§ 716.25 Adequate file search.

The scope of a person’s responsibility to search records is limited to records in the location(s) where the required information is typically kept, and to records kept by the person or the person’s individual employee(s) who is/are responsible for keeping such records or advising the person on the health and environmental effects of chemicals. Persons are not required to search for reportable information dated before January 1, 1977, to comply with this subpart unless specifically required to do so in a rule.

§ 716.30 Submission of copies of studies.

(a)(1) Except as provided in §§ 716.5, 716.20, and 716.50, persons must send to EPA copies of any health and safety studies in their possession for the substances or mixtures listed in § 716.120.
§ 716.35 Submission of lists of studies.

(a) Except as provided in §§716.5, 716.20, and 716.50, persons subject to this rule must send lists of studies to EPA for each of the listed substances or listed mixtures (including as a known byproduct) in §716.120 which they are manufacturing, importing, or processing, or which they propose to manufacture (including import) or process.

(1) Ongoing studies. As of the date a person becomes subject to this part, a list of ongoing health and safety studies being conducted by or initiated for them, noting for each entry: The beginning date of the study, the purpose of the study, the types of data to be collected, the anticipated date of completion, and the name and address of the laboratory conducting the study.

(2) Initiated studies. After the date a person becomes subject to this part, a list of studies initiated by or for them, noting for each entry: The beginning date of the study, the purpose of the study, the types of data to be collected, the anticipated date of completion, and the name and address of the laboratory conducting the study.

(3) Studies which are known but without possession of copies. As of the date a person becomes subject to this part, a list of unpublished health and safety studies known to them of which they do not have copies. The name and address of any person known to them to possess a copy of the unpublished study must accompany each entry on the list. For purposes of this section only, an unpublished study will be considered to be “known to” a person, if the study can be discovered by a file search in accordance with §716.25.

(4) Studies previously sent to Federal agencies without confidentiality claims. A
