(3) The widow(er) was previously married to the employee for at least nine months.

§ 222.36 Relationship as grandchild or stepgrandchild.

A claimant will have the relationship of grandchild or stepgrandchild of an employee, or the grandchild or stepgrandchild of the employee’s spouse, and be considered a child for annuity purposes if the requirements in both paragraph (a) and either paragraph (b) or (c) of this section are met.

(a) The claimant is the natural child, adopted child, or stepchild of a child of an employee, or of a child of the employee’s spouse as defined in this subpart;

(b) the claimant’s natural or adoptive parents are deceased or are disabled, as defined in section 223(d) of the Social Security Act, in the month in which—

(1) The employee, who is entitled to an age and service or disability annuity, under the Railroad Retirement Act, would also be entitled to an age benefit under section 202(a) of the Social Security Act or a disability benefit under section 223 of the Social Security Act, if his or her railroad compensation were considered wages under that Act; or

(2) The employee dies; or

(3) The employee’s period of disability begins, if the employee has a period of disability which continues until he or she could be entitled to a social security benefit as described in paragraph (b)(1) of this section or until he or she dies.

(c) The claimant was legally adopted in the United States by the employee’s widow(er) after the employee’s death, and the claimant’s natural or adoptive parent or stepparent was not living in the employee’s household and making regular contributions to the claimant’s support at the time the employee died.

Note: A grandchild or stepgrandchild does not have the relationship of “child” for lump-sum payment purposes (see § 222.44).

Subpart E—Relationship as Parent, Grandchild, Brother or Sister

§ 222.40 When determinations of relationship are made for parent, grandchild, brother or sister.

(a) Parent. The claimant’s relationship as a parent of the employee is determined when the claimant applies for an annuity or for lump-sum payments.

(b) Grandchild. The claimant’s relationship as a grandchild, rather than as a child, of the employee is determined when the claimant applies for lump-sum payments.

(c) Brother or sister. The claimant’s relationship as a brother or sister of the employee is determined when the claimant applies for lump-sum payments.

§ 222.41 Determination of relationship and support for parent.

(a) Annuity claimant. For purposes of applying for an annuity, a claimant is considered the employee’s parent when the claimant—

(1) Is the natural mother or father of the employee, and is considered the employee’s parent under the law of the State in which the employee had a permanent home when the employee died; or

(2) Is a person who legally adopted the employee before the employee became 16 years old; or

(3) Is a stepparent who married the employee’s natural or adoptive parent before the employee became 16 years old (the marriage must be valid under the law of the State in which the employee had a permanent home when the employee died); and

(4) Was receiving at least one-half support from the employee (see §§ 222.42 and 222.43 of this part) either when the employee died or at the beginning of the period of disability, if the employee had a period of disability.

(b) Lump-sum payment claimant. For purposes of applying for lump-sum payments, a claimant is considered the employee’s parent when he or she—

(1) Is the natural mother or father of the employee, and is considered the employee’s parent under applicable State law; or
