The TSP record keeper will honor the Form TSP-3 with the latest date signed by the participant which is otherwise valid under the rules set forth in § 1651.3. A change of beneficiary may be made at any time and without the knowledge or consent of the participant's spouse or any current or prior designated beneficiaries.

(b) Cancellation. A participant may cancel all prior designations of beneficiaries by sending the TSP record keeper either a new valid Form TSP-3 or a letter, signed and dated by the participant and witnessed in the same manner as a Form TSP-3, stating that all prior designations are canceled. In order to be effective, either of these documents must be received by the TSP record keeper on or before the date of death of the participant in accordance with the rules set forth in § 1651.3(a). The filing of either of these documents will cancel all earlier designations.

(c) Will. A will, or any document other than Form TSP-3 or Form TSP-11-B, may not be used to change or cancel a beneficiary(ies) of a TSP account.

§ 1651.5 Spouse of the participant.

For purposes of payment under § 1651.2(a)(2), the spouse of the participant is the person to whom the participant was married on the date of death. State law of the participant's domicile will be used to determine whether the participant was married at the time of death.

(a) Child. A child includes a natural or adopted child of the deceased participant.

(b) Descendants of deceased children. "By representation" means that, if a child of the participant dies before the participant, all descendants of the deceased child at the same level will equally divide the deceased child's share of the participant's account.

(c) Adoption by another. A natural child of a TSP participant who has been adopted by someone other than the participant during the participant's lifetime will not be considered the child of the participant, unless the adopting parent is the spouse of the TSP participant.

§ 1651.7 Parent or parents.

If the account is to be paid to the participant's parent or parents under § 1651.2(a)(4), the following rules apply:

(a) Amount. If both parents are alive at the time of the participant's death, each parent will be separately paid fifty percent of the account. If only one parent is alive at the time of the participant's death, he or she will receive the entire account balance.

(b) Step-parent. A step-parent is not considered a parent unless the step-parent adopted the participant.

§ 1651.8 Participant's estate.

If the account is to be paid to the duly appointed executor or administrator of the participant's estate under § 1651.2(a)(5), the following rules apply:

(a) Appointment by court. The executor or administrator must provide documentation of court appointment.

(b) Appointment by operation of law. If state law provides procedures for handling small estates, the Board will accept the person authorized to dispose of the assets of the deceased participant under those procedures as a duly appointed executor or administrator. Documentation which demonstrates that the person is properly authorized under state law must be submitted to the TSP record keeper.

§ 1651.9 Participant's next of kin.

If the account is to be paid to the participant's next of kin under

§ 1651.10

§ 1651.2(a)(6), the next of kin of the participant will be determined in accordance with the state law of the participant's domicile at the time of death.

§ 1651.10 Deceased and non-existent beneficiaries.

(a) Designated beneficiary dies before participant. The share of any beneficiary designated on a Form TSP-3 or Form TSP-11-B who predeceases the participant will be paid pro rata to other designated beneficiary(ies). If there are no designated beneficiaries who survive the participant, the account will be paid to the person(s) determined to be the beneficiary(ies) under the order of precedence set forth in § 1651.2(a).

(b) Trust designated as beneficiary but not in existence. If a trust or other entity that has been designated as a beneficiary does not exist on the date of death of the participant, or if it is not created by will or other document that is effective upon the participant's death, the amount will be paid in accordance with the rules of paragraph (a) of this section, as if the trust were a beneficiary that predeceased the participant.

(c) Non-designated beneficiary dies before participant. If a beneficiary other than a beneficiary designated on a Form TSP-3 or a Form TSP-11-B (i.e., a beneficiary by virtue of the order of precedence) dies before the participant, the beneficiary's share will be paid equally to other living beneficiary(ies) bearing the same relationship to the participant as the deceased beneficiary. However, if the deceased beneficiary is a child of the participant, payment will be made to the deceased child's descendants, if any. If there are no other beneficiaries bearing the same relationship or, in the case of children, there are no descendants of deceased children, the deceased beneficiary's share will be paid to the person(s) next in line according to the order of precedence.

(d) Beneficiary dies after participant but before payment. If a beneficiary dies after the participant, the beneficiary's share will be paid to the beneficiary's estate.

required in order to establish that the beneficiary has died.

§ 1651.11 Simultaneous death.

If a beneficiary dies at the same time as the participant, the beneficiary will be treated as if he or she predeceased the participant and the account will be paid in accordance with § 1651.10. The same time is considered to be the same hour and minute as indicated on a death certificate. If the participant and beneficiary are killed in the same event, death is presumed to be simultaneous, unless evidence is presented to the contrary.

§ 1651.12 Homicide.

If the participant's death is the result of a homicide, a beneficiary will not be paid as long as the beneficiary is under investigation by local, state or Federal law enforcement authorities as a suspect. If the beneficiary is convicted of, or pleads guilty to, a crime in connection with the participant's death which would preclude the beneficiary from inheriting under state law, the beneficiary will not be entitled to receive any portion of the participant's account. The Board will follow the state law of the participant's domicile as that law is set forth in a civil court judgment (that, under the law of the state, would protect the Board from double liability or payment) or, in the absence of such a judgment, will apply state law to the facts after all criminal appeals are exhausted.
