation to enhance career development and progression and/or achieve mission effectiveness.

Non-foreign area—The States of Alaska and Hawaii, the Commonwealths of Puerto Rico, Guam and the Northern Mariana Islands and the territories and possessions of the United States (excludes the Trust Territories of the Pacific Islands).

Official station—The official station of an employee or invitational traveler (see §301–1.2) is the location of the employee’s or invitational traveler’s permanent work assignment.

The geographic limits of the official station are:

(a) For an employee:
   (1) The corporate limits of the city or town where stationed or if not in an incorporated city or town;
   (2) The reservation, station, or other established area (including established subdivisions of large reservations) having definite boundaries where the employee is stationed.

(b) For an invitational traveler:
   (1) The corporate limits of the city or town where the home or principal place of business exists or if not in an incorporated city or town;
   (2) The reservation, station, or other established area (including established subdivisions of large reservations) having definite boundaries where the home or principal place of business is located.

Per diem allowance—The per diem allowance (also referred to as subsistence allowance) is a daily payment instead of reimbursement for actual expenses for lodging (excluding taxes), meals, and related incidental expenses. The per diem allowance is separate from transportation expenses and other miscellaneous expenses. The per diem allowance covers all charges, including any service charges where applicable for:

(a) Lodging. Includes expenses, except lodging taxes, for overnight sleeping facilities, baths, personal use of the room during daytime, telephone access fee, and service charges for fans, air conditioners, heaters and fires furnished in the room when such charges are not included in the room rate. Lodging does not include accommodations on airplanes, trains, buses, or ships. Such cost is included in the transportation cost and is not considered a lodging expense.

(b) Meals. Expenses for breakfast, lunch, dinner and related tips and taxes (specifically excluded are alcoholic beverage and entertainment expenses, and any expenses incurred for other persons).

(c) Incidental expenses. (1) Fees and tips given to porters, baggage carriers, bellhops, hotel maids, stewards or stewardesses and others on ships, and hotel servants in foreign countries.

(2) Transportation between places of lodging or business and places where meals are taken, if suitable meals can be obtained at the TDY site; and

(3) Mailing cost associated with filing travel vouchers and payment of Government-sponsored charge card billings.

Place of public accommodation—Any inn, hotel, or other establishment within a State that provides lodging to transient guests, excluding:

(a) An establishment owned by the Federal Government;
(b) An establishment treated as an apartment building by State or local law or regulation; or

(c) An establishment containing not more than 5 rooms for rent or hire that is also occupied as a residence by the proprietor of that establishment.

Post of duty—An official station outside CONUS.

Privately owned aircraft—An aircraft that is owned or leased by an employee for personal use. It is not owned, leased, chartered, or rented by a Government agency, nor is it rented or leased by an employee for use in carrying out official Government business.

Privately owned automobile—A car or light truck (including vans and pickup trucks) that is owned or leased for personal use by an individual.

Privately Owned Vehicle (POV)—Any vehicle such as an automobile, motorcycle, aircraft, or boat operated by an individual that is not owned or leased by a Government agency, and is not commercially leased or rented by an employee under a Government rental agreement for use in connection with official Government business.

Reduced per diem—Your agency may authorize a reduced per diem rate when there are known reductions in lodging and meal costs or when your subsistence costs can be determined in advance and are lower than the prescribed per diem rate.

Special conveyance—Commercially rented or hired vehicles other than a privately owned vehicle and other than those owned or under contract to an agency.

Special needs (also see Employee with a disability)—Physical characteristics of a traveler not necessarily defined under disability. Such physical characteristics could include, but are not limited to, the weight or height of the traveler.

Temporary duty (TDY) location—A place, away from an employee’s official station, where the employee is authorized to travel.

Travel advance—Prepayment of estimated travel expenses paid to an employee.

Travel authorization (Orders)—Written permission to travel on official business. There are three basic types of travel authorizations (orders):

(a) Unlimited open. An authorization allowing an employee to travel for any official purpose without further authorization.

(b) Limited open. An authorization allowing an employee to travel on official business without further authorization under certain specific conditions, i.e., travel to specific geographic area(s) for specific purpose(s), subject to trip cost ceilings, or for specific periods of time.

(c) Trip-by-trip. An authorization allowing an individual or group of individuals to take one or more specific official business trips, which must include specific purpose, itinerary, and estimated costs.

Travel claim (Voucher)—A written request, supported by documentation and receipts where applicable, for reimbursement of expenses incurred in the performance of official travel, including permanent change of station (PCS) travel.

Travel Management System (TMS)—A system to arrange travel services for Federal employees on official travel, including reservation of accommodations and ticketing. A TMS includes a travel management center, commercial ticket office, electronic travel management system, or other commercial method of arranging travel.

SUBCHAPTER B—AGENCY REQUIREMENTS

PART 300–70—AGENCY REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

Subpart A—Requirement to Report Agency Payments for Employee Travel and Relocation

Sec. 300–70.1 What are the requirements for reporting payments for employee travel and relocation?

Agencies (as defined in §301–1.1) that spent more than $5 million on travel and transportation payments, including relocation, during the fiscal year immediately preceding the survey year must report this information. Every two years GSA will distribute the Federal Agencies Travel Survey which is assigned Interagency Control No. 0362–GSA-AN. Copies of the survey may be obtained from the Director, Travel and Transportation Management Policy Division (MTT), Office of Governmentwide Policy, General Services Administration, Washington, DC 20405.

§ 300–70.2 What information must we report?

For the fiscal year reporting period you must report the following information:

(a) Estimated total agency payments for travel and transportation of people;
(b) Average costs and duration of trips;
(c) Amount of official travel by purpose(s);
(d) Estimated total agency payments for employee relocation; and
(e) Any other specific information GSA may require for the reporting period.

§ 300–70.3 How long will we have to respond to the travel survey?

The survey will specify the due date. The head of your agency must appoint a designee at the headquarters level responsible for ensuring that the survey is completed and returned to GSA by the due date. Upon receiving a survey, you must submit the designee’s name, address, and telephone number to the Director, Travel and Transportation Management Policy Division (MTT), Office of Governmentwide Policy, General Services Administration, Washington, DC 20405.

§ 300–70.4 How do we respond to the travel survey if we have major suborganizations?

If you have major suborganizations, you must submit responses as follows:

(a) A separate response from each suborganization which spent more than $5 million for travel and relocation during the fiscal year immediately preceding the survey year;
(b) A consolidated response covering all your suborganizations which did not spend more than $5 million for travel and relocation during the fiscal year immediately preceding the survey year; and
(c) A consolidated response which covers all components of your agency.

Subpart B—Requirement to Report use of First-Class Transportation Accommodations

§ 300–70.100 Who must report use of first-class transportation accommodations?
An agency as defined in § 301–1.1 of this subtitle.

§ 300–70.101 What information must we report?
All instances in which you authorized/approved the use of first-class transportation accommodations. This report has been assigned Interagency Report Control No. 0411-GSA-AN.

§ 300–70.102 How often must we report the required information?
Once every year.

§ 300–70.103 When will GSA request this information?
Generally, GSA will notify agencies during the summer months that this information is required and will indicate the date reports are due.

§ 300–70.104 Are there any exceptions to the reporting requirement?
Yes. You are not required to report data that is protected from public disclosure by statute or Executive Order. However, you are required to submit, in your cover letter to GSA, the following aggregate information unless that information is also protected from public disclosure:
(a) Aggregate number of authorized first-class trips that are protected from disclosure;
(b) Total of actual first-class fares paid; and
(c) Total of coach-class fares that would have been paid for the same travel.

Subpart C [Reserved]
§ 300–80.4

(b) If applicable, the specific provisions of the FTR from which the agency is deviating (travel and/or relocation);

(c) An analysis of the expected costs and benefits; and

(d) A set of criteria for evaluating the effectiveness of the program.

§ 300–80.4 How many test programs may be authorized by GSA throughout the government?

No more than 10 travel expense test programs and 10 relocation expense test programs may be conducted at the same time.

§ 300–80.5 What factors will GSA consider in approving a request for a travel or relocation expenses test program?

The following factors will be considered:

(a) Potential savings to the Government.

(b) Application of results to other agencies.

(c) Feasibility of successful implementation.

(d) Number of tests, if any, already authorized to the same activity.

(e) Whether the request meets the requirements of §300–80.3.

(f) Other agency requests under consideration at the time of submission.

(g) Uniqueness of proposed test.

§ 300–80.6 May the same agency be authorized to test travel and relocation expenses programs at the same time?

Yes, if authorized, both test programs may be conducted by the same agency at the same time.

§ 300–80.7 What limits are there to test programs?

None. When authorized by the Administrator of General Services, the agency may pay any necessary travel or relocation expenses in lieu of payments authorized or required under chapters 301 and 302 of this title.

§ 300–80.8 What is the maximum duration of test programs?

The test program may not exceed 24 months from the date the test is authorized to begin.

§ 300–80.9 What reports are required for a test program?

Two reports are required:

(a) The Administrator of General Services must submit a copy of an approved test program to Congress at least 30 days before the effective date of the authorized test program.

(b) The agency authorized to conduct the test program must submit a report on the results of the test program to the Administrator of General Services (Attention: MTT), 1800 F Street, NW, Washington, DC 20405, and to Congress within 3 months after completion of the program.

§ 300–80.10 When does the authority of GSA to authorize test programs expire?

The authority to conduct test programs expires on October 20, 2005.

§ 301–1.1 What is an “agency” for purposes of TDY allowances?
An agency includes
An Executive agency, as defined in 5 U.S.C. 101
A military department
An office, agency or other establishment in the legislative branch.
The Government of the District of Columbia
But does not include
A Government-controlled corporation.
A Member of Congress.
An office or committee of either House of Congress or of the two Houses.
An office, agency or other establishment in the judicial branch.

§ 301–1.2 What is an “employee” for purposes of TDY allowances?
An “employee” is:
(a) An individual employed by an agency, regardless of status or rank; or
(b) An individual employed intermittently in Government service as an expert or consultant and paid on a daily when-actually-employed (WAE) basis; or
(c) An individual serving without pay or at $1 a year (also referred to as “invitational traveler”).

§ 301–1.3 Who is eligible for TDY allowances?
This chapter covers the following individuals:
(a) Employees traveling on official business;
(b) Interviewees performing pre-employment interview travel;
(c) Employees who must interrupt official business travel to perform emergency travel as a result of an incapacitating illness or injury or a personal emergency situation; and
(d) Threatened law enforcement/investigative employees and members of their family temporarily relocated to safeguard their lives because of a threat resulting from the employee’s assigned duties.

PART 301–2—GENERAL RULES

§ 301–2.1 Must I have authorization to travel?
Yes, generally you must have written or electronic authorization prior to incurring any travel expense. If it is not practicable or possible to obtain such authorization prior to travel, your agency may approve a specific authorization for reimbursement of travel expenses after travel is completed. However, written or electronic advance authorization is required for items in §301–2.5 (c), (i), (n), and (o) of this part.

§ 301–2.2 What travel expenses may my agency pay?
Your agency may pay only those expenses essential to the transaction of official business, which include:
(a) Transportation expenses as provided in part 301–10 of this chapter;
(b) Per diem expenses as provided in part 301–11 of this chapter;
(c) Miscellaneous expenses as provided in part 301–12 of this chapter; and
(d) Travel expenses of an employee with special needs as provided in part 301–13 of this chapter.
§ 301–2.3 What standard of care must I use in incurring travel expenses?
You must exercise the same care in incurring expenses that a prudent person would exercise if traveling on personal business.

§ 301–2.4 For what travel expenses am I responsible?
You are responsible for expenses over the reimbursement limits established in this chapter. Your agency will not pay for excess costs resulting from circuitous routes, delays, or luxury accommodations or services unnecessary or unjustified in the performance of official business.

§ 301–2.5 What travel arrangements require specific authorization or prior approval?
You must have a specific authorization or prior approval for:
(a) Use of premium-class service on common carrier transportation;
(b) Use of a foreign air carrier;
(c) Use of reduced fares for group or charter arrangements;
(d) Use of cash to pay for common carrier transportation;
(e) Use of extra-fare train service;
(f) Travel by ship;
(g) Use of a rental car;
(h) Use of a Government aircraft;
(i) Payment of a reduced per diem rate;
(j) Payment of actual expense;
(k) Travel expenses related to emergency travel;
(l) Transportation expenses related to threatened law enforcement/investigative employees and members of their families;
(m) Travel expenses related to travel to a foreign area;
(n) Acceptance of payment from a non-Federal source for travel expenses, see chapter 304 of this subtitle; and
(o) Travel expenses related to attendance at a conference.

Note to §301–2.5: Paragraphs (c), (i), (n), and (o) of this section require a written or electronic advance authorization.
SUBCHAPTER B—ALLOWABLE TRAVEL EXPENSES

PART 301–10—TRANSPORTATION EXPENSES

Subpart A—General

Sec.
301–10.1 Am I eligible for payment of transportation expenses?
301–10.2 What expenses are payable as transportation?
301–10.3 What methods of transportation may my agency authorize me to use?
301–10.4 How does my agency select the method of transportation to be used?
301–10.5 What are the presumptions as to the most advantageous method of transportation?
301–10.6 What is my liability if I do not travel by the selected method of transportation?
301–10.7 How should I route my travel?
301–10.8 What is my liability if, for personal convenience I travel by an indirect route or interrupt travel by a direct route?

Subpart B—Common Carrier Transportation

301–10.100 What types of common carrier transportation may I be authorized to use?

AIRLINE
301–10.106 What are the basic requirements for using airlines?

USE OF CONTRACT CITY-PAIR FARES
301–10.107 When must I use a contract city-pair fare?
301–10.108 Are there other situations when I may use a non-contract fare?
301–10.109 What is my liability for unauthorized use of a non-contract carrier when contract service is available and I do not meet one of the exceptions for required use?
301–10.110 May I use contract passenger transportation service for personal travel?
301–10.111 When may I use a reduced group or charter fare?
301–10.112 What must I do when different airlines furnish the same service at different fares?
301–10.113 What must I do if I change or do not use a common carrier reservation?
301–10.114 What must I do with unused Government Transportation Request(s) (GTR(s)), ticket(s), or refund application(s)?
301–10.115 Am I authorized to receive a refund or credit for unused transportation?
301–10.116 What must I do with compensation an airline gives me if it denies me a seat on a plane?
301–10.117 May I keep compensation an airline gives me for voluntarily vacating my seat on my scheduled airline flight when the airline asks for volunteers?

AIRLINE ACCOMMODATIONS
301–10.121 What classes of airline accommodations are available?
301–10.122 What class of airline accommodations must I use?
301–10.123 When may I use first-class airline accommodations?
301–10.124 When may I use premium-class other than first-class airline accommodations?

USE OF UNITED STATES FLAG AIR CARRIERS
301–10.131 What does United States mean?
301–10.132 Who is required to use a U.S. flag air carrier?
301–10.133 What is a U.S. flag air carrier?
301–10.134 What is U.S. flag air carrier service?
301–10.135 When must I travel using U.S. flag air carrier service?
301–10.136 What exceptions to the Fly America Act requirements apply when I travel between the United States and another country?
301–10.137 What exceptions to the Fly America Act requirements apply when I travel solely outside the United States, and a U.S. flag air carrier provides service between my origin and destination?
301–10.138 In what circumstances is foreign air carrier service deemed a matter of necessity?
301–10.139 May I travel by a foreign air carrier if the cost of my ticket is less than traveling by a U.S. flag air carrier?
301–10.140 May I use a foreign air carrier if the service is preferred by or more convenient for my agency or me?
301–10.141 Must I provide any special certification or documents if I use a foreign air carrier?
301–10.142 What must the certification include?
301–10.143 What is my liability if I improperly use a foreign air carrier?

TRAIN
301–10.160 What classes of train accommodations are available?
301–10.161 What class of train accommodations must I use?
301–10.162 When may I use first-class train accommodations?
301–10.163 What is an extra-fare train?
§ 301-10.1 When may I use extra-fare train service?

SHIP

301–10.160 Must I travel by a U.S. flag ship?

301–10.180 What is my liability if I improperly use a foreign ship?

301–10.181 What classes of ship accommodations are available?

301–10.182 What class of ship accommodations must I use?

LOCAL TRANSIT SYSTEM

301–10.190 When may I use a local transit system (bus, subway, or streetcar)?

Subpart C—Government Vehicle

301–10.200 What types of Government vehicles may my agency authorize me to use?

301–10.201 For what purposes may I use a Government vehicle other than a Government aircraft?

301–10.202 What is my liability for unauthorized use of a Government vehicle?

GOVERNMENT AUTOMOBILES

301–10.220 What requirements must I meet to operate a Government automobile for official travel?

GOVERNMENT AIRCRAFT

301–10.260 When may I use a Government aircraft for travel?

301–10.261 What requirements must I meet to operate a Government aircraft?

301–10.262 What is my liability for unauthorized use of a Government aircraft?

Subpart D—Privately Owned Vehicle (POV)

301–10.300 When may I use a POV for official travel?

301–10.301 How do I compute my mileage reimbursement?

301–10.302 How do I determine distance measurements for my travel?

301–10.303 What am I reimbursed when use of a POV is determined by my agency to be advantageous to the Government?

301–10.304 What expenses are allowable in addition to the allowances prescribed in § 301–10.303?

301–10.305 How is reimbursement handled if another person(s) travels in a POV with me?

301–10.306 What will be reimbursed if I am authorized to use a POV instead of a taxi for round-trip travel between my residence and office on a day of travel requiring an overnight stay?

301–10.307 What will be reimbursed if I use a POV to transport other employees?

301–10.308 What will I be reimbursed if I park my POV at a common carrier terminal while I am away from my official station?

301–10.309 What will I be reimbursed if I am authorized to use common carrier transportation and I use a POV instead?

301–10.310 What will I be reimbursed if I am authorized to use a Government automobile and I use a privately owned automobile instead?

Subpart E—Special Conveyances

301–10.400 What types of special conveyances may my agency authorize me to use?

301–10.401 What types of charges are reimbursable for use of a special conveyance?

301–10.402 What will I be reimbursed if I am authorized to use a special conveyance and I use a POV instead?

301–10.403 What is the difference between a Government aircraft and an aircraft hired as a special conveyance?

TAXICABS, SHUTTLE SERVICES, OR OTHER COURTESY TRANSPORTATION

301–10.420 When may I use a taxi or shuttle service?

301–10.421 How much will my agency reimburse me for a tip to a taxi, shuttle service, or courtesy transportation driver?

RENTAL AUTOMOBILES

301–10.450 When can I use a rental vehicle?

301–10.451 May I be reimbursed for the cost of collision damage waiver (CDW) or theft insurance?

301–10.452 May I be reimbursed for personal accident insurance?

301–10.453 What is my liability for unauthorized use of a rental automobile obtained with Government funds?

SOURCE: FTR Amdt. 70, 63 FR 15955, Apr. 1, 1998, unless otherwise noted.

Subpart A—General

§ 301–10.1 Am I eligible for payment of transportation expenses?

Yes, when performing official travel, including local travel.

§ 301–10.2 What expenses are payable as transportation?

Fares, rental fees, mileage payments, and other expenses related to transportation.
§ 301–10.3 What methods of transportation may my agency authorize me to use?

Your agency may authorize:
(a) Common carrier transportation (e.g., aircraft, train, bus, ship, or local transit system) under Subpart B;
(b) Government vehicle under Subpart C;
(c) POV under Subpart D; or
(d) Special conveyance (e.g., taxi or commercial automobile) under Subpart E.

§ 301–10.4 How does my agency select the method of transportation to be used?

Your agency must select the method most advantageous to the Government, when cost and other factors are considered. Under 5 U.S.C. 5733, travel must be by the most expeditious means of transportation practicable and commensurate with the nature and purpose of your duties. In addition, your agency must consider energy conservation, total cost to the Government (including costs of per diem, overtime, lost worktime, and actual transportation costs), total distance traveled, number of points visited, and number of travelers.

§ 301–10.5 What are the presumptions as to the most advantageous method of transportation?

(a) Common carrier. Travel by common carrier is presumed to be the most advantageous method of transportation and must be used when reasonably available.

(b) Government automobile. When your agency determines that your travel must be performed by automobile, a Government automobile is presumed to be the most advantageous method of transportation.

§ 301–10.6 What is my liability if I do not travel by the selected method of transportation?

If you do not travel by the method of transportation required by regulation or selected by your agency, any additional expenses you incur will be borne by you.

§ 301–10.7 How should I route my travel?

You must travel to your destination by the usually traveled route unless your agency authorizes or approves a different route as officially necessary.

§ 301–10.8 What is my liability if, for personal convenience, I travel by an indirect route or interrupt travel by a direct route?

Your reimbursement will be limited to the cost of travel by a direct route or on an uninterrupted basis. You will be responsible for any additional costs.

Subpart B—Common Carrier Transportation

§ 301–10.100 What types of common carrier transportation may I be authorized to use?

You may be authorized to use airline, train, ship, bus, or local transit system.

AIRLINE

§ 301–10.106 What are the basic requirements for using airlines?

The requirements for using airlines fall into three categories:
(a) Using contract carriers, when available;
(b) Using coach class service, unless premium class or first-class service is authorized;
(c) Using U.S. flag air carrier or (ship) service, unless use of foreign air carrier or (ship) is authorized.

[63 FR 15955, Apr. 1, 1998; 63 FR 35537, June 30, 1998]

USE OF CONTRACT CITY-PAIR FARES

§ 301–10.107 When must I use a contract city-pair fare?

You must always use a contract city-pair fare (an Internet list of city-pairs is available at http://pub.fss.gsa.gov/services/citypairs), if you are a civilian employee of an agency (see §301–1.1 of this chapter), unless one or more of the following conditions exist(s):
(a) Space or a scheduled contract flight is not available in time to accomplish the purpose of your travel, or use of contract service would require you to incur unnecessary overnight
§ 301–10.108 Are there other situations when I may use a non-contract fare?

You may also use a non-contract fare such as a through fare, special fare, commutation fare, excursion fare or reduced-rate round-trip fare in the following circumstances:

(a) Your agency determines prior to your travel that this type of service is practical and economical to the Government; and

(b) In the case of a fare that is restricted or has specific eligibility requirements, you know or reasonably can anticipate, based on the travel as planned, that you will use the ticket.

Note to Paragraph (c): This exception does not apply if the contract carrier offers a comparable fare and has seats available at that fare, or if the lower fare offered by a noncontract carrier is restricted to Government and military travelers on official business and may only be purchased with a GTR, contractor-issued charge card, or centrally billed account (e.g., YDG, MDG, ODG, VDG, and similar fares); or

(d) Rail service is available and such service is cost effective and consistent with mission requirements; or

(e) Smoking is permitted on the contract flight and the nonsmoking section of the aircraft for the contract flight is not acceptable to you.

[FTR Amdt. 84, 64 FR 29162, May 28, 1999]

§ 301–10.109 What is my liability for unauthorized use of a non-contract carrier when contract service is available and I do not meet one of the exceptions for required use?

Any additional costs or penalties incurred by you resulting from unauthorized use of non-contract service are borne by you.

§ 301–10.110 May I use contract passenger transportation service for personal travel?

No.

§ 301–10.111 When may I use a reduced group or charter fare?

You may use a reduced group or charter fare when your agency has determined on an individual case basis prior to your travel that use of such a fare is economical to the Government and will not interfere with the conduct of official business.

§ 301–10.112 What must I do when different airlines furnish the same service at different fares?

When there is no contract fare, and common carriers furnish the same service at different fares between the same points for the same type of accommodations, you must use the lowest cost service unless your agency determines that the use of higher cost service is more advantageous to the Government.

If you know you will change or not use your reservation, you must take action to change or cancel it as prescribed by your agency. Also, you must report all changes of your reservation according to your agency’s procedures in an effort to prevent losses to the Government. Failure to do so may subject you to liability for any resulting losses.
§ 301–10.114 What must I do with unused Government Transportation Request(s) (GTR(s)), ticket(s) or refund application(s)?

You must submit any unused GTR(s), unused ticket coupon(s), or refund application(s) to your agency in accordance with your agency’s procedures.

§ 301–10.115 Am I authorized to receive a refund or credit for unused transportation?

No. You are not authorized to receive a refund, credit, or any other negotiable document from a carrier for unfurnished services (except as provided in § 301–10.117) or any portion of an unused ticket issued in exchange for a GTR or billed to an agency’s centrally billed account. However, any charges billed directly to your individually billed Government charge card should be credited to your account.

§ 301–10.116 What must I do with compensation an airline gives me if it denies me a seat on a plane?

If you are performing official travel and a carrier denies you a confirmed reserved seat on a plane, you must give your agency any payment you receive for liquidated damages. You must ensure the carrier shows the “Treasurer of the United States” as payee on the compensation check and then forward the payment to the appropriate agency official.

§ 301–10.117 May I keep compensation an airline gives me for voluntarily vacating my seat on my scheduled airline flight when the airline asks for volunteers?

Yes:
(a) If voluntarily vacating your seat will not interfere with performing your official duties; and
(b) If additional travel expenses, incurred as a result of vacating your seat, are borne by you and are not reimbursed; but
(c) If volunteering delays your travel during duty hours, your agency will charge you with annual leave for the additional hours.

§ 301–10.121 What classes of airline accommodations are available?

(a) Coach-class—The basic class of accommodations offered to travelers that is available to all passengers regardless of fare paid. This term applies when an airline offers two or more classes of accommodations, which includes tourist or economy.
(b) Premium-class—Any class of accommodations above coach, e.g., first or business.
(c) First-class—The highest class of accommodations on a multiple-class airline flight. When an airline flight only has two classes of accommodations, the higher-class, regardless of the term used for that class, is considered to be first class.
(d) Premium-class other than first-class—Any class of accommodations between coach-class and first-class, e.g., business-class.
(e) Single-class—This term applies when an airline offers only one class of accommodation to all travelers.

§ 301–10.122 What class of airline accommodations must I use?

For official business travel, both domestic and international, you must use coach-class accommodations, except as provided under §§ 301–10.123 and 301–10.124.

§ 301–10.123 When may I use first-class airline accommodations?

Only when your agency specifically authorizes/approves your use of first-class accommodations under paragraph (a) through (d) of this section.

(a) No other coach-class or premium-class other than first-class accommodation is reasonably available. “Reasonably available” means available on an airline that is scheduled to leave within 24 hours of your proposed departure time, or scheduled to arrive within 24 hours of your proposed arrival time.
(b) When use of first-class is necessary to accommodate a disability or other special need. A disability must be substantiated in writing by a competent medical authority. A special need must be substantiated in writing according to your agency’s procedures.
§ 301–10.124 When may I use premium-class other than first-class airline accommodations?

Only when your agency specifically authorizes/approves your use of such accommodations under paragraphs (a) through (j) of this section:

(a) Regularly scheduled flights between origin/destination points (including connecting points) provide only premium-class accommodations and you certify such on your voucher; or

(b) No space is available in coach-class accommodations in time to accomplish the mission, which is urgent and cannot be postponed; or

(c) When use of premium-class other than first-class accommodations is necessary to accommodate your disability or other special need. Disability must be substantiated in writing by a competent medical authority. Special need must be substantiated in writing according to your agency’s procedures.

If you are authorized under §301–13.3(a) of this chapter to have an attendant accompany you, your agency also may authorize the attendant to use premium-class other than first-class accommodations if you require the attendant’s services en route;

(d) Security purposes or exceptional circumstances as determined by your agency make the use of premium-class other than first-class accommodations essential to the successful performance of the agency’s mission; or

(e) Coach-class accommodations on an authorized/approved foreign air carrier do not provide adequate sanitation or health standards; or

(f) The use results in an overall cost savings to the Government by avoiding additional subsistence costs, overtime, or lost productive time while awaiting coach-class accommodations; or

(g) You are able to obtain the accommodations as an upgrade through the redemption of frequent traveler benefits in accordance with your agency’s policies; or

(h) Your transportation costs are paid in full through agency acceptance of payment from a non-federal source in accordance with chapter 304 of this title; or

(i) Where the origin and/or destination is OCONUS and the scheduled flight time is in excess of 14 hours. In this instance you will not be eligible for a rest stop en route or a rest period upon arrival at your duty site;

(j) When required because of agency mission.

[FTR Amdt. 70, 63 FR 15955, Apr. 1, 1998, as amended by FTR Amdt. 87, 64 FR 67670, Dec. 2, 1999] include a foreign air carrier operating under a permit.

§ 301–10.134 What is U.S. flag air carrier service?

U.S. flag air carrier service is service provided on an air carrier which holds a certificate under 49 U.S.C. 4102 and which service is authorized either by the carrier’s certificate or by exemption or regulation. U.S. flag air carrier service also includes service provided under a code share agreement with a foreign air carrier in accordance with Title 14, Code of Federal Regulations when the ticket, or documentation for an electronic ticket, identifies the U.S. flag air carrier’s designator code and flight number.

§ 301–10.135 When must I travel using U.S. flag air carrier service?

You are required by 49 U.S.C. 40118, commonly referred to as the “Fly America Act,” to use U.S. flag air carrier service for all air travel funded by the U.S. Government, except as provided in §301–10.136 and §301–10.137 or when one of the following exceptions applies:

(a) Use of a foreign air carrier is determined to be a matter of necessity in accordance with §301–10.136; or

(b) The transportation is provided under a bilateral or multilateral air transportation agreement to which the United States Government is a party, and which the Department of Transportation has determined meets the requirements of the Fly America Act; or

(c) You are an officer or employee of the Department of State, United States Information Agency, United States International Development Cooperation Agency, or the Arms Control Disarmament Agency, and your travel is paid with funds appropriated to one of these agencies, and your travel is between two places outside the United States; or

(d) No U.S. flag air carrier provides service on a particular leg of the route, in which case foreign air carrier service may be used, but only to or from the nearest interchange point on a usually traveled route to connect with U.S. flag air carrier service; or

(e) A U.S. flag air carrier involuntarily reroutes your travel on a foreign air carrier; or

(f) Service on a foreign air carrier would be three hours or less, and use of the U.S. flag air carrier would at least double your en route travel time; or

(g) When the costs of transportation are reimbursed in full by a third party, such as a foreign government, international agency, or other organization.

§ 301–10.136 What exceptions to the Fly America Act requirements apply when I travel between the United States and another country?

The exceptions are:

(a) If a U.S. flag air carrier offers nonstop or direct service (no aircraft change) from your origin to your destination, you must use the U.S. flag air carrier service unless such use would extend your travel time, including delay at origin, by 24 hours or more.

(b) If a U.S. flag air carrier does not offer nonstop or direct service (no aircraft change) between your origin and your destination, you must use a U.S. flag air carrier on every portion of the route where it provides service unless, when compared to using a foreign air carrier, such use would:

(1) Increase the number of aircraft changes you must make outside of the U.S. by 2 or more; or

(2) Extend your travel time by at least 6 hours or more; or

(3) Require a connecting time of 4 hours or more at an overseas interchange point.

§ 301–10.137 What exceptions to the Fly America Act requirements apply when I travel solely outside the United States, and a U.S. flag air carrier provides service between my origin and my destination?

You must always use a U.S. flag carrier for such travel, unless, when compared to using a foreign air carrier, such use would:

(a) Increase the number of aircraft changes you must make en route by 2 or more; or

(b) Extend your travel time by 6 hours or more; or

(c) Require a connecting time of 4 hours or more at an overseas interchange point.
§ 301–10.138 In what circumstances is foreign air carrier service deemed a matter of necessity?

(a) Foreign air carrier service is deemed a necessity when service by a U.S. flag air carrier is available, but

(1) Cannot provide the air transportation needed; or

(2) Will not accomplish the agency's mission.

(b) Necessity includes, but is not limited to, the following circumstances:

(1) When the agency determines that use of a foreign air carrier is necessary for medical reasons, including use of foreign air carrier service to reduce the number of connections and possible delays in the transportation of persons in need of medical treatment; or

(2) When use of a foreign air carrier is required to avoid an unreasonable risk to your safety and is approved by your agency (e.g., terrorist threats). Written approval of the use of foreign air carrier service based on an unreasonable risk to your safety must be approved by your agency on a case by case basis; or

(3) When you cannot purchase a ticket in your authorized class of service on a U.S. flag air carrier, and a seat is available in your authorized class of service on a foreign air carrier.

§ 301–10.139 May I travel by a foreign air carrier if the cost of my ticket is less than traveling by a U.S. flag air carrier?

No. Foreign air carrier service may not be used solely based on the cost of your ticket.

§ 301–10.140 May I use a foreign air carrier if the service is preferred by or more convenient for my agency or me?

No. You must use U.S. flag air carrier service, unless you meet one of the exceptions in § 301–10.135, § 301–10.136, or § 301–10.137 or unless foreign air carrier service is deemed a matter of necessity under § 301–10.138.

§ 301–10.141 Must I provide any special certification or documents if I use a foreign air carrier?

Yes, you must provide a certification, as required in § 301–10.143 and any other documents required by your agency. Your agency cannot pay your foreign air carrier fare if you do not provide the required certification.

§ 301–10.142 What must the certification include?

The certification must include:

(a) Your name;

(b) The dates that you traveled;

(c) The origin and the destination of your travel;

(d) A detailed itinerary of your travel, name of the air carrier and flight number for each leg of the trip; and

(e) A statement explaining why you met one of the exceptions in § 301–10.135, § 301–10.136, or § 301–10.137 or a copy of your agency’s written approval that foreign air carrier service was deemed a matter of necessity in accordance with § 301–10.138.

§ 301–10.143 What is my liability if I improperly use a foreign air carrier?

You will not be reimbursed for any transportation cost for which you improperly use foreign air carrier service. If you are authorized by your agency to use U.S. flag air carrier service for your entire trip, and you improperly use a foreign air carrier for any part of or the entire trip (i.e., when not permitted under this regulation), your transportation cost on the foreign air carrier will not be payable by your agency. If your agency authorizes you to use U.S. flag air carrier service for part of your trip and foreign air carrier service for another part of your trip, and you improperly use a foreign air carrier (i.e., when neither authorized to do so nor otherwise permitted under this regulation), your agency will pay the transportation cost on the foreign air carrier for only the portion(s) of the trip for which you were authorized to use foreign air carrier service. The agency must establish internal procedures for denying reimbursement to travelers when use of a foreign air carrier was neither authorized nor otherwise permitted under this regulation.

§ 301–10.160 What classes of train accommodations are available?

(a) Coach-class—The basic class of accommodations offered by a rail carrier to passengers that includes a level of service available to all passengers regardless of the fare paid. Coach-class includes reserved coach accommodations as well as slumber coach accommodations when overnight train travel is involved.

(b) Slumber coach—Includes slumber coach accommodations on trains offering such accommodations, or the lowest level of sleeping accommodations available on a train that does not offer slumber coach accommodations.

(c) First-class—Includes bedrooms, roomettes, club service, parlor car accommodations, or other premium accommodations.

§ 301–10.161 What class of train accommodations must I use?

You must use coach-class accommodations for all train travel, except when your agency authorizes first-class service.

§ 301–10.162 When may I use first-class train accommodations?

Only when your agency specifically authorizes/approves your use of first-class train accommodations under paragraphs (a) through (d) of this section.

(a) No coach-class accommodations are reasonably available. “Reasonably available” means available and scheduled to arrive within 24 hours of the employee’s proposed departure time, or scheduled to arrive within 24 hours of the employee’s proposed arrival time.

(b) When use of first-class is necessary to accommodate a disability or other special need. A disability must be substantiated in writing by competent medical authority. A special need must be substantiated in writing according to your agency’s procedures. If you are authorized under §301–13.3(a) of this chapter to have an attendant accompany you, your agency also may authorize the attendant to use first-class accommodations if you require the attendant’s services en route.

(c) When exceptional security circumstances require first-class travel. Exceptional security circumstances include, but are not limited to:

(1) Use of other than first-class accommodations would endanger your life or Government property;

(2) You are an agent on protective detail and you are accompanying an individual authorized to use first-class accommodations; or

(3) You are a courier or control officer accompanying controlled pouches or packages.

(d) Inadequate foreign coach-class train accommodations. When coach-class train accommodations on a foreign rail carrier do not provide adequate sanitation or health standards.

§ 301–10.163 What is an extra-fare train?

A train that operates at an increased fare due to the extra performance of the train (i.e., faster speed or fewer stops).

§ 301–10.164 When may I use extra-fare train service?

You may travel coach-class on an extra-fare train whenever your agency determines it is more advantageous to the Government or is required for security reasons. The use of AMTRAK Metroliner coach accommodations is advantageous to the Government; AMTRAK Metroliner Club Service, however, is a first-class accommodation and may be authorized/approved only as provided in §301–10.162.

§ 301–10.180 Must I travel by a U.S. flag ship?
Yes, when a U.S. flag ship is available unless the necessity of the mission requires the use of a foreign ship. (See 46 U.S.C. App. Sec. 1241.)

§ 301–10.181 What is my liability if I improperly use a foreign ship?
You are required to travel by U.S. flag ship for the entire trip, unless use of a foreign ship has been authorized by your agency. Any cost that is attributed to improper or unauthorized use of a foreign ship is your responsibility.

§ 301–10.182 What classes of ship accommodations are available?
Accommodations on ships vary according to deck levels.

(a) First-class—All classes above the lowest first class, includes but is not limited to a suite.

(b) Lowest first class—The least expensive first class of reserved accommodations available on a ship.

§ 301–10.183 What class of ship accommodations must I use?
You must use the lowest first class accommodations when traveling by ship, except when your agency specifically authorizes/approves your use of first-class ship accommodations under paragraphs (a) through (c) of this section.

(a) Lowest first class accommodations are not available on the ship.

(b) When use of first-class is necessary to accommodate a disability or other special need. Disability must be substantiated in writing by competent medical authority. Special need must be substantiated in writing according to your agency’s procedures. If you are authorized under §301–13.3(a) of this chapter to have an attendant accompany you, your agency also may authorize the attendant to use first-class accommodations if you require the attendant’s services en route.

(c) When exceptional security circumstances require first-class travel. Exceptional security circumstances include, but are not limited to:

(1) The use of lowest first class accommodations would endanger your life or Government property; or

(2) You are an agent on protective detail and you are accompanying an individual authorized to use first-class accommodations; or

(3) You are a courier or control officer accompanying controlled pouches or packages.

Local Transit System

§ 301–10.190 When may I use a local transit system (bus, subway, or streetcar)?

(a) To, from, and between places of work. The use of bus, subway, or streetcar is an allowable expense for local travel between places of business at your official station or a TDY station, and between places of lodging and place of business at a TDY station.

(b) To places where meals can be obtained. Where the nature and location of the work at your TDY station are such that meals cannot be obtained there, travel to obtain meals at the nearest available place is an allowable expense. You must, however, attach a statement to your travel voucher explaining why such travel was necessary.

Subpart C—Government Vehicle

§ 301–10.200 What types of Government vehicles may my agency authorize me to use?
You may be authorized to use:

(a) A Government automobile in accordance with §301–10.220;

(b) A Government aircraft in accordance with §301–10.260 through §301–10.262 of this part; and

(c) Other type of Government vehicle in accordance with any Government-issued rules governing its use.

§ 301–10.201 For what purposes may I use a Government vehicle other than a Government aircraft?

Only for official purposes which include transportation:

(a) Between places of official business;
Temp. Duty Travel Allowances

(b) Between such places and places of temporary lodging when public transportation is unavailable or its use is impractical;

(c) Between either paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section and restaurants, drug stores, barber shops, places of worship, cleaning establishments, and similar places necessary for the sustenance, comfort, or health of the employee to foster the continued efficient performance of Government business; or

(d) As otherwise authorized by your agency under 31 U.S.C. 1344.

§ 301–10.202 What is my liability for unauthorized use of a Government vehicle?
You are responsible for any additional cost resulting from unauthorized use of a Government vehicle and you may be subject to administrative and/or criminal liability for misuse of Government property.

GOVERNMENT AUTOMOBILES

§ 301–10.220 What requirements must I meet to operate a Government automobile for official travel?
You must possess a valid State, District of Columbia, or territorial motor vehicle operator’s license and have a travel authorization specifically authorizing the use of a Government-furnished automobile.

GOVERNMENT AIRCRAFT

§ 301–10.260 When may I use a Government aircraft for travel?
Only for official purposes in accordance with 41 CFR 101–37.402.

§ 301–10.261 What requirements must I meet to operate a Government aircraft?
You must meet the aircrew qualification and certification requirements contained in 41 CFR 101–37.1212.

§ 301–10.262 What is my liability for unauthorized use of a Government aircraft?
You will be personally responsible for any additional cost resulting from unauthorized use of the aircraft as provided in 41 CFR 101–37.402 and 101–37.403, and you may be subject to administrative and/or criminal liability for misuse of Government property.

Subpart D—Privately Owned Vehicle (POV)

§ 301–10.300 When may I use a POV for official travel?
When authorized by your agency.

§ 301–10.301 How do I compute my mileage reimbursement?
You compute mileage reimbursement by multiplying the distance traveled, determined under §301–10.302 of this subpart by the applicable mileage rate prescribed in §301–10.303 of this subpart.

§ 301–10.302 How do I determine distance measurements for my travel?

§ 301–10.305 How is reimbursement handled if another person(s) travels in a POV with me?

If another employee(s) travels with you on the same trip in the same POV, mileage is payable to only one of you. No deduction will be made from your mileage allowance if other passengers contribute to defraying your expenses.

§ 301–10.306 What will be reimbursed if I am authorized to use a POV instead of a taxi for round-trip travel between my residence and office on a day of travel requiring an overnight stay?

If determined advantageous to the Government, you will be reimbursed on a mileage basis plus other allowable costs for round-trip travel on the beginning and/or ending of travel between the points involved.

§ 301–10.307 What will I be reimbursed if I use a POV to transport other employees?

Using a POV to transport other employees is strictly voluntary and you may be reimbursed in accordance with §301–10.305.

§ 301–10.308 What will I be reimbursed if I park my POV at a common carrier terminal while I am away from my official station?

Your agency may reimburse your parking fee as an allowable transportation expense not to exceed the cost of taxi fare to/from the terminal.

§ 301–10.309 What will I be reimbursed if I am authorized to use common carrier transportation and I use a POV instead?

You will be reimbursed on a mileage basis (see §301–10.303), plus per diem, not to exceed the total constructive cost of the authorized method of common carrier transportation plus per diem. Your agency must determine the constructive cost of transportation and per diem by common carrier under the rules in §301–10.310.

§ 301–10.310 What will I be reimbursed if I am authorized to use a Government automobile and I use a privately owned automobile instead?

(a) Reimbursement based on Government costs—Unless you are committed to using a Government vehicle as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, your reimbursement will be limited to the cost that would be incurred for use of a Government automobile, which in CONUS is 28.5 cents per mile. If your agency determines the cost of providing a Government automobile would be higher because of unusual circumstances, it may allow reimbursement not to exceed the mileage rate provided in §301–10.303 for a privately owned automobile.

In addition, you may be reimbursed other allowable expenses as provided in §301–10.304.

(b) Partial reimbursement when you are committed to use a Government owned automobile—When you are committed to use a Government automobile or would not ordinarily be authorized to use a privately owned automobile due to the availability of a Government automobile, but nevertheless request to use a privately owned automobile, you will be reimbursed 10.5 cents per mile. This is the approximate cost of operating a Government automobile, fixed costs excluded. In addition, parking fees, bridge, road and tunnel fees, not to exceed the constructive cost of the special conveyance.

§301–10.403 What is the difference between a Government aircraft and an aircraft hired as a special conveyance?

A Government aircraft is any aircraft owned, leased, chartered, or rented and operated by the Government. An aircraft hired as a special conveyance is an aircraft that you, in your private capacity, rent, lease, or charter and operate.

TAXICABS, SHUTTLE SERVICES, OR OTHER COURTESY TRANSPORTATION

§301–10.420 When may I use a taxi or shuttle service?

(a) For local travel. When your agency authorizes/approves the use of a taxi for the following, local travel is reimbursable:

(1) Between places of business at an official or TDY station;
(2) Between a place of lodging and a place of business at a temporary duty station; and
(3) To obtain meals at the nearest available place where the nature and location of the work at a TDY station are such that meals cannot be obtained there.

(b) To and from a carrier terminal. (1) General authorization. Except as provided in paragraph (b)(2) of this section, you will be reimbursed the usual fare plus tip for use of a taxicab or shuttle services in the following situations:

(i) Between a common carrier or other terminal and either your home or place of business at your official station, or your place of business or lodging at a TDY station; or
(ii) Between the carrier terminal and shuttle terminal.

(2) Courtesy transportation. You should use courtesy transportation service furnished by hotels/motels to the maximum extent possible as a first § 301–10.421 How much will my agency reimburse me for a tip to a taxi, shuttle service, or courtesy transportation driver?

An amount which your agency determines to be reasonable.

Rental Automobiles

§ 301–10.450 When can I use a rental vehicle?

Your agency must determine that use of a rental vehicle is advantageous to the Government and must specifically authorize such use.

§ 301–10.451 May I be reimbursed for the cost of collision damage waiver (CDW) or theft insurance?

(a) General rule—no. You will not be reimbursed for CDW or theft insurance for travel within CONUS for the following reasons:

(1) The Government is a self-insurer.

(2) Rental vehicles available under agreement(s) with the Government includes full coverage insurance for damages resulting from an accident while performing official travel.

(3) Any deductible amount paid by you may be reimbursed directly to you or directly to the rental agency if the damage occurred while you were performing official business.

(b) Exception. You will be reimbursed for collision damage waiver or theft insurance when you travel outside CONUS and such insurance is necessary because the rental or leasing agency requirements, foreign statute, or legal procedures could cause extreme difficulty for an employee involved in an accident.

§ 301–10.452 May I be reimbursed for personal accident insurance?

No. That is a personal expense and is not reimbursable.

§ 301–10.453 What is my liability for unauthorized use of a rental automobile obtained with Government funds?

You are responsible for any additional cost resulting from the unauthorized use of a commercial rental automobile for other than official travel-related purposes.

PART 301–11—PER DIEM EXPENSES

Subpart A—General Rules

Sec. 301–11.1 When am I eligible for an allowance (per diem or actual expense)?
Temp. Duty Travel Allowances

301–11.2 Will I be reimbursed for per diem expenses if my official travel is 12 hours or less?
301–11.3 Must my agency pay an allowance (either a per diem allowance or actual expense)?
301–11.4 May I be reimbursed actual expense and per diem on the same trip?
301–11.5 How will my per diem expenses be reimbursed?
301–11.6 Where do I find maximum per diem and actual expense rates?
301–11.7 What determines my maximum per diem reimbursement rate?
301–11.8 What is the maximum per diem rate I will receive if lodging is not available at my TDY location?
301–11.9 When does per diem or actual expense entitlement start/stop?
301–11.10 Am I required to record departure/arrival dates and times on my travel claim?
301–11.11 May I stay in a lodging facility of my choice?
301–11.12 How does the type of lodging I select affect my reimbursement?
301–11.13 How does sharing a room with another person affect my per diem reimbursement?
301–11.14 How is my daily lodging rate computed when I rent lodging on a long-term basis?
301–11.15 What expenses may be considered part of the daily lodging cost when I rent on a long-term basis?
301–11.16 What reimbursement will I receive if I prepay my lodging expenses and my TDY is curtailed, canceled, or interrupted for official purposes or for other reasons beyond my control that are acceptable to my agency?
301–11.17 If my agency authorizes per diem reimbursement, will it reduce my M&IE allowance for a meal(s) provided by a common carrier or for a complimentary meal(s) provided by a hotel/motel?
301–11.18 What M&IE rate will I receive if a meal(s) is furnished at nominal or no cost by the Government or is included in the registration fee?
301–11.19 How is my per diem calculated when I travel across the international dateline (IDL)?
301–11.20 May my agency authorize a rest period for me while I am traveling?
301–11.21 Will I be reimbursed for per diem or actual expenses on leave or non-workdays (weekend, legal Federal Government holiday, or other scheduled non-workdays) while I am on official travel?
301–11.22 Am I entitled to per diem or actual expense reimbursement if I am required to return to my official station on a non-workday?
301–11.23 Are there any other circumstances when my agency may reimburse me to return home or to my official station for non-workdays during a TDY assignment?
301–11.24 What reimbursement will I receive if I voluntarily return home or to my official station on non-workdays during my TDY assignment?
301–11.25 Must I provide receipts to substantiate my claimed travel expenses?
301–11.26 How do I get a per diem rate increased?
301–11.27 Are taxes included in the lodging portion of the Government per diem rate?
301–11.28 As a traveler on official business, am I required to pay applicable lodging taxes?
301–11.29 Are lodging facilities required to accept a generic federal, state or local tax exempt certificate?
301–11.30 What is my option if the Government lodging rate exceeds my lodging reimbursement?
301–11.31 Are laundry, cleaning and pressing of clothing expenses reimbursable?

Subpart B—Lodgings-Plus Per Diem

301–11.100 What will I be paid for lodging under Lodgings-plus per diem?
301–11.101 What allowance will I be paid for M&IE?
301–11.102 What is the applicable M&IE rate?
301–11.200 Under what circumstances may my agency prescribe a reduced per diem rate lower than the prescribed maximum?

Subpart C—Reduced Per Diem

301–11.300 When is actual expense reimbursement warranted?
301–11.301 Who in my agency can authorize/approve my request for actual expense?
301–11.302 When should I request authorization for reimbursement under actual expense?
301–11.303 What is the maximum amount that I may be reimbursed under actual expense?
301–11.304 What if my expenses are less than the authorized amount?
301–11.305 What if my actual expenses exceed the 300 percent ceiling?
301–11.306 What expenses am I required to itemize under actual expense?

Subpart E—Income Tax Reimbursement Allowance (ITRA), Tax Years 1993 and 1994

§ 301-11.1 When am I eligible for an allowance (per diem or actual expense)?

When:
§ 301–11.2 Will I be reimbursed for per diem expenses if my official travel is 12 hours or less?

No.

§ 301–11.3 Must my agency pay an allowance (either a per diem allowance or actual expense)?

Yes, unless:

(a) You perform travel to a training event under the Government Employees Training Act (5 U.S.C. 4101–4118), and you agree not to be paid per diem expenses; or

(b) You perform pre-employment interview travel, and the interviewing agency does not authorize payment of per diem expenses.

§ 301–11.4 May I be reimbursed actual expense and per diem on the same trip?

Yes, you may be reimbursed both actual expense and per diem during a single trip, but only one method of reimbursement may be authorized for any given calendar day except as provided in §301–11.305 or §301–11.306. Your agency must determine when the transition between the reimbursement methods occurs.

§ 301–11.5 How will my per diem expenses be reimbursed?

Per diem expenses will be reimbursed by the:

(a) Lodgings–plus per diem method;

(b) Reduced per diem method;

(c) Conference lodging allowance method (see §§301–74.7 and 301–74.22 of this chapter); or

(d) Actual expense method.

§ 301–11.6 Where do I find maximum per diem and actual expense rates?

For Per Diem see Federal Travel Regulation 41 CFR chapter 301, Appendix A, or Internet at http://Policyworks.gov/ perdiem; for actual expense see 41 CFR 301–11.303 and 301–11.305. A per diem supplement to section 925, Department of State Standardized Regulations (Government Civilians–Foreign Areas). Per Diem Bulletins issued by PDTATAC and published periodically in the FEDERAL REGISTER or Internet at http://www. dtic.mil/perdiem (Rates also appear in section 925 of a per diem supplement to the Department of State Standardized Regulations (Government Civilians–Foreign Areas)).

§ 301–11.7 What determines my maximum per diem reimbursement rate?

Your TDY location determines your maximum per diem reimbursement rate. If you arrive at your lodging location after 12 midnight, you claim lodging cost for the preceding calendar day. If no lodging is required, the applicable M&IE reimbursement rate is the rate for the TDY location. (See §301–11.102.)

§ 301–11.8 What is the maximum per diem rate I will receive if lodging is not available at my TDY location?

If lodging is not available at your TDY location, your agency may authorize or approve the maximum per diem rate for the location where lodging is obtained.

§ 301–11.9 When does per diem or actual expense entitlement start/stop?

Your per diem or actual expense entitlement starts on the day you depart your home, office, or other authorized point and ends on the day you return.

[FTR Amdt. 89, 65 FR 1327, Jan. 10, 2000]
§ 301–11.10

to your home, office or other authorized point.

§ 301–11.10  Am I required to record departure/arrival dates and times on my travel claim?

You must record the date of departure from, and arrival at, the official station or any other place travel begins or ends. You must show this same information for points where you perform TDY or for a stopover or official rest stop location when the arrival or departure affects your per diem allowance or other travel expenses. You also should show the dates for other points visited. You do not have to record departure/arrival times, but you must annotate your travel claim when your travel is more than 12 hours but not exceeding 24 hours to reflect that fact.

§ 301–11.11  May I stay in a lodging facility of my choice?

Yes. You are encouraged to stay in lodging facilities that have been approved by FEMA as “approved accommodations”. To ensure that you are staying in an approved facility, given the best available choices and/or obtaining Government discount rates, you are further encouraged to make lodging arrangement through your agency’s TMS.

§ 301–11.12  How does the type of lodging I select affect my reimbursement?

Your agency will reimburse you for different types of lodging as follows:

(a) Conventional lodgings. (Hotel/motel, boarding house, etc.) You will be reimbursed the single occupancy rate.

(b) Government quarters. You will be reimbursed, as a lodging expense, the fee or service charge you pay for use of the quarters.

(c) Lodging with friend(s) or relative(s) (with or without charge). You may be reimbursed for additional costs your host incurs in accommodating you only if you are able to substantiate the costs and your agency determines them to be reasonable. You will not be reimbursed the cost of comparable conventional lodging in the area or a flat “token” amount.

(d) Nonconventional lodging. You may be reimbursed the cost of other types of lodging when there are no conventional lodging facilities in the area (e.g., in remote areas) or when conventional facilities are in short supply because of an influx of attendees at a special event (e.g., World’s Fair or international sporting event). Such lodging includes college dormitories or similar facilities or rooms not offered commercially but made available to the public by area residents in their homes.

(e) Recreational vehicle (trailer/camper). You may be reimbursed for expenses (parking fees, fees for connection, use, and disconnection of utilities, electricity, gas, water and sewage, bath or shower fees, and dumping fees) which may be considered as a lodging cost.

§ 301–11.13  How does sharing a room with another person affect my per diem reimbursement?

Your reimbursement is limited to one-half of the double occupancy rate if the person sharing the room is another Government employee on official travel. If the person sharing the room is not a Government employee on official travel, your reimbursement is limited to the single occupancy rate.

§ 301–11.14  How is my daily lodging rate computed when I rent lodging on a long-term basis?

When you obtain lodging on a long-term basis (e.g., weekly or monthly) your daily lodging rate is computed by dividing the total lodging cost by the number of days of occupancy for which you are entitled to per diem, provided the cost does not exceed the daily rate of conventional lodging. Otherwise the daily lodging cost is computed by dividing the total lodging cost by the number of days in the rental period. Reimbursement, including an appropriate amount for M&IE, may not exceed the maximum daily per diem rate for the TDY location.

