

§ 26.13

agreements to provide facilities and services required for vocational training programs with:

- (a) Indian tribal governing bodies or, when approved by the tribal service provider, other provider of meaningful training programs not currently operated by the tribe;
- (b) Appropriate Federal, State, or local government agencies;
- (c) Public or private schools with a recognized reputation in vocational education and successfully obtaining employment for graduates;
- (d) Education firms that operate residential training centers; and
- (e) Corporations and associations or small business establishments with apprenticeship or on-the-job training (OJT) programs leading to skilled employment.

§ 26.13 How long may I be in training and how long can I receive other assistance?

- (a) Your training at any approved institution, apprenticeship, and/or OJT must not exceed 24 months of full-time actual training hours.
- (b) Registered nurse training must not exceed 36 months of full actual training hours.
- (c) You may receive other financial assistance under this program determined by your ISP that you have developed with your tribal service provider.

§ 26.14 What or who is a service provider?

A service provider is an administrative unit of a BIA Regional Office, a BIA Agency Office, a BIA Field Office, a Tribal contracted office, or Alaska Native federally recognized tribe, or a tribal organization, that provides grants to help offset the cost of vocational or technical training (at approved places), or immediate job placement services. To the extent resources will allow, other kinds of support service may also be available.

§ 26.15 What makes an applicant eligible for Job Placement and Training services?

- You are eligible for services if:
- (a) You meet the definition of an American Indian or Alaska Native; and
 - (b) Either:

25 CFR Ch. I (4–1–10 Edition)

- (1) You can demonstrate an unmet need and show a need for job training or placement services in order to become gainfully and meaningfully employed; or
- (2) You are skilled, but need financial assistance to get to a job, and you show an aptitude and potential to benefit from services.

§ 26.16 If I am awarded financial assistance, how much will I receive?

- (a) The amount of financial assistance you receive depends on your unmet needs. If applicable, you should apply for:
 - (1) A Pell Grant if your training institution offers this grant; and
 - (2) Other education grants or loans for which you may qualify.
- (b) The Bureau or tribal service provider will award financial assistance up to the level of your unmet need to the extent resources are available. It is possible that the combination of available financial assistance will not equal your financial need.

§ 26.17 Can more than one family member be financially assisted at the same time?

Yes, more than one family member can be assisted, providing that each applicant is eligible.

§ 26.18 What kinds of supportive services are available?

The BIA or tribal service provider may provide, but is not limited to, the following supportive services:

- (a) Assistance in completing an application and the provision of supporting documents;
- (b) A description of the Job Placement and Training Program and related services;
- (c) An assessment of eligibility;
- (d) An assessment of need for employment services (or a combination of training and employment services);
- (e) The creation of an ISP (which may include training and other support services);
- (f) Counseling services that address cultural differences and strengthen probability of client success;
- (g) Referral to other appropriate services;
- (h) Youth work experience;
