§ 1.682(a)–1 Income of trust in case of divorce, etc.

(a) In general. (1) Section 682(a) provides rules in certain cases for determining the taxability of income of trusts as between spouses who are divorced, or who are separated under a decree of separate maintenance or a written separation agreement. In such cases, the spouse actually entitled to receive payments from the trust is considered the beneficiary rather than the spouse in discharge of whose obligations the payments are made, except to the extent that the payments are specified to be for the support of the obligor spouse’s minor children in the divorce or separate maintenance decree. For convenience, the beneficiary spouse will hereafter in this section and in § 1.682(b)–1 be referred to as the “wife” and the obligor spouse from whom she is divorced or legally separated as the “husband”. (See section 7701(a)(17).) Thus, under section 682(a) income of a trust:

(i) Which is paid, credited, or required to be distributed to the wife in a taxable year of the wife; and

(ii) Which, except for the provisions of section 682, would be includible in the gross income of her husband, is includible in her gross income and is not includible in his gross income.

(2) If, in the examples in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the Y charity were a charitable organization qualifying under section 170(b)(1)(A), then the deduction allowable under section 512(b)(11) would be computed at a rate of 30 percent.

§ 1.681(b)–1 Cross reference.

For disallowance of certain charitable, etc., deductions otherwise allowable under section 642(c), see sections 508(d) and 4948(c)(4). See also 26 CFR 1.681(b)–1 and 1.681(c)–1 (rev. as of Apr. 1, 1974) for provisions applying before January 1, 1970.