§ 301–11.15  What expenses may be considered part of the daily lodging cost when I rent lodging on a long-term basis?

When you rent a room, apartment, house, or other lodging on a long-term
Temp. Duty Travel Allowances

§ 301–11.21

basis (e.g., weekly, monthly), the following expenses may be considered part of the lodging cost:

(a) The rental cost for a furnished dwelling; if unfurnished, the rental cost of the dwelling and the cost of appropriate and necessary furniture and appliances (e.g., stove, refrigerator, chairs, tables, bed, sofa, television, or vacuum cleaner);
(b) Cost of connecting/disconnecting and using utilities;
(c) Cost of reasonable maid fees and cleaning charges;
(d) Monthly telephone use fee (does not include installation and long-distance calls); and,
(e) If ordinarily included in the price of a hotel/motel room in the area concerned, the cost of special user fees (e.g., cable TV charges and plug-in charges for automobile head bolt heaters).

§ 301–11.16 What reimbursement will I receive if I prepay my lodging expenses and my TDY is curtailed, canceled or interrupted for official purposes or for other reasons beyond my control that are acceptable to my agency?

If you sought to obtain a refund or otherwise took steps to minimize the cost, your agency may reimburse expenses that are not refundable, including a forfeited rental deposit.

§ 301–11.17 If my agency authorizes per diem reimbursement, will it reduce my M&IE allowance for a meal(s) provided by a common carrier or for a complimentary meal(s) provided by a hotel/motel?

No. A meal provided by a common carrier or a complimentary meal provided by a hotel/motel does not affect your per diem.

§ 301–11.18 What M&IE rate will I receive if a meal(s) is furnished at nominal or no cost by the Government or is included in the registration fee?

Your M&IE rate must be adjusted for a meal(s) furnished to you (except as provided in §301–11.17), with or without cost, by deducting the appropriate amount shown in the chart in this section for CONUS travel, reference Appendix B of this chapter for OCONUS travel, or any method determined by your agency. If you pay for a meal that has been previously deducted, your agency will reimburse you up to the deduction amount. The total amount of deductions made will not cause you to receive less than the amount allowed for incidental expenses.

§ 301–11.19 How is my per diem calculated when I travel across the international dateline (IDL)?

When you cross the IDL your actual elapsed travel time will be used to compute your per diem entitlement rather than calendar days.

§ 301–11.20 May my agency authorize a rest period for me while I am traveling?

(a) Your agency may authorize a rest period not in excess of 24 hours at either an intermediate point or at your destination if:
(1) Either your origin or destination point is OCONUS;
(2) Your scheduled flight time, including stopovers, exceeds 14 hours;
(3) Travel is by a direct or usually traveled route; and
(4) Travel is by less than premium-class service.
(b) When a rest stop is authorized the applicable per diem rate is the rate for the rest stop location.

§ 301–11.21 Will I be reimbursed for per diem or actual expenses on leave or non-workdays (weekend, legal Federal Government holiday, or other scheduled non-workdays) while I am on official travel?

(a) In general, you will be reimbursed as long as your travel status requires your stay to include a non-workday, (e.g., if you are on travel through Friday and again starting Monday you will be reimbursed for Saturday and Sunday), however, your agency should determine the most cost effective situation (i.e., remaining in a travel status and paying per diem or actual expenses
§ 301–11.22 Am I entitled to per diem or actual expense reimbursement if I am required to return to my official station on a non-workday?

If required by your agency to return to your official station on a non-workday, you will be reimbursed the amount allowable for return travel.

§ 301–11.23 Are there any other circumstances when my agency may reimburse me to return home or to my official station for non-workdays during a TDY assignment?

Your agency may authorize per diem or actual expense and round-trip transportation expenses for periodic return travel on non-workdays to your home or official station under the following circumstances:

(a) The agency requires you to return to your official station to perform official business; or

(b) The agency will realize a substantial cost savings by returning you home; or

(c) Periodic return travel home is justified incident to an extended TDY assignment.

§ 301–11.24 What reimbursement will I receive if I voluntarily return home or to my official station on non-workdays during my TDY assignment?

If you voluntarily return home or to your official station on non-workdays during a TDY assignment, the maximum reimbursement for round trip transportation and per diem or actual expense is limited to what would have been allowed had you remained at the TDY location.

§ 301–11.25 Must I provide receipts to substantiate my claimed travel expenses?

Yes, you must provide a lodging receipt and either a receipt for any authorized expenses incurred costing over $75, or a reason acceptable to your agency explaining why you are unable to provide the necessary receipt.

§ 301–11.26 How do I get a per diem rate increased?

If you travel to a location where the per diem rate is insufficient to meet necessary expenses, you may submit a request, containing pertinent lodging & meal cost data, through your agency asking that the location be surveyed. Depending on the location in question your agency may submit the survey request to:

- For CONUS locations: General Services Administration, Office of Governmentwide Policy, Attn: Travel and Transportation, Management Policy Division (MTT), Washington, DC 20405.
- For non-foreign area locations: Department of Defense, Per Diem, Travel and Transportation, Allowance Committee (PDTATAC), Hoffman Building #1, Room 836, 2461 Eisenhower Ave, Alexandria, VA 22331–1300.
- For foreign area locations: Department of State, Director of Allowances, State Annex 29, Room 262, Washington, DC 20522–2902.

§ 301–11.27 Are taxes included in the lodging portion of the Government per diem rate?

No. Lodging taxes paid by you are reimbursable as a miscellaneous travel expense limited to the taxes on reimbursable lodging costs. For example, if your agency authorizes you a maximum lodging rate of $50 per night, and you elect to stay at a hotel that costs $100 per night, you can only claim the amount of taxes on $50, which is the maximum authorized lodging amount.

[FTR Amdt. 75, 63 FR 66675, Dec. 2, 1998]

§ 301–11.28 As a traveler on official business, am I required to pay applicable lodging taxes?

Yes, unless exempted by the State or local jurisdiction.
Temp. Duty Travel Allowances

§ 301–11.29 Are lodging facilities required to accept a generic federal, state or local tax exempt certificate?

Exemptions from taxes for Federal travelers, and the forms required to claim them, vary from location to location. The GSA Travel Homepage (http://policyworks.gov/travel) lists jurisdictions where tax exempt certificates should be honored.

§ 301–11.30 What is my option if the Government lodging rate exceeds my lodging reimbursement?

You may request reimbursement on an actual expense basis, not to exceed 300 percent of the maximum per diem allowance.

Approval of actual expenses is usually in advance of travel and at the discretion of your agency. (See §301–11.302.)

[FTR Amdt. 75, 63 FR 66675, Dec. 2, 1998]

§ 301–11.31 Are laundry, cleaning and pressing of clothing expenses reimbursable?

Yes. The expenses incurred for laundry, cleaning and pressing of clothing at a TDY location are reimbursable as a miscellaneous travel expense. However, you must incur a minimum of 4 consecutive nights lodging on official travel to qualify for this reimbursement.

[FTR Amdt. 75, 63 FR 66675, Dec. 2, 1998]

Subpart B—Lodgings-Plus Per Diem

§ 301–11.100 What will I be paid for lodging under Lodgings-plus per diem?

When travel is more than 12 hours and overnight lodging is required you are reimbursed your actual lodging cost not to exceed the maximum lodging rate for the TDY location or stopover point.

§ 301–11.101 What allowance will I be paid for M&IE?

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, your allowance is as shown in the following table:

(b) If you travel by ship, either commercial or Government, your agency will determine an appropriate M&IE rate within the applicable maximum rate allowable.

§ 301–11.102 What is the applicable M&IE rate?

§ 301–11.200 Under what circumstances may my agency prescribe a reduced per diem rate lower than the prescribed maximum?

Under the following circumstances:
(a) When your agency can determine in advance that lodging and/or meal costs will be lower than the per diem rate; and
(b) The lowest authorized per diem rate must be stated in your travel authorization in advance of your travel.

Subpart D—Actual Expense

§ 301–11.300 When is actual expense reimbursement warranted?

When:
(a) Lodging and/or meals are procured at a prearranged place such as a hotel where a meeting, conference or training session is held;
(b) Costs have escalated because of special events (e.g., missile launching periods, sporting events, World’s Fair, conventions, natural disasters); lodging and meal expenses within prescribed allowances cannot be obtained nearby; and costs to commute to/from the nearby location consume most or all of the savings achieved from occupying less expensive lodging;
(c) Because of mission requirements; or
(d) Any other reason approved within your agency.

§ 301–11.301 Who in my agency can authorize/approve my request for actual expense?

Any official designated by the head of your agency.

§ 301–11.302 When should I request authorization for reimbursement under actual expense?

Request for authorization for reimbursement under actual expense should be made in advance of travel. However, subject to your agency’s policy, after the fact approvals may be granted when supported by an explanation acceptable to your agency.

§ 301–11.303 What is the maximum amount that I may be reimbursed under actual expense?

The maximum amount that you may be reimbursed under actual expense is limited to 300 percent (rounded to the next higher dollar) of the applicable maximum per diem rate. However, subject to your agency’s policy, a lesser amount may be authorized.

§ 301–11.304 What if my expenses are less than the authorized amount?

When authorized actual expense and your expenses are less than the locality per diem rate or the authorized amount, reimbursement is limited to the expenses incurred.

§ 301–11.305 What if my actual expenses exceed the 300 percent ceiling?

Your reimbursement is limited to the 300 percent ceiling. There is no authority to exceed this ceiling.

§ 301–11.306 What expenses am I required to itemize under actual expense?

You must itemize all expenses, including meals, (each meal must be itemized separately) for which you will be reimbursed under actual expense. However, expenses that do not accrue daily (e.g., laundry, dry cleaning, etc.) may be averaged over the number of days your agency authorizes/approves actual expenses. Receipts are required for lodging, regardless of amount and any individual meal when the cost exceeds $75. Your agency may require receipts for other allowable per diem expenses, but it must inform you of this requirement in advance of travel. When your agency limits M&IE reimbursement to either the prescribed maximum M&IE rate for the locality concerned or a reduced M&IE rate, it may or may not require M&IE itemization at its discretion.

Temp. Duty Travel Allowances

Subpart E—Income Tax Reimbursement Allowance (ITRA), Tax Years 1993 and 1994

SOURCE: 64 FR 32813, June 18, 1999, unless otherwise noted.

GENERAL

§ 301–11.501 What is the Income Tax Reimbursement Allowance (ITRA)?

The ITRA is an allowance designed to reimburse Federal, State and local income taxes incurred incident to an extended TDY assignment at one location.

§ 301–11.502 Who is eligible to receive the ITRA?

An employee (and spouse, if filing jointly) who was in a TDY status for an extended period at one location, and who incurred Federal, State, or local income taxes on amounts received as reimbursement for official travel expenses.

§ 301–11.503 Are Federal Insurance Contribution Act (FICA) and Medicare deductions included in any reimbursement under this part?

No. Reimbursement is limited to income taxes.

EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITIES

§ 301–11.521 Must I file a claim to be reimbursed for the additional income taxes incurred?

Yes. A claim must be submitted in accordance with your agency’s policy.

§ 301–11.522 If I was assessed an income tax penalty and/or interest payment due to incorrect income tax withholdings, are those payments reimbursable?

Yes, for the total amount of the income tax penalty and/or interest assessed by the IRS for tax years 1993 and 1994 only.

§ 301–11.523 What documentation must I submit to substantiate my claim?

Your agency will determine what documentation is sufficient. (See § 301–11.531.)

§ 301–11.524 What steps must my agency take to determine my ITRA?

Your agency should:
(a) Determine Federal, State and local marginal tax rates by using the procedures and the marginal tax tables established for the relocation income tax allowance in § 302–11.7, § 302–11.8, and Appendices A, B, C and D to part 302–11 of this title; or
(b) Determine reimbursement as calculated in the illustration shown in § 301–11.535.

§ 301–11.525 Is the ITRA I receive taxable income?

Yes. The amount received must be reported as taxable income in the year in which received, but you are eligible to receive an allowance to cover the taxes assessed on the ITRA under § 301–11.528.

§ 301–11.526 May I receive a lump sum payment of the additional tax liability on the covered ITRA in lieu of submitting another claim?

Yes, if agreed to in writing by your agency and with the understanding that you will be responsible for any income taxes due without further reimbursement.

§ 301–11.527 If I elect a lump sum payment, how is the ITRA paid?

(a) Reimbursement is as illustrated:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Lump Sum ITRA Tax Paid to Employee</th>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(b) Reimbursement of the ITRA and the tax on the ITRA is a final lump sum payment with no further reimbursement. You will be responsible for any income taxes due on $19,307.

§ 301–11.528 If I do not elect lump sum payment is there any additional reimbursement?

Yes. You are reimbursed for the tax on the tax reimbursement received. Your agency will calculate the tax on the tax reimbursement using the formulas developed for the Year 2 reimbursements of the relocation income tax allowance (see §302–11.8 of this title).
§ 301–11.531

AGENCY RESPONSIBILITIES

§ 301–11.531 What documentation must the employee submit to substantiate a claim?

You must determine what documentation you require to be submitted with the employee’s claim. It can include:

(a) A certified statement as prescribed in §302–11.10 of this title or copies of completed Federal, State and local tax return for the tax year in which the taxes were withheld and paid.

(b) Copies of W-2’s and Form 1099’s.

(c) Any documentation received from the IRS identifying any interest or penalty payment (tax years 1993 and 1994 only).

(d) Any other documentation necessary to substantiate the claim.

§ 301–11.532 How should we compute the employee’s ITRA?

You should follow the procedures prescribed for the relocation income tax allowance, see §302–11.7, §302–11.8 and Appendices A, B, C, and D to part 302–11 of this title or as illustrated in §301–11.535.

* Adjusted taxable income places employee in lower tax bracket.
 The ITRA reimbursement is taxable income for the year in which paid at the appropriate Federal, State and local income tax rates.

§ 301–11.533 Are tax penalty and interest payments reimbursable?

Yes, the total amount of any penalty and interest assessed by the IRS (for tax years 1993 and 1994 only) due to the failure of the Government to withhold the appropriate income taxes are reimbursable.

§ 301–11.534 What tax tables should we use to calculate the amount of allowable reimbursement?

The tax tables for the year the tax was incurred are to be used.

§ 301–11.535 How should we calculate the ITRA?

(a) Use the documents prescribed in §301–11.531 to calculate the ITRA as follows:
   (1) Determine Federal, State and local marginal tax rates by using the procedures and the marginal tax tables established for the relocation income tax allowance in §302–11.7, §302–11.8 and Appendices A, B, C and D to part 302–11 of this title; and
   (2) Add any penalty or interest for tax years 1993 or 1994 only to determine the full ITRA payment; or

(b) As calculated in the following illustration.

Example of calculating an employee’s tax return using the marginal tax rate schedules in Appendix B to part 302–11 of this title:
Temp. Duty Travel Allowances

§ 301–11.536 Is the ITRA reimbursement considered to be income to the employee?
Yes. The ITRA reimbursement is considered taxable income in the year paid and is subject to tax withholding as any other income.

§ 301–11.537 Are income taxes to be withheld from the ITRA?
Yes, as determined by your internal tax withholding procedures established for your agency pursuant to IRS procedures.

§ 301–11.538 May we offer a lump sum payment to cover the income tax liability on the covered ITRA?
Yes, if the employee mutually agrees in writing to the lump sum payment and understands that he/she is responsible for any income taxes without further reimbursement. (See the illustration in §301–11.527.)

§ 301–11.539 If the employee does not elect a lump sum payment, how is the tax on the ITRA calculated?
The tax on the ITRA reimbursement should be calculated using the Year 2 formulas developed for the relocation income tax allowance. (See §302–11.8.)

§ 301–11.540 How do we handle any excess payment?
You must collect any excess payments, which includes issuing corrected W–2’s or 1099’s.

Subpart F—Income Tax Reimbursement Allowance (ITRA), Tax Years 1995 and Thereafter

§ 301–11.601 What is the Income Tax Reimbursement Allowance (ITRA)?
The ITRA is an allowance designed to reimburse Federal, State and local income taxes incurred incident to an extended TDY assignment at one location.

§ 301–11.602 Who is eligible to receive the ITRA?
An employee (and spouse, if filing jointly) who was in a TDY status for an extended period at one location and who incurred Federal, State, or local income taxes on amounts received as reimbursement for official travel expenses.

§ 301–11.603 Are Federal Insurance Contribution Act (FICA) and Medicare deductions included in any reimbursement under this part?
No. Reimbursement is limited to income taxes.

Employee Responsibilities

§ 301–11.621 Must I file a claim to be reimbursed for the additional income taxes incurred?
Yes, a claim must be submitted in accordance with your agency’s policy.

§ 301–11.622 If I was assessed an income tax penalty and/or interest payment due to incorrect income tax withholdings, are those payments reimbursable?
No. The reimbursement of tax penalty and/or interest payment assessed by the IRS is limited by law to tax years 1993 and 1994 only.

§ 301–11.623 What documentation must I submit to substantiate my claim?
Your agency will determine what documentation is sufficient. (See §301–11.631.)

§ 301–11.624 What steps must my agency take to determine my ITRA?
Your agency should:
(a) Determine Federal, State and local marginal tax rates by using the procedures and the marginal tax tables established for the relocation income tax allowance in §302–11.7, §302–11.8 and Appendices A, B, C and D to part 302–11 of this title; or
(b) Determine reimbursement as calculated in the illustration shown in §301–11.535.

§ 301–11.625 Is the ITRA I receive taxable income?
Yes. The amount received must be reported as taxable income in the year in which received, but you are eligible to receive an allowance to cover the taxes assessed on the ITRA under §301–11.626.

§ 301–11.626 May I receive a lump sum payment of the additional tax liability on the covered ITRA in lieu of submitting another claim?

Yes, if agreed to in writing by your agency and with the understanding that you will be responsible for any income taxes due without further reimbursement.

§ 301–11.627 If I elect a lump sum payment, how is the ITRA paid?

(a) Reimbursement is as illustrated:

(b) Reimbursement of the ITRA and tax on the ITRA is a final lump sum payment with no further reimbursement. You will be responsible for any income taxes due on $19,307.

§ 301–11.628 If I do not elect lump sum payment is there any additional reimbursement?

Yes. You are reimbursed for the tax on the tax reimbursement received. Your agency will calculate the tax on the tax reimbursement using the formulas developed for the Year 2 reimbursements of the relocation income tax allowance (see §302–11.8 of this title).

AGENCY RESPONSIBILITIES

§ 301–11.631 What documentation must the employee submit to substantiate a claim?

You must determine what documentation you require to be submitted with the employee’s claim. It may include:

(a) A certified statement as prescribed in §302–11.10 of this title or a copy of the employee’s completed Federal, State and local tax return for the tax year in which the taxes were withheld and paid.

(b) Copies of W-2’s and Form 1099’s;

(c) Any other documentation necessary to substantiate your claim.

§ 301–11.632 How should we compute the employee’s ITRA?

You should follow the procedures prescribed for the relocation income tax allowance, see §302–11.7, §302–11.8 and Appendices A, B, C, and D to part 302–11 of this title or as illustrated in §301–11.535.

§ 301–11.633 Are tax penalty and interest payments reimbursable?

No. The reimbursement of penalty and/or interest payments assessed by the IRS is limited by law to tax years 1993 and 1994 only.

§ 301–11.634 What tax tables should we use to calculate the amount of allowable reimbursement?

The tax tables for the year the tax was incurred are to be used.

§ 301–11.635 How should we calculate the ITRA?

Use the documents prescribed in §301–11.631 to calculate the ITRA as follows:

(a) Determine Federal, State and local marginal tax rates by using the procedures and the marginal tax tables established for the relocation income tax allowance in §302–11.7, §302–11.8 and Appendices A, B, C and D to part 302–11 of this title, or

(b) As calculated in the following illustration.

*Adjusted taxable income places employee in lower tax bracket.

The ITRA reimbursement is taxable income for the year in which paid at the appropriate Federal, State and local income tax rates.

§ 301–11.636 Is the ITRA reimbursement considered to be income to the employee?

Yes. The ITRA reimbursement is considered taxable income in the year paid and is subject to tax withholding as any other income.

§ 301–11.637 Are income taxes to be withheld from the ITRA?

Yes, as determined by your internal tax withholding procedures established for your agency pursuant to IRS procedures.

§ 301–11.638 May we offer a lump sum payment to cover the income tax liability on the covered ITRA?

Yes, if the employee mutually agrees in writing to the lump sum payment and understands that he/she is responsible for any income taxes without further reimbursement. See the illustration in §301–11.627.

§ 301–11.639 If the employee does not elect a lump sum payment, how is the tax on the ITRA reimbursement calculated?

The tax on the tax reimbursement should be calculated using the Year 2 formulas developed for the relocation income tax allowance. (See §302–11.8.)

§ 301–11.640 How do we handle any excess payment?

You must collect any excess payments, which includes issuing corrected W-2’s or 1099’s.

PART 301–12—MISCELLANEOUS EXPENSES

Sec. 301–12.1 What miscellaneous expenses are reimbursable?

[FTR Amdt. 75, 63 FR 66675, Dec. 2, 1998]

§301–12.2 What baggage expenses may my agency pay?
Your agency may reimburse expenses related to baggage as follows:
- (a) Transportation charges for authorized excess;
- (b) Necessary charges for transferring baggage;
- (c) Necessary charges for storage of baggage when such charges are the result of official business;
- (d) Charges for checking baggage; and
- (e) Charges or tips at transportation terminals for handling Government property carried by the traveler.

PART 301–13—TRAVEL OF AN EMPLOYEE WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

Sec.
301–13.1 What is the policy for paying additional travel expenses incurred by an employee with a special need?
301–13.2 Under what conditions will my agency pay for my additional travel expenses under this part?
301–13.3 What additional travel expenses may my agency pay under this part?

AUTHORITY: 5 U.S.C. 5707.

SOURCE: 63 FR 15966, Apr. 1, 1998, unless otherwise noted.

§301–13.1 What is the policy for paying additional travel expenses incurred by an employee with a special need?
To provide reasonable accommodations to an employee with a special need by paying for additional travel expenses incurred.

§301–13.2 Under what conditions will my agency pay for my additional travel expense(s) under this part?
When an additional travel expense is necessary to accommodate a special physical need which is either:
- (a) Clearly visible and discernible; or
- (b) Substantiated in writing by a competent medical authority.

§301–13.3 What additional travel expenses may my agency pay under this part?
The following expenses:
- (a) Transportation and per diem expenses incurred by a family member or other attendant who must travel with you to make the trip possible;
- (b) Specialized transportation to, from, and/or at the TDY duty location;
- (c) Specialized services provided by a common carrier to accommodate your special need;
- (d) Costs for handling your baggage that are a direct result of your special need;
- (e) Renting and/or transporting a wheelchair; and
- (f) Premium-class accommodations when necessary to accommodate your special need, under Subpart B of Part 301–10 of this chapter.

PART 301–30—EMERGENCY TRAVEL

Sec.
301–30.1 What is emergency travel?
301–30.2 What is considered to be “family” with respect to emergency travel?
301–30.3 What should I do if I have to interrupt or discontinue my TDY travel?
301–30.4 When an illness or injury occurs on TDY, what expenses may be allowed?
§ 301–30.1 What is emergency travel?
Travel which results from:
(a) Your becoming incapacitated by illness or injury not due to your own misconduct; or
(b) The death or serious illness of a member of your family; or
(c) A catastrophic occurrence or impending disaster, such as fire, flood, or act of God, which directly affects your home.

§ 301–30.2 What is considered to be "family" with respect to emergency travel?
"Family" includes any member of your immediate family, as defined in § 300–3.1. However, your agency may, on a case-by-case basis, expand this definition to include other members of your and/or your spouse’s extended family.

§ 301–30.3 What should I do if I have to interrupt or discontinue my TDY travel?
Contact your travel authorizing/approving official for instructions as soon as possible.

§ 301–30.4 When an illness or injury occurs on TDY, what expenses may be allowed?
Your agency may pay:
(a) Per diem at the location where you incurred or were treated for incapacitating illness or injury for a reasonable period of time (generally 14 calendar days). However, your agency may pay for a longer period.
(b) Transportation and per diem expense for travel to an alternate location to receive treatment.
(c) Transportation and per diem expense to return to your official station.

§ 301–30.5 Are there any limitations to the payment of these expenses?
Expenses are not payable when:
(a) Confined to:
(1) A medical facility within the proximity of your official duty station.
(2) The same medical facility you would have been admitted to if your incapacitating illness or injury occurred at your official station.
(b) The Government provides or reimburses you for hospitalization under any Federal statute (including hospitalization in a Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Medical center or military hospital). However, per diem expenses are payable if your hospitalization is paid under the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program (5 U.S.C. 8901–8913).

PART 301–31—THREATENED LAW ENFORCEMENT/INVESTIGATIVE EMPLOYEES

§ 301–31.1 Why pay subsistence and transportation expenses for threatened law enforcement/investigative employees?

§ 301–31.2 What is "family" with respect to threatened law enforcement/investigative employees?

§ 301–31.3 Are members of my family and I eligible for payment of subsistence and transportation expense?

§ 301–31.4 Must my agency pay transportation and subsistence expenses?

§ 301–31.5 Under what conditions may my agency pay transportation and subsistence expenses?

§ 301–31.6 Where must I and/or my family obtain lodging?

§ 301–31.7 May my family and I occupy lodging at different locations?

§ 301–31.8 What transportation expenses may my agency pay?

§ 301–31.9 What subsistence expenses may my agency pay?

§ 301–31.10 How will my agency pay my subsistence expenses?

§ 301–31.11 May my agency pay me a per diem allowance instead of actual expenses?

§ 301–31.12 Must I keep track of my expenses?

§ 301–31.13 How long may my agency pay for subsistence expenses under this part?

§ 301–31.14 May I receive a travel advance for transportation and/or subsistence expenses?

§ 301–31.15 What documentation must I provide for reimbursement?

SOURCE: 63 FR 15966, Apr. 1, 1998, unless otherwise noted.
§ 301–31.1 Why pay subsistence and transportation expenses for threatened law enforcement/investigative employees?

To protect a law enforcement/investigative employee and his/her immediate family when their lives are placed in jeopardy as a result of the employee’s assigned duties.

§ 301–31.2 What is “family” with respect to threatened law enforcement/investigative employees?

Generally, “family” includes any member of your immediate family, as defined in §300–3.1 of this title. However, your agency may, on a case-by-case basis, expand this definition to include other members of you and/or your spouse’s extended family.

§ 301–31.3 Are members of my family and I eligible for payment of subsistence and transportation expense?

Yes, if you serve in a law enforcement, investigative, or similar capacity for special law enforcement/investigative purposes and your agency authorizes such expenses.

§ 301–31.4 Must my agency pay transportation and subsistence expenses?

No. Your agency decides when it is appropriate to pay these expenses based on the nature of the threat against your life and/or the life of a member(s) of your immediate family.

§ 301–31.5 Under what conditions may my agency pay for transportation and subsistence expenses?

When your agency determines that a threat against you or a member(s) of your immediate family justifies moving you and/or your family to temporary living accommodations at or away from your official station.

§ 301–31.6 Where must I and/or my family obtain lodging?

Your agency designates the area where you and/or your family should obtain lodging. It may be within your official station or at an alternate location.

§ 301–31.7 May my family and I occupy lodging at different locations?

Yes, if authorized by your agency.

§ 301–31.8 What transportation expenses may my agency pay?

Your agency may pay transportation expenses authorized by part §301–10 of this chapter to transport you and/or your family to/from a temporary location.

§ 301–31.9 What subsistence expense may my agency pay?

Only your lodging cost may be paid. However, your agency may pay for meals and laundry/cleaning expenses if: (a) Your temporary living accommodations do not have kitchen or laundry facilities; or (b) Your agency determines that other extenuating circumstances exist which necessitate payment of these expenses.

§ 301–31.10 How will my agency pay my subsistence expenses?

Your agency will pay your actual subsistence expenses not to exceed the “maximum allowable amount” for the period you or your family occupy temporary living accommodations. The “maximum allowable amount” is the “maximum daily amount” multiplied by the number of days you or your family occupy temporary living accommodations not to exceed the number of days authorized. The “maximum daily amount” is determined by adding the rates in the following table for you and each member of your family authorized to occupy temporary living accommodations:

§ 301–31.11 May my agency pay me a per diem allowance instead of actual expenses?

No.

§ 301–31.12 Must I keep track of my expenses?

Yes. You must keep track of your actual expenses as described in part 301–11 of this chapter.

[63 FR 15966, Apr. 1, 1998; 63 FR 35538, June 30, 1998]

§ 301–31.13 How long may my agency pay for subsistence expenses under this part?

Your agency may pay for subsistence expenses up to 60 days. However, your agency may pay for additional periods if it determines, that an extension is justified.

§ 301–31.14 May I receive a travel advance for transportation and/or subsistence expenses?

Yes, you may receive a travel advance under §301–51.200 of this chapter for up to a 30-day period at a time to cover expenses allowable. Your travel advance may not exceed the maximum allowable amount authorized under §301–31.10, and you will be required to reimburse your agency for any portion of the advance disallowed or not spent.

§ 301–31.15 What documentation must I provide for reimbursement?

You must provide receipts or any other documentation required by your agency. However, in instances when documentation might compromise the security of the individuals involved, the head of the agency may waive these requirements.
SUBCHAPTER C—ARRANGING FOR TRAVEL SERVICES, PAYING TRAVEL EXPENSES, AND CLAIMING REIMBURSEMENT

PART 301–50—ARRANGING FOR TRAVEL SERVICES

Sec.
301–50.1 How should I arrange my travel?
301–50.2 What is my liability if I use an unauthorized travel agent or unauthorized travel management system?
301–50.3 Are there any limits on the travel arrangements I may make?

SOURCE: 63 FR 15967, Apr. 1, 1998, unless otherwise noted.

§ 301–50.1 How should I arrange my travel?
If your agency provides travel management services under a Government contract, you must use those services, to arrange for common carrier transportation, lodging, and rental car(s). If your agency does not provide travel management services under a Government contract, you must arrange your travel according to your agency’s policy. Services under a Government contract may be furnished by a commercial travel agent, electronic travel services system, or other travel management services provider.

§ 301–50.2 What is my liability if I use an unauthorized travel agent or unauthorized travel management system?
You are responsible for any additional costs that result from the unauthorized use, and you are subject to any penalties your agency may impose.

§ 301–50.3 Are there any limits on the travel arrangements I may make?
Yes. If the GSA city-pair fare contract for passenger transportation services is available to you, you must use the contract carrier. You should also use any preferred value lodging programs and rental car arrangements in which your agency participates.

PART 301–51—PAYING TRAVEL EXPENSES

Subpart A—General

Sec.
301–51.1 What is the required method of payment for official travel expenses?
301–51.2 What official travel expenses and/or classes of employees are exempt from the mandatory use of the Government contractor-issued travel charge card?
301–51.3 Who in my agency has the authority to grant exemptions from the mandatory use of the Government contractor-issued travel charge card?
301–51.4 If my agency grants an exemption, does that prevent me from using the card on a voluntary basis?
301–51.5 How may I pay for official travel expenses if I receive an exemption from use of the Government contractor-issued travel charge card?
301–51.6 May I use the Government contractor-issued travel charge card for purposes other than those associated with official travel?
301–51.7 What are the consequences of using the Government contractor-issued travel charge card for non-official travel purposes?

Subpart B—Paying for Common Carrier Transportation

301–51.100 What method of payment must I use to procure common carrier transportation?
301–51.101 Which payment methods are considered the equivalent of cash?
301–51.102 How is my transportation reimbursement affected if I make an unauthorized cash purchase of common carrier transportation?
301–51.103 What is my liability if I lose a GTR?

Subpart C—Receiving Travel Advances

301–51.200 For what expenses may I receive a travel advance?
301–51.201 What is the maximum amount that my agency may advance?
301–51.202 When must I account for my advance?
301–51.203 What must I do about my advance if my trip is canceled or postponed indefinitely?

AUTHORITY: 5 U.S.C. 5707. Subpart A is issued under the authority of Sec. 2, Pub. L.
§ 301–51.1 What is the required method of payment for official travel expenses?
You are required to use the Government contractor-issued travel charge card for all official travel expenses unless you have an exemption.

§ 301–51.2 What official travel expenses and/or classes of employees are exempt from the mandatory use of the Government contractor-issued travel charge card?

The Administrator of General Services exempts the following from the mandatory use of the Government contractor-issued travel charge card:

(a) Expenses incurred at a vendor that does not accept the Government contractor-issued travel charge card;
(b) Laundry/dry cleaning;
(c) Parking;
(d) Local transportation system;
(e) Taxi;
(f) Tips;
(g) Meals (when use of the card is impractical, e.g., group meals or the Government contractor-issued travel charge card is not accepted);
(h) Phone calls (when a Government calling card is available for use in accordance with agency policy);
(i) An employee who has an application pending for the travel charge card;
(j) Individuals traveling on invitational travel; and
(k) New appointees.

§ 301–51.3 Who in my agency has the authority to grant exemptions from the mandatory use of the Government contractor-issued travel charge card?
The head of your agency or his/her designee(s) has (have) the authority to grant exemptions from the mandatory use of the Government contractor-issued travel charge card.

§ 301–51.4 If my agency grants an exemption, does that prevent me from using the card on a voluntary basis?
No, an exemption from use would not prevent you from using the Government contractor-issued travel charge card on a voluntary basis in accordance with your agency’s policy.

§ 301–51.5 How may I pay for official travel expenses if I receive an exemption from use of the Government contractor-issued travel charge card?
If you receive an exemption from use of the Government contractor-issued travel charge card, your agency may authorize one or a combination of the following methods of payment:

(a) Personal funds, including cash or personal charge card;
(b) Travel advances; or
(c) Government Transportation Request (GTR).

Note to §301–51.5: City pair contractors are not required to accept payment by the methods in paragraph (a) or (b) of this section.

§ 301–51.6 May I use the Government contractor-issued travel charge card for purposes other than those associated with official travel?
No, the Government contractor-issued travel charge card may be used only for official travel related expenses.

§ 301–51.7 What are the consequences of using the Government contractor-issued travel charge card for non-official travel purposes?
If you use the Government contractor-issued travel charge card for purposes other than official travel, your agency may take appropriate disciplinary action.
§ 301–51.100

Subpart B—Paying for Common Carrier Transportation

§ 301–51.100 What method of payment must I use to procure common carrier transportation?

You must use a Government contractor-issued individually billed travel card, centrally billed account, or GTR to procure contract passenger transportation services. For all other common carrier transportation, you must use one of the methods specified in the following table:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>For passenger transportation services costing</th>

[63 FR 15968, Apr. 1, 1998; 63 FR 35538, June 30, 1998]

§ 301–51.101 Which payment methods are considered the equivalent of cash?

Use of one of the following payment methods of this section to procure common carrier transportation is considered the equivalent of cash and you must comply with the rules in 41 CFR 101–41.203–2 that limit the use of cash for such purposes.

(a) Personal credit cards;
(b) Cash withdrawals obtained from an ATM using a Government contractor-issued individually billed travel card; and
(c) Checks, both personal and travelers (including those obtained through a travel payment system services program).

[63 FR 15968, Apr. 1, 1998; 63 FR 35538, June 30, 1998]

§ 301–51.102 How is my transportation reimbursement affected if I make an unauthorized cash purchase of common carrier transportation?

If you are a new employee or an invitational or infrequent traveler who is unaware of proper procedures for purchasing common carrier transportation, your agency may allow reimbursement for the full cost of the transportation. In all other instances, your reimbursement will be limited to the cost of such transportation using the authorized method of payment.

[63 FR 15968, Apr. 1, 1998; 63 FR 35538, June 30, 1998]

§ 301–51.103 What is my liability if I lose a GTR?

You are liable for any Government expenditure that is caused by your negligence in safeguarding the GTR or tickets received in exchange for the GTR. To avoid liability, immediately report a lost or stolen GTR to your administrative office. If the lost or stolen GTR shows the carrier service desired, and point of origin, promptly notify in writing the named carrier and other local initial carriers. Do not use a GTR that is recovered after having been reported as lost or stolen. Instead, report the recovered GTR to your administrative office.

[63 FR 15968, Apr. 1, 1998; 63 FR 35538, June 30, 1998]

Subpart C—Receiving Travel Advances

§ 301–51.200 For what expenses may I receive a travel advance?
Temp. Duty Travel Allowances

For You may receive an advance

(a) Cash transaction expenses (i.e., expenses that as a general rule cannot be charged and must be paid using cash, a personal check, or travelers check).
   (1) M&IE covered by the per diem allowance or actual expenses allowance;
   (2) Miscellaneous transportation expenses such as local transportation system and taxi fares; parking fees; ferry fees; bridge, road, and tunnel fees; and aircraft parking, landing, and tie-down fees;
   (3) Gasoline and other variable expenses covered by the mileage allowance for advantageous use of a privately owned automobile for official business; and
   (4) Other authorized miscellaneous expenses that cannot be charged using a Government contractor-issued charge card and for which a cost can be estimated.

(b) Non-cash transaction expenses (i.e., lodging, common carrier).

Only in the following situations:
   (1) Government contractor-issued charge card not expected to be accepted.
   (2) Government contractor-issued charge card issuance denied. Your agency has decided not to provide you a contractor-issued individually billed travel card.
   (3) Official change of station. Your agency determines that use of a contractor-issued individually billed travel card would not be feasible incident to a transfer, particularly a transfer to another agency.
   (4) Financial hardship would be incurred.

§ 301–51.201 What is the maximum amount that my agency may advance?

The amount your agency advances you may not exceed the following amounts:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>For</th>
<th>You may receive an advance</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Cash transaction expenses (See § 301–51.200(b)).</td>
<td>The estimated amount of your cash transaction expenses. (For M&amp;IE, your advance is limited to the M&amp;IE rate under the lodgings-plus-per diem method.)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Non-cash transaction expenses</td>
<td>Generally zero. However, your agency may advance up to the full amount of your expected non-cash transaction expenses for an individual trip (or not to exceed a 45-day period for an open authorization) in accordance with § 301–51.200(b).</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

§ 301–51.202 When must I account for my advance?

You must file a travel claim which accounts for your advance after completion of your assignment, in accordance with your agency’s policy. If you are in a continuous travel status (e.g., an auditor or inspector) or if you submit periodic reimbursement vouchers on an individual trip authorization, your agency may reimburse you the full amount of your travel expenses without any deduction of your advance until such time as you file a final voucher. If the amount advanced is less than the amount of the voucher on which it is deducted, you will be reimbursed the net amount. If the advance exceeds the reimbursable amount, you must immediately refund the excess.

§ 301–51.203 What must I do about my advance if my trip is canceled or postponed indefinitely?

Promptly notify the appropriate agency officials and refund any monies advanced in connection with the authorized travel.

Source: 63 FR 15969, Apr. 1, 1998, unless otherwise noted.

§ 301–52.1 Must I file a travel claim?

Yes.

§ 301–52.2 What information must I provide in my travel claim?

You must provide the following:

(a) An itemized list of expenses and other information (specified in the listing of required standard data elements contained in Appendix C of this chapter, and any additional information your agency may specifically require), except:

1. You may aggregate expenses for local telephone calls, local metropolitan transportation fares, and parking meter fees, except any individual expenses costing over $75 must be listed separately;

2. When you are authorized lodging—plus per diem, you must state the M&IE allowance on a daily basis;

3. When you are authorized a reduced per diem, you must state the reduced rate your agency authorizes on a daily basis; and

4. When your agency limits M&IE reimbursement to the prescribed maximum M&IE for the locality concerned, you must state the reduced rate on a daily basis.

(b) The type of leave and the number of hours of leave for each day;

(c) The date of arrival and departure from the TDY station and any non-duty points visited when you travel by an indirect route other than a stopover to change planes or embark/disembark passengers;

(d) A signed statement, “I hereby assign to the United States any rights I may have against other parties in connection with any reimbursable carrier transportation charges described herein,” when you use cash to pay for common carrier transportation.

§ 301–52.3 Am I required to file a travel claim in a specific format and must the claim be signed?

Yes, in a format prescribed by your agency. If the prescribed travel claim is hardcopy, the claim must be signed in ink; if your agency has electronic processing, use your electronic signature. Any alterations or erasures to your travel claim must be initialed.
§ 301–52.4 What must I provide with my travel claim?
You must provide:
(a) Evidence of your necessary travel authorizations including any necessary special authorizations;
(b) Receipts for:
(1) Any lodging expense, except when you are authorized a fixed reduced per diem allowance; and
(2) Any other expense costing over $75. If it is impracticable to furnish receipts in any instance as required by this subtitle, the failure to do so must be fully explained on the travel voucher. Mere inconvenience in the matter of taking receipts will not be considered.
§ 301–52.5 Is there any instance where I am exempt from the receipt requirement in § 301–52.4?
Yes, your agency may exempt an expenditure from the receipt requirement because the expenditure is confidential.
[63 FR 15969, Apr. 1, 1998; 63 FR 35538, June 30, 1998]
§ 301–52.6 How do I submit a travel claim?
You must submit your travel claim in accordance with administrative procedures prescribed by your agency.
§ 301–52.7 When must I submit my travel claim?
Unless your agency administratively requires you to submit your travel claim within a shorter timeframe, you must submit your travel claim as follows:
(a) Within 5 working days after you complete your trip or period of travel; or
(b) Every 30 days if you are on continuous travel status.
§ 301–52.8 May my agency disallow payment of a claimed item?
Yes, if you do not:
(a) Provide proper itemization of an expense;
(b) Provide receipt or other documentation required to support your claim; and
(c) Claim an expense which is not authorized.
§ 301–52.9 What will my agency do when it disallows an expense?
Your agency will disallow your claim for that expense, issue you a notice of disallowance, and pay your claim for those items which are not disallowed.
§ 301–52.10 May I challenge my agency’s disallowance of my claim?
Yes, you may request reconsideration of your claim if you have additional facts or documentation to support your request for reconsideration.
§ 301–52.11 What must I do to challenge a disallowed claim?
You must:
(a) File a new claim.
(b) Provide full itemization for all disallowed items reclaimed.
(c) Provide receipts for all disallowed items reclaimed that require receipts, except that you do not have to provide a receipt if your agency already has the receipt.
(d) Provide a copy of the notice of disallowance.
(e) State the proper authority for your claim if you are challenging your agency’s application of the law or statute.
(f) Follow your agency’s procedures for challenging disallowed claims.
(g) If after reconsideration by your agency your claim is still denied, you may submit your claim for adjudication to the GSA Board of Contract Appeals in accordance with 48 CFR part 6104.
§ 301–52.12 What happens if I attempt to defraud the Government?
(a) You forfeit reimbursement pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 2514; and
(b) You may be subject under 18 U.S.C. 287 and 1001 to one, or both, of the following:
(1) A fine of not more than $10,000, or
(2) Imprisonment for not more than 5 years.
§ 301–52.13 Should I keep itemized records of my expenses while on travel?
Yes. You will find it helpful to keep a record of your expenses by date of the expense to aid you in preparing your travel claim or for tax purposes.
§ 301–52.14 What must I do with any travel advance outstanding at the time I submit my travel claim?
You must account for the travel advance in accordance with your agency’s procedures.

§ 301–52.15 What must I do with any passenger coupon for transportation costing over $75, purchased with cash?
You must submit the passenger coupons to your agency in accordance with your agency’s procedures.

§ 301–52.16 What must I do with any unused tickets, coupons, or other evidence of refund?
You must submit any unused tickets, coupons, or other evidence of refund to your agency in accordance with your agency’s procedures.

§ 301–52.17 Within how many calendar days after I submit a proper travel claim must my agency reimburse my allowable expenses?
Your agency must reimburse you within 30 calendar days after you submit a proper travel claim to your agency’s designated approving office. Your agency must ensure that it uses a satisfactory recordkeeping system to track submission of travel claims. For example, travel claims submitted by mail, in accordance with your agency’s policy, could be annotated with the time and date of receipt by your agency. Your agency could consider travel claims electronically submitted to the designated approving office as submitted on the date indicated on an e-mail log, or on the next business day if submitted after normal working hours. However, claims for the following relocation allowances are exempt from this provision:
(a) Transportation and storage of household goods and professional books, papers and equipment;
(b) Transportation of mobile home;
(c) Transportation of a privately owned vehicle;
(d) Temporary quarters subsistence expense, when not paid as lump sum;
(e) Residence transaction expenses;
(f) Relocation income tax allowance;
(g) Use of a relocation services company;
(h) Home marketing incentive payments; and
(i) Allowance for property management services.

§ 301–52.18 Within how many calendar days after I submit a travel claim must my agency notify me of any error that would prevent payment within 30 calendar days after submission?
Your agency must notify you as soon as practicable after you submit your travel claim of any error that would prevent payment within 30 calendar days after submission and must provide the reason(s) why your travel claim is not proper. However, not later than May 1, 2002, agencies must achieve a maximum time period of seven working days for notifying you that your travel claim is not proper.

§ 301–52.19 Will I receive a late payment fee if my agency fails to reimburse me within 30 calendar days after I submit a proper travel claim?
Yes, your agency must pay you a late payment fee, in addition to the amount due you, for any proper travel claim not reimbursed within 30 calendar days of your submission of it to the approving official.

§ 301–52.20 How are late payment fees calculated?
Your agency must either:
(a) Calculate late payment fees using the prevailing Prompt Payment Act Interest Rate beginning on the 31st day after submission of a proper travel claim and ending on the date on which payment is made; or
(b) Reimburse you a flat fee of not less than the prompt payment amount, based on an agencywide average of travel claim payments; and
(c) In addition to the fee required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, your agency must also pay you an amount equivalent to any late payment charge that the card contractor...
§ 301–52.21 Is there a minimum amount the late payment fee must exceed before my agency will pay it to me?

Yes, a late payment fee will only be paid when the computed late payment fee is $1.00 or greater.

[FTR Amdt. 90, 65 FR 3056, Jan. 19, 2000]

§ 301–52.22 Will any late payment fees I receive be reported as wages on a Form W–2?

No, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has determined that the late payment fee is in the nature of interest (compensation for the use of money). Your agency will report payments in accordance with IRS guidelines.

[FTR Amdt. 90, 65 FR 3056, Jan. 19, 2000]

§ 301–52.23 Is the additional fee, which is equal to any late payment charge that the card contractor would have been able to charge had I not paid the bill, considered income?

Yes, your agency will report this payment as additional wages on Form W–2.

[FTR Amdt. 90, 65 FR 3056, Jan. 19, 2000]

§ 301–52.24 Does mandatory use of the Government contractor-issued travel charge card change my obligation to pay my travel card bill by the due date?

No, mandatory use of the Government contractor-issued travel charge card does not relieve you of your obligation to pay your bill in accordance with your cardholder agreement.

[FTR Amdt. 90, 65 FR 3056, Jan. 19, 2000]

PART 301–53—USING PROMOTIONAL MATERIALS AND FREQUENT TRAVELER PROGRAMS

Sec.

301–53.1 What must I do with promotional benefits or materials I receive from a travel service provider?

301–53.2 Should I join a frequent traveler program?

301–53.3 May my agency reimburse membership fees in a frequent traveler program?

301–53.4 How may I use frequent traveler benefits?

301–53.5 Under what circumstances may I use frequent traveler benefits to upgrade my transportation class of service?

301–53.6 When my agency participates in a mandatory travel management program, may I select a travel service provider based on whether it provides frequent travel credits?

301–53.7 How should I handle frequent traveler credits when I accumulate both personal and official credits from a single travel service provider?

301–53.8 What are my options if I cannot establish separate frequent traveler accounts?

301–53.9 What is my liability for improper use of frequent traveler benefits?

301–53.10 Is there any instance when I may make personal use of benefits furnished by a travel service provider?

SOURCE: 63 FR 15970, Apr. 1, 1998, unless otherwise noted.

§ 301–53.1 What must I do with promotional benefits or materials I receive from a travel service provider?

Any promotional benefits or material you receive from a private source in connection with official travel are considered property of the Government.

You must:

(a) Accept the benefits or materials on behalf of the Federal Government; and

(b) Turn the benefits or material over to your agency in accordance with your agency’s procedures established under 41 CFR 101–25.103.

§ 301–53.2 Should I join a frequent traveler program?

Yes. You are encouraged to join frequent traveler programs to realize cost savings or reduce official travel cost.

§ 301–53.3 May my agency reimburse membership fees in a frequent traveler program?

Yes, if the benefits of membership are expected to exceed the cost of membership.

§ 301–53.4 How may I use frequent traveler benefits?

You may use frequent traveler benefits earned on official travel to obtain travel services for a subsequent official travel assignment(s).
§ 301–53.5 Under what circumstances may I use frequent traveler benefits to upgrade my transportation class of service?

You may use frequent travel benefits earned on official travel to upgrade your transportation class of service when your agency’s policies authorize you to upgrade to premium-class other than first-class airline accommodations, solely through redemption of frequent traveler benefits or when the requirements for first-class or premium other than first class airline accommodations are met in accordance with §§301–10.123 and 301–10.124.

§ 301–53.6 When my agency participates in a mandatory travel management program, may I select a travel service provider based on whether it provides frequent travel credits?

No. You must use the travel management program for which your agency is a mandatory user, including contract passenger transportation service when such programs are available.

§ 301–53.7 How should I handle frequent traveler credits when I accumulate both personal and official credits from a single travel service provider?

You should establish separate accounts for personal and official use.

§ 301–53.8 What are my options if I cannot establish separate frequent traveler accounts?

You must be able to account for every credit and debit in your frequent traveler account, and submit an accounting to your agency upon request. The accounting must specify:

(a) The date and amount of all credits you receive for both personal and official travel, including credits (e.g., credits from a travel service vendor credit card).

(b) The date and amount of any debit to your account for both personal and official travel.

§ 301–53.9 What is my liability for improper use of frequent traveler benefits?

You may be subject to:

(a) Disciplinary action by your agency, which may include repayment of the cost of the ticket; and

(b) Criminal sanctions, including a fine and/or imprisonment.

§ 301–53.10 Is there any instance when I may make personal use of benefits furnished by a travel service provider?

Yes, you may use benefits (e.g., free meals, check-cashing privileges, or memberships in executive clubs) only if:

(a) The Government can not use the benefit;

(b) To receive the immediate benefit, you do not forfeit a future benefit the Government could use; and

(c) The benefit can not be redeemed for cash value.

PART 301–54—COLLECTION OF UNDISPUTED DELINQUENT AMOUNTS OWED TO THE CONTRACTOR ISSUING THE INDIVIDUALLY BILLED TRAVEL CHARGE CARD

Subpart A—General Rules

Sec. 301–54.1 Is my agency allowed to collect undisputed delinquent amounts that I owe to a Government travel charge card contractor?

301–54.2 What is disposable pay?

Subpart B—Policies and Procedures

301–54.100 Are there any due process requirements with which my agency must comply before collecting undisputed delinquent amounts on behalf of the charge card contractor?

301–54.101 Can my agency initiate collection of undisputed delinquent amounts if it has not reimbursed me for amounts reimbursable under the applicable travel regulations?

301–54.102 What is the maximum amount my agency may deduct from my disposable pay?

Source: FTR Amdt. 90, 65 FR 3056, Jan. 19, 2000, unless otherwise noted.
Temp. Duty Travel Allowances

Subpart A—General Rules

NOTE TO SUBPART A: Use of pronouns ‘I’, ‘you’, and their variants throughout this subpart refers to the employee.

§ 301–54.1 Is my agency allowed to collect undisputed delinquent amounts that I owe to a Government travel charge card contractor?

Yes, upon written request from the contractor, your agency may collect, from your disposable pay, any undisputed delinquent amounts that you owe to a Government travel charge card contractor.

§ 301–54.2 What is disposable pay?

Disposable pay is your compensation remaining after the deduction from your earnings of any amounts required by law to be withheld. These deductions do not include discretionary deductions such as savings bonds, charitable contributions, etc. Deductions may be made from any type of pay you receive from your agency, e.g., basic pay, special pay, retirement pay, or incentive pay.

[FTR Amdt. 92, 65 FR 21366, Apr. 21, 2000]

Subpart B—Policies and Procedures

NOTE TO SUBPART B: Use of pronouns ‘I’, ‘you’, and their variants throughout this subpart refers to the employee.

§ 301–54.100 Are there any due process requirements with which my agency must comply before collecting undisputed delinquent amounts on behalf of the charge card contractor?

Yes, your agency must:

(a) Provide you with written notice of the type and amount of the claim, the intention to collect the claim by deduction from your disposable pay, and an explanation of your rights as a debtor;

(b) Give you the opportunity to inspect and copy their records related to the claim;

(c) Allow an opportunity for a review within the agency of its decision to collect the amount; and

(d) Provide you with an opportunity to make a written agreement with the contractor to repay the delinquent amount of the claim.

§ 301–54.101 Can my agency initiate collection of undisputed delinquent amounts if it has not reimbursed me for amounts reimbursable under the applicable travel regulations?

No, your agency may only collect undisputed delinquent amounts for which you have been reimbursed under the applicable travel regulations. However, if you have not submitted a proper travel claim within the timeframe requirements of §301–52.7 of this chapter, and there are no extenuating circumstances, your agency may collect the undisputed delinquent amounts based on the amounts charged on the travel charge card.

§ 301–54.102 What is the maximum amount my agency may deduct from my disposable pay?

As set forth in Public Law 105–264, 112 Stat. 2350, October 19, 1998, the maximum amount your agency may deduct from your disposable pay is 15 percent a pay period, unless you agree in writing to a larger percentage.
SUBCHAPTER D—AGENCY RESPONSIBILITIES

PART 301–70—INTERNAL POLICY AND PROCEDURE REQUIREMENTS

Subpart A—General Policies and Procedures

301–70.1 How must we administer the authorization and payment of travel expenses?

Subpart B—Policies and Procedures Relating to Transportation

301–70.100 How must we administer the authorization and payment of transportation expenses?
301–70.101 What factors must we consider in determining which method of transportation results in the greatest advantage to the Government?
301–70.102 What governing policies must we establish for authorization and payment of transportation expenses?
301–70.103 In what circumstance may we authorize use of ship service?
301–70.104 What factors should we consider in determining whether to require an employee to commit to the use of a Government automobile?
301–70.105 May we prohibit an employee from using a POV on official travel?

Subpart C—Policies and Procedures Relating to Per Diem Expenses

301–70.200 What governing policies must we establish for authorization and payment of per diem expenses?

Subpart D—Policies and Procedures Relating to Miscellaneous Expenses

301–70.300 How should we administer the authorization and payment of miscellaneous expenses?
301–70.301 What governing policies must we establish for payment of miscellaneous expenses?

Subpart E—Policies and Procedures Relating to Travel of an Employee With a Disability or Special Need

301–70.400 How should we authorize and administer the payment of additional travel expenses for an employee with a disability or special need?
301–70.401 What governing policies and procedures must we establish regarding travel of an employee with a disability or special need?

