§ 630.601 Definitions.

In this subpart:
Home leave means leave authorized by section 6305(a) of title 5, United States Code, and earned by service abroad for use in the United States, in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or in the territories or possessions of the United States.

Month means a period which runs from a given day in 1 month through the date preceding the numerically corresponding day in the next month.

Service abroad means service on and after September 6, 1960, by an employee at a post of duty outside the United States and outside the employee’s place of residence if his place of residence is in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or a territory or possession of the United States.

§ 630.602 Coverage.

An employee who meets the requirements of section 6304(b) of title 5, United States Code, for the accumulation of a maximum of 45 days of annual leave earns and may be granted home leave in accordance with section 6305(a) of that title and this subpart.

§ 630.603 Computation of service abroad.

For the purpose of this subpart, service abroad:
(a) Begins on the date of the employee’s arrival at a post of duty outside the United States, or on the date of his entrance on duty when recruited abroad;
(b) Ends on the date of the employee’s departure from the post for separation or for assignment in the United States, or on the date of his separation from duty when separated abroad; and
(c) Includes (1) absence in a nonpay status up to a maximum of 2 work-weeks within each 12 months of service abroad, (2) authorized leave with pay, (3) time spent in the Armed Forces of the United States which interrupts service abroad (but only for eligibility, not leave-earning, purposes), and (4) a period of detail.

In computing service abroad, full credit is given for the day of arrival and the day of departure.

§ 630.604 Earning rates.

(a) For each 12 months of service abroad, an employee earns home leave at the following rate:
(1) An employee who accepts an appointment to, or occupies, a position for which the agency has prescribed the requirement that the incumbent accept assignments anywhere in the world as the needs of the agency dictate—15 days.
(2) An employee who is serving with a U.S. mission to a public international organization—15 days.
(3) An employee who is serving at a post for which payment of a foreign or nonforeign (but not a tropical) differential of at least 10 percent but less than 20 percent is authorized by law or regulation—10 days.
(4) An employee not included in paragraph (a) (1), (2), or (3) of this section who is serving at a post for which payment of a foreign or territorial (but not a tropical) differential of at least 10 percent but less than 20 percent is authorized by law or regulation—5 days.
(5) An employee not included in paragraph (a) (1), (2), (3), or (4) of this section—5 days.
(6) An employee included under (a) (1) through (5) of this section whose civilian service abroad is interrupted by a tour of duty in the Armed Forces of the United States, for the duration of such tour—0 (zero) days.
(b) An agency shall credit home leave to an employee’s leave account, as earned, in multiples of 1 day.

§ 630.605 Computation of home leave.

(a) For each month of service abroad, an employee earns home leave under the rates fixed by §630.604(a) in the amounts set forth in the following table:

(b) When an employee moves between different home leave-earning rates during a month of service abroad, or when a change in the differential during a month of service abroad results in a different home leave-earning rate, the agency shall credit the employee with the amount of home leave for the month at the rate to which he was entitled before the change in his home leave-earning rate.

§ 630.606 Grant of home leave.

(a) Entitlement. Except as otherwise authorized by statute, an employee is entitled to home leave only when he has completed a basic service period of 24 months of continuous service abroad. This basic service period is terminated by (1) a break in service of 1 or more workdays, or (2) an assignment (other than a detail) to a position in which an employee is no longer subject to section 6305(a) of title 5, United States Code.

(b) Agency authority. A grant of home leave is at the discretion of an agency. An agency may grant home leave in combination with other leaves of absence in accordance with established agency policy.

(c) Limitations. An agency may grant home leave only:

(1) For use in the United States, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or a territory or possession of the United States; and

(2) During an employee’s period of service abroad, or within a reasonable period after his return from service abroad when it is contemplated that he will return to service abroad imme-
