

benefit of a person whose property or interests in property are blocked pursuant to Sec. 593.201(a). For purposes of this part, a contribution or donation is made by, to, or for the benefit of a person whose property or interests in property are blocked pursuant to Sec. 593.201(a) if made by, to, or in the name of such a person; if made by, to, or in the name of an entity or individual acting for or on behalf of, or owned or controlled by, such a person; or if made in an attempt to violate, to evade, or to avoid the bar on the provision of contributions or donations by, to, or for such a person.

§ 593.409 Credit extended and cards issued by U.S. financial institutions.

The prohibition in § 593.201 on dealing in property subject to that section prohibits U.S. financial institutions from performing under any existing credit agreements, including, but not limited to, charge cards, debit cards, or other credit facilities issued by a U.S. financial institution to a person whose property and interests in property are blocked pursuant to § 593.201(a).

§ 593.410 Setoffs prohibited.

A setoff against blocked property (including a blocked account), whether by a U.S. bank or other U.S. person, is a prohibited transfer under § 593.201 if effected after the effective date.

§ 593.411 Importation into the United States.

With respect to the prohibitions set forth in § 593.205, the term importation into the United States generally means the bringing of any such products into the United States. In the case of round logs or timber products originating in Liberia being transported by vessel, importation into the United States means the bringing of any such products into the United States with the intent to unlade. See also § 593.413 and § 593.510.

§ 593.412 Release of any round log or timber product originating in Liberia from a bonded warehouse or foreign trade zone.

(a) The prohibitions in § 593.205 apply to importation into a bonded warehouse or a foreign trade zone in the United States.

(b) Section 593.205 does not prohibit the release from a bonded warehouse or foreign trade zone of any round log or timber product originating in Liberia imported into a bonded warehouse or foreign trade zone either prior to the effective date or in a transaction authorized pursuant to this part on or after the effective date.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this section, any round log or timber product originating in Liberia in which persons whose property and interests in property are blocked pursuant to § 593.201(a) have an interest may not be released unless authorized by the Office of Foreign Assets Control.

NOTE TO § 593.412. See § 593.510.

§ 593.413 Transshipment or transit through the United States prohibited.

Except as otherwise specified:

(a) The prohibitions in § 593.205 apply to the importation into the United States, for transshipment or transit to third countries, of any round log or timber product originating in Liberia.

(b) In the case of any round log or timber product originating in Liberia, the prohibitions in § 593.205 apply to the unloading in the United States and the intent to unlade in the United States of such products intended or destined for third countries.

NOTE TO § 593.413. See § 593.510.

Subpart E—Licenses, Authorizations and Statements of Licensing Policy

§ 593.501 General and specific licensing procedures.

For provisions relating to licensing procedures, see part 501, subpart E of this chapter. Licensing actions taken pursuant to part 501 of this chapter with respect to the prohibitions contained in this part are considered actions taken pursuant to this part.

§ 593.502 Effect of license or authorization.

(a) No license or other authorization contained in this part, or otherwise issued by or under the direction of the Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control, authorizes or validates any transaction effected prior to the issuance of such license or other authorization, unless specifically provided in such license or authorization.

(b) No regulation, ruling, instruction, or license authorizes any transaction prohibited under this part unless the regulation, ruling, instruction, or license is issued by the Office of Foreign Assets Control and specifically refers to this part. No regulation, ruling, instruction, or license referring to this part shall be deemed to authorize any transaction prohibited by any provision of this chapter unless the regulation, ruling, instruction, or license specifically refers to such provision.

(c) Any regulation, ruling, instruction, or license authorizing any transaction otherwise prohibited under this part has the effect of removing a prohibition contained in this part from the transaction, but only to the extent specifically stated by its terms. Unless the regulation, ruling, instruction, or license otherwise specifies, such an authorization does not create any right, duty, obligation, claim, or interest in, or with respect to, any property which would not otherwise exist under ordinary principles of law.

§ 593.503 Exclusion from licenses.

The Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control reserves the right to exclude any person, property, or transaction from the operation of any license or from the privileges conferred by any license. The Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control also reserves the right to restrict the applicability of any license to particular persons, property, transactions, or classes thereof. Such actions are binding upon all persons receiving actual or constructive notice of the exclusions or restrictions.

§ 593.504 Payments and transfers to blocked accounts in U.S. financial institutions.

Any payment of funds or transfer of credit in which a person whose property and interests in property are blocked pursuant to § 593.201(a) has any interest that comes within the possession or control of a U.S. financial institution must be blocked in an account on the books of that financial institution. A transfer of funds or credit by a U.S. financial institution between blocked accounts in its branches or offices is authorized, provided that no transfer is made from an account within the United States to an account held outside the United States, and further provided that a transfer from a blocked account may be made only to another blocked account held in the same name.

NOTE TO § 593.504: Please refer to § 501.603 of this chapter for mandatory reporting requirements regarding financial transfers. See also § 593.203 concerning the obligation to hold blocked funds in interest-bearing accounts.

§ 593.505 Entries in certain accounts for normal service charges authorized.

(a) A U.S. financial institution is authorized to debit any blocked account held at that financial institution in payment or reimbursement for normal service charges owed it by the owner of that blocked account.

(b) As used in this section, the term normal service charges shall include charges in payment or reimbursement for interest due; cable, telegraph, internet, or telephone charges; postage costs; custody fees; small adjustment charges to correct bookkeeping errors; and, but not by way of limitation, minimum balance charges, notary and protest fees, and charges for reference books, photocopies, credit reports, transcripts of statements, registered mail, insurance, stationery and supplies, and other similar items.

§ 593.506 Investment and reinvestment of certain funds.

Subject to the requirements of § 593.203, U.S. financial institutions are authorized to invest and reinvest assets blocked pursuant to § 593.201, subject to the following conditions:

(a) The assets representing such investments and reinvestments are credited to a blocked account or sub-account which is held in the same name at the same U.S. financial institution, or within the possession or control of a U.S. person, but funds shall not be transferred outside the United States for this purpose;