Subpart F—Policies and Procedures for Emergency Travel of Employee Due to Illness or Injury

301–70.500 What governing policies and procedures should we establish relating to emergency travel?
301–70.501 Does per diem continue when an employee interrupts a travel assignment because of an incapacitating illness or injury?
301–70.502 What additional emergency expenses should we allow for?
301–70.503 When the employee is able to travel, should we continue the use of the existing travel authorization?
301–70.504 May any travel costs be reimbursed if the employee travels to an alternate location for medical treatment?
301–70.505 How do we define actual cost and constructive cost when an employee interrupts a travel assignment because of an incapacitating illness or injury?
301–70.506 May we authorize per diem if an employee discontinues a TDY assignment because of a personal emergency situation?
301–70.507 How do we handle reimbursement if the employee travels to an alternate location and returns to the TDY location because of a personal emergency situation?
301–70.508 What factors must we consider in expanding the definition of family for emergency travel purposes?

Subpart G—Policies and Procedures Relating to Threatened Law Enforcement/Investigative Employees

301–70.600 What governing policies and procedures must we establish related to threatened law enforcement/investigative employees?
301–70.601 What factors should we consider in determining whether to authorize payment of transportation and subsistence expenses for threatened law enforcement/investigative employees?
301–70.602 How often must we reevaluate the payment of transportation and subsistence expenses to a threatened law enforcement/investigative employee?

Subpart H—Policies and Procedures Relating to Mandatory Use of the Government Contractor-Issued Travel Charge Card for Official Travel

301–70.700 Must our employees use a Government contractor-issued travel charge card for official travel expenses?
§ 301–70.100 How must we administer the authorization and payment of transportation expenses?

You must:

(a) Limit authorization and payment of transportation expenses to those expenses that result in the greatest advantage to the Government;

(b) Ensure that travel is by the most expeditious means practicable.

§ 301–70.101 What factors must we consider in determining which method of transportation results in the greatest advantage to the Government?

In selecting a particular method of transportation you must consider:

(a) The total cost to the Government, including per diem, overtime, lost worktime, actual transportation cost, total distance of travel, number of points visited, the number of travelers and energy conservation. As stated in 5 U.S.C. 5733, “travel of an employee shall be by the most expeditious means of transportation practicable and shall be commensurate with the nature and purpose of the duties of the employee requiring such travel.”

(b) Travel by common carrier (air, rail, bus) is considered the most advantageous method to perform official travel. Other methods of transportation may be authorized as advantageous only when the use of common carrier transportation would interfere with the performance of official business or impose an undue hardship upon the traveler, or when the total cost by common carrier exceeds the cost by another method of transportation. A determination that another method of transportation is more advantageous to the Government than common carrier will not be made on the basis of personal preference or inconvenience to the traveler.

§ 301–70.102 What governing policies must we establish for authorization and payment of transportation expenses?

You must establish policies and procedures governing:

(a) Who will determine what method of transportation is more advantageous to the Government;

(b) Who will approve any of the following:

(1) Use of premium class service under §301–10.123, §301–10.124, §301–10.162 and §301–10.183 of this chapter;
§ 301–70.103 In what circumstance may we authorize use of ship service?

Travel by ship is not generally regarded as advantageous. You must determine that the advantages accruing from the use of ocean transportation offset the higher costs associated with ship travel, i.e., per diem, transportation, and lost worktime.

§ 301–70.104 What factors should we consider in determining whether to require an employee to commit to the use of a Government automobile?

You should consider:
(a) The advantages of using a Government automobile. Such advantages may include, but are not limited to:
(1) Full utilization or availability of fleet vehicles;
(2) Lower cost;
(3) Official presence.
(b) The type of travel the employee performs. You should require such a commitment when an employee or group of employees requires the use of an automobile for official travel on a frequent or repetitive basis.

§ 301–70.105 May we prohibit an employee from using a POV on official travel?

No, but if the employee elects to use a POV instead of an alternative form of transportation you authorize, you must:
(a) Limit reimbursement to the constructive cost of the authorized method of transportation, which is the sum of per diem and transportation expenses the employee would reasonably have incurred when traveling by the authorized method of transportation; and
(b) Charge leave for any duty hours that are missed as a result of travel by POV.

Subpart C—Policies and Procedures Relating to Per Diem Expenses

§ 301–70.200 What governing policies must we establish for authorization and payment of per diem expenses?

You must establish policies and procedures governing:
(a) Who will authorize a rest period;
(b) Circumstances allowing a rest period during prolonged travel (see §301–11.20 for minimum standards);
(c) If, and in what instances, you will allow an employee to return to his/her official station on non-workdays;
(d) Who will determine if an employee will be allowed to return to his/her official station on a case by case basis.
(e) Who will determine in what instances you will pay a reduced per diem rate;
(f) Who will determine, and in what instances, actual expenses are appropriate in each individual case; and
(g) If you will define a radius broader than the official station in which per diem or actual expense will not be authorized.
Temp. Duty Travel Allowances

Subpart D—Policies and Procedures Relating to Miscellaneous Expenses

§ 301–70.300 How should we administer the authorization and payment of miscellaneous expenses?

You should limit payment of miscellaneous expenses to only those expenses that are necessary and in the interest of the Government.

§ 301–70.301 What governing policies must we establish for payment of miscellaneous expenses?

You must establish policies and procedures governing:

(a) Who will determine when excess baggage is necessary for official travel;
(b) When you will pay for communications services, including whether you will pay for a telephone call to the employee’s home or place where the employee’s dependent children are;
(c) Who will determine if other miscellaneous expenses are appropriate for reimbursement in connection with official travel.

Subpart E—Policies and Procedures Relating to Travel of an Employee with a Disability or Special Need § 301–70.400 How should we authorize and administer the payment of additional travel expenses for an employee with a disability or special need?

You should authorize and administer the payment to reasonably accommodate employee(s) with disabilities in accordance with the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, 29 U.S.C. 701–797(b) and 5 U.S.C. 3102 and Part 301–13 of this chapter. An employee with a special need should be treated the same as an employee with a disability. The additional travel expenses must be necessary to accommodate the employee’s needs.

§ 301–70.401 What governing policies and procedures must we establish regarding travel of an employee with a disability or special need?

You must establish the policies and procedures governing:

(a) Who will determine if an employee has a disability or special need which requires accommodation, including when documentation is necessary under §§ 301–10.123, 301–10.124, 301–10.162, and 301–10.183, and when a determination may be based on a clearly visible physical condition; and
(b) Who will determine how to reasonably accommodate the employee and what expenses you will pay.

Subpart F—Policies and Procedures for Emergency Travel of Employee Due to Illness or Injury

§ 301–70.500 What governing policies and procedures should we establish relating to emergency travel?

Each agency must determine:

(a) When you will authorize emergency travel under part 301–30;
(b) Who will determine if the employee’s situation warrants payment for emergency travel expenses;
(c) When and by whom travel to an alternate location other than official station or point of interruption will be authorized; and
(d) Who will determine when and if the definition of family may be extended and to whom.

§ 301–70.501 Does per diem continue when an employee interrupts a travel assignment because of an incapacitating illness or injury?

Yes. Such an employee who takes leave of any kind will be allowed a per diem allowance not to exceed the maximum rates for the location where the interruption occurs. Per diem may be continued for a reasonable period, normally not to exceed 14 calendar days (including fractional days) for any one period of absence. However, per diem will not be paid if the employee is confined to a hospital or medical facility at the official duty station or medical facility which the employee would § 301–70.502 What additional emergency expenses should we allow for?

When an employee discontinues a TDY assignment before its completion due to an incapacitating illness or injury, transportation and per diem expenses are allowed for return travel to the official station or to receive medical attention.

§ 301–70.503 When the employee is able to travel, should we continue the use of the existing travel authorization?

Not if the interrupted trip was authorized under a trip by trip authorization. If, when the employee’s health has been restored, the agency decides that it is in the Government’s interest to return the employee to the TDY location, such return is considered to be a new travel assignment at Government expense. An interrupted trip authorized under an open or limited open authorization may be continued without further authorization.

§ 301–70.504 May any travel costs be reimbursed if the employee travels to an alternate location for medical treatment?

Yes. When an employee, interrupts a TDY assignment because of an incapacitating illness or injury and takes leave of absence for travel to an alternate location to obtain medical services and returns to the TDY assignment, you may reimburse certain excess travel costs provided in this section. Specifically, you may reimburse the excess (if any) of actual costs of travel from the point of interruption to the alternate location and return to the TDY assignment, over the constructive costs of round-trip travel between the official station and the alternate location. The nearest hospital or medical facility capable of treating the employee’s illness or injury will not, however, be considered an alternate location.

Note to § 301–70.504: An alternate location is a destination other than the employee’s official station or the point of interruption.

§ 301–70.505 How do we define actual cost and constructive cost when an employee interrupts a travel assignment because of an incapacitating illness or injury?

(a) Actual cost of travel will be the transportation expenses incurred and en route per diem for the travel as actually performed from the point of interruption to the alternate location and from the alternate location to the TDY assignment. No per diem is allowed for time spent at the alternate location if confined to a medical facility.

(b) Constructive cost is the sum of transportation expenses the employee would reasonably have incurred for round-trip travel between the official station and the alternate location plus per diem calculated for the appropriate en route travel time.

§ 301–70.506 May we authorize per diem if an employee discontinues a TDY assignment because of a personal emergency situation?

Yes. Expenses of appropriate transportation and per diem while en route may be allowed, with the approval of an appropriate agency official, for return travel from the point of interruption to the official station.

§ 301–70.507 How do we handle reimbursement if the employee travels to an alternate location and returns to the TDY location because of a personal emergency situation?

You may reimburse certain excess travel costs (transportation and en route per diem) to the same extent as provided in § 301–70.501 for incapacitating illness or injury to the employee.

§ 301–70.508 What factors must we consider in expanding the definition of family for emergency travel purposes?

Agencies must consider on a case by case basis:

(a) The extent of the emergency;

(b) The employee’s relationship to the individual involved in the emergency; and

(c) The degree of the employee’s responsibility for the individual involved in the emergency.
Subpart G—Policies and Procedures Relating to Threatened Law Enforcement/Investigative Employees

§ 301–70.600 What governing policies and procedures must we establish related to threatened law enforcement/investigative employees?

You must establish policies and procedures governing:

(a) When you will pay transportation and subsistence expenses of threatened law enforcement/investigative employees, under part 301–31 of this chapter;

(b) Who will determine the degree and seriousness of threat in each individual case;

(c) Who will determine what protective action should be taken, including the location and duration of temporary lodging;

(d) Who will reevaluate the situation to determine whether protective action should be continued or discontinued and how often;

(e) What procedures must be followed to obtain authorization of transportation and subsistence expenses for threatened law enforcement/investigative employees; and

(f) What special procedures must an employee follow to claim expenses.

§ 301–70.601 What factors should we consider in determining whether to authorize payment of transportation and subsistence expenses for threatened law enforcement/investigative employees?

You should consider:

(a) The degree and seriousness of the threat. You should pay transportation and subsistence expenses only if a situation poses a legitimate serious threat to life.

(b) The option of relocating the employee. You should consider whether relocating the employee permanently would be advantageous given the specific nature of the threat, the continued disruption of the family, and the alternative costs of a change of official station.

§ 301–70.602 How often must we reevaluate the payment of transportation and subsistence expenses to a threatened law enforcement/investigative employee?

You must reevaluate the situation every 30 days based on the same factors you considered when you first authorized the payment of the expenses.

Subpart H—Policies and Procedures Relating to Mandatory Use of the Government Contractor-Issued Travel Charge Card for Official Travel

SOURCE: FTR Amdt. 90, 65 FR 3056, Jan. 19, 2000, unless otherwise noted.

§ 301–70.700 Must our employees use a Government contractor-issued travel charge card for official travel expenses?

Yes, your employees must use a Government contractor-issued travel charge card for official travel expenses unless:

(a) A vendor does not accept the travel charge card;

(b) The Administrator of General Services has granted an exemption. (see § 301–70.704); or

(c) Your agency head or his/her designee has granted an exemption.

§ 301–70.701 Who has the authority to grant exemptions to mandatory use of Government contractor-issued travel charge card for official travel?

(a) The Administrator of General Services will exempt any payment, person, type or class of payments, or type or class of personnel in any case in which—

(1) It is in the best interest of the United States to do so;

(2) Payment through a travel charge card is impractical or imposes unreasonable burdens or costs on Federal employees or Federal agencies; or

(3) The Secretary of Defense or the Secretary of Transportation (for the Coast Guard) requests an exemption for the members of their uniformed services;

(b) The head of a Federal agency or his/her designee(s) may exempt any § 301–70.702 Payment, person, type or class of payments, or type or class of agency personnel if the exemption is determined to be necessary in the interest of the agency.

§ 301–70.702 Must we notify the Administrator of General Services when we grant an exemption?

Yes, you must notify the Administrator of General Services (Attention: MTT), 1800 F Street, NW, Washington, DC 20405, in writing within 30 days after granting the exemption, stating the reasons for the exemption.

§ 301–70.703 If we grant an exemption, does that prevent the employee from using the card on a voluntary basis?

No, an exemption from use would not prevent the employee from using the Government contractor-issued travel charge card for official travel expenses on a voluntary basis in accordance with your policies.

§ 301–70.704 What expenses and/or classes of employees are exempt from the mandatory use of the Government contractor-issued travel charge card?

The Administrator of General Services exempts the following from the mandatory use of the Government contractor-issued travel charge card:

(a) Expenses incurred at a vendor that does not accept the Government contractor-issued travel charge card;
(b) Laundry/dry cleaning;
(c) Parking;
(d) Local transportation system;
(e) Taxi;
(f) Tips;
(g) Meals (only when use of the card is impractical, i.e., group meals or the Government contractor-issued travel charge card is not accepted);
(h) Phone calls (when a Government calling card is available for use in accordance with agency policy);
(i) An employee who has an application pending for the travel charge card;
(j) Individuals traveling on invitational travel; and
(k) New appointees.

Note to §301–70.704: Relocation allowances prescribed in chapter 302 of this title, except en-route travel and househunting trip expenses are not covered by this requirement.

[FTR Amdt. 90, 65 FR 3056, Jan. 19, 2000, as amended by FTR Amdt. 92, 65 FR 21366, Apr. 21, 2000]

§ 301–70.705 What methods of payment for official travel expenses may we authorize when an exemption from use of the Government contractor-issued travel charge card is granted?

When you grant an exemption from use of the Government contractor-issued travel charge card, you may authorize one or a combination of the following methods of payment:

(a) Personal funds, including cash or personal charge card;
(b) Travel advances; or
(c) Government Transportation Request (GTR).

Note to §301–70.705: City pair contractors are not required to accept payment by the methods in paragraph (a) or (b) of this section.

§ 301–70.706 May an employee use the Government contractor-issued travel charge card for purposes other than those associated with official travel?

No, the Government contractor-issued travel charge card may be used only for official travel related expenses.

§ 301–70.707 What are the consequences of using the Government contractor-issued travel charge card for non-official travel purposes?

If one of your employees uses the Government contractor-issued travel charge card for purposes other than official travel, you may take appropriate disciplinary action.

301–71.307 What should we do if the employee does not pay back a travel advance when the travel claim is filed?
301–71.308 What internal policies and procedures must we establish governing travel advances?

Source: 63 FR 15974, Apr. 1, 1998, unless otherwise noted.

Subpart A—General

§ 301–71.1 What is the purpose of an agency travel accounting system? To:
(a) Pay authorized and allowable travel expenses of employees;
(b) Provide standard data necessary for the management of official travel; and
(c) Ensure adequate accounting for all travel and transportation expenses for official travel.

§ 301–71.2 What are the standard data elements and when must they be captured on a travel accounting system?

The data elements are listed in appendix C of this chapter and must be on any travel claim form authorized for use by your employees.
May we use electronic signatures on travel documents?

Yes, if you meet the security and privacy requirements established by the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) for electronic data interchange.

Subpart B—Travel Authorization

What is the purpose of the travel authorization process?

The purpose is to:
(a) Provide the employee information regarding what expenses you will pay;
(b) Provide travel service vendors with necessary documentation for the use of travel programs;
(c) Provide financial information necessary for budgetary planning; and
(d) Identify purpose of travel.

What travel may we authorize?

You may authorize only travel which is necessary to accomplish the purposes of the Government effectively and economically. This must be communicated to any official who has the authority to authorize travel.

May we issue a single authorization for a group of employees?

Yes. You may issue a single authorization for a group of employees when they are traveling together on a single trip. However, you must attach a list of all travelers to the authorization.

What information must be included on all travel authorizations?

You must include:
(a) The name of the employee(s);
(b) The signature of the proper authorizing official;
(c) Purpose of travel;
(d) Any conditions of or limitations on that authorization;
(e) An estimate of the travel costs (for open authorizations it should include an estimate of the travel costs over the period covered); and
(f) A statement that the employee(s) is (are) authorized to travel.

Who must sign a travel authorization?

Your agency head or an official to whom such authority has been delegated. This authority may be delegated to any person(s) who is aware of how the authorized travel will support the agency’s mission, who is knowledgeable of the employee’s travel plans and/or responsible for the travel funds paying for the travel involved.

Must we issue a written or electronic travel authorization in advance of travel?

Yes, except when advance written or electronic authorization is not possible or practical and approval is in accordance with §§301–2.1 and 301–2.5 for:
(a) Use of premium-class service on common carrier transportation;
(b) Use of a foreign air carrier;
(c) Use of reduced fares for group or charter arrangements;
(d) Use of cash to pay for common carrier transportation;
(e) Use of extra-fare train service;
(f) Travel by ship;
(g) Use of a rental car;
(h) Use of a Government aircraft;
(i) Payment of reduced rate per diem;
(j) Payment of actual expenses;
(k) Travel by ship;
(l) Transportation expenses related to emergency travel;
(m) Travel expenses related to threatened law enforcement/investigative employees and members of their immediate families;
(n) Travel expenses related to travel to a foreign area, except as provided by agency mission;
(o) Acceptance of payment from a non-Federal source for travel expenses (see chapter 304 of this title); and
(p) Travel expenses related to attendance at a conference.

Note to §301–71.105: You should establish procedures for travel situations where it is not practical or possible to issue a written authorization in advance, except for paragraphs (c), (l), (m), (n), and (o), which always require written or electronic advance authorization.

Who must sign a trip-by-trip authorization?

The appropriate official is determined as follows:
§ 301–71.107 When authorizing travel, what factors must the authorizing official consider?

The following factors must be considered:
(a) The need for the travel;
(b) The use of travel substitutes (e.g., mail, teleconferencing, etc.);
(c) The most cost effective routing and means of accomplishing travel; and
(d) The employee’s travel plans, including plans to take leave in conjunction with travel.

§ 301–71.108 What internal policies and procedures must we establish for travel authorization?

You must establish the following:
(a) The circumstances under which different types of travel authorizations will be used, consistent with the guidelines in this subpart;
(b) Who will be authorized to sign travel authorizations; and
(c) What format you will use for travel authorizations.

[63 FR 15974, Apr. 1, 1998; 63 FR 35538, June 30, 1998]

Subpart C—Travel Claims for Reimbursement

§ 301–71.200 Who must review and sign travel claims?

The travel authorizing/approving official or his/her designee (e.g., supervisor of the traveler), must review and sign travel claims to confirm the authorized travel.

§ 301–71.201 What are the reviewing official’s responsibilities?

The reviewing official must have full knowledge of the employee’s activities. He/she must ensure:

(a) The claim is properly prepared in accordance with the pertinent regulations and agency procedures;
(b) A copy of authorization for travel is provided;
(c) The types of expenses claimed are authorized and allowable expenses;
(d) The amounts claimed are accurate; and
(e) The required receipts, statements, justifications, etc. are attached to the travel claim.

§ 301–71.202 May we pay a claim when an employee does not include a copy of the corresponding authorization?

Yes, as long as the travel claim was signed by the approving/authorizing official, except for the following, which require advance authorization:
(a) Use of reduced fares for group or charter arrangements;
(b) Payment of a reduced rate of per diem for subsistence expenses;
(c) Acceptance of payment from a non-Federal source for travel expenses; and
(d) Travel expenses related to attendance at a conference.

§ 301–71.203 Who is responsible for the validity of the travel claim?

The certifying officer assumes ultimate responsibility under 31 U.S.C. 3528 for the validity of the claim; however:
(a) The traveler must ensure all travel expenses are prudent and necessary and submit the expenses in the form of a proper claim;
(b) The authorizing/approving official shall review the completed claim to ensure that the claim is properly prepared in accordance with regulations and agency procedures prior to authorizing it for payment.

§ 301–71.204 Within how many calendar days after the submission of a proper travel claim must we reimburse the employee’s allowable expenses?

You must reimburse the employee within 30 calendar days after the employee submits a proper travel claim to the agency’s designated approving office. You must use a satisfactory recordkeeping system to track submission of travel claims. For example, travel claims submitted by mail, in accordance with agency policy, could be annotated with the time and date of receipt by the agency. You could consider travel claims electronically submitted to the designated approving office as submitted on the date indicated on an e-mail log, or on the next business day if submitted after normal working hours. However, claims for the following relocation allowances are exempt from this provision:

(a) Transportation and storage of household goods and professional books, papers and equipment;
(b) Transportation of mobile home;
(c) Transportation of a privately owned vehicle;
(d) Temporary quarters subsistence expense, when not paid as lump sum;
(e) Residence transaction expenses;
(f) Relocation income tax allowance;
(g) Use of a relocation services company;
(h) Home marketing incentive payments; and
(i) Allowance for property management services.

[FTR Amdt. 92, 65 FR 21366, Apr. 21, 2000]

§ 301–71.205 Under what circumstances may we disallow a claim for an expense?

If the employee:
(a) Does not properly itemize his/her expenses;
(b) Does not provide required receipts or other documentation to support the claim; or
(c) Claims an expense which is not authorized.

[FTR Amdt. 92, 65 FR 21366, Apr. 21, 2000]

§ 301–71.206 What must we do if we disallow a travel claim?

You must:
(a) Pay the employee the amount of the travel claim which is not in dispute;
(b) Notify the employee that the claim was disallowed with a detailed explanation of why; and
(c) Tell the employee how to appeal the disallowance if he/she desires an appeal, and your process and schedule for deciding the appeal.

§ 301–71.207 What internal policies and procedures must we establish for travel reimbursement?

You must establish policies and procedures governing:
(a) Who are the proper officials to review, approve, and certify travel claims (including travel claims requiring special authorization);
(b) How an employee should submit a travel claim (including whether to use a standard form or an agency form and whether the form should be written or electronic);
(c) When you will exempt employees from the requirement for a receipt;
(d) Timeframes for employee to submit a claim (see §301–52.7);
(e) Timeframe for agency to pay a claim (see §301–71.204);
(f) Process for disallowing a claim; and
(g) Process for resolving a disallowed claim.

§ 301–71.208 Within how many calendar days after submission of a proper travel claim must we notify the employee of any errors in the claim?

You must notify the employee as soon as practicable after the employee’s submission of the travel claim of any error that would prevent payment within 30 calendar days after submission and provide the reason(s) why the claim is not proper. However, not later than May 1, 2002, you must achieve a maximum time period of seven working days for notifying an employee that his/her travel claim is not proper.

[FTR Amdt. 92, 65 FR 21366, Apr. 21, 2000]
§ 301–71.209 Must we pay a late payment fee if we fail to reimburse the employee within 30 calendar days after receipt of a proper travel claim?

Yes, a late payment fee, in addition to the amount due the employee, must be paid for any proper travel claim not reimbursed within 30 calendar days of submission to the approving official.

[FTR Amdt. 92, 65 FR 3057, Jan. 19, 2000]

§ 301–71.210 How do we calculate late payment fees?

Late payment fees are calculated either by:

(a) Using the prevailing Prompt Payment Act Interest Rate beginning on the 31st day after submission of a proper travel claim and ending on the date on which payment is made; or

(b) A flat fee, of not less than the prompt payment amount, based on an agencywide average of travel claim payments; and

(c) In addition to the fee required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, you must also pay an amount equivalent to any late payment charge that the card contractor would have been able to charge had the employee not paid the bill. Payment of this additional fee will be based upon the effective date that a late payment charge would be allowed under the agreement between the employee and the card contractor.

[FTR Amdt. 92, 65 FR 21366, Apr. 21, 2000]

§ 301–71.211 Is there a minimum amount the late payment fee must exceed before we will pay it?

Yes, a late payment fee will only be paid when the computed late payment fee is $1.00 or greater.

[FTR Amdt. 90, 65 FR 3058, Jan. 19, 2000]

§ 301–71.212 Should we report late payment fees as wages on a Form W–2?

No, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has determined that the late payment fee is in the nature of interest (compensation for the use of money).

[FTR Amdt. 90, 65 FR 3058, Jan. 19, 2000]

§ 301–71.213 Is the additional fee, which is the equivalent to any late payment charge that the card contractor would have been able to charge had the employee not paid the bill, considered income?

Yes, you must report this late payment fee as additional wages on Form W–2.

[FTR Amdt. 90, 65 FR 3058, Jan. 19, 2000]

§ 301–71.214 Does mandatory use of the Government contractor-issued travel charge card change the employee’s obligation to pay his/her travel card bill by the due date?

No, mandatory use of the Government contractor-issued travel charge card does not relieve the employee of his/her obligation to honor his/her cardholder payment agreement.

[FTR Amdt. 90, 65 FR 3058, Jan. 19, 2000]

Subpart D—Accounting for Travel Advances

§ 301–71.300 What is the policy governing the use of travel advances?

You should minimize the use of cash travel advances. However, you should not require an employee to pay travel expenses using personal funds unless the employee has elected not to use alternative resources provided by the Government, such as a Government contractor-issued charge card.

§ 301–71.301 For how long may we issue a travel advance?

You may issue a travel advance for a reasonable period not to exceed 45 days.

§ 301–71.302 What data must we capture in our travel advance accounting system?

You must capture the following data:

(a) The name and social security number of each employee who has an advance;

(b) The amount of the advance;

(c) The date of issuance; and

(d) The date of reconciliation for unused portions of travel advances.

[63 FR 15974, Apr. 1, 1998; 63 FR 35538, June 30, 1998]
§ 301–71.303 Are we responsible for ensuring the collection of outstanding travel advances?

Yes.

§ 301–71.304 When must an employee account for a travel advance?

An employee must account for an outstanding travel advance each time a travel claim is filed. If the employee receives a travel advance but determines that the related travel will not be performed, then the employee must inform you that the travel will not be performed and repay the advance at that time.

§ 301–71.305 Are there exceptions to collecting an advance at the time the employee files a travel claim?

Yes, when the employee is in a continuous travel status and
(a) You review each outstanding travel advance on a periodic basis (the period will be for a reasonable time of 45 days or less); and
(b) You determine the amount, if any, of the outstanding balance exceeds the amount of estimated travel expenses for the authorized period and collect the excess amount from the employee.

§ 301–71.306 How do we collect the amount of a travel advance in excess of the amount of travel expenses substantiated by the employee?

When the outstanding advance exceeds what you owe the employee, then the employee must submit cash or a check for the difference in accordance with your policy. Your failure to collect the amount in excess of substantiated expenses will cause a violation of the accountable plan rules contained in the Internal Revenue Code (title 26 of the United States Code).

§ 301–71.307 What should we do if the employee does not pay back a travel advance when the travel claim is filed?

You should take alternative steps to collect the debt including:
(a) Offset against the employee’s salary, a retirement credit, or other amount owed the employee;
(b) Deduction from an amount the Government owes the employee; or
(c) Any other legal method of recovery.

§ 301–71.308 What internal policies and procedures must we establish governing travel advances?

Accounting for cash advances for travel, recovery, and reimbursement shall be in accordance with procedures prescribed by the General Accounting Office (see General Accounting Office Policy and Procedures Manual for Guidance of Federal Agencies, Title 7, Fiscal Procedures).

Subpart A—Procurement of Common Carrier Transportation

§ 301–72.1 Why is common carrier presumed to be the most advantageous method of transportation?

Travel by common carrier is presumed to be the most advantageous method of transportation because it generally results in the most efficient, least costly, most expeditious means of transportation and the most efficient use of energy resources.

§ 301–72.2 May we utilize methods of transportation other than common carrier (e.g. POVs, chartered vehicles, etc.)?

Yes, but only when use of common carrier transportation:

(a) Would interfere with the performance of official business;
(b) Would impose an undue hardship upon the traveler; or
(c) When the total cost by common carrier would exceed the cost of the other method of transportation.

§ 301–72.3 What method of payment must we authorize for common carrier transportation?

You must authorize one or more of the following as appropriate:

(a) GSA’s Government contractor-issued individually billed charge card(s);
(b) Agency centrally billed or other established accounts;
(c) Cash payments (personal funds or travel advances in the form of traveler checks or authorized ATM cash withdrawals) when the cost of transportation is less than $100, under § 301–51.100 of this chapter (cash may or may not be accepted by the carrier for the purchase of city pair fares); or
(d) GTR(s) when no other option is available or feasible.

[63 FR 15976, Apr. 1, 1998; 63 FR 35538, June 30, 1998]

Subpart B—Accounting for Common Carrier Transportation

§ 301–72.100 What must my travel accounting system do in relation to common carrier transportation?

Your system must:

(a) Authorize the use of cash in accordance with § 301–51.100 or as otherwise required;
(b) Correlate travel data accumulated by your authorization and claims accounting systems with common carrier transportation documents and data for audit purposes;
(c) Identify unused tickets for refund;
(d) Collect unused, partially used, or downgraded/exchanged tickets, from travelers upon completion of travel;
(e) Track denied boarding compensation from employees;
(f) Identify and collect refunds due from carriers for overpayments, or unused, partially used, or downgraded/exchanged tickets; and
(g) Reconcile all centrally billed travel expenses (e.g. airline, lodging, car rentals, etc.) with travel authorizations and claims to assure that only authorized charges are paid.

§ 301–72.101 What information should we provide an employee before authorizing the use of common carrier transportation?

You should provide the employee:

(a) Notice that he/she is accountable for all tickets, GTRs and other transportation documents;
(b) Your procedures for the control and accounting of common carrier transportation documents, including the procedures for submitting unused, partially used, downgraded/exchanged tickets, refund receipts or ticket refund applications, and denied boarding compensation; and
(c) A credit/refund address so the carrier can credit/refund the agency for unused tickets (when the tickets have been issued using an agency centrally billed account or by GTR).
§ 301–72.200  Under what conditions may we authorize cash payments for procuring common carrier transportation services?

In accordance with §301–51.100.

§ 301–72.201  What must we do if an employee uses cash in excess of the $100 limit to purchase common carrier transportation?

To justify the use of cash in excess of $100, both the agency and traveler must certify on the travel claim the necessity for such use. See 41 CFR 101–41.203–2.

§ 301–72.202  Who may approve cash payments in excess of the $100 limit?

You must ensure the delegation of authority for the authorization or approval of cash payments over the $100 limit is in accordance with 41 CFR 101–41.203–2.

§ 301–72.203  When may we limit traveler reimbursement for a cash payment?

If you determine that the cash payment was made under a non-emergency circumstance, reimbursement to the traveler must not exceed the cost which would have been properly chargeable to the Government had the traveler used a government provided payment resource, (e.g. individual Government contractor-issued travel charge card, centrally billed account, or GTR). However, an agency can determine to make full payment when circumstances warrant (e.g. invitational travel, infrequent travelers and interviewees).

[63 FR 15976, Apr. 1, 1998; 63 FR 35538, June 30, 1998]

§ 301–72.204  What must we do to minimize the need for a traveler to use cash to procure common carrier transportation services?

You must establish procedures to encourage travelers to use the GSA individual Government contractor-issued travel charge card(s), or your agency’s centrally billed or other established account, or a GTR (when no other option is available or feasible).

[63 FR 15976, Apr. 1, 1998; 63 FR 35538, June 30, 1998]

Subpart D—Unused, Partially Used, Exchanged, Canceled, or Oversold Common Carrier Transportation Services

§ 301–72.300  What procedures must we establish to collect unused, partially used, and exchanged tickets?

You must establish administrative procedures providing:

(a) Written instructions explaining traveler liability for the value of tickets issued until all ticket coupons are used or properly accounted for on the travel voucher;

(b) Instructions for submitting payments received from carriers for failure to provide confirmed reserved space;

(c) The traveler with a “bill charges to” address, so that the traveler can provide this information to the carrier for returned or exchanged tickets.

(d) Procedures for promptly identifying any unused tickets, coupons, or other evidence of refund due the Government.

§ 301–72.301  How do we process unused, partially used, and exchanged tickets?

(a) For unused or partially used tickets purchased with GTRs: You must obtain the unused or partially used ticket from the traveler, issue a form SF 1170 “Redemption of Unused Ticket” to the airline that issued the ticket, maintain a suspense file to monitor the airline refund, and record and deposit the airline refund upon receipt. See 41 CFR 101–41.210 for policies and procedures regarding the use of the SF 1170.

(b) For unused or partially used tickets purchased under centrally billed accounts: You must obtain the unused ticket from the traveler, return it to the issuing office that furnished the airline ticket, obtain a receipt indicating a credit is due, and confirm that the value of the unused ticket has been credited to the centrally billed account.

(c) For exchanged tickets purchased with GTRs: You must obtain the airline refund application or receipt from the traveler, maintain a suspense file to monitor the airline refund. For additional guidance see 41 CFR 101–41.210.

(d) For exchanged tickets purchased under centrally billed accounts: You must obtain the airline receipt from the traveler showing a credit is due the agency, and ensure that the unused portion of the exchanged ticket coupon is credited to the centrally billed account.

PART 301–73—TRAVEL PROGRAMS

Subpart A—General Rules

Sec. 301–73.1 What are the elements of a Federal travel management program?

They are:

(a) Travel management services, including electronic travel management services and commercial travel agents under contract to GSA or another Federal agency;

(b) Commercial passenger transportation services (e.g., airlines, rental cars, trains, etc.);

(c) Travel payment system services such as Government contractor-issued individually billed cards, centrally billed accounts, travelers checks, and automated-teller-machine (ATM) services.

[63 FR 15978, Apr. 1, 1998; 63 FR 35538, June 30, 1998]

§ 301–73.2 What are our responsibilities when we participate in a Federal travel management program?

You must:

(a) Ensure that you have internal policies and procedures in place to govern use of the program; and

(b) Designate an authorized representative to administer the program.

Subpart B—Travel Management Services (TMS)

§ 301–73.100 Should we use a travel management service?

Yes.

§ 301–73.101 What are the basic services that should be covered by a travel management system?

The travel management system selected should, as a minimum include:

(a) The ability to provide the following as appropriate to the agency’s travel needs:

(1) Common carrier information (e.g., flight confirmation and seat assignment; compliance with the Fly America Act, governmentwide travel policies, and contract city-pair fares, electronic ticketing and ticket delivery);

(2) Lodging information (e.g., room availability and confirmation, compliance with Hotel/Motel Fire Safety Act, per diem rate acceptability);

(3) Car rental information (e.g., availability of Government rate and confirmation of reservations).

VerDate 11<MAY>2000 16:38 Jul 18, 2001 Jkt 194168 PO 00000 Frm 00077 Fmt 8010 Sfmt 8010 Y:\SGML\194168T.XXX pfrm13 PsN: 194168T
§ 301–73.102

(b) Provide basic management information, such as:

type of service (common carrier, lodging, and car rental);

2. Policy compliance and reasons for exceptions;

3. Origin and destination points of common carrier use;

4. Destination points for lodging accommodations;

5. Number of lodging nights in approved accommodations;

6. City or location where car rentals are obtained;

7. Other tasks, e.g., reconciliation of charges on centrally billed accounts, processing ticket refunds.

NOTE TO § 301–73.101: The government of the District of Columbia is excluded from collecting the data required by the Hotel/Motel Fire Safety Act, as amended.

[63 FR 15978, Apr. 1, 1998; 63 FR 35538, June 30, 1998]

§ 301–73.102 Must we require travelers to use a travel management system?

Yes, starting January 1, 2001, to implement the Hotel/Motel Fire Safety Act, as amended (see 5 U.S.C. 5707c).

Until that time, you should encourage your travelers to use the travel management system selected by you for all common carrier, lodging, and car rental arrangements. Beginning January 1, 2001, you must require travelers to use the travel management system selected by you.

§ 301–73.103 Are there any exceptions to this requirement?

An agency head, or his/her designee, may exempt certain types of travel arrangements from the mandatory use of the travel management system. In certain situations, it may be impractical to make advance reservations, and therefore no reason exists to use a TMS.

Subpart C—Contract Passenger Transportation Services

§ 301–73.200 Must we require our employees to use GSA’s contract passenger transportation services program?

Yes, if such services are available to your agency.

§ 301–73.201 What method of payment may be used for contract passenger transportation service?

GSA individual Government contractor-issued travel charge card(s), or your agency centrally billed or other established account, or a GTR (when no other option is available or feasible).

[63 FR 15978, Apr. 1, 1998; 63 FR 35538, June 30, 1998]

§ 301–73.202 Can contract fares be used for personal travel?

No.

Subpart D—Travel Payment System

§ 301–73.300 What is a travel payment system?

A system to facilitate the payment of official travel and transportation expenses which includes, but is not limited to:

(a) Issuance and maintenance of Government contractor-issued individually billed charge cards;

(b) Establishment of centrally billed accounts for the purchase of travel and transportation services;

(c) Issuance of travelers checks; and

(d) Provision of automated-teller-machine (ATM) services worldwide.

[63 FR 15978, Apr. 1, 1998; 63 FR 35538, June 30, 1998]

§ 301–73.301 How do we obtain travel payment system services?

You may participate in GSA’s or another Federal agency’s travel payment system services program or you may contract directly with a travel payment system service if your agency has contracting authority and you are not a mandatory user of GSA’s charge card program.
Temp. Duty Travel Allowances

NOTE TO §301–73.301: Under the new GSA charge card program effective November 30, 1998, it will be your responsibility to select the vendor that will be most beneficial to your agency’s travel and transportation needs.

PART 301–74—CONFERENCE PLANNING

Subpart A—Agency Responsibilities

Sec. 301–74.1 What policies must we follow in planning a conference?

When planning a conference, you must:

(a) Minimize all conference costs, including administrative costs, conference attendees’ travel costs, and conference attendees’ time costs;

(b) Maximize the use of Government-owned or Government provided conference facilities as much as possible;

(c) Identify opportunities to reduce costs in selecting a particular conference location and facility (e.g., through the availability of lower rates during the off-season at a site with seasonal rates); and

(d) Develop and establish internal policies to ensure these standards are met.

§ 301–74.2 What special rules apply when a conference is held in the District of Columbia?

§ 301–74.18 What policies and procedures must we establish to govern the selection of conference attendees?

§ 301–74.19 What records must we maintain to document the selection of a conference site?

Subpart B—Conference Attendees

§ 301–74.21 What is the applicable M&IE rate when meals or light refreshments are furnished at nominal or no cost by the Government or are included in the registration fee?

§ 301–74.22 When may an employee, attending a conference, be authorized the conference lodging allowance?

§ 301–74.23 Is the conference lodging allowance an actual expense reimbursement?

§ 301–74.24 When should actual expense reimbursement be authorized for conference attendees?

SOURCE: FTR Amdt. No. 89, 65 FR 1327, Jan. 10, 2000, unless otherwise noted.

Subpart A—Agency Responsibilities

NOTE TO SUBPART A: Use of pronouns “we”, “you”, and their variants throughout this subpart refers to the agency.

§ 301–74.1 What policies must we follow in planning a conference?

When planning a conference, you must:

(a) Minimize all conference costs, including administrative costs, conference attendees’ travel costs, and conference attendees’ time costs;

(b) Maximize the use of Government-owned or Government provided conference facilities as much as possible;

(c) Identify opportunities to reduce costs in selecting a particular conference location and facility (e.g., through the availability of lower rates during the off-season at a site with seasonal rates); and

(d) Develop and establish internal policies to ensure these standards are met.

§ 301–74.2 What costs should be considered when planning a conference?

When planning a conference, you should consider all direct and indirect conference costs paid by the Government, whether paid directly by agencies or reimbursed by agencies to travelers or others associated with the conference. Some examples of such costs are:

79

(a) Authorized travel and per diem expenses;
(b) Hire of rooms for official business;
(c) Audiovisual and other equipment usage;
(d) Computer and telephone access fees;
(e) Light refreshments;
(f) Printing;
(g) Registration fees;
(h) Ground transportation; and
(i) Employees' time at the conference and on en route travel.

§ 301–74.3 What must we do to determine which conference expenditures result in the greatest advantage to the Government?

To determine conference expenditures, you must:

(a) Assure there is appropriate management oversight of the conference planning process;
(b) Always do cost comparisons of the size, scope, and location of the proposed conference;
(c) Determine if a Government facility is available at a cheaper rate than a commercial facility;
(d) Consider alternatives to a conference, e.g. teleconferencing; and
(e) Maintain written documentation of the alternatives considered and the selection rationale used.

§ 301–74.4 What should cost comparisons include?

Cost comparisons should include, but not be limited to, a determination of adequacy of lodging rooms at the established per diem rates, overall convenience of the conference location, fees, availability of meeting space, equipment, and supplies, and commuting or travel distance of attendees. (See Appendix E to Chapter 301, Guidance for Conference Planning.)

§ 301–74.5 How should we select a location and a facility?

Site selection is a final decision as to where to hold your conference. The term "site" refers to both the geographical location and the specific facility(ies) selected. In determining the best site in the interest of the Government, you should exercise strict fiscal responsibility to minimize costs. The actions in §301–74.3 must be followed. Cost comparisons must cover factors such as those listed in §301–74.4. As part of the cost comparison, you must use the established per diem rate for the locations for which you are comparing costs.

§ 301–74.6 What can we do if we cannot find an appropriate conference facility at the chosen locality per diem rate?

While it is always desirable to obtain lodging facilities within the established lodging portion of the per diem rate for the chosen locality, it may not always be possible. In negotiating lodging rates with the properties in the chosen location, you may exceed the established lodging portion of the per diem rate by up to 25 percent under §§301–74.8 and 301–74.9, if necessary. This will provide flexibility in selecting an appropriate property at the most advantageous location. It will also permit agencies to reimburse their employees' subsistence expenses by using the conference lodging allowance method as prescribed in §301–74.8 for a Government sponsored conference and in §301–74.9 for non-Government sponsored conferences, rather than the actual expense method prescribed in subpart D of part 301–11 of this chapter.

§ 301–74.7 What is the conference lodging allowance?

The conference lodging allowance is a pre-determined maximum allowance of up to 25 percent greater than the applicable locality lodging portion of the per diem rate. Under this reimbursement method, employees will be reimbursed the actual amount incurred for lodging up to the conference lodging allowance.

§ 301–74.8 Who may authorize reimbursement of the conference lodging allowance for a Government sponsored conference?

The approval authority for the conference lodging allowance is the Government agency sponsoring the conference. The sponsoring agency will determine the appropriate conference lodging allowance, up to 25 percent above the established lodging allowance for the chosen location, and that rate shall be allowable for all employees of any agency authorized to attend the conference. The determination must be made by a senior agency official at the sponsoring agency.

§ 301.74.10 May the conference lodging allowance ever exceed 25 percent above the lodging per diem rate?

No, the conference lodging allowance may not exceed 25 percent above the applicable locality lodging per diem rate.

§ 301.74.11 May we provide light refreshments at an official conference?

Yes. Agencies sponsoring a conference may provide light refreshments to agency employees attending an official conference. Light refreshments for morning, afternoon or evening breaks are defined to include, but not be limited to, coffee, tea, milk, juice, soft drinks, donuts, bagels, fruit, pretzels, cookies, chips, or muffins.

§ 301.74.12 May we use both the conference lodging allowance method and the actual expense method of reimbursement concurrently?

No. You must only use one reimbursement method per day in accordance with § 301–11.4 of this chapter.

§ 301.74.13 May we include conference administrative costs in an employee's per diem allowance payment for attendance at a conference?

No. Per diem is intended only to reimburse the attendee's subsistence expenses. You must pay conference registration fees separately, either directly or by reimbursing employees who pay such expenses and submit travel claims.

§ 301.74.14 Are there any special requirements for sponsoring or funding a conference at a hotel, motel or other place of public accommodation?

Yes. When you sponsor or fund (see 15 U.S.C. 2225a), in whole or in part, a conference at a place of public accommodation in the United States, you must use an approved accommodation (see § 300–3.1 of this title), except as provided in § 301–74.15. This provision also applies to the government of the District of Columbia when it expends Federal funds for a conference and any non-Federal entity which uses Government funds to sponsor or fund a conference.

§ 301.74.15 May we waive the requirement in § 301–74.14?

Yes, if the head of your agency makes a written determination on an individual case basis that waiver of the requirement to use approved accommodations is necessary in the public interest for a particular event. Your agency head may delegate this waiver authority to a senior agency official or employee who is given waiver authority with respect to all conferences sponsored or funded, in whole or in part, by your agency.

§ 301–74.16 What must be included in any advertisement or application form relating to conference attendance?

(a) Any advertisement or application for attendance at a conference described in § 301–74.14 must include:

1. Notice of the prohibition against using a non-FEMA approved place of public accommodation for conferences;

2. Notice that the conference lodging allowance applies to Federal attendees, if applicable.

(b) In addition, any executive agency, as defined in 5 U.S.C. 105, shall notify all non-Federal entities to which it provides Federal funds of this prohibition.
§ 301–74.17 What special rules apply when a conference is held in the District of Columbia?

In addition to the general rules provided in this part, the following special rules apply:

(a) You may not directly procure lodging facilities in the District of Columbia without specific authorization and appropriation from Congress (see 40 U.S.C. 34); and

NOTE TO §301–74.17(a): This provision does not prohibit payment of per diem to an employee authorized to obtain lodging in the District of Columbia while performing official business travel.

§ 301–74.18 What policies and procedures must we establish to govern the selection of conference attendees?

You must establish policies that reduce the overall cost of conference attendance. The policies and procedures must:

(a) Limit your agency’s representation to the minimum number of attendees determined by a senior official necessary to accomplish your agency’s mission; and

(b) Provide for the consideration of travel expenses when selecting attendees.

§ 301–74.19 What records must we maintain to document the selection of a conference site?

For each conference you sponsor or fund, in whole or in part for 30 or more attendees, you must maintain a record of the cost of each alternative conference site considered. You must consider at least three sites. You must make these records available for inspection by your Office of the Inspector General or other interested parties.

Subpart B—Conference Attendees

NOTE TO SUBPART B: Use of pronouns “we”, “you”, and their variants throughout this subpart refers to the agency.
Temp. Duty Travel Allowances

§ 301–75.100 Must we pay all of the interviewee’s pre-employment interview travel expenses?

§ 301–75.101 What pre-employment interview travel expenses may we pay?

Subpart B—Travel Expenses

§ 301–75.104 What other responsibilities do we have for pre-employment interview travel?

You must:
(a) Provide your interviewees with a list of FEMA approved accommodations in the vicinity of the interview, and encourage them to stay in an approved accommodation;
(b) Inform the interviewee that he/she is responsible for excess cost and any additional expenses that he/she incurs for personal preference or convenience;
(c) Inform the interviewee that the Government will not pay for excess costs resulting from circuitous routes, delays, or luxury accommodations or services unnecessary or unjustified in the performance of official business;
(d) Assist the interviewee in preparing the travel claim;
(e) Provide the interviewee with instructions on how to submit the claim; and
(f) Inform the interviewee that he/she may subject himself/herself to criminal penalties if he or she knowingly presents a false, fictitious, or fraudulent travel claim 18 U.S.C. 287 and 1001.

§ 301–75.201 May we allow the interviewee to use individual Government contractor-issued charge cards for pre-employment interview travel?

§ 301–75.202 What must we do if the interviewee exchanges the ticket he or she has been issued?

§ 301–75.203 May we provide the interviewee with a travel advance?

§ 301–75.204 May we use Government contractor-issued travelers checks to pay for the interviewee’s travel expenses?

§ 301–75.205 Is the interviewee required to submit a travel claim to us?

Authority: 5 U.S.C. 5707.

Source: 63 FR 15980, Apr. 1, 1998, unless otherwise noted.

Subpart A—General Rules

§ 301–75.1 What is the purpose of the allowance for pre-employment interview travel expenses?

To help you recruit highly qualified individuals.

§ 301–75.2 May we pay pre-employment interview travel expenses?

Yes, if you determine it is in the best interest of the Government to do so. However, pre-employment travel expenses may not be authorized to offset or defray other expenses not allowable under this subpart.

§ 301–75.3 What governing policies and procedures must we establish related to pre-employment interview travel?

You must establish policies and procedures governing:
(a) When you will pay pre-employment interview travel expenses, including the criteria for determining which individuals or positions qualify for payment of such expenses;
(b) Who will determine, in each individual case, that a person qualifies for pre-employment interview travel expenses; and
(c) Who will determine what expenses you will pay for each individual interviewee.

§ 301–75.4 What are our responsibilities when we authorize an interviewee to use common carrier transportation to perform pre-employment interview travel?

You must:
(a) Provide your interviewees with a list of FEMA approved accommodations in the vicinity of the interview, and encourage them to stay in an approved accommodation;
(b) Inform the interviewee that he/she is responsible for excess cost and any additional expenses that he/she incurs for personal preference or convenience;
(c) Inform the interviewee that the Government will not pay for excess costs resulting from circuitous routes, delays, or luxury accommodations or services unnecessary or unjustified in the performance of official business;
(d) Assist the interviewee in preparing the travel claim;
(e) Provide the interviewee with instructions on how to submit the claim; and
(f) Inform the interviewee that he/she may subject himself/herself to criminal penalties if he or she knowingly presents a false, fictitious, or fraudulent travel claim 18 U.S.C. 287 and 1001.

[63 FR 15980, Apr. 1, 1998; 63 FR 35538, June 30, 1998]
§ 301–75.101 What pre-employment interview travel expenses may we pay?

You may pay the following expenses:
(a) Transportation expenses as provided in part 301–10 of this chapter;
(b) Per diem expenses as provided in part 301–11 of this chapter;
(c) Miscellaneous expenses as provided in part 301–12 of this chapter; and
(d) Travel expenses of an individual with a disability or special need as provided in part 301–13 of this chapter.

§ 301–75.102 What pre-employment interview travel expenses are not payable?

You may not pay expenses for:
(a) Use of communication services for purposes other than communication directly related to travel arrangement for the Government interview.
(b) Hire of a room at a hotel or other place to transact official business.

§ 301–75.103 What are our responsibilities when we authorize an interviewee to use common carrier transportation to perform pre-employment interview travel?

You must provide the interviewee with one of the following:
(a) A common carrier ticket;
(b) A GTR; or
(c) A point of contact with your travel management center to arrange the common carrier transportation. In this instance, you must notify the travel management center that the interviewee is authorized to receive a ticket for the trip;
(d) Written instructions explaining your procedures and the liability of the interviewee for controlling and accounting for passenger transportation documents, if common carrier transportation is required;
(e) A credit/refund address for any common carrier transportation provided for unused government furnished tickets.

§ 301–75.200 How will we pay for pre-employment interviewee travel expenses?

For

You will

Common carrier transportation expenses other than local transportation. Bill the expenses to a centrally billed or other agency established account or provide the traveler with a GTR when no other option is available or feasible.
Other expenses ........................................... Require payment by the interviewee and reimburse the interviewee for allowable travel expenses upon submission and approval of his/her travel claim.

§ 301–75.201 May we allow the interviewee to use individual Government contractor-issued charge cards for pre-employment interview travel?

No.

§ 301–75.202 What must we do if the interviewee exchanges the ticket he or she has been issued?

If

You will inform the traveler

The new ticket is more expensive than the ticket you provided. That he/she must pay the difference using personal funds and he/she will not receive reimbursement for the extra amount.
The new ticket is less expensive than the ticket you provided. Provide the interviewee with a credit/refund address by attaching a copy of the GTR, or some other document containing this information, to either the ticket or the travel authorization as provided in 41 CFR 101–41.210.
§ 301–75.203 May we provide the interviewee with a travel advance?
No.

§ 301–75.204 May we use Government contractor-issued travelers checks to pay for the interviewee’s travel expenses?
No.

§ 301–75.205 Is the interviewee required to submit a travel claim to us?
No. Only if the interviewee wants to be reimbursed, then he or she must submit a travel claim in accordance with your agency procedures in order to receive reimbursement for pre-employment interview travel expense.

PART 301–76—COLLECTION OF UNDISPUTED DELINQUENT AMOUNTS OWED TO THE CONTRACTOR ISSUING THE INDIVIDUALLY BILLED TRAVEL CHARGE CARD

Subpart A—General Rules

Sec.
301–76.1 May we collect undisputed delinquent amounts that an employee (including members of the uniformed services) owes to a Government travel charge card contractor?
Yes, upon written request from the contractor and in accordance with the procedures specified in § 301–76.100, you may collect undisputed amounts owed to a Government travel charge card contractor from the delinquent employee’s disposable pay. You must promptly forward all amounts deducted to the contractor.

301–76.2 What is disposable pay?
Disposable pay is the part of the employee’s compensation remaining after the deduction of any amounts required by law to be withheld. These deductions do not include discretionary deductions such as savings bonds, charitable contributions, etc. Deductions may be made from any type of pay, e.g., basic pay, special pay, retirement pay, or incentive pay.

Subpart B—Policies and Procedures

Note to Subpart B: Use of pronouns “we”, “you”, and their variants throughout this part refers to the agency.

§ 301–76.100 Are there any due process requirements with which we must comply before collecting undisputed delinquent amounts on behalf of the charge card contractor?
Yes, you must:
(a) Provide the employee with written notice of the type and amount of the claim, the intention to collect the claim by deduction from his/her disposable pay, and an explanation of his/her rights as a debtor;
(b) Give the employee the opportunity to inspect and copy your records related to the claim;
(c) Allow an opportunity for a review within the agency of your decision to collect the amount; and

SOURCE: FTR Amdt. No. 90, 65 FR 3058, Jan. 19, 2000, unless otherwise noted.
§ 301–76.101  Who is responsible for ensuring that all due process and legal requirements have been met?

You are responsible for ensuring that all requirements have been met.

§ 301–76.102  Can we collect undisputed delinquent amounts if we have not reimbursed the employee for amounts reimbursable under applicable travel regulations?

No, you may only collect undisputed delinquent amounts after you have reimbursed the employee under the applicable travel regulations and in accordance with a proper travel claim. However, if the employee has not submitted a proper travel claim within the timeframe requirements of §301–52.7 of this chapter, and there are no extenuating circumstances, you may collect the undisputed delinquent amounts.

§ 301–76.103  What is the maximum amount we may deduct from the employee’s disposable pay?

As set forth in Public Law 105–294, 112 Stat. 2350, October 19, 1998, the maximum amount you may deduct from the employee’s disposable pay is 15 percent per pay period, unless the employee consents in writing to deduction of a greater percentage.

