(a) No administrative agency of the United States shall give assistance to American citizens, States, municipalities, or associations in erecting any war memorial outside the continental United States unless the plan has been approved in accordance with § 401.1 above.

(b) It is the opinion of the Commission that no battlefield memorial should be erected to any unit smaller than a division or comparable unit or to an individual, unless the services of such unit or individual clearly were of such distinguished character as to warrant a separate memorial.

(c) It is the opinion of the Commission that, as a general rule, memorials should be erected to organizations rather than to troops from a particular locality of the United States.

(d) The policy of the Commission is to approve plans for memorials in foreign countries only in cases in which the sponsors make adequate and permanent arrangements for their maintenance. If the sponsors so desire, the Commission will maintain such memorials, including those previously existing which it deems worthy of preservation, using funds provided by the sponsors; in such cases it will make user charges in accordance with general Government policy.
