

§ 364.5

(2) The field office must remove and destroy the posters by the end of their shelf life. The field office also may remove posters that they believe have ceased to be of assistance in locating and recovering missing children.

§ 364.5 Further study of the use of penalty mail in the location and recovery of missing children.

(a) Criteria. The Board shall continue to study different alternatives for using penalty mail to assist in the location and recovery of missing children. In order to implement a proposal, it must:

(1) Be cost effective; and

(2) Fulfill the goal of aiding in the location and recovery of missing children.

(b) Requirements. In any program, the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children shall select the missing children and the information about these children, which may include a photograph, that will be used by the Board. Proposals must provide for the removal of this material before the end of its shelf life.

AUTHORITY: 29 U.S.C. 794.

SOURCE: 53 FR 43434, Oct. 27, 1988, unless otherwise noted.

§ 365.101 Purpose.

The purpose of this part is to effectuate section 119 of the Rehabilitation, Comprehensive Services, and Developmental Disabilities Amendments of 1978, which amended section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 to prohibit discrimination on the basis of handicap in programs or activities conducted by Executive agencies or the United States Postal Service.

§ 365.102 Application.

This regulation (§§ 365.101 through 365.170) applies to all programs or activities conducted by the agency, except for programs or activities conducted outside the United States that do not involve individuals with handicaps in the United States.

§ 365.103 Definitions.

For purposes of this part, the term—
Agency means Railroad Retirement Board.

Assistant Attorney General means the Assistant Attorney General, Civil Rights Division, United States Department of Justice.

Auxiliary aids means services or devices that enable persons with impaired sensory, manual, or speaking skills to have an equal opportunity to participate in, and enjoy the benefits of, programs or activities conducted by the agency. For example, auxiliary aids useful for persons with impaired vision include readers, brailled materials, audio recordings, and other similar services and devices. Auxiliary aids useful for persons with impaired hearing include telephone handset amplifiers, telephones compatible with hearing aids, telecommunications devices for deaf person (TDD's), interpreters, notetakers, written materials, and other similar services and devices.

Board means the three-member board, appointed pursuant to 45 U.S.C. 231f, which heads the agency.

Chief Executive Officer means the Chief Executive Officer of the Railroad Retirement Board. This individual is the chief operating officer of the agency.