APPENDIX A TO CHAPTER 301—PRESCRIBED MAXIMUM PER DIEM RATES FOR CONUS

The maximum rates listed below are prescribed under part 301–11 of this chapter for reimbursement of per diem expenses incurred during official travel within CONUS (the continental United States). The amount shown in column (a) is the maximum that will be reimbursed for lodging expenses excluding taxes. The M&IE rate shown in column (b) is a fixed amount allowed for meals and incidental expenses covered by per diem. The per diem payment calculated in accordance with part 301–11 of this chapter for lodging expenses plus the M&IE rate may not exceed the maximum per diem rate shown in column (c). Seasonal rates apply during the periods indicated. It is the policy of the Government, as reflected in the Hotel Motel Fire Safety Act of 1990 (Public Law 101–391, September 25, 1990 as amended by Public Law 105–85, November 18, 1997), referred to as “the Act” in this appendix, to save lives and protect property by promoting fire safety in hotels, motels, and all places of public accommodation affecting commerce. In furtherance of the Act’s goals, employees are encouraged to stay in a facility which is fire-safe, i.e., an approved accommodation, when commercial lodging is required. Lodgings that meet the Government requirements are listed on the U.S. Fire Administration’s Internet site at http://www.usfa.fema.gov/hotel/index.cfm.

Notes
1. Denotes independent cities.
2. Key city.
3. Includes other defined locations.

Unless otherwise specified, the per diem locality is defined as “all locations within, or entirely surrounded by, the corporate limits of the key city, including independent entities located within those boundaries.”

Per diem localities with county definitions shall include “all locations within, or entirely surrounded by, the corporate limits of the key city as well as the boundaries of the listed counties, including independent entities located within the boundaries of the key city and the listed counties (unless otherwise listed separately).”

When a military installation or Government-related facility (whether or not specifically named) is located partially within more than one city or county boundary, the applicable per diem rate for the entire installation or facility is the higher of the two rates which apply to the cities and/or counties, even though part(s) of such activities may be located outside the defined per diem locality.

Federal agencies may submit a request to GSA for review of the costs covered by per diem in a particular city or area where the standard CONUS rate applies when travel to that location is repetitive or on a continuing basis and travelers’ experiences indicate that the prescribed rate is inadequate. Other per diem localities listed in this appendix will be reviewed on an annual basis by GSA to determine whether rates are adequate. Requests for per diem rate adjustments shall be submitted by the agency headquarters office to the General Services Administration, Office of Governmentwide Policy, Attn: Travel Management Policy Division (MTT), Washington, DC 20405. Agencies should designate an individual responsible for reviewing, coordinating, and submitting to GSA any requests from bureaus or subagencies. Requests for rate adjustments shall include a city designation, a description of the surrounding location involved (county or other defined area), and a recommended rate supported by a statement explaining the circumstances that cause the existing rate to be inadequate. The request also must contain an estimate of the annual number of trips to the location, the average duration of such trips, and the primary purpose of travel to the location.

The standard CONUS rate of $85 ($55 for lodging and $30 for M&IE) applies to all per diem localities in the State of North Dakota.

NOTE: Recognizing that all locations are incorporated cities, the term “city limits” has been used as a general phrase to denote the commonly recognized local boundaries of the location cited.

APPENDIX B TO CHAPTER 301—ALLOCATION OF M&IE RATES TO BE USED IN MAKING DEDUCTIONS FROM THE M&IE ALLOWANCE

M&IE rates for localities in nonforeign areas (prescribed in Civilian Personnel Per Diem Bulletins published periodically in the Federal Register by the Secretary of Defense) and for localities in foreign areas (established by the Secretary of State in section 925, a per diem supplement to the Standardized Regulations (Government Civilians, Foreign Areas)) shall be allocated as shown in this table (§301-7.12(a)(2)(ii) of this chapter) when making deductions from nonforeign or foreign area per diem rates.

APPENDIX E TO CHAPTER 301—SUGGESTED GUIDANCE FOR CONFERENCE PLANNING

TERMS

Conference: A meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium or event that involves attendee travel. The term “conference” also applies to training activities that are considered to be conferences under 5 CFR 410.404.

Conference lodging allowance: The rate that is up to 25 percent above the established lodging per diem rate.

Milestone schedule: Deadlines, which need to be reached in a progressive and orderly manner.

Planner: The person designated to oversee the conference.

Planning committee: Operational group significantly contributing to a conference’s overall success and able to fully reflect the needs of both the agency and the attendees.

GETTING STARTED

Depending on the size, type, and intended effect of the conference, start planning a minimum of one year in advance. Designate a planner and a planning committee.

Planning Committee

Functions typically include, but are not limited to:

- Establishing a set of objectives.
- Developing a theme.
- Making recommendations for location, agenda, dates, and logistics, e.g., schedule, exhibits, speaker.
- Making suggestions as to who should attend.
- Serving as communications link between planners and participants.
- Evaluation and follow-up.

Milestone Schedule

(a) Develop a milestone schedule, which is essential to conference planning, by working backward from the beginning date of the conference to include each major step. Examples include:

- Planning committee meetings.
- Preparation of mailing lists.
- Letters of invitation.
- Designation of speakers.
- Confirmation letters to speakers.
- Confirmation with site selection official.
- Preparation of specification sheet.
- Location and date selection.
- Exhibits.
- Budget.
- Printing requirements.
Conference Information Packages. Scheduling photographer (if planned). Use of agency seal and conference logo. Handicapped requirements. Planning of meals and refreshments, if appropriate.

(b) Establish completion dates for each major step.
(c) Update and revise the schedule as needed.

Specification Sheet
A detailed specification sheet is necessary to:
(a) Identify essential elements of a conference which typically include, but are not limited to:
- Sleeping rooms and on-site food services. It is generally best to estimate on the low side for the number of sleeping rooms and meals to be prepared. Facilities, unless there is only limited available space, are usually prepared to increase the number of sleeping rooms and meals; however, they discourage—and in some cases penalize—you if the sleeping room and meal guarantees are not met.
- Meeting rooms.
- Exhibit facilities.
- Audio-visual equipment and support services.
- Miscellaneous support services.
- Sleeping rooms with amenities, e.g., Internet access, data ports, conference call, and voice mail.

(b) Determine costs:
- Procurement. All agreements and decisions should be written and agreed to by the agency-contracting officer before being sent to the facility. Bring contracting officer into the process early.
- Government per diem rates. The Government per diem rate applies to Federal attendees. Application of it to non-Federal attendees is at the discretion of the property and conference negotiator.
- Registration fee. Generally, the registration fee covers all direct expenditures of agency funds for planning and organization of a conference, e.g., meeting room accommodations, meals, light refreshments (if appropriate), speaker fees, publications, and materials. Anything directly relating to the conference, except liquor, can be included in the fee. To estimate the registration fee, divide the proposed budget by the estimated number of attendees.

Budgeting
Decide how the conference expenses (other than sleeping room accommodations and individual meals) will be paid, i.e., by the attendee from a training or registration fee, or directly by the agency.

CONFERENCE SITE SELECTION
Minimize total costs, all factors considered.

Geographic Location
In determining where to locate the conference, consider:
- Targeted audience.
- Total costs, including per diem, transportation, and other.
- Accessibility by car or air.
- Whether recreational activities are necessary.
- The expense of desired facility (significant savings can be achieved in off-season periods).

Types of Facilities
- Federal Government. Use Government-owned or Government-provided conference facilities to the maximum extent possible.
- Convention centers. Excellent for very large meetings, trade shows and exhibits; usually located near a large number of hotels.
- Colleges and universities. Many have good meeting facilities and can offer sleeping accommodations when school is not in session.
- Hotels. Commercial facilities that may be used to meet all conference needs or just the room night needs.
- Conference centers. Dedicated meeting facilities; good for smaller meetings when numerous breakout sessions are planned.

Date Selection
For availability and economical reasons, the best months are April, May, September, October, and November. You should book the facility as early as possible to increase the chances of getting the date you want. However, pay particular attention to commitments for September or October due to fiscal year budget considerations.

Considerations When Choosing a Site
(a) Is the facility:
- Cost effective, e.g., are Government rates honored?
- Safe, e.g., FEMA-approved?
- Is there on-site security personnel?
- Easily reached from an airport or by car?
- Clean?
- Well run, e.g., does the staff seem to be competent and responsive?
- Laid out in a functional way?
- Large enough to supply the number of sleeping rooms required?
- Set up to provide necessary conference registration equipment?
- Handicapped accessible?
(b) Parking:
- Is it adequate?
- How close to the facility is it?
- Is it secure and safe?
Temp. Duty Travel Allowances

- Is the cost separate?
- (c) Sleeping rooms:
  - Will the facility make the reservations, or are you responsible for making the reservations for participants?
  - What are the facility’s registration rules?
  - What are departure rules?
  - Do you determine the method of billing to be used?
  - Will the facility arrange for room setup if given a layout?
  - What are departure costs included?
  - What are put-up and take-down costs included?
  - What costs are included?
  - Are there columns that can block views?
  - Are there manually-controlled thermostats?
  - Are there windows? Shades?
  - Are there electrical outlets?
  - Can the rooms be darkened?
  - Are there columns that can block views?
  - Are rooms designated for agency use for the duration of the conference?
  - Is appropriate space available?
  - Is needed equipment available (i.e., for conference registration, faxes, phones, computers, copiers)?
  - Do not rent equipment unless it is absolutely unrealistic to bring your own.
  - What are the put-up and take-down costs included?
  - Are there additional handling fees?
  - Where are electrical outlets?
  - Can the rooms be darkened?
  - Are there windows? Shades?
  - Are there electrical outlets?
  - Can the rooms be darkened?
  - Are there columns that can block views?
  - Are rooms designated for agency use for the duration of the conference?
  - Is there column or theatre setup?
  - Are there windows? Shades?
  - Are there manually-controlled thermostats?
  - Are rooms handicapped accessible?
  - Are there electrical outlets?
  - Can the rooms be darkened?
  - Would it be more economical to bring audio-visual equipment?
  - Does the facility want meeting schedules and room layouts in writing in advance of the conference?
  - If necessary, can the rooms be entered the evening before for an early setup?
  - What are the set-up costs included?
  - What are departure rules?
  - (e) Exhibits:
    - If exhibits are planned, is suitable exhibit space available?
    - Are easels available at no cost?
    - What are the put-up and takedown times?
    - What costs are involved?
    - What about pre-delivery and after-conference arrangements?
    - If exhibits are shipped, know where and to whom they are to be sent.
    - If you are bringing large exhibits, determine location of loading dock, appropriate entrances and elevators.
    - Are there additional handling fees?
    - Check hotel policy on posting, size and appearance of signs.

FOOD AND DRINK

Meals

- You can not generally use appropriated funds to pay for meals for employees at their official duty stations.
- Employees on TDY travel may be served meals but cannot be reimbursed for those provided at Government expense.
- You should clarify in advance the appropriate per diem reduction(s) of meal(s) allowance(s) for TDY travel.
- You may pay, or reimburse an employee for meals as necessary expenses incident to an authorized training program (under the Government Employees Training Act (GETA) at 5 U.S.C. 4104(4)), if a determination has been made that essential training will be conducted during the meal.
- Work closely with the hotel to plan quality menus that fit within authorized per diem rates.
- Clarify and agree in advance to the number of meal guarantees.
- Ensure that gratuities and service charges are added to the cost of each meal, and determine the method of billing to be used (e.g., signed guarantee, collected meal tickets, or actual quantities consumed).
- Confirm menus.

BREAKS AND REFRESHMENTS

Breaks should last no longer than 30 minutes and take place between meeting sessions. The following should also be considered when planning for refreshments:
- Keep in mind that everyone does not drink coffee or tea.
- You should clarify and agree in advance that coffee and pastries, if appropriate, are purchased by the gallon and dozen.
- Try to avoid a per person charge.
- Negotiate the cost into the contract.
- Be conservative in your estimates. There are seldom 100 percent of the conference participants attending any one function.
- If coffee, soft drinks, and water are not included in the fee, are they available “at cost” to the attendee?

ACCOUNT RECONCILIATION

It is important to request that the hotel bill be prepared in a logical and chronological sequence, and that backup data accompany the bill. Generally, the hotel will complete its accounting of the conference within two weeks of the conclusion.

NOTIFICATION

Announcement and/or Invitations

Announcement of the planned conference should be made as early as possible, even one year in advance; invitation letters, 8 weeks in advance. They should include, but are not limited to:
- Point of contact name and telephone number.
- Registration form, card, or Internet address (include space for identifying handicapped requirements).
- Registration instructions.
- Registration deadline date.
- Detailed area map and driving instructions.

111
Information on traffic patterns to avoid rush hour delays.
• Promotional brochures from the facility.
• Layout of facility including telephone numbers.
• Breakdown of costs showing any difference from travel versus training object classes, particularly meal costs, so that proper reimbursement can be made.
• Agenda with a list of speakers and topics.
• Activity schedule for spouses and guests (all charges or costs attributed to spouses or guests must be borne by the individual attendee (not reimbursable by the Government)).
• Provide a sample travel voucher.
• Notice that conference lodging allowance applies if applicable.

Confirmations
You should:
• Decide on the speaker(s) and the message you wish to be conveyed and obtain early commitment(s) in writing.
• Confirm conference dates/times/topics/arrival and departure times with speaker(s) and any other special guests at least 30 days in advance.
• Conduct a final planning committee meeting to confirm all plans.
• Confirm photographer’s schedule.
• Confirm hotel plans at least one day in advance.

FACILITY PROCESS
Check-In and -Out
Streamline the process:
• Will the facility need additional personnel?
• Is electronic one-stop processing available?
• Is luggage storage and shuttle service available?
• Arrange parking for any special guests.
• Provide signage.

Registration Process
Registration is generally the attendees’ introduction to the conference. Give it special attention by:
• Using directional signs.
• Placing especially attractive or important exhibits nearby.
• Planning for late arrivals.
• Using state-of-the-art processing.
• Checking out the registration capabilities of using GSA’s electronic SmartPay System.
• Providing for handicapped attendees.

CONFERENCE INFORMATION PACKAGE
Each registrant should be given a conference information package. Used regularly during the conference, the conference information package should be accurate, beneficial, and reflect detailed information on a daily/hourly basis. If time allows, you may want to finalize the package and send it to the printer at least 4 weeks in advance of the starting date. The program will be widely used, so you may want to print twice as many copies of the program as you have expected attendees. The information package, for example, may contain:
• A list of everything in the package.
• A “welcome” letter.
• A schedule.
• Workshop agendas.
• Discussion of exhibits.
• Panelists’ information.
• Photos and biographies of speakers/special guests.
• Facility layout and list of services available.
• Identify designated smoking areas.
• Special events.
• Message center information.
• Area map.
• Other pertinent material.

NOTE: Use of agency seal and conference logo may be considered for the conference package. However, the decision to use such items is strictly the judgment of agency officials.

MISCELLANEOUS
Suggested Room Coordination
Plan ahead to setup:
• Staff room to handle core of activities;
• Meal functions;
• Exhibit rooms, and
• Meeting rooms—Theatre or auditorium for lectures: Facing speaker when note taking is important; Square or U-shaped style for discussion/interaction; and Banquet or roundtable for discussion.

Keeping in Touch Plan for:
• A message center to be set up in a central location for special announcements and telephone messages.
• How to reach whomever at all times—use beepers and walkie-talkies.
• Clear identification of conference staff.
• Accommodation of physically impaired attendees with sign language or other special needs.

Mementos
Appropriations are not available to purchase memento items for distribution to conference attendees as a remembrance of an event. Two notable exceptions to the memento or gift prohibition are under training and awards. Work closely with appropriate agency officials to make final determinations.
Temp. Duty Travel Allowances

RESOURCES

The following resources may be of assistance in planning a conference:

- An agency contracting officer;
- Travel Management Centers;
- Interagency Travel Management Committee members (a forum of agency travel policy managers—for member identification, contact your agency’s administrative or financial office);
- State Chambers of Commerce or Visitors Bureaus;
- Local chapters of the Society of Government Meeting Professionals; and
- Private industry conference planners.

CONCLUSION

Process:

- Questionnaires, which may provide invaluable feedback about the success of your conference.
- Training certificates.
- Thank you notes to participants, facility personnel, speakers, printers, photographers, and other special contributors.
- Summary to acknowledge the accomplishments, and to convey the information discussed to a wider audience, may be an excellent promotional tool.

NOTE TO APPENDIX E: Use of pronouns “we”, “you”, and their variants throughout this appendix refers to the agency.

Subpart A—New Appointees and Transferred Employees

§ 302–1.1 Authority.

This chapter is issued pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 5721–5734 and 20 U.S.C. 905(a).

§ 302–1.2 Applicability.

(a) Persons covered. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the following persons are covered:

(1) Civilian officers and employees upon transfer from one official station or agency to another for permanent duty.

(2) Civilian officers and employees of the United States Postal Service transferred under 39 U.S.C. 1006 from the Postal Service to an agency as defined in 5 U.S.C. 5721 for permanent duty.

(3) Civilian officers and employees assigned to posts of duty outside the continental United States in connection with overseas tour renewal agreement travel and upon return to places of residence for the purpose of separation.

(4) New appointees to any position.

(5) Student trainees assigned upon completion of college work to any position.

(6) Department of Defense overseas dependents school system teachers.

(7) Career appointees to the Senior Executive Service (SES), and prior SES appointees who have elected to retain SES retirement benefits, upon their retirement and return to the place the individual has elected to reside.

(b) Persons excluded. This chapter shall not apply to:

(1) Officers and employees transferred in accordance with the provisions of the Foreign Service Act of 1980, as amended.

(2) Officers and employees transferred in accordance with the provisions of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended.

(3) Persons whose pay and allowances are prescribed under title 37, United States Code, “Pay and Allowances of the Uniformed Services.”

(4) Personnel of the Veterans Administration to whom the provisions of 38 U.S.C. 235 apply.

§ 302–1.3 General provisions.

(a) Travel covered.—(1) Mandatory coverage. When change of official station or other action described in this paragraph is authorized or approved by such official or officials as the head of the agency may designate, travel and transportation expenses and applicable allowances as provided in this chapter (see applicability and exclusions in pertinent parts) shall be paid in the case of:

(1) An employee transferring from one official duty station to another for permanent duty, provided the transfer is in the interest of the Government and is not primarily for the convenience or benefit of the employee or at his/her request; the transfer is to a new official station which is at least 10

§ 302–1.7 governing payment of travel and transportation expenses and applicable allowances when short distances are involved. A reasonable period of advance notice should not be less than 30 days except when:

(1) The employee and both the losing and gaining agencies agree on a lesser period;

(2) Other statutory authority and implementing regulations stipulate a lesser period (see Office of Personnel Management regulations for specified timeframes); or

(3) Emergency circumstances prevail.

(c) Travel authorization. When it is de-determined that a relocation will be authorized at Government expense, a written travel authorization shall be issued to the new appointee or employee before he/she reports to the first or new official station. The agency should advise the employee, or individual selected for appointment, not to incur relocation expenses in anticipation of a relocation until he/she has received written notification. The travel authorization shall indicate the specific allowances which are authorized as provided in this chapter and provide instructions on the Federal procedures for procurement of travel and transportation services. The guidelines in § 301–
1.102 of this title on issuance of travel authorizations shall be followed. See also § 302–1.10(c) for procedural requirements applicable to new appointees.

(d) Applicable provisions for reimbursement purposes. Because of successive changes to the statutes and the regularly provisions governing relocation allowances and the extended period of time that employees retain eligibility for certain allowances (see §§ 302–1.6 and 302–6.1(e)), the reimbursement maximums or limitations applicable to certain allowances will not be the same for all employees even though claims may be filed within the same timeframe. The regulatory provisions in ef-effect on the employee’s or new appointee’s effective date of transfer or appointment (see § 302–1.4(l)) shall be miles distant from the old official station; and, in the case of a relatively short distance relocation, a determination of eligibility is made under § 302–

1.7(a) of this part;

(ii) Eligible employees outside the continental United States traveling in connection with overseas tour renewal agreement travel;

(iii) Eligible employees returning from posts of duty outside the continental United States to places of actual residence for separation as provided in § 302–1.12 of this part; and

(iv) Eligible individuals, as defined in § 302–1.101 of this chapter, qualifying for “last move home” benefits upon separeration from Government service as provided in subpart B of this part.

Travel authorization.

Reasonable advance notice of reas-ignment or transfer. As provided in 5
U.S.C. 5724(j), “the reassignment or transfer of any employee, for permanent duty, from one official station or agency to another which is outside the employee’s commuting area shall take effect only after the employee has been given advance notice for a reasonable period. Emergency circumstances shall be taken into account in determining whether the period of advance notice is reasonable.” Agencies shall give as much advance notice as possible to enable the employee to begin the ar-

§ 302–1.4 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, and unless otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(a) Continental United States. Continental United States (or CONUS) means the 48 contiguous States and the District of Columbia.

(b) United States. United States means the several States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, the territories and possessions of the United States, and the areas and installations in the Republic of Panama that are made available to the United States pursuant to the Panama Canal Treaty of 1977 and related agreements (as described in section 3(a) of the Panama Canal Act of 1979).

(c) Employee. A civilian officer or employee of an agency as defined in paragraph (e) of this section. The term also includes new appointees as defined in paragraph (d) of this section.

(d) New appointee. New appointee includes any person newly appointed to Government service, including an individual who has performed transition activities under section 3 of the Presidential Transition Act of 1963 (3 U.S.C. 102 note) and who is appointed in the same fiscal year as the Presidential inauguration that immediately follows his/her transition activities. New appointee also includes an individual appointed after a break in service except that an employee separated as a result of a reduction in force or transfer of function may be treated as a transferee instead of a new appointee under the conditions set out in § 302–1.9. In addition, for purposes of chapters 301–304 of this title, the term new appointee includes a student trainee who is assigned upon completion of college work.

(e) Agency. For purposes of this chapter, agency means:

(1) An Executive agency as defined in 5 U.S.C. 105 (an executive department, an independent establishment, the General Accounting Office, or a wholly owned Government corporation as defined in section 101 of the Government Corporation Control Act, as amended, but excluding a Government controlled corporation);

(2) A military department;

(3) A court of the United States;

(4) The Administrative Office of the United States Courts;

(5) The Federal Judicial Center;

(6) The Library of Congress;

(7) The United States Botanic Garden;

(8) The Government Printing Office; and

(9) The District of Columbia.

(f) Immediate family. (1) Any of the following named members of the employee’s household at the time he/she reports for duty at the new permanent duty station or performs authorized or approved overseas tour renewal agreement travel or separation travel:

(i) Spouse;

(ii) Children of the employee or employee’s spouse who are unmarried and under 21 years of age or who, regardless of age, are physically or mentally incapable of self-support. (The term “children” shall include natural offspring; stepchildren; adopted children; grandchildren, legal minor wards, or other dependent children who are under legal guardianship of the employee or employee’s spouse; and a child born after the employee’s effective date of transfer when the travel of the employee’s expectant spouse to the new official station is prevented at the time of the transfer because of advanced stage of pregnancy, or other reasons acceptable to the agency concerned, e.g., awaiting completion of the school year by other children.);

(iii) Dependent parents (including step- and legally adoptive parents) of the employee or employee’s spouse; and

(iv) Dependent brothers and sisters (including step- and legally adoptive brothers and sisters) of the employee;

(2) Any other family members who are normally dependent on the employee for support and have directly participated in the employee’s career, including the employee’s parents and siblings.
Relocation Allowances

§ 302–1.4

or employee’s spouse who are unmarried and under 21 years of age or who, regardless of age, are physically or mentally incapable of self-support. (See paragraph (f)(2) of this section for dependent status criteria.)

(2) Generally, the individuals named in paragraphs (f)(1)(iii) and (iv) of this section shall be considered dependents of the employee if they receive at least 51 percent of their support from the employee or employee’s spouse; however, this percentage of support criteria shall not be the decisive factor in all cases. These individuals may also be considered dependents for the purposes of this chapter if they are members of the employee’s household and, in addition to their own income, receive support (less than 51 percent) from the employee or employee’s spouse without which they would be unable to maintain a reasonable standard of living.

(g) Temporary storage. Storage of household goods for a limited period of time at origin, destination, or en route in connection with transportation to, from, or between official stations or posts of duty or authorized alternate points.

(h) Nontemporary storage. Storage of household goods while an employee is assigned to or is at an official station or post of duty to which he/she will not or cannot transport such household goods.

(i) Mobile home. Any type of house trailer or mobile dwelling constructed for use as a residence and designed to be moved overland, either by self-propulsion or towing. Also, a boat when used as the employee’s primary residence.

(j) Household goods. (1) All personal property associated with the home and all personal effects belonging to an employee and the immediate family when shipment or storage begins, which can be legally accepted and transported as household goods by an authorized commercial carrier in accordance with the rules and regulations established or approved by an appropriate Federal or State regulatory authority, except the items excluded in this paragraph. Snowmobiles and vehicles with two or three wheels, e.g., motorcycles, mopeds, and golf carts, may be shipped as household goods. The following items are specifically excluded from the definition of household goods:

   (i) Automobiles, trucks, vans and similar motor vehicles; boats; airplanes; mobile homes; camper trailers; and farming vehicles;

   (ii) Live animals, birds, fowls, and reptiles;

   (iii) Cordwood and building materials; and

   (iv) Property for resale, disposal, or commercial use rather than for use by the employee or the immediate family; and

   (v) Any property or items which carriers’ tariffs prohibit carriers from accepting for shipment. Agencies are advised to consult applicable tariffs or to contact the carrier involved if problems arise concerning shipment of the following prohibited articles:

      (A) Property liable to impregnate or otherwise damage equipment or other property (e.g., hazardous articles including explosives, flammable and corrosive materials, and poisons);

      (B) Articles which cannot be taken from the premises without damage to the article or the premises;

      (C) Perishable articles, including frozen foods, articles requiring refrigeration, or perishable plants unless: the shipment is to be transported not more than 150 miles and/or delivery accomplished within 24 hours from the time of loading; no storage of shipment is required; and no preliminary or enroute servicing or watering or other preservative method is required of the carrier.

      (2) Items which are irreplaceable or are of extreme value or sentiment are not provided special security by the carrier even though extra-value insurance may be purchased. Employees and their immediate families are advised to personally transport these types of items.

(k) Official station or post of duty. The building or other place where the officer or employee regularly reports for duty. (For eligibility for change of station allowances, see §§302–1.3 and 302–1.7.) With respect to entitlement under this chapter relating to the residence and the household goods and personal effects of an employee, official station or post of duty also means the residence or other quarters from which the employee regularly commutes to and from work. However, where the official station or post of duty is in a remote area where adequate family housing is not available within reasonable daily commuting distance, residence includes the dwelling where the family of the employee resides or will reside, but only if such residence reasonably relates to the official station as determined by an appropriate administrative official.

(l) Effective date of transfer or appointment. The date on which an employee or new appointee reports for duty at his/her new or first official station.

(m) Foreign Service of the United States. Foreign Service of the United States means the Foreign Service as constituted under the Foreign Service Act of 1980.

§302-1.5 Service agreements.

(a) Transfers within the continental United States and appointments and assignments of new appointees and student trainees to any position within the United States. In connection with the transfer of employees between official stations within the continental United States, expenses authorized under this chapter shall not be allowed until the employee selected for such transfer agrees in writing to remain in the service of the Government for 12 months following the effective date of the transfer, unless separated for reasons beyond his/her control that are acceptable to the agency concerned. In case of a violation of such an agreement, including failure to effect the transfer, any funds expended by the Government for expenses authorized under this chapter shall be recoverable from the individual concerned as a debt due the Government. Such an agreement also is required from new appointees and student trainees appointed or assigned to any position within the United States, as a condition of payment for travel, transportation, moving and/or storage of household goods, and allowances as provided in §302-1.10. A signed agreement for 12 months’ service shall be required for each permanent change of station.

(b) Transfers, appointments, and separations involving posts of duty outside the continental United States. (1) In connection with the transfer or appointment of employees to posts of duty outside the continental United States, or between posts located in (i) separate countries, (ii) separate areas of the United States located outside the continental United States (e.g., Alaska, Hawaii, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico), or (iii) any combination of these areas, the expenses of travel, transportation, moving and/or storage of household goods, and other applicable allowances as provided in this chapter shall not be allowed unless and until the employee selected for such transfer or appointment agrees in writing to remain in the service of the Government for 12 months following the effective date of the transfer or appointment (or for 1 school year for Department of Defense overseas dependents school system teachers as determined under chapter 25 of title 20 of the United States Code), unless separated for reasons beyond his/her control and acceptable to the agency concerned. In case of a violation of such an agreement, including failure to effect the transfer, any funds expended by the Government for such travel, transportation, and allowances shall be recoverable from the individual concerned as a debt due the Government.

(2) Except as precluded by this chapter, upon separation from service, the expenses for return travel, transportation, and moving and/or storage of household goods shall be allowed whether the separation is for the purposes of the Government or for personal convenience. However, such expenses shall not be allowed unless:

(i) The employee transferred or appointed to posts of duty outside the continental United States shall have served for a minimum period of not less than 1 nor more than 3 years prescribed in advance by the head of the agency (or for 1 school year for Department of Defense overseas dependents school system teachers as determined under chapter 25 of title 20, United States Code); or

§ 302–1.7

(i) Separation is for reasons beyond the control of the individual and acceptable to the agency concerned.

(3) The head of the agency also shall consider requiring a service agreement in connection with the transfer of employees not otherwise covered by this subpart. The agreement shall provide that in determining any employee indebtedness for violation of such agreement, credit shall be given to the extent of any unused entitlements he/she may have earned for return travel and transportation to his/her place of actual residence for separation.

(c) Employee liability. The agreement to remain in the service of the Government for 12 months following the effective date of transfer is not voided by a subsequent transfer whether such subsequent transfer is at the employee's request or in the interest of the Government, nor is such agreement voided by another service agreement made in connection with a second transfer. The liability of the employee for any funds expended by the Government for his/her travel, transportation, and relocation allowances is a separate liability for each service agreement. The liability in each instance is effective for the full 12-month period in connection with the transfer for which the service agreement was made.

§ 302–1.6 Time limits for beginning travel and transportation.

All travel, including that for the immediate family, and transportation, including that for household goods allowed under this chapter, shall be accomplished as soon as possible. The maximum time for beginning allowable travel and transportation shall not exceed 2 years from the effective date of the employee's transfer or appointment, except that:

(a) The 2-year period is exclusive of the time spent on furlough for an employee who begins active military service before the expiration of such period and who is furloughed for the duration of his/her assignment to the post of duty for which transportation and travel expenses are allowed;

(b) The 2-year period does not include any time during which travel and transportation is not feasible due to shipping restrictions for an employee who is transferred or appointed to or from a post of duty outside the continental United States; and

(c) The 2-year period shall be extended for an additional period of time not to exceed 1 year when the 2-year time limitation for completion of residence transactions is extended under §302–6.1(e).

§ 302–1.7 Short distance involved.

(a) Transfers. When the change of official station involves a short distance (at least 10 miles between stations as provided in §302–1.3(a)(1)) within the same general local or metropolitan area, the travel and transportation expenses and applicable allowances in connection with the employee's relocation of his/her residence shall be authorized only when the agency determines that the relocation was incident to the change of official station. Such determination shall take into consideration such factors as commuting time and distance between the employee's residence at the time of notification of transfer and his/her old and new posts of duty as well as the commuting time and distance between a proposed new residence and the new post of duty. Ordinarily, a relocation of residence shall not be considered as incident to a change of official station unless the one-way commuting distance from the old residence to the new official station is at least 10 miles greater than from the old residence to the old official station. Even then, circumstances surrounding a particular case (e.g., relative commuting time) may suggest that the move of residence was not incident to the change of official station. (See also specific distance limitations applicable to individual allowances; i.e., househunting trips in §302–4.3(c) and eligibility for temporary quarters subsistence expenses in §302–5.4(b).)

(b) Appointments. For new appointees, whose place of actual residence at the time of selection for appointment and first duty station are located in the same general local or metropolitan area and who relocate their places of residence as a result of the appointment, the travel and transportation expenses as provided in §302-1.10 shall be authorized only when the agency determines that the relocation of residence was incident to the appointment. To the extent applicable, the principles prescribed for transferred employees shall be considered in making this determination.

§302–1.8 Two or more family members employed.

(a) Members of the same immediate family who are employees. When two or more employees are members of the same immediate family, the allowances authorized under this chapter shall apply either to:

(1) Each employee separately, in which instance none of the employees is eligible for any allowance as a member of the immediate family; or

(2) Only one of the employees selected in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section, in which case the other employee(s) is eligible for allowances solely as a member(s) of the immediate family.

(b) Non-employee members of the immediate family. When two or more employee members of the same immediate family elect separate allowances under paragraph (a)(1) of this section, non-employee members of the immediate family shall not receive duplicate allowances because of the fact that the employee members elected separate allowances.

(c) Payment limitation. When employee members of the same immediate family elect separate allowances under paragraph (a)(1) of this section, the employing agency or agencies shall not make duplicate payment for the same expenses.

(d) Procedures. A determination as to which of the two alternatives provided in paragraph (a) of this section is selected shall be made in writing and signed by all employee members of the same immediate family. When employee family members elect separate allowances under paragraph (a)(1) of this section, the determination also shall specify under which employee member’s authorization non-employee family members will receive allowances. A copy of this determination shall be filed with the agency in which each employee member is employed.

§302–1.9 Reduction in force involved.

(a) Impending separation. When an employee is assigned to a new official station after having been notified of involuntary separation not for cause but incident to the reduction, cessation, or transfer of the work at the station where he/she was employed, the transfer of the employee is deemed to be in the interest of the Government unless there is an affirmative administrative determination that the transfer is primarily for the employee’s convenience or benefit.

(b) Reemployment after separation. A former employee separated by reason of reduction in force or transfer of function who within 1 year of the date of separation is reemployed by an agency for a nontemporary appointment, at a different permanent duty station from that where the separation occurred, may be allowed and paid the expenses and other allowances (excluding nontemporary storage when assigned to an isolated permanent duty station within the continental United States) in the same manner as though he/she had been transferred in the interest of the Government to the permanent duty station where reemployed, from the permanent duty station where separated, without a break in service, and subject to the eligibility limitations as prescribed in this chapter.

§302–1.10 New appointees.

(a) Coverage. New appointees to any position are eligible for payment only of those travel and transportation expenses listed in paragraph (e) of this section in relocating to their first official station. New appointees include student trainees who are assigned upon completion of college work. New appointees include not only individuals when first appointed to Government service but also individuals appointed after a break in service except that employees separated as a result of reduction in force or transfer of function may be treated as transferees instead of new appointees under the conditions set forth in §302–1.9.

(b) Authorization and eligibility—(1) Authority to pay. Agencies may pay the relocation expenses allowed in paragraph (e) of this section for new appointees determined eligible under paragraph (b)(2) of this section. However, once an agency has made the determination to pay relocation expenses in an individual case, it must pay all of the allowable relocation expenses contained in paragraph (e) of this section.

(2) Eligibility determination. Each agency shall establish specific criteria for determining which new appointees qualify for payment of allowable relocation expenses. The Office of Personnel Management has issued guidelines in 5 CFR part 572 for agencies to follow in making these personnel determinations.

(c) Agency responsibility. Because new appointees usually lack experience in Government procedures, each agency shall adopt special measures to provide full information to new appointees concerning the benefits which may be available to them for travel and transportation involved in reporting to their official stations. Special care shall be taken to inform appointees of the limitations on available benefits.

(d) Procedural requirements—(1) Agreement. No payment for otherwise allowable expenses or for an advance of funds shall be made unless the appointee or student trainee has signed the agreement appropriate in his/her case as provided in §302–1.5.

(2) Travel before appointment. Authorized expenses may be paid even though the individual concerned has not been appointed at the time travel to the first official station is performed. For individuals who have performed Presidential transition activities, as described in §302–1.3(a)(2), allowable travel and transportation may take place at any time following the most recent Presidential election. However, entitlement to such expenses does not vest by virtue of selection for the position or authorization for travel as provided in §302–1.3(c) but vests only upon actual appointment of the individual concerned. However, nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit the provisions of part 301–1, subpart C, allowing the payment of pre-employment interview travel.

(3) Prior payment. A student trainee may not receive payments at the time of his/her assignment if the expenses of travel and transportation were paid at the time he/she was appointed as a student trainee.

(e) Allowable expenses. Items of expense listed in paragraphs (e) (1) through (6) of this section are payable under the conditions prescribed in this chapter governing the allowance in question. Note particularly that not all of the listed items will be applicable in each situation covered by this part.

(1) Travel expenses including per diem for the appointee or student trainee as set forth in §302–2.1;

(2) Transportation for immediate family of appointee or student trainee as set forth in §302–2.2(a);

(3) Mileage if privately owned vehicle is used in travel as set forth in §302–2.3;

(4) Transportation and temporary storage of household goods as set forth in part 302–8;

(5) Nontemporary storage of household goods if appointed to an isolated location as set forth in §302–9.1; and

(6) Transportation of mobile homes as set forth in part 302–7.

(f) Expenses not allowable. Items of expense not listed in paragraph (e) of this section which are authorized for reimbursement in case of transfers under this chapter (e.g., per diem for family, cost of house-hunting trip, subsistence while occupying temporary quarters, a miscellaneous expense allowance, residence sale and purchase expenses, lease-breaking expenses, and relocation services) are not allowable to appointees and student trainees eligible under this section.

(g) Alternate origin and destination. The limit on travel and transportation expenses in each individual case is the cost of direct travel or transportation as allowable between the individual’s place of residence at the time of selection or assignment (or in the case of individuals having performed Presidential transition activities, as described in §302-1.3(a)(2), the place of residence at the time of relocation following the most recent Presidential election) and the official station to which he/she is appointed or assigned; however, travel and transportation may be from and/or to other locations if the new appointee or student trainee pays any excess cost involved in such alternate travel or transportation.

(b) Advance of funds. An advance of funds for expenses allowable under this section may be made to appointees and student trainees under the procedures prescribed in §302-1.14(a) and the part of this subtitle governing the allowance being considered.

(1) Travel and per diem for appointees as set forth in §302-2.1;

(2) Travel for the appointee’s immediate family, but not per diem, as set forth in §302-2.2;

(3) Mileage to the extent travel is performed by privately owned automobile as set forth in §302-2.3;

(4) Transportation and temporary storage of household goods as set forth in part 302-8;

(5) Nontemporary storage of household goods as set forth in §302-9.2;

(6) Transportation of mobile homes in limited circumstances as set forth in part 302-7; and

(7) Transportation of an employee’s personal automobile as set forth in part 302-10.

(3) Expenses not allowable. Items of expense not listed in paragraph (b)(2) of this section which are authorized for reimbursement under this chapter in the case of transfers (e.g., per diem for family, cost of house-hunting trip, subsistence while occupying temporary quarters, miscellaneous expense allowance, residence sale and purchase expenses, and lease-breaking expenses) may not be authorized for appointees eligible under this section.

§ 302-1.12 Overseas assignment and return.

(a) Transferees. Employees transferred to, from, and between official stations outside the continental United States are eligible for many of the benefits provided by this chapter, and employees transferred to such stations are eligible for return transportation under the conditions and limitations contained in paragraphs (c) through (g) of this section. Specific eligibility provisions and applicable limitations are contained in the parts of this chapter relating to the benefits provided.

(b) New appointees—(1) Residence at time of appointment. A new appointee to a position outside the continental United States is eligible for certain travel and transportation benefits under this chapter if his/her residence at the time of appointment is in an area other than the area in which his/her official station is located. Under this rule “area” means a foreign country, the continental United States, Alaska, Hawaii, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, or a United States territory or possession.

(2) Allowable expenses. Allowances and the parts of this chapter which apply are as follows:

(i) Travel and per diem for appointees as set forth in §302-2.1;

(ii) Travel for the appointee’s immediate family, but not per diem, as set forth in §302-2.2;

(iii) Mileage to the extent travel is performed by privately owned automobile as set forth in §302-2.3;

(iv) Transportation and temporary storage of household goods as set forth in part 302-8;

(v) Nontemporary storage of household goods as set forth in §302-9.2;

(vi) Transportation of mobile homes in limited circumstances as set forth in part 302-7; and

(vii) Transportation of an employee’s personal automobile as set forth in part 302-10.

§ 302-1.11 [Reserved]

§ 302-1.12 Overseas assignment and return.

(a) Transferees. Employees transferred to, from, and between official stations outside the continental United States are eligible for many of the benefits provided by this chapter, and employees transferred to such stations are eligible for return transportation under the conditions and limitations contained in paragraphs (c) through (g) of this section. Specific eligibility provisions and applicable limitations are contained in the parts of this chapter relating to the benefits provided.

(b) Advance of funds. An advance of funds for expenses allowable under this chapter if his/her residence at the time of appointment is in an area other than the area in which his/her official station is located. Under this rule “area” means a foreign country, the continental United States, Alaska, Hawaii, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, or a United States territory or possession.

(2) Allowable expenses. Allowances and the parts of this chapter which apply are as follows:

(i) Travel and per diem for appointees as set forth in §302-2.1;

(ii) Travel for the appointee’s immediate family, but not per diem, as set forth in §302-2.2;

(iii) Mileage to the extent travel is performed by privately owned automobile as set forth in §302-2.3;

(iv) Transportation and temporary storage of household goods as set forth in part 302-8;

(v) Nontemporary storage of household goods as set forth in §302-9.2;

(vi) Transportation of mobile homes in limited circumstances as set forth in part 302-7; and

(vii) Transportation of an employee’s personal automobile as set forth in part 302-10.

(3) Expenses not allowable. Items of expense not listed in paragraph (b)(2) of this section which are authorized for reimbursement under this chapter in the case of transfers (e.g., per diem for family, cost of house-hunting trip, subsistence while occupying temporary quarters, miscellaneous expense allowance, residence sale and purchase expenses, and lease-breaking expenses) may not be authorized for appointees eligible under this section.

(4) Alternate origin or destination. Travel and transportation benefits authorized are from the employee’s residence at time of appointment to his/her official station. If alternate origins or destinations are involved, the cost which will be paid by the Government may not exceed the cost that would have been incurred for the travel or transportation in question between the residence and the official station.

(5) Advance of funds. An advance of funds for expenses allowable under this chapter if his/her residence at the time of appointment is in an area other than the area in which his/her official station is located. Under this rule “area” means a foreign country, the continental United States, Alaska, Hawaii, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, or a United States territory or possession.

(2) Allowable expenses. Allowances and the parts of this chapter which apply are as follows:

(i) Travel and per diem for appointees as set forth in §302-2.1;

(ii) Travel for the appointee’s immediate family, but not per diem, as set forth in §302-2.2;

(iii) Mileage to the extent travel is performed by privately owned automobile as set forth in §302-2.3;

(iv) Transportation and temporary storage of household goods as set forth in part 302-8;

(v) Nontemporary storage of household goods as set forth in §302-9.2;

(vi) Transportation of mobile homes in limited circumstances as set forth in part 302-7; and

(vii) Transportation of an employee’s personal automobile as set forth in part 302-10.
Relocation Allowances

§ 302-1.12

place of actual residence shall be determined at the time of selection and designated in the written agreement prescribed in §302-1.5(b) to remain in the Government service for a minimum period of time prescribed by the agency head pursuant to law. An employee hired locally at a location outside the continental United States who claims residence at another location in the United States, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, or a United States territory or possession at time of appointment, shall designate in writing the claimed place of actual residence for the consideration of agency officials.

(2) Determination by agency official. Determination of the place of actual residence shall be made by an authorized agency official on the basis of all the facts in the record. When there is doubt as to the place of actual residence, the employee is responsible for supplying any further information necessary to support designation of the claimed place of actual residence.

(3) Guidance in determination of residence. While it is not feasible to establish rigid standards for what constitutes a place of residence, the concept of residence represented in an existing statutory provision (8 U.S.C. 1101(33)) may be used as general guidance. This concept views residence as the place of general abode, meaning the principal, actual dwelling place in fact, without regard to intent. Determination of the place of actual residence is primarily an administrative responsibility and the place constituting the actual residence must be determined upon the factual circumstances in each case. Examples of factors which shall be considered, whenever applicable, by agency officials charged with this responsibility are:

(i) The place of actual residence of a dependent student generally is presumed to be the same as that of the parents and, except in rare instances, this situation would not be changed by the student attending college in another place.

(ii) The place at which the employee physically resided at time of selection for appointment or transfer frequently constitutes the place of actual residence and shall be so regarded in the absence of circumstances reasonably indicating that another location may be designated as the place of actual residence.

(iii) Designation of a place of actual residence in an official document signed by the employee earlier in Government employment shall be regarded as originally intended to be a continuing designation, and the burden is upon the employee to establish clearly that the earlier designation was in error or that later circumstances entitle a different designation to be made. After an employee has been transferred or appointed to a post of duty outside the continental United States, the location of the place of actual residence incorporated in the official records of such employment shall be changed only to correct an error in the designation of residence.

(iv) Presence in the individual’s work history of a representative amount of full-time employment at or in the immediate geographic area of the location designated as place of actual residence is a significant factor, but lack of such history does not preclude the designation of the location as place of actual residence.

(v) The chronological record of individual or family association with a locality is usually significant only in connection with an analysis of other circumstances explaining the nature of such association. Frequent or extended visits to a locality must be evaluated in relation to the purpose of the visits and sometimes in relation to the nature of the area itself. For example, vacation visits to a resort area, without the added support of other factors, should not be regarded as adequate to establish a place of actual residence.

(vi) Recognition and exercise by the employee of the privileges and duties of citizenship in a particular jurisdiction, such as voting and payment of taxes on income and personal property are factors for consideration, but agency application of standards about place of residence should not be such as to discourage employees from property ownership or participation in community affairs at a nonforeign location outside the continental United States.
(d) Return for separation. When an employee is eligible for return travel and transportation to his/her place of actual residence upon separation after completion of the period of service specified in an agreement executed under §302-1.5(b) or is separated for reasons beyond his/her control and acceptable to the agency concerned, he/she may receive travel and transportation to an alternate location, provided the cost to the Government shall not exceed the cost of travel and transportation to his/her residence at the time he/she was assigned to an overseas station. However, under decisions of the Comptroller General, ordinarily, an employee is entitled to travel and transportation expenses upon separation only to the country of actual residence therein, the allowable expenses shall not exceed those allowable for return over a usually traveled route between the post of duty and the place of actual residence.

(e) Prior return of immediate family—(1) When employee is eligible for return transportation. When an employee has become eligible for return transportation by satisfactorily completing an agreed period of service at a post of duty outside the continental United States, the Government shall pay one-way transportation expenses for returning the employee’s immediate family and household goods before the employee’s return to his/her place of actual residence in the United States.

(2) Return for compassionate reasons. One-way transportation expenses for the return of the employee’s immediate family and his/her household goods also may be paid without regard to the employee’s completion of an agreed period of service provided it has been determined under regulations prescribed by the head of the agency concerned that the public interest requires the return of the immediate family for compelling personal reasons of a humanitarian or compassionate nature, which may involve physical or mental health, death of a member of the immediate family, or obligations imposed by authority or circumstances over which the individual has no control.

(3) Limited to one return trip. Expenses allowed as provided in paragraphs (e) (1) and (2) of this section shall be paid by the Government not more than one time during each agreed period of service and are subject to chapter 301 of this title.

(4) Part of household goods retained overseas. In connection with the prior return of his/her family, the employee may elect to retain a portion of the household goods with him/her at the post of duty and ship the remainder to his/her place of actual residence. In such an instance, the Government will pay for shipment of both parts of the household goods, provided the aggregate weight of both shipments does not exceed the applicable weight limits.

(5) Alternate destination. If the employee’s immediate family and household goods are returned to a location in the United States other than the place of actual residence therein, the allowable expenses shall not exceed those allowable for return over a usually traveled route between the post of duty and the place of actual residence.

(6) Prior return at employee’s expense—reimbursement. There may be circumstances in which an employee elects to return his/her immediate family and the household goods or any part thereof at his/her own expense to any of the United States when he/she is not eligible for such transportation under this paragraph. In such an instance, and after the employee becomes eligible for transportation at Government expense, he/she may be reimbursed for the proper expenses which he/she had previously paid. He/She will be reimbursed in accordance with the applicable provisions of this paragraph only for expenses which are supported by receipts or other appropriate documentation furnished to the Government under regulations prescribed by the head of the agency concerned.

(f) Return of former spouse and dependents. Paragraph (e) of this section also applies to the spouse and dependents of an employee who have traveled to the employee’s overseas post of duty as dependents (as provided in §302-1.4(f)) at Government expense, even if, because of divorce or annulment, such individuals will have ceased to be dependents as of the date the employee becomes eligible for return travel. Travel of such former dependents is authorized by the employee’s next entitlement to return travel but not beyond the end of the employee’s current agreed tour of duty.
Relocation Allowances

§ 302–1.13 Overseas tour renewal agreement travel.

Employees may be eligible to receive allowances for travel and transportation expenses for the purpose of returning home to take leave between tours of duty overseas as provided in this section. These provisions are applicable to employees serving tours of duty at posts of duty outside the United States. These provisions are also applicable to employees serving tours of duty at posts of duty outside the United States. These provisions are also applicable to employees serving tours of duty in Alaska or Hawaii but only under the conditions specified in paragraphs (a) (2) and (3) of this section.

(a) Eligibility. Employees may be eligible to receive allowances for travel and transportation expenses for returning home to take leave between tours of duty overseas as provided in this section. To be eligible, an employee must:

(i) Satisfactorily completed an agreed period of service or the prescribed tour of duty as provided in §302–1.5(b) for return travel entitlement;

(ii) Entered into a new written agreement as provided in §302–1.5(b) for another period of service at the same or another post of duty outside the continental United States. The agreement shall cover costs incident to the travel to the employee’s place of actual residence or alternate location and return and any additional cost paid by the Government as a result of a transfer of the employee to another official station overseas at the time of the tour renewal agreement travel; and

(iii) Qualified for eligibility status under the provisions of paragraphs (a) (2) and/or (3) of this section, if the post of duty involved is located in Alaska or Hawaii.

(2) Employees stationed in Alaska or Hawaii on September 8, 1982. An employee whose status on September 8, 1982, was any one of the situations listed in paragraph (a) (2) (i), (ii), or (iii) of this section involving a post of duty in Alaska or in Hawaii will continue to be eligible to receive allowances for travel and transportation expenses for tour renewal agreement travel provided the employee continues to serve consecutive tours of duty at posts of duty within Alaska or at posts of duty within Hawaii. Transfers between a post of duty in Alaska and a post of duty in Hawaii will not constitute consecutive tours of duty for purposes of continuing eligibility under this section. On September 8, 1982, the employee must have been:

(i) Serving a current tour of duty in Alaska or Hawaii;

(ii) En route to a post of duty in Alaska or Hawaii under a written agreement to serve a tour of duty; or

(iii) Engaged in tour renewal agreement travel and have entered into a new written agreement to serve another tour of duty in Alaska or in Hawaii.

(3) Employees assigned, appointed, or transferred to a post of duty in Alaska or Hawaii after September 8, 1982. (i) Except for situations described in paragraph (a)(2) of this section, the travel and transportation expenses allowable for tour renewal agreement travel under this section may not otherwise be authorized for employees assigned, appointed, or transferred to a post of duty in Alaska or Hawaii after September 8, 1982, unless it is determined under regulations prescribed by the agency head that payment of these expenses is necessary for the purpose of recruiting or retaining an employee for service of a tour of duty at a post of duty in Alaska or Hawaii. This authority must be used sparingly and only when required to fulfill agency staffing needs to accomplish the agency’s mission. These provisions are intended to ensure the availability of well qualified employees or those employees with special skills and knowledge who are not available in the local area, and to fill positions in remote areas. Agency regulations shall prescribe criteria and guidelines to determine the need for payment of tour renewal agreement travel expenses. The agency determination that it is necessary to pay the expenses of tour renewal agreement travel as a recruiting or retention incentive in order to fill a particular position in Alaska or Hawaii shall be reviewed periodically but not less than every 5 years.

(ii) The payment of travel and transportation expenses for tour renewal agreement travel for recruiting or retention purposes is limited to two round trips beginning within 5 years after the date the employee first begins any period of consecutive tours of duty in Alaska or Hawaii. Employees shall be advised in writing of this limitation.

(4) Effect on other allowances. Paragraphs (a) (2) and (3) of this section do not affect the provisions of §302-1.12 governing overseas assignments and return for employees transferred or new appointees to posts of duty in Alaska and Hawaii.

(b) Allowable travel and transportation—(1) Destination. An eligible employee and his/her immediate family shall be allowed expenses for travel from the post of duty outside the continental United States to his/her place of actual residence at the time of assignment to a post of duty outside the continental United States (also referred to as ‘actual residence’ in this section). Those expenses shall also be allowed from the place of actual residence upon return to the same or another post of duty outside the continental United States; except with respect to Alaska and Hawaii, the return must be to a post of duty located within the same State (Alaska or Hawaii) as the post of duty at which the employee served immediately before tour renewal agreement travel (see paragraph (a)(2) of this section).

(2) Allowances. These allowances are payable under chapter 301 of this title and are limited to per diem and transportation costs for the employee and transportation costs, but not per diem, for his/her immediate family. (See §302-2.1.) If a transfer is also involved, family per diem may be paid as authorized by §302-2.2(b) to the extent such per diem is payable incident to direct travel between posts of duty.

(3) Alternate destination. An employee and his/her family may travel to a location in the United States or another country in which the place of actual residence is located other than the location of the place of actual residence; however, an employee whose actual residence is in the United States must spend a substantial amount of time in the United States incident to travel under this section to be entitled to the allowance authorized. The amount allowed for travel and transportation expenses when travel is to an alternate location shall not exceed the amount which would have been allowed for travel over a usually traveled route from the post of duty to the place of actual residence and for return to the same or a different post of duty outside the continental United States as the case may be.

(c) Limitations—(1) Husband and wife both employed. If husband and wife are both employed in the immediate geographic area by the same or different agencies as employees under the terms of this chapter, the allowances authorized in this section shall apply to each of them separately, in which instance neither of them is eligible for any allowances as the spouse, or to either of them, in which instance one is considered the head of the household and the other is eligible for allowances as the spouse. In applying these alternatives, other members of the immediate family shall not receive duplicate allowances because of the fact that both husband and wife are employees. A determination as to which of the two alternatives is selected shall be made in writing and shall be signed by both husband and wife. A copy of this determination shall be filed with the agency in which each is employed.

(2) Local hires not eligible—(i) Married persons in area with spouse. An employee hired locally is not eligible for allowances under this section if he/she is married and is in the immediate geographic area because his/her spouse is in the area as a member of the Foreign Service, a member of the uniformed services (as defined in title 37, U.S.C.), a private individual, or an employee of a private individual or a non-Federal organization.

(ii) Minors in area with parents. An employee hired locally who is unmarried and under 21 years of age is not eligible for allowances under this section if a parent of the employee is in the immediate geographic area as a member of the Foreign Service, a civilian employee under the terms of this subtitle, a private individual, or an employee of a private individual or a non-Federal organization.

