§ 1101.15 filed by an individual is subsequently disclosed, the Section will note that the information is disputed and provide a copy of the individual’s statement. The Section may also include a brief summary of the reasons for not making a correction when disclosing disputed information. Such statements will normally be limited to the reasons given to the individual for not amending the record. Copies of the Section’s statement shall be treated as part of the individual’s record for granting access; however, it will not be subject to amendment by the individual under these rules.

(g) An appeal will be decided on the basis of the individual’s appeal papers and the record submitted by the PA officer. No personal appearance or hearings on appeals will be allowed.

§ 1101.15 Judicial review.

After having exhausted all administrative remedies set forth in §1101.7(g)(3) or §1101.14, a requester may bring a civil action against the Section, in a United States District Court of proper venue, within two years of the final administrative decision which the requester seeks to challenge.

§ 1101.16 Criminal penalties.

(a) Under the provisions of the Act, it is a Federal crime for any person to knowingly and willfully request or obtain information from a Federal agency, including this Section, by false pretenses.

(b) It is also a crime for any officer or employee of the Section to knowingly and willfully:

(1) Make an unauthorized disclosure; or

(2) Fail to publish public notice of a system of records as required by 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4).
