§ 17.23 Authority to grant licenses.

The Director has been duly delegated authority to make any decision or determination concerning the granting, denial, interpretation, modification or termination of any license of any patent in the custody and control of the U.S. Department of Commerce. The decision and determination of the Director is final and conclusive on behalf of this Department unless the procedures for appeal set forth below are initiated.

§ 17.24 Persons who may appeal.

The following person(s) may appeal to the Under Secretary any decision or determination concerning the grant, denial, interpretation, modification or termination of a license:

(a) A person whose application for a license has been denied;

(b) A licensee whose license has been modified or terminated in whole or in part; or

(c) A person who has timely filed a written objection in response to the notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as required by 41 CFR 101-4.104-3(a)(1)(c)(i) or 101-4.104-3(b)(1)(i) and who can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Under Secretary that such person may be damaged by the Director's determination.

versary hearing. Such party(ies) shall file appropriate documents no later than 30 days from the receipt of the Director's decision unless the Under Secretary grants for good cause an extension of time. The notice, in concise and brief terms, should state the grounds for appeal and include copies of all pertinent documents. Accompanying the notice should be concise arguments as to why the Director's decision should be rejected or modified.

(b) The Under Secretary shall render a written opinion within 30 days of receiving all required documentation in a non-adversary appeal.

(c) Judicial review is available as the law permits.

§ 17.26 Adjudicatory.

(a) Any appellant party who seeks review of the Director's decision based upon a modification or termination of a license by the Director under § 17.24(b), or who has filed a timely objection and can demonstrate damages as provided in § 17.24(c), shall be entitled to an adversary hearing in accord with the provisions of the Administrative Procedures Act (5 U.S.C. 554-557). A party may waive an adversary hearing by filing a written waiver with the Under Secretary.

(b) When an adversary hearing is required under § 17.24 (b) or (c) the Under Secretary shall appoint as promptly as possible an Administrative Law Judge who shall hold hearings no later than 45 days from the date of the appointment. The hearings will be conducted in conformity with the objectives of the Administrative Procedure Act. The Administrative Law Judge shall submit a written recommendation to the Under Secretary no later than 30 days subsequent to the hearing and/or the filing of any required written arguments or documentation.

(c) The Under Secretary shall render a final written decision on behalf of the Department based upon the appeal file which shall include the hearing record, exhibits, written submissions of the party(ies), and the recommendation of the Administrative Law Judge. The Under Secretary's decision shall include the reasons which form the basis