(iii) Denial of allowance to eligible local hires. Under regulations prescribed by the head of the agency concerned, the agency may in its discretion refuse eligibility for allowances under this section to an employee who was hired locally and who did not sign a written agreement as provided under §302–1.5(b), provided the agency notifies the employee of its intention before the employee has completed a period of service equal to the period generally applicable to employees of the agency serving at the post of duty concerned or in the same geographic area.

(d) Liability of employee—noncompliance with new agreement. An employee who, for reasons not beyond his/her control and not acceptable to the agency concerned, fails to complete the period of service specified in a new service agreement is obligated for expenses and for allowances paid to him/her.

(1) Failure to complete initial year of service. (i) If the employee fails to complete 1 year of service under a new agreement, he/she is indebted to the Government for any amounts spent by the Government for:

(A) His/her transportation and per diem and transportation for his/her immediate family incident to tour renewal agreement travel from the post of duty to his/her place of actual residence and from the place of actual residence to the last post of duty where he/she failed to complete a year of service;

(B) Transportation for any member of the immediate family who traveled from the former to the last post of duty without going to the actual place of residence;

(C) Transportation of his/her household goods from the former post of duty to the last post of duty (including amounts spent for packing, crating, drayage, unpacking, and temporary storage); and

(D) Any other allowances paid under this subtitle when a transfer of official station is involved.

(ii) In addition, the employee must bear the expense of transportation for himself/herself, and the family and household goods from the last post of duty to the place of actual residence, and he/she is indebted to the Government for any amounts spent by the Government for these purposes.

(iii) The employee is entitled to an allowance if, prior to his/her current agreement which he/she did not complete, he/she completed an agreed period of service for which he/she did not receive all allowances to which he/she was entitled. The employee in such an instance is entitled to allowances for the return of himself/herself, and the family and household goods (including costs of packing, crating, drayage, unpacking, and temporary storage) from the post of duty at which the former period of service was completed to the actual place of residence.

(iv) The costs that would have been incurred for that purpose may be applied as a setoff against the indebtedness described in paragraphs (d)(1)(i) and (ii) of this section. The setoff amount shall be applied as follows:
§ 302–1.14

41 CFR Ch. 302 (7–1–01 Edition)

(A) If the amount of the setoff is less than the indebtedness, the difference is a debt due the Government; or

(B) If the setoff is larger than the indebtedness, the difference (excess setoff) will be applied to the costs, for which the employee is responsible, of moving the employee, and the family and household goods from the post of duty where he/she failed to complete a year of service to the place of actual residence. If the amount of excess setoff equals or exceeds the costs for which the employee is responsible, the Government will procure and pay for such transportation in full. If the amount of excess setoff is less than the costs for which the employee is responsible, the government will pay for the difference between the total costs and the amount of the excess setoff to be applied against the costs, or allow the employee to pay the total costs and reimburse him/her for the applicable amounts upon submission of an appropriate voucher.

(2) Failure to complete agreed period after initial year. (i) If the employee completes 1 year or more of service under a new agreement, but does not complete the entire period of service specified in the agreement, he/she is not indebted to the Government for amounts spent by the Government for transportation and per diem for the employee and for transportation of his/her immediate family incident to tour renewal agreement travel from the post of duty at which he/she completed the previous tour of duty to his/her place of actual residence and from the place of actual residence to the post of duty at which he/she failed to complete the agreed upon tour of duty. Furthermore, if the post of duty where the employee failed to complete his/her agreement is not the same as the place where he/she did complete his/her previous assignment, he/she is not indebted for the costs of transporting any members of the immediate family who traveled from the former to the latter post of duty without going to the actual place of residence, nor for the costs of transporting his/her household goods between these two posts of duty, including any related costs of packing, crating, drayage, unpacking, and temporary storage or for other allowances paid under this chapter incident to the transfer of official station.

(ii) However, when the employee fails to complete the agreed period of service after the initial year, the employee must bear the costs of transportation for himself/herself and the immediate family and household goods from the post of duty at which he/she did not complete the agreed upon tour of duty under the new agreement to the place of actual residence.

(iii) For the reasons described in paragraph (d)(1)(iii) of this section, however, the employee shall be allowed credit for an amount equal to the costs of transporting, from the post of duty at which the former period of service was completed to the place of actual residence, the household goods and any members of the immediate family who did not accompany him/her when he/she returned to the place of actual residence.

(iv) The credit amount allowable and the costs involved shall be computed in the same manner as provided in paragraph (d)(1)(iv) of this section.

§ 302–1.14

Use of funds.

(a) Advance of funds—(1) Basis. An employee may be advanced funds for use while traveling and for certain expenses which he/she may incur incident to a transfer based on his/her prospective entitlement to reimbursement for those expenses after they are incurred.

(2) Rules. Advances and collection of advances by deduction from the employee’s voucher are subject to chapter 301 of this title.

(3) Anticipated entitlements which may justify an advance. The expected entitlement of an employee to reimbursement for the following expenses will form the basis for payment of a travel

§ 302–1.100 —

Applicability.

(a) Individuals covered—(1) Career appointees to the Senior Executive Service (SES). The provisions of this subpart are applicable to career appointees in SES positions. For purposes of this subpart, the definitions in paragraphs (a)(1) (i) and (ii) of this section apply.

(i) Career appointee as defined in 5 U.S.C. 3132(a)(4) means an individual in an SES position whose appointment to the position or previous appointment to another SES position was based on approval by the Office of Personnel Management of the executive qualifications of such individual.

(ii) Senior Executive Service (SES) position as defined in 5 U.S.C. 3132(a)(2) means:

(A) Any position in an agency which is classified above GS–15 of the General Schedule pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 5108 or is in Level IV or V of the Executive Schedule; or

(B) An equivalent position which is not required to be filled by an appointment by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and is a position which includes one or more of the duties listed in 5 U.S.C. 3132(a)(2).

§ 302–1.15 —

Waiver of limitations for an employee relocating to or from a remote or isolated location.

The head of an agency or his/her designee may waive any limitation contained in subchapter II of chapter 57 of title 5, United States Code, or in any regulation (including this chapter) implementing those statutory provisions, for any employee relocating to or from a remote or isolated location when the following conditions are met:

(a) The limitation if not waived would cause the employee to suffer a hardship; and

(b) The head of the agency or his/her designee certifies in writing that the limitation is waived and the reason(s) for the waiver.

§ 302–1.101

(2) Appointees who elect to retain SES retirement benefits. The provisions of this subpart are applicable to a non–SES appointee if the conditions listed in paragraphs (a)(2) (i) through (iii) of this section are met:

(i) The appointee’s basic rate of pay is at Level V of the Executive Schedule or higher;

(ii) The appointee was previously a career appointee in the SES; and

(iii) The appointee elected under 5 U.S.C. 3392(c) to retain SES retirement benefits.

(3) Medical Center Directors. The provisions of this subpart are applicable to individuals who:

(i) Served as a director of a Department of Veteran’s Affairs medical center under 38 U.S.C. 4103(a)(8) as in effect on November 17, 1988;

(ii) Separated from Government service on or after October 2, 1992; and

(iii) Are not otherwise covered under paragraph (a) (1) or (2) of this section.

(b) Immediate family of deceased covered individual. The provisions of this subpart apply to the immediate family of a covered individual, as defined in paragraph (a)(1) of this section, who satisfies the eligibility criteria in §302–1.101, and who:

(1) Died in Government service on or after January 1, 1994; or

(2) Died after separating from Government service but before travel and/or transportation authorized under this subpart were completed.

(c) Exclusions. The provisions of this subpart are not applicable to individuals whose appointment in the SES is a limited term, limited emergency, or noncareer appointment. (See 5 U.S.C. 3132(a) (5) through (7) for definitions of excluded types of appointment.)

§ 302–1.101 Eligibility criteria.

Upon separation from Federal service for retirement, a covered individual as defined in §302–1.100(a) of this subpart (or a deceased covered individual’s immediate family as described in §302–1.100(b)) is eligible for those travel and transportation allowances specified in §302–1.103 of this subpart, if such individual meets the following criteria:

(a) Was transferred or reassigned geographically at any time in the interest of the Government and at Government expense from one official station to another for permanent duty in a position described in §302–1.100(a) of this subpart, including a transfer or reassignment:

(1) From an SES career appointment to another SES career appointment;

(2) From an SES career appointment to an appointment outside the SES at a rate of pay equal to or higher than Level V of the Executive Schedule, and the employee elects to retain SES retirement benefits under 5 U.S.C. 3392; or

(3) From other than an SES career appointment, including an appointment in a civil service position outside the SES, to an SES career appointment;

(b) At the time of the transfer or reassignment:

(1) Was eligible to receive an annuity for optional retirement under section 8336(a), (b), (c), (e), (f), or (j) of subchapter III of chapter 83 (Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS)) or under section 8412 of subchapter II of chapter 84 (Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS)) of title 5, U.S.C.; or

(2) Was within 5 years of eligibility to receive an annuity for optional retirement under one of the authorities in paragraph (b)(1) of this section; or

(3) Was eligible to receive an annuity based on discontinued service retirement, or early voluntary retirement under an OPM authorization, under section 8336(d) of subchapter III of chapter 83 or under section 8414(b) of subchapter II of chapter 84 of title 5, U.S.C.;

(c) Is separated from Federal service on or after September 22, 1988;

(d) Is eligible to receive an annuity upon such separation (or, in the case of death in Government service, met the requirements for being considered eligible to receive an annuity, as of the date of death) under the provisions of subchapter III of chapter 83 (CSRS) or chapter 84 (FERS) of title 5, U.S.C., including an annuity based on optional retirement, discontinued service retirement, early voluntary retirement under an OPM authorization, or disability retirement; and § 302–1.105 Expenses not allowable.

Items of expense not listed in §302–1.103 which generally are authorized for reimbursement in the case of transferred employees; (e.g., per diem for family, cost of househunting trip, subsistence while occupying temporary quarters, miscellaneous expense allowance, residence sale and purchase expenses, leasebreaking expenses, non-temporary storage of household goods, relocation income tax allowance, and relocation services) are not authorized upon the eligible individual’s retirement.

§ 302–1.105 Origin and destination.

(a) The expenses listed in §302–1.103 may be paid from the official station where separation of the eligible individual occurs to the place where the individual has elected to reside within the United States; or if the individual dies before separating or after separating but before the travel and transportation are completed, expenses may be paid from the deceased individual’s official station at the time of death or where separation occurred, as appropriate, to the place within the areas listed in this paragraph where the immediate family elects to reside even if different from the place elected by the separated eligible individual.

(b) Travel and transportation expenses may be paid from an alternate origin or more than one origin provided the cost does not exceed the cost that the Government would have paid if all travel and transportation had originated at the official station from which the individual was separated to the place where the individual, or the immediate family, will reside.

(c) This subpart contemplates a move to a different geographical area. In the event the place where the individual has elected to reside is within the same general local or metropolitan area in which the official station or residence was located at the time of the individual’s separation, the expenses authorized by this subpart may not be paid unless the mileage criteria specified in § 302–1.7 for a short distance transfer are met.

§ 302–1.106 Time limits for beginning travel and transportation.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, all travel, including that for the separated covered individual, and transportation, including that for household goods, allowed under this subpart, shall be accomplished within 6 months of the date of separation (or date of death if the individual died before separating), or other reasonable period of time as determined by the agency concerned, but in no case later than 2 years from the effective date of the individual’s separation from Government service (or date of death if the individual died before separating).

(b) For the immediate family of a covered individual who died in Government service between January 1, 1994 and May 13, 1997, all travel and transportation, including that for household goods, allowed under this subpart, shall be accomplished no later than May 13, 1999.

§ 302–1.107 Use of funds.

Travel advances will not be issued to cover any of the expenses authorized by this subpart. Transportation expenses should be paid through the use of U.S. Government Transportation Requests and U.S. Government Bills of Lading to the maximum extent possible to minimize travel and transportation costs and the need for individuals to use personal funds. However, individuals who have been authorized or approved to make their own moving arrangements may be reimbursed for their actual transportation expenses not to exceed applicable coach air fares for transportation of the individual and immediate family, or the applicable allowances under the commuted rate schedule for moving and storage of the household goods.

Subpart C—Employee’s Temporary Change of Station

SOURCE: FTR Amdt. 64, 62 FR 13771, Mar. 21, 1997, unless otherwise noted.

NOTE TO SUBPART C: Use of the pronouns “I” and “you” throughout this subpart refers to the employee.

§ 302–1.200 What is a “temporary change of station (TCS)”? TCS means the relocation of an employee to a new official station for a temporary period while the employee is performing a long-term assignment, and subsequent return of the employee to the previous official station upon completion of that assignment.

§ 302–1.201 What is the purpose of a TCS? TCS provides agencies an alternative to a long-term temporary duty travel assignment to increase employee satisfaction and enhance morale, reduce the employee’s income tax liability, and save the Government money.

§ 302–1.202 Am I eligible for a TCS? Yes, if you are an employee who is directed to perform a long-term assignment at a temporary location, and you otherwise would be eligible for payment of temporary duty travel allowances authorized under chapter 301 of this subtitle. For exceptions, see § 302–1.203.

§ 302–1.203 Who is not eligible for a TCS? The following individuals are not eligible for a TCS:

(a) A new appointee;

(b) An employee assigned to or from a State or local Government under the Intergovernmental Personnel Act (5 U.S.C. 3372, et. seq.);

(c) An individual employed intermittently in the Government service as a consultant or expert and paid on a daily when-actually-employed (WAE) basis;

(d) An individual serving without pay or at $1 a year; or
Relocation Allowances

§ 302–1.204 Must my agency authorize a TCS when I am directed to perform a long-term assignment at a temporary official station?

No. Your agency determines the conditions under which a TCS is necessary to accomplish the purposes of the Government effectively and economically.

§ 302–1.205 Under what circumstances will my agency authorize a TCS?

Your agency will authorize a TCS when:

(a) You are directed to perform a long-term assignment at another duty station;

(b) Your agency otherwise could authorize temporary duty travel and pay travel allowances, including payment of subsistence expenses, under chapter 301 of this subtitle for the long-term assignment;

(c) Your agency determines it would be more advantageous, cost and other factors considered, to authorize a TCS; and

(d) You meet any additional conditions your agency has established.

§ 302–1.206 If my agency authorizes a TCS, do I have the option of electing payment of temporary duty travel allowances instead?

No.

§ 302–1.207 How long must my assignment be for me to qualify for a TCS?

Not less than 6 months, nor more than 30 months.

§ 302–1.208 What is the effect on my TCS reimbursement if my assignment lasts less than 6 months?

Your agency may authorize a TCS only when a long-term assignment is expected to last 6 months or more. If your assignment is cut short for reasons other than separation from Government service, you will be paid TCS expenses.

§ 302–1.209 What is the effect on my TCS reimbursement if my assignment lasts more than 30 months?

If your assignment exceeds 30 months, your agency must permanently assign you to the temporary official station or return you to your previous official station. Your agency may not pay for nontemporary storage or property management services incurred after the last day of the thirtieth month. Your agency must pay the expenses of returning you and your immediate family and household goods to your previous official station unless you are permanently assigned to your temporary official station.

§ 302–1.210 Is there any required minimum distance between an official station and a long-term assignment location that must be met for me to qualify for a TCS?

No. Your agency may establish the area within which it will not authorize a TCS.

§ 302–1.211 Must I sign a service agreement to qualify for a TCS?

No.

§ 302–1.212 What is my official station during my long-term assignment?

Your official station is the location of your long-term assignment.

EXPENSES PAID UPON ASSIGNMENT

§ 302–1.213 What expenses must my agency pay for a TCS upon my assignment?

Your agency must pay the following:

(a) Travel, including per diem, for you and your immediate family under part 302–2 of this chapter;

(b) Transportation and temporary storage of your household goods under part 302–8 of this chapter;

(c) Transportation of a mobile home instead of transportation of household goods under part 302–7 of this chapter;

(d) A miscellaneous expenses allowance under part 302–3 of this chapter;

(e) Transportation of a privately owned vehicle(s) under part 302–10 of this chapter; and

(f) A relocation income tax allowance under part 302–11 of this chapter for additional income taxes you incur on payments your agency makes under....
§ 302–1.214 What expenses may my agency pay for a TCS upon my assignment?

Your agency may pay the following:
(a) Househunting trip expenses under part 302–4 of this chapter; and
(b) Temporary quarters subsistence expenses under part 302–5 of this chapter.

EXPENSES PAID DURING ASSIGNMENT

§ 302–1.215 If my agency authorizes a TCS, will it pay for nontemporary storage of my household goods?

Yes, when nontemporary storage is necessary. Nontemporary storage expenses include necessary packing, crating, unpacking, uncrating, transporting to and from place of storage, charges while in storage, and other necessary charges directly related to storage.

§ 302–1.216 How long may my agency pay for nontemporary storage of household goods?

For the duration of your long-term assignment.

§ 302–1.217 Is there any limitation on the combined weight of household goods I may transport or nontemporarily store at Government expense?

Yes, the maximum combined weight is 18,000 pounds net weight. If you transport and/or nontemporarily store household goods in excess of the maximum weight allowance, you will be responsible for any excess cost.

§ 302–1.218 What are the income tax consequences if my agency pays for nontemporary storage of my household goods?

You will be taxed on the amount of nontemporary storage expenses your agency pays. However, your agency will pay you a relocation income tax allowance under part 302–11 of this chapter for substantially all of the additional Federal, State and local income taxes you incur on the expenses your agency pays.

§ 302–1.219 Will my agency pay for property management services when I am authorized a TCS?

Yes. Your agency will reimburse you directly for expenses you incur or make payments on your behalf to a relocation services company, if you so choose. The term “property management services” refers to a program provided by a private company for a fee, which assists you in managing your residence at your previous official station as a rental property. Services provided by the company may include, but are not limited to, obtaining a tenant, negotiating a lease, inspecting the property regularly, managing repairs and maintenance, enforcing lease terms, collecting the rent, paying the mortgage and other carrying expenses from rental proceeds and/or funds of the employee, and accounting for the transactions and providing periodic reports to the employee.

§ 302–1.220 What is the property for which my agency will pay for property management services?

Only your residence at your previous official station.

§ 302–1.221 How long will my agency pay for property management services?

For the duration of your long-term assignment.

§ 302–1.222 What are the income tax consequences when my agency pays for property management services?

You will be taxed on the amount of property management expenses your agency pays, whether it reimburses you directly for your expenses or pays a relocation services company to manage your residence. However, your agency will pay you a relocation income tax allowance under part 302–11 of this chapter for substantially all of the additional Federal, State and local income taxes you incur on the expenses your agency pays. You may wish to consult with a tax advisor to determine whether you will incur any additional tax liability, unrelated to your agency’s payment of your property management expenses, as a result of maintaining your residence as a rental property.
§ 302–1.223 What expenses will my agency pay when I complete my long-term assignment?

Your agency will pay the following expenses in connection with your return to your previous official station:

(a) Travel, including per diem, for you and your immediate family under part 302–2 of this chapter;
(b) Transportation and temporary storage of your household goods under part 302–8 of this chapter;
(c) Transportation of a mobile home instead of transportation of your household goods under part 302–7 of this chapter;
(d) Temporary quarters subsistence expenses under part 302–5 of this chapter;
(e) A miscellaneous expenses allowance under part 302–3 of this chapter;
(f) Transportation of a privately owned vehicle(s) under part 302–10 of this chapter; and
(g) A relocation income tax allowance under part 302–11 of this chapter for additional income taxes you incur on payments your agency makes under the authority of this section for your relocation expenses.

§ 302–1.224 If I separate from Government service upon completion of my long-term assignment, what relocation expenses will my agency pay upon my separation?

The same relocation expenses it would have paid had you not separated from Government service upon completion of your long-term assignment.

§ 302–1.225 If I separate from Government service prior to completion of my long-term assignment, what relocation expenses will my agency pay upon my separation?

If the separation is for reasons beyond your control that are acceptable to your agency, your agency will pay the same relocation expenses it would pay under §302–1.224 if you separated from Government service upon completion of the long-term assignment. If this is not the case, the expenses your agency pays may not exceed the reimbursement that you would have received under chapter 301 of this subtitle had you been authorized to perform temporary duty travel for the duration of the long-term assignment.

§ 302–1.226 If I have been authorized successive temporary changes of station and reassigned from one temporary official station to another, what expenses will my agency pay upon completion of my last assignment or my separation from Government service?

Your agency will pay the expenses authorized in §302–1.223 for your relocation from your current temporary official station to your last permanent official station.

PERMANENT ASSIGNMENT TO TEMPORARY OFFICIAL STATION

§ 302–1.227 How is payment of my TCS expenses affected if I am permanently assigned to my temporary official station?

Payment of TCS expenses stops once your temporary official station becomes your permanent official station. Your agency may not pay any TCS expenses incurred beginning the day your temporary official station becomes your permanent official station.

§ 302–1.228 What relocation allowances may my agency pay when I am permanently assigned to my temporary official station?

Your agency may pay the following:

(a) Travel, including per diem, under part 302–2 of this chapter for one round trip between your temporary official station and your previous official station for you and members of your immediate family who relocated to the temporary official station with you. Your agency may also pay the same expenses for a one-way trip from the previous official station to the new permanent official station for any immediate family members who did not accompany you to the temporary official station.
(b) Residence transaction expenses under part 302–6 of this chapter;
(c) Property management expenses under part 302–15 of this chapter;
(d) Residence-related relocation services expenses, (e.g. expenses under a homesale program, expenses for homefinding assistance, and property management services) under part 302–12 of this chapter;
§ 302–1.229

(e) Temporary quarters subsistence expenses under part 302–5 of this chapter;
(f) Transportation of household goods not previously transported to the temporary official station under part 302–8 of this chapter; and
(g) Transportation of a privately owned vehicle(s) not previously transported to the temporary official station under part 302–10 of this chapter.

[FTR Amdt. 64, 62 FR 13711, Mar. 21, 1997, as amended by FTR Amdt. 84, 64 FR 29163, May 28, 1999]

§ 302–1.229 If I am permanently assigned to my temporary official station, is there any limitation on the weight of household goods I may transport at Government expense to my official station?

Yes. You are limited to 18,000 pounds net weight. This maximum weight will be reduced by the weight of any household goods transported at Government expense to your temporary official station under your TCS authorization. Subject to the 18,000 pound limit, your agency will pay to transport any household goods in nonpermanent storage to your official station. Additionally, if you change your residence as a result of your permanent assignment to your temporary official station, your agency may pay for transporting your household goods, subject to the 18,000 pound limit, between the residence you occupied during your temporary assignment and your new residence.

§ 302–1.230 Are there any relocation allowances my agency may not pay if I am permanently assigned to my temporary official station?

Your agency may not pay for the following:
(a) Expenses of a househunting trip for you and your spouse to your temporary official station under part 302–4 of this chapter; or
(b) Residence transaction expenses for selling a residence or breaking a lease at the temporary official station under part 302–6 of this chapter.

§ 302–1.300 How should we administer our TCS program?

To minimize your travel and relocation costs.

§ 302–1.301 What governing policies must we establish for our TCS program?

Policies and procedures that govern:
(a) When you will authorize a TCS, including whether you will impose a minimum distance between the employee's current official station and the proposed temporary official station for an employee to qualify for a TCS; and
(b) Who will determine whether authorization of a TCS is appropriate in each situation.

§ 302–1.302 What factors should we consider in determining whether to authorize a TCS for a long-term assignment?

You should consider the following factors in determining whether to authorize a TCS:
(a) Cost considerations. You should consider the cost of each alternative. A long-term temporary duty travel assignment requires the payment of either per diem or actual subsistence expenses for the entire period of the assignment. This could be very costly to the agency over an extended period. A TCS will require fairly substantial relocation allowance payments at the beginning and end of the assignment, and less substantial payments for nonpermanent storage and property management services, when authorized, during the period of the assignment. Agencies should estimate the total cost of each alternative and authorize the one that is most advantageous for the agency, cost and other factors considered.
(b) Length of the long-term assignment. You should consider the length of the long-term assignment. The purpose of temporary duty travel allowances is to reimburse an employee for additional costs, including subsistence costs, incurred as a result of performing official business away from his/her official station. An employee receives a salary intended to cover his/her living expenses, including subsistence costs, at the official station. When an employee performs a long-term assignment and obtains extended stay living accommodations with facilities not unlike those the employee has at the official station, the assignment characteristics may be more similar to subsisting at the official station than at a temporary duty station. When this situation occurs, payment of temporary duty travel allowances in addition to payment of salary creates an inequitable reimbursement situation between an employee performing official travel and an employee officially stationed at the same location. In this situation, you should strongly consider authorizing a TCS for a long-term assignment.
Relocation Allowances

(c) Tax considerations. An employee who performs a temporary duty travel assignment exceeding one year at a single location is subject to income taxation of his/her travel expense reimbursements. An employee who is authorized and performs a TCS also will be subject to income taxation of some, but not all, of his/her TCS expenses. You will pay an offsetting relocation income tax allowance on an employee’s TCS expense reimbursements but unless specifically authorized by statute, you do not have authority to pay such an allowance for income taxes incurred on temporary duty travel expense reimbursements. You, therefore, should authorize a TCS if a long-term temporary duty assignment will result in an unreimbursable income tax liability on an employee.

(d) Employee concerns. The long-term assignment of an employee away from his/her official station and immediate family may negatively affect the employee’s morale and job performance. Such negative effects may be alleviated by authorizing a TCS so the employee can transport his/her immediate family and household goods at Government expense to the location where he/she will perform the long-term assignment. You should consider the effects of a long-term temporary duty travel assignment on an employee when deciding whether to authorize a TCS.

PART 302–2—ALLOWANCES FOR SUBSISTENCE AND TRANSPORTATION

Sec.
302–2.1 For the employee.
302–2.2 For members of an employee’s immediate family.
302–2.3 For use of a privately owned automobile in connection with permanent change of station.
302–2.4 Advance of funds.

§ 302–2.1 For the employee.

(a) Applicability. This part applies to travel of
(1) Transferred employees,
(2) New appointees, and
(3) Employees assigned to posts of duty outside the continental United States in connection with either overseas tour renewal agreement travel or return travel to places of residence for the purpose of separation.

(b) Payment for employee’s travel expenses. Except as specifically provided in this chapter, an agency shall pay per diem, transportation costs, and other travel expenses of the employee in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 5701–5709 and chapter 301 of this title. The prohibition in §301–7.5(b) of this title on paying per diem for travel of 12 hours or less applies to change of official station travel.

(c) Maximum per diem rates for relocation travel—(1) Travel when en route between employee’s old and new official stations. The maximum per diem rate for en route travel within CONUS between the employee’s old and new official stations shall be the standard CONUS rate prescribed under §301–7.3 of this title.

(2) Travel to seek residence quarters. The maximum per diem rate for travel to seek residence quarters shall be the lesser of the maximum per diem rate prescribed under §301–7.3 of this title for the locality where the employee
§ 302–2.2  For members of an employee’s immediate family.

(a) Transportation. Except as specifically provided in this chapter, allowable travel expenses for the employee’s immediate family, including transportation, are governed by chapter 301 of this title. Travel of the immediate family may begin at the employee’s old official station or some other point, or partially at both, and may end at the new official station or some other place selected by the employee, or partially at both. However, the cost to the Government for transportation of the immediate family shall not exceed the allowable cost by the usually traveled route between the employee’s old and new official stations.

(b) Per diem allowance when en route between employee’s old and new official stations. When an employee is transferred, an allowance shall be paid for per diem expenses incurred by the employee’s immediate family while traveling between the old and new official stations regardless of where the old and new stations are located. If the actual travel involves departure and/or destination points other than the old or new official station, the per diem allowance shall not exceed the amount to which members of the immediate family would have been entitled if they had traveled by a usually traveled route between the old and new official stations. The prohibition in §301–7.5(b) of this title on paying per diem for travel of 12 hours or less applies to change of official station travel. The maximum allowable per diem rates are as follows:

(1) For the spouse—(i) When accompanying the employee. When the spouse accompanies the employee who is traveling under §302–2.1, the spouse is authorized three-fourths of the per diem rate to which the employee is entitled. However, under this provision the minimum per diem rate shall be $6 unless the employee receives a per diem rate of less than $6 and, in that instance, the spouse will receive the same rate as the employee.

(ii) When not accompanying the employee. When the spouse is not accompanying the employee while he/she is traveling under §302–2.1, the spouse is authorized the per diem rate to which the employee is entitled under §302–2.1. In such instance the travel time of the employee and the amount of per diem allowance paid him/her are not factors in computing the amount of per diem allowance for travel of the spouse. (When more than one privately owned automobile is used, the spouse shall be considered to have been accompanied by the employee if travel is performed on the same days along the same general route.)

(2) For each other member of the employee’s immediate family. Three-fourths of the per diem rate to which the employee is entitled is authorized for each other member age 12 or older, and one-half of the per diem rate to which the employee is entitled is authorized for each child under 12 years of age. However, under this provision the minimum per diem rate shall be $6 unless the employee received a per diem rate of less than $6 and, in that instance, the member shall receive the same rate as the employee.

(c) Exclusions. The provisions of paragraph (b) of this section do not authorize payment of per diem allowances for members of the immediate families of:

(1) New appointees;

(2) Employees assigned to posts of duty outside the continental United States in connection with overseas tour renewal agreement travel;

(3) Employees assigned to posts of duty outside the continental United States returning to places of actual residence for separation; or

Relocation Allowances

§ 302–2.3 For use of a privately owned automobile in connection with permanent change of station.

(a) Determination of advantage to the Government. When an employee, with or without an immediate family, who is eligible for travel allowances under part 302–1, uses a privately owned automobile for permanent change of station travel, that use is deemed to be advantageous to the Government. The provisions in §302–2.3 also apply to new appointees, and employees returning from posts of duty outside the continental United States to places of actual residence for separation. The provisions do not apply to employees assigned to posts of duty outside the continental United States in connection with overseas tour renewal agreement travel. (See §302–1.13.)

(b) Mileage rates prescribed. Payment of mileage allowances, when authorized or approved in connection with the transfer, shall be allowed as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Occupants of automobile</th>
<th>Mileage rate (cents)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Employee only; or one member of immediate family</td>
<td>15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Employee and one member; or two members of immediate family</td>
<td>17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Employee and two members; or three members of immediate family</td>
<td>19</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Employee and three or more members; or four or more members of immediate family</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(c) Mileage rates in special circumstances. Heads of agencies may prescribe that travel orders or other administrative determinations specify higher mileage rates at a rate not more than the maximum rate prescribed in §301–4.2(a)(1) of this title for individual transfers of employees or transfers of groups of employees when:

(1) Employees are expected to use the privately owned automobiles on official business while assigned to the new duty stations;

(2) The common carrier rates for the facilities provided between the old and new stations, the related constructive taxicab fares to and from terminals, and the per diem allowances prescribed under this part justify a higher mileage rate as advantageous to the Government; or

(3) The costs of driving the privately owned automobile to, from, or between official stations located outside the continental United States justify a higher mileage rate as advantageous to the Government.

(d) Maximum per diem allowances when privately owned automobile is used—(1) Rates as prescribed by agency. The per diem allowance for the employee while en route between the old and new duty stations shall be at appropriate rates, as prescribed by the agency concerned, within the applicable maximums and in accordance with provisions of §302–2.1 and chapter 301 of this title. The per diem allowances prescribed in §302–2.2(b) apply for members of an employee’s immediate family, except as excluded in §302–2.2(c).

(2) Maximum allowance based on total distance. Per diem allowances should be paid on the basis of actual time used to complete the trip, but the allowances may not exceed an amount computed on the basis of a minimum driving distance per day which is prescribed as reasonable by the authorizing official and is not less than an average of 300 miles per calendar day. An exception to the daily minimum driving distance may be made by the agency concerned when travel between the old and new official stations is delayed for reasons clearly beyond the control of the traveler such as acts of God, restrictions by Governmental authorities, or other reasons acceptable to the agency; e.g., a physically handicapped employee. In such cases, per diem may be allowed for the period of the delay or for a shorter period as determined by the agency. The traveler must provide a statement on his/her reimbursement voucher fully explaining the circumstances which necessitated the en route travel delay. The exception to the daily minimum driving distance requires the approval of the agency’s authorizing official.

(3) Method of computation. In computing the per diem amount for a prescribed minimum driving distance per day, one-fourth of the prescribed per diem rate shall be allowed for each one-fourth of the prescribed minimum distance. For example, if the authorizing official prescribes a per diem rate of $12 for the employee and a reasonable minimum driving distance of 400 miles a day, the per diem amount will be $3 for each 100 miles or fraction of 100 miles traveled between the old and new official stations.

(e) Use of more than one privately owned vehicle—(1) When authorized as advantageous to the Government. Use of no more than one privately owned automobile is authorized under this part as being advantageous to the Government in connection with permanent change of station travel except under the following special circumstances, when use of more than one privately owned automobile may be authorized:

(i) If there are more members of the immediate family than reasonably can be transported with luggage in one vehicle;

(ii) If because of age or physical condition special accommodations are necessary in transporting a member of the immediate family in one vehicle, and a second automobile is required for travel of other members of the immediate family;

(iii) If an employee must report to a new official station in advance of travel by members of the immediate family who delay travel for acceptable reasons such as completion of school term, sale of property, settlement of personal business affairs, disposal or shipment of household goods, and temporary unavailability of adequate housing at the new official station;

(iv) If a member of the immediate family performs unaccompanied travel between authorized points other than those for the employee’s travel; or

(v) If, in advance of the employee’s reporting date, immediate family members must travel to the new official station for acceptable reasons such as to enroll children in school at the beginning of the term.

(2) Allowances applicable. In those instances where more than one automobile is authorized under this paragraph, the allowances under paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this section apply for each automobile and the occupants thereof.

(3) Allowances when not justified as advantageous to the Government. If the use of more than one privately owned automobile is not justified under the circumstances described in this paragraph, only the allowances prescribed in paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this section shall be paid, as if all persons involved traveled in one automobile.

§ 302–2.4 Advance of funds.

Advance of funds may be made for per diem and mileage allowances as provided in §§ 302–2.1, 302–2.2(b), and 302–2.3 except in connection with employees assigned to posts of duty outside the continental United States performing authorized or approved overseas tour renewal agreement travel. Such advances may also be made upon return to the place of residence for the purpose of separation under the policies and procedures prescribed in § 302–1.14(a).

[54 FR 20314, May 10, 1989] transportation expenses). The costs intended to be reimbursed under the miscellaneous expenses allowance include, but are not limited to the following:

(1) Fees for disconnecting and connecting appliances, equipment, and utilities involved in relocation and costs of converting appliances for operation on available utilities;

(2) Fees for cutting and fitting rugs, draperies, and curtains moved from one residence quarters to another;

(3) Utility fees or deposits that are not offset by eventual refunds;

(4) Forfeiture losses on medical, dental, and food locker contracts that are not transferable; and contracts for private institutional care, such as that provided for handicapped or invalid dependents only, which are not transferable or refundable; and

(5) Costs of automobile registration, driver's license, and use taxes imposed when bringing automobiles into certain jurisdictions.

(c) Types of costs not covered. This allowance shall not be used to reimburse the employee for costs or expenses incurred which exceed maximums provided by statute or in this subtitle; costs or expenses that the employee incurred but which are disallowed elsewhere in this subtitle; costs reimbursed under other provisions of law or regulations; costs or expenses incurred for reasons of personal taste or preference and not required because of the move; losses covered by insurance; fines or other penalties imposed upon the employee or members of his/her immediate family; judgments, court costs, and similar expenses growing out of civil actions; or any other expenses brought about by circumstances, factors, or actions in which the move to a new duty station was not the proximate cause. Examples of costs which are not reimbursable from this allowance are as follows:

(1) Losses in selling or buying real and personal property and cost items related to such transactions;

(2) Costs which are reimbursed under other provisions of this subtitle or under any other regulations or under provisions of any statute;

(3) Cost of additional insurance on household goods while in transit to the new official station or cost of loss or damage to such property;

(4) Additional costs of moving household goods caused by exceeding the maximum weight limitation for which the employee has eligibility as provided by law or in this chapter;

(5) Costs of newly acquired items, such as the purchase or installation cost of new rugs or draperies;

(6) Higher income, real estate, sales, or other taxes as the result of establishing residence in the new locality;

(7) Fines imposed for traffic infractions while en route to the new official station locality;

(8) Accident insurance premiums or liability costs incurred in connection with travel to the new official station locality, or any other liability imposed upon the employee for uninsured damages caused by accidents for which he/she or a member of his/her immediate family is held responsible;

(9) Losses as the result of the sale or disposal of items of personal property not considered convenient or practicable to move;

(10) Damage or loss of clothing, luggage, or other personal effects while traveling to the new official station locality;

(11) Subsistence, transportation, or mileage expenses in excess of the amounts reimbursed as per diem or other allowances under this regulation;

(12) Medical expenses due to illness or injuries of the employee or members of the immediate family while en route to the new official station or while living in temporary quarters at Government expense under the provisions of part 302–5; or

(13) Costs incurred in connection with structural alterations; remodeling or modernizing of living quarters, garages or other buildings to accommodate privately owned automobiles, appliances or equipment; or the cost of replacing or repairing worn-out or defective appliances, or equipment shipped to the new location.

§ 302–3.2 Eligibility

(a) Coverage. A miscellaneous expense allowance will be payable to an employee for whom a permanent change of station is authorized or approved and who has discontinued and established a residence in connection with such change regardless of where the old or new official station is located, provided the applicable eligibility conditions in part 302–1 are met and the agreement required in § 302–1.5 is signed.

(b) Exclusions. The provisions of this part do not apply for new appointees, employees assigned under the Government Employees Training Act (see 5 U.S.C. 4109), or employees returning from overseas assignments for the purpose of separation.

§ 302–3.3 Allowable amount

Employees eligible for a miscellaneous expense allowance shall be paid an amount under paragraph (a) of this section or reimbursed an amount under paragraph (b) of this section, but not both, as follows:

(a) Allowances in the following amounts will be paid without support or other documentation of expenses:
   (1) $350 or the equivalent of 1 week’s basic pay, whichever is the lesser amount, for an employee without immediate family; and
   (2) $700 or the equivalent of 2 weeks’ basic pay, whichever is the lesser amount, for an employee with immediate family.

(b) Allowances in excess of those provided in paragraph (a) of this section may be authorized or approved, if supported by acceptable statements of fact and either paid bills or other acceptable evidence justifying the amounts claimed, provided the aggregate amount does not exceed the employee’s basic pay (at the time the employee reported for duty) for 1 week if the employee is without an immediate family, or for 2 weeks if the employee has an immediate family. In no instance will the amount exceed the maximum rate of grade GS–13 provided in 5 U.S.C. 5332 at the time the employee reported for duty. The entire amount claimed under this paragraph (including the amount otherwise payable without such documentation under paragraph (a) of this section) must be supported as required in this paragraph.

§ 302–3.4 Advance of funds

No advance of funds is authorized in connection with the allowance provided in this part.

Subpart B—Agency Responsibilities

302–4.100 How should we administer the househunting trip expenses allowance?

302–4.101 What governing policies must we establish for the househunting trip expenses allowance?

302–4.102 Under what circumstances may we authorize a househunting trip?

302–4.103 What factors must we consider in determining whether to offer an employee the fixed amount househunting trip subsistence expenses reimbursement option?

SOURCE: FTR Amdt. 63, 62 FR 13768, Mar. 21, 1997, unless otherwise noted.

Subpart A—Employee’s Allowance for Househunting Trip Expenses

NOTE TO SUBPART A: Use of the pronouns “I” and “you” throughout this subpart refers to the employee.

§ 302–4.1 What is a “househunting trip”?

The term “househunting trip” refers to a trip made by the employee and/or spouse to the new official station locality to find permanent living quarters to rent or purchase. The term “living quarters” in this part includes apartments, condominiums, and cooperatives in addition to townhomes and single family homes.

§ 302–4.2 What is the purpose of the househunting trip expenses allowance?

The allowance for househunting trip expenses is intended to facilitate and expedite the employee’s move from the old official station to the new official station and to lower the Government’s overall cost for the employee’s relocation by reducing the amount of time an employee must occupy temporary quarters. The allowance for househunting trip expenses provides the employee and/or spouse a period of time to concentrate on finding a suitable permanent residence at the new official station and thereby expedites the employee’s relocation.
§ 302–4.7 Who may travel on a househunting trip at Government expense?

Only you and/or your spouse may travel on a househunting trip at Government expense.

§ 302–4.8 How many househunting trips may my agency authorize in connection with a particular transfer?

Your agency may authorize only one round trip for you and/or your spouse in connection with a particular transfer.

§ 302–4.9 May my spouse and I perform separate househunting trips at Government expense?

Yes. However, your reimbursement will be limited to the cost that would have been incurred if you and your spouse had traveled together on one round trip.

§ 302–4.10 How soon may I and/or my spouse begin a househunting trip?

You may begin your househunting trip as soon as your agency has notified you of your transfer and issued a travel authorization for a househunting trip. To take maximum advantage of your trip, however, it is very important that you become familiar as quickly as you can with your new official station area (e.g., housing market conditions, school locations, etc.). If you are selling your residence at your old official station, you should not begin your househunting trip until you have a current appraisal of the value of the residence so that you can more accurately determine the appropriate price range of residences to consider during your househunting trip.

§ 302–4.11 Is there a time limit on the duration of a househunting trip?

A househunting trip should be for a reasonable period, not to exceed 10 calendar days, as authorized by your agency under §302–4.101(d).

§ 302–4.12 When must my househunting trip be completed?

You and/or your spouse must complete your househunting trip as indicated in the following table:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>For</th>
<th>Your househunting trip must be completed by</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>You</td>

</tbody>

§ 302–4.13 What methods may my agency use to reimburse me for househunting trip expenses?

§ 302–4.14 What transportation expenses will my agency pay?
Your agency will authorize you to travel by the transportation mode(s) (e.g., airline, train, or privately owned automobile) it determines to be advantageous to the Government. Your agency will pay for your transportation expenses by the authorized mode(s). If you travel by any other mode(s), your agency will pay your transportation expenses not to exceed the cost of transportation by the authorized mode(s).

§ 302–4.15 Must I document my househunting trip expenses to receive reimbursement?
To receive reimbursement for househunting trip transportation expenses you must itemize your transportation expenses and provide receipts as required by §301–11.3(c) of this subtitle. For fixed amount househunting trip subsistence reimbursement, you do not document your subsistence expenses. For per diem househunting trip subsistence expense reimbursement, you must itemize your lodging expenses and you must provide receipts as required by §301–7.9(b) and §301–11.3(c) of this subtitle.

§ 302–4.16 May I receive an advance of funds for househunting trip expenses?
Your agency may authorize an advance of funds, in accordance with §302–1.14(a) of this chapter, for your househunting trip expenses. Your agency may not advance you funds in excess of the sum of your anticipated transportation costs and either the maximum per diem allowable under part 302–2 of this chapter for the location and duration of your househunting trip or your fixed amount househunting trip subsistence expenses payment, whichever applies.

§ 302–4.17 Am I in a duty status when I perform a househunting trip?
Yes.

§ 302-4.103 What factors must we consider in determining whether to offer an employee the fixed amount househunting trip subsistence expenses reimbursement option?

You must consider the following factors:

(a) Ease of administration. Payment of a per diem allowance under part 302-2 of this chapter requires you to review claims for the validity, accuracy, and reasonableness of each expense amount, except for meals and incidental expenses. Fixed amount househunting trip subsistence expenses reimbursement when you offer the fixed amount reimbursement method. You therefore should weigh employee morale and productivity considerations against actual cost considerations in determining which method to offer.

(b) Cost considerations. You must weigh the cost of each reimbursement option on a case-by-case basis.

(c) Treatment of employees. The employee is allowed to choose between a per diem allowance under part 302-2 of this chapter and fixed amount househunting trip subsistence expenses reimbursement when you offer the fixed amount reimbursement method. You therefore should weigh employee morale and productivity considerations against actual cost considerations in determining which method to offer.

Subpart A—General Rules

NOTE TO SUBPART A: Use of the pronouns “I” and “you” throughout this subpart refers to the employee.

§ 302–5.1 What are “temporary quarters”?

The term “temporary quarters” refers to lodging obtained for the purpose of temporary occupancy from a private or commercial source.

§ 302–5.2 What are “temporary quarters subsistence expenses (TQSE)”?

“Temporary quarters subsistence expenses” or “TQSE” are subsistence expenses incurred by an employee and/or his/her immediate family while occupying temporary quarters. TQSE does not include local transportation expenses incurred during occupancy of temporary quarters (see § 302–5.18 for details).

§ 302–5.3 What is the purpose of the TQSE allowance?

The TQSE allowance is intended to reimburse an employee reasonably and equitably for subsistence expenses incurred when it is necessary to occupy temporary quarters.

§ 302–5.4 Am I eligible for a TQSE allowance?

You are eligible for a TQSE allowance if you are an employee who is authorized to transfer; and

(a) Your new official station is located within the United States; and

(b) Your old and new official stations are 40 miles or more apart (as measured by map distance) via a usually traveled surface route.

[PTA Amdt. 59, 62 FR 13756, Mar. 21, 1997, as amended by PTA Amdt. 84, 64 FR 29163, May 28, 1999]

§ 302–5.5 Who is not eligible for a TQSE allowance?

New appointees, employees assigned under the Government Employees Training Act (5 U.S.C. 4109), and employees returning from an overseas assignment for the purpose of separation are not eligible for a TQSE allowance.

§ 302–5.6 Must my agency authorize payment of a TQSE allowance?

No, your agency determines whether it is in the Government’s interest to pay TQSE.

§ 302–5.7 Under what circumstances will I receive a TQSE allowance?

You will receive a TQSE allowance if:

(a) Your agency authorizes it before you occupy the temporary quarters (the agency authorization must specify the period of time allowed for you to occupy temporary quarters); and

(b) You have signed a service agreement; and

(c) You meet any additional conditions your agency has established.

§ 302–5.8 Who may occupy temporary quarters at Government expense?

Only you and/or your immediate family may occupy temporary quarters at Government expense.

§ 302–5.9 Where may I/we occupy temporary quarters at Government expense?

You and/or your immediate family may occupy temporary quarters at Government expense within reasonable proximity of your old and/or new official stations. Neither you nor your immediate family may be reimbursed for occupying temporary quarters at any...

§ 302–5.10 May my immediate family and I occupy temporary quarters at different locations?

Yes. For example, if you must vacate your home at the old official station and report to the new official station and your family remains behind until the end of the school year, you may need to occupy temporary quarters at the new official station while your family occupies temporary quarters at the old official station.

§ 302–5.11 What methods may my agency use to reimburse me for TQSE?

Your agency will reimburse you for TQSE under the actual expense method unless it permits the "fixed amount" reimbursement method as an alternative. If your agency makes both methods available to you, you may select the one you prefer.

§ 302–5.12 Must I document my TQSE to receive reimbursement?

For fixed amount TQSE reimbursement, you do not document your TQSE. For actual TQSE reimbursement, you must document your TQSE by itemizing each expense and providing receipts as required by FTR § 301–11.3(c) of this subtitle.

§ 302–5.13 How soon may I/we begin occupying temporary quarters at Government expense?

As soon as your agency has authorized you to receive a TQSE allowance and you have signed a service agreement.

§ 302–5.14 How is my TQSE allowance affected if my temporary quarters become my permanent residence quarters?

If your temporary quarters become your permanent residence quarters, you may receive a TQSE allowance only if you show in a manner satisfactory to your agency that you initially intended to occupy the quarters temporarily.

§ 302–5.15 May I receive an advance of funds for TQSE?

Yes. If authorized in accordance with §302–1.14(a) of this chapter, your agency may advance the amount of funds necessary to cover your estimated TQSE expenses for up to 30 days. Your agency subsequently may advance additional funds for periods up to 30 days.

§ 302–5.16 May I receive a TQSE allowance if I am receiving another subsistence expenses allowance?

No, with one exception. You may receive a cost-of-living allowance payable under 5 U.S.C. 5941 in addition to a TQSE allowance.

§ 302–5.17 Am I eligible for a TQSE allowance if I transfer to a foreign area?

No. You may not receive a TQSE allowance under this part when you transfer to an area outside the United States. However, you may qualify for a comparable allowance under the Standardized Regulations (Government Civilians, Foreign Areas) prescribed by the State Department.

§ 302–5.18 May I be reimbursed for local transportation expenses incurred while I am occupying temporary quarters?

Generally not. Local transportation expenses are not TQSE, and there is no authority to pay them as such. You may, however, be reimbursed under part 301–2 of this subtitle for necessary transportation expenses if you perform local official business travel while you are occupying temporary quarters.

Subpart B—Actual TQSE Method of Reimbursement

NOTE TO SUBPART B: Use of the pronouns "I" and "you" throughout this subpart refers to the employee.

§ 302–5.100 What am I paid under the actual TQSE reimbursement method?

Your agency will pay your actual TQSE incurred, provided the expenses are reasonable and do not exceed the
Relocation Allowances

§ 302–5.101 May my agency reduce my TQSE allowance below the “maximum allowable amount”? Yes. If the estimated daily amount of your TQSE is determined in advance to be lower than the maximum daily amount, your agency may reduce the maximum allowable amount to your expected expenses.

§ 302–5.102 What is the “applicable per diem rate” under the actual TQSE reimbursement method? The “applicable per diem rate” under the actual TQSE reimbursement method is as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>For temporary quarters located in</th>
<th>The applicable per diem rate</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The continental United States (CONUS)</td>
<td>The standard CONUS rate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alaska, Hawaii, the United States territories or possessions, the Commonwealths of Puerto Rico or the Northern Mariana Islands, or the former Canal Zone area (i.e., areas and installations in the Republic of Panama made available to the United States pursuant to the Panama Canal Treaty of 1977 and related agreements (as described in section 3(a) of the Panama Canal Act of 1979)).</td>
<td>The locality rate established by the Secretary of Defense or the Secretary of State under §301–7.3 of this subtitle.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

§ 302–5.103 What is the latest period for which I claim actual TQSE reimbursement may begin? The period must begin before the maximum time for beginning allowable travel and transportation under §302–1.6 of this chapter expires.

§ 302–5.104 How long may I be authorized to claim actual TQSE reimbursement? Your agency may authorize you to claim actual TQSE in 30-day increments, not to exceed 60 consecutive days. However, if your agency determines that there is a compelling reason for you to continue occupying temporary quarters after 60 consecutive days, it may authorize an extension of up to 60 additional consecutive days. Under no circumstances may you be authorized to claim actual TQSE reimbursement for more than a total of 120 consecutive days.

§ 302–5.105 What is a “compelling reason” warranting extension of my authorized period for claiming actual TQSE reimbursement? A “compelling reason” is an event that is beyond your control and is acceptable to your agency. Examples include, but are not limited to:

(a) Delivery of your household goods to your new residence is delayed due to strikes, customs clearance, hazardous § 302–5.106 May I interrupt occupancy of temporary quarters?

Yes. Your authorized period for claiming actual TQSE reimbursement is measured in consecutive days, and once begun, normally continues to run whether or not you occupy temporary quarters. You may, however, interrupt your authorized period for claiming actual TQSE reimbursement in the following instances:

(a) For the time allowed for en route travel between the old and new official stations;

(b) For circumstances attributable to official necessity such as an intervening temporary duty assignment or military duty; or

(c) For a non-official necessary interruption such as hospitalization, approved sick leave, or other reason beyond your control and acceptable to your agency.

§ 302–5.107 What effect do partial days of temporary quarters occupancy have on my authorized period for claiming actual TQSE reimbursement?

Occupancy of temporary quarters for less than a whole day constitutes one full day of your authorized period. (However, see § 302–5.110 regarding en route travel.)

§ 302–5.108 When does my authorized period for claiming actual TQSE reimbursement end?

The period ends at midnight on the earlier of:

(a) The day preceding the day you and/or any member of your immediate family occupies permanent residence quarters.

(b) The day your authorized period for claiming actual TQSE reimbursement expires.

§ 302–5.109 May the period for which I am authorized to claim actual TQSE reimbursement for myself be different from that of my immediate family?

No, the eligibility period for which you are authorized to claim actual TQSE reimbursement for yourself and for each member of your immediate family must run concurrently.

§ 302–5.110 What effect do partial days have on my actual TQSE reimbursement?

You may not receive reimbursement under both the actual TQSE allowance and another subsistence expenses allowance within the same calendar day, with one exception: if you claim TQSE reimbursement on the same day that en route travel per diem ends, your en route travel per diem will be computed under applicable partial day rules and you also may be reimbursed for actual TQSE you incur after 6:00 p.m. of that day.

§ 302–5.111 May I and/or my immediate family occupy temporary quarters longer than the period for which I am authorized to claim actual TQSE reimbursement?

Yes, but you will not be reimbursed for any of the expenses you incur during the unauthorized period.

Subpart C—Fixed Amount Reimbursement

Note to Subpart C: Use of the pronouns “I” and “you” throughout this subpart refers to the employee.

§ 302–5.200 What am I paid under the fixed amount reimbursement method?

If your agency offers and you select the fixed amount TQSE reimbursement method, you are paid a fixed amount for up to 30 days. No extensions are allowed under the fixed amount method.
Relocation Allowances

§ 302–5.301 How do I determine the amount of my payment under the fixed amount reimbursement method?

Multiply the number of days your agency authorizes TQSE by .75 times the maximum per diem rate (i.e., lodging plus meals and incidental expenses) prescribed in chapter 301 of this subtitle for the locality of the new official duty station. Then, for each member of your immediate family, multiply the same number of days by .25 times the same per diem rate. Your payment will be the sum of these calculations.

§ 302–5.302 Will I receive additional TQSE reimbursement if my fixed amount is not adequate to cover my TQSE?

No.

Subpart D—Agency Responsibilities

Note to Subpart D: Use of the pronouns “we” and “you” throughout this subpart refers to the agency.

§ 302–5.300 How should we administer the TQSE allowance?

Temporary quarters should be used only if, and only for as long as, necessary until the employee and/or his/her immediate family can move into permanent residence quarters. You must administer the TQSE allowance to minimize or avoid other relocation expenses.

§ 302–5.301 What governing policies must we establish for the TQSE allowance?

You must establish policies and procedures governing:

(a) When you will authorize temporary quarters for employees;

(b) Who will determine if temporary quarters is appropriate in each situation;

(c) If and when you will authorize the fixed amount option for TQSE reimbursement;

(d) Who will determine the appropriate period of time for which TQSE reimbursement will be authorized, including approval of extensions and interruptions of temporary quarters occupancy;

(e) Who will determine whether quarters were indeed temporary, if there is any doubt.

§ 302–5.302 Under what circumstances may we authorize the TQSE allowance?

You may authorize a TQSE allowance on an individual-case basis when use of temporary quarters is justified in connection with an employee’s transfer to a new official station. You may not authorize a TQSE allowance for vacation purposes or other reasons unrelated to the transfer.

§ 302–5.303 What factors should we consider in determining whether the TQSE allowance actually is necessary?

