Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 628.510

treated as a disapproval under paragraphs (c) and (e) of this section, except that the revocation shall not become effective until the later of:

1. The time for appeal under paragraph (e) of this section has expired; or
2. The date on which the Secretary issues a decision affirming the revocation.

(g) In the event that a plan is disapproved and the Governor’s decision is upheld upon appeal, the Governor shall merge the affected area into other designated SDA’s willing to accept it or include it in another SDA within the State.

§ 628.430 State SDA Submission.

(a) Pursuant to section 105(d) of the Act, when the SDA is the State, the Governor shall submit to the Secretary, not less than 60 days before the beginning of the first of the two program years covered by the job training plan and in accordance with instructions issued by the Secretary, an SDA job training plan covering two program years. When the SDA is the State, modifications to the plan shall be submitted to the Secretary for approval.

(b) When a State submits an SDA job training plan or plan modification pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, the Secretary shall review the plan or plan modification for overall compliance with the provisions of the Act. The State’s plan shall be considered approved unless, within 45 days of receipt of the submission described in paragraph (a) of this section, the Secretary notifies the Governor in writing of inconsistencies between the submission and requirements of specific provisions of the Act. If the plan or plan modification is disapproved, the Governor may appeal the decision by requesting a hearing before an administrative law judge pursuant to subpart H of part 627 of this chapter.

Subpart E—Program Design Requirements for Programs Under Title II of the Job Training Partnership Act

§ 628.500 Scope and purpose.

This subpart contains the regulations pertaining to the program design requirements common to all programs conducted under titles I (i.e., sections 121 and 123) and II of the Act. Regulations specifically pertaining to the Adult Program can be found in subpart F of this part. Regulations pertaining to the Summer Youth Employment and Training Program can be found in subpart G of this part. Regulations pertaining to the Youth Training Program can be found in subpart H of this part.

§ 628.505 Eligibility.

(a) Eligibility criteria. (1) Individuals who apply to participate in a program under title II shall be evaluated for eligibility based on age and economic disadvantage. Specific eligibility criteria for programs under title II, parts A, B, and C are described in this part.

(2) Individuals served under title II shall be residents of the SDA, as determined by local government policy, except for the limited exceptions described in the job training plan, including joint programs operated by SDA’s (section 141(e)).

(b) Eligibility documentation. (1) In order to promote the uniform and standard application of eligibility criteria for participation in the JTPA program, the Department has issued an Eligibility Documentation TAG that provides guidance on acceptable documentation.

(2) SDA utilization of eligibility guidance. When it is determined that the SDA or service provider has followed the guidance contained in the Eligibility Documentation TAG, the Grant Officer will not disallow questioned costs related to the required documentation concerning an individual’s eligibility.

§ 628.510 Intake, referrals and targeting.

(a) Collection of personal data. In addition to determining an applicant’s eligibility, the intake process shall include a preliminary review of information relating to whether an applicant is included in one or more of the categories listed in section 203(b) of the Act.

(b) Information on services. Upon application, an eligible individual shall be provided information by the SDA or its service providers on the full array
§628.515 Objective assessment.

(a) General. The requirements of this section shall apply to programs conducted under title I (i.e., sections 121 and 123) and title II, parts A, B, and C.

(b) Definition. (1) For purposes of this part, an objective assessment means an examination of the capabilities, needs, and vocational potential of a participant and is to be used to develop an individual service strategy and employment goal. Such assessment is customer-centered and a diagnostic evaluation of a participant’s employment barriers taking into account the participant’s family situation, work history, education, basic and occupational skills, interests, aptitudes (including interests and aptitudes for nontraditional occupations), attitude toward work, motivation, behavior patterns affecting employment potential, financial resources and needs, supportive service needs, and personal employment information as it relates to the local labor market.

(2) For the program under title II-B, the objective assessment shall include an examination of the basic skills and supportive service needs of each participant and may include the other areas listed in paragraph (b)(1) of this section.

(3) Each SDA shall develop an appropriate mechanism to ensure suitability screening for eligible applicants or to apply the provisions of §628.530 for participants referred by service providers and describe such mechanism in its SDA job training plan.

(4) “Most in need.” SDAs that satisfy the requirements of sections 203(b) and 263 (b) and (d) pertaining to hard to serve individuals shall be deemed to meet the “most in need” criteria at section 141(a) of the Act.

(5) The requirements referred to in paragraph (b)(1) of this section shall be calculated on the basis of new participants for whom services or training have been provided subsequent to the objective assessment.

(g) The SDA’s method of meeting the requirements of sections 203(b) and 263(b) pertaining to hard to serve individuals shall be implemented consistent with the equal opportunity provisions of 29 CFR part 34.

(3) Each SDA shall develop an appropriate mechanism to ensure suitability screening for eligible applicants or to apply the provisions of §628.530 for participants referred by service providers and describe such mechanism in its SDA job training plan.

(4) “Most in need.” SDAs that satisfy the requirements of sections 203(b) and 263 (b) and (d) pertaining to hard to serve individuals shall be deemed to meet the “most in need” criteria at section 141(a) of the Act.

(2) The requirements referred to in paragraph (b)(1) of this section shall be calculated on the basis of new participants for whom services or training have been provided subsequent to the objective assessment.

(5) The SDA’s method of meeting the requirements of sections 203(b) and 263(b) pertaining to hard to serve individuals shall be implemented consistent with the equal opportunity provisions of 29 CFR part 34.

§628.515 Objective assessment.

(a) General. The requirements of this section shall apply to programs conducted under title I (i.e., sections 121 and 123) and title II, parts A, B, and C.

(b) Definition. (1) For purposes of this part, an objective assessment means an examination of the capabilities, needs, and vocational potential of a participant and is to be used to develop an individual service strategy and employment goal. Such assessment is customer-centered and a diagnostic evaluation of a participant’s employment barriers taking into account the participant’s family situation, work history, education, basic and occupational skills, interests, aptitudes (including interests and aptitudes for nontraditional occupations), attitude toward work, motivation, behavior patterns affecting employment potential, financial resources and needs, supportive service needs, and personal employment information as it relates to the local labor market.

(2) For the program under title II-B, the objective assessment shall include an examination of the basic skills and supportive service needs of each participant and may include the other areas listed in paragraph (b)(1) of this section.
