203.905 Procedures for investigating complaints.
The following procedures apply to DoD instead of the procedures at FAR 3.905:
(1) The DoD Inspector General will make a determination as to whether a complaint is frivolous or merits further investigation.
(2) If the DoD Inspector General determines that a complaint merits further investigation, the DoD Inspector General will—
   (i) Notify the complainant, the contractor alleged to have committed the violation, and the head of the agency;
   (ii) Conduct an investigation; and
   (iii) Provide a written report of findings to the complainant, the contractor alleged to have committed the violation, and the head of the agency.
(3) The DoD Inspector General—
   (i) Will determine that the complaint is frivolous or will submit the report addressed in paragraph (2) of this section within 180 days after receiving the complaint; and
   (ii) If unable to submit a report within 180 days, will submit the report within the additional time period to which the person submitting the complaint agrees.

203.906 Remedies.
(1) Not later than 30 days after receiving a DoD Inspector General report in accordance with 203.905, the head of the agency—
   (i) Shall determine whether sufficient basis exists to conclude that the contractor has subjected one of its employees to a reprisal as prohibited by 203.903; and
   (ii) Shall issue an order denying relief or shall take one or more of the actions specified in FAR 3.906(a).
(2) If the head of the agency issues an order denying relief or has not issued an order within 210 days after the submission of the complaint or within 30 days after the expiration of an extension of time granted in accordance with 203.905(3)(ii), and there is no showing that such delay is due to the bad faith of the complainant—
   (i) The complainant shall be deemed to have exhausted all administrative remedies with respect to the complaint; and
   (ii) The complainant may bring a de novo action at law or equity against the contractor to seek compensatory damages and other relief available under 10 U.S.C. 2409 in the appropriate district court of the United States, which shall have jurisdiction over such an action without regard to the amount in controversy. Such an action shall, at the request of either party to the action, be tried by the court with a jury.
(3) An Inspector General determination and an agency head order denying relief under paragraph (2) of this section shall be admissible in evidence in any de novo action at law or equity brought pursuant to 10 U.S.C. 2409(c).