The factors you should consider include:

(a) The length of time the employee should reasonably be expected to occupy his/her residence at the old official station prior to reporting for duty at the new official station. An employee and his/her immediate family should continue to occupy the residence at the old official station for as long as practicable to avoid the necessity for temporary quarters.

(b) The existence of less expensive alternatives. If a less expensive alternative to the TQSE allowance exists that will enable the employee to find permanent quarters at the new official station, you should consider such an alternative. For example, authorize a househunting trip instead of temporary quarters if it would cost less overall.

(c) The existence of other opportunities to arrange for permanent quarters. Consider whether the employee had other adequate opportunity to arrange for permanent quarters. For example, you should not authorize temporary quarters if the employee had adequate opportunity during an extended temporary duty assignment to arrange for permanent quarters.

§ 302–5.304 What factors should we consider in determining whether to offer an employee the fixed amount TQSE reimbursement option?

The factors you should consider include:
§ 302–5.305

(a) Ease of administration. Actual TQSE reimbursement requires an agency to review claims for the validity, accuracy, and reasonableness of each expense amount. Fixed amount TQSE reimbursement does not require review of expense amounts and is therefore easier to administer.

(b) Cost considerations. You must weigh the cost of each alternative. Actual TQSE reimbursement may extend up to 120 consecutive days, while fixed amount TQSE reimbursement is limited to 30 days. Actual TQSE reimbursement may be less expensive, since its ceiling is based on the standard CONUS rate, while fixed amount TQSE reimbursement is based on the locality per diem rate. However, fixed amount TQSE reimbursement may be less expensive because the maximum daily rate under actual TQSE reimbursement is a higher percentage of the applicable per diem rate than fixed amount TQSE reimbursement.

(c) Treatment of employee. The employee is allowed to choose between actual TQSE reimbursement and fixed amount TQSE reimbursement when you offer the fixed amount TQSE reimbursement method. You therefore should weigh employee morale and productivity considerations against actual cost considerations in determining which method to offer.

§ 302–5.305 What factors should we consider in determining whether quarters are temporary?

In determining whether quarters are “temporary”, you should consider factors such as the duration of the lease, movement of household effects into the quarters, the type of quarters, the employee’s expressions of intent, attempts to secure a permanent dwelling, and the length of time the employee occupies the quarters.

PART 302–6—ALLOWANCE FOR EXPENSES INCURRED IN CONNECTION WITH RESIDENCE TRANSACTIONS

Sec. 302–6.1 Conditions and requirements under which allowances are payable.

302–6.2 Reimbursable and nonreimbursable expenses.
§ 302–6.1

Relocation Allowances

(3) of this section apply in determining title to the residence.

(1) Title interest must have been acquired prior to notification of transfer. For an employee to be eligible for reimbursement of the costs of selling a dwelling or terminating a lease at the old official station, the employee’s property interest must have been acquired prior to the date the employee was first officially notified of his/her transfer to the new official station. In the case of an employee covered by paragraph (g) of this section, the employee’s interest must have been acquired prior to the date the employee was first officially notified of his/her transfer to the foreign area.

(2) Legal title interest. Except as provided in paragraph (c)(3) of this section, title to the residence is determined by the name of the party (or parties) on the title document (e.g., the deed).

(3) Equitable title interest. The employee, and/or a member(s) of his/her immediate family, in a situation listed in paragraphs (c)(3) (i) through (v) of this section is deemed to have title to the residence without regard to whether his/her name appears on the title document.

(i) Title held in trust. The property is held in trust and the conditions in paragraphs (c)(3)(i) (A) through (F) of this section apply.

(A) The property must be the employee’s residence as described in paragraph (b) of this section.

(B) The employee and/or a member(s) of the immediate family must be the only beneficiary(ies) of the trust during his/her lifetime.

(C) The employee and/or a member(s) of the immediate family must retain the right to distribute the property during his/her lifetime.

(D) The employee and/or a member(s) of the immediate family must retain the right to manage the property.

(E) The employee and/or a member(s) of the immediate family must be the only grantor/settlor of the trust, or must retain the right to direct distribution of the property upon dissolution of the trust or death.

(F) The employee provides the agency with a copy of the trust document.

(ii) Title held by financial institution. The title is held in the name of a financial institution and the conditions in paragraphs (c)(3)(ii) (A) through (D) of this section apply.

(A) The property is the employee’s residence as described in paragraph (b) of this section.

(B) The employee and/or a member(s) of the immediate family executed a financing agreement (e.g., mortgage) with the financial institution.

(C) State or local law requires that lending parties take title to perfect (i.e., protect) a security interest in the property, or the financial institution requires that it take possession of title as a condition of the financing agreement.

(D) The employee must provide the agency with a copy of the financing document. The agency may require that the employee also provide proof of state or local laws governing secured credit.

(iii) Title includes an accommodation party or parties. The title is held both in the names of: the employee singularly, or the employee and one or more members of his/her immediate family jointly, or one or more members of his/her immediate family; and an individual (accommodation party) who is not an immediate family member. In addition, the conditions in paragraphs (c)(3)(iii) (A) through (G) of this section apply.

(An accommodation party is an individual who signs an employee’s financing agreement (e.g., a mortgage) to lend his/her name (i.e., credit) to the arrangement.)

(A) The property is the employee’s residence as described in paragraph (b) of this section.

(B) The employee and/or a member(s) of the immediate family has right to use the property and to direct conveyance of the property.

(C) The lender requires signature of the accommodation party on the financing document.

(D) The employee and/or a member of the immediate family, is liable for payments under the financing arrangement (e.g., mortgage).

(E) The accommodation party’s name is on the title.

(F) The accommodation party does not have a financial interest in the property unless the employee and/or a member(s) of the immediate family defaults on the financing arrangement.

(G) The employee provides the agency with acceptable documentation of the accommodation. Agencies shall issue policy defining acceptable documentation of the accommodation. Such documentation may include a copy of the financing document and/or a written statement from the employee certifying that the conditions in paragraphs (c)(3)(iii) (A) through (G) of this section apply. Such documentation also may include a written statement from the accommodation party certifying that he/she does not have a financial interest in the property.

(iv) Title held by seller of the property. The title is held in the name of the seller of the property and the conditions in paragraphs (c)(3)(iv) (A) through (D) of this section apply.

(A) The property is the employee’s residence as described in paragraph (b) of this section.

(B) The employee and/or a member(s) of the immediate family has the right to use the property and to direct conveyance of the property.

(C) The employee and/or a member(s) of the immediate family must have signed a financing agreement with the seller of the property (e.g., a land contract) providing for fixed periodic payments and transfer of title to the employee and/or a member(s) of the immediate family upon completion of the payment schedule.

(D) The employee must provide the agency with a copy of the financing agreement.

(v) Other equitable title situations. The title is held both in the names of: the employee singularly, or the employee and one or more members of his/her immediate family jointly, or one or more members of his/her immediate family; and an individual who is not an immediate family member. In addition, the conditions in paragraphs (c)(3)(v) (A) through (E) of this section apply.

(A) The property is the employee’s residence as described in paragraph (b) of this section.

(B) The employee and/or a member(s) of the immediate family has the right to use the property and to direct conveyance of the property.

(C) Only the employee and/or a member(s) of the immediate family has made payments on the property.

(D) The employee and/or a member(s) of the immediate family received all proceeds from the sale of the property.

(E) The employee must provide suitable documentation to the agency that the conditions listed in paragraphs (c)(3)(v) (A) through (D) of this section have been met. Agencies shall issue policy defining acceptable documentation. Such documentation must include financial documents proving that only the employee and/or a member(s) of the immediate family made payments on the property, and financial documents proving that the employee and/or a member(s) of the immediate family received all proceeds from the sale of the property.

(d) Occupancy requirements. The dwelling for which reimbursement of selling expenses is claimed was, except as provided in paragraph (g) of this section, the employee’s residence at the time he/she was first officially notified by competent authority of his/her transfer to the new official station.

(e) Time limitation—(1) Initial period. The settlement dates for the sale and purchase or lease termination transactions for which reimbursement is requested are not later than 2 years after the date that the employee reported for duty at the new official station. For employees eligible under paragraph (g) of this section, new official station means the official station to which the employee reports for duty when reassigned or transferred from a foreign area.

(2) Extension of time limitation. (i) Upon an employee’s written request, the 2-year time limitation for completion of the sale and purchase or lease termination transactions may be extended by the head of the agency or his/her designee for an additional period of time not to exceed 1 year.

(ii) The employee’s written request should be submitted to the appropriate agency official(s) as soon as the employee becomes aware of the need for an extension but before expiration of the 2-year limitation; however, in no case shall the request be submitted later than 30 calendar days after the expiration date unless this 30-day period is specifically extended by the agency.

(iii) Approval of this additional period of time shall be based on a determination that extenuating circumstances, acceptable to the agency concerned, have prevented the employee from completing the sale and purchase or lease termination transactions in the initial timeframe and that the residence transactions are reasonably related to the transfer of official station.

(iv) When an employee is eligible for an extension of the time limitations for completion of a residence transaction and such an extension is approved by an agency, relocation entitlements and allowances shall be determined by using the entitlements and allowances prescribed by regulations in effect on the employee’s effective date of transfer and not the entitlements and allowances in effect at the time the extension of the time limitation is approved. (See §302–1.3(d).)

(f) Reimbursement of expenses. The rules in paragraphs (f)(1) and (2) of this section govern the reimbursement of employee residence transaction expenses.

(1) Employee must actually incur the expenses. An employee shall be reimbursed only for expenses actually incurred and paid by the employee or a member of the employee’s immediate family. If any expenses were shared by persons other than the employee or a member of his/her immediate family, reimbursement is limited to the portion actually paid by the employee and/or a member of his/her immediate family.

(2) Pro rata reimbursement. When the title possessed by an employee and/or a member(s) of his/her immediate family is not full title to the residence, or when an employee is deemed to have a title interest under paragraph (c)(3) of this section, the employee shall be reimbursed on a pro rata basis to the extent of his/her actual title interest plus his/her deemed title interest in the residence. Additionally, an employee shall be reimbursed on a pro rata basis in the situations listed in paragraphs (f)(2)(i) and (ii) of this section.

(i) Multiple occupancy dwelling. If the residence is a duplex or another type of multiple occupancy dwelling which is occupied only partially by the employee, or whenever the employee shares responsibility for a leased property (e.g., a shared apartment arrangement), expenses shall be reimbursed on a pro rata basis.

(ii) Excess land. The employee shall be limited to pro rata reimbursement when he/she sells or purchases land in excess of that which reasonably relates to the residence site.

(g) Transfer from a foreign area to a nonforeign area—(1) Definitions. For purposes of this paragraph, the following definitions apply:

(i) Former nonforeign area official station. This term means the official station from which the employee was transferred when assigned to the post of duty in the foreign area.

(ii) Nonforeign area. Nonforeign area includes the United States.

(iii) Foreign area. Foreign area refers to any area not defined as a nonforeign area.

(2) Applicability. The provisions of this part are applicable, as specified in this paragraph, to employees who have completed an agreed upon tour of duty in a foreign area and instead of being returned to the former nonforeign area official station, are reassigned or transferred in the interest of the Government to a different nonforeign area official station than the official station from which the employee was transferred when assigned to the foreign post of duty. The distance between the former and new official stations must meet the mileage criteria specified in §302–1.7 for short distance transfers.

(3) Authorized reimbursement. Generally, an employee is required to serve at least one tour of duty in a foreign area and retain a residence in a nonforeign area with the expectation of returning to the former official station in the nonforeign area. However, there are instances when an employee completes a tour of duty in a foreign area and is subsequently transferred to a different official station or post of duty in a nonforeign area than the one from which he/she transferred when assigned to the foreign post of duty. When this

Reimbursable and non-reimbursable expenses.

(a) Brokers’ fees and real estate commissions. A broker’s fee or real estate commission paid by the employee for services in selling his/her residence is reimbursable but not in excess of rates generally charged for such services by the broker or by brokers in the locality of the old official station. No such fee or commission is reimbursable in connection with the purchase of a home at the new official station.

(b) Other advertising, selling, and appraisal expenses. Costs of newspaper, bulletin board, multiple-listing services, and other advertising for sale of the residence at the old official station are reimbursable if the employee has not paid for such services in the form of a broker’s fee or real estate agent’s commission. The customary cost of an appraisal also may be reimbursable.

(c) Legal and related expenses. To the extent such costs have not been included in brokers’ or similar services for which reimbursement is claimed under other categories, the following expenses are reimbursable with respect to the sale and purchase of residences if they are customarily paid by the seller of a residence at the old official station or if customarily paid by the purchaser of a residence at the new official station, to the extent they do not exceed amounts customarily charged in the locality of the residence: costs of searching title, preparing abstract, related notary fees and recording fees; costs of preparing conveyances, other instruments, and contracts for legal or financing purposes; and similar expenses. Costs of litigation are not reimbursable.

(d) Miscellaneous expenses—(1) Reimbursable items. The following expenses are reimbursable in connection with the sale and/or purchase of a residence, provided they are customarily paid by the seller of a residence in the locality of the old official station or by the purchaser of a residence at the new official station, to the extent they do not exceed specifically stated limitations, or in the absence thereof, amounts customarily paid in the locality of the residence:

(i) FHA or VA fee for the loan application.

(ii) Loan origination fees and similar charges such as loan assumption fees and loan transfer fees. A loan origination fee is a fee paid by the borrower.

compensate the lender for administrative type expenses incurred in originating and processing a loan. Reimbursement for a loan assumption fee or a loan transfer fee or a similar charge also may be allowed, if it is assessed in lieu of a loan origination fee and reflects charges for services similar to those covered by a loan origination fee. An employee may be reimbursed for these fees in an amount not in excess of 1 percent of the loan amount without itemization of the lender’s administrative charges. Reimbursement may exceed 1 percent only if the employee shows by clear and convincing evidence that:

(A) The higher rate does not include prepaid interest, points, or a mortgage discount; and

(B) The higher rate is customarily charged in the locality where the residence is located.

(iii) Cost of preparing credit reports.

(iv) Mortgage and transfer taxes.

(v) State revenue stamps.

(vi) Other fees and charges similar in nature to those listed in paragraphs (d)(1)(i) through (v) of this section, unless specifically prohibited in paragraph (d)(2) of this section.

(vii) Charge for prepayment of a mortgage or other security instrument in connection with the sale of a residence at the old official station to the extent the terms in the mortgage or other security instrument provide for this charge. This prepayment penalty is also reimbursable when the mortgage or other security instrument does not specifically provide for prepayment, provided this penalty is customarily charged by the lender, but in that case the reimbursement may not exceed 3 months’ interest on the loan balance.

(viii) Mortgage title insurance policy, paid for by the employee, on a residence purchased by the employee for the protection of, and required by, the lender.

(ix) Owner’s title insurance policy, provided it is a prerequisite to financing or the transfer of the property; or if the cost of the owner’s title insurance policy is inseparable from the cost of other insurance which is a prerequisite to financing or the transfer of the property.

(x) Expenses in connection with construction of a residence, which are comparable to expenses that are reimbursable in connection with the purchase of an existing residence.

(xi) Expenses in connection with environmental testing and property inspection fees when required by Federal, State, or local law; or by the lender as a precondition to sale or purchase.

(2) Nonreimbursable items. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (d)(1) of this section, the following items of expense are not reimbursable:

(i) Owner’s title insurance policy, ‘record title’ insurance policy, mortgage insurance or insurance against loss or damage of property, and optional insurance paid for by the employee in connection with the purchase of a residence for the protection of the employee;

(ii) Interest on loans, points, and mortgage discounts;

(iii) Property taxes;

(iv) Operating or maintenance costs;

(v) No fee, cost, charge, or expense determined to be part of the finance charge under the Truth in Lending Act, title I, Pub. L. 90–321, as amended, and Regulation Z issued by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (12 CFR part 226), unless specifically authorized in paragraph (d)(1) of this section; and

(vi) Expenses that result from construction of a residence.

(e) Losses due to prices or market conditions at the old and new posts of duty. Losses are not reimbursable when they are incurred by an employee:

(1) Due to failure to sell a residence at the old official station at the price asked, or at its current appraised value, or at its original cost;

(2) Due to failure to buy a dwelling at the new official station at a price comparable to the selling price of the residence at the old official station; or

(3) Any similar losses.

(f) Other expenses of sale and purchase of residences. Incidental charges made for required services in selling and purchasing residences may be reimbursable if they are customarily paid by the seller of a residence at the old official station or if customarily paid by the purchaser of a residence at the new official station, to the extent they do § 302–6.3 Procedural and control requirements.

(a) Application for reimbursement and documentation of expenses. Employees shall be furnished appropriate forms for claiming reimbursement for expenses of real estate transactions. Agencies shall prescribe a claim application form which meets internal administrative requirements. The form should include the most commonly incurred items of expense for which reimbursement may be claimed and any necessary administrative approval blocks. Amounts claimed must be supported by documentation showing that the expense was in fact incurred and paid by the employee. Included in the required supporting documents (as appropriate) are copies of (1) the sales agreement, (2) the purchase agreement, (3) property settlement documents, (4) loan closing statements, and (5) invoices or receipts for other bills paid. An appropriate voucher shall be prepared by the employee and used in transmitting the claim application with supporting attachments. Reimbursement may be in two parts; i.e., a payment for expenses incurred in the sale of the former residence and a payment for expenses incurred in the purchase of a new dwelling.

(b) Review and administrative approval of sale and purchase expenses. Applications shall be reviewed by a responsible official of the agency. The application for reimbursement of expenses for the sale of a residence shall be sent to the claimant’s old official station for review and approval of the claim unless agency review and approval functions are performed elsewhere. In case of transfer between agencies, review and approval of the application shall be made, if appropriate, at an installation of the hiring agency in the locality of the employee’s old official station, but if the hiring agency has no appropriate installation, it shall be sent to the losing agency at the old official station for review and approval. This review and approval are intended to be limited to determining whether the expenses claimed are reasonable in amount and customarily paid by the seller in the locality where the property is located.

Relocation Allowances

§ 302–7.1 Eligibility and limitations.

If items of cost appear to have been inflated or are higher than normally imposed for similar services in the locality, any portion of such costs determined to be excessive shall be disallowed. When approved, the application shall be returned with such memorandum of explanation as may be appropriate. A similar review and approval are required in connection with an application for reimbursement of the expenses of the purchase of a new dwelling. Final administrative approval of payment of the claim must be executed by an appropriate approving official. Such official may accept as conclusive the required prior approvals covering reasonableness and custom; he/she shall, however, in accordance with the provisions of this part, independently determine whether (1) the aggregate amount of expenses claimed in connection with a sale or purchase of a residence is within the prescribed limitation for either, (2) all conditions and requirements under which allowances may be paid have been met, and (3) the expenses themselves are those which are reimbursable. The employee’s claim accompanied by the application and supporting documents shall be completed and submitted in accordance with the usual procedures of the agency concerned.

(c) Assistance provided by local offices of the Department of Housing and Urban Development. Technical assistance in determining the reasonableness of an expense may be obtained from the local or area office of the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) serving the area in which the expense occurred. The local office maintains and can furnish upon request a current Schedule of Closing Costs, applicable to the area. This is a schedule of closing costs typically encountered in connection with the purchase and sale of single family properties in the locality. For the purpose of determining whether the expenses claimed are reasonable and may be approved for reimbursement, these closing costs should be used as guidelines and not as rigid limitations. The local office will also furnish upon request information concerning local custom and practices with respect to charging of closing costs related to either a sale or purchase, including information as to whether such costs are customarily paid by the seller or purchaser and the local terminology used to describe them. Area or insuring offices of HUD are located in all major cities. The mailing addresses for these offices are included in the U.S. Government Manual, published annually by the Office of the Federal Register, National Archives and Records Administration. A directory containing the addresses of all such offices (HUD Form 788) is available at any HUD office.

(d) Violation of employment agreement. In the event the employee violates the terms of the agreement required under § 302–1.5, no expenses will be paid, and any amounts paid prior to such violation shall be a debt due the United States until they are paid by the employee.

§ 302–6.4 Exclusions.

The provisions of this part do not apply to new appointees, or employees assigned under the Government Employees Training Act (5 U.S.C. 4109).

§ 302–6.5 Advance of funds.

No advance of funds is authorized in connection with the allowances provided in this part.

§ 302–7.2 Computation of distances.

(a) Standard highway mileage. Where points of origin and destination are within the continental United States and Alaska, the allowable distance between these points shall be that shown in the standard highway mileage guides or actual miles driven as determined from odometer readings. (Actual odometer readings need not be shown on the travel voucher.) Any substantial deviation from distances shown in the standard highway mileage guides shall be explained.

(b) Islands involved. In addition to mileage, if the point of origin or destination is an island within the boundaries of one of the continental United States or Alaska and a ferry is used in transportation of a mobile home, the statute mileage between the island and the usual place of arrival or departure on the mainland shall be allowed, except that when such mileage is included in the standard highway mileage guides the mileage shown therein shall be used.

(c) Unauthorized transportation involved. Where point of origin or destination, or both, are not in the continental United States or Alaska, the allowable distance shall be limited to the distance which the mobile home is transported within or between any of the continental United States and Alaska, and through Canada en route between Alaska and the continental United States. In such instances, the mileage shall be computed as provided in paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 302–7.3 Computation of allowances.

(a) Transportation by commercial carrier. When a mobile home is transported by commercial carrier, an allowance for transportation costs shall include the following (see paragraph (d) of this section for preparation fees also allowable as transportation costs):

1. The carrier’s charges for actual transportation of the mobile home in an amount not exceeding the applicable tariff as approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission (or appropriate State regulatory body for intrastate movements) for transportation of a mobile home of the size and type involved, provided any substantial deviation from mileage shown in the standard highway mileage guides is explained:

§ 302–7.3

(2) Ferry fares and bridge, road, and tunnel tolls;
(3) Taxes, charges or fees fixed by a State or other government authority for permits to transport mobile homes in or through its jurisdiction;
(4) Carrier’s service charges for obtaining necessary permits; and
(5) Charges for a pilot (flag) car or escort services, when such services are required by State or local law.

(b) Transportation by private means—
(1) Overland transportation. When a mobile home is transported overland by means other than a commercial carrier, such as when it is towed by a privately owned conveyance, an allowance of 11 cents per mile shall be made as reimbursement for the transportation costs listed in paragraph (a) of this section. In addition, an agency may pay the costs of preparing a mobile home for movement and resettling it at the destination as provided in paragraph (d) of this section. No other allowance shall be made for transportation of the mobile home under this part. However, in addition to the 11-cent allowance and the allowance under paragraph (d) of this section, an agency may pay the mileage allowance for use of a privately owned conveyance as provided in § 302–2.3.

(2) Transportation over-water. When a boat used as a primary residence is transported over-water, an allowance for transportation costs shall include, but not be limited to:
(i) The cost of fuel and oil used for propulsion of the boat;
(ii) The cost of pilots or navigators in the open water;
(iii) The cost of a crew;
(iv) Charges for harbor pilots;
(v) The cost of docking fees incurred in transit;
(vi) Harbor or port fees and similar charges relating to entry in and navigation through ports; and
(vii) The cost of towing, whether in tow or towing by pushing from behind.

(c) Mixed method of transportation. When a mobile home is transported partly by commercial carrier and partly by private means, the allowances described in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section apply to the respective portions of the transportation.

(d) Other allowable transportation costs. In addition to the allowances provided for in paragraphs (a) through (c) of this section, an allowance for transportation shall include costs generally associated with preparing a mobile home at a point of origin inside Alaska or CONUS for movement and resettling the mobile home at the destination inside Alaska or CONUS. Any costs for preparing a mobile home located outside Alaska or CONUS for movement, and any costs for resettling a mobile home outside Alaska or CONUS shall not be reimbursed. Preparation costs include but are not limited to:
(1) The costs of blocking and unblocking (including anchoring and unanchoring);
(2) The labor costs of removing and installing skirting;
(3) The cost of separating, preparing, and sealing each section for movement;
(4) The cost of reassembling the two halves of a double-wide mobile home; and
(5) Travel lift fees.

(e) Unallowable costs. An individual’s transportation allowance shall not include the following costs (see part 302–3 which relates to the miscellaneous expenses allowance):
(1) All costs for replacement parts, tire purchases, structural repairs, brake repairs, or any other repairs or maintenance performed;
(2) Costs of insurance for valuation of mobile homes above carriers’ maximum liabilities, or charges designated in the tariffs as “Special Service;”
(3) Costs of storage; and
(4) Costs of connecting and disconnecting appliances, equipment, and utilities involved in relocation and costs of converting appliances for operation on available utilities.

(f) Optional use of Government bill of lading. Instead of the allowances to the employee provided in paragraphs (a) through (e) of this section, the agency may, when it determines such action to be in the Government’s interest, assume direct responsibility for transportation of an employee’s mobile home, issuing necessary bills of lading, and paying the costs involved. In such instances, the employee shall not receive any other allowance for the transportation involved and shall be charged any cost the Government must pay under the bill of lading which would not be allowed under this section or which is in excess of that allowable under §302–7.4.

[FTR Amdt. 20, 56 FR 46990, Sept. 17, 1991]

§ 302–7.4 Limitation on allowances.

The total amount allowable in §302–7.3 shall not exceed the maximum amount which would be allowable for transportation and 90 days’ temporary storage of the employee’s household goods if, instead of moving a mobile home, the maximum quantity of household goods allowable under §302–8.2 had been moved.

§ 302–7.5 Advance of funds.

An advance of funds may be allowed an employee for the transportation of a mobile home under the requirements provided in §302–1.14(a). The amount of advance shall not exceed either the estimated amount allowable under §302–7.3(a) of the construction cost determined under §302–7.4. No advance is authorized when a Government bill of lading is used as provided in §302–7.3(f).

PART 302–8—TRANSPORTATION AND TEMPORARY STORAGE OF HOUSEHOLD GOODS AND PROFESSIONAL BOOKS, PAPERS, AND EQUIPMENT

Sec.

302–8.1 Applicability.

302–8.2 General limitations.

302–8.3 Transportation within the continental United States.

302–8.4 Transportation outside the continental United States.

302–8.5 Temporary storage.

302–8.6 Advance of funds.

SOURCE: 54 FR 20324, May 10, 1989, unless otherwise noted.

§ 302–8.1 Applicability.

Employees covered by this subtitle who have complied with the general requirements as contained in part 302–1 are eligible for transportation and temporary storage of their household goods subject to the provisions of this part when they are transferred, regardless of whether the official stations involved are within or outside the continental United States, are appointed to positions in which Government transportation to the first official station is allowable, or are separated after completion of a period of service overseas.

§ 302–8.2 General limitations.

(a) Maximum weight allowance. The maximum weight of household goods that may be transported or stored at Government expense is limited to 18,000 pounds net weight for all employees. The total weight of household goods stored under §302–9.2 plus the weight of household goods transported under this part shall not exceed the maximum weight allowance prescribed in this paragraph.

(b) Professional books, papers, and equipment. (1) For purposes of this part, the term “professional books, papers, and equipment” includes those professional or specialized items and other materials which are personally owned by the employee for use in the performance of official duties. The term does not include sports equipment or office, household, or shop fixtures and furniture; e.g., bookcases, file cabinets, desks, and racks of any kind even though used in connection with the professional books, papers, and equipment.

(2) There is no statutory authority to transport personally owned professional books, papers, and equipment in addition to the maximum weight allowance (§302–8.2(a)) established by law for transportation of an employee’s household goods and personal effects. However, there may be instances in which the weight of the professional books, papers, and equipment would cause an employee’s household goods shipment to be in excess of the maximum weight allowance. In such instances, the personally owned professional books, papers, and equipment may be transported to the new permanent duty station as an administrative expense of an agency (not chargeable to travel and transportation appropriations). Shipment of these items as an administrative expense would be instead of shipment as an allowance of the employee.

(3) Authority to transport professional books, papers, and equipment as an administrative expense shall be subject to agency policy and discretion within the following guidelines:

(i) The employee shall furnish an itemized inventory of professional books, papers, and equipment for review by an appropriate authorizing official at the new permanent duty station. In addition, the employee shall furnish appropriate evidence (as determined by the agency concerned) that transporting the itemized materials as part of the employee’s household goods would result in an excess of the employee’s maximum weight allowance.

(ii) The authorizing official at the new permanent duty station shall review and certify that the professional books, papers, and equipment as itemized are necessary in the proper performance of the employee’s duties at the new duty station and that if these items were not transported to the new duty station, the same or similar items would have to be obtained at Government expense for the employee’s use at the new duty station.

(iii) When professional books, papers, and equipment are certified as provided in paragraph (b)(3)(ii) of this section and shipped for the employee as an administrative expense of an agency, shipment shall be by the actual expense method; the commuted rate method shall not be used. When shipped in the same lot with the employee’s household goods and other personal effects under the actual expense method, the professional books, papers, and equipment shall be packed and weighed separately; the weight thereof and the administrative appropriation chargeable shall be stated as separate items on the Government bill of lading. In unusual instances in which it is impractical or impossible to obtain separate weights, a constructive weight of 7 pounds per cubic foot may be used.

(c) Determining the net weight—(1) Uncrated shipments. When household goods are shipped uncrated as in a household mover’s van or similar conveyance, the net weight shall be that shown on the bill of lading or on the weight certificate attached thereto, which, under Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) regulations, includes the weight of barrels, boxes, cartons, and similar materials used in packing, but does not include pads, chains, dollies, and other equipment needed to load and secure the shipment. When a noncommercial means of shipment is involved (see §302–8.3(a)(3)), the ICC regulations shall apply for determining the net weight. When an employee’s claim is based on constructive weight as authorized in paragraph (c)(4) of this section, the net weight shall be the weight as determined under that provision.

(2) Crated shipments. When property is transported crated, the net weight shall not include the weight of the crating material. The net weight shall be computed as being 60 percent of the gross weight. However, if the net weight computed in this manner exceeds the applicable weight limitation and if it is determined that, for reasons beyond the employee’s control, unusually heavy crating and packing materials were necessarily used, the net weight may be computed at less than 60 percent of the gross weight.

(3) Containerized shipments. When special containers designed normally for repeated use, such as lift vans, CONEX transporters, and household-goods shipping boxes are used and the known tare weight does not include the weight of interior bracing and padding materials but only the weight of the container, the net weight of the household goods shall be 85 percent of the gross weight less the weight of the container. If the known tare weight includes interior bracing and padding materials so that the net weight is the same as it would be for uncrated shipments in interstate commerce, the net weight shall not be subject to the reduction. If the gross weight of the container cannot be obtained, the net weight of the household goods shall be determined from the cubic measurement on the basis of 7 pounds per cubic foot of properly loaded container space.

(4) Constructive weight. If no adequate scale is available at point of origin, at any point en route, or at destination, a constructive weight, based on 7 pounds per cubic foot of properly loaded van space, may be used. Such constructive weight also may be used for a part-load when its weight could not be obtained at origin, en route, or at destination, without first unloading it or other part-loads being carried in the same vehicle, or when the household goods are not weighed because the carrier’s charges for a local or metropolitan area move are properly computed on a basis other than the weight or volume of the shipment (as when payment is based on an hourly rate and the distance involved). However, in such instances the employee should obtain a statement from the carrier showing the amount of properly loaded van space required for the shipment. (See also §302–8.3(a)(3) with respect to proof of entitlement to a commuted rate payment when net weight cannot be shown.)
§ 302–8.2

(d) Temporary storage time limit. The time allowable for temporary storage in connection with an authorized shipment of household goods shall not exceed a period of 90 days. This time period also applies when an employee returns to his/her place of actual residence for leave before serving a new tour of duty outside the continental United States either at a different post of duty or at the same post of duty if the storage is provided instead of furnished quarters or a quarters allowance. However, upon an employee’s written request, the initial 90-day period may be extended an additional period not to exceed 90 days under certain conditions if approved by the agency head or his/her designee. Justification for an additional storage period may include, but is not limited to, the following reasons:

(1) An intervening temporary duty or long-term training assignment;
(2) Nonavailability of suitable housing;
(3) Completion of residence under construction;
(4) Serious illness of employee or illness or death of a dependent; or
(5) Strikes, acts of God, or other circumstances beyond the control of the employee.

(e) Origin and destination. Cost of transportation of household goods may be paid by the Government whether the shipment originates at the employee’s last official station or place of residence or at some other point, or if part of the shipment originates at the last official station and the remainder at one or more other points. Similarly, these expenses are allowable whether the point of destination is the new official station or some other point selected by the employee, or if the destination for part of the property is the new official station and the remainder is shipped to one or more other points. However, the total amount which may be paid or reimbursed by the Government shall not exceed the cost of transporting the property in one lot by the most economical route from the last official station of the transferring employee (or the place of actual residence of the new appointee at time of appointment) to the new official station. In connection with return from overseas for separation, see §302–1.12(d). No property acquired by the employee en route between old and new official stations shall be eligible for transportation under this part.

(f) Loss and damage liability. Limitations on the Government’s liability for loss or damage of an employee’s household goods are contained in the Military Personnel and Civilian Employees’ Claims Act of 1964 (31 U.S.C. 3721–3723) and in agency rules and regulations issued under the authority thereof. Since agency practices and regulations under that Act differ, and in view of the different circumstances under which household goods are transported and temporarily stored under the authority of this part, each agency should advise transferred employees of the applicability and restrictions on claims against the Government for loss and damage as related to the transportation circumstances involved. Agencies should also be prepared to give advice to employees as to the liability of the carrier for loss and damage of transported household goods in the transportation circumstances involved so that they will be able to evaluate the need for insurance and the advisability of incurring a valuation charge. (For interstate shipments by motor

§ 302–8.3 Transportation within the continental United States.

(a) The commuted rate system—(1) Description. Under the commuted rate system an employee makes his/her own arrangements for transporting household goods between points within the continental United States. He/She selects and pays the carrier or transports his/her goods by noncommercial means and is reimbursed by the Government in accordance with schedules of commuted rates which are contained in the GSA publication, Commuted Rate Schedule for Transportation of Household Goods. Agencies requiring this publication shall prepare a Standard Form 1, Printing and Binding Requisition, and send it to: Superintendent of Documents, Departmental Account Representative Division, U.S. Government Printing Office (GPO), Washington, DC 20401. The schedules of commuted rates which are developed from tariffs that carriers have filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission consist of tables to be applied to the particular transportation involved. The commuted rate includes costs of line-haul transportation, packing, crating, unpacking, drayage incident to transportation, and other accessorial charges. Costs of temporary storage which are subject to reimbursement under § 302–8.5 are stated separately in the schedule of commuted rates.

(2) Reimbursement. When the commuted rate system is used, the amount to be paid to the employee for transportation and related services is computed by multiplying the number of hundreds of pounds shipped (within the maximum weight allowance) by the applicable rate per hundred pounds for the distance shipped as shown in the commuted rate schedule. The distance shall be determined in accordance with household goods mileage guides filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission. If the rate is not shown in the commuted rate schedule for the exact mileage, the rate shown for the next greater distance applies. If an employee is charged a minimum weight above the actual weight of his/her household goods under the applicable tariff (other than one based on expedited or special services), the reimbursement shall be based on the minimum weight as charged instead of the actual weight of the goods.

(3) Documentation. Claims for reimbursement under the commuted rate system shall be supported by a receipted copy of the bill of lading (a reproduced copy may be accepted) including any attached weight certificate copies if such a bill was issued. If no bill of lading was involved, other evidence showing points of origin and destination and the weight of the goods must be submitted. Employees who transport their own household goods are cautioned to establish the weight of such goods by obtaining proper weight certificates showing gross weight (weight of vehicle and goods) and tare weight (weight of vehicle alone) because compliance with the requirements for payment at commuted rates on the basis of constructive weight (see § 302–8.2(c)(4)) usually is not possible.

(b) Actual expense method—(1) Description. Under the actual expense method, the Government assumes responsibility for awarding contracts and for other negotiations with carriers. The property is shipped on a Government bill of lading, and the Government audits and pays transportation vouchers directly to carriers. Under the actual expense method, the household goods are shipped by the Government, not by the employee.

(2) Agency responsibility. Selection of the carrier, arranging for carrier services and for packing and crating, preparing the Government bill of lading, paying charges incurred, and processing any loss and damage claims are the direct responsibility of the agency.

(3) Allowable charges. The actual costs of transportation of household goods within the authorized weight limits will be allowed at Government expense. Also, within that weight limit, the actual costs for packing, crating, unpacking, drayage incident to transportation, and necessary accessorial services shall be allowed.

(4) Multiple shipment procedures. When the actual expense method is used in shipping household goods belonging to two or more employees between the same two points, the weight of the household goods of each employee is to be identified for the purpose of applying the maximum weight limitations.

(5) Excess weight procedures. When the weight of an employee’s household goods exceeds the maximum weight limitation, the total quantity may be shipped on a Government bill of lading, but the employee shall reimburse the Government for the cost of transportation and other charges applicable to the excess weight, computed from the total charges according to the ratio of excess weight to the total weight of the shipment.

(c) Use of commuted rate or actual expense method—(1) Considerations. When the commuted rate system is used, the Government is relieved of the responsibility and administrative expense of selecting and dealing with carriers and making other arrangements for transporting employees’ household goods; however, the Government cannot take advantage of special discounts which may be offered. On the other hand, when the actual expense method is used, the Government incurs the additional expenses of selecting and dealing with carriers, preparing bills of lading, auditing and paying transportation vouchers, supervising the packing of household goods, handling employee loss and damage claims, and other incidentals.

(2) Estimating costs. Under the commuted rate system, an accurate estimate of cost depends upon the accuracy of the estimate of weight. However, under the actual expense method the cost to the Government will usually depend not only on the weight involved but also on the accessorials services required, the quality of packing and the quantity of individual cartons, boxes, barrels, and wardrobes used by the carrier in packing. When the commuted rate system is used, the packing and accessorials charges are authorized and paid for by the employee from the amounts allowed for those charges under that system. Under the actual expense method, the accessorial and packing charges are paid by the Government, and if those charges are high, they may more than offset any discount in the line-haul rate which may be available for shipments by Government bill of lading. A proper comparison of costs must take into account the line-haul transportation charge, the administrative costs as indicated in paragraph (c)(1) of this section, and the expected accessorial and packing charges.

(3) Policy. The general policy is that commuted rates shall be used for transportation of employees’ household goods when individual transfers are involved, and that appropriate action, depending on the amount of goods to be transported, shall be taken to estimate and compare actual expense method costs with commuted rate costs when groups of employees are transferred between the same official stations at approximately the same time so that the method resulting in less cost to the Government may be used. Specific procedures to be followed are contained in paragraph (c)(4) of this section.

(4) Criteria for use of the actual expense method—(1) Individual transfers. Agency experience with the actual expense method has shown that shipment by Government bill of lading does not result in savings simply because a line-haul discount is available. Therefore, the commuted rate system shall be used for individual transfers without consideration being given the actual expense method; except that the actual expense method may be used if the actual costs to be incurred by the Government for packing and other accessorials services are predetermined (at least as to price per 100 pounds) and if that method is expected to result in a real savings to the Government of $100 or more. (For intrastate transfers, see paragraph (c)(4)(iv) of this section.)

(ii) Multiple transfers. Under general rate tenders arranged by GSA and the Department of Defense (DOD), participating carriers agree to transport the household goods of Government employees at rates below commercial rates for specific periods of time. These tenders are arranged under 49 U.S.C. 10721, and no further agency negotiation is necessary to take advantage of them. Agencies shall evaluate the use of such rates when, because of the transfer of several employees, they have a large volume of household goods to be moved between the same places at the same time even though no mass move is involved; however, the added costs for use of the actual expense method, as discussed in paragraph (c)(1) of this section, and the uncertainty as to total cost for packing and accessorial services, as discussed in paragraph (c)(2) of this section, shall be taken into consideration, and the actual expense method shall be selected only if it is considered likely that a real savings to the Government will result from the use of that method.

(iii) Mass moves. Whenever an entire facility is being relocated or whenever it is anticipated that 10 or more shipments of household goods are to be transported between the same two points at approximately the same time, the agency involved shall notify the appropriate regional or zonal office of the General Services Administration (for civilian agencies without specialized transportation personnel) or the appropriate transportation office of DOD (for components of that Department) of the forthcoming move so that an analysis can be made of existing available rates for use under the actual expense method. The notification shall be accompanied by all pertinent information concerning points of origin and destination, estimated weights of property, the number of persons or different families involved, and dates or periods of time when each person or family is expected to move. When appropriate, the GSA or DOD transportation organization shall attempt to arrange with carriers for worthwhile reduced rates and shall advise the agency concerned of the results of such efforts. If these efforts show that a saving will result, considering all direct and indirect costs involved, the actual expense method shall be used. Otherwise, the commuted rate system shall be used.

(iv) Unusual circumstances. The commuted rates do not take into account intrastate rates that in some instances may be substantially higher than the interstate rates that form the basis for the commuted rates. In order to avoid the necessity of prescribing commuted rates for such circumstances, the actual expense method (Government bill of lading) may be used when it is administratively determined that the commuted rate system would cause an unusual hardship for an employee transferring between official stations within a State. This authority shall not be used indiscriminately, and its use shall be carefully documented and justified.

§ 302–8.4 Transportation outside the continental United States.

(a) Coverage. This section contains special rules which are applicable to the transportation of household goods at Government expense to, from, and between points outside the continental United States. Individual eligibility is covered in part 302–1.

(b) Weight limitation. The maximum weight specified in §302–8.2 is applicable; however, where furnished or partly furnished quarters are to be provided outside the continental United States (in the case of a transfer to such a station) or have been provided (in the case of a return to the continental United States), agencies shall make an appropriate reduction in the weight of household goods which may be authorized for shipment at Government expense.

(c) Allowable costs—(1) Actual expense basis. Transportation authorized under this section shall be on an actual expense basis. Actual expense includes costs of transportation of household goods, packing and crating (including packing and crating materials and temporary containers), unpacking, and other necessary accessorial charges within applicable limits.

(2) Drayage. If door-to-door common carrier rates are not applicable, allowable costs include the actual costs of drayage to and from the common carrier for goods not in excess of the authorized weight.

(3) Lift vans. Charges allowable for packing and crating and for transportation include expenses incurred in hiring, transporting, and packing lift vans when shipments are made in whole or in part by water, but do not include charges in connection with any shipment or storage of empty lift vans or import duties on lift vans.

(4) Valuation. The valuation of property as declared for shipping will not § 302–8.5 Temporary storage.

(a) Applicability. Temporary storage of household goods at Government expense may be allowable only when such storage is incident to transportation of the household goods at Government expense.

(b) Allowable expenses—(1) Commuted rate system. In connection with transportation within the continental United States under the commuted rate system, costs of temporary storage within the applicable weight limit will be reimbursed to the employee in the amount of his/her costs for storage including in and out charges and necessary drayage, but not to exceed the commuted rates for storage in the GSA publication, Commuted Rate Schedule for Transportation of Household Goods. (See §302–8.3(a)(1).) A receipted copy of the warehouse or other bill for storage costs is required to support reimbursement.

(2) Actual expense method. In connection with transportation when the actual expense method is used, the Government will normally arrange for necessary temporary storage and pay the cost thereof direct. If an employee must arrange for temporary storage in connection with transportation by the actual expense method, he/she may be reimbursed for reasonable costs incurred for storage including in and out charges and necessary drayage within the applicable limitations. Charges for excess weight, valuation above the minimum amount, and services obtained by the employee at higher costs shall be the responsibility of the employee in the same manner as he/she is responsible for excess costs incident to transportation. (See §§302–8.3(b)(5) and 302–8.4(e).)

§ 302–8.6 Advance of funds.

(a) Commuted rate system. Advances of funds may be made to employees up to the estimated amount of the commuted payment for the cost of authorized transportation and temporary storage of their household goods under the procedures and policies prescribed in §302–1.14(a).

(b) Overseas shipments. For overseas shipment, advance of funds may be made for the estimated cost of transportation and temporary storage only if the cost of authorized transportation and temporary storage will not be paid directly by the Government, as is the case when a Government bill of lading or purchase order is used.

(c) Procedures. In requesting an advance of funds, the employee shall submit a written statement designating:

(1) The points of origin and destination,
(2) The estimated weight of household goods to be shipped, and
(3) Any anticipated temporary storage not to exceed a period of 90 days at Government expense. The estimate of weight required in support of an advance of funds shall consist of a statement of the estimated weight signed by the carrier selected to handle the shipment, if available. If not available, evidence of actual weight or a reasonable estimate thereof acceptable to the agency shall be furnished.

PART 302–9—ALLOWANCES FOR NONTEMPORARY STORAGE OF HOUSEHOLD GOODS

Sec.
302–9.1 Nontemporary storage during assignment to isolated locations in the continental United States.
302–9.2 Nontemporary storage during assignment outside the continental United States.
302–9.3 Storage during school recess for Department of Defense overseas teachers.
302–9.4 Advance of funds.

SOURCE: 54 FR 20328, May 10, 1989, unless otherwise noted.

§ 302–9.1 Nontemporary storage during assignment to isolated locations in the continental United States.

(a) Policy. Nontemporary storage of household goods belonging to an employee transferred or a new appointee assigned to an official station at an isolated location in the continental United States shall be allowed only when it is clearly justified under the conditions in this part and is not primarily for the convenience or at the request of the employee or the new appointee.

(b) Isolated official stations—criteria. Under this section, an official station at an isolated location is a place of permanent duty assignment in the continental United States at which an employee has no alternative except to live where he/she is unable to use his/her household goods because:

(1) The type of quarters he/she is required to occupy at the isolated permanent duty station will not accommodate his/her household goods; or
(2) Residence quarters which would accommodate his/her household goods are not available within reasonable daily commuting distance of the official station. However, the designation of an official station as isolated in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section shall not preclude a determination in individual instances that adequate housing is available for some employees stationed there based on housing which may be available within daily commuting distance and the size and other characteristics of each employee’s immediate family. In such instances, the station shall not be considered isolated with regard to those employees for whom adequate family housing is determined to be available.

(c) Isolated official stations—designation. Heads of agencies concerned are responsible for designating the isolated official stations at which conditions exist for allowing nontemporary storage of household goods at Government expense for some or all employees.

(d) Eligibility. Eligibility for nontemporary storage of household goods and personal effects applies to an employee stationed at an isolated official station, which meets the criteria in paragraph (b) of this section, who performed permanent change of station travel or travel as a new appointee.

(e) Authorization. The authorization for nontemporary storage should be contained in the travel order or other document authorizing transfer or appointment at an isolated official station. However, storage may be approved subsequently if the employee or new appointee is otherwise eligible.

(f) Allowable storage—(1) Place of storage. Under regulations prescribed by the head of the agency concerned, the property may be stored either in available Government-owned storage space or in suitable commercial or privately owned space obtained by the Government if Government-owned space is not available or if commercial or privately owned space is more economical or suitable because of location, difference of transportation costs, or for other reasons.

(2) Allowable costs. Allowable costs for storing the property include the cost of necessary packing, crating, unpacking, uncrating, transportation to and from place of storage, charges while in storage, and other necessary charges directly relating to the storage.

(3) Partial storage. An eligible employee or new appointee may be authorized to have a portion of his/her household goods transported to the isolated official station and to have the remainder stored at Government expense. However, the weight of the goods stored plus the weight of the goods transported shall not exceed the maximum applicable weight allowance for which the employee is eligible.

(4) Changes in type of storage. Authority may be granted for the conversion of household goods from temporary to non-temporary storage and from storage at personal expense to non-temporary storage at Government expense.

(g) Time limitations. Nontemporary storage shall be authorized for periods of time not exceeding 1 year and extended as necessary in accordance with the length of an employee’s assignment at an isolated official station. Appropriate periodic review shall be made to determine whether current conditions at the isolated locality with regard to availability of housing warrant continuation of the authority for non-temporary storage. Eligibility for non-temporary storage at Government expense shall terminate on the employee’s last day of active duty at the isolated official station. When an employee ceases to be eligible, non-temporary storage at Government expense may continue until the beginning of the second month after the month in which his eligibility terminates. However, the period of non-temporary storage shall not exceed 3 years.

§ 302–9.2 Nontemporary storage during assignment outside the continental United States.

(a) Eligibility. Under regulations that may be prescribed by the head of the agency concerned, an employee stationed at an official station other than one located in the continental United States or an employee or new appointee transferred or appointed to such a station may be allowed non-temporary storage of his/her household goods while so assigned if:

(1) The official station is one to which he/she is not authorized to take, or at which he/she is unable to use, the household goods; or

(2) The storage is authorized in the public interest; or

(3) The estimated cost of storage would be less than the cost of round-trip transportation (including temporary storage) of the household goods to the new official station.

(b) Authorization. Normally, the authorization for non-temporary storage shall be contained in the travel order or other document authorizing the employee’s change of station or authorizing a new appointee to report to his/her official station. However, storage may be approved subsequently if the employee or new appointee would otherwise be eligible.

(c) Allowable storage—(1) Place of storage. The property may be stored either in available Government-owned storage space or in suitable commercial or privately owned space obtained by the Government is more economical or suitable because of location, difference of transportation costs, or other reasons.

(2) Allowable costs. Allowable costs for storing the property include the cost of necessary packing, crating, unpacking,
Relocation Allowances

§ 302–9.3 Storage during school recess for Department of Defense overseas teachers.

(a) Description. The Department of Defense Overseas Teachers Pay and Personnel Practices Act (20 U.S.C. 905) provides authority for the storage of the household goods of Department of Defense overseas teachers during the recess period between 2 consecutive school years.

(b) Regulations. Storage of household goods of Department of Defense overseas teachers may be allowed at Government expense under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Defense in accordance with this part.

(c) Authorization and conditions—(1) Authorization. Storage during the school recess should be authorized prior to the close of the school year. However, storage may be approved at a later date if all the required terms and conditions have been fulfilled.

(2) Agreement. To be eligible for recess storage, a teacher serving at the close of a school year must agree in writing to serve as a teacher for the next school year.

(3) Forfeited entitlements. The storage shall be instead of quarters or quarters allowance authorized by 20 U.S.C. 905 and any other storage of household goods to which the teacher might be entitled through employment in another position during any recess period between 2 school years.

(d) Allowable storage—(1) Place of storage. The property may be stored either in available Government-owned space or in suitable commercial or privately owned space if Government-owned space is not available or if commercial or privately owned space obtained by the Government is more economical or suitable because of location, difference of transportation costs, or other reasons.

(2) Allowable costs. Allowable costs for storing the property include the cost of necessary packing, crating, unpacking, uncrating, transportation to and from place of storage, charges while in storage, and other necessary charges directly relating to the storage.

(3) Weight limitations. The weight of the household goods stored during the recess period shall not exceed the weight authorized for the employee less the weight of household goods stored under §302-9.2.

(e) Time limitation. The period of storage shall not exceed the period of the recess between the 2 school years.

(f) Breach of agreement. If the teacher does not report for service at the beginning of the next school year, except for reasons beyond his/her control and acceptable to the Department of Defense, he/she shall be obligated to reimburse the Department in the amount paid by the Department for the commercial storage, including related services. If, however, the property was stored in a Government facility, the teacher shall pay the agency an amount equal to the reasonable value of the storage furnished, including related services.
§ 302–9.4

§ 302–9.4 Advance of funds.

Advances of funds are not authorized in connection with the storage allowances covered by this part.

Subpart A—General Rules

NOTE TO SUPART A: Use of the pronouns “I” and “you” throughout this subpart refers to the employee.

§ 302–10.1 What is a “privately owned vehicle (POV)”?

A motor vehicle not owned by the Government and used by the employee or his/her immediate family for the primary purpose of providing personal transportation.

§ 302–10.2 What is an “official station” for purposes of this part?

An official station is defined in §302–1.4(k). For purposes of this part, an official station may be within or outside the continental United States (CONUS).

§ 302–10.3 What is a “post of duty” for purposes of this part?

An official station outside CONUS.

§ 302–10.4 What are the purposes of the allowance for transportation of a POV?

To reduce the Government’s overall relocation costs by allowing transportation of a POV to your official station within CONUS when it is advantageous and cost effective to the Government, and to improve your overall effectiveness if you are transferred or otherwise assigned to a post of duty at which it is in the interest of the Government for you to have use of a POV for personal transportation.

§ 302–10.5 What is the purpose of the allowance for emergency storage of a POV?

To protect a POV transported at Government expense to your post of duty when the head of your agency determines that the post of duty is within a zone from which your immediate family and/or household goods should be evacuated.

§ 302–10.6 What POV transportation and emergency storage may my agency authorize at Government expense?

Your agency may authorize:
(a) Transportation of a POV to a post of duty as provided in subpart B of this part;
(b) Transportation of a POV from a post of duty as provided in subpart C of this part;
(c) Transportation of a POV wholly within CONUS as provided in subpart D of this part; and
(d) Emergency storage of a POV as provided in subpart E of this part.

§ 302–10.7 Must my agency authorize transportation or emergency storage of my POV?

No. However, if your agency does authorize transportation of a POV to your post of duty and you complete your service agreement, your agency must pay for the cost of returning the POV. Your agency determines the conditions under which it will pay for transportation and emergency storage and the procedures a transferred employee must follow.

§ 302–10.8 What type of POV may I be authorized to transport, and if necessary, store under emergency circumstances?

Only a passenger automobile, station wagon, small truck, or other similar vehicle that will be used primarily for personal transportation. You may not transport or store a trailer, airplane, or any vehicle intended for commercial use.

§ 302–10.9 For what transportation expenses will my agency pay?

When your agency authorizes transportation of your POV, it will pay for all necessary and customary expenses directly related to the transportation of the POV, including crating and packing expenses, shipping charges, and port charges for readying the POV for shipment at the port of embarkation and for use at the port of debarkation.

§ 302–10.10 For what POV emergency storage expenses will my agency pay?

All necessary storage expenses, including but not limited to readying the POV for storage, local transportation to point of storage, storage, readying the POV for use after storage, and local transportation from the point of storage. Insurance on the POV is at your expense, unless it is included in the expenses allowed by this paragraph.

§ 302–10.11 May I receive an advance of funds for transportation and emergency storage of my POV?

Yes, in accordance with §302–1.14(a) and not to exceed the estimated amount of the expenses authorized under this part for transportation and emergency storage of your POV.

§ 302–10.12 May my agency determine that driving my POV is more advantageous and limit my reimbursement to what it would cost to drive my POV?

Yes. Your agency decides whether it is more advantageous for you and/or a member of your immediate family to drive your POV for all or part of the distance or to have it transported. If your agency decides that driving the POV is more advantageous, your reimbursement will be limited to the allowances provided in part 302–2 of this chapter for the travel and transportation expenses you and/or your immediate family incur en route.
Relocation Allowances

Subpart B—Transportation of a POV to a Post of Duty

Note to Subpart B: Use of the pronouns “I” and “you” throughout this subpart refers to the employee.

General

§ 302–10.100 Who is eligible for transportation of a POV to a post of duty?
An employee who is authorized to transfer to the post of duty, or a new appointee or a student trainee assigned to the post of duty.

