§ 401.1 Erection of war memorials outside continental limits of United States.

Federal Government agencies, American citizens, States, municipalities, or associations desiring to erect war memorials outside the continental limits of the United States should proceed as follows:

(a) Submit general idea of the memorial to the American Battle Monuments Commission, with a request for the tentative allocation of the site desired.

(b) When site is provisionally allocated, prepare and submit the design of the memorial, together with the inscription, for approval. The design of the memorial will then be referred, in accordance with law, by the Commission to the National Commission of Fine Arts for its approval.

(c) After a site is allocated and the design and inscription are approved, the American Battle Monuments Commission will, if the sponsors so desire, consult with the foreign government concerning the question of securing approval for the erection of the memorial.

(d) When the approval of the foreign government is obtained, the Commission will cooperate, if the sponsors so desire, in obtaining the ground and erection of the memorial. Such cooperation may include construction of the memorial by the Commission, using funds provided by the sponsors, in which case user charges will be made in accordance with general Government policy.

(a) No administrative agency of the United States shall give assistance to American citizens, States, municipalities, or associations in erecting any war memorial outside the continental United States unless the plan has been approved in accordance with § 401.1 above.

(b) It is the opinion of the Commission that no battlefield memorial should be erected to any unit smaller than a division or comparable unit or to an individual, unless the services of such unit or individual clearly were of such distinguished character as to warrant a separate memorial.

(c) It is the opinion of the Commission that, as a general rule, memorials should be erected to organizations rather than to troops from a particular locality of the United States.

(d) The policy of the Commission is to approve plans for memorials in foreign countries only in cases in which the sponsors make adequate and permanent arrangements for their maintenance. If the sponsors so desire, the Commission will maintain such memorials, including those previously existing which it deems worthy of preservation, using funds provided by the sponsors; in such cases it will make user charges in accordance with general Government policy.