§ 302–10.101 In what situations may my agency authorize transportation of a POV to my post of duty?
Your agency may authorize transportation when:
(a) At the time of your assignment, conditions warrant such authorization under §302–10.140;
(b) Subsequent to the time of your assignment, which did not warrant authorization at the time of your assignment, change to warrant such authorization under §302–10.170; or
(c) Subsequent to the time of your assignment, conditions warrant authorization under §302–10.172 of a replacement POV.

§ 302–10.102 How many POVs may I transport to a post of duty?
One. This does not, however, limit the transportation of a replacement POV when authorized under §302–10.172.

§ 302–10.103 Do I have to ship my POV to my actual post of duty?
Yes. You may not transport the POV to an alternate location.

§ 302–10.104 What may I do if there is no port or terminal at the point of origin and/or destination?
Your agency will pay the entire cost of transporting the POV from your point of origin to your destination. If you prefer, however, you may choose to drive your POV from your point of origin at time of assignment to the nearest embarkation port or terminal, and/or from the debarkation port or terminal nearest your destination to your post of duty at any time. If you choose to drive, you will be reimbursed your one-way mileage cost, at the rate specified in part 301–4 of this subtitle, for driving the POV from your authorized origin to deliver it to the port of embarkation, or from the port of debarkation to the authorized destination. For the segment of travel from the port of embarkation back to your authorized origin after delivering the POV to the port, or from your authorized destination to the port of debarkation to pick-up the POV, you will be reimbursed your one-way transportation cost. The total cost of round-trip travel, to deliver the POV to the port at the origin or to pickup the POV at the port at your destination, may not exceed the cost of transporting the POV to or from the port involved. You may not be reimbursed a per diem allowance for round-trip travel to and from the port involved.

POV Transportation at Time of Assignment

§ 302–10.140 Under what specific conditions may my agency authorize transportation of a POV to my post of duty upon my assignment to that post of duty?
Your agency may authorize transportation when:
(a) It has determined in accordance with §302–10.503 of this part that it is in the interest of the Government for you to have use of your POV at the post of duty;
(b) You have signed a service agreement; and
(c) You meet any specific conditions your agency has established.

§ 302–10.141 What is the “authorized point of origin” when I transport a POV to my post of duty?
Your “authorized point of origin” is as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>If you are a—</th>
<th>Your “authorized point of origin” is—</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>(a) A transferee</td>
<td>Your old official station.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(b) A new appointee or student trainee</td>
<td>Your place of actual residence.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
§ 302–10.142 What will I be reimbursed if I transport a POV from a point of origin that is different from the authorized point of origin?

You will be reimbursed the transportation costs you incur, not to exceed the cost of transporting your POV from your authorized point of origin to your post of duty.

§ 302–10.143 When I am authorized to transport a POV, may I have the manufacturer or the manufacturer’s agent transport a new POV from the factory or other shipping point directly to my post of duty?

Yes, provided:
(a) You purchased the POV new from the manufacturer or manufacturer’s agent;
(b) The POV is transported FOB-shipping point, consigned to you and/or a member of your immediate family, or your agent; and
(c) Ownership of the POV is not vested in the manufacturer or the manufacturer’s agent during transportation. In this circumstance, you will be reimbursed for the POV transportation costs, not to exceed the cost of transporting the POV from your authorized point of origin to your post of duty.

POV TRANSPORTATION SUBSEQUENT TO THE TIME OF ASSIGNMENT

§ 302–10.170 Under what specific conditions may my agency authorize transportation of a POV to my post of duty subsequent to the time of my assignment to that post of duty?

Your agency may authorize transportation when:
(a) You do not have a POV at your post of duty;
(b) You have not previously been authorized to transport a POV to that post of duty;
(c) You have not previously transported a POV outside CONUS during your assignment to that post of duty;
(d) Your agency has determined in accordance with §302–10.503 that it is in the interest of the Government for you to have use of your POV at the post of duty;
(e) You signed a service agreement at the time you were transferred in the interest of the Government, or assigned if you were a new appointee or student trainee, to your post of duty; and
(f) You meet any specific conditions your agency has established.

§ 302–10.171 If circumstances warrant an authorization to transport a POV to my post of duty after my assignment to the post of duty, must I sign a new service agreement?

No, provided you signed a service agreement at the time of your assignment to the post of duty. Violation of that service agreement, however, will result in your personal liability for the cost of transporting the POV.

§ 302–10.172 Under what conditions may my agency authorize transportation of a replacement POV to my post of duty?

Your agency may authorize a replacement POV when:
(a) You require an emergency replacement POV and you meet the following conditions:
(1) You had a POV which was transported to your post of duty at Government expense; and
(2) You require a replacement POV for reasons beyond your control and acceptable to your agency, such as when the POV is stolen, or seriously damaged or destroyed, or has deteriorated due to conditions at the post of duty; and
(3) Your agency determines in advance of authorization that a replacement POV is necessary and in the interest of the Government; or
(b) You require a non-emergency replacement POV and you meet the following conditions:
(1) You have a POV which was transported to a post of duty at Government expense;
(2) You have been stationed continuously during a 4-year period at one or more posts of duty; and
(3) Your agency has determined that it is in the Government’s interest for you to continue to have a POV at your post of duty.

§ 302–10.173 How many replacement POVs may my agency authorize me to transport to my post of duty at Government expense?

Your agency may authorize one emergency replacement POV within any 4-year period of continuous service. It may authorize one non-emergency replacement POV after every four years of continuous service beginning on the date you first have use of the POV being replaced.

§ 302–10.174 What is the “authorized point of origin” when I transport a POV, including a replacement POV, to my post of duty subsequent to the time of my assignment to that post of duty?

Your agency determines the authorized point of origin within the several States and the District of Columbia.

[FTR Amdt. 65, 62 FR 13794, Mar. 21, 1997, as amended by FTR Amdt. 84, 64 FR 29163, May 28, 1999]

§ 302–10.175 When I am authorized to transport a POV, including a replacement POV, from my post of duty subsequent to the time of my assignment to that post of duty, may I have the manufacturer or the manufacturer’s agent transport a new POV from the factory or other shipping point directly to my post of duty?

Yes, under the same conditions specified in §302–10.143 of this subpart.

Subpart C—Return Transportation of a POV From a Post of Duty

NOTE TO SUBPART C: Use of the pronouns “I” and “you” throughout this subpart refers to the employee.

§ 302–10.200 When am I eligible for transportation of a POV from my post of duty?

You are eligible for return transportation when:
(a) You were transferred to a post of duty in the interest of the Government; and
(b) You have a POV at the post of duty.

[FTR Amdt. 65, 62 FR 13794, Mar. 21, 1997, as amended by FTR Amdt. 69, 63 FR 5742, Feb. 4, 1998]

§ 302–10.201 In what situations will my agency pay to transport a POV from my post of duty?

Your agency will pay when:
(a) You are transferred back to the official station (including post of duty) from which you transferred to your current post of duty;
(b) You are transferred to a new official station within CONUS;
(c) You are transferred to a new post of duty, where your agency determines that use of a POV at that location is not in the interest of the Government;
(d) You separate from Government service after completion of an agreed period of service at the post of duty where your agency determined the use of a POV to be in the interest of the Government;
(e) You separate from Government service prior to completion of an agreed period of service at the post of duty where your agency determined the use of a POV to be in the interest of the Government; and
(f) Conditions change at your post of duty such that use of the POV no longer is in the interest of the Government.

[FTR Amdt. 65, 62 FR 13794, Mar. 21, 1997, as amended by FTR Amdt. 69, 63 FR 5743, Feb. 4, 1998]

§ 302–10.202 When do I become entitled to transportation of my POV from my post of duty to an authorized destination?

You become entitled when:
(a) Your agency determined the use of a POV at your post of duty was in the interest of the Government;
(b) You have a POV at your post of duty; and
(c) You have completed your service agreement.

[FTR Amdt. 65, 62 FR 13794, Mar. 21, 1997, as amended by FTR Amdt. 69, 63 FR 5743, Feb. 4, 1998]

§ 302–10.203 Is there any circumstance under which I may be authorized to transport my POV from a post of duty before completing my service agreement?

Yes. If conditions change at your post of duty such that use of your POV no longer is in the interest of the Government, or if you separate from Government service prior to completion of your service agreement for reasons beyond your control and acceptable to § 302–10.204 What is the “authorized point of origin” when I transport my POV from my post of duty?

The last post of duty to which you were authorized to transport your POV at Government expense.

§ 302–10.205 What is the “authorized destination” of a POV transported under this subpart?

The “authorized destination” is as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>If—</th>
<th>The authorized destination of the POV you transport at Government expense is—</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>(a) You are transferred to an official station within CONUS.</td>
<td>Your official station.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(b)(1) You are transferred to another post of duty and use of a POV at the new post is not in the interest of the Government; (2) You separate from Government service and are eligible for transportation of your POV from your post of duty; or (3) Conditions change at your post of duty such that use of your POV no longer is in the interest of the Government at that post of duty.</td>
<td>Your place of actual residence.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

§ 302–10.206 What should I do if there is no port or terminal at my authorized point of origin or authorized destination when I transport a POV from my post of duty?

Your agency will pay the entire cost of transporting the POV from your authorized origin to your authorized destination. If you prefer, however, you may choose to drive your POV to the port of embarkation and/or from the port of debarkation. If you choose to drive, you will be reimbursed in the same manner as an employee covered under § 302–10.194.

§ 302–10.207 What will I be reimbursed if I transport my POV from a point of origin or to a destination that is different from my authorized origin or destination?

You will be reimbursed the transportation costs you actually incur, not to exceed what it would have cost to transport your POV from your authorized origin to the authorized destination.

§ 302–10.208 If I retain my POV at my post of duty after conditions change to make use of the POV no longer in the interest of the Government, may I transport it at Government expense from the post of duty at a later date?

Yes, your agency will pay the transportation costs not to exceed the cost of transporting it to the authorized destination, provided you otherwise meet all conditions for transportation of a POV.

§ 302–10.209 Under what conditions may my agency authorize me to transport from my post of duty a replacement POV purchased at that post of duty?

Your agency may authorize transportation only if:

(a) At the time you purchased the replacement POV, you met the conditions in § 302–10.192 of this part; and

(b) Prior to purchase of the replacement POV, your agency authorized you to purchase a replacement POV at the post of duty.

Subpart D—Transportation of a POV Wholly Within the Continental United States (CONUS)

NOTE TO SUBPART D: Use of the pronouns “I” and “you” throughout this subpart refers to the employee.

§ 302–10.300 When am I eligible for transportation of my POV wholly within CONUS at Government expense?

When you are an employee who transfers within CONUS in the interest of the Government, or you are a new appointee or student trainee relocating to your first official station within CONUS.

182
§ 302–10.301 Under what conditions may my agency authorize transportation of my POV wholly within CONUS?

Your agency will authorize transportation only when:
(a) It has determined that use of your POV to transport you and/or your immediate family from your old official station (or place of actual residence, if you are a new appointee or student trainee) to your new official station would be advantageous to the Government;
(b) Both your old official station (or place of actual residence, if you are a new appointee or student trainee) and your new official station are located within CONUS; and
(c) Your agency further determines that it would be more advantageous and cost effective to the Government to transport your POV to the new official station at Government expense and to pay for transportation of you and/or your immediate family by commercial means than to have you or an immediate family member drive the POV to the new official station.

§ 302–10.302 How many POV’s may I transport wholly within CONUS?

You may transport any number of POV’s under this subpart, provided your agency determines such transportation is advantageous and cost effective to the Government.

§ 302–10.303 If I am authorized to transport my POV wholly within CONUS, where must the transportation originate?

The POV transportation must originate as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>If you are—</th>
<th>Your transportation must originate at—</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>(a) A transferee.</td>
<td>Your old official station.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(b) A new appointee or student trainee.</td>
<td>Your place of actual residence.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

§ 302–10.304 If I am authorized to transport my POV wholly within CONUS, what must the destination be?

Your new official station.
§ 302–10.503

(a) When you will authorize transportation and emergency storage of a POV;
(b) When you will authorize transportation of a replacement POV;
(c) Who will determine if transportation of a POV to or from a post of duty is in the interest of the Government;
(d) Who will determine if conditions have changed at an employee’s post of duty to warrant transportation of a POV in the interest of the Government;
(e) Who will determine if transportation of a POV wholly within CONUS is more advantageous and cost effective than having the employee drive the POV to the new official station; and
(f) Who will determine whether to allow emergency storage of an employee’s POV, including where to store the POV.

§ 302–10.503 Under what condition may we authorize transportation of a POV to a post of duty?

You may authorize transportation only when you determine, after consideration of the factors in §302–10.504, that it is in the interest of the Government for the employee to have use of a POV at the post of duty.

§ 302–10.504 What factors must we consider in deciding whether to authorize transportation of a POV to a post of duty?

You must consider:
(a) Whether local conditions at the employee’s post of duty warrant use of a POV;
(b) Whether use of the POV will contribute to the employee’s effectiveness on the job;
(c) Whether use of a POV of the type involved will be suitable under local conditions at the post of duty;
(d) Whether the cost of transporting the POV to and from the post of duty will be excessive, considering the time the employee has agreed to serve at the post of duty.

§ 302–10.505 What must we consider in determining whether transportation of a POV wholly within CONUS is cost effective?

(a) Cost of travel by POV.
(b) Cost of transporting the POV.
(c) Cost of travel if the POV is transported.
(d) Productivity benefit you derive from the employee’s accelerated arrival at the new official station.

PART 302–11—RELOCATION INCOME TAX (RIT) ALLOWANCE
Relocation Allowances

United States (67 Comp. Gen. 135 (1987)). The RIT allowance shall be calculated and paid as provided in this part.

[FTR Amdt. 30, 58 FR 15437, Mar. 23, 1993]

§ 302–11.2 Coverage.

(a) Eligible employees. Payment of a RIT allowance is authorized for employees transferred on or after November 14, 1983, in the interest of the Government from one official station to another for permanent duty. The effective date of an employee’s transfer is the date the employee reports for duty at the new official station as provided in §302–1.4(l).

(b) Individuals not covered. The provisions of this part are not applicable to the following individuals or employees:

(1) New appointees;
(2) Employees assigned under the Government Employees Training Act (see 5 U.S.C. 4109); or
(3) Employees returning from overseas assignments for the purpose of separation.

§ 302–11.3 Types of moving expenses or allowances covered and general limitations.

The RIT allowance is limited by law as to the types of moving expenses that can be covered. The law authorizes reimbursement of additional income taxes resulting from certain moving expenses furnished in kind or for which reimbursement or an allowance is provided to the transferred employee by the Government. However, such moving expenses are covered by the RIT allowance only to the extent that they are actually paid or incurred, and are not allowable as a moving expense deduction for tax purposes. The types of expenses or allowances listed in paragraphs (a) through (i) of this section, are covered by the RIT allowance within the limitations discussed.

(a) En route travel. Travel (including per diem) and transportation expenses of the transferred employee and immediate family for en route travel from the old official station to the new official station. (See part 302–2.)

(b) Household goods shipment. Transportation (including temporary storage) expenses for movement of household goods from the old official station to the new official station. (See part 302–8.)

(c) Nontemporary storage expenses. Allowable expenses for nontemporary storage of household goods belonging to an employee transferred on or after November 14, 1983, through October 11, 1984, to an isolated location in the continental United States. (See §302–9.1.) Nontemporary storage expenses are not covered by the RIT allowance for transfers on or after October 12, 1984. (See §302–11.4(c).)

(d) Mobile home movement. Expenses for the movement of a mobile home for use as a residence when movement is authorized instead of shipment and temporary storage of household goods. (See part 302–7.)

(e) Househunting trip. Travel (including per diem) and transportation expenses of the employee and spouse for one round trip to the new official station to seek permanent residence quarters. (See part 302–4.)

(f) Temporary quarters. Subsistence expenses of the employee and immediate family during occupancy of temporary quarters. (See part 302–5.)

(g) Real estate expenses. Allowable expenses for the sale of the residence (or expenses of settlement of an unexpired lease) at the old official station and for purchase of a home at the new official station for which reimbursement is received by the employee. (See part 302–6.)

(h) Miscellaneous expense allowance. A miscellaneous expense allowance for the purpose of defraying certain expenses associated with discontinuing a residence at one location and establishing a residence at the new location in connection with an authorized or approved permanent change of station. (See part 302–3.)

(i) Relocation services. Payments, or portions thereof, made to a relocation service company for services provided to a transferred employee (see part 302–12), subject to the conditions stated in this paragraph and within the general limitations of this section applicable to other covered expenses.
§ 302–11.4 Exclusions from coverage.

The provisions of this part are not applicable to the following:

(a) Any tax liability that may result from payments by the Government to relocation companies on behalf of employees transferred on or after November 14, 1983, through October 11, 1984, other than the payments for those expenses specified in § 302–11.3(i)(1).

(b) Any tax liability incurred for local income taxes other than city income tax as a result of moving expense reimbursements for employees transferred on or after November 14, 1983, through October 11, 1984. (See definition in § 302–11.5(b).)

(c) Any tax liability resulting from reimbursed expenses for any non-temporary storage of household goods except as specifically provided for in § 302–11.3(c).

(d) Any tax liability resulting from paid or reimbursed expenses for shipment of a privately owned automobile.

(e) Any tax liability resulting from an excess of reimbursed amounts over the actual expense paid or incurred. For instance, if an employee’s reimbursement for the movement of household goods is based on the commuted rate schedule and his/her actual moving expenses are less than the reimbursement, the tax liability resulting from the difference is not covered by the RIT allowance. (See § 302–11.5(b).)

(f) Any tax liability resulting from an employee’s decision not to deduct moving expenses for which a tax deduction is allowable under the Internal Revenue Code or appropriate State and local tax codes. (See §§ 302–11.8(c) and 302–11.8(c).)

(g) Any tax liability resulting from the payment of recruitment, retention, or relocation bonuses authorized by the Office of Personnel Management pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 5753 and 5754, or any other provisions which allow relocation payments that are not reimbursements for travel, transportation, and other expenses incurred in relocation.

§ 302–11.5 Definitions and discussion of terms.

For purposes of this part, the following definitions will apply:

(a) State income tax. A tax, imposed by a State tax authority, that is deductible for Federal income tax purposes as a State income tax under section 164(a)(3) of the IRC. “State”
§ 302-11.5

means any one of the several States of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(b) Local income tax. A tax, imposed by a recognized city or county tax authority, that is deductible for Federal income tax purposes as a local (city or county) income tax under section 164(a)(3) of the IRC; except, that for employees transferred on or after November 14, 1983, through October 11, 1984, local income tax shall be construed to mean only city income tax.

For purposes of this regulation:

(1) City means any unit of general local government which is classified as a municipality by the Bureau of the Census, or which is a town or township that in the determination of the Secretary of the Treasury possesses powers and performs functions comparable to those associated with municipalities, is closely settled, and contains within its boundaries no incorporated places as defined by the Bureau of the Census (31 CFR 215.2(e)).

(2) County means any unit of local general government which is classified as a county by the Bureau of the Census (31 CFR 215.2(b)(1)).

(3) Covered moving expense reimbursements. Covered moving expense reimbursements minus the tax deductions allowable under the IRC and IRS regulations for moving expenses. (See determination in §302-11.6(c).)

(e) Year 1 or reimbursement year. The calendar year in which reimbursement or payment for moving expenses is made to, or for, the employee under the provisions of this part. All or part of these reimbursements (see §302-11.6) are reported to the IRS as income (wages, salary, or other compensation) to the employee for that tax year under the provisions of the IRC and IRS regulations, and are subject to Federal tax withholding. The withholding tax allowance (WTA) (see paragraph (n)(1) of this section) is calculated in Year 1, to cover the employee’s Federal tax withholding obligations each time covered moving expense reimbursements are made that result in a Federal tax withholding obligation. For purposes of this part, an advance of funds for any of the covered moving expenses is not considered to be a reimbursement or a payment until the travel voucher settlement for such expenses takes place. If an employee’s reimbursement for moving expenses is spread over more than one year, he/she will have more than one Year 1.

(1) Generally, Year 2 will be the calendar year immediately following Year 1 and in which the employee files a tax return reflecting his/her tax liability for income received in Year 1. However, there may be instances where the employee’s claims submission and/or payment of the RIT allowance is delayed beyond the calendar year immediately following Year 1. Year 1 will always be the calendar year that reimbursements are received; see paragraph (e) of this section.) Year 2 will be the calendar year in which the RIT allowance is actually paid.

(2) The RIT allowance is calculated in Year 2 and paid to cover the additional tax liability (resulting from moving expense reimbursements received in Year 1) not covered by the WTA paid in Year 1. If an employee’s covered taxable reimbursements are spread over more than one year, he/she will have more than one Year 2.

(g) Federal withholding tax rate (FWTR). The tax rate applied to incremental income to determine the amount to be withheld for Federal income tax from salary or other compensation such as moving expense reimbursements. Because moving expense reimbursements constitute supplemental wages for Federal income tax purposes, the 20 percent flat rate of withholding is generally applicable to such reimbursements. (See §302-11.7(c).) Agencies should refer to the Treasury Financial Manual, TFM 3–5000, and applicable IRS regulations for complete and up-to-date information on this subject.

(h) Earned income. For purposes of the RIT allowance, ‘earned income’ shall include only the gross compensation
§ 302-11.6

41 CFR Ch. 302 (7–1–01 Edition)

(salary, wages, or other compensation such as reimbursement for moving expenses and the related WTA (see paragraph (n) of this section) and any RIT allowance (see paragraph (m) of this section) paid for moving expense reimbursement in a prior year) that is reported as income on IRS Form W-2 for the employee (employee and spouse, if filing jointly), and if applicable, the net earnings (or loss) for self-employment income shown on Schedule SE of the IRS Form 1040. Earned income may be from more than one source. (See § 302-11.8(d).)

(i) Marginal tax rate (MTR). The tax rate (for example, 33 percent) applicable to a specific increment of income. The Federal, Puerto Rico, and State marginal tax rates to be used in calculating the RIT allowance are provided in appendices A through D of this part. (See § 302-11.8(e)(3) of this part for instructions on local marginal tax rate determinations.)

(j) Combined marginal tax rate (CMTR). A single rate determined by combining the applicable marginal tax rates for Federal (or Puerto Rico, when applicable), State, and local income taxes, using formulas provided in § 302-11.8(e)(5).

(k) Gross-up. Payment for the estimated additional income tax liability incurred by an employee as a result of reimbursements or payments by the Government for the covered moving expenses listed in § 302-11.3 that are deductible for Federal income tax but not for State income tax purposes.

(l) Gross-up formula. The formula prescribed in § 302-11.8(f)(3) to be used in determining the amount to be included in the RIT allowance to compensate an employee for the additional State income tax incurred in States that do not allow the deduction of moving expenses.

§ 302-11.6 Procedures in general.

(a) This regulation sets forth procedures for the computation and payment of the RIT allowance and defines agency and employee responsibilities. This part does not require changes to those internal fiscal procedures established by the individual agencies pursuant to IRS regulations, or the Treasury Financial Manual, provided that the intent of the statute authorizing the RIT allowance and this part are not disturbed.

(b) The total amount reimbursed or paid to the employee, or on his/her behalf, for travel, transportation, and other relocation expenses and allowances is includable in the employee’s gross income pursuant to the IRC and certain State or local government tax codes. Some moving expenses for which reimbursements are received may be deducted from income by the employee.
Relocation Allowances § 302–11.7

as moving expense deductions, subject to certain limitations prescribed by the IRS or pertinent State or local tax authorities. Reimbursements for nondeductible moving expenses are subject to income tax. (See IRS Publication 521 entitled “Moving Expenses” and the appropriate State and local tax codes for detailed information.)

(c) Usually, if the employee is reimbursed for nondeductible moving expenses, the amount of these reimbursements is subject to withholding of Federal income tax in accordance with IRS regulations at the time of reimbursement. Under existing fiscal procedures, the amount of the employee’s withholding obligation is usually deducted either from reimbursements for the moving expenses at the time of reimbursement or from the employee’s salary. (See Treasury Financial Manual.)

(d) Payment of a WTA established herein will offset deductions for the Federal income tax withholding on moving expense reimbursements, and on the WTA itself, from the employee’s moving expense reimbursements or from salary.

(e) The total amount of the RIT allowance can be computed after the end of Year 1 as soon as the earned income level, income tax filing status, total covered taxable reimbursements, and the applicable marginal tax rates can be determined. Employee claims for the RIT allowance should be submitted in accordance with this part and the employing agency’s procedures.

(f) Procedures are prescribed in §§302–11.7 and 302–11.8 for computation and payment of the WTA and the RIT allowance. These procedures are built on existing fiscal procedures and IRS regulations regarding reporting of employee income from reimbursements and withholding of taxes on supplemental wages.

§ 302–11.7 Procedures for determining the WTA in Year 1.

(a) General rules. The WTA is designed to cover only the employee’s withholding tax obligation for Federal income taxes on income resulting from covered moving expense reimbursements. (See definition in §302–11.5(c).)

Other withholding tax obligations, if any, such as for social security taxes or for State and/or local income taxes on income resulting from moving expense reimbursements shall not be included in the calculation of the WTA payment. The amount of the WTA is equal to the Federal income tax withholding obligation incurred by the employee on covered moving expense reimbursements (which are not offset by deductible moving expenses) and on the WTA itself. Each time covered moving expense reimbursements are paid to or on behalf of the employee, the WTA shall be calculated, accounted for, and reported as provided in paragraphs (b) through (g) of this section.

(b) Determination of amount of reimbursement subject to withholding. Under IRS regulations, income resulting from reimbursements for nondeductible moving expenses is subject to withholding of Federal income taxes. (See IRS Publication 521, “Moving Expenses.”) There are some moving expenses which may be reimbursed but are not covered taxable reimbursements (see definition in §302–11.5(d)) for purposes of the WTA and RIT allowance calculations, such as non-temporary storage of household goods. (See exclusions in §302–11.4.) Therefore, the actual amount of the covered taxable reimbursements may be different than the amount of nondeductible moving expenses subject to Federal income tax withholding. The difference in these amounts should not be substantial; therefore, the amount of nondeductible moving expenses subject to Federal income tax withholding, as determined by the agency pursuant to IRS regulations, may be used in calculating the WTA. (Note that the RIT calculation procedure in §302–11.8 requires determination of covered taxable reimbursements.)

(c) Determination of Federal withholding tax rate (FWTR). Moving expense reimbursements constitute supplemental wages for Federal income tax purposes. Therefore, an agency must withhold at the withholding rate applicable to supplemental wages. Currently, the supplemental wages withholding rate is 26 percent. The supplemental wages withholding rate should be used in calculating the WTA unless § 302–11.8 Rules and procedures for determining the RIT allowance in Year 2.

(a) Summary/overview of procedures. The RIT allowance will be calculated and claimed in Year 2. This can be accomplished as soon as the employee can determine earned income (as defined herein), income tax filing status, covered taxable reimbursements for Year 1, and the applicable marginal tax rates. The RIT allowance is then calculated using the gross-up formula under procedures prescribed herein. Since the RIT allowance is considered under an agency’s withholding procedures a different withholding rate is used pursuant to IRS tax regulations. In such cases, the applicable withholding rate shall be substituted for the supplemental wages withholding rate in the calculation shown in paragraph (d) of this section.

(d) Calculation of the WTA. The WTA is calculated by substituting the amounts determined in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section into the following WTA gross-up formula:

Formula:

\[ Y = \frac{X}{1 - X}(N) \]

Where:

\[ Y = \text{WTA} \]
\[ X = \text{FWTR (generally, 28 percent)} \]
\[ N = \text{nondeductible moving expenses/covered taxable reimbursements} \]

Example:

If:

\[ X = 28 \text{ percent} \]
\[ N = $20,000 \]

Then:

\[ Y = \frac{0.28}{1 - 0.28} \times ($20,000) \]

\[ Y = \frac{0.28}{0.72} \times ($20,000) \]

\[ Y = 0.3889 \times ($20,000) \]

\[ Y = $7778.00 \]

(e) WTA payment and employee agreement for repayment. (1) The WTA may be calculated several times within Year 1 if reimbursements for moving expenses are made on more than one travel voucher. Each time an employee is reimbursed for moving expenses which are subject to Federal tax withholding in accordance with the IRS regulations, the WTA will be calculated and paid unless the employee fails to comply with the requirements in paragraph (e)(2) of this section.

(2) The employee shall be required to agree in writing to repay any excess amount paid to him/her in Year 1 (see §§ 302–11.8(f)(5) and 302–11.9(b)(3)), and submit the required certified tax information and claim for his/her RIT allowance within a reasonable length of time (as determined by the agency) after the close of Year 1. Failure of the employee to comply with this requirement will preclude the agency’s payment of the WTA. The entire WTA will be considered an excess payment if the RIT allowance claim is not submitted in a timely manner to settle the RIT allowance account.

(f) Determination of employee’s withholding tax on WTA. Since the amount of the WTA is considered income to the employee, it is subject to the same tax withholding requirements as all other moving expense reimbursements. (See Treasury Financial Manual, Section 4080, Moving Expense Reimbursements, for withholding requirements.)

(g) End of year reporting. At the end of the year, agencies generally are required to issue IRS Form(s) W–2 for each employee showing total gross compensation (including moving expense reimbursements) and the applicable amount of Federal taxes withheld. For tax reporting purposes, the WTA is to be treated as a moving expense reimbursement. The total amount of the employee’s WTA’s paid during the year as well as the amount of moving expense reimbursements should be included as income on the employee’s Form W–2. The Federal tax withholding amount applicable to the moving expense reimbursements and the WTA should also be included on the employee’s Form W–2. The amount of the WTA’s also will be furnished to the employee along with the amount of moving expense reimbursements on IRS Form 4782 or another itemized listing provided for the employee’s use in preparing his/her tax return (see IRS regulations for further guidance) and in claiming the RIT allowance as provided in § 302–11.8.

Relocation Allowances

§ 302–11.8

on the RIT allowance are deducted and the balance constitutes the net payment to the employee. Rules, procedures, and the prescribed tax tables for these calculations are provided in paragraphs (b) through (g) of this section, and in appendices A, B, and C of this part.

(b) General rules and assumptions. (1) The procedures prescribed herein for calculations and payment of the RIT allowance are based on certain assumptions jointly developed by GSA and IRS, and tax tables developed by IRS. This approach avoids a potentially controversial and administratively burdensome procedure requiring the employee to furnish extensive documentation, such as certified copies of actual tax returns and reconstructed returns, in support of a claim for a RIT allowance payment. Specifically, the following assumptions have been made:

(i) The employee will claim allowable moving expense deductions for the same tax year in which the corresponding moving expense reimbursements are included in income;

(ii) Changes to the IRC, applicable to the 1987 and subsequent tax years, require that allowable moving expense deductions must be taken as an itemized deduction from gross income rather than as an adjustment to gross income as in previous tax years. It is assumed that employees will receive the benefit of allowable moving expense deductions to offset income either by itemizing their moving expense deductions or through the increased standard deductions.

(iii) Prior to the Tax Reform Act of 1986, it was assumed that the employee’s (and spouse’s, if a joint return is filed) earned income, filing status, and CMTR determined for Year 1 (and used in determining the RIT allowance in Year 2) would remain the same or would not be substantially different in the second and subsequent tax years. However, the Tax Reform Act of 1986 substantially changed the Federal tax structure making it necessary to compute a separate CMTR for Year 1 and for Year 2. (See paragraph (e) of this section.) The formula for calculating the RIT allowance to be paid in 1988 and subsequent years is shown in paragraph (f) of this section. It is assumed that within the accuracy of the calculation, the State and local tax rates for Year 1 and Year 2 will remain the same or will not be substantially different. Therefore, the State and local tax rates for Year 1 shall be used in calculating the CMTR for Year 2.

(2) The prescribed procedures, which yield an estimate of an employee’s additional tax liability due to moving expense reimbursements, are to be used uniformly. They are not to be adjusted to accommodate an employee’s unique circumstance which may differ from the assumed circumstances stated in paragraph (b)(1) of this section.

(3) An adjustment of the RIT allowance paid in Year 2 for the covered taxable reimbursements received in Year 1 is required if the tax information certified to on the RIT allowance claim is different than that shown on the actual Federal tax return filed with IRS for Year 1 or changed for any reason after filing of the tax return, so as to affect the CMTR’s used in the RIT allowance calculation. (See §302–11.10 for claims procedures.)

(c) Determination of covered taxable reimbursements. (1) Generally, the amount of the covered taxable reimbursements is the difference between (i) the amount of covered moving expense reimbursements for the allowances listed in §302–11.3 that was included in the employee’s income in Year 1, and (ii) the maximum amount of allowable moving expenses that may be claimed as a moving expense deduction by the employee on his/her Federal tax return under IRS tax regulations to offset the income resulting from moving expense reimbursements for Year 1. The covered taxable reimbursements will be determined as if the employee had itemized and deducted all allowable moving expense deductions. (See assumption made in paragraph (b)(1)(ii) of this section.) If the employee is precluded from claiming moving expense deductions because he/she does not meet IRS requirements for the distance test, then the amount of covered taxable reimbursements is the same as the amount of covered moving expense reimbursements. (See §302–11.5(d).)

(2) For purposes of calculating the RIT allowance, the following special rules apply to the determination of moving expense deductions to offset moving expense reimbursements reported as income:

(i) The total amount of reimbursement (which was reported as income) for the expenses of en route travel for the employee and family (see §302–11.3(a)) and transportation (including up to 30 days temporary storage) of household goods (see §302–11.3(b)) to the new official station shall be used as a moving expense deduction. (See also §302–11.4 (e) and (f).)

(ii) The total amount of reimbursement for a househunting trip, temporary quarters (up to 30 days at new station) and real estate transaction expenses (see §302–11.3 (e), (f), (g), and (i)), up to the maximum allowable deduction under IRS tax regulations, shall be used as a moving expense deduction. For example, an employee and spouse filing a joint return and residing in the same household at the end of the tax year may deduct up to $3,000 for these expenses. (No more than $1,500 of the $3,000 may be claimed for a househunting trip and temporary quarters expenses combined.) If the employee was reimbursed $1,350 for a househunting trip and temporary quarters expenses and $9,000 for real estate expenses, the moving expense deductions would be $1,350 for the househunting trip and temporary quarters expenses and $1,650 for real estate expenses. If the employee’s reimbursement was $1,850 for the househunting trip and temporary quarters expenses and $9,000 for real estate expenses, the moving expense deductions would be $1,500 for the househunting trip and temporary quarters expenses and $9,000 for real estate expenses, the moving expense deductions would be $1,500 for the househunting trip and temporary quarters expenses and $9,000 for real estate expenses. If the employee had no reimbursement for a househunting trip and temporary quarters, the full $3,000 would be applied to the $9,000 reimbursement for real estate expenses. (See IRS Publication 521, “Moving Expenses,” for these and other maximums which vary by situation and filing status.)

(3) Procedures and examples are provided herein as if all moving expense reimbursements are received in one year with all moving expense deductions applied in that same year to arrive at the covered taxable reimbursements. However, when reimbursements span more than one year, the amount of covered taxable reimbursements must be determined separately for each reimbursement year (Year 1). The maximum moving expense deductions apply to the entire move. Under IRS tax regulations, the employee has some discretion as to when he/she claims these deductions (e.g., in the year of the move when the expense was paid or in the year of reimbursement, if these actions do not occur in the same year). However, for purposes of the RIT allowance procedures, the moving expense deductions will be applied in the year that the corresponding reimbursement is made. For example, if an employee incurred and was reimbursed $1,000 for a househunting trip and temporary quarters in 1989 and an additional $1,000 for temporary quarters in 1990, this employee, according to his/her particular situation and tax filing status, may deduct $1,500 of these expenses in moving expense deductions. In calculating the RIT allowance for 1989, $1,000 of the $1,500 deduction is used to offset the $1,000 reimbursement in 1989 resulting in zero covered taxable reimbursements for the househunting trip and temporary quarters for 1989. The remaining $500 (balance of the $1,500 not used in determining covered taxable reimbursements for 1989) will be used to offset the $1,000 temporary quarters reimbursement in 1990 (second Year 1), leaving $500 of the temporary quarters reimbursement as a covered taxable reimbursement for 1990.

(4) Although the WTA amount is included in income (see §302–11.7), it shall not be included in the amount of covered taxable reimbursements. Under the procedures and formulas established herein, the proper amount of the RIT allowance is calculated using the RIT gross-up formula with the WTA and any prior RIT allowance payments excluded from covered taxable reimbursements.

(5) Agencies are cautioned that there may be moving expenses reimbursed to the employee that are not covered by the RIT allowance. (See exclusions in §302–11.4; also see discussion in §302–11.7 regarding covered taxable reimbursements versus nondeductible expenses.)
Relocation Allowances

§ 302–11.8

(d) Determination of income level and filing status. In order to determine the CMTR’s needed to calculate the RIT allowance, the employee must determine the appropriate amount of earned income (as prescribed herein) that was or will be reported on his/her Federal tax return for the tax year in which the covered taxable reimbursements were received (Year 1). Such amount will also include the spouse’s earned income if a joint filing status is claimed. For purposes of this regulation, appropriate documentation shall be furnished by the agency. (See §302–11.7(g).) The amount of earned income as determined under this paragraph and the tax filing status (for example, from lines 1 through 5 on the 1987 IRS Form 1040) shall be contained in a certified statement on, or attached to, the voucher claiming the RIT allowance. If the joint filing status is claimed and the spouse’s earned income is included, the spouse must sign the statement, earned income will include only the employee’s earned income and the RIT allowance will be calculated on that basis. This condition will not apply if an employee is allowed, under IRS rules, to file a joint return as a surviving spouse.

(e) Determination of the CMTR’s. The gross-up formula used to calculate the RIT allowance in paragraph (f) of this section, requires the use of two CMTR’s—one for Year 1 in which reimbursements were received and the other for Year 2 in which the RIT allowance is paid. CMTR’s are single tax rates calculated to represent the Federal, State, and/or local income tax rates applicable to the earned income determined for Year 1. (See paragraph (d) of this section.) The CMTR’s will be determined as follows:

(1) Federal marginal tax rates. The Federal marginal tax rates for Year 1 and Year 2 are determined by using the income level and filing status determined under paragraph (d) of this section and contained in the certified statement by the employee (or employee and spouse) on the RIT allowance claim, and applying the prescribed Federal tax tables contained in appendices A and C of this part. For example, if the income level for the 1989 tax year (Year 1) was $84,100 for a married employee filing a Federal joint return, the Federal marginal tax rate would be 33 percent for Year 1 (1989) (see appendix A of this part) and 28 percent for Year 2 (1990) (see appendix C of this part). These rates would be used regardless of how much of the $84,100 was attributable to reimbursement for the employee’s relocation expenses.

Note: These marginal rates are different from the withholding tax rate used for WTA.

If the employee incurs only Federal income tax (i.e., there are no State or local taxes), the Federal marginal tax rates determined from appendices A and C of this part are the CMTR’s to be used in the RIT gross-up formula provided in §302–11.8(f). In such cases, the provisions of paragraphs (e) (2) and (3) of this section do not apply.

(2) State marginal tax rate. (i) If the employee incurs an additional State income tax (see definition in §302–11.5(a)) liability as a result of moving expense reimbursements, the appropriate State tax table in appendix B of this part is to be used to determine the applicable State marginal tax rate that will be substituted into the formula for determining the CMTR for both Year 1 and Year 2. The appropriate State tax table will be the one that corresponds to the tax year in which the reimbursements are paid to the employee (Year 1). The income level determined in paragraph (d) of this section for Federal taxes shall be used to identify the appropriate income bracket in the State tax table. The applicable State marginal tax rate is obtained from the selected income bracket column for the State where the employee is required to pay State income tax on moving expense reimbursements. The tax rates shown in the table apply to all employees regardless of their filing status, except where a separate rate is shown for a single filing status.

(ii) The lowest income bracket shown in the State tax tables in appendix B of this part is $20,000–$24,999. In cases where the employee’s (employee’s and spouse’s, if filing jointly) earned income as determined under paragraph (d) of this section is less than this income bracket, an appropriate State marginal tax rate shall be established by the employing agency from the applicable State tax code or regulations issued pursuant thereto. Such State marginal tax rate shall be representative of the earned income level in question but in no case more than the marginal tax rate established in appendix B of this part for the $20,000–$24,999 income bracket for the particular State in which an additional tax obligation has been incurred.

(iii) The prescribed State marginal tax rates generally are expressed as a percent of taxable income. However, if the applicable State marginal tax rate is stated as a percentage of the Federal income tax liability, the State tax rate must be converted to a percent of taxable income to be used in the CMTR formulas in paragraph (e)(5) of this section. This is accomplished by multiplying the applicable Federal tax rate for Year 1 by the applicable State tax rate. For example, if the Federal tax rate is 33 percent for Year 1 and the State tax rate is 25 percent of the Federal income tax liability, the State tax rate stated as a percent of taxable income would be 8.25 percent. The State tax rate thus determined for Year 1 will be used in determining the CMTR for both Year 1 and Year 2.

(iv) An employee may incur a State income tax liability on moving expense reimbursements in more than one State at the same or different marginal tax rates (i.e., double taxation). For example, an employee may incur taxes on moving expense reimbursements in one State because of residency in that State, and in another State because that particular State taxes income earned within its jurisdiction irrespective of whether the employee is a resident. In such cases, a single State marginal tax rate must be determined for use in the CMTR formulas in paragraph (e)(5) of this section. The general rules in paragraph (e)(2)(iv) (A) through (C) of this section apply in determining the applicable single State marginal tax rate in such cases.

(A) If two or more States impose an income tax on an employee’s moving expense reimbursement, but no two States tax the same portion of the reimbursement, then the reimbursement is not subject to double taxation. In this situation, the average of the applicable State marginal tax rates, as determined under paragraphs (e)(2)(i) through (iii) of this section, shall be treated as being imposed on the entire reimbursement, and shall be used in the CMTR formula.

(B) If two or more States impose an income tax on the moving expense reimbursement, and more than one State taxes the same portion of the reimbursement, then the reimbursement is not subject to double taxation. In this situation, the highest of the applicable State marginal tax rates, as determined under paragraphs (e)(2)(i) through (iii) of this section, shall be used in the CMTR formula.

(C) If two or more States impose an income tax on the moving expense reimbursement, and more than one State taxes the same portion of the reimbursement without allowing an adjustment or credit for income taxes paid to the other State(s), then the reimbursement is subject to double taxation. In this situation, the sum of the applicable State marginal tax rates, as determined under paragraphs (e)(2)(i) through (iii) of this section, shall be used in the CMTR formula.

(3) Local marginal tax rate. Because of the impracticality of establishing a single marginal tax rate table for local income taxes that could be applied uniformly on a nationwide basis, appropriate local marginal tax rates shall be determined as provided in paragraphs (e)(3)(i) through (iii) of this section.

(i) If the employee incurs an additional local income tax (see definition §302-11.5(b)) liability as a result of moving expense reimbursements, he/she shall certify to such fact when claiming the RIT allowance (see certification statement in §302–11.10) by specifying the name of the locality imposing the income tax and the applicable marginal tax rate determined from the actual marginal tax rate table or schedule prescribed by the taxing locality. The marginal tax rate shall be the one applicable to the taxable income portion of the amount of earned income determined under paragraph (d) of this section for the employee (and spouse, if filing jointly). The same tax rate shall be used in calculating the CMTR for both Year 1 and Year 2. The employing agency shall establish procedures to determine whether the employee-certified local marginal tax rate is appropriate for the employee’s income level and filing status and approve its use in the CMTR formulas. (See also §302–11.10(b)(2).)

(ii) If the local marginal tax rate is stated as a percentage of Federal or State income tax liability, such rate must be converted to a percent of taxable income for use in the CMTR formulas. This is accomplished by multiplying the applicable Federal or State tax rate for Year 1 as determined in paragraph (e) (1) or (2) of this section by the applicable local tax rate. For example, if the State tax rate for Year 1 is 6 percent and the local tax rate is 50 percent of State income tax liability, the local tax rate stated as a percentage of taxable income would be 3 percent. The local tax rate thus determined for Year 1 will be used in determining the CMTR for both Year 1 and Year 2.

(iii) The situations described in paragraph (e)(2)(iv) of this section with respect to State income taxes may also be encountered with local income taxes. If such situations do occur, the rules prescribed for determining the single State marginal tax rate shall also be applied to determine the single local marginal tax rate for use in the CMTR formulas.

(i) Marginal tax rates for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, and the U.S. possessions—(i) The Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. A Federal employee who is relocated to or from a point, or between points, in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico may be subject to income tax on the employee’s salary (including moving expense reimbursements) by both the U.S. Government and the government of Puerto Rico. However, under the current law of Puerto Rico, such employee receives a credit on his/her Puerto Rico income tax for the amount of taxes paid to the U.S. Government. The rules in paragraphs (e)(4)(i) (A) through (C) apply in determining the marginal tax rate applicable for transfers to, from, or between points in Puerto Rico.

(A) The applicable Puerto Rico marginal tax rate shall be determined by using the income level determined in paragraph (d) of this section for Federal taxes and the employee’s filing status. The Puerto Rico marginal tax rate for Year 1 will be used in computing the CMTR for both Year 1 and Year 2. The Puerto Rico tax tables are contained in appendix D of this part.

(B) If the applicable Puerto Rico marginal tax rate is higher than the applicable Federal marginal tax rate, then the total amount of taxes paid by the employee to both jurisdictions is equal to the employee’s total income tax liability to the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico before any credit is given for taxes paid to the United States. The Federal marginal tax rate, therefore, is of no consequence and will be disregarded. In such cases, the formula in paragraph (e)(5)(iii) of this section will be used to compute the CMTR. The CMTR formula shall include only the Puerto Rico marginal tax rate, the State marginal tax rate as determined under paragraph (e)(2) of this section (when applicable), and the local marginal tax rate as determined under paragraph (e)(3) of this section. For purposes of applying the Puerto Rico CMTR formula in paragraph (e)(5)(iii) of this section, the State marginal tax rate will be applicable if both Puerto Rico and one or more of the States impose an income tax on the moving expense reimbursement, and more than one of these entities taxes the same portion of the reimbursement without allowing an adjustment or credit for income taxes paid to the other. In this situation, the S component of the CMTR formula will be the applicable State marginal tax rate as determined under paragraph (e)(2) of this section.
§ 302–11.8  41 CFR Ch. 302 (7–1–01 Edition)

(C) If the applicable Puerto Rico marginal tax rate is equal to or lower than the applicable Federal marginal tax rate, then the total amount of taxes paid by the employee to both jurisdictions is equal to the employee’s total Federal income tax liability. The Puerto Rico marginal tax rate, therefore, is of no consequence in such cases and will be disregarded. The CMTR will be computed using the formula in paragraphs (e)(5) (i) and (ii) of this section. This formula will include the Federal marginal tax rate as determined under paragraph (e)(1) of this section, the State marginal tax rate as determined under paragraph (e)(2) of this section, and the local marginal tax rate as determined under paragraph (e)(3) of this section. The State marginal tax rate will be applicable if one or more States impose tax on the moving expense reimbursement.

(ii) The Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands and the U.S. possessions. A Federal employee who is relocated to or from a point, or between points, in the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands or the U.S. possessions (Guam, American Samoa, and the U.S. Virgin Islands) is subject to both Federal income tax and income tax assessed by the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands or the U.S. possession, as applicable. However, the income tax system and rates for the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands and for the U.S. possessions are identical to the U.S. Federal income tax system and rates. This constitutes a “mirror tax” system. A tax credit or exclusion is provided by one of the taxing jurisdictions (either the U.S., the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, or the U.S. possession, as appropriate) to prevent double taxation. The marginal tax rate for the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands or the U.S. possession, therefore, is of no consequence since it is identical to the Federal marginal income tax rate and is completely offset by a corresponding credit or exclusion. Thus, the Commonwealth’s or the possession’s tax rate will not be factored into the CMTR formula. The CMTR will be computed as provided in paragraphs (e)(5) (i) and (ii) based solely on the Federal marginal tax rate; when applicable, the State(s) marginal tax rate; and the local marginal tax rate.

(5) Calculation of the CMTR’s. As stated above, the gross-up formula for calculating the RIT allowance requires the use of two CMTR’s. However, the required CMTR’s cannot be calculated by merely adding the Federal, State, and local marginal tax rates together because of the deductibility of State and local income taxes from income for Federal income tax purposes. The State tax tables prescribed in appendix B of this part are designed to use the same income amount as that determined for the Federal taxes, which reflects, among other things, State and local tax deductions. The formulas prescribed below for calculating the CMTR’s are designed to adjust the State and local tax rates to compensate for their deductibility from income for Federal tax purposes.

(i) Calculation of the CMTR for Year 1. The following formula shall be used to calculate the CMTR for Year 1.

CMTR Formula: X = F + (1 – F)S + (1 – F)L

Where:

X = CMTR for Year 1
F = Federal tax rate for Year 1
S = State tax rate for Year 1
L = Local tax rate for Year 1

(A) Federal, State, and local taxes incurred. If the employee incurs Federal, State, and local income taxes on moving expense reimbursements, the CMTR formula may be solved as follows:

Example:

If:
F=33 percent of income
S=6 percent of income
L=3 percent of income

Then:
X=.33+(1.00-.33).06+(1.00-.33).03
X=.3903

(B) Federal and State income taxes only. If the employee incurs tax liability on moving expense reimbursements for Federal and State income taxes but none for local income tax, the value of “L” is zero and the CMTR formula may be solved as follows:

Example:

If:
F=33 percent of income
S=6 percent of income

Relocation Allowances

§ 302–11.8

Federal and local income taxes only.
If the employee incurs a tax liability on moving expense reimbursements for Federal and local income taxes but none for State income tax, the value of "S" is zero and the CMTR formula may be solved as follows:

Example:
If:
F=33 percent of income
S=Zero
L=3 percent of income
Then:
X=.33+(1.00 ¥ .33).03
X=.3501

(ii) Calculation of the CMTR for Year 2.
The calculation of the CMTR for Year 2 is the same as described for Year 1, except that the Federal tax rate for Year 2 is used in place of the Federal tax rate for Year 1. State and local tax rates remain the same as for Year 1. The following formula shall be used to determine the CMTR for Year 2:

CMTR Formula: W=F+(1 ¥ F)S+(1 ¥ F)L
Where:
W=CMTR for Year 2
F=Federal tax rate for Year 2
S=State tax rate for Year 1
L=local tax rate for Year 1

(iii) Calculation of CMTR's for Puerto Rico. The following formula shall be used to calculate the CMTR for transfers to, from, or between points in Puerto Rico. (This formula is different from the formulas provided in paragraphs (e)(5) (i) and (ii) of this section since the Federal marginal tax rate is disregarded.)

CMTR Formula: X = P + S + L
Where:
X = CMTR for Year 1 and Year 2
P = Puerto Rico tax rate for Year 1
S = State tax rate for Year 1, when applicable (See §302–11.8(e)(4)(i)(B)).
L = Local tax rate for Year 1

(f) Determination of the RIT allowance.
The RIT allowance to cover the tax liability on additional income resulting from the covered taxable reimbursements received in Year 1 is calculated in Year 2 as provided below:

(1) The RIT allowance is calculated by substituting the amount of covered taxable reimbursements for Year 1, the CMTR’s for Year 1 and Year 2, and the total amount of the WTA’s paid in Year 1 into the gross-up formula as follows:

Z= X (R) ¥ 1 ¥ X (Y) ¥ W
Where:
Z=RIT allowance payable in Year 2
X=CMTR for Year 1
W=CMTR for Year 2
R=covered taxable reimbursements
Y=total WTA’s paid in Year 1

Example:
If:
X=.3903
W=.3448
R=$21,800
Y=$5,450
Then:
Z=.5957 ($21,800) ¥ .9306 ($5,450)
Z=$12,986.26 – $5,071.77
Z=$7,914.49

(2) There may be instances when a WTA was not paid in Year 1 at the time moving expense reimbursements were made. In cases where there is no WTA to be deducted, the value of “Y” is zero and the formula stated in paragraph (f)(1) of this section for calculating the amount of the RIT allowance (Z) due to the employee in Year 2 may be solved as shown in the following example:

Example:
If:
X=.3903
W=.3448
R=$21,800
Y=Zero
Then:
§ 302–11.8

41 CFR Ch. 302 (7–1–01 Edition)

198

\[ Z = \frac{.3903}{1.00 - .3448} \times ($21,800) \]

\[ Z = .6957 \times ($21,800) \]

\[ Z = $12,986.26 \]

(3) Certain States do not allow the deduction of all or part of the covered moving expenses that are deductible for Federal income tax purposes. The State gross-up to cover the additional State income tax liability resulting from the covered moving expense reimbursements received in Year 1 that are deductible for Federal income tax purposes but not for State income tax purposes is calculated in Year 2 as follows:

(i) The State gross-up is calculated by substituting the amount of covered moving expense reimbursements that are deductible for Federal income tax purposes but not for State income tax purposes, the Federal tax rate for Year 1, the State tax rate for Year 1, and the combined marginal tax rate for Year 2 into the State gross-up formula as follows:

Formula:

\[ A = \frac{S(1 - F)}{1 - W} \times N \]

Where:

\[ A = \text{State gross-up} \]

\[ F = \text{Federal tax rate for Year 1} \]

\[ S = \text{State tax rate for Year 1} \]

\[ W = \text{CMTR for Year 2} \]

\[ N = \text{covered moving expense reimbursements that are deductible for Federal income tax purposes but not for State income tax purposes} \]

Example:

If:

\[ F = .33 \]

\[ S = .06 \]

\[ W = .3448 \]

\[ N = $9,250 \]

Then:

\[ A = \frac{.06(1 - .33)}{1 - .3448} \times $9,250 \]

\[ A = .0614 \times $9,250 \]

\[ A = $567.95 \]

(ii) Add the State gross-up to the RIT allowance amount as calculated using the formula in paragraph (f)(1) of this section. The result is the RIT allowance adjusted for those States that do not allow moving expense deductions.

Example:

RIT allowance payable in Year 1 .......................... $7,914.49

Plus adjustment factor ...................................... +567.95

Total .................................................... $8,482.44

(4) If the amount of the RIT allowance is greater than zero, it is payable to the employee on the travel voucher as a relocation or moving expense allowance. The RIT allowance amount is included in the employee’s gross income for Year 2 and, therefore, subject to appropriate withholding taxes. (See net payment to employee in paragraph (g) of this section.) The RIT allowance amount will be reported on IRS Form W–2 for Year 2 (including applicable income tax withholding amounts) and on IRS Form 4782 for the employee’s information.

(5) If the calculation of the RIT allowance results in a negative amount, the employee is obligated to repay this amount as a debt due the Government. (See §§ 302–11.7(e)(2) and 302–11.9(b).)

(6) Any changes to the employee’s income level or filing status for Year 1 that would affect the marginal tax rates (Federal, State, or local) used in calculating the RIT allowance must be reported to the agency by the employee as provided in §302–11.9(b)(2). (See also §302–11.10 for certified statement regarding these changes.)

(g) Determination of the net payment due employee in Year 2. Since the amount of the RIT allowance is income to the employee in Year 2, it is subject to the same tax withholding requirements as all other moving expense reimbursements. Agencies should determine the appropriate amounts for withholding taxes under their internal tax withholding procedures. The amount of withholding taxes is deducted from the RIT allowance to arrive at the net payment to the employee.

§ 302–11.9 Responsibilities.

(a) Agency. Finance offices will calculate the amount of the gross-up for the WTA in Year 1 in accordance with procedures outlined herein and credit this amount to the employee at the time of reimbursement as provided in § 302–11.7(e). The WTA will be reflected on the employee’s Form W–2 for Year 1. The RIT allowance may be calculated in Year 2 either by the employee or by the agency finance office based on information provided by the employee on the voucher, as directed by the agency’s implementing policies and procedures. In addition, agencies shall prescribe appropriate and necessary implementing procedures as provided elsewhere in this part.

(b) Employee. (1) The employee is required to submit a claim for the RIT allowance and to file the tax information for Year 1 specified in § 302–11.10 with his/her agency in Year 2, regardless of whether any additional reimbursement for the RIT allowance is owed the employee. (See § 302–11.7(e) for employee agreement.)

(2) If any action occurs (i.e., amended tax return, tax audit, etc.) that would change the information provided in Year 2 by the employee to his/her agency for use in calculating the RIT allowance due the employee for Year 1 taxes, the required supporting documents must be provided by the employee to his/her agency under procedures prescribed by the agency. (See § 302–11.10.)

(3) If the calculation of the RIT allowance results in a negative amount, the employee is obligated to repay this amount as a debt due the Government. (See §§ 302–11.7(e)(2) and 302–11.8(f)(5).)

§ 302–11.10 Claims for payment and supporting documentation and verification.

(a) Claims forms. Claims for payment of the RIT allowance shall be submitted by the employee in Year 2 on SF 1012 (Travel Voucher) or other authorized travel voucher form. When claiming payment for the RIT allowance, the employee shall furnish and certify to certain tax information that has been or will be shown on his/her actually prepared tax returns. The spouse must also sign statement if joint filing status is claimed and spouse’s income is included on statement. This information shall be contained in a certified statement on, or attached to, the SF 1012 reading essentially as follows:

CERTIFIED STATEMENT

I certify that the following information, which is to be used in calculating the RIT allowance to which I am entitled, has been (or will be) shown on the income tax returns filed (or to be filed) by me (or by my spouse and me) with the applicable Federal, State, and local (specify which) tax authorities for the 19___ tax year.

—Gross compensation as shown on attached IRS Form(s) W–2 and, if applicable, net earnings (or loss) from self-employment income shown on attached Schedule SE (Form 1040):

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

</table>

—Filing status: (Specify one of the filing status items that was (or will be) claimed on IRS Form 1040.)

—Marginal tax rates from appendices A, B, and C of 41 CFR part 302–11 and local tax tables derived under procedures prescribed in 41 CFR part 302–11:

The above information is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I (we) agree to notify the appropriate agency official of any changes to the above (i.e., from amended tax returns, tax audit, etc.) so that appropriate adjustments to the RIT allowance can be made. The required supporting documents are attached. Additional documentation will be furnished if requested.

I (we) further agree that if the 12-month service agreement required by 41 CFR 302–1.5 is violated, the total amount of the RIT allowance will become a debt due the United States Government and will be repaid according to agency procedures.

1If a joint filing status is claimed and spouse’s income is included, the spouse must... sign the statement. If the spouse does not sign the document, earned income will include only the employee’s earned income as provided in 41 CFR 302–11.8(d). This condition will not apply if an employee is allowed, under IRS rules, to file a joint return as a surviving spouse.

(b) Supporting documentation/verification. The claim for the RIT allowance shall be supported by documentation attached to the voucher and by verification of State and local tax obligations as provided below:

(1) Copies of the appropriate IRS Forms W–2 and, if applicable, the completed IRS Schedule SE (Form 1040) shall be attached to the voucher to substantiate the income amounts shown in the certified statement. Employee (and spouse, if filing jointly) must agree to provide additional documentation to verify income amounts, filing status, and State and local income tax obligations if requested by the agency.

(2) In order to determine or verify whether a particular State or local tax authority imposes a tax on moving expense reimbursements, it is incumbent upon the appropriate agency officials to become familiar with the State and local tax laws that affect their transffering employees. In cases where the taxability of moving expense reimbursements is not clear, an agency may pay a RIT allowance which reflects only those State and local tax obligations that are clearly imposed under State and local tax law. Once the questionable State or local tax obligations are resolved, agencies may recompute the RIT allowance and make appropriate payment adjustments.

(c) Fraudulent claims. A claim against the Government is forfeited if the claimant defrauds or attempts to defraud the Government in connection therewith (28 U.S.C. 2514). In addition, there are two criminal provisions under which severe penalties may be imposed on an employee who knowingly presents a false, fictitious, or fraudulent claim against the Government (18 U.S.C. 287 and 1001). The employee’s claim for payment of the RIT allowance shall accurately reflect the facts involved in every instance so that any violation of these provisions will be avoided.

§ 302–11.11 Violation of service agreement.

In the event the employee violates the terms of the service agreement required under §302–1.5, no part of the RIT allowance or the WTA will be paid, and any amounts paid prior to such violation shall be a debt due the Government until they are repaid by the employee.

1 Earned income amounts that fall between the income brackets shown in this table (e.g., $24,999.45, $49,999.75) should be rounded to the nearest dollar to determine the marginal tax rate to be used in calculating the RIT allowance.

2 If the earned income amount is less than the lowest income bracket shown in this table, the employing agency shall establish an appropriate marginal tax rate as provided in §302-11.8(e)(2)(ii).

3 This rate applies only to those individuals certifying that they will file under a single status within the States where they will pay income taxes. All other taxpayers, regardless of filing status, will use the other rate shown.

4 Rates shown as a percent of Federal income tax liability must be converted to a percent of income as provided in §302-11.8(e)(iii).
The following table is to be used to determine the State marginal tax rates for calculation of the RIT allowance as prescribed in §302–11.8(e)(2). This table is to be used for employees who received covered taxable reimbursements during calendar year 1986.

* Earned income amounts that fall between the income brackets shown in this table (e.g., $24,999.45, $49,999.75) should be rounded to the nearest dollar to determine the marginal tax rate to be used in calculating the RIT allowance.

*2 If the earned income amount is less than the lowest income bracket shown in this table, the employing agency shall establish an appropriate marginal tax rate as provided in §302–11.8(e)(2)(ii).
Relocation Allowances

Pt. 302–11, App. B

This rate applies only to those individuals certifying that they will file under a single status within the States where they will pay income taxes. All other taxpayers, regardless of filing status, will use the other rate shown.

State Marginal Tax Rates by Earned Income Level—Tax Year 1990

The following table is to be used to determine the State marginal tax rates for calculation of the RIT allowance as prescribed in §302–11.8(e)(2). This table is to be used for employees who received covered taxable reimbursements during calendar year 1990.

1 Earnings income amounts that fall between the income brackets shown in this table (e.g., $24,999.45, $49,999.75) should be rounded to the nearest dollar to determine the marginal tax rate to be used in calculating the RIT allowance.

2 If the earned income amount is less than the lowest income bracket shown in this table, the employing agency shall establish an appropriate marginal tax rate as provided in §302-11.8(e)(2)(iii).

3 This rate applies only to those individuals certifying that they will file under a single status within the States where they will pay income taxes. All other taxpayers, regardless of filing status, will use the other rate shown.

4 The income tax rate for Rhode Island (for single status) is 27.5 percent of Federal income tax liability for employees whose earned income amounts are between $20,000–$24,999; 32 percent of Federal income tax liability for employees whose earned income amounts are between $25,000–$49,999; 27.55 percent of Federal income tax liability for employees whose earned income amounts are between $50,000–$74,999; and 25.05 percent of Federal income tax liability for employees whose earned income amounts are $75,000 and over. Rates shown as a percent of Federal income tax liability must be converted to a percent of income as provided in §302-11.8(e)(2)(iii).

5 The income tax rate for Vermont (for single status) is 28 percent of Federal income tax liability for employees whose earned income amounts are between $20,000–$24,999; 31 percent of Federal income tax liability for employees whose earned income amounts are between $25,000–$74,999; and 34 percent of Federal income tax liability for employees whose earned income amounts are $75,000 and over. Rates shown as a percent of Federal income tax liability must be converted to a percent of income as provided in §302-11.8(e)(2)(iii).

6 The income tax rate for Vermont (for other than single status) is 28 percent of Federal income tax liability for employees whose earned income amounts are between $20,000–$24,999; 31 percent of Federal income tax liability for employees whose earned income amounts are between $25,000–$74,999; and 34 percent of Federal income tax liability for employees whose earned income amounts are $75,000 and over. Rates shown as a percent of Federal income tax liability must be converted to a percent of income as provided in §302-11.8(e)(2)(iii).

7 The income tax rate for Vermont (for single status) is 28 percent of Federal income tax liability for employees whose earned income amounts are between $20,000–$24,999; 31 percent of Federal income tax liability for employees whose earned income amounts are between $20,000–$24,999; 34 percent of Federal income tax liability for employees whose earned income amounts are $50,000 and over. Rates shown as a percent of Federal income tax liability must be converted to a percent of income as provided in §302-11.8(e)(2)(iii).

\(^1\) Earned income amounts that fall between the income brackets shown in this table (e.g., $24,999.45, $49,999.75) should be rounded to the nearest dollar to determine the marginal tax rate to be used in calculating the RIT allowance.

\(^2\) If the earned income amount is less than the lowest income bracket shown in this table, the employing agency shall establish an appropriate marginal tax rate as provided in §302-11.8(e)(2)(i).

\(^3\) This rate applies only to those individuals certifying that they will file under a single status within the States where they will pay income taxes. All other taxpayers, regardless of filing status, will use the other rate shown.

\(^4\) The income tax rate for Rhode Island (for other than single status) is 27.5 percent of Federal income tax liability for employees whose earned income amounts fall between $24,999 and $25,000.

\(^5\) If single status 3.

\(^6\) This rate applies only to those individuals certifying that they will file under a single status within the States where they will pay income taxes. All other taxpayers, regardless of filing status, will use the other rate shown.

\(^7\) The income tax rate for Rhode Island (for other than single status) is 27.5 percent of Federal income tax liability for employees whose earned income amounts fall between $24,999 and $25,000.

\(^8\) If single status 3.
Federal income tax liability must be converted to a percent of income as provided in an appropriate marginal tax rate as provided in rounded to the nearest dollar to determine the marginal tax rate to be used in calculating the RIT allowance.

1. Earned income amounts that fall between the income brackets shown in this table (e.g., $24,999.45, $49,999.75) should be rounded to the nearest dollar to determine the marginal tax rate to be used in calculating the RIT allowance.
2. If the earned income amount is less than the lowest income bracket shown in this table, the employer agency shall establish an appropriate marginal tax rate as provided in §302–11.8(e)(2)(ii).
3. This rate applies only to those individuals certifying that they will file under a single status within the States where they will pay income taxes. All other taxpayers, regardless of filing status, will use the other rate shown.
4. The income tax rate for Rhode Island is 27.5 percent of Federal income tax liability for all employees. Rates shown as a percent of Federal income tax liability must be converted to a percent of income as provided in §302–11.8(e)(2)(iii).
5. The income tax rate for Vermont is 25 percent of Federal income tax liability for all employees. Rates shown as a percent of Federal income tax liability must be converted to a percent of income as provided in §302–11.8(e)(2)(iii).

1 Earned income amounts that fall between the income brackets shown in this table (e.g., $24,999.45, $49,999.75) should be rounded to the nearest dollar to determine the marginal tax rate to be used in calculating the RIT allowance.

2 If the earned income amount is less than the lowest income bracket shown in this table, the employing agency shall establish an appropriate marginal tax rate as provided in §302–11.8(e)(2)(ii).

3 This rate applies only to those individuals certifying that they will file under a single status within the States where they will pay income taxes. All other taxpayers, regardless of filing status, will use the other rate shown.
Relocation Allowances

Pt. 302–11, App. C

The income tax rate for Rhode Island is 26.5 percent of Federal income tax liability for all employees. Rates shown as a percent of Federal income tax liability must be converted to a percent of income as provided in §302–11.8(e)(2)(iii).

The income tax rate for Vermont is 25 percent of Federal income tax liability for all employees. Rates shown as a percent of Federal income tax liability must be converted to a percent of income as provided in §302–11.8(e)(2)(iii).

Subpart A—Agency’s Use of a Relocation Services Company

NOTE TO SUBPART A: Use of the pronouns “we” and “you” throughout this subpart refers to the agency.

§ 302-12.1 What are “relocation services”?

“Relocation services” are services provided by a private company under a contract with an agency to assist a transferred employee in relocating to the new official station. Examples include homesale programs, home marketing assistance, home finding assistance, and property management services.

§ 302-12.2 May we enter into a contract with a relocation services company for the company to provide relocation services?

Yes.

§ 302-12.3 What contracted relocation services may we provide at Government expense?

You may pay for contracted relocation services that are a substitute for reimbursable relocation allowances authorized throughout this chapter. For example, you may pay for homesale services as a substitute for residence sale expenses, or household goods management services as a substitute for transportation of household goods.

§ 302-12.4 May we separately contract for each type of relocation service?

Yes, or you may combine several types of relocation services in a single contract.

§ 302-12.5 What is the purpose of contracting for relocation services?

To improve the treatment of employees who are directed to relocate to facilitate the retention of a well-qualified workforce.

§ 302-12.6 How must we administer a relocation services contract?

You must balance the positive effects that availability of relocation services has on employee mobility and morale with any increased costs your agency...
§ 302–12.7 What policies must we establish when offering our employees the services of a relocation services company?

You must establish policies governing:
(a) The conditions under which you will authorize an employee to use a relocation services company;
(b) Which employees you will allow to use a relocation services company;
(c) What relocation services you will offer an employee; and
(d) Who will determine in each case if an employee may use a relocation services company and what services will be offered.

§ 302–12.8 What rules must we follow when contracting for relocation services?

The rules contained in the Federal Acquisition Regulations (FAR) (48 CFR) and/or other procurement regulations applicable to you.

§ 302–12.9 What are the income tax consequences that we must consider when offering relocation services?

Amounts you pay to a relocation services company on behalf of an employee may be taxable to the employee. In some cases, such as with certain homesale programs, the amounts may not be taxable. You must determine the taxability of such payments, and pay a relocation income tax (RIT) allowance in accordance with part 302–11 of this chapter on payments you determine to be taxable to the employee. You may contact the Assistant Chief Counsel (Income Tax & Accounting), Internal Revenue Service, 1111 Constitution Avenue, NW., Room 5501, Washington, DC 20224, for information on the income tax consequences of payments you make to a relocation services company.

§ 302–12.10 What must we consider in deciding whether to use the fixed-fee or cost-reimbursable contracting method?

You must consider the following factors in deciding which contracting method to use:
(a) Risk of alternative methods. Under a fixed fee contract, the relocation services company bears all risks not expressly contained in the contract. Under a cost-reimbursable contract, you must assume some or all risks and, therefore, must assume some management responsibilities under the contract as well. For example, under a fixed fee homesale program you are not directly liable for losses incurred if a residence does not sell immediately, while under a cost-reimbursable homesale program you assume some or all risks of selling the residence.

(b) Cost of alternative methods. Under the fixed fee method of contracting, the fee includes a cost component for risk assumed by the relocation services company. Under the cost-reimbursable method of contracting, you are directly responsible for some or all of the costs associated with management of the contract. In deciding whether to use cost-reimbursable contracting you, therefore, must consider the cost of resources you would require (including personnel costs) to manage a cost-reimbursable relocation services contract.

(c) Effect on the obligation of funds. You must obligate funds for a relocation in the fiscal year in which the purchase order is awarded under the contract. Under the fixed fee contracting method, the amount of the relocation services fee is fixed and you have a basis for determining the amount of funds to obligate. Under the cost-reimbursable contracting method, you must obligate funds based on an estimate of the costs that will be incurred. When opting for cost-reimbursable contracting you, therefore, should establish a reliable method of computing fund obligation estimates.
§ 302–12.11 May we take title to an employee’s residence?

No, you may not take title to an employee’s residence except as specifically provided by statute. The statutes which form the basis for the provisions of this part do not provide such authority.

§ 302–12.12 Under a homesale program, may we establish a maximum home value above which we will not pay for homesale services?

Yes. If a home exceeding the maximum value is sold under your homesale program, the employee will be responsible for any additional costs. You must establish a maximum amount commensurate with your agency’s experience. You may consider, among other factors, budgetary constraints, the value range of homes in areas where you have offices, and the value range of homes previously entered in your program.

§ 302–12.13 Under a homesale program, may we pay an employee for losses he/she incurs on the sale of a residence?

No. But, this does not preclude your reimbursing a relocation services company for losses incurred while the contractor holds the property.

§ 302–12.14 Under a homesale program, may we direct the relocation services company to pay an employee more than the fair market value of his/her residence?

No. Under a homesale program you may not direct the relocation services company to pay an employee more than the fair market value (as determined by the residence appraisal process) of his/her home.

§ 302–12.15 May we use a relocation services contract for services which we are contractually bound to obtain under another travel services contract?

No. For example, you may not use a relocation services contract to circumvent the travel and transportation expense payment system contract if you are a user of that contract.
Relocation Allowances

§ 302–12.105 What expenses will my agency pay if I use a relocation services company to ship household goods in excess of the maximum weight allowance?

Your agency will pay the portion of the fee attributable to 18,000 pounds net weight. You must pay the rest.

§ 302–12.106 What expenses will my agency pay if I use a relocation services company to sell or purchase a residence for which I and/or a member(s) of my immediate family do not have full title?

Your agency will pay the portion of the relocation services company’s fee attributable to your pro rata share of the residence, as determined in accordance with § 302–6.1(f) of this chapter. You must pay any portion of the fee attributable to other than your pro rata share of the residence.

§ 302–12.107 If my agency authorizes me to enter a homesale program, must I accept a buyout offer from the relocation services company?

No. Your agency must give you the option to accept or reject an offer from the relocation services company.

§ 302–12.108 What are the income tax consequences if I use a relocation services company?

You may incur income taxes on relocation services provided by a relocation services company and paid for by your agency. Section 82 of the Internal Revenue Code states there shall be included in gross income (as compensation for services) any amount received or accrued, directly or indirectly, by an individual as a payment for or reimbursement of expenses of moving from one residence to another residence which is attributable to employment. You will receive a relocation income tax (RIT) allowance if your agency determines that such expenses are taxable. The Government does not assume responsibility for payment of your taxes, however, and you may wish to consult a tax professional on income tax reporting.

Source: FTR Amdt. 61, 62 FR 13763, Mar. 21, 1997, unless otherwise noted.

Subpart A—Payment of Incentive to the Employee

Note to Subpart A: Use of the pronouns “I” and “you” throughout this subpart refers to the employee.

§ 302–14.1 What is a “homesale program”?

It is a program offered by an agency through a contractual arrangement with a relocation services company. The relocation services company purchases a transferred employee’s residence at fair market (appraised) value and then independently markets and sells the residence.
§ 302–14.2 What is the purpose of a home marketing incentive payment?

To reduce the Government's relocation costs by encouraging transferred employees who participate in their employing agency's home sale program to independently and aggressively market and find a bona fide buyer for their residence. This significantly reduces the fees/expenses their agencies must pay to relocation services companies and effectively lowers the cost of such programs.

§ 302–14.3 Am I eligible to receive a home marketing incentive payment?

Yes, if you are an employee who is authorized to transfer and you otherwise meet requirements for sale of your residence at Government expense.

§ 302–14.4 Must my agency pay me a home marketing incentive?

No. Your agency determines when it is in the Government's interest to offer you a home marketing incentive.

§ 302–14.5 Under what circumstances will I receive a home marketing incentive payment?

You will receive a home marketing incentive payment when:
(a) You enter your residence in your agency's home sale program;
(b) You independently and aggressively market your residence;
(c) You find a bona fide buyer for your residence as a result of your independent marketing efforts;
(d) You transfer the residence to the relocation services company;
(e) Your agency pays a reduced fee/expenses to the relocation services company as a result of your independent marketing efforts; and
(f) You meet any additional conditions your agency has established, including but not limited to, mandatory marketing periods, list price guidelines, closing requirements, and residence value caps.

§ 302–14.6 How much may my agency pay me for a home marketing incentive?

Your agency determines the amount of your home marketing incentive payment. The incentive payment, however, may not exceed the lesser of:
(a) Five percent of the price the relocation services company paid when it purchased the residence from you; or
(b) The savings your agency realized from the reduced fee/expenses it paid as a result of your finding a bona fide buyer.

§ 302–14.7 Are there tax consequences when I receive a home marketing incentive payment?

Yes, the home marketing incentive payment is considered income. Consequently, you will be taxed, and your agency will withhold income and employment taxes, on the home marketing incentive payment. You will not, however, receive a withholding tax allowance (WTA) to offset the withholding on your home marketing incentive payment, nor will you receive a relocation income tax (RIT) allowance payment for substantially all of your Federal, state and local income taxes on the incentive payment.

Subpart B—Agency Responsibilities

NOTE TO SUBPART B: Use of the pronouns "we" and "you" throughout this subpart refers to the agency.

§ 302–14.100 How should we administer our home marketing incentive payment program?

Your goal in using an incentive payment program is to reduce your overall relocation costs. You must not make a home marketing incentive payment that exceeds the savings you realize from the reduced fees/expenses you pay the relocation services company.

§ 302–14.101 What policies must we establish to govern our home marketing incentive payment program?

You must establish policies to govern:
(a) The conditions under which you will authorize a home marketing incentive payment for an employee;
(b) The amount of the home marketing incentive payment(s) you will offer (or the method you will use to compute your home marketing incentive payments); and
Relocation Allowances

(c) Who will determine in each case whether a home marketing incentive payment is authorized.

§ 302–14.102 What factors should we consider in determining whether to establish a home marketing incentive payment program?

You should consider:
(a) Whether the program will increase the percentage of residences sold for which employees find a bona fide buyer. You should establish a benchmark for the percentage of residences for which you expect employees to find a bona fide buyer resulting in lower homesale costs to you. If your historical percentage of employee-generated sales is below your benchmark, a home marketing incentive payment program may benefit you.

(b) The expected net savings from a home marketing incentive payment program.

§ 302–14.103 What factors should we consider in determining the amount of a home marketing incentive payment?

You should consider:
(a) Amount of savings from reduced fee/expenses paid to the relocation services company. The home marketing incentive payment program is intended to reduce your relocation costs. The amount of each home marketing incentive payment you make, therefore, must not exceed the savings you realize from the reduced fee you pay to the relocation services company.

(b) Employee’s efforts in marketing the residence. The purpose of a home marketing incentive payment program is to encourage a transferred employee who participates in a homesale program to independently and aggressively market his/her residence and find a bona fide buyer.

PART 302–15—ALLOWANCE FOR PROPERTY MANAGEMENT SERVICES

Subpart A—General Rules for the Employee

Sec.
302–15.1 What are “property management services”?

302–15.2 What are the purposes of the allowance for property management services?

302–15.3 Am I eligible for payment for property management services under this subpart?

302–15.4 Who is not eligible for payment for property management services?

302–15.5 Is my agency required to authorize payment for property management services?

302–15.6 Under what circumstances may my agency authorize payment under this part?

302–15.7 For what property may my agency authorize payment under this part?

Subpart A—General Rules for the Employee

NOTE TO SUBPART A: Use of the pronouns “I” and “you” throughout this subpart refers to the employee.

243
§ 302–15.1 What are “property management services”?

“Property management services” are programs provided by private companies for a fee, which help an employee to manage his/her residence at the old official station as a rental property. These services typically include, but are not limited to, obtaining a tenant, negotiating the lease, inspecting the property regularly, managing repairs and maintenance, enforcing lease terms, collecting the rent, paying the mortgage and other carrying expenses from rental proceeds and/or funds of the employee, and accounting for the transactions and providing periodic reports to the employee.

§ 302–15.2 What are the purposes of the allowance for property management services?

The purpose is to reduce overall Government relocation costs when used instead of sale of the employee’s residence at Government expense. When authorized in connection with an employee’s transfer to a foreign post of duty, the purpose is to relieve the employee of the costs of maintaining a home in the United States while stationed at a foreign post of duty.

§ 302–15.3 Am I eligible for payment for property management services under this subpart?

Yes, when:
(a) You transfer in the interest of the Government; and
(b) You and/or (a) member(s) of your immediate family hold title to a residence which you are eligible to sell at Government expense under part 302–6 or 302–12 of this chapter.

§ 302–15.4 Who is not eligible for payment for property management services?

New appointees, employees assigned under the Government Employees Training Act (5 U.S.C. 4109), and employees transferring wholly outside the United States are not eligible. However, relocations wholly outside the United States do not affect previously authorized property management services as long as the employee continues to meet the requirements of §302–15.6 and any other conditions established by the agency.

§ 302–15.5 Is my agency required to authorize payment for property management services?

No, your agency determines:
(a) When you meet the conditions set forth in §302–15.3;
(b) When to authorize payment for these services; and
(c) What procedures you must follow when it authorizes such payment.

§ 302–15.6 Under what circumstances may my agency authorize payment under this part?

(a) For a relocation to an official station in the United States, your agency may authorize payment under this part when:
(1) You are being returned from a foreign post of duty to a different official station than the one from which you were transferred for your foreign tour of duty;
(2) Your agency has determined that property management services are more advantageous and cost effective for the Government than sale of your residence;
(3) You have signed a service agreement; and
(4) You meet any other conditions that your agency has established.

(b) For relocations to official stations outside the United States, your agency will authorize payment under this part when you meet conditions set forth in paragraphs (a)(3) and (a)(4) of this section.

§ 302–15.7 For what property may my agency authorize payment under this part?

Payment may be authorized only on your residence at the last official station in the United States from which you transferred.

§ 302–15.8 When my agency authorizes payment for me under this part, am I obligated to use such services, or may I elect instead to sell my residence at Government expense?

You are not obligated to use your authorized property management services allowance. You have the option of...
Relocation Allowances

§ 302–15.70

choosing to sell your residence at Government expense or to use the property management services allowance.

§ 302–15.9 Must I repay property management expenses my agency paid under this part if I elect to sell my former residence in the United States at Government expense when I am transferred from my current foreign post of duty to an official station in the United States other than the one I left?

No. The authority for your agency to pay for property management services under this part when you are transferred to a foreign post of duty arises from your transfer to the foreign post of duty and is separate from, and in addition to, the authority to sell your residence at Government expense when you are transferred to an official station in the United States other than the official station from which you were transferred to the foreign post of duty.

§ 302–15.10 How long may my agency pay under this part?

Your agency may pay:

(a) For transfers within the United States, a period not to exceed 2 years from your effective date of transfer, with up to a 1-year extension, under the same conditions required in §302–6.1(e)(2) of this chapter; or

(b) From the time you transfer to a foreign post of duty until one of the following occurs:

(1) You transfer back to an official station in the United States;

(2) You complete a service agreement at your post of duty and remain there, but do not sign a new service agreement; or

(3) You separate from Government service.

§ 302–15.11 If my agency authorized, and I elected to receive, payment for property management expenses, may I later elect to sell my residence at Government expense?

Yes, provided:

(a) Your agency allows you to change your election of payment for property management expenses to an election of sale of your residence at Government expense; and

(b) Payment for sale of your residence at Government expense is offset in accordance with your agency’s policy established under §302–15.70(d).

§ 302–15.12 If my agency is paying for property management services under this part, and my service agreement expires, what must I do to ensure that payment for property management services continues?

You must sign a new service agreement. (See §302–1.5 of this chapter.)

§ 302–15.13 What are the income tax consequences when my agency pays for my property management services?

You will be taxed on the amount of expenses your agency pays for property management services whether it reimburses you directly or whether it pays a relocation services company to manage your residence. Your agency must pay you a relocation income tax (RIT) allowance for the additional Federal, State and local income taxes you incur on property management expenses it reimburses you or pays on your behalf. You may wish to consult with a tax advisor to determine whether you will incur any additional tax liability, unrelated to your agency’s payment of your property management expenses, as a result of maintaining your residence as a rental property.

Subpart B—Agency Responsibilities

Note to Subpart B: Use of the pronouns “we” and “you” throughout this subpart refers to the agency.

§ 302–15.70 What governing policies must we establish for the allowance for property management services?

You must establish policies and procedures governing:

(a) When you will authorize payment for property management services for an employee who transfers in the interest of the Government;

(b) Who will determine, for relocations to official stations in the United States, whether payment for property management services is more advantageous and cost effective than sale of § 302–15.70

an employee’s residence at Government expense;

(c) If and when you will allow an employee who was offered and accepted payment for property management services to change his/her mind and elect instead to sell his/her residence at Government expense in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section; and

(d) How you will offset expenses you have paid for property management services against payable expenses for sale of the employee’s residence when an eligible employee who elected payment for property management services later changes his/her mind and elects instead to sell his/her residence at Government expense.

SOURCE: FTR Amdt. 76, 64 FR 2434, Jan. 14, 1999, unless otherwise noted.

Subpart A—General Policies

§ 303–70.1 When must we authorize payment of expenses related to an employee’s death?

When, at the time of death, the employee was:
(a) On official travel; or
(b) Performing official duties outside CONUS; or
(c) Absent from duty as provided in §303–70.3; or 249

§ 303–70.2
(d) Reassigned away from his/her home of record under a mandatory mobility agreement.

§ 303–70.2 Must we pay death-related expenses when the employee’s death is not work-related?
Yes, provided the requirements in § 303–70.1 are met.

§ 303–70.3 Must we pay death-related expenses for an employee who dies while on leave, or who dies on a nonworkday while on TDY or stationed outside CONUS?
Yes. However, payment cannot exceed the amount allowed if death had occurred at the temporary duty station or at the official station outside CONUS.

§ 303–70.4 May we pay death-related expenses under this chapter if the same expenses are payable under other laws of the United States?
No.

NOTE TO SUBPART A: When an employee dies from injuries sustained while performing official duty, death-related expenses are payable under the Federal Employees’ Compensation Act (FECA), 5 U.S.C. 8134. For further information contact the Department of Labor, Federal Employees’ Compensation Division, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20210.

Subpart B—General Procedures
§ 303–70.100 May we pay the travel expenses for an escort for the remains of a deceased employee?
Yes, in accordance with §§ 303–70.600 through 303–70.602.
[FTR Amdt. 86, 64 FR 45891, Aug. 23, 1999]

§ 303–70.101 Must we provide assistance in arranging for preparation and transportation of employee remains?
Yes.

Subpart C—Allowances for Preparation and Transportation of Remains § 303–70.200 What costs must we pay for preparation and transportation of remains?
All actual costs including but not limited to:
(a) Preparation of remains:
(1) Embalming or cremation;
(2) Necessary clothing;
(3) A casket or container suitable for shipment to place of burial;
(4) Expenses necessary to comply with local laws at the port of entry in the United States; and
(b) Transportation of remains by common carrier (that is normally used for transportation of remains), hearse, other means, or a combination thereof, from the temporary duty station or official station outside CONUS to the employee’s residence, official station, or place of burial, including but not limited to:
(1) Movement from place of death to a mortuary and/or cemetery;
(2) Shipping permits;
(3) Outside case for shipment and sealing of the case if necessary;
(4) Removal to and from the common carrier; and
(5) Ferry fares, bridge tolls, and similar charges.

NOTE TO §303–70.200: Costs for an outside case are not authorized for transportation by hearse. Costs for transportation by hearse or other means cannot exceed the cost of common carrier (that is normally used for transportation of remains). Transportation costs to the place of burial cannot exceed the actual cost of transportation to the employee’s residence.

Subpart D—Transportation of Immediate Family Members, Baggage, and Household Goods § 303–70.300 Must we pay transportation costs to return the deceased employee’s baggage?
Yes, you must pay transportation costs to return the deceased employee’s baggage to his/her official duty station or residence. However, you may not pay insurance of or reimbursement for loss or damage to baggage.

§ 303–70.301 Are there any limitations on the baggage we may transport?
Yes. You may only transport government property and the employee’s personal property.
§ 303–70.302 When the employee dies at or while in transit to or from his/her official station outside CONUS, must we return the employee’s immediate family, baggage and household goods to the residence or alternate destination?

Yes. However, your agency head or his/her designated representative must approve the family’s election to return to an alternate destination, and the allowable expenses cannot exceed the cost of transportation to the decedent’s residence. Travel and transportation must begin within one year from the date of the employee’s death. A one-year extension may be granted if requested by the family prior to the expiration of the one-year limit.

§ 303–70.303 Must we continue payment of relocation expenses for an employee’s immediate family if the employee dies while in transit to his/her new duty station within CONUS?

Yes, if the immediate family chooses to continue the relocation, you must continue payment of relocation expenses for the immediate family if the immediate family was included on the employee’s relocation travel orders. (See §303–70.305.)

§ 303–70.304 Must we continue payment of relocation expenses for an employee’s immediate family if the employee dies after reporting to the new duty station within CONUS, but the family was in transit to the new duty station or had not begun its en route travel?

Yes, if the immediate family chooses to continue the relocation, you must continue payment of relocation expenses for the immediate family if the immediate family was included on the employee’s relocation travel orders. (See §303–70.305.)

§ 303–70.305 What relocation expenses must we authorize for the immediate family under §§ 303–70.303 and 303–70.304?

When the immediate family chooses to continue the relocation, the following expenses must be authorized: (a) Travel to the new duty station; or (b) Travel to an alternate destination, selected by the immediate family, not to exceed the remaining constructive cost of travel to the new duty station.

(c) Temporary quarters not to exceed 60 days, to be paid at the per diem rate for an unaccompanied spouse and immediate family.

(d) Shipment of household goods to the new or old duty station, or to an alternate destination selected by the immediate family. However, the cost may not exceed the constructive cost of transportation between the old and the new duty stations.

(e) Storage of household goods not to exceed 90 days.

(f) Reimbursement of real estate expenses incident to the relocation.

(g) Shipment of POV to the new or old duty station, or to an alternate destination, selected by the immediate family. However, the cost may not exceed the constructive cost of transportation between the old and the new duty stations.

Subpart E—Preparation and Transportation Expenses for Remains of Immediate Family Members

§ 303–70.400 When an immediate family member, residing with the employee, dies while the employee is stationed outside CONUS, must we furnish mortuary services?

Yes, if requested by the employee and when:

(a) Local commercial mortuary facilities or supplies are not available; or

(b) The cost of available mortuary facilities or supplies are prohibitive as determined by your agency head.

Note to §303–70.400: The employee must reimburse you for all furnished mortuary facilities and supplies.

§ 303–70.401 When an immediate family member, residing with the employee, dies while the employee is stationed outside CONUS, must we pay expenses to transport the remains?

Yes, if requested by the employee, payment must be made to transport the remains to the residence of the immediate family member. The employee may elect an alternate destination, § 303–70.402  which must be approved by your agency head or his/her designated representative. In that case, the allowable expenses cannot exceed the cost of transportation to the decedent’s residence.

§ 303–70.402  When an immediate family member, residing with the employee, dies while the employee is stationed outside CONUS, may we pay burial expenses?

No.

§ 303–70.403  When a family member, residing with the employee, dies while in transit to or from the employee’s duty station outside CONUS, must we furnish mortuary services and/or transportation of the remains?

You must furnish transportation if requested by the employee. You must follow the guidelines in §303–70.401 for transportation expenses. You must furnish mortuary services only if the conditions in §303–70.400 are met.

Subpart F—Policies and Procedures for Payment of Expenses

§ 303–70.500  Are receipts required for claims for reimbursement?

Yes.

§ 303–70.501  To whom should we make payment?

You should pay:

(a) The person performing the service; or

(b) Reimburse the person who made the original payment.

Subpart G—Escort of Remains

SOURCE: FTR Amdt. 86, 64 FR 45891, Aug. 23, 1999, unless otherwise noted.

§ 303–70.600  How many persons may we authorize travel expenses for to escort the remains of a deceased employee?

Travel expenses may be authorized for no more than two persons.

§ 303–70.601  Under what circumstances may we authorize the escort of remains?

Escort of remains may be authorized when the employee’s death occurs:

(a) While in a travel status away from his/her official station in the United States; or

(b) While performing official duties outside the United States or in transit thereto or therefrom.

§ 303–70.602  What travel expenses may we authorize for the escort of remains?

You may authorize any travel expenses in accordance with chapter 301 of this title that are necessary for the escort of remains to:

(a) The home or official station of the deceased; or

(b) Any other place appropriate for interment as determined by the head of your agency.

PART 304—ACCEPTANCE OF PAYMENT FROM A NON-FEDERAL SOURCE FOR TRAVEL EXPENSES

Sec. 304–1.1 Authority.
304–1.2 General.
304–1.3 Policy.
304–1.4 Conditions for acceptance.
304–1.5 Conflict-of-interest analysis.
304–1.6 Payment guidelines.
304–1.7 Reimbursement claims for official travel expenses.
304–1.8 Limitations and penalties.
304–1.9 Reports.

SOURCE: 57 FR 53289, Nov. 9, 1992, unless otherwise noted.

§ 304–1.1 Authority.
This part is issued under the authority of 31 U.S.C. 1353 and 5 U.S.C. 5701–5709.

§ 304–1.2 General.
(a) Applicability. This part applies to agency acceptance of payment from a non-Federal source for travel, subsistence, and related expenses with respect to the attendance of an employee in a travel status (and/or the accompanying spouse of such employee when applicable) at any meeting or similar function relating to the official duties of the employee. This part does not authorize acceptance of such payments by an employee or the accompanying spouse of an employee in his/her personal capacity (see, however, §304–1.8(a)).
(b) Solicitation prohibited. An employee shall not solicit payment for travel, subsistence, and related expenses from a non-Federal source. However, after receipt of an invitation from a non-Federal source to attend a meeting or similar function in the course of discussions of an event to be sponsored jointly by the agency and the non-Federal source, the agency or employee may inform the non-Federal source of this authority.
(c) Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:
   (1) Agency. “Agency” means an executive agency as defined in 5 U.S.C. 105, and includes an independent agency as well as an agency within the Executive Office of the President.
   (2) Employee. “Employee” means an appointed officer or employee of an agency, including a special Government employee as defined in 18 U.S.C. 202, or an expert or consultant appointed under the authority of 5 U.S.C. 3109.
   (3) Meeting or similar function. “Meeting or similar function” means a conference, seminar, speaking engagement, symposium, training course, or similar event that takes place away from the employee’s official station, and is sponsored or cosponsored by a non-Federal source. This term does not include a meeting or other event required to carry out an agency’s statutory or regulatory functions (i.e., a function that is essential to an agency’s mission), such as investigations, inspections, audits, site visits, negotiations, or litigation. The term also does not include promotional vendor training or other meetings held for the primary purpose of marketing the non-Federal source’s products or services. A meeting or similar function need not be widely attended for purposes of this definition, and includes but is not limited to the following:
      (i) An event at which the employee will participate as a speaker or panel participant, including an event at which the employee will give an oral presentation focusing on his/her official duties or on the policies, programs, or operations of the agency;
      (ii) A conference, convention, seminar, symposium or similar event the primary purpose of which is to receive training other than promotional vendor training, or to present or exchange substantive information concerning a subject of mutual interest to a number of parties;
      (iii) An event at which the employee will receive an award or honorary degree, which is in recognition of meritorious public service that is related to the employee’s official duties, and which may be accepted by the employee consistent with the applicable standards of conduct regulation.
   (4) Non-Federal source. “Non-Federal source” means any person or entity other than the Government of the United States. The term includes any...
§ 304–1.3

individual, private or commercial entity, nonprofit organization or association or international or multinational organization (irrespective of whether an agency holds membership in the organization or association), or foreign, state, or local government (including the government of the District of Columbia).

(5) Payment. “Payment” means funds paid by a non-Federal source for travel, subsistence, and related expenses by check or similar instrument to an agency, or payment in kind.

(6) Payment in kind. “Payment in kind” means goods, services, or other benefits provided by a non-Federal source for travel, subsistence, and related expenses in lieu of funds paid to an agency by check or similar instrument for the same purpose.

(7) Travel, subsistence, and related expenses. “Travel, subsistence and related expenses” means the same types of expenses payable under chapter 301 of this subtitle or analogous provisions of chapter 100 of Volume 6 of the Foreign Affairs Manual (6 FAM 100) or Volume 1 of the Joint Federal Travel Regulations (JFTR). Also encompassed in this definition are such expenses as conference or training fees (in whole or in part) as well as benefits which cannot be paid under the applicable travel regulation and which are provided in kind and made available by the sponsor(s) to all attendees incident to and for use at the meeting or similar function.

§ 304–1.3 Policy.

(a) Acceptance of payment for employee. As provided in this part, an agency may accept payment from a non-Federal source (or authorize an employee to receive such payment on its behalf) with respect to attendance of the employee at a meeting or similar function which the employee has been authorized to attend in an official capacity on behalf of the employing agency.

(b) Acceptance of payment for an accompanying spouse. An agency may accept payment under this part from a non-Federal source for an accompanying spouse when the spouse’s presence at the meeting or similar function is in the interest of the agency. A spouse’s presence at an event may be determined to be in the interest of the agency if the spouse will:

1. Support the mission of the agency or substantially assist the employee in carrying out his/her official duties;
2. Attend a ceremony at which the employee will receive an award or honorary degree described in §304–1.2(c)(3); or
3. Participate in substantive programs related to the agency’s programs or operations.

(c) Administration and delegation of authority. Payment acceptance must be in accordance with internal agency procedures. Agencies shall ensure that officials delegated authority to determine the propriety of accepting payments under this part are at as high an administrative level as practical to ensure adequate consideration and review of the circumstances surrounding the offer and acceptance of the payment.

(d) Payment in excess of regulatory limitations. When a non-Federal source makes full payment for subsistence expenses, acceptance of payment for, and when applicable, reimbursement by an agency to, an employee (and/or the accompanying spouse of such employee when applicable) under this part are not subject to the maximum per diem or actual subsistence expense rates prescribed in chapter 301 of this subtitle or by the Secretary of Defense in Civilian Personnel Per Diem Bulletins published periodically in the Federal Register.

(2) Transportation expenses. When a non-Federal source makes full payment for common carrier transportation expenses, acceptance of payment for, and when applicable, reimbursement by an agency to, an employee (and/or the accompanying spouse of such employee when applicable) under this part are not subject to the transportation class of service limitations applicable to premium-class other than first-class accommodations, as prescribed in chapter 301 of this subtitle or the JFTR. Acceptance of payment for first-class transportation accommodations is allowed only when the use of first-class transportation accommodations is authorized in accordance with § 301–3.3 of this subtitle.

(e) Reduced per diem rate in partial payment situation. If the designated agency official determines in advance of the travel that a payment covers some but not all of the per diem costs to be incurred by the employee (and/or the accompanying spouse when applicable), the agency should authorize a reduced per diem rate, in accordance with § 301–7.12 of this subtitle or analogous provisions of 6 FAM 100 or the JFTR, as applicable, that is commensurate with the known subsistence expense levels.

§ 304–1.5 Conflict-of-interest analysis.

(a) Payment from a non-Federal source shall not be accepted if the authorized agency official determines that acceptance under the circumstances would cause a reasonable person with knowledge of all the facts relevant to a particular case to question the integrity of agency programs or operations. In making this determination, an authorized agency official shall be guided by all relevant considerations, including, but not limited to:

(1) The identity of the non-Federal source;

(2) The purpose of the meeting or similar function;

(3) The identity of other expected participants;

(4) The nature and sensitivity of any matter pending at the agency affecting the interests of the non-Federal source;

(5) The significance of the employee’s role in any such matter; and

(6) The monetary value and character of the travel benefits offered by the non-Federal source.

(b) The authorized agency official may find that, while acceptance from the non-Federal source is permissible, it is in the interest of the agency to qualify acceptance of the offered payment by, for example, authorizing attendance at only a portion of the event or limiting the type or character of benefits that may be accepted.

§ 304–1.6 Payment guidelines.

(a) Payment other than in kind. Payments from a non-Federal source for an employee and/or accompanying spouse, other than payments in kind, shall be by check or similar instrument made payable to the agency. Any such payment received by the employee on behalf of the agency for his/her travel and/or that of the accompanying spouse is accepted on behalf of the agency and is to be submitted as soon
§ 304–1.7 Reimbursement claims for official travel expenses.

(a) The employee (and/or accompanying spouse when applicable) shall submit to the employing agency on authorized reimbursement forms all travel expense reimbursement claims, and shall itemize all expenses incurred which exceed applicable limitations (see §304–1.3(d)). Generally, the employee, and/or accompanying spouse when applicable, shall be reimbursed an amount not to exceed applicable limitations. However, when the non-Federal source, in accordance with the provisions of §304–1.3(d), makes full payment in excess of applicable limitations for reimbursable subsistence expenses or common carrier transportation expenses incurred, reimbursement shall be the amount of the payment from the non-Federal source. Reimbursement for expenses in excess of regulatory limitations shall not in any case exceed the amount of the expenses incurred.

(b) The agency may reimburse the employee (and/or accompanying spouse of such employee when applicable) for only the types of expenses defined in §§301–7.1 (b)(6) and (c) of this subtitle or in analogous provisions of 6 FAM 100 or the JFTR, as applicable, for per diem allowances, transportation expenses, or other miscellaneous travel expenses.

(c) If an accepted payment covers only a portion of one or more types of the expenses incurred (e.g., $50.00 per night for lodging in a locality with an $85.00 per night maximum lodging allowance), the agency shall reimburse the employee (and/or accompanying spouse when applicable) only the amount to which he/she otherwise would be entitled under applicable regulation (chapter 301 of this subtitle, 6 FAM 100, or the JFTR). (See §304–1.3(e) regarding reduced per diem rate situations.)

(d) If an accepted payment covers in full one or more types of expenses described in paragraph (b) of this section (e.g., payment for lodging accommodations) but does not cover all of the travel expenses incurred, the agency shall reimburse the employee (and/or accompanying spouse of such employee when applicable) for those expenses that are not covered by the payment, not to exceed applicable limitations established in chapter 301 of this subtitle or in analogous provisions of 6 FAM 100 or the JFTR.

§ 304–1.8 Limitations and penalties.

(a) This part is the only authority under which an agency may accept payment from a non-Federal source, or authorize an employee to accept such payment on behalf of the agency, in connection with the attendance of its employee (and/or the accompanying spouse of such employee when applicable) at a meeting or similar function. An agency may not accept, under an agency gift statute or other similar authority, payment for travel, subsistence, and related expenses incurred by an employee and/or accompanying spouse to attend a meeting or similar function. However, nothing in this part prohibits an agency or employee from accepting payment as follows:

Paymt. from Non-Fed. Source for Travel Exp. § 304–1.9

(1) When authorized under 5 U.S.C. 4111 or 5 U.S.C. 7342;
(2) When payment is for travel to be performed for a partisan rather than an official purpose in the case of an employee who is exempt from the Hatch Act under 5 U.S.C. 7324(d);
(3) When authorized pursuant to an agency gift statute or similar statutory authority and payment is for attendance at or participation in an event (other than a meeting or similar function) relating to the official duties of the employee; or
(4) When consistent with the applicable standards of ethical conduct regulation concerning personal acceptance of gifts.

(b) An employee who accepts any payment in violation of this part is subject to the following:

(1) The employee may be required, in addition to any penalty provided by law and applicable regulations, to repay for deposit to the general fund of the Treasury, an amount equal to the amount of the payment so accepted; and

(2) When repayment is required under paragraph (b)(1) of this section, the employee shall not be entitled to any reimbursement from the Government for such expenses.

§ 304–1.9 Reports.

(a) Agency reports. Each agency shall submit semiannual reports of payments (see definition of payment in §304–1.2(c)) which total more than $250 per event, and which have been accepted under this part with respect to the attendance at, or participation in, a meeting or similar function by an agency employee, and/or accompanying spouse of such employee when applicable. Negative reports are required.

(1) Submission. The head of each agency (or his/her designee) shall submit the semiannual report to the Director of the Office of Government Ethics (OGE), 1201 New York Avenue, N.W., Suite 500, Washington, DC 20005–3917. The report shall be based on when payment is received rather than when travel is performed, and shall be submitted as follows:

(i) Not later than May 31 of each year with respect to payments received in the preceding period beginning on October 1 and ending on March 31; and

(ii) Not later than November 30 of each year with respect to payments received in the preceding period beginning on April 1 and ending on September 30.

(2) Information required. Except as provided in paragraph (a)(6) of this section, the report shall specify the following information in the order presented:

(i) The name of the agency submitting the report;

(ii) Each event (meeting or similar function) for which an agency accepts payment under this part of more than $250 for an employee and spouse together, or for either the employee or the spouse separately, including:

(A) The sponsor(s) of the event;

(B) The location of the event;

(C) The date(s) of the event; and

(D) The nature of the event;

(iii) The name of each employee for whom such payment was accepted in connection with the event, including:

(A) The employee’s Government position; and

(B) The employee’s travel date(s) in connection with attendance at the event;

(iv) The name of the accompanying spouse, if applicable, for whom payment was accepted in connection with the event, including:

(A) The name of the employee accompanied by the spouse;

(B) The employee’s Government position; and

(C) The spouse’s travel date(s) in connection with attendance at the event;

(v) The identity of any non-Federal source from which payment was accepted in connection with the event;

(vi) An itemization of the benefits accepted by the agency in connection with attendance at the event, including:

(A) A description of the benefit, provided that benefits accepted as a part of a conference or training fee need not be reported separately;

(B) The method of payment (payment in kind or by check or similar instrument);

(C) The individual for whom payment was accepted (employee or spouse);
(D) The non-Federal source that provided the benefit; and
(E) The amount of the payment; and
(vii) The total value of the payments accepted for the employee and/or spouse in connection with the event identified as follows:
(A) The total amount of payments provided by check or similar instrument; and
(B) The total value of payments provided in kind.

(3) Valuation of payments in kind. In the case of conference, training, or similar fees waived or paid by the non-Federal source, report the amount charged other participants. In the case of transportation or lodging, report the cost to the non-Federal source, or indicate the rate that would have been charged a similar non-Federal source for a similar benefit at the time the benefit was provided. In the case of meals or other benefits that are not provided incident to transportation, lodging, or a conference, training, or similar fee, report the cost to the non-Federal source or provide a reasonable approximation of the market value of the benefit.

(4) Valuation of noncommercial benefits furnished by a non-Federal source—(i) Transportation. In the case of transportation on a chartered, corporate or other private aircraft, report the first-class rate that would have been charged by an air common carrier at the time the transportation was provided or, if common carrier transportation was unavailable between the two locations, report the cost of chartering a similar aircraft using a commercially available service.

(ii) Lodging. In the case of lodging for which no commercial rate is available, report the maximum lodging rate prescribed in chapter 301 of this subtitle; section 925, a per diem supplement to the Standardized Regulations (Government Civilians, Foreign Areas); or Civilian Personnel Per Diem Bulletins issued by the Secretary of Defense, as applicable.

(5) Public availability of reports. Except as provided in paragraph (a)(6) of this section, the Director of OGE shall make any report filed pursuant to this section available for public inspection and copying within 30 days after the applicable due date or within 30 days after the date OGE actually receives the report, whichever is later.

(6) Exemption. To the extent that information is protected from disclosure by statute, an agency is not required to furnish information otherwise required to be reported. Information that may be disclosed shall be submitted to OGE and made available to the public in accordance with paragraph (a)(5) of this section. Information that is not disclosed because it is protected from disclosure by statute shall be made available by the reporting agency for review by properly cleared OGE personnel.

(b) Employee reports. Payments properly accepted under this part are accepted by the agency. Receipt of a benefit by an employee and/or the accompanying spouse, when applicable, on behalf of the agency under the authority of this part is not required to be reported as a gift on any confidential or public financial disclosure report that the employee is required to file pursuant to law or OGE regulation. Acceptance of payment by an employee for himself/herself and/or the accompanying spouse, when applicable, under authorities other than this part may be subject to other reporting requirements such as those required by the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended, including reporting the payment on the employee’s financial disclosure report.

PART 304–2—REDUCTIONS IN MEETING AND TRAINING ALLOWANCE PAYMENTS

Sec. 304–2.1 Authority.
304–2.2 Applicability.
304–2.3 Conditions for approval of contributions or payments.
304–2.4 Agency responsibilities.

SOURCE: 56 FR 9881, Mar. 8, 1991, unless otherwise noted.

§ 304–2.1 Authority.

This part is issued under the authority of 5 U.S.C. 4111(b).
§ 304–2.2 Applicability.

Subject to the exceptions in 5 U.S.C. 4102, this part applies to civilian officers and employees of executive agencies, including the Department of Defense; independent establishments, as defined in 5 U.S.C. 104; Government corporations, subject to 31 U.S.C. 9101 et seq.; the Library of Congress; the Government Printing Office; the Government of the District of Columbia; and commissioned officers of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. All such officers and employees and all such agencies, independent establishments, and departments are referred to in this part as “employees” or “agencies,” as appropriate.

§ 304–2.3 Conditions for approval of contributions or payments.

Section 303(j) of Executive Order 11348 of April 20, 1967, and the regulations issued by the Office of Personnel Management under section 401(b) of that Order, prescribe the conditions under which agency heads may approve the acceptance by employees of contributions and awards incident to training and payments incident to attendance at meetings, under 5 U.S.C. 4111(a), from the organizations described therein. These organizations are referred to in this part as “donors.”

§ 304–2.4 Agency responsibilities.

Agency heads shall provide adequate safeguards to ensure that the following provisions of this section are carried out:

(a) Where an approved payment by a donor fully covers expenses incident to training in a non-Government facility, or travel, subsistence, or other expenses incident to attendance at a meeting, the agency shall not pay for such expenses or shall recover payments previously made in the manner described in paragraph (c) of this section.

(b) If an approved payment by a donor does not fully cover expenses described in paragraph (a) of this section, the agency may pay an amount considered sufficient to cover the balance of the expenses to the extent authorized by law and regulation, including 5 U.S.C. 4109 and 4110. If an amount in excess of such balance has been previously paid by the agency, such amount shall be recovered from the employee in the manner described in paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) Recoveries of payments, as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, shall be made in the manner prescribed by regulations of the agency concerned and shall be issued according to 5 U.S.C. 5514.

(d) No reduction in payment by an agency is required where an approved contribution or award to an employee covers types of expenses which the agency is not authorized to pay. For example, where an agency authorizes travel expenses of an employee, including per diem and transportation expenses of his/her immediate family and household goods and personal effects to a training location, no reduction in payment by the agency is required if an approved contribution or award covers subsistence expenses of the family en route and expenses incurred by the employee in establishing himself/herself and the family at the training location.

(e) Expense data shall be obtained from employees or donors in such detail as the agency head deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.
